The 1940 LES BOIS

WAYNE CLARK, Jr. - - Editor-In-Chief
GLENN DAVIS, Jr. - - Business Manager

FOREWORD MESSAGE

Permit me to extend my congratulations and those of the Fifty Years of Statehood Committee to the Boise Junior College for having dedicated this yearbook to the theme of Idaho's fiftieth anniversary.

Citizens of Idaho, and particularly the youth of this State, have every reason to be proud of the history of the commonwealth and you are to be commended for adding this valued contribution to the general observance of this anniversary.

Governor.

GOVERNOR BOTTOLFSEN

This 1940 Les Bois is

DEDICATED

to OLIVER O. HAGA
Chairman of the Board of Trustees

MEMORIAM

By the Sophomore Class
to its friend
and classmate
ROY MacGEE

ADMINISTRATION

President Eugene B. Chaffee

President Chaffee and Junior College started out together in '32. He was appointed to the presidency in '36.

"Gene" is the friend of every student because of his personal interest, his informality, and magnetic personality.

BOARD of TRUSTEES

Baird, Chapman, Potter, Budge

KNIGHTS

President	-	-	-	-	-	William Rogers
Secretary	-	-	-	-	-	Ernest Retzlaff
Treasurer	-	-	-	-	-	Dwayne Moulton

Back Row—Hardt, Fisher, Fraser, Holliday, Harris, Barber, Davis, Retzlaff, Cook, Gray
Front Row—Havers, Covington, Moulton, Rogers, Bergquist, Griffin

The Knights is a men's service organization. Their function is to usher at assemblies and other school affairs. These boys deserve great credit for their courtesy and efficient way of handling our congested student body at various functions.

The Knights initiated their members with a very colorful form of hazing a few weeks after the beginning of the school year. Twelve members were chosen from the freshman class to carry the honor of the Knights.

VALKYRIES

1939 - 1940

President - - - Bettina Kroeger
Vice-President - Jacquelyn Mitchel
Secretary - Helen Marr Archibald
Advisor - - - - Mrs. Ada Hatch

1940 - 1941

President - - - - Winona Ellis
Vice-President - - - Elise Smith
Secretary - - Emma Jane Heisner
Advisor - - - - Mrs. Ada Hatch

Back Row—Sellars, Collins, Baxter, Schooler, Ash, Barbour, Caine, Rowell, Burns, Steele, Westfall, Reed, Uberuaga, Uranga, Atkinson

The Valkyries is a women's service organization. Each year scholarships are given for their own members and other deserving girls. Services include the selling of candy at football games and basketball games, and serving at parties. The club was expanded this year from fifteen to twenty-five members because of the increased school enrollment. Their specialty is an annual dinner-dance.

In Mythology, the Valkyries carried the dead soldiers to "Valhalla". The northern lights are said to be the reflections of their shields as they ride on winged horses. Carry on, Valkyries!

"B-CUBES"

President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Dorothy Kroeger
Vice-President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Mary Ertter
Secretary	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Jane Schooler

Front Row—Kroeger, Westfall, Schooler, Fitzgerald, Pearson, Caine, Peterson, Vogel, Heisner, Long, Ash, Barbour, Montgomery, Reynolds, Taylor, Martin, Reddoch, Herzinger

All Freshman women of the college are members of the "B-Cubes". Their purpose is to serve in the social life of the school, and to learn the fundamentals of organized activities.

This year their social calendar was dotted with a fashion show, rummage sale, and a "Hen Hop", all given for the purpose of raising money to banquet our victorious football team.

FORENSIC CLUB

President - - - - - John Faught
Secretary-Treasurer - - - - - Arthur Romig

Back Row—Kearns, Maule, Fisher, Davis, Romig, Harter, Anderson, Fraser
Front Row—Faught, Reed, Werry, Herzinger, Branson, Thomas

The Forensic Club is an established club dealing in debate and parliamentary procedure. This club holds regular meetings and discusses topics pertaining to American interests. The members are very much concerned with the future of our war-torn world, and many lively debates are held, debating many sides of the question.

ASSOCIATED ENGINEERS

President - - - - - Betty Buck
Vice-President - - - - - Tom Barber
Secretary-Treasurer - - - - - Ivar Holliday

Back Row—Cruikshank, Buettner, Briggs, Hayman, Buck, Warwick, Meffan, Holliday
Front Row—Kiler, Maude, Gerber, Wilson, Olsen, Barber, Jossis, Nelson

The Engineers take field trips to further educate themselves in the field of engineering. Trips to the State Testing Laboratory were taken to view the machines used in testing the strength of different materials. The Idaho Power Company was host to the club members on one of these trips, showing their plant structure and other departments pertaining to the engineering field.

The Engineers presented a skit that won first prize from the entire faculty and student body.

ASSOCIATED FORESTERS

President - - - - - Roche Bush

Back Row—Canning, Bodine, Gray, Byers, Mr. Latimore, O'Neil, Engelquist, Christiansen, Schweitzer, Zink, Jacobs
Front Row—Foulke, DeForrest, Pease, Evans, Estell

This club is composed of the students taking forestry courses offered by the Boise Junior College. The club was originated for the purpose of taking field trips to the surrounding mountains with the view of learning forestry from first-hand information. Several trips were taken during the fall term. In the spring the foresters put in a week at a fire fighting training camp, where they received training in timber cruising, marking, mapping and other branches of the course.

The "Pre-Med" Club was established at Junior College in the interest of better futures for young doctors and nurses. Field trips pertaining to the medical profession were taken and proved to be of much value in that they served to stimulate interest. Several local physicians lectured on various phases of the medical field. The club at its regular meetings reviews the outstanding books in the field of medicine.

Officers of the club for the second and third terms were Harold Allendar, Melba Roberts, Dorothy Kroeger, and Joyce Rowell.

Vice-President - - - - - Ivar Holliday
Secretary-Treasurer - - - - - Bob Nelson

Back Row—Hayman, Havers, Holliday, Weber, Bilderback, Nelson
Front Row—Kiler, Buettner, Briggs, Cambell

Students interested in better photography organized this year to further develop the field. Meetings were held regularly with prominent Boise photographers giving lectures on various phases. Trips to various beauty spots, in and around the city, were taken. This club has a definite place in the promotion of interesting and remunerative hobbies for ambitious members.

TENNIS CLUB

President - - - - - Bud Davis
Vice-President - - - - - Tom Barber
Secretary-Treasurer - - - - - Alice Power

Center Row—Barber, Harter, Copenhaver, Werry, Reed, Power, Barbour

The club was organized this year to further develop the ever-increasing interest in tennis. Three courts with wire netting were constructed on a concrete base which was included in the donation made by the city to the Junior College. These are the only hard surface courts in the city of Boise.

The first tournament of its kind ever sponsored by the Tennis Club was held in the spring with all of the nearby colleges participating. Doctor Haines was this year's coach.

LIBRARY STAFF

The school library this year was located in the east wing, the former assembly hall. With such a large student body, it was necessary to increase the size of last year's library as well as the staff. A great many books and references have been added, and the spacious room is active all hours of the day.

Mary Bedford is Librarian. Those assisting her were: Emily Bohlin, Genevieve Grant, Lillian Chapman, Florence Thompson, Frances Matthews, Eileen Schroff, Virginia Wilson, Anna Ourada, Lois Fisher, Lucille Day.

The Associated Women is composed of all the women of the college. This year the A. W. sold forget-me-nots for the Daughters of the American Veterans. The committee was headed by Phyllis McQueen, with Joyce Rowell, Miriam Vernon, Margueritte Collins, Rosemary Reed, and Eleanor Ray as her assistants.

Highlight of the year was the annual Sweethearts' Ball held in the Hotel Boise Crystal Ballroom.

CO-EDS

Modern dance numbers arranged by Miss Dale Whittemore were presented at the A. A. U. W. dinner held in Hotel Boise Crystal Ballroom, and at Music Week.

This group of seven girls from forty include: Jeanne Evans, Alice Oppenheim, Jackie Calhoun, Mary Elizabeth Hunter, Betty Taylor, Edith Gibbs, Mimi Loughry.

Anna Margaret Sellars, Kay Ash, Alice Power

AT PLAY

Junior College co-eds seem to like the new building even though it isn't yet completed. Dedication day found the new campus swarming with students.

A. A. U. W. GARDEN PARTY

Boise Junior College's present campus was the scene of a garden party, May 18, an annual affair sponsored by the American Association of University Women. Proceeds of this benefit bridge tea party went into a scholarship fund.

Present co-ed students who assisted were: Barbara Cornell, Joyce Burns, Helen Caine, Betty Lough, Eleanor Eakin, and Dorothy Jean Baker.

A. W. TEA FOR HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

High School senior girls were entertained at a tea given by the Associated Women of B. J. C., May 7. Girls from Boise, Franklin, and St. Teresa's High Schools were received.

Those in the receiving line were: Mrs. Roland M. Power, Dean of Women; Mrs. Eugene Chaffee, Dorothy Jean Baker, Helen Caine, Eleanor Eakin, Kathleen Ash, Phyllis McQueen, and members of the Faculty.

Power, Chaffee, Baker, Caine, Eakin, Ash, McQueen

Co-eds plan most of the social affairs at Junior College. Numerous dances were held during the year, at Talbot Gymnasium, Elk's Ballroom, and Hotel Boise Crystal Ballroom. Students who demand a little mental diversion turn out en masse at these functions.

Variety and originality were expressed in such themes as the Artist's Ball, Sweetheart's Ball, and Valkyrie Dinner Dance.

The ROUNDUP again increased its space this year, with nearly twice as large a working staff as that of last year. Issues appeared regularly every two weeks, and all staff members, as well as journalism enrollees, had their turns at selling advertising.

Bettina Kroeger was all-year editor, and Ernest Retzlaff, business manager. Dwight Mitchell was staff advisor.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

The Social Committee arranges all social events of the student body. Helen Marr Archibald was chairman of this active group, assisted by Dick Armstrong, Dolly Bates, Julie Uberuaga, Joe Gough, James Armstrong and Gene Frazier.

Armstrong, Armstrong, Bates, Frazier, Uberuaga, Archibald, Gough

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

The job of scheduling weekly assemblies was assigned to this committee. Committee members were Lois Malnati, Ralph Fraser, Emily Foster and Chris Alexander.

Malnati, Frazer, Foster, Alexander

ACAPELLA CHOIR

The A CAPELLA CHOIR was organized as an extra-curricular activity to give opportunity to all vocally-minded students. For the past few years the choir has taken a tour of southern Idaho, with appearances in most of the churches and high schools. During the Christmas season it appeared at a candlelight service at St. Michael's Cathedral. The choir of forty-five members is directed by James L. Strachan.

ENSEMBLE GROUPS

Knight, Rose, Anderson, Ide, Bush, Vernon

Harris, Thomas, Caine

The men's and women's ensemble groups are under the direction of Lucille T. Forter. They sing at assemblies, churches and local clubs, presenting both sacred and secular numbers.

GIRLS' ENSEMBLE

Mrs. Forter, Harris, Varkas, Rowell, Montgomery, Blair, Fitzgerald, Thomas, Foster, Caine, Waring

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The Junior College Symphony Orchestra of thirty-five members is composed of students and other Boise enthusiasts. Professor James L. Strachan's splendid musical background, fine interpretation, and choice of programs gives instrumentalists opportunity for valuable music development.

DRAMATICS

THE LATE CHRISTOPHER BEAN

THE LATE CHRISTOPHER BEAN, directed by Miss Dale Whittemore, was presented by the Junior College Dramatic Department; May 18, at L. D. S. First Ward. Production was made by special arrangement with Samuel French of New York.

Sidney Howard's prize winner became a Junior College success as mad scrambles were made to locate valuable discarded daubings. Doris Vining portrayed Abby, a lovable simple girl, to whom Christopher Bean was an unmercenary memory of distant happiness. Prominent in other roles were Dorothy Barbour, Barbara Cornell, Lillian Chapman, Charles Ide, Dee Anderson, Buehl Hewett, James Sales, and David Fisher.

MODERN LANGUAGE

The eighth annual Modern Language Night was presented March 9 at L. D. S. Auditorium. Camille Power directed French and Spanish productions, and Elsie McFarland directed the German.

LAS CODORNICES by Vital Aza included Barbara Cornell, Eugene Frazier, Jane Harris, Eldred Renk, Norman Burke, and John Templeton.

L'ETRANGLEUSE (the strangler) by Tristan Bernard exposes a murderous plot between Joyce Burns as Florestine, and David Fisher as Le Grand Bibi. Others in the cast were Emily Bohl'n, William Woods, and Chris Alexander.

DIE SONNTAGSJAEGER by Roderich Benedix spells trouble and expense for two unfortunate hunters who are unable to find anything to shoot. Donald Howard took the part of the hunting father, Helen Marr Archibald was his wife, and Robert Davidson was the other hunter. Minor roles were filled by Harriete Thomas, Alan Hugo, Monroe Carver, Eldred Renk, Harriet Westfall, Emily Foster, Robert Monk, James Sales, Joseph Kannegaard, Jeanne Steele and Joyce Rowell.

A TRADITION FULFILLED

For the past five years Boise Junior College has elected from its student body a Representative Man and Woman. The Valkyries elect the Campus King from all eligible sophomores. The B. J. C. Lettermen's Club elects the Campus Queen in the same manner. Football Queen is chosen by the football team and members of the B. J. C. Club, and crowned at the Football Dance following the banquet. Members of the team also choose their captain, who has the honor of escorting and crowning the new queen.

Jack Kelly, Campus King, was an outstanding basketball forward this year. Elise Smith, Campus Queen, was active in Valkyrie affairs. Tom Barber, Representative Man, held first position on the tennis team. Helen Marr Archibald, Representative Woman, was this year's social chairman, and held Valkyrie office. Dolly Bates, Football Queen, was also active in Valkyrie affairs as well as Les Bois. Lee Harter, Football Captain, was B. J. C. Club vice-president.

COACH HARRY JACOBY

Coach Jacoby supervises the Physical Education department and is in charge of all inter-mural sports at Junior College. Jacoby starts his third year as mentor after coaching a winning team this year.

"Have you got it?" . . . shouts King of Cheer, Bill Stevens, while Yell Duke, Joe Gough, and Yell Duchess, Ginger Linn, assist. The yell leaders, with the help of the Valkyries and the Intercollegiate Knights, have climaxed a successful year of promoting rallies and coordinating yells.

ALBION NORMAL

September 29 the Broncs opened their 1939 football season against the Albion Normal Panthers on our home field.

This was a game with the inexperienced Junior College pitted against the experienced normal squad.

During the game the Broncs made several spectacular plays but failed to score. The final score was 16-0 in favor of Albion Normal.

Ed. Brown

E. O. N.

After a previous defeat the Broncs smothered the Eastern Oregon Normal with a 7-0 victory.

A spectacular run of 74 yards was made by Lee Harter. This run was made effective by the team's downfield blocking.

SHAW, Halfback
THORNE, Tackle

AT LEWISTON

Boise Junior College travelled to Lewiston to win their final game of the 1939 season 20 - 7, October 11.

This was the only game in which the Broncs scored in the last half.

AT CALDWELL

Junior College pushed the favored Coyotes around at will to lead by a score of 13 - 7 at the end of the half.

Due to reserve player efficiency, the Coyotes broke a tie with a spectacular run in the last minute of the game to win a 21 - 13 victory.

DUDLEY, Halfback

BOISE ALL STARS

The Broncos outfought the All-Stars, a group of former college players, on October 13.

This was a hard-played game with the Broncos coming out on the long end of a 12 - 9 score.

RICK'S VIKINGS

Boise Junior College broke into the win column again by defeating Rick's Vikings, 21-14, in our homecoming game, November 4.

The Broncs scored all their points in the first half and hung onto their lead throughout the whole game.

The game was packed with thrills because of the spectacular playing of both teams.

BASKETBALL

Squad members are: Stan Jones, Harland Storey, Darrell Parente, George Ettles, Steve Canning, John Gray, Leonard Robinson, Jack Kelley, and Irvin Talboy.

KELLY

Junior College obtained the Boise "Y" B League championship cup last year. This year they brought home the Idaho A. A. U. championship cup.

COLLEGE OF IDAHO

Junior College played outstanding ball for the season's first game, considering that the majority of players were first year men. A 38 - 30 defeat left a bad taste in the mouth of College of Idaho, Northwest Conference members.

February 20, the Broncs defeated the Coyotes a second time by a larger score of 37 - 47. The third defeat for the Coyotes came in the A. A. U. tournament.

MANAGERS

Jack Thorne and Henry Hardt

IDAHO SOUTHERN BRANCH

First defeat for Junior College came from the hands of a fast, rangy Southern Branch quint, 56 - 26.

On February 3, Junior College lost to the Branch again, 45 - 28. Southern Branch, the only team to hold two wins over the College, also participated in the A. A. U. tournament in Denver.

ALBION NORMAL

Taking and holding an early lead, Junior College defeated a stubborn Albion Normal, 42 - 39.

February 22, again effecting a comfortable lead in spite of the Teachers' rally in the second half, the Broncs came out winner, 44 - 43.

Gray

E. O. N. at LA GRANDE

A close-fought game up to the last quarter, with two Bronc players out of the game via the foul route, netted Junior College a 58 - 45 defeat at the hands of the tall lads from Eastern Oregon Normal.

On February 23, the losers retaliated and sent the invading Mountaineers home with a 49 - 40 defeat ringing in their ears.

LEWISTON NORMAL at LEWISTON

Travelling into northern territory, the Broncs lost a hard-fought game to Lewiston Normal, 39 - 30.

On February 9, to compensate the earlier defeat, Junior College trampled the Normal, 47 - 41.

WEISER INSTITUTE

Working systematically from the whistle, a stimulated Bronc team scored an easy victory, 52 - 37, over the Weiser Institute.

They repeated a 48 - 39 victory the following night, January 19.

Talboy
Ettles
Robinson

NORTHWEST NAZARENE

On February 16, Junior College Broncs trounced a favored Nazarene College team, 39 - 37, at Boise.

The following night the two teams met on Nazarene ground, and Junior College came out on the short end of a 37 - 32 score.

TRACK

The B. J. C. turnout for track this season was very small, due to the fact that this is the first year track has been a major spring activity.

Many of the boys show promise, and next year Jacoby expects to have one of the best track teams in this part of the state.

YOU INHERIT A LAND BUILT
BY INDIVIDUAL ENTERPRISE—

... Together with your inheritance you must shoulder a responsibility to carry on the constructive principles of individual enterprise, without which American Democracy itself cannot endure. Wherever your home may be you will be obliged to build for the welfare of your community and for its people. Upon you will depend the further progress of our schools, churches, playgrounds, civic improvements, and government. Independent business has built Idaho and all America thus far; no other scheme of ownership can take its place; no other system can perpetuate our individual freedom which we Americans value so highly.

EDITOR'S APPRECIATION

This is the last year at Junior College for many of us. Others fill our places in class rooms, at dances, at athletic games.

This year will be the most important in Junior College history, because from a distance, drawing nearer and nearer, suddenly looms up magnificent buildings, rolling green lawns, and extensive walks. A dream becomes a reality, and a heretofore fostered Junior College gratefully gives thanks to a community and takes its place in the realm of Boise, the Beautiful.

It has been a great privilege to edit this 1940 Les Bois, and to have been able to use such an appropriate theme of Idaho as seen through the eyes of Boise Junior College.

To the members of the staff, Thanks: to you, Glenn Davis, as Business Manager, for your splendid management and cooperation; to you, Doyle Baird, as Associate Editor; to you, Dwayne Moulton, as Assistant Business Manager; to you, Joyce Burns, as Circulation Manager; to you, Pauline Baxter, for your untiring efforts as Secretarial Director; to you, Buell Hewitt, for your arrangements of Organizations; to you, Ivar Holliday, Allen Campbell, and Bob Nelson, for your swell photographic work; to you, Ralph Frazier, for snapshots; to you, Leonard Robinson, for your athletic contributions; to you, Dorothy Montgomery, Rita Weber, and Barbara Bilderback, for your mounting and Copy Desk work.

Keep and treasure this Les Bois as a remembrance of those glorious days of 1940 at Boise Junior College.

WAYNE CLARK, JR.,
Editor.
