New Scholarship Donated to College By Employees Group

A new $200 scholarship has been contributed to Boise Junior College by the Capitol Chapter of the Idaho State Employees Association. Dr. Eugene B. Chaffee, president, has announced.

"The fund is to provide two scholarships annually ranging from a minimum of $75 to a maximum of $125 for the purpose of paying the tuition of eligible students," the president explained.

The recipient should be a son or daughter of an employee working for the State of Idaho. He or she may be either a freshman or sophomore, and may be pursuing his education in any field.

In addition, to be eligible, applicants must be from the area encompassed by the State Employees Association Capitol Chapter. This includes the counties of Adams, Valley, Boise, Ada, Elmore and that part of Owyhee, south of the town of Murphy.

The scholarship funds can be used for the second semester of the 1963-64 year, and students who can qualify should contact Dr. Harry K. Fritchman, chairman of the Scholarship Awards Committee.

Council Selects Officers; New Cheerleaders Picked

Dick Wassmiller was elected chairman of the Presidents' Council at the first meeting. Rosalie Perry was chosen secretary. Chairmen and presidents of approximately 15 clubs and committees were introduced and plans for the upcoming year were discussed. The Presidents' Council is an advisory group to the various organizations on campus.

Cheerleaders Named

BJC's new cheerleaders are: Judy King, Payette; Renae Hammond, Sue Lee, Lavon Lang, Ruth McCall and Teresa Cengolita, all of Boise. Carol Cortes, Boise, was chosen as the freshman alternate. The cheerleaders were elected by the student body.

This Friday Is Deadline For Class Withdrawals

Dr. A. H. Chatburn, Dean of Faculty, wishes to remind students that Friday, October 4, is the last date of withdrawal for students without penalty for falling work. After this date, students may withdraw with a grade of "W" only if he is passing in the subject. Students who wish to withdraw or change classes should report to their advisors for assistance.

The Valkyrie used-book sale netted almost $2000, according to the club president, Linda Smith.

Come to the Hootenanny...

PRACTICING FOR THE HOOTENANNY are guitarists Bill Hart, Tim Bosworth and John Baugh (standing), surrounded by (from left) Warren Gibbons, C. J. Clark, Eusebio Villalobos, Erin Smith and Sal Cambareri. Eighteen performers will sing a medley of folk songs Friday, Oct. 4, at 9 p.m. in the SUB, ranging from "Slaver Man" (Mary Robbins) to "Go Down Moses" (Sally Barclay). The all-school program is being sponsored jointly by the Pi Sigma and Golden Z's. Emceeing the event will be Mr. Jack Natkin. Admission is 50 cents and refreshments will be served.

HOUSING NOTICE

Listings for housing near campus are now available for single men at the Dean of Men's office. Students changing housing must report to the Dean of Women or Dean of Men for approval so that records can be brought up to date.

Campus Drivers Reminded Of College Traffic Rules

Approximately 1300 parking permits have been issued to campus drivers from the Vice President's office. These include 1206 commuting permits, 38 dormitory and 54 College Courts parking permits.

All student drivers must display a decal on the car windshield at all times, for student parking. During the first week of school, 44 citations were issued, 38 of them for failure to display a parking decal.

Latest records in the Vice President's office showed 20 outstanding unpaid student parking fines, which must be paid within seven days.

College Band Accompanies Broncos On Colorado Junket Via Bus

By John C. Loucks

BJC's band embarked for Grand Junction, Colo. last Thursday, Sept. 24, at 10 p.m. Miss Helen Moore, Dean of Women, accompanied the band as chaperone. Also traveling to Mesa College were cheerleaders Judy King, Renae Hammond and Ruth McCall.

The musicians were: James Anderson, Ed Beasley, Carol Bjourner, Ron Brackett, Harold Bybee, Jeff Davis, Alice Dooley, Carol Dougal, Carol Edgerton, Gary Fuhrman, accidents requiring investigation," Dwight Dickey, assistant to the Vice President, pointed out.

Parking regulations and fine schedules are outlined in the Student Handbook. Of special notice are the 10-mile speed limits in the parking lots, and 15-mile limits elsewhere on the campus.

Pre-law student Gary Adams again is serving as "Campus Cop" to enforce the regulations and maintain BJC's safety record.

Kim Graves, Judy Graybeal, John Grossman, Bill Hill, David Hiner, Darrell Joiley, Roberta Lee, John Loucks, Keith May, Robert Mortenson, Carol Niece, Mary Pickard, Pam Porter, Jo Ann Robertson, Diane Ronald, Charles Sloan, Charles Smith, Clyde Wardle, Rich Webking, Sharon Whittaker, Bobbie Worthen and Wyla Winmill.

The musicians snacked at Bliss, where the cheerleaders practiced their routine and where several couples danced in front of the restaurant, without music.

The bus made good time and arrived at the Bar X Motel, Grand Junction, in the afternoon. Some rested while others took advantage of the motel pool, and the band ironed out a few rough spots in the marching routine.

Charge Trumpeted

The game started off with a rapid charge from the trumpeters. The musicians put on an excellent marching show, in spite of limited preparation. After this the band relaxed and sadly watched Mesa beat BJC by one point. Afterwards the students were invited to a dance and a snack at Mesa College's beautiful new Student Union.

The following morning, the band took a scenic jaunt through Mesa National Park where the tourists were awed by the grotesque rock formations. Enroute to Salt Lake City, the bus had a flat tire plus generator trouble, getting the

Election Thursday; Freshmen to Pick Class Officers

Freshman elections will be held Thursday, Oct. 10, to fill the following offices: president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and three freshman class representatives. Voting is scheduled in the Administration building.

Freshman candidates must be full-time students and have the recommendation of his advisor and the Registrar.

ASB Names Leaders

Business major Larry Woods was chosen Student Council Treasurer at the second Student Council meeting. He succeeds Dale Allen. Connie Ogden, Mtn. Home; Linda Turner and Jim Weaver, Boise, were selected to head various Lyceum committees. They will help choose the Lyceum programs and the guest speakers that will participate in BJC assemblies.

Chairmen of the Social Committee, Judy King, SPIB (Student Interest Board), Hoenie Myers, and yearbook, Diane Forrest, gave reports on their progress.

WHY "PRE-REGISTRATION"?

The halls of BJC were a mob scene during "pre-registration." It took many students eight or nine hours to endure this hectic, hot experience. It was not the actual registration, but the endless standing in line which hindered progress.

We realize that the administration was not prepared for this deluge. We fail to see the point in pre-registration. It would be much easier to have normal registration in alphabetical order by class. Students who registered Thursday and Friday, found registration a comparatively easy and pleasant experience which did not consume a great deal of time.

Speak Up on Hello Walk

What has happened to Hello Walk? That may seem like an odd question since really nothing noticeable has happened. That is just the point. The enthusiasm and friendly spirit that the Student Council worked so hard to instill in establishing this new tradition is slowly subsiding into nothing more than a few, persistent greeters.

Why are we so self-conscious? Surely, there is nothing so different in merely smiling and speaking to a passing fellow student. Sure, you don't know him or her, but what better way of becoming acquainted? A few familiar reactions seem to be always present, "Well, they didn't speak to me."

Did you speak? So what if you are all alone and you meet a crowd? Just keep speaking. It works, it really does. But you'll never know until you try it.

After a year of plans and promises and a lot of hard work members of the Student Council have done their part well. Let's support them by our friendly hellos.

Just wear a smile . . . and speak up!

Printing the Campus News

Members of the new reportorial staff of the Roundup have a variety of backgrounds. They include: Tommy Atlas, from Bolivia; Sally Barclay, former associate editor from St. Teresa's; Mike Berger, Portland high school sports editor.

From Mountain Home are Pat Saunders and Connie Hoselton. Former Boise Highlights staffers include Dick Blissonette, Milton Williams, Jim Poore, Jenna Spriggel. Kathie Sundbeck worked on the Borah Senator.

"We hope with this staff, to give complete coverage of college events, with cooperation of the various publicity chairmen," the editors state.

Publication dates for future issues are: October 10, 17 and 24; Nov. 1 (6-page Homecoming edition), 7, 14, 21; December 12 and 19 (6-page Christmas Issue), and Jan. 16 (6-page, end of semester).

DORM NEWS

MORRISON HALL

By Pat Saunders

President Paulette Kerner and some of her pajama-clad officers welcomed the girls at the first hall meeting where the do's and don'ts of the dorm were discussed.

At a later meeting plans were made for an exchange night with some of the Boise girls for October 4th.

This year the dorm has a capacity crowd of 85 girls including 22 returning sophomores. Many of the new girls are from all corners of the United States and abroad. Mary Strong is from the Philippines and there are several coeds from Hawaii. Others hail from Oregon, California, Nevada and Illinois.

DRISCOLL HALL

By Rodney W. Dakan

Driscoll Hall opened the 1963-64 school year with 24 returning residents and 52 incoming freshmen.

Officers for this year, elected in the spring, are Dick Wissmiller, president; Dave Rampton, vice president; Dave Peery, succeeding Mark Sather as secretary; Mike Walters, treasurer, and Bob Rear, social chairman.

On Sept. 25, Driscoll Hall held an exchange dance in their "Rec" room for all dorm residents. Morrison Hall was well represented.

The dorm has purchased four new tennis rackets for use on the new tennis courts.

Two unfortunate accidents on the football field deprived BJC of two valuable players, both of Driscoll Hall, early in the season. "Buckwheat" Wells, a freshman from British Columbia, Canada, and Jim Mauga of Hawaii, both received knee injuries and are recovering from operations.

Don't Look Now, But Your Flowers Are Blooming

By Betty Nelson

These are the campus flowers . . . color them autumn! Red, orange, yellow and bronze, they bank the college buildings in gay clumps and brighten the borders by the sidewalks.

Who put them there? Odus McConnell, of course! Mr. McConnell has been BJC gardener for the past five years, having worked previously for the Forest Service and the City Park Service. With the help of sophomore Roger Madson, Mr. McConnell grows all the flowers and bushes in the college greenhouse.

Two big blue spruce trees were given to the college by the late C. C. Anderson and several trees came from the University of Idaho campus. But for the most part bushes are given such tender care that they grow all out of propor-

Inside The Library

Approximately 32,000 books, 265 monthly magazines, 6 foreign language magazines, 9 daily and/or weekly newspapers, 189 recorded tapes, 234 microfilm reels, 628 phonotapes, bound files of 112 magazines, countless pamphlets, and 96 seats, are all at the disposal of BJC's students and faculty members.

Heading the overall operation of the library is Miss Ruth McBirney, head librarian; Mrs. Evelyn Everts and Miss Marcia Sigler, assistant librarians; Mrs. Katherine Talley, circulation clerk, and Mrs. Jacqueline Westervelt, secretary. Student staffers this year are freshmen Norma Cattron, Linda Daly, Elizabeth Dillin, Carol Mitchell, Rose Roberts, Sandra Garnett, and Sidney Braithwaite. Serving their second year as library workers are sophomores Ruth Brown, Mary Pickard, Judy McKenzie, Diane Knudson and Carolyn Niece.

For some interesting browsing, students should try the three major foreign publications in the library: Der Stern from Germany, Paris-Match from France and Life en Espanol. These are similar to LIFE magazine.

The New Book section of the library is located in the stack room (the room to the left just before entering the reading room) along the front wall. These books have not yet been stacked in their proper classification section. Among this year's best sellers in this section are: The Guns of August by Barbara Tuchman; Renoir, My Father by Jean Renoir; My Life in Court by Louis Nizer, and Tales from the Mirror by Hortense Callsher. Philosophy students should be especially interested in Man, Nature and God, written by Yale Philosopher F. C. S. Northrop. In this book he presents an epitome of his scientific, philosophical, and religious ideas and beliefs.—K.S.

BJC Engineering Alum Named Canadian Executive

George L. Hagen, a 1943 BJC engineering student, is vice president of the Port Moody, B.C., plant of Reichhold Chemicals (Canada) Ltd., and a newly elected member of the board of directors. Reichhold Chemicals is one of Canada's largest chemical companies, and the Port Moody facilities manufacture synthetic resin adhesives for the plywood industry. Hagen holds two BS degrees from the University of Washington, in chemical engineering and industrial engineering. He lives with his wife and three children in West Vancouver, B.C.

tion and must be removed. Seventy-five bushes were given to the new Christian Church grounds a couple of years ago. Overcrowded bushes from around the Science building will be used to landscape the new library when the building is completed.

Gain a little, lose a little . . . a valiant effort was made to save the big evergreen tree growing on the library site. But the extensive root system prevented its removal. However, a veritable treasure trove of junk turned up during the process, including an old Model T. The college gardener is currently rigging the most difficult part and transplanting the new ones.

So take a good look at the beauty of your campus now. It won't be long before we will see it snow!

Campus Beat

September's unseasonable 90-degree weather caused students to put aside those new sweaters in exchange for summer togs. Sweltering instructors arranged field trips, talked faster, showed films—anything to shorten lecture sessions in torrid classrooms.

Despite assorted groans and grumbles from a sparse few, concerning admission fee and a sit-down strike by Rose Terry, the Pi Sigma annual Record Hop at the SUB Saturday night was a hit. Crowded? Yes! Hot? Yes! Uncomfortable? Very! Fun too, huh? You bet, and you could even dance if you could find a couple of feet of unoccupied floor space.

The sole male occupant of Falk House is a small grey mouse dubbed "Mickey."

"Lucky" Lyle Trapp, auto body instructor, "lucked out" in his drawing for a special outdoor hunt; but he failed to bring home the meat. Buck luck, next time, happy hunter!

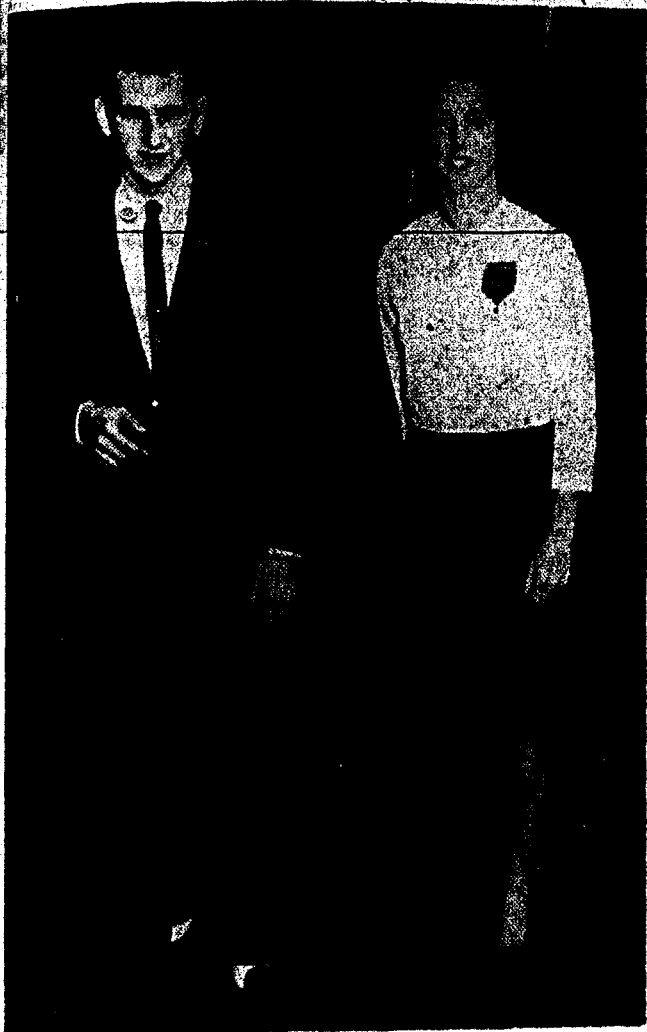

Bob Ables' sleek, dynamic car, which he has affectionately dubbed "Buzard Puke," will be running close competition with Bill Hart's multicolored '36 Chevy for the "go fast" title. No official challenge has been made as yet, but the tension is mounting because both cars are obviously competition models.

Mr. Jack Dalton's organic chemistry class has to meet in the nursing classroom in the Science building, where a row of hospital beds are lined against the wall to make way for the lecture table.

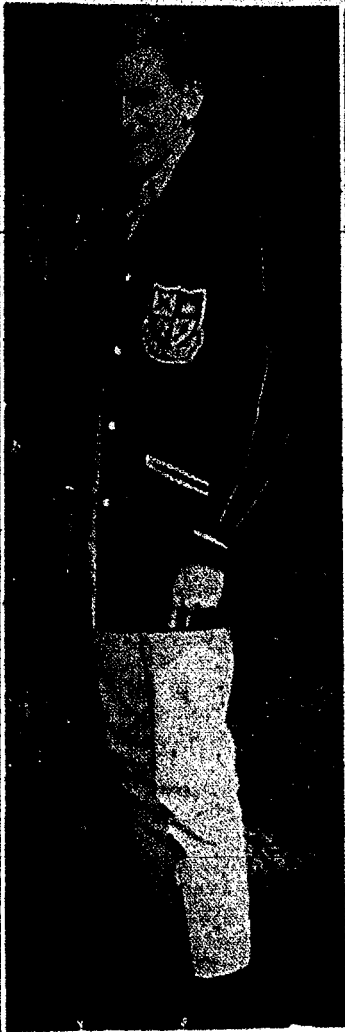

"WELL, YES, YOUR ENROLLMENT CARD DOES SAY 'HOMEMAKING,'—BUT I'M AFRAID—"

"Service is Keynote," say Campus Club Leaders

PI SIGMA SIGMA

"Pep, Spirit and Service" is the motto of Pi Sigma Sigma, a men's service club organized on campus in 1949.

The activities of Pi Sigma Sigma include: directing traffic at football games, helping the Red Cross during blood drawings, sponsoring the Presidents' Ball which honors all presidents on campus, and participating in many civic and campus services.

The Pi Sig-IK football game is held each fall.

Interested students should see Warren Gibbons, president, club members or Mr. Jack Natkin, advisor.

VALKYRIES

Ushering at games, operating the used-book store, decorating the school's Christmas tree and sponsoring various civic drives are a few of the many things that the Valkyries have on their agenda this year, according to Linda Smith, club president.

Founded in the early days of Boise Junior College, Valkyries is the largest women's service organization on campus. The purpose of the club is to foster a spirit of competition and friendliness on campus.

Sophomore girls interested in pledging should contact a Valkyrie member or Mrs. E. M. Winans, advisor. To be eligible, coeds must have a 2.5 GPA.

ESQUIRES

"The Esquires have been reactivated after one year of inactivity because of the increased number of veterans returning to campus this year," reported Dean Edwin Wilkinson, acting faculty advisor.

The Esquires were first organized in 1953 and membership is restricted to veterans with at least two years of active duty in the Armed Forces. The creed of the club is "Service to BJC, Scholarship, Peace and Fellowship."

Plans for this school year include: a Homecoming float, Christmas party at the Veterans' Home, planting a tree in honor of the Homecoming queen (in Queen's Grove) and other civic and campus services, according to Walt Roberts, club president.

Practical Nurses

Fifteen coeds are enrolled in this year's Practical Nurse Training course being taught at St. Luke's Hospital by Mrs. Nancy Davidson, new instructor, according to Mr. Claude Wain, chairman of the Vocational-Technical Education division.

RODEO CLUB TO BE FORMED

All students — with or without horses — who are interested in forming a Rodeo club are invited to attend an organization meeting Monday in the small building back of the woodcrafts shop at 4 p.m.

GOLDEN Z's

Golden Z membership is composed of sophomore and second-semester girls with GPA of 3.0 or above. These girls are chosen on the basis of scholarship, service and leadership.

Ushering at games, presenting an annual style show, candy sales and other school and civic services are some of the activities planned for the year, according to Caron Tinkham, club president.

Organized in 1957, the goal of the club, an affiliate of the Zonta International (women's service club) is to serve BJC and community, and to promote career interests and college graduation.

INTERCOLLEGIATE KNIGHTS

Intercollegiate Knights is the only nationally affiliated service club on the campus and is one of 30 such chapters throughout the nation. The Boise Golden Plume chapter was organized in 1939 and is now headed by Marc Nations, duke.

Throughout the year the IK's will sell programs at football games, sponsor the Golden Plume Ball, co-sponsor a carnival with the Valkyries, and work on various civic and campus drives. Several IK-Pi Sig basketball games are tentatively planned.

The club's national motto is "Service, Sacrifice and Loyalty."

Add to your new mohair sweater a pair of stretchpants, and you are ready for the football game a week from Saturday.

The most popular stretch pant at BON MARCHE this fall is by Phil Rose. These are proportioned to fit any figure, and come in the most popular colors: black, red, turquoise, and olive, priced at only $10.98.

Yearbook Staff to Meet

Students who wish to work on the college yearbook, LES BOIS, are asked to attend a planning meeting next Wednesday at 3 p.m. in the Publications office in the basement of the Science building. Diane Forrest, editor, announces.

"We expect the 1963-64 annual to be one of the largest and most informative ever published," Diane says, "with features to interest everyone in school."

BJC Receives First Defeat of Season

The Broncos traveled to Grand Junction for their second football contest of the season on Friday, but lost to Mesa Junior College, 7-6.

It was a successful conversion after a 96-yard drive that iced the win for the Mesa Mavericks over the Broncos. It was the first game of the Intermountain Collegiate Conference and the first loss for the Boise squad.

The big break for the Broncos came as quarterback Don Neves threw a 54-yard bomb to freshman halfback Junior Catron, who carried to the Mesa 2. Neves carried it over from the 1-yard line, but the all-important point after touchdown failed.

Luck was again on the side of the Broncos as Catron intercepted a pass from Glen Tatham at his own 38, but the Boise drive lost its go at the Mesa 12.

Sophomore players making the trip to Colorado with the Broncos were: Wendell Babcock, John Bittick, Michael Cole, Ralph Elrod, Del Isham, Jack Kaper, Steve Lawrence, Don Neves, Sid Otton, Glenn Solem, Bart Templeman, Rich Urresti, John Whelchel, Rodney Yamamoto, Charles Robbins, Bill Stupin and Bob Storie. Freshmen on the traveling team are: Vyril Alcorn, Lee Blackburn, Junior Catron, Greg Duff, Gary Garland, Joe Gratton, Bill Haymes, Gordon Herzog, Dyke Nally, Jim O'Donnell, VanAlan Paio, Gary Pedrow, Gary Peer, Dana Schuck, Bill Smith, Steve Svitak, Kent Harris, Tim Warlick, Dale Welter.

Junior Catron, who suffered a concussion in the Mesa game, will be out of competition for at least a week, it was reported following a physical checkup on Monday.

Coach Smith Starts 17th Season Here

By Jim Poore

If past records are any indication of the future, then BJC has very little to worry about concerning the future of football here. Since coming to BJC in 1946, Coach Lyle Smith has amassed a record of 122 wins, 13 losses and 5 ties.

Also to his credit are four appearances in the Potato Bowl, and one jaunt to the little Rose Bowl. In 1958, his team ranked No. 1 in the nation among junior colleges.

Coach Smith came to BJC after playing center on the University of Idaho's football team from 1936 to 1938.

Coach Ray Smith, who coaches wrestling and track, in addition to helping with football, is a graduate of BJC and the University of Idaho. He came here from Caldwell where he produced a Southern Idaho Conference champion team.

Completing the coaching trio is Dale Chatterton, beginning his second year at BJC. He takes over as basketball coach, after the pigskins are put away. Chatterton came from St. Anthony high school to join the junior college coaching staff.

Vocational-Technical Welders Receive Scrap Iron

Approximately 100 lbs. of scrap iron for use in BJC's welding classes have been donated by Knudsen Co., Inc. It is difficult to secure scrap iron, but welcome contributions are appreciated.

Mr. James R. Buchholz, instructor, stated that the classes got off to a good start with the welding shop now at full capacity. Classes are held three nights each week.

Mr. Harold Snell's auto mechanics class is engaged in training, which includes tune-ups, electrical work, wheel balance, etc.

Broncos vs. Carbon Contest in Utah

Boise Junior College again takes to the road as they go up against Carbon College this Friday, at Price, Utah.

The Broncos stand with an impressive 12-1 record of wins in their favor for the series, with a total of 435 points against 59 piled up by the Eagles of Carbon.

At their encounter last year Boise rolled to an easy 33-0 victory.

Next Home Game

Boise fans will have to wait one more week after the Carbon tussle to see the Broncos on their home field. Then it will be the Broncos pitted against Snow Junior College, who scored 12 points against the Broncos, all in last year's contest.
