

The Great War: From Memory to History

10 November 2011

|  |
|--|
| 1800-1900 – RegistrationGunnery Ballroom.  |
| 1900-2100 – ReceptionGunnery Ballroom.Chair Jonathan Vance The University of Western OntarioElizabeth Kemp Baker Collateral DamageAnne Hume Brothers in the Great War |

11 November 2011

|   |   |
|---|---|
| 0730-0830 – Breakfast/RegistrationOfficers Mess.  |   |
| 0830-1000 – Plenary Session, Gunnery Ballroom.Roundtable Discussion – The Great War and EducationChair Jonathan Vance The University of Western OntarioLaura Fasick Minnesota State, Moorhead Wars Change but Trauma RemainsRobert Cupido Mount Alison University Keeping the Myth Alive: The Great War in the Canadian ClassroomAmy McNall London Central Secondary SchoolLaura Fraser  |   |
| 1000-1200 – No sessionsMunicipal Remembrance Day service, Victoria Park.  |   |
| 1200-1245– LunchGunnery Ballroom.   |   |
| 1245-1400 – Concurrent Session 1 - Salon A/BIndigenous MemoriesChair Whitney Lackenbauer University of Waterloo, St Jerome's UniversityTimothy Winegard The University of Western OntarioCanadian Indians and the Great War for CivilizationKatherine McGowan University of WaterlooQuestion of Caste and Colour: Native Women and the First World WarScott Sheffield University of the Fraser ValleyThe Great War and the Shaping of Indigenous Responses to the Second World War in Australia, Canada, New Zealand and the United States | 1245-1400 – Concurrent Session 2 - Salon C/DHeroesChair Brandon Dimmel The University of Western OntarioThomas Hodd Université de MonctonThe Writer-Soldier as Historian: Charles G.D. Roberts, the CWRO, and the Canada in Flanders seriesRobert Morley University of SaskatchewanConstructing the "Ace": Feature Films in the Interwar Period and the Great War in the AirDonna Coates University of CalgaryBrenda Walker's Challenge to the Anzac Legend in her Great War Novel The Wing of Night |
| 1400-1415 – Break   |   |
|   |   |

|  |   |
|--|---|
| 1415-1530 - Concurrent Session 3 - Salon A/BCase Studies in Canadian MemoryChair Tracy Ware Queen's UniversityWilliam Stewart University of BirminghamHistory Trumps Memory: The Strange Case of Sir Richard TurnerMartin Loesch University of Graz"Lest We Forget": Remembering the First World War in Contemporary Anglo-Canadian FictionZachary Abram University of OttawaCanon Fodder: Canadian Canonicity, the Erasure of Great War narratives and the Self Conscious Re-invention of Canadian Cultural Identity  | 1415-1530 - Concurrent Session 4 - Salon C/DMementosChair Andrew Iarocci The University of Western OntarioMark A. R. Facknitz James Madison UniversityKitsch and the Arrest of Collective MourningAlicia Robinet The University of Western Ontario'We Shall Keep the Faith': The Semiotics of the Poppy in Great War Verse and Contemporary CommemorationJoanna Scutts Columbia UniversityBattlefield Tours, Battlefield Tourists: Then and Now |
| 1530-1545 – Coffee Break  |   |
| 1545-1700 - Concurrent Session 5- Salon A/BHealing NarrativesChair Carroll Iwasiw The University of Western OntarioAlice Kelly University of Cambridge'Every day and every night, for a long time, some one died': Representations of Death in Nurses' Narratives of the Great WarCarol Acton University of Waterloo, St Jerome's UniversityKitchener's Tourists': voices from wartime hospital shipsSarah Glassford University of Ottawa andAmy Shaw University of LethbridgeA Sisterhood of Suffering and Service: Writing Canadian and Newfoundland Women and Girls Back Into the First World War | 1545-1700 - Concurrent Session 6 - Salon C/DWhite ColoniesChair Francine McKenzie The University of Western OntarioGeoff Keelan University of WaterlooThe Forgotten Few: French Canadians and the Great WarRichard Grayson Goldsmiths, University of London.Ireland and the Great War: Memory, History and PoliticsJane McGaughey Royal Military College of CanadaMen of Suvla: The Legacy of Gallipoli in Ireland and Newfoundland             |
| 1900 – Dinner and Plenary AddressGunnery BallroomTerry Copp, Nick Lachance, Matt Symes Wilfrid Laurier UniversityCanadian Battlefields 1915-1918: A Visitor's Guide  |   |

12 November 2011

|   |   |
|---|---|
| 0800-0900 – Breakfast/Registration - Officer's Mess.  |   |
| 0900-1015 – Concurrent Session 7 - Salon A/B Imagining Friends and Allies           Chair Brock Millman The University of Western Ontario Dan Bullard York University 'Loyal until Death: African Veterans' Memory of War Service: 1919-1943 Brian MacDowall York University 'Loyal and Civilized': Aboriginal Soldiers, the Department of Indian Affairs, and the Production of a Collective Memory, 1916-1940 Kris Radford York University The Chamber of Princes: The Great War and the Contested Vision of India's Future  | 0900-1015 – Concurrent Session 8 - Salon C/D Memory Re-Imagined           Chair Kirsty Robertson The University of Western Ontario Marzena Sokolowska-Paryz University of Warsaw The Great War in Popular Detective Fiction Michele Wijegoonaratna Institute of Fine Arts, New York University Otto Dix and the Great War: Reality, Memory and the Construction of Identity in the portfolio War of 1924 Maggie Atkinson Memorial University, Grenfell Campus Visions of 'Blighty'   |
| 1015-1030 – Coffee Break  |   |
| 1030-1200 - Concurrent Session 9 - Salon A/B Memory Outside the Nation           Chair Charles Mackenzie The University of Western Ontario Veysel Simsek McMaster University From "Backstabbing Arabs" to "Deserting Kurds": Reading nationalism through Turkish accounts of World War I Patricia Rae Queen's University 'I Sing of My Comrades': Reconsidering the Elegies of The Great War and the Spanish Civil War Wolfram Dornik Graz Universitat The experience of the First World War in Eastern Europe by Austro-Hungarian soldiers  | 1030-1200 - Concurrent Session 10 - Salon C/D Painful Legacies           Chair Chris Schultz The University of Western Ontario Kerry Neale University of New South Wales at the Australian Defence Force Academy With tin noses and copper moustaches: post-war experiences of disfigured Great War veterans in Britain and the Dominions Kellen Kurschinski McMaster University Broken Bodies and Shattered Nerves: Remembering and Forgetting the Disabled Soldiers of Canada's Great War Amy Tector Library and Archives Canada Limping Heroes: The Static Representation of disability in Canadian Great War Fiction |
| 1200-1300 – Lunch - Gunnery Ballroom.   |   |
| 1300-1415 – Concurrent Session 11- Salon A/B Remembering Big Events           Chair Manina Jones The University of Western Ontario Clare Rhoden University of Melbourne The Big Bang Theory: Australia Starts at Gallipoli Paul Miller University of Birmingham, Centre for First World War Studies; and McDaniel College Yugoslav Eulogies: Remembering the Sarajevo Assassination Amelia Lubowitz The University of Western Ontario Continued Commemorations: Twenty-First Century Representations of the Vimy Monument in Jane Urquhart's The Stone Carvers and the Canadian War Museum | 1300-1415 – Concurrent Session 12 - Salon C/D From Diaries to Memories           Chair Kristine Alexander The University of Western Ontario James Hurst The Australian National University As Free From Truth As A Frog From Feathers: Interpreting personal narratives of the Gallipoli Campaign, Anzac, 1915 Bart Ziino Deakin University 'Dad's War Diaries': Family remembering and the Great War James Wallis University of Exeter Scales of Remembrance: Amateur Genealogy and the First World War   |
|   |   |

|   |  |
|---|--|
| 1415-1430 – Break   |  |
| 1430-1545- Concurrent Session 13 - Salon A/BRediscovering MemoriesChair Alicia Robinet The University of Western OntarioRebecca Borden University of Maryland, College ParkThe Great War 1.0: Rediscovering the Wartime Fiction of H.G. Wells and Ford Madox FordBette London University of RochesterThe Names of the Dead: Shot at Dawn and the Politics of RemembranceMary G. Chaktsiris Queen’s UniversitySilencing the Guns? Bridging Public and Historical Debates about the Great War in Canada | 1430-1545 - Concurrent Session 14 - Salon C/DMemory in AmericaChair Jonathan Weier The University of Western OntarioKimberly LaMay University at AlbanyA Story Untold: The Failure of State War HistoriesEdward Gutiérrez University of HartfordFaded Memories and Shaky Pens: Doughboys Remember the Great War in a Country that ForgotMary Osborne University of KentuckyAgents of Remembrance: The American Legion’s Role in the Origins of Indiana’s War Memorial, 1919-1925 |
| 1545-1600 – Coffee Break –  |  |
| 1600-1730 - Concurrent Session 15 - Salon A/BAlternate MemoriesChair David Darby The University of Western OntarioTony Fong University of TorontoSilent Memorials: The Great War in Hemingway’s A Moveable FeastDennis Duffy University of TorontoThe Strange, Second Death of Lewis R. YeallandNick Milne University of OttawaThe War that Never Was: Alternate Histories of the Great War   | 1600-1730 - Concurrent Session 16 - Salon C/DRebuilding the PeaceChair Richard Holt The University of Western OntarioWesley Gustavson The University of Western OntarioSanity and Self Control: The IWGC and the promotion of Peace and EmpireJohn Matchim Memorial University of NewfoundlandA thoroughly reliable man: The struggle to find a place in post-war Newfoundland and LabradorRebecca Campbell The University of Western OntarioThe View From Vimy Ridge            |
| 1900 – Dinner and Plenary Address - Gunnery BallroomMark Connelly University of Kent - ‘Let us die manfully for our brethren’: Commemorating the Battle of the Falkland Islands, December 1914  |  |