Annuals To Be Ready For First Distribution Monday

La Torres To Be Given In Publications' Room, 4-Cent Tax Payable

Starting Monday, copies of the maroon and gold covered 1936 La Torre will be given out to students of San Jose State college.

Making its appearance at that time for a whole week's distribution, the yearbook will be given away absolutely free to students who have been in attendance here all year. Others who have paid up the 40 cents charge for any quarter that they have not been in attendance at San Jose State will be entitled to a book at the same time free copies are given out.

A four cents tax charge, payable upon receipt of the book, will be collected from students for every copy, whether they are getting it free or have paid the dues.

Distribution will begin in the Publications office. One or two quarter students who have paid their fees at the Controller's office and can show the receipt will be entitled to books at the same time that the free ones are given out. The faculty may buy books for $1.20 at the Controller's office.

Those who have been here all year and are receiving free books must present student body cards. A list of students who have been here all year will be kept at the desk.

Abstract art designs, snapshots of campus life, and large division page photos of the college buildings are only a few of the features La Torre is offering this year.

R. Thompson To Head Grads; Mosher Leaves

At a recent meeting of the Alumni Executive board the following officers were nominated by the nominating committee to serve during the year 1936-37.

Mr. Roy Thompson, president; Mr. Ronald Linn, vice-president; Miss Lydia E. Innes, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Marion Tower Cox and Mr. Richard Fox, executive board members; and Miss Berta Gray, editor of the Alumni Bulletin.

Dr. Raymond Mosher has served as president of the Association for the past year, while Mr. Roy Thompson was vice-president. Dr. Mosher left Thursday for the University of Missouri, where he will teach during summer session.

Knoles To Give Baccalaureate Sermon Sunday

Symphony Orchestra, A Cappella Choir To Offer Music

Sunday afternoon at 3:30 the senior graduating group, numbering nearly 400, will assemble in Morris Dailey auditorium to hear Dr. Tully Knoles, president of the College of Pacific, make the Baccalaureate sermon.

Friends and relatives of the seniors will also be present as Dr. Knoles speaks on "Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity."

Opening the program, the seniors will proceed into the auditorium to Meyerbeer's "Coronation March." Invocation by the Reverend Benjamin Gould, minister of the San Jose Congregational church will follow.

All seniors are requested to meet at 2:30 Sunday afternoon in the Little Theater to receive final instructions and prepare for the processional march.

"Holy, Holy, Holy," famous hymn by Dykes, will be sung by the congregation, and then the college symphony orchestra, conducted by Adolph W. Otterstein, will play the first movement from Beethoven's immortal "Symphony Number Five in C Minor."

President T. W. MacQuarrie will then introduce Dr. Knoles as the principal speaker. The A Cappella choir will offer three numbers, "Nunc Dimittis" by Gretchaninoff, "The Morning Star" by Schumann, and "Salvation is Created" by Tschesnokoff.

Following benediction of the class by the Reverend Gould, the recessional to Handel's "Solemn March" will close the program.

Final Student Hop Of Year Set For Tomorrow Nite In Men's Gym

FRESHMEN HOLD FINAL MEETING

With Dean Goddard remarking that "no freshman class has ever measured up to this one due to the innate excellence of the student council," and DeWitt Portal declaring that this year's freshman athletic group is the finest he has ever had, over 150 students were cited for recognition in freshman orientation yesterday.

Freshman adviser Dean Goddard presented President Benny Melzer, Vice-President Jerry Girdner, and Secretary Martha Sayre with San Jose State jewelry.

Members of the freshman council, debating society, freshman dramatic society, college dramatic society, and Spartan Spears received recognition. Individual freshmen were also cited for recognition in the Peace Poster con-

Balloons, Soft Lights And Maus' Orchestra Are Special Features

Bright colored streamers, soft lights, and gay music will bring to a close the dancing season for the spring quarter, when the last student body dance is held in the men's gymnasium, tomorrow night.

Dancing will start at 9 o'clock and continue until 12 o'clock. During the evening, 750 balloons will be dropped from the ceiling on the dancers below.

PRIZE BALLOONS

Four of these balloons will have prize tags in them. This time instead of putting the tickets in white balloons, they will be placed in no particular colored balloons.

The prize balloons will be augmented by door prizes. All gifts

GALA HOMECOMING PLANNED; GRADS OF WAY-BACK EXPECTED

Entertainment With Good Food And Fine Fellowship Part Of Huge Get-Together

"Homecoming will be a gala affair," and "Your spirit helps our spirit," say Association President Raymond Mosher and President T. W. MacQuarrie in welcoming fellow-alumni to San Jose State college on Saturday, June 13.

School Considers Buying Part Of Phelan Tract

Need Of Breathing Space For Future Seen By MacQuarrie

The 8.8 acres of the Phelan tract lying between Spartan Stadium and the site of the new high school is now being considered for purchase for San Jose Junior college, according to Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie.

The land would provide for "breathing space" in future years when the college is built up, and may be used for tennis courts, baseball diamond, or parking space, Dr. MacQuarrie said. This would avoid the usual spring conflict when track and football contests sometimes must be held simultaneously.

SUM OFFERED

A real estate agent was instructed to obtain an option on the property for an estimated price of $10,000 when the matter came before the board at Tuesday night's meeting. Completion of the purchase is expected to find approval at an early meeting of the board.

If the section is obtained, San Jose State college will have nearly 25 acres covered with athletic facilities adjoining the 47 acres purchased by the board of education Tuesday for the erection of a new eastside high school.

Radio Class To Inspect Oakland Airport Today

Radio equipment used by large air-lines and training methods for teaching prospective pilots and radio operators will be inspected by members of Mr. Harry Engwicht's beginning radio class today when they are shown through the Oakland airport.

Mr. Engwicht asks that all planning to make the trip meet at 12:45 at the Seventh street entrance near the Industrial Arts department.

Health Office Opens For Alumni Saturday

For the convenience of alumni who may have found their trip to ye olde campus a bit hard on the constitution, the college Health office will be open all day Saturday, Miss Elizabeth McFadden has announced.

Guests who feel like reclining during the afternoon will find Miss Grace Plum and Miss Wilda Bridges of the Health department willing to open the rest rooms for their accommodation.

Members of honor classes from way back will be well entertained when all the old grads reassemble under the elms of the south lawn. These occasions are spirited affairs with good food, music, and the joy of seeing old friends. Reservations are nearly all filled, and one graduate of '86 is coming all the way from Chicago to participate in the activities. Members from the class of '11 and '26 will also be honored on Saturday.

EARLY START

Homecoming Day program will begin at 8 o'clock with society and organization breakfasts, followed by reception and registration to take place at 10 in the front entrance to the quad. Under the sponsorship of the San Jose State Music department, the A Cappella choir and the symphony

Watson Wins Spartan Sports Poll

Dudley Rapped BY SPORTS ED On Dictatorship

To Messrs.
Sawtelle, Melzer:

I wish to apologize for all the publicity that has been given to you by my page and the All-Spartan Sports Poll.

We are sorry that all our great writeups cause you to seek greater fields because some people believe that you were not deserving of all that was given you.

You, Mr. Sawtelle, are only a mediocre freshman runner, the victim of a sports page inflation . . . some people say.

To you, Mr. Melzer, goes our deepest regret for your unfortunate bout in the state championships. We accept all blame because we made you think you were one of the greatest fighters on earth. (Maybe we shouldn't have published your picture.)

The Sports Poll staff is indeed apologetic for this great wave of "big-headedness." Realization of our contribution to the drooping of Spartan sport fortunes came only yesterday when Director of Athletics Dud DeGroot told our correspondent that the function of a sport page is to provide a medium for his theories about the so-called "morale" of athletics.

Despite objections leaking out from the head office over in the P.E. department, the Spartan Daily sports staff will continue under its present policy of printing the sport news of San Jose State as it is seen through the eyes of our sport reporters, whether the sport be FOOTBALL or just boxing and track.

Fratmen Clash At Spartan Field In Track Program

San Jose State's three campus fraternities get together today at 4:15 p.m. on the cinders of Spartan Field for their annual track and field contest, with the highly touted and well-balanced Alpha Pi Omega track team in the role of favorite to again cop the Interfraternity title.

There are 12 events on the program, and Interfraternity records will be kept this year for the first time, so the 11 individual winners and the winning relay team will be the first record holders and their marks will stand the test from year to year.

SPARTAN DAILY, FRIDAY, JUNE 12, 1936

Burt Rides High To Cop First Annual Sports Poll After Weeks Of Voting

By JAMES MARLAIS

Thundering down the stretch under an avalanche of ballots for the fifth consecutive week—versatile Burt Watson today breezed across the finish of the first annual Sports-Poll to be acclaimed the outstanding athlete of the year and the first captain of an All-Spartan Mythical Eleven.

Riding high and pounding home nearly three full "lengths" ahead of his nearest competitor for the highest sports honor of the year, the croonin' sports leader breasted the wire as a heart-rendering finish for places on the first Sports-Poll in Washington Square annals produced a last minute scramble for the coveted eleventh position.

COMES FROM BEHIND

It was a thrilling climax to the five-week series of polls to determine the outstanding sports figure of 1936 as Larry Arnerich, of long-shooting basketball fame, burst into the limelight for the second time and earned for himself a berth behind the be-spectacled Sherman Sawtelle. Glenn DuBose emerged the victor for the eleventh position to bring the poll into the finishing stages that will make its appearance before the students Thursday, in the form of a two page pictorial.

It was indeed, a heart-breaker for the tail-enders as "Pappy" Glenn DuBose won the coveted eleventh position by a fraction of a point as final tabulations revealed that a mere two-thirds of a point prevented Harry Hardiman and Shufflin Stan Griffin from entering the 1936 hall of fame.

PURA SECOND

Spectacular splurges and down the chute jaunts marked the poll as "dark horse" candidates and newcomers ran up and down the lanes of sports supremacy. Little Fran Pura is credited for the greatest rise to the top as the forgotten man of the initial poll was rocketed to the top.

The elusive runner, who established himself as one of the greatest safety men in the history of San Jose State football, jumped into the very uncertain runner-up position and became the only athlete to hold the post for more than one week as final results found Pura in there for the third consecutive time.

FEMININE BRIGADE

Among the climaxing highlights of the final students' poll was the feminine brigade of slightly decorated ballots for the dapper Howard Withycombe. The handsome backstroke sensation nearly rode to a crown position of the poll but a mighty gust of confiscated choices ended his wild and woolly romp to the front.

It was a banner year for the freshmen as Ben Melzer, Jack Fiebig and Sherman Sawtelle upheld the honor of the first year men. It was only the hand of fate that prolonged the boxing season and prevented San Jose State's new boxing champion from earning a place along with one of the greatest frosh aggregations to represent the gold and white.

DeGroot Eleven Rated Edge On Hubbardites

Puss Punchers Go ON POPPING IN Season Summary

By DICK EDMONDS

Using five third and second string men in the lineup, Coach DeWitt Portal's punching proteges combined to trounce a San Mateo Junior College team, one which had defeated San Jose the year before, to the tune of nine matches to one.

Handicapped because of the freshman ruling, San Jose was unable to make a very representative dual meet schedule.

Turning now to the Sacramento intercollegiate for action, Portal took four, all men on the first and second strings that could boast of a higher than freshman standing, for the first invasion of the lair of the boxing giants of the Pacific Coast.

DON GREAT GUNS

Although finishing only above Idaho in the final count, San Jose's meager representation made an excellent showing in that every bout lost was a close one with plenty of action. Don Walker, lanky heavyweight while not in the best of condition, came through with one of the greatest performances of a State boxer of the year when he became runner-up on the Pacific Coast, losing only to a man who outweighed him some 70 pounds, in the final bout.

With a month's rest, the Spartans entered training again for entry in the California State championships and novice meet which was completed last week.

Will all FRESHMAN ATHLETES who received numeral awards yesterday please meet in room 39 at 12 o'clock today to discuss the buying of sweaters in a lot.

Coaches To Select 35 Men For Pre-Fall Grid Seasons

The last football bombardment to hit Washington Square until some 35 members of the San Jose State squad return for fall practice will take place tomorrow afternoon on the turf of the southern extremities of the campus.

Under the influences of Coaches Bill Hubbard and Dud DeGroot, a pair of teams of varying abilities will collide to provide entertainment for returning alumni.

BLUES FAVORED

DeGroot's eleven has again seemingly the edge, even more so than in the previous encounter when the "Blues" were somewhat humiliated by the impudent "Golds" of the Hubbard clan.

However, offense is what the State mentor is striving to perfect and tomorrow should find the DeGroot powerhouse eleven going to town on the orthodox San Jose formations with a lighter and less experienced eleven on the other side of the fence shooting the works with anything that may come handy.

The game is also the last chance for several of the men to prove that they have the stuff to carry them through the fall campaign and much may hinge on their showing in the Homecoming fray.

VETERANS

The DeGroot-Portal-Donadio crew is loaded with veterans of the tested sort, and with Martin, Captain Carpenter, Lewis, Argilla, Peach, Lantagne, Redman, Swartzell and their cohorts of the 1935 season furnishing the motive power, the Hubbard-Bishop gold-shirts look to be in for a bad afternoon.

The latter eleven will depend much upon the line-plunging and passing of "Papa" Glenn DuBose and the signal-calling of Norm Sanders at the quarterback post, although some of the greener material has been looking well during the last week.

All-Spartan Sports Poll Results

ATHLETE	POINTS	HOW THEY VOTED
Burt Watson	312	65	56	65	67	59
Fran Pura	113	4	31	30	32	16
Jim Stockdale	85	22	0	28	26	9

Larry Arnerich	27	6	3	2	6	10
Glenn DuBose	25	0	8	6	7	4

The general students' poll is included in the five weeks' series of polls that are recorded as follows: Sports scribes, coaches, captains-managers, athletes and the students.

Harry Hardiman and Stan Griffin were edged out of the Mythical Eleven by 1-3 and 2-3 of a point respectively.

Bob Doerr of A.P.O., Charlie Clark of S.G.O., and Don Baldwin and Bud Everett of D.T.O., fighting it out for the four places in the 220 and 440 yard runs

(not dashes), the A.P.O.'s will boast of Slingluff, Dick Brown, and Bob Stone; the S.G.O.'s of Jim Welch, Clark, and Don Porter; and the D.T.O.'s of Baldwin, Harvey Green, and Everett.

WELCOME BACK HOME ALUMNI

Three Alumni To Receive Honorary Degrees June 18

Three alumni who have made good in the educational field were graduated from the college before A.B. degrees were granted will be awarded honorary A.B. degrees at commencement next Thursday. The three to be honored are the following:

Mr. Elmer Cave, '90, superintendent of the Vallejo city schools.
Mr. W. J. Cagner, '91, rural supervisor of Los Angeles county and former superintendent of San Benito county schools.
Mr. Joseph Hancock, '94, former superintendent of Santa Clara county schools.

Among the alumni expected to return for Homecoming Day will be Mrs. Lila Kirkpatrick, graduate of 1876, sixty years ago. Mrs. Kirkpatrick's home is now in Redwood City.

Symphony, A Cappella Join For Homecoming

The symphony orchestra conducted by Adolph Otterstein will combine with the A Cappella choir under the direction of William Erbjenson in a program to be given Saturday morning in the Morris Dailey auditorium from eleven to twelve fifteen for the home coming alumni.

A Cappella choir program:
Nunc Dinuttis Gretchaninov
Evening Kodaly
Wake Awake Christiansen
Salvation is Created Tschisnokoff
The Morning Star G. Schumann
Beautiful Savior Christiansen

The symphony will play Wagner's Tannhauser Overture, and On The Trail, from Ferde Grofe's Grand Canyon Suite.

With the exception of the concert for Baccalaureate Sunday, this is to be the final appearance for both groups.

Mrs. McClure Directs Homecoming Activities

Mrs. Mary McDermott McClure is general chairman of Homecoming Day activities. Mrs. McClure is being assisted by the following:

Dr. Raymond Mosher, Alumni Association president; Miss Lydia E. Innes, Alumni Secretary; Miss Berta Gray, editor of the Alumni Bulletin, and the following committee chairmen:

Art, Library Groups Plan Alumni Breakfast

Among the groups planning entertainment for alumni members Saturday, are the Art and Library departments, which have scheduled breakfasts.

Bibliophiles will entertain at 9 o'clock in one of the ballrooms of Hotel DeAnza, with approximately fifty guests expected. Mr. Robert Gitler will give a reading, and Mrs. Latham Nurney, children's librarian of the San Jose Public Library, will tell stories. Graduates will be expected to tell of their experiences in the field.

Art majors will gather at the home of Elmerna Down, Box 27, Saratoga avenue, for breakfast at 8 o'clock.

HOME ECON GROUP PLANS FASHION SHOW FOR HOMECOMING DAY

Presenting an outdoor fashion show in honor of the homecoming alumni, members of the Home Economics department will model modern and old-fashioned styles on the south lawn near the Home Economics building Saturday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:00 o'clock.

As the first division of the fashion show, fifty modern styles created exclusively by members of the Home Economics department will be modeled, showing active and spectator sports, with special attention concerning campus wear, street wear, afternoon wear, and evening gowns.

Emphasizing the important inspirations which old-fashioned styles offer in the designing of modern apparel, Miss Velma Hamilton, of the Home Economics department, avers that old-fashioned clothes will be modeled with complete information as to material and historic dates. Among the line-up of old hoops and trains to be displayed is a gorgeous wedding gown of the 1870's, the model of which will be accompanied by two small bridesmaids.

During the fashion show, tea will be served at tables distributed about the lawn by the food class or the Home Economics department.

waitressing today; while Mr. Ben Spaulding, who has officiated as chief steak-searer for several homecomings, will again serve in that capacity.

Old Friends To Meet Again In '36 Homecoming

orchestra will present a concert in the Morris Dailey auditorium from 11 to 12:15 o'clock.

At 12:30, forty members of the Spartan Spears will serve at a barbecue luncheon to be held on the south lawn. Alice Wilson and Barbara Harkey will take charge of the affair. Mrs. Mary McClure, monologist, and Joel Carter, soloist, will furnish entertainment at the barbecue, as will also Mr. Roy Thompson, principal of Peter Burnett junior high school and vice-president of the Alumni Association, who will give a solo.

PLAQUE DEDICATION

Another outstanding attraction of the day will be the presentation and dedication of the State college plaque by the class of '35, signifying change of name from State Teachers' college to San Jose State college. Presentation will be made at the barbecue by the student body president of last year, Ronald Linn, and will be accepted by student body prexy, Bill Moore.

An informal '35 class reunion will be held from 3 to 4 o'clock at the home of Dr. James C. DeVoss and a Japanese tea will be given on the south lawn, by the Japanese students at which all the alumni are cordially invited. The tea is scheduled to take place from 3 to 5 o'clock. The Home Economics department is presenting a reception and fashion review from 3:30 to 5 o'clock, and a demonstration football game to be held on the San Carlos street turf, will take place from 4 to 5 in the afternoon.

To end up the day's program, society and organization dinners are scheduled, and finally a student body-alumni dance will take place in the men's gymnasium starting at 9 o'clock.

"You're such an encouragement to us when you come back for Homecoming. You make us feel that in addition to the grades, you gained immeasurable values when you were here in college and the years have helped you to recognize them. We're glad. Your spirit helps our spirit," Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie expressed in the last issue of the Alumni Bulletin.

Japanese Club To Hold Senior Party Saturday

While some of their agile fellows are tripping lightly at the student body dance in the men's gym, the college Japanese club will entertain in the women's gym Saturday night at eight-thirty.

The graduating group, former students, and present members will be guests at the affair, which is under the direction of Edward Nakano. Philip Matsumura is president of the club this year.

Notice

NO CORSAGES for Senior Ball tonight. (Signed) Senior Ball committee.

CLIPPINGS FOR 1935 BOX

Souvenirs and clippings, or other mementoes, for contribution to the class souvenir box when dedication of the plaque is made Saturday during Homecoming ceremonies, will be collected from 1935 graduates in attendance.

BREAKFAST PLANNED IN HONOR OF TAU MU DELTA GRADUATES

In honor of the graduating members of their group, Tau Mu Delta, honorary music sorority, is having a Homecoming day breakfast at 9:15 tomorrow in the patio of Hotel Sainte Claire.

Many alumnae members are expected to attend the affair, one of a series of gatherings centered on Homecoming day activities.

Graduates who will be honored at the breakfast are Margaret Melliar, retiring president; Arlene Woten, vice-president; Roberta J. Smith, treasurer; Cousie Coverston, historian-reporter; Doris Standish, Marthella Davis, Lola Kinne, Elizabeth Simpson, Helen Johnson, Lucy Stacey, and Frances Croncy.

Alumni group who will be on the campus during the day are extended an invitation to attend the dance.

Punch will be served and one member of the couple must have a student body card to attend the affair.

Alumni who attend the dance must present their cards. Those who have none may purchase them at the door for one dollar. Guests of either students or alumni will be admitted for twenty-five cents.

Tau Gamma To Give Breakfast

Seventy former women physical education majors at San Jose State will gather at the Hotel DeAnza Saturday at 8:30 for a breakfast given in their honor by members of Tau Gamma, women's honor physical education society.

Barbara Adams, president of the organization, will have charge of reception of the guests, aided by Berta Gray, secretary of the Publications office. Place cards, decorations, and seating arrangements will be handled by Alberta Lantz, Jewel Pangburn, vice-president of Tau Gamma, and Lillian Brown, secretary-treasurer, assisted by Miss Doris Dean.

Entertainment for the morning will be furnished by the Four Musketeers, popular campus quartet. Dr. and Mrs. T. W. MacQuarrie will be among the guests

Spears Again To Serve Barbecue For Alumni

Spartan Spears, service honor society for sophomore women, will again serve the alumni barbecue luncheon tomorrow noon. Serving at this annual affair has become traditional with the Spears, who are under the capable guidance of Miss Margaret Twombly.
