

Please join Workplace Flexibility 2010 for a briefing on

What an Aging Workforce Can Teach Us About Workplace Flexibility

Monday, July 18th • 2:00PM–3:30PM • S-207, Capitol

WF2010 is bringing together a panel of experts who will highlight the role of flexible workplaces in responding to the challenges of an aging workforce. The panel will include academic researchers who have been studying the economic, demographic, and social trends that will drive policy discussions at this year's White House Conference on Aging and in Congress:

- ▶ Chai Feldblum, JD (Moderator)
Workplace Flexibility 2010
Georgetown University Law Center
- ▶ Kathleen Christensen, PhD
Alfred P. Sloan Foundation
- ▶ Robert Hutchens, PhD
School of Industrial and Labor Relations
Cornell University
- ▶ Mick Smyer, PhD
and
- ▶ Marcie Pitt-Catsouphes, PhD
The Sloan Center on Flexible Work
Options & Older Workers
Boston College
- ▶ Robert Hudson, PhD
Graduate School of Social Work
Boston University

Sponsored by Senator Gordon Smith (R-OR) and Senator Herb Kohl (D-WI), Chair and Ranking Member of the Senate Special Committee on Aging.

RSVP

For more information or to RSVP, please contact Julia Sessoms with Workplace Flexibility 2010 at jfsessoms@rabengroup.com or (202) 466-2543.

▶ ▶ ▶ Please RSVP by Thursday, July 14.

Workplace Flexibility 2010 is an educational, research and outreach effort to support the development of a comprehensive national policy on workplace flexibility. The vision of Workplace Flexibility 2010 is one in which flexibility options, which work for employers and employees alike, become the standard of the American workplace.

www.workplaceflexibility2010.org