San Jose Plotting Revenge In Fracas With Santa Clara

Inter-City Rivals Meet In Municipal Auditorium At 8; Coach Hubbard Sends New Line-Up Against League-Leading Hoopsters

By JACK MARSH

Go again, and tell Santa Clara's George Barsi that Coach Bill Hubbard's Spartan basketball team is ready and waiting for 8 o'clock tonight in the Civic auditorium.

Tell him that the Spartans, considered the second weakest sister in an NCIC basketball league which finds the Broncs fondling a shiny undefeated record book, are not at all awed by the reputation garnered by Mission Town hardwood players.

TELL HIM

Warn him that not many teams go through a season undefeated, and that even the mighty Stanfords suffered embarrassment at the hands of U.S.C.

Remind him that the Broncs could not be classed with Coach Bunn's Indians.

Worry him with the fact that the time is about ripe for a Santa Clara downfall.

Finally, tell him that San Jose State's Spartans proved in their last meeting a victory for them is not impossible, for Ivor Thomas and the rest of the boys had George Barsi already building his

Rapose Leaves For L. A. Finals

Joe Rapose, popular campus crooner and San Jose State college winner in the California's Hour-intercollegiate talent tournament, will leave for Los Angeles tonight on the Sunset Limited to compete in the finals of the contest Sunday evening, according to word received yesterday from Morley Drury, talent scout for the program.

The winner of the contest Sunday night will receive $100 in cash and will be under contract to Lord N. Thomas, more familiarly known to the public as "Seth Parker" for radio and stage performances.

Students from University of California, Stanford, San Diego State, and other Pacific Coast colleges will all participate during the program. The broadcast will be released locally over KGO and other stations of the National Broadcasting Company's Blue network on Sunday evening from 7:15 to 8:15.

Rapose was one of four groups of San Jose students who went to Los Angeles three weeks ago as representatives from Washington Square. He was declared the winner of the local group after the radio audience had sent in its ballots.

'Sweetheart Dance' Tomorrow

Seven Day Stop-Over Granted By S. P. On Excursion

Four O'Clock Cuts Friday To Be Given Consideration, States Bob Free

"If you cut your four o'clock class Friday for the excursion," Bob Free says, "due consideration will be given you in reporting back Monday."

All this is from Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, president, regarding the first basketball excursion trip to be held in many years. The trip will take some 200 students to San Francisco, February 12, when the Spartans meet the U. S. F. squad in Kezar pavilion.

Affording the students an opportunity to spend the week-end in San Francisco, the Southern Pacific officials have granted a seven-day stop-over on the excursion rate.

Costing $1.75 for the entire trip, it includes train ride, dinner, rally, street car transportation, and game. Student body cards are necessary for admittance to the game.

Ticket salesmen may be distinguished by blue arm bands with yellow letters, R.C. on them. The sale will continue until Monday with a booth placed in front of the Morris Dailey auditorium where tickets may be purchased.

Jack Gruber is chairman of the excursion.

If enough students buy tickets, the special car will afford dancing facilities—all the way to San Francisco and back if anyone is so inclined.

AL DAVINA'S BAND WILL PLAY FOR SCHOOL HOP

While social affairs committee men rush to complete preparations, and as tardy State men scurry to cinch last minute dates, the first student body dance of the quarter, the "Sweetheart Dance" awaits only the hour of nine tomorrow night to be in its way in the men's gym.

Playing for the dancers will be the orchestra of Al Davina with featured vocalists Kay Kastle, Jimmy Ferguson, and Nick Dalis. A novelty will be provided by comedy singer Nick Dalis who has constructed from an original design a bazooka. Dalis will play this instrument in public for the first time tomorrow night. Also on display will be a singing trio made up of musicians in the band.

SWEETHEART TUNES

During the evening the orchestra will play medleys of sweetheart tunes, including a group of songs of several years back.

Decorations will be in keeping with the Valentine theme. Paper hearts and streamers will hang from the ceiling, and trees and shrubbery will give the gym the appearance of a wooded park.

At intermission punch will be served, and the committee prom-

Art Group To Meet Here Over Weekend

Art teachers from all over Santa Clara county will gather Saturday in Room 1 of the Art building to discuss the possibility of a new art museum or art gallery in San Jose. The group is called the County Art Association.

Tea will be served by members of Sigma Tau, art society.

Drake Debate To Be Heard On KQW Sunday At 2:30

Congregational Church Will Repeat Argument At 8; Says Irvin DeSmet

According to Debate Manager Irvin DeSmet, negotiations with radio station KQW have been completed for the broadcast of the Drake University debate to be held Sunday afternoon. The broadcast of the debate from the station's studios is scheduled from 2:30 to 3:00 o'clock.

Argument will be repeated on Sunday night in the Congregational church, starting at eight o'clock.

On a 5,000 mile tour the team from Drake will uphold the negative side of the question. Resolved: that the cooperative movement merits our support.

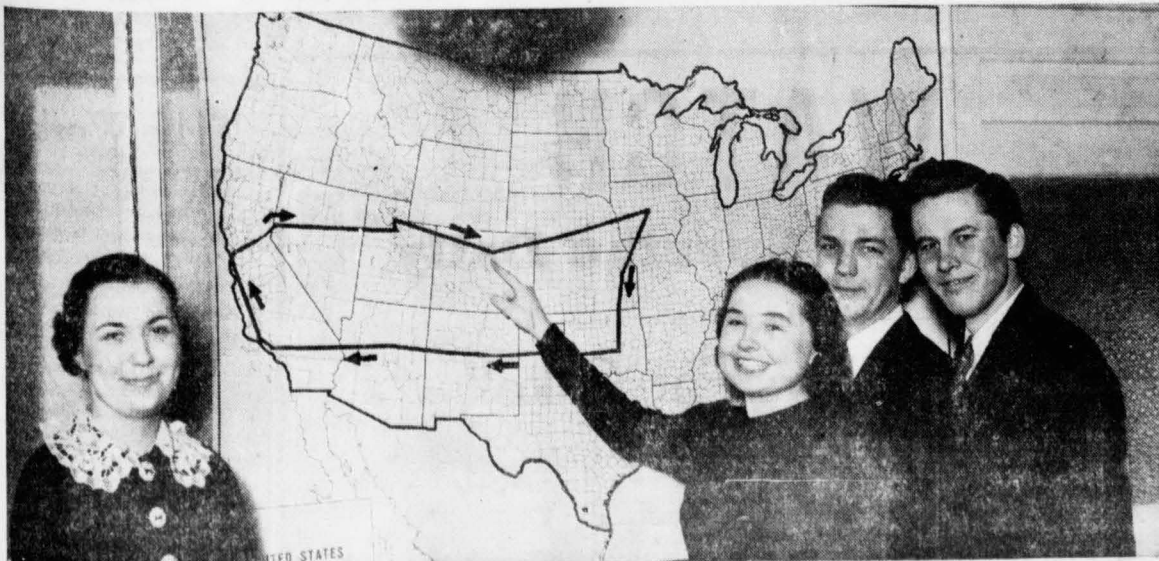

Representing San Jose will be Audrie Lassere and Howard Byrne, opposed by Jane Gibson and Kathryn Coons of the eastern team. Last spring Miss Coons and Miss Gibson won second place in the national debate tournament held at Houston, Texas.

Women of the Drake team are accompanied by John Simmons and Charles Browning, who compose the men's representatives.

University of San Francisco is next on the list of colleges and universities on the Drake tour. From there they will go to the Universities of Stanford and California.

Also included in the itinerary will be Brigham Young University, University of Utah, Colorado State college, and the Nebraska State Teacher's college.

Drake Debaters Who Meet State Sunday

Over-The-Week-End

By MARIAN SCHUMANN

ANOTHER BUSY WEEK-END and State boys and girls seem to be going in various directions for week-end festivities . . .

Allenians claim the social light tonight by holding their biggest dance of the year at the Fairmont Hotel . . . dancing will be to the music of Gordy Hesch and his swingsters . . . featured vocalist will be Dudley Nix, former singer with Tom Coakley and composer of "So Lovely and So Sweet".

Allenian President Janis Jayet is to be among those attending the dance . . . will dance with Dick Morten, law student of Santa Clara University . . . Helen Close plans to attend with Lyle Ellis . . . Jean Franklin with Bud Blewett, former student now working in a local bank . . . also Frances Simpson with Dick Lynn . . . another potential banker.

Betty Carter is to attend the swing with Bud Kitchen . . . double dating will be Nancy Graham and Kit Carson with Audrey Jones and Joe Carson . . . some of the Phi Kappa Phi's who are turning out for the affair are Esther Rooney, Eleanor Longanecker, Goldie Anderson, Vivian Erickson, and Rose-Mary Kurney.

Patty Britton and Charles Bocks are also joining the Allenian-bound throng, as is Marie Struve and Dick Bressani . . . pre-engineering student at Santa Clara . . . also Yell Leader Jerry Girdner with Barbara Stillwell.

SCOOP, and it really is. It seems that as plans have it, Benny Melzer, who is practically ne-va-h seen with a member of the fairer sex, is to dance Saturday night at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco with a very popular Stanford belle, whose name Benny refuses to divulge.

If, when walking down the streets of this fair city Saturday night, you find Staters scurrying here and there carrying an armful of assorted articles . . . its the Sappho scavenger hunt . . . starts out from the Willow Glen home of Joe Maynard.

Jane Carrera is to attend the Santa Clara University Junior Prom to be held in San Francisco . . . escorted by Marvin Joseph of Santa Clara . . .

Evelyn Rydberg is to attend a dance at Stanford Friday night with Ted Martz of said institution.

One of the interesting announcements of the week was that of the engagement of Alma Krohn to Jules Shuchat of Palo Alto . . . announcement was made at farewell dinner given Dr. Jessie Graham . . . Alma is a junior student and member of Pi Omega Pi, and a commerce major. He is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley and is now on the faculty of a Palo Alto school . . . marriage will be event of late summer.

Many State co-eds are working toward the success of the card party to be held by Phi Sigma Iota at the Hotel De Anza Monday night . . . among those planning the affair are Adele Goodrich, Evelyn Lowe, Bonnie Bowman, and Rosalie Garibaldi.

One of the biggest events of the week-end, of course, is the "Sweet-heart Dance" to be held in the men's gymnasium Saturday night . . . dancing will be to Al Davina's Royal Commanders.

Home Econ To Meet

The Home Economics Club will hold its regular meeting on Monday, February 8, at 7:30 in Room 1 of the Home Economics building. All members are asked to come prepared to pay their dues, if they have not done so before that date. reminds Mary Mascovich, treasurer of the society.

Just Among Ourselves

By Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie

A number of fine suggestions have been made for the Union. I hope it will not be long before we can begin to plan. I visited the old post office downtown the other day where the new city library is slowly developing. Have dropped in there about once every month for some time. Progress is very slow. I thought I detected a little change last time. It's a relief job, however, and it's almost impossible to get good mechanics now. About twenty men were on hand, for the most part "looking incuriously around". Only one was actually working. It reminded me of the army where it takes ten men in support to keep one man on the battle line. The work down there has been well done, and no doubt has kept a number of wolves at bay and preserved some self respect. I asked one man when they expected to get the job finished. "In March", he said. "What is your honest opinion?" I asked. "May or June", he ventured. And there you are. I doubt if we can have our Union in time for the jubilee.

The suggestion about a good post office for the Union is fine, and perhaps a check room could be arranged. I wish we could do something about a campus bank, but that would run into so many legal restrictions that it is probably impossible.

The committee who visited us last Monday from the American Library Association expressed themselves as greatly interested in our library school. Mr. Metcalf told me that it was the only one of its kind in the country, the only one making a special problem of training librarians for the elementary and junior high schools. He was complimentary about it and urged us to go on and make it an experiment for the rest of the country. He said that school libraries were developing in California now in a much more complete manner than in any other state. It was a great pleasure to us to have Miss Hofstetter and Mr. Metcalf here, and their visit proved an inspiration.

One more remark about the Union. A dinner-dance, floor show or whatever they call it, once in a while might work all right. We would have to limit such activities pretty sharply to college students.

Prizes Offered In Theatrical Contest

Student talent is wanted for an amateur contest which will be held at the Victory Theater Saturday night.

According to Paul Becker, cash prizes will be awarded to the winners by the sponsors of the "Valley Theatrical Enterprises".

Students interested in appearing must fill out entry blanks between 7 and 9 o'clock tonight in Rooms 11 or 12 in the Grant Building at 47 West Santa Clara street.

Reorganization Of Tennis Club Friday

Reorganization of the Tennis Club, under the supervision of Miss Marjorie Lucas, gym instructor, will take place Tuesday, February 9 at 12:30 o'clock in the women's gymnasium.

Sign-ups for the mid-winter tournament have already reached a total of thirty. This group in addition to the women who participated in the week-end tournament last Spring is expected to form the nucleus of the club.

At the meeting which will be presided over by Miss Lucas and Marion Faulde, W.A.A. representative, a president will be elected, and plans made for the remainder of the year.

"It is imperative that everyone interested be at this first meeting," Miss Lucas said yesterday, "for we will make some very definite plans for the future."

Holloway Awes With Spontaneous Burst Of Christmas Verse

Geniuses can't be rushed.

Last week in the class of Advanced Creative Writing, which is restricted to students with marked writing ability, Dr. James Wood, the instructor, suddenly startled the roomful of geniuses out of their studiosness by demanding that they write a Christmas card verse with the beginning line, "The earth goes round, the sun goes south".

Allowed four minutes for the composing of the verses, the geniuses chawed on pencil ends and wrinkled noble brows.

And when the time had elapsed only prodigy Jean Holloway had concocted finishing lines.

Triumphantly, Miss Holloway read,

"The earth goes round,
 The sun goes south,
 Merry Christmas,
 Shet ma mouth!"

Two Records Fall; Yearling Mermen Win

SPORTS HEADLINERS

By WALTER HECOX
"WHY do they do it?" Editor Frank Brayton asked us. Frank had been watching the Junior PAA tournament from the press row. He had seen the point of complete physical exhaustion the men struggling within the ring reached at the end of their fights, and could not understand any man exerting himself to such a degree voluntarily. We had been asking the same question.

WE WATCHED the Spartan boxers working out in the gym yesterday afternoon. . . . Paul Gerhart was sinking vicious punches wrist deep in one of the large punching bags. Perspiration was streaming down his back, and his breath was coming in short gasps, but somehow . . . he was having a swell time.

IT WAS not until we returned to the office that we understood these men. Things were not going just as we liked them. We were angry . . . but we couldn't do anything about it. We just had to sit and remain angry . . . while an animal-like desire for physical combat lurked in our minds. We linked this somehow with boxing.

MEN, IT SEEMS, have an in-born desire to pit their strength, skill, or agility, against that of other men. . . . That explains a lot of things. It is the reason for wars, street fights, and common brawls. It is also the reason for athletics.

ATHLETES express their desire for physical combat the civilized way . . . and that explains the men struggling in the Dreamland ring every Monday night. They want to find out who the better man is. Each one of them wants to be the best boxer in his weight division . . . They want to win letters that will show they have been athletes . . . they want medals to show they are the best . . . or black eyes to show they have been honorably defeated.

So THEY'LL be struggling in the Dreamland ring Monday night. They'll be dead tired in the third round . . . and they'll be having a swell time.

Frosh Cagemen Meet Broncos

Tonight the Spartan frosh cage five will meet the Santa Clara Bronco frosh as a preliminary to the varsity encounter between the two schools. The game is slated to go on the floor at 6:30. Steve Kompier will start the game at one forward with "Ham" Hodgson, according to Coach Larry Arnerich. "Steve" has been doing better work the past two weeks, and I think that he should give the Broncos a tough evening," stated Arnerich.

The remainder of the lineup will be the same as for early season games with Doyle Moberly back in at his center spot, while Charlie Anderson and Don Johnson will open at guards. "Toddy" Gioninni, slight built Bronco forward, was the downfall of the San Jose attack in the first meeting of the two schools as he pushed about ten points through the hoop. If the Spartan yearlings can stop "flying Toddy" they should have a better chance, according to Coach Arnerich.

SPARTANS READY FOR SECOND TUSSLE WITH S. C. BASKETEERS

Coach Hubbard Names Two Thomases, DeSelle, Johnson, Carroll To Enter Arena At Starting Gun Tonight at 8

team up from an imaginary early season defeat at the hands of San Jose State.

Comfort him with the fact that San Jose State slumped in the second half, and big Ed Nelson and Stan Anderson slapped enough field goals through to down the Spartans by a slim 2-point margin.

WATCH STATE

Then turn your attention to the basketball set-up at San Jose State.

Defeated three times in NCIC basketball competition, once by S.F.U., St. Mary's, and Santa Clara, San Jose's squad has impressed local fans with its potentialities as a smooth working team.

Coach Bill Hubbard's quintet has defeated two teams, the University of Nevada and the Athens Club, in their last two starts.

Experiments with different combinations have thus far seemed to prove successful.

SAME LINE-UP

Playing Lloyd Thomas at center, Ivor Thomas at forward with Captain DeSelle at the other offensive post, and with Ralph Johnson and Frank Carroll at guards.

Coach Hubbard has obtained height under the basket which was lacking before.

According to Hubbard, the five which will start tonight in the Civic Auditorium will be the same which answered the opening whistle against Oakland's Athens Club, and the five which is listed above.

CARROLL, MCPHERSON

Frank Carroll, recently a Health Cottage recruit and put there for two days with a bad cold, was reported by infirmary nurses to be improving and is expected to be physically OK tonight.

An X-ray of Walt McPherson which showed that no bones were broken in a spill against the Athens Club further strengthens the list of tall forwards which Coach Hubbard will probably be pressed to use during the contest.

Santa Clara will start the same combination which has carried them through an undefeated conference season thus far.

According to Coach Barsi, Stan Anderson and Nick Radunich will start at forwards, while Ed Nelson will cavort at center.

Charlie Bannon and Pat Hefferman will start at guard for the Broncos.

SPORTS SCRIBE PULLS A BONER; GETS DOPE ON WRONG TEAM

By BOB WORK

My editor says, "Ten inches of copy on the State-Santa Clara baseball game and get it in by five."

I open my mouth but don't say anything cause 'for I get a chance the ed again says, "Not a minute later than five."

I don't say anything yet, but I feel like returning his dirty look. This makes me feel better and with a weak Okey I go out.

I find the baseball outfit tossing some balls around over by the palm trees and I start wondering what I'm going to write about. Maybe I can get Jim to do it. No, that's out cause just then I remember that I haven't paid him back for the last one he wrote for me.

The men look darn good to me. Such fellows as Watson, "Wild Bill" Garcia, "Spook" Luque, and Dickey Main could swing it for any ball club, and I feel certain that they'll wipe up Santa Clara Friday. Anyhow Gil said they would and don't Cranford and I handle their publicity?

Now there's an angle. Why not go over and watch the Bronco practice, and write that up. A good idea. I'll sorta get some pre-game dope. You know, like football scouts do. And at the same time I'm helping our men win a game. Great stuff. I'm already hearing my ed say, "Good work, you used your head."

I bum out to Santa Clara and ask a guy where they practice baseball. He tells me and I wander over toward the place, thinking about my story. Radunich is the boy I gotta get the low down on. He's supposed to be the shark of the outfit. A pitcher, with a mean slow ball that does everything but turn in mid-air. I finally get out to the field. A bunch of fellows are practicing. They look kinda small to me, and they don't look so good either. We should wipe this bunch up like nothing. I'm watching the guy in the box. He doesn't impress me as a big league prospect. On account as how he doesn't look so good I come to the conclusion that he can't be that Radunich fella. I'm guessing this must be the second or third string pitcher at least. I size the rest of 'em up and they don't look so good either. Wait til I tell Gil what a soft touch this is going to be.

I see a guy standing over by the club house. I walk over to him and to show him I know class when I see it I ask him where this boy Radunich is.

He looks at me the way my editor does and says that the whole Bronco outfit is over in the gym getting a lecture from Fitzgerald. He keeps looking at me with a funny kind of an expression and then says that this is the high school team and that they

State Wrestlers Meet Olympic Men Tomorrow Night

Coach Gratton's wrestlers will definitely meet the Olympic Club tomorrow night in what will be a pre-lim to the student body dance.

The Olympic Club, which next to the University of California outfit, is the strongest club on the coast, will bring down an exceptionally strong team to meet an equally strong Spartan squad.

CLOSE EVENTS

The lightweight matches, with Fiebig, Olivarri, and Puckett participating, are expected to be the closest events of the evening. Fiebig will meet Grant Bennion in the 125-pound division. Olivarri is scheduled to tangle with Jensen, 135 flash. Henry Puckett, 118-pound champion will meet a much improved DeAugustini in what should prove to be the best match of the evening. In three previous meetings Puckett has defeated DeAugustini twice and received a trouncing once at the hands of the San Francisco wrestler.

BROTHERS

Carlton Lindgren, who has been turning in a sweet bit of wrestling in practice, will meet John Bennion in the 145-pound clash. The Bennion brothers, John and Grant are dominant factors in both the 145-pound and the 125-pound division throughout the bay area.

The Olympic Club is offering no competition in the heavyweight class; thereby forfeiting that event to the Staters.

The meet is scheduled to begin in the small gym at 7:30.

WAA COUNCIL

Upon the resignation of President Doris Shields, Mary Willson was elected to fulfill the office for the remaining term. This vacated the office of secretary to which Virginia Hastings was elected on a white ballot.

A committee was appointed to revise the constitution with Betty Moore as chairman.

Plans are being formed for the Dance Symposium to be held there Saturday, February 27.

Basketball games start Tuesday within the various gym classes. Joan Hughes is the basketball representative this quarter.

Following the class competition, Intra-Mural games will be held, followed by inter-class competition.

have a game here tomorrow.

I see he's going to laugh pretty quick, so I beat it fast. Kinda smart, these Santa Clara guys, expect ya' to know everything. I start bummin' home thinking that I might as well not even mention this to the editor. He always looks at things differently than I do. Anyhow, I can write up something else.

Wally Kemper Clips 220 Time; New Standard Made Is 2:31.9

By BEN JOHNSON

Shattering two records along the way, the San Jose State college freshman swimming team was triumphant in the opening meet of the season by defeating the San Jose State varsity and the San Francisco YMCA in a triangular meet held last night in Spartan pool. The final score gave the freshman team a total of 52 points while the varsity had 37 and the "Y" team 23.

Martin Wempe, sensational frosh distance man, broke the first record when he clipped 11.2 seconds from the mark held by last year's Captain Norman Fitzgerald's of 5:42. The new time, which is official and will go on the record books, is 5:30.4.

220 RECORD

Wally Kemper, former Palo Alto High school star and holder of the Northern California high school record in the 220 yard free style, accounted for the other new mark when he blazed through to a 2:31.9 mark in the furlong to break the old mark also held by Fitzgerald of 2:33.5. This time is also official.

Al Wempe, other half of the Wempe brothers' act, was the only man to capture two events. He won the 50 yard free style event in 26.2 and came back to mop up the field in the century with a time of 1:00.2.

TWO SWEEPS

San Jose won all of the nine events with the freshman team accounting for five victories while the varsity hung up four.

The only clean sweeps registered by the local paddlers came in the 440 yard free style and the diving. In the quarter mile event, the "Y" man was forced to stop because of a cramp. He had just placed third in the 50 yard free style which was the previous event. All of the San Francisco divers were forced to remain at home because of flu, accounting for the Spartan sweep in that event.

BAD LUCK

Jim Hoey, frosh breast stroke star, had a stroke of bad luck when he jumped off the edge of the tank at the beginning of the 200 yard breast stroke event instead of getting a racing start. The event was won by Harry Regnart of the varsity, with Hoey fourth.

40,000 Circulars On West Coast School Of Nature Study Sessions Sent To State Teachers, Schools

Famous California Spots To Be Camp Sites For Summer Classes

Forty thousand circulars publicizing the West Coast School of Nature Study Easter and summer sessions are this week being mailed to schools and teachers throughout the state, it was announced yesterday by Dr. P. Victor Peterson, natural science department head.

From March 21 to 27 inclusive the group will be quartered at Death Valley. Other California localities to be visited by the school are Idylwild in the San Jacinto mountains, June 20 to 26; Sequoia National Park, June 27 to July 3; and Fallen Leaf Lake July 5 to 11, and 11 to 17.

ONLY ONE OF KIND

The school is sponsored by the Natural Science department, and is the only one of its kind in the United States, offering two units of credit for every six days.

Headquarters during the Death Valley session will be at Furnace Creek Ranch, where accommodations will be reserved for members. Anyone wishing to camp may do so at the government grounds, and join the session by paying an enrollment fee of $12.

According to Dr. Peterson, the school appeals mostly to teachers and professional people in the field, but anyone interested in the out-of-doors is welcome to attend.

The students are divided into twelve groups so that by the end of each session everyone will have been on the trail with each instructor and nearly every person in the entire group.

DAY SPENT ON TRAIL

Each six-day session begins with dinner on the opening date, and closes with lunch on the closing date. Each day from 8:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. is spent on the trail, the party carrying box lunches. Part of the afternoon is free until dinner following which is the evening session for the study of astronomy; seminars in nature study; illustrated lectures; and group entertainments.

A staff of six field instructors comprises the faculty, including Mr. Fred E. Buss, geology and physiography; Dr. Carl D. Duncan, insects; Dr. Karl S. Hazeltine, mineralogy; Dr. P. Victor Peterson, chemical aspects; Dr. Gayle B. Pickwell, birds; Miss Emily Smith, wild flowers; and Miss Gertrude Witherspoon, registrar.

The fee ranges from $33 to $42 per six weeks, and includes tuition as well as board and lodging.

Dr. B. Mason To Speak

Dr. Bertha Mason will speak at the Pre-nursing club meeting Monday at noon in Room S227.

All Pre-nursing girls are invited to attend the meeting and discuss plans for a trip to the California hospital in San Francisco on February 13.

Six-Foot-Six Fresh Automatically First Prexy Of 6-4 Club

Using the scales in the health office and the wall in the publications office, several more bidders for charter membership in the 6-4 club learned that they measured at least six feet four with their shoes on.

According to Don Waker, whose brain-storm the exclusive club is, more than a dozen students will become charter members at the first meeting of the 6-4 Club in Room 24 at 12:30 today.

At the insistence of Spartan Daily Editor Frank Brayton, Jim Welch, student council member, was measured and decided eligible for membership in the club in spite of his protest, "I don't want to join the 6-4 Club, I want to belong to the Thin Man Club."

At present, height statistics indicate that John Knight, a six-foot-six freshman, will be first president of the club. Although the president will be the tallest club member, other officers will be elected.

Plans Complete For Swim-A-Nic

Plans are now complete for the quarterly women's Swim-a-nic to be held Monday from 5 until 7:30 in the San Jose State college swimming pool and later at Wing's restaurant in Chinatown.

As is the custom, all women students are invited to attend the swimming party. Women who have an OK from the Health office may swim from 5 to 6 o'clock. All types of recreational swimming will be offered, as well as various water games.

Following the hour of swimming, the group will be served an eight course dinner at Wing's Chinese restaurant. The price of the dinner is 50 cents, which includes tax and chop sticks for souvenirs.

Members of the Swimming Club will give a demonstration of canoe technique, and anyone interested may come to the pool and watch the presentation.

The dinner will be open to outsiders, and it is not necessary to attend both the swimming period and the dinner, but everyone is invited to participate in the Swim-a-nic, according to Mary Willson, president of the Swimming Club.

Observation Classes Meet Next Tuesday

Observation classes will get together with the teachers, principals, and student teachers whom they have observed in the city schools during the quarter next Tuesday afternoon at 4:00 in the Art building.

Skits will be presented by each of the six groups of observers as part of the entertainment, the affair being in the nature of a social gathering to foster friendships between the teachers and students, according to Miss Emily DeVore, instructor of the class.

PHILIP BARRY'S PLAY 'SPRING DANCE' TO BE PRESENTED HERE SOON

Vivien Wood and Gary Simpson, who will play the leads in "Spring Dance" February 10, 11, and 12 in the Little Theater, are placed in a difficult spot, according to Mr. Hugh Gillis, because, as in all Philip Barry plays, the love interest is not as important as the ensemble.

The dialogue, which is fast comedy and is evenly distributed among the members of the cast, does not allow the leads to dominate the play. Comedy characters that will be played by Harold Randle, Ona Hardy, June Chestnut, Lavelle Smith, Bill Gordon, Henry Puckett, and Etta Green carry much of the action of the plot.

VIVIEN WOOD

Miss Wood, who engaged in dramatics while at San Jose high school is given several good dramatic opportunities caused by the fact that she is in love with a man who is about to leave the country, perhaps never to return.

"I think my part is a more natural one than I have ever played before," she states, "because it is that of a college girl."

TICKETS GOING FAST

Free tickets are being reserved rapidly, according to reports from the controller's office. Students who attend the play Wednesday or Thursday evenings will be admitted free providing they have reserved their seats and present student body cards. Outsiders will be admitted for 50 cents on any night, and students will be charged 25 cents on Friday evening.

Decorations To Be In Keeping With Valentine Spirit, Says F. Cuenin ises that there will be more than enough to go around.

As has been the custom in the past, at the evening student body dances, stags will not be allowed at the affair as it has been found that the students themselves have wanted the no-stag dances.

FREE ADMISSION

Admission will be free to students on presentation of a student body card. Student body members may each bring one outsider for a charge of 25 cents.

Headed by Frances Cuenin, the social affairs committee which is putting on the dance is Marion Cilker, decorations; Bill Moore, Marceile McBride, Peter Mingrone, Don Walker, Jean Dorey, Selma Kann, Barbara Moore, Jack Gruber, and Dick Lane.

Serving as patrons for the affair will be Miss Helen Dimmick, dean of women, Mr. Charles B. Goddard, dean of men, and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Mendenhall.

NOTICE

Swimming Club members meet for canoe practice tonight.

Nine Faculty Members Speak At State Education Conference Held This Week In San Francisco Hotel

Juniors Puzzled; Money Is Worry

What to do with the $100 profit they made on the Junior Prom was discussed by the juniors at their class meeting in Room 24 yesterday.

A committee headed by Bob Watson, Jack Gruber, and Bill McCann was appointed to look into the possibility of using the funds for a dinner dance to be held at a local hotel before the end of the quarter.

Other suggestions for use of the money were made including plans for a barbecue, a boat ride, and lastly a "four-way split between Jack Marsh, Jack Gruber, John Diehl, and Don Walker." This last suggestion, brought by Junior President Marsh, was promptly rejected by the class.

Plans for the Junior-Senior Mixer were presented by John Holtorf. The tentative arrangement is for a social affair closed to lower division students that will possibly take place in the Newman club on a Wednesday evening some time this month.

Refreshments will be served, dancing, billiards, ping-pong, and other games will be played; and a better acquaintance between the two classes is anticipated.

Few Tickets Left For Business Meet

The few remaining tickets to the Commerce Club business-social meeting Tuesday night may be purchased at the Controller's office for ten cents, announces Dick Lane, chairman of the affair.

GUEST SPEAKER

The social, which will be held from 7 to 9 in Room 1 of the Art building, will have as guest speaker, Mr. Russell Pettit, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Pettit will talk about problems which confront the business world and also will show motion pictures of points of interest in San Jose.

ENTERTAINMENT

Lucille Conolley and Tommy Gifford, campus singers, will furnish the entertainment.

Assisting Dick Lane in arrangements for the social-business meeting are Norm Wagner, Placid Anelle, Clifford Horn, and Don Mills.

Women's Swim-Nic Set For Monday

Featuring an hour of swimming in the college pool and an eight course dinner at Wing's Yuen Fong restaurant in Chinatown, all the women students of the college will hold their quarterly Swim-a-Nic Monday from 5 to 7:30 o'clock.

No sign-up is necessary for the swimming, but reservations for the dinner may be made at the women's gym.

Convention Planned To Aid Teaching In California School Systems

Many faculty members of San Jose State college have been in San Francisco this week attending various sessions of the State Department of Education's conference on the direction and improvement of instruction and child welfare which has convened in the St. Francis Hotel and is to close today.

Called annually, this convention serves as a coordinator of all the branches of education throughout the state and is attended by teachers, principals, education leaders, and state teachers college instructors.
