Journalism Group Opens Annual Toy Pile This Morning

Fire Department To Renovate, Distribute Articles Contributed

WANTED:
Toys, toys, toys . . .
As their contribution to the Christmas season, members of Sigma Kappa Delta, honorary journalism society, open today the second annual toy pile drive.
With the completion of the tree decorating, plans are in order for the depositing of toys for needy children. All contributions may be made in the Publications' office, where the tree is placed.
The toys will be given to the San Jose Fire department, which will renovate them and give them to children in the community.
Louis Walther, president of the society, stated yesterday that any kind of toys, old or new, are welcome.
Bob Kelly was in charge of decorations.

To Give Second Series Of Plays

Encouraged by the success of the one-act play program given earlier this quarter, members of the laboratory theater and directing classes of the speech department will present a second program of one-acts Thursday evening in the Little Theater. Admission will be free.
A psychological drama, "Overtones", which is similar to "Strange Interlude" will open the program directed by Neal Warwick. Two actresses will represent women in conversation at tea, while two others will demonstrate their true thoughts about each other.

CAST
Dorothy Hawley, Jean Briggs, Marion Peterson, and Helen Meck form the cast of this play.
"Op O' Me Thumb", wistful tragedy of a hunchback cockney girl who tries unsuccessfully to find romance, will be next on the bill. Directed by Marguerite Lee, the cast is composed of Lavelle Smith, Harry Cesari, Etta Green, Mary Helen Bussy, Marion Hushbeck, and Grace McBurney.

"CUP OF TEA"
"A Cup of Tea", farcial comedy will close the program. Peter Mingrone will direct the play, which concerns the amusing complications that arise when a married poet dedicates some of his passionate verses to another married woman. The latter's husband threatens to kill the poet with uproarious results, states Hugh Gillis, instructor of both the directing and laboratory theater classes.
Gary Simpson, Florence Murodock, Henry Puckett, and Vivien Wood make up the cast of the comedy. Stage manager of the plays will be Bill Gordon, assisted by Gordon Roth, Julio Francescotti, Bill Gordon, and Diane Wood.

Novel Stunts Ready For Party

As a consolation to the students who will be on the campus during the first of the year holidays, the first all-school New Year's Eve party will be held in the men's gymnasium starting at 8 o'clock on the last evening of the old year, and ending at 1 o'clock, the first day of 1937.

STUNTS AND EVERYTHIN'
Combining a party, entertainment, and dancing, the affair will open with a novel stunt in which every student will participate. Serpentine, confetti, noise-makers, and favors will be given out to the students.

Six organizations are working on the plans, under the general chairmanship of Paul Becker, student body president and originator of the plan.

COMMITTEES
On the committee are the social affairs committee, the Y.W. and Y.M.C.A., Spartan Spears, and Spartan Knights.

Taking the place of the usual registration dance, the affair will be included as one of the three social affairs of the winter season. "Stags, couples, and parties will be welcomed," Becker stated yesterday. "We want this to be the most successful affair of the year."

Woodwind Choir On Musical Hour

Undoubtedly one of the most popular Musical Half Hours of the quarter was presented Friday at 12:30 in the Little Theater.

The whole program was taken up by the San Jose State Woodwind Choir playing under the direction of Thomas Egan, instructor in the music faculty here.

So well-received was the performance that the ensemble was obliged to play an encore.

The program consisted of "Nottet" by Gustav Schreck, I.—Largo Sostenuto, II.—Adagio di Molto; and the "Second Suite for Woodwinds" by Charles Lefebvre, I.—Entrata, II.—Intermezzo.

Gift Suggestions Will Be Displayed By H.E.

Featuring a timely exhibition for the duration of school the Home Economics show cases this week reveal a selection of gift suggestions for the coming Christmas shopper.

These suggestions touch upon the desirable points of inexpensiveness, and may easily be made. Practical, they are gifts for all members of the family.

A project in Dr. Margaret Jones' methods class the exhibition shows what students have learned there in the last quarter. All material displayed was made by the students themselves, with the help of Home Economics faculty members.

Symphony Series Starts Tuesday In Morris Dailey

Maurine Thompson To Be Featured As Night's Soloist

With full instrumentation in all sections, the college symphony orchestra led by Mr. Adolph Otterstein will present the first of this year's series of three concerts in the Morris Dailey auditorium tomorrow night at 8:15.

Offering a bill consisting wholly of program music, the orchestra will include four numbers on the evening's program.

SOLOIST
Miss Maurine Thompson, contralto, head of the voice department will be featured as the soloist for the evening. She will sing the arias of "Adieu Forets" from the opera Jeanne D'Arc by Tschaikowsky, and "Seguidilla" (Carmen) by Bizet.

Relying entirely on the talents of students and faculty members, the orchestra has a full quota of bassoons, oboes, and French horns.

HARPIST
This year for the first time, the symphony will have its own harpist. He is Hallock Wagner, music major, who is in his junior year.

Beginning lessons on the harp last year, Wagner has made such rapid strides that he has been able to play with the orchestra this year, and according to Mr. Otterstein he has done exceptionally well.

INSTRUCTOR
His instructor has been Miss Mary Elizabeth Falch, San Jose harp teacher who last fall became a member of the college faculty.

Spartans Sailing Towards Islands; Play Friday Night

Enroute to the Hawaiian Islands at the present time are some 27 Spartan varsity footballers accompanied by Coaches Dud DeGroot and Bill Hubbard with several townspeople as loyal supporters.

The San Jose squad sailed from Victoria, British Columbia Wednesday night and expects to reach its destination about Tuesday. Before embarking on the ocean voyage, DeGroot sent his charges through a workout on the Cricket Club field and was impressed by the spirit and enthusiasm shown by the gridders.

Friday night the Spartans are scheduled to clash with the University of Hawaii in one of the biggest games on the Islands this year. The following Wednesday night the Kamehameha Alumni will furnish the opposition for the local lads.

The group expects to return home by December 26th.

Orchesis To Present Drama

As a prelude to the Christmas holidays, Orchesis, college honorary dance group will present "Le Jongueur de Notre Dame" in the college Little Theater on December 10 at 8:15.

The dance drama is based on an old French legend, and depicts the supreme sacrifice made by Jean, the juggler, when scorned by the boisterous revelers in the cathedral square.

CLIMAX
Turning for solace to the figure of the Madonna, the drama reaches a tense climax.

The Juggler has been given by many Orchesis groups throughout the country. It was first given at the University of Wisconsin, where Berta Ochsner, now a leading dance figure in American dance, composed the music and danced the title role.

INDIVIDUALITY
Although the structure remains the same however, with each presentation, the individual traits of the dancers make it interesting.

June Raynor Wright, a member of Orchesis for three years, is dancing a strong portrayal of the Juggler in the title role.

Ann Jewell, president of Orchesis, will be the Madonna. Other members of the cast are Jean Myers, Florence Churin, Charlotte Jennings, Evelyn Pinkham, Marie Fleck, Doris Smith, Elree Ferguson, Margery Mecabe, Betty Bruch, and Frances Scott.

MUSIC TRIO
Music is to be furnished by a trio composed of a piano, violin, and cello, which is directed by Jean Stirling Long. Gary Simpson, a prominent speech student, will read the prologue.

Peter Mingrone will be in charge of the lighting. Lighting for the Juggler is always of great importance.

The San Jose State college Patrons Association will be the honored guests of the evening. Admission will be free.

Chapel To Offer Rest Period In Final Week

A fifteen-minute period of relaxation and meditation between the hurry and bustle of "finals" will be offered to all students and faculty Wednesday noon in the Little Theater.

The occasion will be the last All-College Chapel of the present quarter, and sponsored by Kappa Phi club under the direction of Carmella Carmon, Kappa Phi chaplain.

The brief period will be filled with Christmas songs by a group of carolers, and Miss Doris Robinson, one of the Kappa Phi patronesses will furnish the short inspirational talk using as her Christmas theme "It is better to give than to receive," Miss Carmon states.

MacQuarrie And Minssen Invited To Final Meeting

Council To Appoint Committee Heads; Discuss Lockers

Determined to find out exactly how plans are progressing and what funds are available for the proposed Student Union building, the student council has invited President T. W. MacQuarrie and Vice-president H. F. Minssen to attend the council meeting tonight.

The group plans to dig down into the matter and find where it stands in regards to funds available from the Diamond Jubilee and what part the State will do in financing the Union building project. Another item that will come up for consideration is whether an old building will be renovated or a new building will be erected in case plans are completed for the Student Union.

GOOD POSSIBILITY
"There is a very good possibility of having a Student Union building," stated Paul Becker, president of the student body, "and if plans go through, we will have the building in the very near future."

The discussion of this proposed erection will probably be the most important business although the council will tonight make appointments for the winter quarter. Editor of the Spartan Daily, Social Affairs chairman, Rally chairman, Forensics manager, and Music manager, will be among the appointments made.

MORE LOCKERS
Another matter of direct bearing to the students will be the discussion of more lockers. The council will endeavor to find some plan to promote more space for students to keep their belongings while on the campus.

December Alumni Bulletin In Mails

Continuing its policy of more pictures, the December issue of the Alumni Bulletin is out and in the mails.

Included in the current issue besides editorial comment are stories concerning the Diamond Jubilee celebration in May, news of graduates, and a page of campus doings written by Frank Brayton, Spartan Daily editor.

Sigma Delta Pi Held Last Meet Wednesday

Sigma Delta Pi, Spanish honorary society, held its last regular meeting for the quarter at the home of Rosalie Mannina on Almaden avenue Wednesday evening.

The business meeting was held at 7:30, at which time it was decided that the society's joint initiation of members with Stanford University will be held on the Stanford campus during the spring quarter.

Fat In The Fire By JIM BAILEY

MERRY CHRISTMAS, everyone! I'd say happy New Year too, but school starts the day before.

Women are men's equal—so they think. Very well, if they think so then the next time we lads have a spat with them we'll not waste words, but simply step up and paste them on the kisser.

Do you believe in striking girls? Read what some of our local gentlemen have to say:

Ed Wetterstrom—"I believe there is a need for such a thing, but I wouldn't do it."

Bruce Fischer—"It all depends on where you stike them."

Mel (Butch) Isenberger—"Yes! I believe in tapping them on the scone every once in a while."

Shelby Ryon—"Sure, I'm from Gary, Indiana!"

Gordon Stafford—"Well, if they're smaller than I, yeah."

In order to prevent lopsidedness from claiming this column, I shall permit the young ladies about this campus, sometime in the future, to answer the question . . . what would you do if some lad socked you on the kisser?

And now for our weekly playlet. SCENE: Room 24. The place is

Notices

All students who wish to do N.Y.A. work next quarter must renew applications by personal interview before December 11. This applies to those now on the payroll as well as to other students who wish to be considered for the Winter quarter.

Present assignments will continue to January 17, 1937, provided this quarter's scholastic record has been satisfactory and the student registers for the winter quarter. New assignments for the winter quarter will not be effective until January 18, 1937.

—Helen Dimmick, Dean of Women. —Chas. B. Goddard, Dean of Men.

All students planning to take Observation and Participation during the winter quarter should sign up with Miss DeVore in Room 161 today, December 7, from two until four o'clock. This course is a pre-requisite for kindergarten-primary and general elementary student teaching. Please make out your winter quarter program before signing up for Observation. Allow two consecutive hours daily for Observation.

K-P Group Sees Xmas Play After Banquet, Meeting

Culminating the quarters work with a dinner, thirty girls of the kindergarten-primary department and three members of the faculty met Thursday night at the Y.W.C.A.

Following the dinner the group attended the Christmas play, "Joyous Season".

ARE SPONSORS

Sponsors of many charity activities this quarter, the girls included in the evening's entertainment in the making of Christmas tree decorations out of cellophane and walmata for decorating a tree which they plan to give a less fortunate family of San Jose.

Gifts to fill the four stockings Mrs. Elizabeth Walsh, of the education department, has hung behind her desk, were contributed by the girls. These stockings are to go to poor families which Mrs. Walsh has contacted.

those who pay their initial fee by tomorrow.

The party, with Christmas as the theme, will climax the activities of the group for the quarter, and expensive gifts will be given and received by each girl who attends.

Mrs. Daisy Matthews of the Personnel department is the faculty sponsor of the group. Miss Lydia Innes, member of the Rainbow advisory board, and Miss Gail Tucker have been invited as special guests.

You can save yourself time, effort, and money by purchasing your Holiday Gifts at the Co-op; TIME, because you are on the campus and so are we; EFFORT, because you don't have to jump to keep out of the way of a thousand and one other hurried shoppers; MONEY, because we have planned it that way.

You will be surprised at the variety of gifts we have ready for you at prices as low as 10c. And whether you buy a 10c gift or a $62.50 Underwood Portable, you are entitled to wrapping and mailing service free of charge.

The Co-op will be open throughout the Christmas vacation, but it is advisable to make your purchases now while you have a larger number of gifts to choose from.

Basketball Quintets Lose In Openers

Sport Spotlight

by DICK EDMONDS

CONTRARY TO WHAT a lot of people thought about the San Jose State basketball prospects this year, the Spartans are really a pretty fair country ball club.

With only two veterans back this year it would ordinarily be thought that the San Jose aggregation would be in for a season of disastrous drubbings.

However, their spirited showing against the Stanford Indians Saturday night has disproved these theories and former skeptics are now predicting that the comparatively small Spartans are going to cause a lot of more vaunted combinations a lot of trouble this winter.

FOR MYSELF, getting to the ball game just a few minutes before the close of the first half, I had to look at the scoreboard twice to be sure that my eyes were not playing me false. Reading 16 to 2 in favor of our underdog Spartans was just too good to be true.

Although the famed Indian varsity did manage to come through with a win, the showing of the locals was not at all unimpressive. When we stop to consider that many of the local basketball players are playing their first major collegiate game, and with the potent Stanfords as opposition, the performance assumes the proportions of sensational.

NOW TO OUR MORE experienced boxers who made such an excellent showing in the first round Golden Gloves matches Friday night. Congrats fellows, your showing in this tournament is going to go a long ways towards maintaining the fine reputation that our boxing squad has been setting up for the past year.

To Bill Radunich, who tonight will be facing, in the third bout of his career, big Jim Sverchek, Olympic club battler who has been a stumbling block to many a heavyweight aspirant. Willie, you are faster than Sverchek, and should think faster. Forget about his reputation and go out there with the thought in mind to hit him and get out of the way before he gets his ponderous punches under way. He can be hurt. By Lanphear, weighing 169 pounds, did it last year before he tired out, had him ready to go down if he could have hit him in a vulnerable spot. In this writer's opinion, Sverchek is greatly over-rated. Rugged, but dumb. Let's go Bill.

TO GEORGE LATKA. This fellow Stanley is considered to be quite some shucks as a scrapper. But then, so was Montana Red who you gave the works not long ago in Stockton. Remember this, Georgie, our fellows are looking up to you more for yourself than your boxing. Even if you don't win tonight, which I feel sure you will, you have already earned yourself a position here with your sportsmanship and swell attitude. Personally, all things considered, I can't see, if you continue the same brand of boxing that has characterized your work ever since you have been here, losing to those men they have established favor-

Stanford Downs Strong Spartan Squad; State Leads At Half To Fall Before Second Period Rally

Luisetti, Turner Lead Indians With High Point Scores

Coming from behind in the second half after a Spartan half-time lead, the Stanford varsity won a victory over the San Jose varsity basketball team in the Spartan pavilion Saturday night.

An unusually large crowd of nearly 3000 persons saw a surprisingly strong San Jose quintet hold the Stanford team to one field goal and four free throws during the first half as the score stood 16 to 6 at the end of that time.

ACTION STARTS

Action started in the second half when the Stanford first string replaced second team members who had played 17 minutes of the first part. From then on the two teams fought toe to toe every inch of the way, with the Bunn players coming into the lead only in the closing minutes.

Starting a second string team at the beginning of the game, Stanford netted only two points until entry of the regulars just before half-time. Four points gained by the first string men in the three minutes in the city. Win or lose, George, you will have a lot of backers on the campus.

To Captain Bob Harris. If you don't win another bout all year, you have already established yourself as a leader that would be hard to exemplify. You really aren't a polished boxer yet. In experience you are really considerably behind most of our varsity boxers and yet your record has been as impressive as any other on the squad. What's the reason? Your opponent has got to beat more than just a fellow with boxing gloves on. Keep this spirit Bob, and regardless of whether you win a Golden Gloves title or not, your name will go down with State's all-time sports leaders. You should win tonight Bob, but remember, a decision is just as good as a knockout and in trying for a decision you aren't in nearly as much danger as when you are leveling them from the floor.

My, what a philosophical mood. Anyhow, fellows, every word of it is meant.

TO STAN GRIFFEN. Whatever differences of opinion you and I might have, they don't amount to a row of beans to me, when the consideration of the success of the boxing team is at stake.

You are undoubtedly the "champ" of the boxing squad, but why in the devil don't you stop acting like the same thing with a "u" in the middle? You can do a lot for boxing here if you will just follow the inclinations of your own mind and not that of a few disgruntled others. You are trying to break down something that has had the most sensational rise of anything worthwhile on the campus. Get wise, you aren't big enough yet to do much more than stir a ripple of trouble for YOURSELF.

You have an excellent chance to win a Golden Gloves title, probably better than any other of our fellows. They expect to see you put up a battle which will prove an inspiration to their aspirations. Let's see you win the title and then let's get this other thing thrashed out before intercollegiate time rolls around.

minutes of their play before the half-time accounted for Stanford's six points at that time.

MOORE, LUISETTI

Captain "Dinty" Moore dropped a field goal, and "Hank" Luisetti two foul throws to end the scoring for that time.

Spartans started fast in the second canto to take a 22 to 16 lead, which was accounted for by the efforts of Ivor Thomas and Charlie Benedich.

CARDS RALLY

With 14 minutes to play Stanford started the rally that led them to victory. Luisetti tied the score at 22 all with a field goal, and was followed by Art Stoeften who brought the Cards in the lead with another.

Stoeften, on a scoring spree in the last half, scored three more field goals before the game ended. Honors for high scoring went to forward Howell Turner with nine points, who was followed by Luisetti and Stoeften with eight each.

JOHNSON IS SPARK

For the San Jose five Johnson and Thomas led with six points each. Johnson led the scoring in the first half to put San Jose in the lead with three goals.

Impressive, even in defeat, Hubbard's varsity shows promise of going a long way this season, as must be evidenced by the fact that Stanford is conceded the strongest team on the coast, and slated to win the P.C.C. championship.

FROSH LOSE

Led by the scoring of Don Burness, a Lowell high school five of San Francisco drubbed the frosh by a 39 to 10 score. Burness tallied 16 points in the course of the evening.

VICTORIOUS SPARTAN BOXERS MEET STRONG FOES IN GOLDEN GLOVES' QUARTER FINAL CONTESTS TONIGHT

Harris, Radunich, Latka Come Through With Wins In Opens

A trio of victories won by Captain Bob Harris, George Latka and Bill Radunich, and a bye drawn by Stan Griffin, brought the four San Jose State entries through the first round of the annual Golden Gloves boxing tournament held in San Francisco, unscathed.

George Latka, calm 135 pounder from Gary, Indiana, scored the first San Jose victory when he KO'd Manuel Cabral of the San Jose Bears in the fourth round. Cabral, who was knocked out by Latka in the first round of their fight during the Pyramid Belt championships in Stockton, got on his bicycle and rode it backwards during the first three rounds of the fight. In a desperate effort to regain some of the lead Latka had piled up during the first three rounds the Bear battler stepped in, only to find himself on the receiving end of George's right. It was a very groggy Bear that arose nine seconds later. Latka landed another right and the referee did not even bother to count.

Captain Bob Harris, rangy welterweight, followed the example set by Latka and flattened Henry Sims of the California A. C. in the third canto. The Spartan captain was far too conscious of his right hand during the first round and for a while it looked as though he was in for a beating. A few well chosen words by Dee Portal between rounds corrected that mistake however, and Harris came out with a straight left that kept his opponent off balance during the entire second round. As the Oakland boy bounced off the ropes during the third round Bob found ample opportunity to use his right hand and did so effectively. Sims sat down and went to sleep immediately and Harris advanced a notch in the tournament.

Bill Radunich, heavy, met some stiff composition in the person of Bob Morrish, a southpaw from the Bengal Athletic club. The fight was close throughout although at the end of each round Radunich landed a few stiff right hands that made it look as though he would put away his lefthanded opponent. Radunich's need of condition became apparent during the last round when the San Jose boy tired noticeably.

Radunich meets Jim Sverchek of the Olympic club tonight. Sverchek is the State champ and favored to win the tournament. Although Sverchek is a hard hitter and a clever fighter, Bill is considerably faster than the San Francisco boy and has a very good chance of scoring an upset. If Radunich can come through with a victory in this fight his chances of a victory are excellent.

George Latka is scheduled to meet Edwin Stanley of the Thirtieth Infantry, the Diamond Belt champion tonight. Stanley is a very fast boy and an in fighter. However, he seems to lack the necessary punch needed in order to KO his opponents. In fighters are built to order for Georgie and in spite of what the San Francisco papers say about Latka, he has every chance of scoring a one round knockout, or at least gaining the decision.

Stan Griffin meets Dale Ross from the Victory A. C. in Sacramento. Griffin should dispose of him easily. However, Ross has a potent right hand that Stan will do well to stay away from.

Captain Bob Harris will find himself in the ring with John Moran of Twin Peaks. Moran carries a potent punch in either hand and has the edge in experience. Harris carries a fighting spirit and a good left hand that he can't seem to remember to use. If Bob remembers his left he has a good chance of winning. If not, the man who lands the first right will win.

New Radio Speech Course Added To State Curriculum

Tryouts For Class To Be Held Tuesday At Three

A new course, radio speaking, has been added to the Speech department curriculum for next quarter, Mr. William McCoard, Speech department instructor at San Jose State college, announced today.

Students wishing to tryout for the course should meet tomorrow at 3 o'clock in room 159 of the Speech department. The course will be held Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 to 10 and it is open to fifteen students to be chosen by Mr. McCoard from those who tryout.

PRACTICE

The new course will have to do with the preparation and actual practice of giving news announcements, plays, and dialogs for the radio.

"Good voices are not entirely limited to speech students, and this course has been added for those who are interested in radio work, and believe they have voices suitable for the radio," stated Mr. McCoard.

PUBLIC ADDRESS

Class work will consist of daily presentations over a public address system and the recording of announcement, plays and dialogs which are to be checked with those heard over the radio. The class is to have practice in writing scripts and scenarios for recording and broadcast.

"This is just an experiment and we are unable to tell just where the course may lead," declared Mr. McCoard.

A radio is to be installed in the classroom where the students will be able to listen to programs and study the various methods of technique and presentation, besides listening to their own records.

Science Seminar To Meet In S112

At the last science seminar of the quarter today at 4:15 in Room S112, Dr. George S. Parks, professor of chemistry at Stanford will be the speaker.

Dr. Parks has been doing research work in two fields of chemistry. In connection with glasses he has studied glucose, (sugar), some of the alcohols, and inorganic glasses from the points of view of viscosity, specific heat, and compression.

In the field of thermo-chemistry he has worked extensively with the specific heats of many organic and inorganic compounds and the heats of combustion.

According to Mr. J. W. Richardson of the science department, a number of San Jose State students have gone to Stanford to work with Dr. Parks.

World Renowned Lecturer, Author To Talk Tuesday

Dr. Edward Howard Griggs, world renowned lecturer in the field of education and author of many books, has been secured to speak Tuesday morning in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

Considered the most outstanding man on the American platform today, Dr. Griggs will have as his topic "The New Meaning in Education and Life".

LECTURER

He unites a broad and deep knowledge of life with rare scholastic attainment and according to critics is one of the most versatile, gifted, and learned lecturers in the field of education today.

Books he has authored include an interpretation of our history and heritage, with stories of the lives of such men as Washington, Franklin, Jefferson, Hamilton, Lincoln, and many others.

OTHER BOOKS

"The Soul of Democracy" is the title of another of his books, which deals with what the war did to socialism, feminism, religion, education and literature.

The perils of married life are considered, and divorce and public opinion, jealousy, sentimentalism, sex-appeal and eugenics are discussed in his book, "Friendship, Love and Marriage".

COVERS COUNTRY

Making a circuit of the country, Dr. Griggs is lecturing in hundreds of high schools in the state and the University of Southern California.

According to Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie he should present a well balanced and well organized lecture.

This program, sponsored by the education department is well worth attending, according to Dr. Elmer Staffebach, education head.

Dr. Yates Opens Office In Town

Dr. Dorothy Yates, associate professor of psychology at San Jose State college has opened an office at 310 Medico-Dental building as a consulting psychologist.

Dr. Yates will be there three mornings a week. She has had a part-time position in the department of Psychology for some years which has given her time to write and to take private patients in Palo Alto.

Due to the increase in number of patients, Dr. Yates has found it necessary to open the San Jose office.

Dr. Yates has written the following books: "Psychological Racketeers", "A Study of Some High School Seniors of Superior Intelligence", and others on "Studies of Genius, Vol. 1, and numerous articles in periodicals.

More Off-Campus Dances Likely As Hop Is A Success

Neil Thomas Opines It 'The Finest In A Long Time'

Success of the first off-campus student body dance in school history last Friday evening in the civic auditorium pointed to the possibility of similar affairs to be held in the future.

Controller Neil Thomas expressed the opinion that such dances should and could be continued. "The dance was one of the finest we have had for a long time," he declared. "Entertainment was excellent and everyone seemed to enjoy himself."

PRICE DRAWBACK

The charge for the hall on off-campus dances, he said, was the greatest drawback for future affairs. The social affairs' budget could not stand such payment for each student body dance.

However, Thomas stated, it would be an excellent and feasible plan to hold about two such off-campus dances during the year and make them special occasions and finally traditions. One such dance could be held at perhaps Christmas and another in May or June to honor the graduates.

THE LAST

The dance Friday was the last student body dance of the quarter and was attended by a large crowd of students. Eighty couples were turned away at the door because of failure to purchase guest tickets before the dance.

The affair was also the last dance to be managed by Harold Kibby, social affair chairman for this quarter and originator of the idea for the off-campus dance.

MALLET OUTSTANDING

Outstanding entertainer for the evening was Bob Mallet, whose impersonations of various stars from Walter Winchell to Bing Crosby brought enthusiastic comment from the audience. His take-off on President Roosevelt received special commendation.

Music for the evening was furnished by Stewart Mauss and his twelve piece orchestra with girl vocalist DeDe Vance.

SURPLUS

Although the social affairs committee hired a hall for this dance they leave a budget of $50 to be passed on to next quarter's committee.

Members who worked for the dance were: decorations, Frances Simpson, chairman; Jane Blair, Frances Cuenin, Cal Sides; arrangements, Gene Jordan, Jim Hapgood, Mario Piccion; patrons and patronesses, Betty Jean Keller.

Harold Kibby is chairman of the committee.

Super-Intelligence Fails Smug Seniors In Freshman Class

Upperclassmen, supposedly endowed with superior gray matter far above of the lowly frosh and soph, retreated in confusion this week from their lofty perch of smug super-intelligence.

Psychology classes marked their downfall. Psychology 5A is a freshman course. Juniors and seniors, however, sometimes condescend to mingle with the rabble and make up units they have missed in first years.

HAVE OWN CLASS

Thus it was this year, but afraid of placing the lower classmen in an unfair position by making them compete with juniors and seniors, the Psychology department placed all upper-classmen in a group by themselves.

The consternation of these pre-eminants can well be imagined when they were informed this week that the freshmen classes have been at least ten points ahead of them in every examination this quarter.

FROSH TUTORS

Psychology instructors are now considering the possibility of placing freshmen tutors in each senior class, or perhaps it would be more advisable to discontinue school at the end of the sophomore year.

As the psychology text would state, the learning curve, mayhap, has reached its height—or could it be that the freshies have not yet learned the fine art of not-studying.

Symphony Concert To Be Given Tomorrow

Before joining the faculty she had filled the place now occupied by Wagner.

The A Capella Choir, another feature of the concert will sing the choral of "A Mighty Fortress is Our God", by Bach.

ARRANGEMENT

Founded musically upon old Teutonic folk melody, it appears on this program in the Bach manner for chorus and instruments as arranged by Walter Damrosch, for modern orchestra.

Kappa Phi's Plan Night In Toyland Christmas Social

A dessert and coffee party will be the last social get together of the quarter of the Omega chapter of the Kappa Phi club.

The affair, which is to be held at Centella Social Hall, Wednesday night from 6:30 until 8:30, will have the theme of "A Night in Toyland".

BRING TOYS

All members who attend are requested to bring toys, wrapped as Christmas gifts, which will be added to the Sigma Kappa Delta toy pile.

The party marks the beginning of active participation in the club by pledges of Kappa Phi. All arrangements are being made by the new members under the direction of Doris Arnold, vice-president. Co-chairmen of the party are Jane Hoyt and Marjorie Tamblin.

PLEDGES HELP

Pledges that are helping in planning the party are: Vesta Bowles, Floraine Edmonston, Margaret Grothe, Martha Rodger, Ella Van Beek, and Benita Hooker.

Being one of the active campus organizations, the Kappa Phi now numbers seventy-five members. The organization is a national one for college Methodist women.

Miss Berta Gray, assistant director of publications of the college is sponsor of the group, and Mrs. Florence Bryant of the English department is faculty adviser.

Among its many activities the Kappa Phi club sponsors the college community sings, and the All College Chapel.

department will carry the theme of the "Scheherazade Suite" by Rimsky-Korsakov with violin solos.

FROM TALES

This number, consisting of four movements, is a narration in music of the tales from the Arabian Nights.

Assistant directors during rehearsals have been Miss Frances Robinson, string section; Mr. Thomas Eagan, wood wind; and Mr. Raymond Miller, brass section.
