The College Girl as Cypher

You, corn-field blond and blue-skyed, bountiful college girl among bored nations, bounding along in your new sneakers, your wit openly declared on your t-shirt, to me, a primitive soul, you are Desire streamlined, sans memory, and yet, and yet, unbidden in a paranoid moment, your smile can slip into an Aztec skull's and in the infinite fields the cobs are sudden warheads.

You, Sexy, are atavistic, that time-out when, in a distant outpost of the faltering Empire, an infantry-man, homesick, pictures his Iowa.
