MARK IRWIN

Ghost

Now your name's just a guest here, one that cancels all hellos. Fleshless you come & go through the mansion of air. How will I address you, small weather? Sometimes your name's a dress like an iron

bell the years
swing shadows from longer that home. Can you hear that word peal? I'm going there now,

carrying the windows
from inside
all the vowels.
