San Jose Players Present Stewart Comedy To Large Audience At First Showing

Allampress Gives Fine Performance In Leading Role

By VICTOR CARLOCK

Love cannot be gained or regained by begging for it. Such is the theme of "Rebound", three act comedy drama by Donald Ogden Stewart, presented by San Jose Players last night to a capacity audience for the first of three performances in the Little Theater.

The leading role of Sara, which is neither ingenue nor character, and is therefore difficult to interpret, is natural and convincing through the acting of Elizabeth Allampress.

COMEDY RELIEF

Although based on tense situations, the sophisticated drama is filled with comedy, both in the lines and in the characterization. It is replete with Stewart's wit, and holds the attention of its audience from the opening scene.

Harold Randle gives a polished performance in the part of Bill. Frank Hamilton, as brother-in-law of Sara, and Otis Cobb, as Johnnie, give their usual smooth characterizations, while two comparatively new players, Virginia Rogers as Evie and Florence Murdock as Liz, Sara's sister, show considerable ability and promise for future prominence.

SUPPORTING CAST

Ray Ruf and Elvera Pieri as Sara's estranged parents, and Henri Boussy as a French tailor provide character and comedy atmosphere.

The play will be repeated tonight and Saturday at 8:00 in the Little Theater. Jack Charnow's orchestra played intermission numbers.

Art Society FINISHES MURALS In Cafeteria

After four months of work, Sigma Tau, honorary art society, has completed the murals on the college cafeteria walls.

Portraying every phase of college life from art to zoology, the murals, which required over 700 hours in individual labor, are a definite criterion of the ability of Sigma Tau members.

Undertaking the work without credit, 14 members labored upwards of 50 hours apiece on the paintings.

Criticisms of the work while still in progress have been voiced by certain students, who felt the paintings not literal enough. "Although decorative and amusing in tone, the murals are not to be taken literally," Miss Estella Hoisholt, faculty adviser to the art group declared.

Members of Sigma Tau who took an active part in the work include Ruth Smith, retiring president of the group, Nellie Mueller, Helen McClue, Oriel Isham, Margaret Kile, Winifred Butler, Betty Foster, Marjorie Olden, Eunice Baker, Molly Blois, Byron Singletary, Dick Wells, Eveline Rudin, and Marjorie Oldham.

Selected Group to Play Baccalaureate Music

Music for the senior Baccalaureate Service to be held at 3:30 Sunday afternoon in the Morris Dailey auditorium will be provided by a selected group of symphony orchestra members under the direction of Mr. Adolph Otterstein.

The featured number will be the "First Movement" from Dvorak's "New World Symphony"; the "Coronation March" by Meyerbeer. The "War March of the Priests" by Mendelssohn, will be played for the graduation march.

Just Among Ourselves

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE

Note: This column is personal between the president and the college. Outsiders are requested not to make use of the material.

It was a long, hard-fought battle, doubtful to the last minute. Those meaningless amendments almost floored us. The University lobby taught us a thing or two. We'll know better next time.

It was a fine, courageous thing for Governor Merriam to sign that bill. The opposition was active and stopped at nothing from mild insinuations to open double-crossing. There's always a threat to a public man when he takes action on a controversial question. I hope all of our friends will realize the fine courtesy Governor Merriam has shown us in this matter and express to him their appreciation whenever the opportunity presents itself.

And let me tell you, we have two jolly fighters in our Assemblyman Cottrell and our Senator Young. Cliff has been a busy man this season as head of the vital Ways and Means Committee, but he considers San Jose State his own personal pet and he puts in his plugs at just the right time and in the right place. Even if so many of our friends hadn't wired the Governor, I believe he would have signed the bill just as a courtesy to Assemblyman Cottrell. Most sincere thanks from us all, Cliff, and congratulations.

Senator Young had a bill of his own and got it through the Senate. In the juggling that came about later, it seemed best to the college group to drop the Senate bill and concentrate on the House bill. No legislator likes to see a bill of his dropped, especially after he has won the battle in his own House. We may all feel the deepest sense of appreciation for the fine sportsmanship and statesmanship Senator Young showed in dropping his own bill and taking up wholeheartedly the right to force the Assembly bill through the Senate. We hadn't a vote to spare, just a minimum 21. The colleges had seven senators from their home counties, and each one of them had to get at least two more to turn the trick. With the University working in vigorous opposition, it took a real effort on the part of our friends to get the required number of votes. Many thanks, Senator Young, for your vigorous support. It took courage and resourcefulness to put over a job like that.

Amateurs Of Station W6YL Offer Free Traffic Service For Final Days

Radio Message Drive Week

Today inaugurates Message Drive Week for amateurs of San Jose State's Radio club.

Special attention will be paid during the drive to students having messages they wish relayed to any city in the United States. Howard Guilbert, W6KFL, Radio club president, is anxious to have a representative amount of campus correspondence go out through campus station W6YL, and points out that the traffic service is free.

"It is possible for students to arrange with the club to make schedules to any place in the United States or Hawaii. An average of one message every two days has been handled by the operators," Paul Lindsay, vice-president of the group and chairman of the Message Drive, states.

Message blanks may be secured

at either the Co-op or the Radio shack, while these messages may be placed in the club box in the Co-op, students are being invited to come directly to the Shack, in back of the Co-op, and examine the clubroom and the new transmitting equipment.

Other Officers of the club who served this quarter are: Betty Corker, secretary-treasurer; Norman Smaha, technician; Al Rhines, traffic manager.

Let 'em Eat Cake

By RAYMOND WALLACE

Dr. C.E.M. Joad, head of the Department of Philosophy at the University of London, says in the Modern Psychologist that during the early Christian era certain monks considered the female body so evil that they conducted experiments with a view to obtaining eggs without hens. The end of the world was expected at practically any time, so that it was considered unnecessary to take any steps for the continuation of the human race, but no monk could very well do without his eggs.

Overheard in the quad: "Funny how the guys fall for it when you give your hips a little extra swing. Dja notice that guy we just passed looking at me? Well, I gave—"

You flatter yourself, young lady. Actually, that little extra swing you gave merely called my attention to the fact that there a little too much of them.

The symphony concert last Tuesday—and the little girl who chewed gum throughout the performance—and about the middle of the program inquired, "Mother, aren't they ever going to finish?"—I have always wanted to hear the St. Louis Blues played by a symphony orchestra—like chop-sticks played on a pipe-organ—I did that once—terrible.

Yesterday afternoon in the library, a student seated himself across the table from me, laying down a binder with a title lettered on the cover, "The Book of Death, Vol. I". I was tempted to ask if the second volume were off the press yet.

In my dictionary 'Ambivalent' is defined as 'having at the same time both love and hate, especially as for a mother-in-law'. Now, then—would the dignity of the Funk & Wagnalls company permit them to make jokes, or did they really mean that?

On Memorial Day, the police students of San Jose State were appointed special policemen to assist the regular force with traffic congestion. Just before the parade came along, two kids were standing just in front of me watching one of the students. "Look at that guy," said one, "he thinks he's a policeman."

I leaned forward and remarked, "That's my roommate". (It really was.) "What's the matter him?" he asked, "does he think he's a cop?"

"He IS a cop," I answered. The boy looked at me a little suspiciously for a moment, then said, "Well, he better look out, or he'll get run over."

What ever became of Edward Hunter, the star reporter who uncovered the massacre of an entire village during the Japanese conquest of Manchuria? He was escorted out of Manchuria by Japanese detectives, and since then I have never seen his byline attached to any articles.

The only complete poem in one line I have ever heard, written by Harold Bettinger:

"Life without love is death without peace."

Son of St. Louis, ascend to heaven.

S.G.O. PICNIC

An enjoyable picnic was given by EDWIN OLMSTEAD at his attractive summer place in the Redwood Estates. The affair was given for S.G.O. members and their friends. The group enjoyed dancing, swimming, and hiking, and delicious refreshments were served. Dr. Boris Lubowski and Mrs. Lucille McKeown were patron and patroness for the occasion.

ALLENIAN SENIORS

ALLENIAN seniors were honored last Sunday morning at the San Jose Country club. Both active and alumnae members were present. Formal initiation for the new Allenians was held last Wednesday evening at the home of Josephine Connors. Plans were made also at that time for the luncheon that the society will give on Homecoming Day.

BETA BRUNCH

A delightful brunch was given last Sunday morning in the patio of the Sainte Claire in honor of the new members of BETA GAMMA CHI. Formal initiation preceded the brunch at which time Lorraine Smith, Marjorie Nicolls, Betty Brainerd, Clarisse O'Connell, and Alice Escaffre were officially made BETAS.

KAPPA INSTALLATION

Last Wednesday evening at the home of EDITH SMITHOUSEN the new officers of KAPPA KAPPA SIGMA were formally installed for the ensuing year. The affair was an impressive one with the traditional candle-light service. Those who will lead the sorority for the next year are: Presi-

PHI KAP ELECTION

Mrs. RAE O. WIRTZ, faculty adviser of PHI KAPPA PI was hostess last evening to the sorority members. Formal initiation and election of officers were held. The new officers for the Fall quarter will be ELIZABETH SIMPSON, president; MARY YOUNGREN, vice president; BARBARA HARKEY, secretary; MARGARET POLLACK, treasurer; MARY GRAY, reporter; VIRGINIA PERRY, historian; KAY EPPS will act as inter-society representative. The sorority also plans for a house party which will be held at the coast in August.

NOTEBOOK NOTES

IRONY

The Administration chose poulterers as their opponents to fight out the constitutionality of the Blue Eagle and what it stood for. What added the real touch to the affair, though, was the charge that the poulterers dealt in sick chickens. If Dr. Pickwell and Dr. Count accomplished anything, they did impress the idea that chickens and eagles have much in common.

If memory serves one faithfully, we had a parade in honor of the late fne-feathered Bird.

Senator Borah in a radio address last Sunday evening spoke at length upon the value of the Supreme Court and the adequacy of the constitution during times of stress. He pointed out that the federal government cannot oversee local and state affairs from the central office, without resorting to bureaucratic methods. If the latter occurs, he explained, our present conditions would seem trivial.

CAN YOU BEAT IT

The Ford Early American Museum refused the Morris Dailey lighting equipment because of its poor condition. This is very disappointing to those who have guarded this equipment so carefully.

Variety reports that the San Diego Exposition is only 75% ready with the project almost a month behind. Hotel rates, with the exception of the U. S. Grant Hotel, have been raised about 50%. About $12,000,000 has been spent on a project which started out to be a $1,000,000 show. Space is at a premium, and the much discussed nudist colony seems to be a come-on-teaser with nothing happening.

Gambling and anything to bring in the schekels will go. City knows that Tia Juana and Caliente are too close to say anything.

MORE TOBACCO ROAD GOSSIP

Mr. Mendenhall objected to the SF show because: (1) too much ad libbing, (2) poor casting (Dude, Sister Bessie, (3) mechanical presentation, (4) Hull use of slapstick tricks (washing), and (5) poor timing.

Off to a weak start, the show is making more money each performance, which may keep it at the Curran several more weeks.

The New York company, so one of the trade papers reports, received a new set of costumes for the grand sum of $12.80

Bob Crosby is on his own with a new orchestra. It might be well to watch this kid brother of Bing. Variety believes that the recent network policy on laxatives and the like will kill about 5 and a half million dollars worth of business. DeGroot, Hubbard Send Squads On Turf For Final Spring Gridiron Tilt

Golds Favored To Win Closing Contest Of Spring Practice

By DICK EDMONDS

As the climax to what was called the best spring practice in years by the coaches, two teams from the 1935 edition of the San Jose State varsity will meet in a regulation game on the San Carlos turf tomorrow afternoon.

TEAMS EQUAL

The two teams are almost equal in strength and both are out to score a victory in tomorrow's battle. Both coaches, Dudley DeGroot of the Golds and Bill Hubbard of the Reds, have expressed confidence concerning the outcome. The game will be one of the big features of the Homecoming celebration.

BEST SESSION

Coaches DeGroot and Hubbard agree that the 1935 spring practice session has been the best in years. According to DeGroot, the spirit has been excellent, and all men worked as hard as they would during the regulation season. Afraid at first that the squad would show a decline because of the extra length of the spring practice period this year, the coaches are rejoicing over the apparent enthusiasm of the players.

HARD WORKERS

Three men, Bob Wing, end; Emile Rouyet, and Jess Wilson, tackles, are the ones who have especially pleased the coaches with their conscientious work during practice sessions. Each of the three has spent more than the required time in training and each will be given fullest opportunity to make good, according to reports of the coaches.

The inevitable list of injuries during spring practice has been kept down, and this is another reason why Coach DeGroot can be seen walking about the campus with a genial smile on his face.

TWO INJURIES

However, there have been two rather serious injuries. Earl Glover, who, according to DeGroot, has looked the best of all the ends this spring, dislocated his arm in the finals of the Junior Olympic wrestling tournament and will be lost to the squad until fall. The second major injury was that of Burt Watson, who has been a leader in the battle for right half position. In one of the early scrimmages Watson suffered an injury to his thigh which caused a hemorrhage. He continued practice until last week when the seriousness of the injury was discovered.

Each of these men has shown enough ability to warrant first string jobs and will be invited to join early fall practice sessions.

DeGroot will call for workouts two weeks before registration day because of the early date set for the Willamette game to be played in Salem, Oregon. Tomorrow's clash will go a long way toward determining those worthy of making the long trip to the north.

With close battles being waged for all positions, Coach DeGroot has indicated that only one man has virtually cinched his position. According to the head coach only Ralph Meyers, veteran center, is sure of a fall starting position. The coach stated that Meyers' all-around play had placed him head and shoulders above any of the other center candidates.

ENDS

Last year's leaders at end, Laughlin and Barrachi, are slated to start in the lineup for the Gold squad tomorrow with the hard-working Wing as reserve. The Reds, as opposition for these experienced wingmen, will throw five first-rate ends into the contest for equalizers. Hubbard has Lantagne, Baldwin, Bruning, Collins and Wattenberger ready for the tilt.

TACKLES, GUARDS

DeGroot will have four heavy-weight tackles to depend on in the game in Hardiman, Martin, Maynard and Fowler. Jackson, Abernathy, Wilson and Rouyet, just a few pounds lighter will grace the lineup of the Reds.

Guards for the Golds will be Cannell, Redman, Dunlap and Henning. Opposite these men, on the Red side of the scrimmage line will be found Azevedo, Rapose, Swartzell, Hudson and Buffa.

In Meyers and Spalding, two veteran centers, the Gold team will have a strong defense in the middle of the line. Barney Swartzell and Hill will hold down the pivot position for Hubbard's eleven.

BACKS

DuBose and Sanders will bark the signals for the Gold outfit with Carpenter and Bishop doing the same for the crimson squad. Plenty of talent can be found

S.J. Professor Sets Perfect Record At Del Monte Shoot

Instructors may be stamped as sissies in the class room, but it is deemed that nevermore will anyone even remotely attach that adjective to the name of Earl W. Atkinson.

100 STRAIGHT

For Dr. Atkinson proved his masculinity and potential deadliness by cracking 100 consecutive targets in the California State shooting match at Del Monte Sunday, thereby copping the state handicap championship and setting a new record.

CLIMATE?

"It must be the California climate," Dr. Atkinson volunteered as a reason for his success over veteran shooters who have been trying their hand at trap shooting for years.

"I never did any trap shooting until I came to California a year ago, when I took it up as a hobby."

PERFECT SCORE

Dr. Atkinson's perfect score is the first to be recorded in the state meet. For his prowess with the gun he received a 16 inch trophy, which is his permanent property, $50 in cash, and possession for one year of the P.I.T.A. $170 diamond medal.

MEDAL VALUE

The value of the medal grows from year to year with the addition of a new name. Like a chain letter, it also promises future rewards, for the one dollar entry fees paid by the contestants every year go to the name added to the top of the list in the last year's meet.

in the Gold halfback positions which should be filled to perfection by Stockdale, Pura, Argilla and Souza. Hubbards team will not be weakened with Peach, Boschetti, Slingluff, and Walden on the firing line.

FULLBACKS

Each team boasts of an excellent fullback. Bill Lewis, dusky sensation of last fall's Frosh, will fill the position for DeGroot and the hard-hitting Gil Bishop, one of the most improved footballers on the entire squad, will be found in there battling for Bill Hubbard's Reds.

Just Among Ourselves

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE

Note: This column is personal between the president and the college. Outsiders are requested not to make use of the material.

It was a long, hard-fought battle, doubtful to the last minute. Those meaningless amendments almost flooded us. The University lobby taught us a thing or two. We'll know better next time.

It was a fine, courageous thing for Governor Merriam to sign that bill. The opposition was active and stopped at nothing from mild insinuations to open double-crossing. There's always a threat to a public man when he takes action on a controversial question. I hope all of our friends will realize the fine courtesy Governor Merriam has shown us in this matter and express to him their appreciation whenever the opportunity presents itself.

And let me tell you, we have two jolly fighters in our Assemblyman Cottrell and our Senator Young. Cliff has been a busy man this season as head of the vital Ways and Means Committee, but he considers San Jose State his own personal pet and he puts in his plugs at just the right time and in the right place. Even if so many of our friends hadn't wired the Governor, I believe he would have signed the bill just as a courtesy to Assemblyman Cottrell. Most sincere thanks from us all, Cliff, and congratulations.

Senator Young had a bill of his own and got it through the Senate.

In the juggling that came about later, it seemed best to the college group to drop the Senate bill and concentrate on the House bill. No legislator likes to see a bill of his dropped, especially after he has won the battle in his own House. We may all feel the deepest sense of appreciation for the fine sportsmanship and statesmanship Senator Young showed in dropping his own bill and taking up wholeheartedly the right to force the Assembly bill through the Senate. We hadn't a vote to spare, just a minimum 21. The colleges had seven senators from their home counties, and each one of them had to get at least two more to turn the trick. With the University working in vigorous opposition, it took a real effort on the part of our friends to get the required number of votes. Many thanks, Senator Young, for your vigorous support. It took courage and resourcefulness to put over a job like that.

Amateurs Of Station W6YL Offer Free Traffic Service For Final Days

Radio Message Drive Week

Today inaugurates Message Drive Week for amateurs of San Jose State's Radio club.

Special attention will be paid during the drive to students having messages they wish relayed to any city in the United States. Howard Guilbert, W6KFL, Radio club president, is anxious to have a representative amount of campus correspondence go out through campus station W6YL, and points out that the traffic service is free.

"It is possible for students to arrange with the club to make schedules to any place in the United States or Hawaii. An average of one message every two days has been handled by the operators," Paul Lindsay, vice-president of the group and chairman of the Message Drive, states.

Message blanks may be secured

at either the Co-op or the Radio shack, while these messages may be placed in the club box in the Co-op, students are being invited to come directly to the Shack, in back of the Co-op, and examine the clubroom and the new transmitting equipment.

Other Officers of the club who served this quarter are: Betty Corker, secretary-treasurer; Norman Smaha, technician; Al Rhines, traffic manager.

Let 'em Eat Cake

By RAYMOND WALLACE

Dr. C.E.M. Joad, head of the Department of Philosophy at the University of London, says in the Modern Psychologist that during the early Christian era certain monks considered the female body so evil that they conducted experiments with a view to obtaining eggs without hens. The end of the world was expected at practically any time, so that it was considered unnecessary to take any steps for the continuation of the human race, but no monk could very well do without his eggs.

Overheard in the quad: "Funny how the guys fall for it when you give your hips a little extra swing. Dja notice that guy we just passed looking at me? Well, I gave—"

You flatter yourself, young lady. Actually, that little extra swing you gave merely called my attention to the fact that there a little too much of them.

The symphony concert last Tuesday—and the little girl who chewed gum throughout the performance—and about the middle of the program inquired, "Mother, aren't they ever going to finish?"—I have always wanted to hear the St. Louis Blues played by a symphony orchestra—like chop-sticks played on a pipe-organ—I did that once—terrible.

Yesterday afternoon in the library, a student seated himself across the table from me, laying down a binder with a title lettered on the cover, "The Book of Death, Vol. I". I was tempted to ask if the second volume were off the press yet.

In my dictionary 'Ambivalent' is defined as 'having at the same time both love and hate, especially as for a mother-in-law'. Now, then—would the dignity of the Funk & Wagnalls company permit them to make jokes, or did they really mean that?

On Memorial Day, the police students of San Jose State were appointed special policemen to assist the regular force with traffic congestion. Just before the parade came along, two kids were standing just in front of me watching one of the students. "Look at that guy," said one, "he thinks he's a policeman."

I leaned forward and remarked, "That's my roommate". (It really was.) "What's the matter him?" he asked, "does he think he's a cop?"

"He IS a cop," I answered. The boy looked at me a little suspiciously for a moment, then said, "Well, he better look out, or he'll get run over."

What ever became of Edward Hunter, the star reporter who uncovered the massacre of an entire village during the Japanese conquest of Manchuria? He was escorted out of Manchuria by Japanese detectives, and since then I have never seen his byline attached to any articles.

The only complete poem in one line I have ever heard, written by Harold Bettinger:

"Life without love is death without peace."

Son of St. Louis, ascend to heaven.

S.G.O. PICNIC

An enjoyable picnic was given by EDWIN OLMSTEAD at his attractive summer place in the Redwood Estates. The affair was given for S.G.O. members and their friends. The group enjoyed dancing, swimming, and hiking, and delicious refreshments were served. Dr. Boris Lubowski and Mrs. Lucille McKeown were patron and patroness for the occasion.

ALLENIAN SENIORS

ALLENIAN seniors were honored last Sunday morning at the San Jose Country club. Both active and alumnae members were present. Formal initiation for the new Alenians was held last Wednesday evening at the home of Josephine Connors. Plans were made also at that time for the luncheon that the society will give on Homecoming Day.

BETA BRUNCH

A delightful brunch was given last Sunday morning in the patio of the Sainte Claire in honor of the new members of BETA GAMMA CHI. Formal initiation preceded the brunch at which time Lorraine Smith, Marjorie Nicolls, Betty Brainerd, Clarisse O'Connell, and Alice Escaffre were officially made BETAS.

KAPPA INSTALLATION

Last Wednesday evening at the home of EDITH SMITHOUSEN the new officers of KAPPA KAPPA SIGMA were formally installed for the ensuing year. The affair was an impressive one with the traditional candle-light service. Those who will lead the sorority for the next year are: President, BETTIE JEANNE KELLER; Vice-president, RUTH LAWRY; Secretary, FRANCES GIBSON; Treasurer, MARTHA BARNETT; Sargent-at-arms; JEAN MARTIN; Custodian, MARGARET JAMES; Inter-society representative, MARGIE-BELLE LANDIS.

PHI KAP ELECTION

Mrs. RAE O. WIRTZ, faculty adviser of PHI KAPPA PI was hostess last evening to the sorority members. Formal initiation and election of officers were held. The new officers for the Fall quarter will be ELIZABETH SIMPSON, president; MARY YOUNGREN, vice president; BARBARA HARKEY, secretary; MARGARET POLLACK, treasurer; MARY GRAY, reporter; VIRGINIA PERRY, historian; KAY EPPS will act as inter-society representative. Initiators were: Alvin Cromwell, William Clark, Melio Mayo, and Ralph Goldeen. Elaborate ritual

The Administration chose poulterers as their opponents to fight out the constitutionality of the Blue Eagle and what it stood for. What added the real touch to the affair, though, was the charge that the poulterers dealt in sick chickens. If Dr. Pickwell and Dr. Count accomplished anything, they did impress the idea that chickens and eagles have much in common.

If memory serves one faithfully, we had a parade in honor of the late fne-feathered Bird.

Senator Borah in a radio address last Sunday evening spoke at length upon the value of the Supreme Court and the adequacy of the constitution during times of stress. He pointed out that the federal government cannot oversee local and state affairs from the central office, without resorting to bureaucratic methods. If the latter occurs, he explained, our present conditions would seem trivial.

CAN YOU BEAT IT

The Ford Early American Museum refused the Morris Dailey lighting equipment because of its poor condition. This is very disappointing to those who have guarded this equipment so carefully.

Variety reports that the San Diego Exposition is only 75% ready with the project almost a month behind. Hotel rates, with the exception of the U. S. Grant Hotel, have been raised about 50%. About $12,000,000 has been spent on a project which started out to be a $1,000,000 show. Space is at a premium, and the much discussed nudist colony seems to be a come-on-teaser with nothing happening.

Gambling and anything to bring in the schekels will go. City knows that Tia Juana and Caliente are too close to say anything.

MORE TOBACCO ROAD GOSSIP

Mr. Mendenhall objected to the SF show because: (1) too much ad libbing, (2) poor casting (Dude, Sister Bessie, (3) mechanical presentation, (4) Hull use of slapstick tricks (washing), and (5) poor timing.

Off to a weak start, the show is making more money each performance, which may keep it at the Curran several more weeks.

The New York company, so one of the trade papers reports, received a new set of costumes for the grand sum of $12.80

Bob Crosby is on his own with a new orchestra. It might be well to watch this kid brother of Bing. Variety believes that the recent network policy on laxatives and the like will kill about 5 and a half million dollars worth of business. Rudy Valee, Fred Allen, and the Barn Dance being the big accounts affected.

DeGroot, Hubbard Send Squads On Turf For Final Spring Gridiron Tilt

Golds Favored To Win Closing Contest Of Spring Practice

By DICK EDMONDS

As the climax to what was called the best spring practice in years by the coaches, two teams from the 1935 edition of the San Jose State varsity will meet in a regulation game on the San Carlos turf tomorrow afternoon.

TEAMS EQUAL

The two teams are almost equal in strength and both are out to score a victory in tomorrow's battle. Both coaches, Dudley DeGroot of the Reds and Bill Hubbard of the Golds, have expressed confidence concerning the outcome. The game will be one of the big features of the Homecoming celebration.

BEST SESSION

Coaches DeGroot and Hubbard agree that the 1935 spring practice session has been the best in years. According to DeGroot, the spirit has been excellent, and all men worked as hard as they would during the regulation season. Afraid at first that the squad would show a decline because of the extra length of the spring practice period this year, the coaches are rejoicing over the apparent enthusiasm of the players.

HARD WORKERS

Three men, Bob Wing, Emilie Rouyet, and Jess Wilson, tackles, are the ones who have especially pleased the coaches with their conscientious work during practice sessions. Each of the three has spent more than the required time in training and each will be given fullest opportunity to make good, according to reports of the coaches.

The inevitable list of injuries during spring practice has been kept down, and this is another reason why Coach DeGroot can be seen walking about the campus with a genial smile on his face.

TWO INJURIES

However, there have been two rather serious injuries. Earl Glover, who, according to DeGroot, has looked the best of all the ends this spring, dislocated his arm in the finals of the Junior Olympic wrestling tournament and will be lost to the squad until fall. The second major injury was that of Burt Watson, who has been a leader in the battle for right half position. In one of the early scrimmages Watson suffered an injury to his thigh which caused a hemorrhage. He continued practice until last week when the seriousness of the injury was discovered.

Each of these men has shown enough ability to warrant first string jobs and will be invited to join early fall practice sessions.

DeGroot will call for workouts two weeks before registration day because of the early date set for the Willamette game to be played in Salem, Oregon. Tomorrow's clash will go a long way toward determining those worthy of making the long trip to the north.

With close battles being waged for all positions, Coach DeGroot has indicated that only one man has virtually cinched his position. According to the head coach only Ralph Meyers, veteran center, is sure of a fall starting position. The coach stated that Meyers' all-around play had placed him head and shoulders above any of the other center candidates.

ENDS

Last year's leaders at end, Laughlin and Barrachi, are slated to start in the lineup for the Gold squad tomorrow with the hard-working Wing as reserve. The Reds, as opposition for these experienced wingmen, will throw five first-rate ends into the contest for equalizers. Hubbard has Lantagne, Baldwin, Bruning, Collins and Wattenberger ready for the tilt.

TACKLES, GUARDS

DeGroot will have four heavy-weight tackles to depend on in the game in Hardiman, Martin, Maynard and Fowler. Jackson, Abernathy, Wilson and Rouyet, just a few pounds lighter will grace the lineup of the Reds.

Guards for the Golds will be Cannell, Redman, Dunlap and Henning. Opposite these men, on the Red side of the scrimmage line will be found Azevedo, Rapose, Swartzell, Hudson and Buffa.

In Meyers and Spalding, two veteran centers, the Gold team will have a strong defense in the middle of the line. Barney Swartzell and Hill will hold down the pivot position for Hubbard's eleven.

BACKS

DuBose and Sanders will bark the signals for the Gold outfit with Carpenter and Bishop doing the same for the crimson squad. Plenty of talent can be found

S.J. Professor Sets Perfect Record At Del Monte Shoot

Instructors may be stamped as sissies in the class room, but it is deemed that nevermore will anyone even remotely attach that adjective to the name of Earl W. Atkinson.

100 STRAIGHT

For Dr. Atkinson proved his masculinity and potential deadliness by cracking 100 consecutive targets in the California State shooting match at Del Monte Sunday, thereby copping the state handicap championship and setting a new record.

CLIMATE?

"It must be the California climate," Dr. Atkinson volunteered as a reason for his success over veteran shooters who have been trying their hand at trap shooting for years.

"I never did any trap shooting until I came to California a year ago, when I took it up as a hobby."

PERFECT SCORE

Dr. Atkinson's perfect score is the first to be recorded in the state meet. For his prowess with the gun he received a 16 inch trophy, which is his permanent property, $50 in cash, and possession for one year of the P.I.T.A. $170 diamond medal.

MEDAL VALUE

The value of the medal grows from year to year with the addition of a new name. Like a chain letter, it also promises future rewards, for the one dollar entry fees paid by the contestants every year go to the name added to the top of the list in the last year's meet.

in the Gold halfback positions which should be filled to perfection by Stockdale, Pura, Argilla and Souza. Hubbards team will not be weakened with Peach, Boschetti, Slingluff, and Walden on the firing line.

FULLBACKS

Each team boasts of an excellent fullback. Bill Lewis, dusky sensation of last fall's Frosh, will fill the position for DeGroot and the hard-hitting Gil Bishop, one of the most improved footballers on the entire squad, will be found in there battling for Bill Hubbard's Reds.

Read these reports from star athletes approving Camels

When athletes agree upon one cigarette, its mildness is placed beyond question. For they must be sure about mildness! Pete Desjardins says: "Camels are so mild that I can smoke as many as I like and still keep my wind in perfect condition." Pepper Martin, fleet-footed St. Louis Cardinal, says: "Camels are mild—don't cut down on my speed or wind." And Pepper is backed by Leo Sexton, Olympic shot-put record holder; Craig Wood, the golf star; Reggie McNamara,

More enjoyment for you in this mild cigarette! You'll find you can smoke Camels all you want! Athletes say that Camel's costlier tobaccos don't tire their taste—don't upset their nerves or get their "wind."

IT'S JUST AS IMPORTANT TO YOU to keep "in condition" as it is to any champion. Smoke Camels all you wish. Athletes say Camels never upset the nerves, never get the wind.
