STAFFELBACH SPEAKER AT EDUCATION DINNER MEETING AT DE ANZA

Trend Is Against Democracy In European Schools Says Staffebach

"Democratic education is on the decline in Europe," Dr. E. H. Staffebach, director of student teaching and head of the commerce department at San Jose State, told 150 General Elementary majors at a dinner held in the Hotel De Anza Wednesday night.

Dr. Staffebach, who visited universities at Paris, Bologna, Milan, Heidelberg, Leipzig, and Leyden while in Europe during the past summer, said that democracy appeared to seem less important in times of great economic stress.

EUROPE ARMED

"There is a trend in Europe against democracy in Education," he stated.

Military strength as displayed in central Europe impressed Dr. Staffebach. Everywhere he went he saw soldiers, he reported. When he asked the reason for the large amount of military equipment he declared, he always met the same answer:

"We must arm or be destroyed."

ENGLAND TOLERATE

In contrast to France, Germany and Italy, where national defense seemed to be the central theme of life, England was outstanding for her toleration of free speech.

Dr. Staffebach cited an illustration.

A speaker preparing to address a group in Hyde Park was detained with the words:

"Wait a minute till that bunch over there gets through hanging King George."

PRESIDENT TALKS

Dr. Staffebach was introduced by Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, president of San Jose State. He was preceded by Miss Elsie Toles, faculty adviser of the general elementary organization, G. E. M.

Robert Ryan, president, presided.

The entertainment program included two piano solos, "Arabesque", and "In a Convent Garden", played by Miss Roberta Smith, and two vocal solos, "When a Maid Comes Knocking", and "Tommy", sang by Miss Eleanor McKnight accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Adolph W. Otterstein.

AUTHORITY TO DESCRIBE STRIKE AT FORUM MEET

Dr. George P. Hedley, the only person to make a documented account of the San Francisco strike, is to be the first speaker presented by the Public Affairs Forum, one of the interest groups of the Y.W.C.A.

On Thursday, during the noon hour, Dr. Hedley will give a lecture in the Little Theater to which all students are being invited. Further information concerning his topic will be announced later.

Old Time Styles Will Add Color To Student Hop

Varied Program To Be Offered By Student Affairs Group

Costumes embodying the styles worn at San Jose State between 1890 and 1910 will be a colorful feature of the student body dance which will wind up the Grand Rally festivities here Saturday night.

The Grand Rally dance, the second student body dance of the quarter, will be held in the men's gym, beginning at 6:00 p. m. Students are welcome to invite friends to the affair.

A varied program of varied entertaining features, in addition to the dancing, is being completed by the students affairs committee, headed by Byron Lanphear.

Carmen Dragon's orchestra will furnish the music. In order to allow as much space as possible on the gym floor for dancing, the musicians will be stationed in the grandstands.

It is expected that a large crowd of former students of San Jose State will help to make this Grand Rally dance an outstanding event, according to Lanphear.

ROCK DEDICATION

The rock near the Science building, dedicated to Charles H. Allen and Henry B. Norton for their love of nature and their vision of the future California, was placed there by the December 1884 class this year, on the 50th anniversary of their graduation.

GREAT ENTERTAINMENT PLANNED FOR TODAY'S GRAND RALLY OPENING

Alumni Will Be Given Hearty Welcome As Grand Rally Festivities Open

Welcoming alumni, parents, faculty and students to join in a gigantic two day reunion, San Jose State college will open its second annual "Grand Rally" today with open house and entertainments by every department on the campus.

The annual San Jose-Chico football game will be the highlight of the week-end of festivities, which will be climaxed by the student body dance Saturday night in the men's gym and will include a variety show, numerous reunion luncheons, and an outdoor playday for women students and alumni.

Opening for the first time this quarter, the college Tea Room will serve a luncheon at noon today and afternoon tea for guests from 2:30 till 5 p. m.

Special programs for the entertainment of guests have been planned by the drama, industrial arts, music, home-making and athletic departments.

"Today and tomorrow activities on the campus will be in full swing. The program planned is like a nerving circus," states Miss Lydia Innes, chairman of the Grand Rally, who is being assisted by Miss Berta Gray, editor of the Alumni Bulletin. "There should be something doing every hour of the day to interest parents, faculty, graduates and present students."

Spartans To Battle Chico In First Conference Game; Team Ready For Wildcats

Shorthand Contest Is Innovation Initiated By Commerce Club

Members of San Jose State's varsity football squad received their share of applause last night when they were introduced to a large crowd of students at the rally heralding the first Far Western Conference game with Chico tomorrow.

DOWNS LEADS

Responding to the leadership of Saxon Downs, the new yell-leader, the crowd gave the players enthusiastic recognition with yells and applause.

Martial music by the Spartan Band under the direction of Raymond Miller resounded through the auditorium, while yells, speeches, community singing, and general noise followed in rapid-fire succession.

Coach Dud DeGroot of the San Jose squad called attention to old traditions which have grown around the San Jose-Chico grid battle.

GLEE CLUB SINGS

He drew a laugh from the crowd when he recalled the 54 to 0 walloping San Jose took from the Wildcats in 1926.

"But it wasn't so funny last year when they beat us out of the championship with a 7-0 score," declared DeGroot, expressing hope that the situation will be different tomorrow.

Rounding out the program, which was arranged by Saxon Downs, Jack Reynolds, and Randolph Fitts, with the assistance of other students, were special novelty numbers by the men's glee club and other snappy entertainment.

Wildcat Is Vanquished By Demonstration Of Student Body In Rally

How is your speed? Are you accurate? If not, learn by watching experts at a shorthand contest to be sponsored by the Commerce Society at their next regular meeting.

This innovation, if successful, may be followed by further activities of a similar kind, according to Miss Mabel Shimmen, secretary to Dr. Elmer Staffebach, head of the Commerce department.

The contest, to be held at the next regular meeting of the Commerce Club, will consist of a five minute Gregg test dictated at the rate of 100 words per minute by Dr. Earl W. Atkinson. After the dictation, the contestants will make transcriptions from their notes and will be judged for both speed and accuracy.

All members of the commerce department are eligible to take part. First prize, a gold medal; and second prize, a bronze medal, will be awarded the winners.

Team From North Is First Obstacle For Conference Win

By GIL BISHOP

Renewing their rivalry with their most bitter antagonist in the Far Western Conference, the De Groot men meet the Wildcats of Chico State tomorrow in the first Conference game of the season. The northerners offer the first obstacle to a conference championship—last year they were the last obstacle and the Spartans stumbled sadly on the Chico turf.

Art Acker brings his squad into town with the determination to again set the Washington Square eleven back on their heels. On the other hand, the proteges of De Groot await the arrival of the Red and White contingent with a sort of malicious glee and thoughts of a complete and routing revenge.

RED AND WHITE JINX

For the third time this season, a red and white garbed team will face the gold and white jerseyed team of Sparta. The first two dropped the Staters for the count—the first easily, the second luckily. Will the old saying hold true? Verily, the third time is the charm.

The head man has been spending his time this week polishing up an offense that has been slowly improving and showed signs of clicking decisively last Saturday. Weaving in new plays to combine with the present set and to take advantage of the Chico defense, DeGroot figures his Spartans about ready to go.

CHICO STRONG

The Ackerites, on the other hand, are more than a little nonchalant over their chances to dump San Jose. Considerably more than set-ups for any team, Chico features a strong center of the line and a dynamite fullback in the personage of Jorgenson, erst- (Continued on Page Three)

Faculty Member Will Sing For Musical Hour

Miss Maurine Thompson, contralto and music faculty member and Mr. William B. McCoard, speech arts instructor, will give the program for the Musical Half Hour to be held in the Morris Dailey auditorium today.

Miss Tompson will sing "Come Hither, Lyttel Child" by Spalding, "Dawn" by Charles and "Joy" by Cadman in her first group. In her second group she will sing "Peace" by Fogg, "The Heart Worships" by Holst and "Far Away" by LeFaye. Those attending are asked not to applaud between numbers.

Mr. McCoard will give a reading of a one-act play at the conclusion of Miss Thompson's first group.

Jean Sterling, pianist, will accompany Miss Thompson.

GRAND RALLY . . . Michael Angelo

Just Among Ourselves

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE

Note: This column is personal between the president and the college. Outsiders are requested not to make use of the material.

Welcome to our Grand Rally. It is good for us to see ourselves together once in a while. It is good for alumni and patrons to see the college at work. Sometimes we think we're quite wonderful and important, and it is very wholesome to have an alumnus back and look us over. Occasionally we have received most stimulating suggestions from our men and women of former years.

Be sure to have a good time. If you can't find one, make it. Attend all the programs. Visit classes. Take part in the sports. Be sure to see the game tomorrow.

You remember Chico, don't you? Well, that same fightin' gang's going to be here tomorrow. They took us for a ride last year, much to our innocent surprise. They're a tough outfit, always have been, and I suspect always will be. Our college is much larger than Chico, but the football rule makers have limited the number on a team to eleven on each side, so we can't take advantage of our enrollment to win a game.

But don't let the Wildcats put it over on us. Yes you can. You can yell your head off, and that will help. The boys have had little enough support this year. President Hamilton will be there as my guest. I suppose I shouldn't allow him in the place, the old scamp. He's been kidding me about the last game. Also, he has it in mind to show me his skill at golf while he's here. You can't satisfy that fellow. He's not only willing to have his team blast our hopes, but he'd like to humiliate me personally. Incidentally, he's one of our own graduates, if you can believe it.

This is a good time to do some straight thinking. The college has been subject to a certain amount of irresponsible criticism lately, and I am anxious that it shall not result in unbalanced responses on our part. I am satisfied that we can count on the support of the substantial, highminded citizens of this community just as long as we get the facts, think clearly, and speak the truth. Anything which goes beyond that is unworthy of consideration.

There is always a great temptation for one to talk back when assailed by blatant publicity seekers. I have never found that a desirable procedure. All they want is a reaction, a fuss of some kind that will bring them into the limelight. I find myself unwilling to play their game. I remember a remark of Elbert Hubbard's: "Never explain. Your enemies won't believe you anyway, and your friends don't need it."

NOTICES

In accordance with their custom, the Spartan Spears will sell chrysanthemums at the annual Homecoming game tomorrow between San Jose State and Chico.

Kathleen McCarthy, president of the organization, announced today that yellow chrysanthemums with a large black SJ will be sold for State students, and white with a red C for Chico rooters.

Tau Delta Phi will hold its regular Friday luncheon in the tower at noon today. An important business meeting will follow. All members and visiting alumni are cordially invited.

The Social Dancing Club will hold its regular meeting in the women's gym Monday night from 7:45 to 9:45 o'clock.

The College Tea Room will serve a 35 cent luncheon from 12:00 to 12:45 today. The College Cafeteria will serve a 20 cent luncheon and a la carte from 11:30 to 12:45.

Will all physical education majors register with Miss Lavoie in the Men's Gym? All men who are interested in P.E. or who intend to go into the field must signify their intentions in order that the records might be completed.

WORLD NEWS HIGHLIGHTS

A delegation of ten San Jose State college students visited ex-Congressman Arthur M. Free Thursday to protest against charges made by Mr. Arthur Free at a Merriam-for-governor meeting that communism was gaining a foothold at San Jose State college. Mr. Free quoted an article appearing in a contributors' issue of the Spartan Daily attacking the profit system and from another upholding Sinclair's candidacy. The delegation pointed out that the articles were unsolicited and only represented the opinion of the writer.

(Editor's note: A full account of the interview of the ten State college students with Mr. Free as written by Clifford A. Murie, a member of the student delegation, will appear Monday in the contributors' issue of the Spartan Daily.)

The Italian consulate at Sarajevo was stoned last night by a mob of rioters angered by the assassination of King Alexander. Anti-Italian feeling ran high in Ljubljana last night and the Italian consulate secretary was pummeled by a mob who dispersed at the arrival of police.

Bruno Richard Hauptmann was immediately arrested on an extradition warrant calling for his removal to New Jersey to face a murder indictment in the Lindbergh kidnap case after the extortion case in Bronx county was removed from the trial calendar yesterday.

The San Francisco Chronicle was found guilty of contempt of court and was fined $500 and Editor Chester Rowell and Managing Editor W. D. Chandler were fined $250 each by the supreme court. The contempt charges developed when the Chronicle published an article saying the supreme court had decided to grant David Lamson, convicted wife slayer, a new trial, on which no decision has been made as yet.

The American Federation of Labor yesterday in San Francisco turned down resolutions calling for the formation of a political labor party in America and reaffirmed its non-partisan policy.

An average of five per cent increase in business during the month of September as compared with the same month last year was reported yesterday by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce for San Francisco and Northern California.

NOTICE

The San Jose Hiking Club is taking a hike through Quail Canyon this Sunday. All students and faculty are invited. The caravan leaves the 7th and San Antonio street entrance at 8:10 a.m.

Anyone that can take a car is asked to. A charge of 20 cents will be levied against passengers to be allotted to the drivers of the cars. Each person must provide his own lunch.

Apply to June Phares, Y.W.C.A. for application blanks to the 1934 Annual Conference for the Student Institute of Public Relations to be held November 29 to December 2 at Lokoya Lodge, Napa County.

All organizations are urged to send delegates to the conference and to the council, which will be held Sunday at 2:15 p.m. at the national House, Berkeley.

Welcome Alumni

Once again we have the pleasure of greeting our homecoming alumni and extending a cordial welcome to all the parents and friends who are visiting the campus today and tomorrow for the Grand Rally celebration. Greetings to you all!

Every department of the college is observing this two-day jubilee by throwing all classes open to our visitors, and by offering special activities in their honor.

A program including entertainment of all types has been planned for your enjoyment. Take in as much of it as you can—music, drama, recreational games, athletic exhibitions (featured by the Spartan-Chico football game Saturday afternoon), and, of course, food.

Feel free to roam anywhere you like on the campus. These are your days and we want you to be a part of our "gang" while you are here.

In short, make yourselves thoroughly at home, and have a rousing good time with us these two days. D. F.

Quad Debate

One of the finest activities sponsored by the college will get under way today with the opening of the debating season at noon in the quad. Planned as an important feature of the two-day Grand Rally celebration, the debate is outstanding for the fact that the California gubernatorial race will be the topic for discussion.

Not only because the gubernatorial campaign promises to be one of the most hotly contested in the history of the state, but because the debate itself will undoubtedly be outstanding, it is hoped that everyone who especially can will avail himself of the opportunity to attend.

San Jose State has always been represented by a fine debate team which meets squads from leading universities of the coast; but their "fan following" has not been indicative of the exceptional quality of their work.

THE SPORT SPOTLIGHT

By Dick Edmonds

San Jose State has added a new sport to its program. De Witt Portal, Freshman football coach, is undertaking to begin an intercollegiate boxing team here. When a boxing class was named as a possibility for men's education, every available opening in the class was immediately claimed and others were refused admittance to the practice because the class was overflowing.

Portal is endeavoring to form a boxing team which will, in time, be able to compete on an even footing with any college team on the coast. He is very pleased with the response to his efforts and believes that the enthusiasm shown by his students will insure a representative Spartan boxing team.

This boxing team will give many of the smaller men of the college an opportunity to represent San Jose in a college sport. Even if a fellow is not large enough to turn out for football or basketball he has an equal chance to make the varsity boxing squad. Anyone with pugilistic ambitions who can tip the scales below the welterweight limit of 147 pounds will be welcomed with open arms by Portal. Also any of you big fellows who is interested in boxing come on out when the official call is made for candidates.

Well, the Tigers lost the world series and with it a nice piece of change. The Co-op store was surely a popular place between 11 and 1 this past week. The followers of the two teams in State were well divided and many interesting observations were made. Many were following the exploits of the home town boy, Marvin Owen, third baseman of the Tigers, who while playing a fine game in the field, was unable to hit the size of his collar. It seems that the Dean Bros. have many relatives in school from the support given by the co-op gang. Much sympathy was given to Ernie Orsatti, Cardinal center fielder, who it seemed, was always trying to butt down the outfield wall in chasing drives from the bats of the Tiger sluggers.

Bob Norton, who saw service against State last Saturday as a member of the Olympic Club squad, has enrolled here for studies.

Norton last year was captain of the Temple University freshman football team following his graduation from Lowell High of San Francisco. This season he has been playing fine football with the Olympic Club eleven in the half-back position.

In accordance with the eligibility rule of the Far Western Conference, Norton will not be able to take part in league contests this year. Next year as a junior he should be a very valuable addition

Far Western Grid Teams In Action

Featuring one league clash, members of the Far Western Conference will swing into their fourth week of football this Saturday. San Jose State will meet Chico State in the feature clash of the week-end.

Last year the Chico boys spoiled the Spartan chances for the conference title and are out to upset the DeGroot men again. Chico is featuring a light but fast squad and will be dangerous, but the Spartan's should win after a close battle.

Fresno State jorneys to Flagstaff, Arizona where the Bulldogs will meet the Arizona State eleven. This looks like an intersectional win for the Fresno team.

At Berkeley, the surprising College of Pacific eleven will meet the California Bear squad. In other years one would immediately predict an overwhelming victory for the Golden Bears. It is another story this year as the Bengals are fresh from holding the U.S.C. Trojans to a one touchdown win. California should win this game by a small score.

It looks like the Nevada Wolves are in for a tough afternoon on the Kezar Stadium turf Saturday. They meet the undefeated St. Mary's outfit. The Gaels should take this game handily but not by more than three touchdowns.

The California Aggies will enjoy a day of rest Saturday following their scoreless tie with Nevada last Saturday.

Varsity basketball practice will start Monday at 4 o'clock. Coach McDonald will put the candidates through their initial paces.

"He appeared in concert at San Francisco last year and offered special dance classes for professionals and teachers."

At the next Orchesis meeting members will present original problems in technique to the group, Beth Simerville, the club president stated.

NOON DAY BRACER

Challenge your best friend or your favorite instructor to a game of badminton, ping pong, or deck tennis at the Noon Day Bracer today, to be held in front of the women's gym at 12:20 p.m.

The junior physical education majors are in charge and will give instruction in the different games, according to Barbara Adams, chairman of the Bracer.

ARCHERY CLUB

The college Archery club held its first practice shoot yesterday on the athletic field. Targets were set up and the members spent the noon hour trying to convince themselves that they were archers. In spite of the fact that no Robin Hoods were discovered the practice was voted a success.

The club has set Tuesday noon as their next practice date.

Chico State Hopes To Upset Spartans

The football men are out for blood this Saturday, according to several members of the team. "They're sure hot," they say.

Whether they refer to their top-notch physical condition, or to an emotional heat caused by memories of last year's game with Chico, can only be surmised.

Last year, the Spartans lost the championship, gold footballs, post-season game, and their prestige, as the result of a 7-0 defeat at the hands of Chico.

What caused the emotional heat, however, according to the boys, was a certain penalty inflicted by a local Chico referee. Laughlin, Spartan end, was down for a pass on Chico's 4-yard line. He and a Chico back collided. The usual penalty would be fifteen yards against Chico. Instead, State forfeited fifteen yards, the ball, a touchdown, and possibly the game. As soon as realization of what happened had sunk in, a roar of protest rose from the Spartan bench. The grudge that set in as the echoes of that roar died away in the wide open spaces of northern Sacramento Valley will come to a head this Saturday on our own field.

W. A. A. Enthusiastic Over Rally Activities

If the enthusiasm shown by the members of the W. A. A. is any indication of success, the Grand Rally Play Day promises to be an outstanding feature of the Home Coming events, according to Chairman Dorothy Rakestraw.

The activities vary from the competition of kick ball, and push ball, to the matching of individual skills as in ping pong, quoits, and darts.

"The morning activities will begin with a general assembly at 9:30, at which time Beth Simerville, W. A. A. president will briefly welcome the participants.

"Next in line of events will be the two periods, the second of which will terminate at 11:00 a. m.

"A corps of about twenty officials will be on hand, in badge, to give instructions, and to act as referees," Miss Rakestraw said.

"Over 125 entries have been received and the W. A. A. anticipated one of the most successful while shot discus man.

The up-state aggregation completely routed Russ Sweet's Menlo J. C. team in their first encounter and then lost by the one-touchdown route to the Sacramento Panthers of Hack Applequist last Saturday night, after out-playing the Jaysee team for a major portion of the evening.

The Spartans will feature a wide open running and passing attack tomorrow afternoon with the express idea of running the Wildcats into the ground in the opening minutes of play. The invaders are tough but smaller, and lack reserves, hence a fast first half should put San Jose reserve material in a favorable position.

DeGroot will probably start Whitaker at center, Azevedo and Burt at guards, Simoni and Daily at tackles, with Baracchi and Bruning at the wing posts. Corbella or Carpenter will start at quarter, Barr or Watson at the full or back man, with Shehtanian and McLachlan starting at halves.

INJURIES

Jim Stockdale has not seen any actual service this week and will probably not be in the game much Saturday. Handicapped by a broken bone in his left hand Stockdale has been out since the Santa Barbara game, and DeGroot will not take any chance unless it is absolutely imperative.

"Sarge" Corbela has been the victim of a bad case of stiff neck, but seems to be well on the way to normalcy. Baracchi and Laughlin are both ready to go, with the addition of Joe Langtagn, the end positions look to be considerably strengthened. "Soapy" Johnson is still favoring a bum ankle and will not see much service Saturday.

The game with Chico has a two-fold significance as far as San Jose is concerned. First and primarily, the Spartans are out to get revenge for last year's devastating defeat at Chico. Secondly, it is Home Coming Day and the only conference game at the local stadium this season.

Chico has one of the best teams of the Acker regime—DeGroot is out to pile up a score. Both elevens are prepared to "shoot the works" at each other and it should be a great game.

Every available space on the south side of the campus is to be utilized as play space for the "Spartanetts", she added.

SPARTAN GRIDDERS TO RELAX IN THEATER ON EVE OF CHICO BATTLE

The Spartan varsity football squad will attend the California theater en masse tonight as guests of the management.

Invited by Manager Hayward with the thought of helping the squad members to relax on the eve of the Spartan-Chico game, scheduled for Saturday, the squad will enjoy a very helpful diversion, in the opinion of Coach Dud DeGroot.

The squad will leave the training table and proceed to the theater about 7:00 p. m., and will leave the theater in time to be in bed at 10:00 in compliance with training rules.

give me a real snapback in energy. They are so mild that I can smoke all I want without upsetting my nerves." You, too, will like Camel's matchless blend of costlier tobaccos. Mild—but never flat or "sweetish"—never tiresome in taste. You'll feel like smoking more... and you need not hesitate about it! For with Camels, you will find that steady smoking does not jangle the nerves.

ANY TOBACCO MAN WILL TELL YOU:

"Camels are made from finer, More Expensive Tobaccos—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand."
