First Weekly Gridiron Sponsor To Be Voted In Election Tomorrow

Queen Of Gridiron To Be Official 'Captain-Kisser'; Will Stage Pre-Game Fete At Opening Of San Francisco Battle

Sparta is to have his football sweetheart.

Tomorrow by popular acclaim a State girl will be chosen sponsor through ballots in Tuesday's Spartan Daily as State's most attractive girl, she will reign through the week as Queen of the Gridiron, the official kisser of the captain and cheerer of the team.

FULL PICTURE

A unique innovation in San Jose's sport and social world, the election of San Jose's football sweetheart will be given wide publicity. A full page picture of the chosen co-ed will appear on the flyleaf of the football program. Her pictures will be placed in city papers and on the day of the game, amid colorful ceremony, she will be seated in a special section of the stadium with flowers and trimmings that will help her give the captain and the team a proper send-off.

Rules for balloting are simple. Tomorrow, as for future balloting, one vote should be cast on each ballot for State's most attractive girl. No girl may rule more than once over a game, which will mean that five San Jose co-eds will be elected for

Council To Make Approval Tonight

Approval of the emergency appointment of Frank Brayton as editor of the Daily will be made this evening at the first executive council meeting of the fall quarter.

Brayton, whose temporary appointment was made this summer by Dwight Bentel, replaced Steve Murdock, who did not return to the campus. He has been editing the paper since the beginning of the quarter.

Other appointments for the quarter to be made at this same time, will be the representatives of the music department, debating squad, and health cottage. The students receiving these appointments will replace Ellwyn Schwartz, Howard Morris, and Frances Cuenin, respectively.

The final business of the first meeting will be the approval of the muchly debated budgets, which have already been under fire. They were subjected to severe cutting during the Spring quarter, when the new and old councils met in joint session.

The organizations to date have requested $43,103.68, but following the cutting they will receive $39,513.68, showing a cut of $3,590.

Student Meeting Set For Tuesday

Yell Leader Tryouts Is Rally's Objective

Combining the first fall rally with the yell leader tryouts a student body meeting will be held tomorrow in the Morris Daily Auditorium at 11 o'clock, under the general supervision of the Rally Committee.

HONOR TEAM

Jim Welch, senior, in charge of all assemblies has planned a full program in honor of the football team. Opening with a band selection, the program will rapidly continue with the yell leader tryouts, presentation of the team, and a speech by Dudley S. DeGroot, football coach.

Paul Becker, student body president, will address the students for the first time when he speaks tomorrow. After his talk, the meeting will be turned over to Cal Sides, rally committee chairman.

SEE WELCH

Students trying out for the yell leaders position, are urged to see Jim Welch in the student council room (co-op building) between the hours of 8 and 9, 12:30 and 1, and 2 and 3. Unless the student is signed up today, it will be impossible to be given a tryout, according to Welch.

Other events on the rally committee program for the fall season are a series of rallies and noise parades, in addition to several afternoon dances, two of which will be held October 2 and 16 in the women's gymnasium.

Voting for candidates will take place on Wednesday, following the tryouts Tuesday.

Phi Mu Alpha To End Music Series

College Sponsors Don Cossack Chorus In Oct.

Deciding that a music concert series will not be sponsored by the college this season, members of Phi Mu Alpha, honorary music fraternity, discussed plans for the year at a barbecue Thursday night at the home of Bob Ish.

A concert series will be given in the San Jose Civic auditorium under the sponsorship of the Denny Watrous Management of Carmel, it was revealed at the meeting.

DON COSSACKS

However, the Don Cossacks, world-famous male chorus, will appear in the Morris Dailey auditorium October 18 under the sponsorship of the college music department. Admission will be from 50 cents to $1.75, with a reduced rate to be announced for students.

Drive For Student Rooters Is Instigated By Rally Committee

"We want freshmen so we can test their voices, and we want seniors to see if they have any voices," such is the statement from the rally committee members, who are instigating a drive for 500 students to fill up the proposed organized rooting section.

The section, which will be in the center of the east side of the stadium, is the first of its kind to be attempted at State. Bob Free, chairman of the card stunts, will conduct the activities at all games except the U.S.F. game of this week-end, at which there will be no stunts.

The need for an organized section, according to Cal Sides, chairman, is very great to stimulate interest in the games and promote a friendly feeling between the team members and students.

At each of the home games, 500 megaphones will be distributed to the students, with the State insignia printed on them. These "aids to yelling" will be collected at each game and redistributed to the students at the following games.

Coaches Fail To Reach Decision In Scholarship Race

Two San Jose State athletes are leading the field in the balloting by Spartan coaches to determine who shall receive the Webster Benton Memorial scholarship this year, it was admitted by Coach Dudley DeGroot.

The two boys, on one of whom the hand of fortune is expected to fall, are Burt Watson and Les Carpenter. Watson appeared to be the favorite; but a three point superior scholarship average kept Carpenter's name before the coaches.

Rules of the Webster Benton Memorial provide that the coaches shall recommend a candidate to the donor of the scholarship. Final decision will rest with the donor, an anonymous Spartan graduate.

Kathleen Ellis To Accompany Local Dancers On Tour

One of Most Versatile Players Ever At State

"Undoubtedly Kathleen Ellis was one of the most versatile talented actors San Jose State has known."—Hugh W. Gillis, director of San Jose Players.

Temporarily abandoning her scholastic studies of drama and music for a more practical application of her talents, Kathleen Ellis Wilkinson, former San Jose State student, departed for a tour of the East last Sunday in the position of accompanist for a local dance team, Harry Hamilton and Wanda Williams.

SINCE 1934

Registering from Los Gatos in 1934, Mrs. Wilkinson became a member of San Jose Players and immediately gained recognition from dramatic circles by her interpretation of Gracia in "Death Takes A Holiday".

Rapidly following up her first success with the part of Jacky Coryton in "Hayfever" and, later, in the title role of "Mrs. Moonlight", the actress acquired a reputation for amazing versatility and unusually fine speech which was enhanced by her surprising character comedy role in "Olympia".

DOUBLE INTEREST

Much in the manner of a pendulum, swinging from side to side, the former student deviated between two major interests, taking in her stride appearances as vocalist with Al Davina's orchestra, piano recitals on the musical half hour and character roles in summer session plays.

Kathleen Ellis Wilkinson's final appearance before regular session students was made in "There's Always Juliet". Chosen as the college actress with histrionic ability enough to overcome the technical and emotional difficulties of the leading role, she rose to greater heights in the role of Leonora Perrycoste and established herself among the ranks of "personalities to remember".

Fifty Coptets Enroll In Police Department

With the enrollment of nearly fifty students, the State College Police School, headed by Mr. William A. Wiltberger, has the largest class in the history of the department, according to results of a registration check-up.

For the first time, a special Police Intelligence Test has been required of every student enrolling in the school.

The department has recruited two new faculty members, Dwight Bentel, adviser of the Spartan Daily, who is giving a new course dealing with police report writing; and Sergeant William C. Brown of the San Jose Police department. Sergeant Brown is replacing George Cash as instructor of gunnery.

Radio Course Has Reached New Top Enrollment Mark

Requirement Listed As Cause Of Influx

Continuing the steady growth which has characterized it during recent quarters, the college radio course has opened with a record enrollment, according to instructor Harry Engwicht, who states that 41 students have enrolled in the beginning radio class.

COURSE REQUIRED

Requirements of the aviation course which includes radio training are partly responsible for the large number in the class, Mr. Engwicht states, although he attributes part of the growth to the fact that many students who are taking a four year course in science are specializing in radio.

He also stated that new equipment has been secured which will greatly facilitate experiments.

PICTURE RESEARCH

The instructor spent part of the summer doing research work for motion pictures in Hollywood after attending summer school at Stanford University where he is working for a higher degree.

Declaring that there are jobs available for well trained radio men, Mr. Engwicht stated that several students who were attending San Jose State last year are now working. W. W. Peterson is now employed by the Eitel-McCullough Tube laboratories and C. P. Christiansen is employed by the Mackay company.

Dr. Clark To Conduct Experimental Work

Dr. Brant Clark, added this quarter to the teaching staff of the college psychology of reading besides instructing general psychology classes.

Dr. Clark, who has taught formerly at summer sessions at Claremont colleges and has lectured at the University of Southern California, received his A.B. degree from the University of California at Los Angeles, his M.A. degree at the University of California at Berkeley, and his Ph.D. degree from the University of Southern California.

He is also a registered optometrist.

Varsity Gains In Moments Against Freshman Squad

Sparta's 1936 edition of varsity football spent two full hours Saturday morning trying to push Coach DeWitt Portal's freshman charges back and forth over the stadium turf, and succeeded at intervals, but also found a tough and stubborn yearling outfit ready to meet the charging backs. Headman DeGroot used his three full teams on the offensive throughout the scrimmage, and was especially satisfied with the excellent judgment and play of his quarterbacks.

LEWIS SHINES

The varsity aggregation, in one of its first tests, presented a fair offense both on ground and through the air. Big Bill Lewis, on the throwing end of several aerial tosses, looked good with his consistent accuracy, and the dusky fullback tore through the opponent's defense for several good gains. Toward the end of the informal affair, a fighting Frosh line threw back the varsity team while in the shadows of its goal-posts, and Ferriera was called upon to make a fourth-down place-kick.

Some pretty broken-field running by diminutive Gene Rocchi was a highlight of the festivities. Taking a kickoff on his own 15-yard stripe, Rocchi slipped through a group of would-be Frosh tacklers and emerged unscathed to scamper the remaining distance for a score.

Walt McPherson, converted from an end to a fullback, performed for the first time in his new capacity and got off a few nice twisting spirals.

A fast reverse and a lateral to Cranford baffled the Spartan Babes, and Cranford rambled over the goal line unmolested for another touchdown.

The Blues, Golds, and Reds, all Varsity strings, scored four more times against the yearling combinations, but the first year men, on the defense throughout the entire work-out, tried hard to stop the powerful and tricky Spartan backs.

FROSH PRAISED

Varsity coach DeGroot had words of praise for the Frosh defense, and paid special respect for the good playing of Bud Lewis and Nels Johnson in backing up the line.

Several varsity men were not in suit, including Luke Argilla, regular half-back, who still was laid up with a stiff knee, and DeGroot took no unnecessary chances with any of his men, hoping to have them round into shape for the coming S. F. U. game Saturday.

Women's Swim Club Begins Activities Tonight, 7:15

The first meeting this quarter of the Women's Swimming Club will be held tonight for two hours in the swimming pool under the leadership of Mary Willson, president of the organization.

The meeting, which will start at 7:15, is open to all old members and any new students who care to attend. Special effort is being made this year to interest new girls in swimming activities, it was announced by Miss Willson.

Varied swimming meets and programs comprise the activities of the club during the year.

Walker's Soccerites Lose To University Of California

With only three days of practice under their belts, the San Jose State "shin-kickers" dropped a 5-1 practice tilt to the experienced University of California soccer squad at Berkeley Saturday.

Coach Charley Walker of the Spartans used every available man on the squad which has been riddled by graduation. According to the mentor, the performance of the green, untried men was far beyond his expectations as California has many veterans returning from last year's championship aggregation on hand and has already played seven full-length contests this season.

Three of the Bear goals can be laid at the feet of "Lady Luck" and the other two to the inexperience of the Spartans.

Of the newcomers, Harvey White at right inside showed greatest potentialities. Will LeCroy, Jack Marsh, and John Holtorf were other "first-timers" who gave exhibitions that will warrant further inspection.

Dick Main, returning veteran from two years ago has been kept from practice by a severe seige of poison oak, scored the lone Spartan goal on a pass from Captain Ray LeClergue. Bill Pitcher, halfback, Mendes Nepote, center forward, Bill Pitcher, halfback, and Nick Germano, fullback, were veterans who kept the San Jose eleven in the ball game during tough moments.

Coach Walker will be aided by the return of several of last year's

Pugilists Foresee Great Season As Veterans And Sophs Return

With the National Intercollegiate Boxing Championships to be held in California this year, Coach DeWitt Portal's varsity team, three and four strong in every weight, is looking forward to the busiest season of its three-year existence.

GOOD RECORD

Last year Portal's proteges piled up an enviable team record in successfully participating in the Junior and Senior P.A.A. tourneys winning the first title and coming in a close second in the Senior tournament. This year, junior college transfers and graduates from last year's elementary boxing classes form an even stronger combination. Those freshmen nifties, headed by Captain Benny Melzer who formed so formidable a part of the squad, are now sophomores, with three years of title-grabbing activities ahead of them to lift the creases from Portal's brow. The Spartans are slated to meet San Francisco University here on Saturday morning. As the Dons are always a leader in the conference race, Walker is anxious to have his men in shape to open their league season with a victory if possible.

MEET ALL COMERS

"A 'meet all comers' policy will be adopted, with tentative bouts with Stanford, Santa Clara, U.C.L.A., California, and any school who has a boxing team which wishes to pit itself against the Spartan aggregation.

Every Varsity man in every division is returning, with the exception of red-headed George Adams, clever lightweight, and Charlie Boggs, aggressive middleweight. Adams is finishing his schooling in far-away Australia, while Boggs is expected to return by Christmas.

Portal's boxing team, built in three years to one of the best college teams on the coast, needs only a chance at the Intercollegiate to taper off last year's successes in a smashing finish which might include a semi-finalist, a finalist, or even a National Champion.

The women's gym floor will again be opened to the members of the badminton club Tuesday, September 29. A number of new activities are being planned on the club's schedule. All players must wear gym shoes and a gym costume is preferred.

Frosh Defense Shown Against DeGroot Team

A tough band of freshman footballers under the guidance of Coach Portal took all the varsity had to give Saturday morning on the Spartan Stadium greensward, and after two hours of battering, came up with much more experience and only three minor injuries.

On the defense during the entire work-out, the first-year men gave an excellent account of themselves, repelling varsity advances time and time again, and forcing their adversaries to kick out of danger. However, it was for the hapless Frosh to face the Spartan line and backs again to give the varsity offense a chance to click.

Portal gave every man on his roster a chance to perform, and although some position changes are in the offing, most of the players gave par accounts of themselves. Especially impressive was work of Nels Johnson and Bud Lewis who stopped varsity backs after the line had crumbled before them.

Mondilla, a tackle from Gilroy, and Draper, a guard from Marysville, came out of the fray with a bruised and strained shoulder and knee respectively, while big Don Pressly, ebony-hued end from Monrovia, crashed head-on with another player while attempting to block a kick, and spent Saturday night in the Health Cottage as the dizziness from the slight concussion cleared away.

Diamond Jubilee Planned For State

DR. RAYMOND MOSHER TO HEAD CELEBRATION

Three Day Activities Will Include Grand Ball, Civic Auditorium Banquet; Campus to Turn Upside Down For Seventy-Fifth Year

To celebrate the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of San Jose State college, the largest celebration ever known in a Pacific Coast institution is being planned for May 20, 21, 22 by a committee headed by Dr. Raymond Mosher.

The proposed three-day activities include a huge banquet in the civic auditorium to which state and nationally important dignitaries are to be invited and a grand ball in the municipal auditorium for which a nationally famous orchestra leader will play. Governor Frank Merriam will be asked to lead the grand march preceding the ball.

In addition to these plans, a first-class musical entertainment has been suggested, with the San Francisco symphony orchestra or other famous artists leading the performance.

Campus activities will be turned upside down with continuous programs being presented by student organizations and an open house in the men's gymnasium. This activity will probably include interesting and complete exhibits of college work, past and present.

A large educational program has been suggested by the committee, with recognized leaders in the educational field as principal speakers. On the third day of the celebration, Sunday afternoon, a huge pageant may be presented, in the Spartan Stadium. This pageant would show the growth of San Jose State from its inception as a private normal school in San Francisco in 1857 to its capacity classes of today.

San Jose State is the oldest educational institution in California and is the oldest teacher-training institution west of the Mississippi. The institution was taken over by the state in 1862, the anniversary of which marks this diamond jubilee celebration.

In 1871 the college—then called a normal school—was moved to San Jose and established in its present location on Washington Square.

Expansion in training, in attendance, and in buildings has marked the years since the founding of the California State Normal School 75 years ago. This is evidenced in

During his high school career at Erie, Pennsylvania, he was active in football, track, tumbling, tennis, swimming, and glee club. His singing ability has made him popular as an entertainer here, earning himself the title of the crooning halfback.

DAILY SPONSOR

The contest for Sparta's sweetheart is sponsored by the Spartan Daily, which advises all sororities and social organizations to select their own candidates for future elections.

Stuffing of the ballot box is welcomed, for the Spartan Daily feels that if a girl is attractive enough to win the support of ballot-stuffing friends, she is deserving of winning the title of State's most attractive. But only official ballots as found in the Daily may be used in regular voting or stuffing.

Diamond Jubilee Planned For State

DR. RAYMOND MOSHER TO HEAD CELEBRATION

Three Day Activities Will Include Grand Ball, Civic Auditorium Banquet; Campus to Turn Upside Down For Seventy-Fifth Year

To celebrate the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of San Jose State college, the largest celebration ever known in a Pacific Coast institution is being planned for May 20, 21, 22 by a committee headed by Dr. Raymond Mosher.

The proposed three-day activities include a huge banquet in the civic auditorium to which state and nationally important dignitaries are to be invited and a grand ball in the municipal auditorium for which a nationally famous orchestra leader will play. Governor Frank Merriam will be asked to lead the grand march preceding the ball.

In addition to these plans, a first-class musical entertainment has been suggested, with the San Francisco symphony orchestra or other famous artists leading the performance.

Campus activities will be turned upside down with continuous programs being presented by student organizations and an open house in the men's gymnasium. This activity will probably include interesting and complete exhibits of college work, past and present.

A large educational program has been suggested by the committee, with recognized leaders in the educational field as principal speakers. On the third day of the celebration, Sunday afternoon, a huge pageant may be presented, in the Spartan Stadium. This pageant would show the growth of San Jose State from its inception as a private normal school in San Francisco in 1857 to its capacity classes of today.

San Jose State is the oldest educational institution in California and is the oldest teacher-training institution west of the Mississippi. The institution was taken over by the state in 1862, the anniversary of which marks this diamond jubilee celebration.

In 1871 the college—then called a normal school—was moved to San Jose and established in its present location on Washington Square.

Expansion in training, in attendance, and in buildings has marked the years since the founding of the California State Normal School 75 years ago. This is evidenced in

During his high school career at Erie, Pennsylvania, he was active in football, track, tumbling, tennis, swimming, and glee club. His singing ability has made him popular as an entertainer here, earning himself the title of the crooning halfback.

Carpenter, too, played with the freshman grid squad and won his numeral in 1933. Starting with the varsity in 1934, he received the gold award, and has since been one of Coach DeGroot's most consistently valuable players.
