Shorn · Laura Jensen

When she'd heard every word she wanted another one.
Zhirz, her mother said.

When the patched dragon echoed in,
Zhirz, she said,
and the dragon swayed and scratched at its chest. When they sheared her head, parted her hair from her head, she swore she'd heard every word. She said zhirz, zhirz, and they said dichotomy. She smeared the mucus and tears from her snout and went to the dictionary. Separation, she read, and hair sprouted.

Growth, plants, planets, half-of-a-moon, she read, and her hair radiated. Zhirz, she said.

It meant, radiate.
