Bibliography History of International Economic and Commercial Law (BiHIECL)

version 1.0 (1 June 2024) - D. De ruysscher

Introduction

This bibliography, as it stands now, contains monographs, chapters and articles (not primary sources), written in English, French, Italian, German, Spanish and Dutch, that were published from 1870. The geographical scope is limited to Europe and the Americas. As concerns Europe, no references regarding Antiquity are included (except for the Roman law on partnership and insolvency). Attention is paid to Nordic, Arab and Jewish influences. Some source editions of treaties are mentioned. In the future, this bibliography will be expanded to include source editions and doctrinal texts, of both before and after 1900.

The following themes are addressed:

The history of the history of commercial law

Handbooks of the history of commercial law

Histories of national commercial law
