Averill Hay Design Chosen For Swimming Club Program Cover

A design by Averill Hay, freshman art major, was chosen by the Women's Swimming club to be used as a cover for the program for the coming extravaganza entitled "The Golden Moths" to be given here May 17.

Miss Hay's design is original and beautifully executed, according to Mary Willson, president of the club. The linoleum cut will be printed in black on six colors of paper.

Miss Hay is a member of Mrs. Elizabeth Jordan's class in illustration, seven members of which submitted drawings.

"The Golden Moths" is an original Japanese fantasy. The Swimming club will be assisted in its presentation by the San Jose State college Japanese club.

Poytress To Discuss Labor Relations Act

Continuing the discussion begun last week on the Wagner labor relations act, Dr. William Poytress will speak this morning on its effect and future labor legislation at 11 o'clock in Room S112 of the Science building.

Stressing legislation we can expect to come as a result of the decision, Dr. Poytress said yesterday he would include a discussion of the British plan of legislation which has caused so much comment in predictions of future bills.

A plan which has been drawn up by the United States Chamber of Commerce will form a basis for part of his talk on this, Dr. Poytress stated.

Englander's Band For Jubilee Ball

"Buddha" To Be Emcee For Professional Performers

Gene Englander's swing orchestra, one of the more prominent of the coast bands, will supply the dance music at San Jose State college Jubilee Ball, according to Neil O. Thomas, who is chairman of the arrangements committee for the 75th anniversary celebration.

An extensive floor show, which is to be composed of selected professional entertainers, will be the main feature of the evening, and Budda, prominent master of ceremonies for the Marin Dell amateur hour, will be in charge of the entertainment.

A selection will be made from a group of available performers which includes a male and female vocalist, a dancer, novelty act, dance team, and a male or female quartette. A Hollywood act will also be presented.

Two Small Boulders Marking "Class Of '86" Trees Missing

Two small boulders that were to have marked the two Japanese cherry trees planted last homecoming day by the class of 1866, are missing, it was discovered yesterday.

The class planted the trees as a tribute to the class that fifty-one years ago graduated from San Jose State college.

The class had the stones brought here to be set by the trees as plaques. The stones disappeared from the rear of the Industrial Arts building. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of the markers should communicate with the Publication's office.

Revelries Broadcast Recording Set Today

Mr. William McCoard of the Speech department, recorded the half hour of the Spartan Revelries which was broadcast from KQW, and will play it back at 12 o'clock today in Room 165.

It is requested by Mr. McCoard that all those interested in hearing the results be there at 12 sharp.

The broadcast was extremely professional, according to the radio station heads.

Today Deadline For Payment Of Fees

After today, a late fee of one dollar will be charged for payment of course fees.

As the time of payment was extended to include this afternoon, no individual exceptions can be made to the 5 o'clock deadline.

JUBILEE SERIES ON KQW AGAIN TOMORROW

Tomorrow night at 7:30 over station KQW the second in a series of programs covering the activities of the college, in recognition of the coming Diamond Jubilee celebration will be presented by members of the Radio Speaking classes.

Dr. P. Victor Peterson, head of the Science department, will be interviewed by Willis Green, who also wrote the script and is directing the program.

During the interview skits on the development of chemistry and its use in various fields will be presented by the Radio Speech students. Besides Green, Lorraine Callander, Jim Bailey, George Ryan, Wilbur Korsmeier, Victor Carlock, Reginald Greenbrook, Jean Holloway, and Johnson Mosier will take part in these skits.

Articles On Mexico Displayed In Library By History Teachers

A collection of authentic Mexican articles loaned by the Misses Mildred Gentry, Bernice Tomkins, and Clara Hinze of the Social Science department, is now on display at the entrance to the main reading room of the library.

Samples of native art as expressed in elaborate embroidery, pottery and bracelets may be seen. Two strings of onyx beads from Pueblo, and a pair of sandals are also on exhibit.

Of social significance is the black Mexican rebosa, signifying a fusion of the two cultures. It is a combination of the carrying cloth of the Indian and the mantilla of the Spanish.

A set of Mexican coins such as are now in circulation in Mexico add to the interest of the collection.

Afternoon Dance

Featuring Spartan Revelries talent and the music of Myer Ziegler, the last afternoon dance of the quarter will be held Friday from 5 to 7 in the women's gym.

Door prizes will be given, according to Chairman Don Walker, who promises one of the most outstanding daytime dances of the quarter.

Stags are welcome, and admission is 10 cents.

Woodwind Ensemble To Give Fifth Annual Concert Tomorrow Night In Little Theater; Eagan Directs

Program To Feature Original Student Composition

Tomorrow night in the Little Theater the San Jose State college Woodwind Ensemble will give its fifth annual concert since its founding six years ago.

Music composed and arranged for the group will be presented by the choir entirely made up of the best woodwinds taken from the college symphony orchestra. Mr. Thomas Eagan of the music department will direct.

The program features an original composition by Edith Bond, music graduate of a year ago. The number is being played for the first time on any program by the Woodwind Choir.

Arrangements of the compositions to be presented are by Mr. Eagan and Mr. Raymond Miller of the music faculty and by some of the students of the music department.

Reserved tickets may be secured in the music department from Mr. Eagan or any member of the choir. The program is to begin at 8:15 in the evening.

U.S.C. Psychologist To Speak At Seminar Meet

Dr. Milton Metfessel, chairman of the Division of Psychology at the University of Southern California, has been obtained as this week's speaker for the Psychology Seminar, which meets tonight at 7 o'clock in Room 110.

Dr. Metfessel has chosen as his topic for discussion, "Crime and Desire for Consistency".

Preceding the meeting, the noted psychologist will be honored at a department dinner at the YWCA.

Violin Students Prepare Chamber Music Concert

Twenty-five advanced violin students under the direction of Miss Frances Robinson will participate in the second annual evening of chamber music May 7 at 8:15 in the Little Theater.

Reversing the usual order of presentation, the program will open with the most recent classical music, continuing with compositions that was written to be played in the early 18th century chamber music.

Mr. Thomas E. Eagan, member of the music faculty, will assist with his clarinet in Mozart's Clarinet Quintette.

Vivaldi's Concerto in D Minor for four violins will close the evening's performance. The accom-

Alumni Banquet In Women's Gym

Deadline For Reservations Set For May 14 Says Chairman Sweeney

Forsaking the custom of holding the annual Alumni Banquet outside on the campus, William Sweeney in charge of the affair, yesterday announced that it would be held this year in the women's gymnasium. The date is set for May 22, last day of the Diamond Jubilee.

In order to avoid confusion in the matter of reserving tables for the banquet, Mr. Sweeney requests that all heads of organizations planning to attend see him during the next two weeks.

The deadline for reservations is May 14, the Friday preceding the banquet.

Charges for the annual dinner should be paid at the Controller's office as soon as possible.

Quad Debate Today

A debate with a Stanford university team on the Supreme Court reform issue is scheduled for noon today in the quad.

San Jose State will be represented by Frank Leeds and Robert Barhite, upholding the affirmative of the Administration's plan to increase the number of justices.

—NOTICE—

There will be an important meeting of the Spartan Daily staff this morning at 11 o'clock in Room 25. All members must be present as Mr. Bentel will talk to the staff. "Everyone had better be present or else." —Leong.

RIES

12th

Just Among Ourselves

By Dr. T. W. MACQUARRIE

"The tumult and the shouting dies"—Spardi Gras is over. Just a trace here and there. I found one of those little blue and white ballet costumes in my office next morning. It's still here. A relic of the Revelries.

MANAGEMENT WAS MASTERLY . . .

I do think we all had a good time. I enjoyed the afternoon very much, although I didn't chisel in on the "feed". I had to miss the Revelries in the evening as I had another engagement, but I attended the dress rehearsal the night before until 11:30 at which time I thought it advisable to start for home so I could be back here next morning.

What I saw of it was most entertaining and well done. Jim and the gang certainly did a big job well. Jack's management of the whole day was masterly and put into the history of the college one more good time.

A FEW SUGGESTIONS. . .

I am suggesting to all who had anything to do with the management of the affair that it is good business for us to get together and discuss plans now for next year. While our memories are fresh in our minds, it is always easier to make plans for the next event.

Just offhand, I have two or three suggestions to make. I don't think the work it took to dig the hole for the tug of war was worth the effort. Another time we should plan something else. I don't think we should permit downtown businesses to get concessions in the quad under any circumstances.

OUTSIDE CONCESSIONS TABOO . . .

If a concession is given to a group here on the campus, that group should handle the concession by itself without bringing in outsiders on the basis of a commission. In fact, I am inclined to think we should not have any standardized goods sold in the quad. We should make it student body from beginning to end. If we were to limit it to ourselves, we should make our own candies and other confections, and mix up our own drinks. In two or three cases, I felt we had employed outsiders to do the work, and that was not a part of the concession agreement.

We may as well understand this, that just as soon as we permit any downtown business to come on our campus, others will object, and rightly so.

GAMES OF CHANCE

I also think we should object to games that depend too much on chance. Anything like a roulette wheel, or any method of throwing pennies, should in my opinion be refused.

I am not sure about the egg-throwing concession. Certainly another time the concessioners will have to have a canvas as big as the building. It costs us more to wash the building than the show was worth. I don't know what food value those eggs had, but there's always some objection to the destruction of usable products.

It seemed to me that most of the concessions were very entertaining and thoroughly worth while. The costumes worn were interesting and original. I was glad to be a part of such a program. Congratulations to everybody.

Simone Simon has nothing on Dr. Worth Oswald when it comes to repetition. The tennis-playing Economics professor offers this as one of the fundamental economic problems: What happens when the rate of rate of increase increases?

SLEEPING LICENSE

An old newspaper reveals that the only permit to sleep through classes ever issued by a college administration was given to a journalism student who had gone sleepless for 72 hours. The time was 12 years ago, and the location Indiana university. And if you think journalism students don't go sleepless, just join the Spartan Daily staff.

FANCY MONICKERS

Running across an old program, a curious given name was found in the cast of characters for the original New York presentation of "Green Pastures". One of the minor roles in this all-colored production was filled, no doubt quite capably, by one Jazzlips Richardson, Jr. The name was not in quotes either.

THE WIND BLOWS

By MARIAN SCHUMANN

STATERS wandered back to the portals following a gala week-end looking worn . . . from the beginning of Spardi Gras until Monday most chilluns had a hilarious time . . .

CLIMAXING the carnival spirit on Spardi Gras was the dance which was attended (it seemed) by every State student, his cousins, aunts, and uncles.

OMEGA KAPPA PHI gave a garden tea at the home of Roberta Culbertson on University avenue . . . her lovely garden furnished a perfect setting for one of the most delightful teas held recently . . . Carol Jane Toll sang several songs and tea was served by Isabell O'Neil, Lorraine Umholt, and Peggy McDaniel . . .

Among the Kappa Phis present were President Helen Dally, Doris Arnold, Roberta Culbertson, Floraine Edmonston, Doris Gordon, Margaret Grothe, Alice Hobbs, Jane Hoyt, Jane Matthews, Evelyn Moeller, Virginia Moore, Isabelle O'Neil, Mildred Pipes, Martha Rogers, Doris Shepard, Marjorie Tambllyn, Pat Tandrow, Carol Toll, and Lorraine Umholt.

VERSE SPEAKING CHOIR relaxed from chants with what was termed by attending chanters as a colossal week-end party . . . scene for the event was Brookdale, one of the better resorts in the Santa Cruz Mountains . . . according to reports one of the "little" diversions of Saturday night was a 10 mile hike . . . among the athletically inclined speech students who enjoyed the hiking and swimming were: Mildred Warburton, Lois Lack, Race Kent, Irving Allen, John Raulson, and Otis Reid . . . faculty members present were Miss Elizabeth Jenks who is the head of the choir, and Mr. William McCoard.

SAPPHO society held their meeting at the home of Audrey Lassere last night on Hawthorne Way.

TO THE COMMITTEE OF FOUR CABBAGES OR KINGS? . . .

Now that the turmoil of last week has come to a successful close, I can take time to answer the allegation made about me last week by the Committee of Four. This trouble-making band, anonymous until now, consists of Ed Beyer, Charles Fuller, George Downs, and Harold Smith.

It was my intention at first to answer in the form of satire, but I reflected that satire is a delicate thing, only to be understood by the favored few, which I am sure does not include these four. Therefore I decided to make plain statements.

I am flattered and touched by their reference to the "rapidly growing funds of the organization". It shows what a high opinion they have of my sales ability. However, the disappointing truth is that the growth of these funds has been at a standstill for two weeks, and the money is already in the hands of a responsible treasurer, having been sent to the national headquarters.

As to the "literally hundreds of suckers", I should advise the Committee to speak for themselves. The membership consists of about eighty-five, some of whom have not paid, since I was unbusiness-like enough to let out some cards on credit. It would not surprise me to find the Committee among this number.

There is no doubt that the organization smells of cabbages, as they say, but I feel that this is only due to their presence in it. If they will come forward and surrender their cards, the dime of which they were swindled will be refunded.

The general meeting which could not be called last week because of the rush of Spardi Gras preparations was to have been held today, but since the Committee insisted that I explain without waiting for the meeting, it has been postponed until Thursday at 12:30, in Room 29.

—Ray Wallace.

Spartans Meet O. C. Cindermen

SPARTAN DAILY

SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY, MAY 4, 1937

Go to the Spartan field at 3:30. The San Jose State college freshman track team is meeting Montezuma there today.

Spartans Meet San Mateo J. C.

Sparta's NCITC championship tennis team will meet San Mateo junior college, champions of the Northern California junior college conference, in a post-season match on the San Jose Tennis club courts Thursday afternoon.

Earlier in the season, a weakened Bulldog team was overwhelmed by the Spartans at San Mateo, but since then several top-notchers have been added to the Matean's lineup, allowing them to swing through their conference circuit with little trouble.

This will probably be the last match of the term, states Coach Erwin Blesh, unless a new date is set for a return game with College of Pacific. The tilt scheduled for last week was called off on account of rain.

At the end of the season it has been the custom for the varsity and the freshman teams to meet, the loser paying for a joint banquet. This inter-squad contest will be played later in the spring this year when the frosh have completed their season.

Spartan trackmen have really taken a big bite for this week's cinder dinner. The San Francisco Olympic Club will meet the State squad in the Washington Square back yard out at the Stadium oval Saturday at 2 o'clock.

FULL TEAM

In full force with such stars as Ray Dean, Slinger Dunn, Phil Levy, Norman Bright, and Johnny Mottram, former Stanford greats, plus two former record holders from Fresno State and a handful of such men as Clark, Olympic Decathelon and broad jumper from U.C., the Olympians should be able to give the Spartans a fair afternoon's competition.

JAVELIN DUEL

With the feature of the afternoon being the tossing of the javelin between the upstart Lowell Todd and the veteran Johnny Mottram who for the last 4 years has been the class of the spear tossers on the coast and should hold the edge over Todd although the Spartan's toss in the Drake relays of 212 feet has not been equaled so far this year west of Des Moines, Iowa. In the broad jump the Olympians should have the first two places all their own way with Bendeich given a chance to show in third place but even at that only a show because the club men are usually strong in this particular event with Clark a consistent 24-foot jumper; a mark unapproached by any Spartan.

Walter Marty in the high jump and Elroy Robinson, half miler, former Fresno State college stars, will be competing in their favorite events with Marty out of his world record breaking form but capable of boosting the bar up to the 6 feet 7-inch level or practically a half foot higher than the college record.

Robinson, national A.A.U. 1500 meter champion, P.A.A. half-mile champion, and national indoor mile record holder, will probably compete in the half mile and the mile run. With a list of achievements a block long, the Olympians will probably be unchallenged in either event, however, he will be out to break the Spartan track record in the 880 which he holds.

Spartans Second In NCITC Standing As Collegiate Golf Season Closes

Finishing second to the University of San Francisco in the recently completed Northern California Intercollegiate Association golf conference, the San Jose State golf team officially wound up a fairly successful season last week when U.S.F. won the playoff from the Spartans in the closest match of the tournament.

INFERIOR TEAMS

Though the conference play finished with the playoff match, the Spartan golfers will round out their season with a series of unofficial matches with surrounding schools. In these the team will be at full strength as was not the case in some of the previous tourneys when the golfmen were defeated by inferior teams.

SECOND

The NCIA tournament was the initial one of the series to come and in which six-man teams from San Jose State, U.S.F., Santa Clara, and St. Mary's competed. U.S.F., who for some time held the title in conjunction with State, finished first, San Jose State second, St. Mary's third, and Santa Clara fourth. Both San Jose State and U.S.F. went unbeaten by either the St. Mary's or Santa Clara teams. In the three matches which the two top teams played against one another, U.S.F. won two out of three.

IMPROVING

With a team of constantly improving golf stars a number of men nearly as good to fall back on, San Jose State should be stronger next season than the powerful team which Coach Bill Hubbard turned out for this initial series.

FROSH TRACK TEAM MEETS MONTEZUMA

Today at 3:30 the Spartan frosh tracksters will meet Montezuma high school on the stadium oval. The freshmen will be attempting to keep their dual meet record unblemished and should go in to the meet top-heavy favorites. With Hugh Staley and the strong man Don Presley attempting to play the roles of iron men, the Spartans will be against an aggregation of prepsters known to have produced more than a few trackmen that have garnered national reputations for themselves. Leroy Kirkpatrick, co-holder of the national high hurdle record and holder of the national Junior college high hurdle record is a former Montezuma athlete. Howard Upton, another flash from the prep school, who burned up the Spartan track last year in the 440, has graduated but the frosh should be challenged in this event by Mort Drury who has come close to 50 flat this season.

Sunzeri and Skidmore will be vaulting against a dark horse reputed to have broke the P.S.C. prep record in practice. Presley and Staley in the weights should have these two divisions all their own way and Barbano and Grant will probably be jumping off the first place around six feet.

Coach Franny Pura's yearling baseball squad tangle with two fast outfits this week when they take on the San Francisco junior college nine Thursday afternoon on the Spartan diamond and the Agnew State Hospital club Saturday at Agnew.

Yearling Squad In Two Games

Thursday's contest will probably find Bill Freitas in the box with Bill Luckenbill backing him up. At Agnew, Leroy Zimmerman will probably get first call for mound duties. In the infield, Sanchez, Adams, and Rhodes are sure starters for both contests with Peavy, Martella, and Teresi holding down the outfield posts.

At the present those freshmen that seem to be sure of varsity positions next year, are Zimmerman, Sanchez, Rhodes, and Martella. Zimmerman has turned in an outstanding number of victories on the mound this season, and appears to be improving at the present. Sanchez is a scrappy key-stone man and Rhodes looks like a veteran at short. Martella plays center field, and is the leading batter on the squad.

Those fellows that comprise the frosh squad and will see action in the two games this week are Luckenbill, Gurnea, Zimmerman, Ashworth, Freitas, Harrell, Sanchez, Adams, Rhodes, Peavy, Martella, Teresi, Walsh, and Thompson.

Stan Griffin MAC GAINS Still Ahead

While Walt McPherson and Lowell Todd advanced to a three-way battle for second place, Captain Stan Griffin, San Jose State college's number one boxer, increased his twenty-point lead over his nearest contender, Captain Glenn DuBose, by nine and one half points, as the Marlais Sports Poll reached its half way point today.

Only one minor change in the present standing of the Poll was marked by the managers vote as Jack Fiebig forged into tenth place, squeezing past Don Walker by a meager two and one half points.

REAL BATTLE

A real race for second place has developed as Walt McPherson, versatile member of the football, baseball and basketball teams came forward to within two points of "Pop" DuBose, who until the present vote has rested comfortably in the second position.

Closely following his football playing school mates is Lowell Todd, the lad from Modesto J. C. who hurls the Grecian spear in a manner any true Spartan should. Todd has collected 85 points for himself during the last two ballots. During the first vote Mr. Todd was in Des Moines, Iowa making the mark that established his fame . . . Campaigning as it were.

FORGOTTEN MEN

Howard Withycombe, another of Sparta's captains, strengthened his four and one half point margin over Les (Captain Les) Carpenter by two points, and now rests in fifth place, with 73 points to Lester's 66.

Ray LaClergue, All-Conference soccer player for two years, a surprise contender for Sports Poll honors, has maintained his standing in ninth place by a comfortable margin. LaClergue is doing a good job of upholding the honor of those forgotten men of the Washington Square athletic world, the soccer team.

And the All-Spartan Eleven remains:

A Most Commonplace Event As OR WAS IT?

Vin Ruble Met Norman Bright

By WALT HECOX

Vin Ruble, captain of San Jose State college's track team, and the best San Jose State college has in the two mile event, lined up for that event at the Santa Barbara open track meet last Saturday. Norman Bright, one of the best of the United States has, came to his marks in the same event. Mr. Bright took first place as scheduled and Mr. Ruble took third . . . a long shot. All of which was a very commonplace happening.

Or was it?

Southern California sports scribes thought it was. Santa Barbara track fans thought it was. Most San Jose State college track enthusiasts could not see anything unusual in the happening . . . But somehow . . . we cannot help thinking that Vin Ruble and Norman Bright, and perhaps, a third party considered the event very significant.

It was an old story—the teacher and the pupil were meeting.

It was even an older story than that . . . a romantic one.

Somebody's brother was racing somebody's boy friend . . . It was old stuff for the boy friend, and the little brother's big chance. It was the boy friend who had taken a liking to the brother, circled the quarter mile oval at a nearby high school, covering miles along the track beside his youthful protegee . . . encouraged him . . . entered him in cross country events. Last Saturday, the little brother, took his first crack a big time track competition . . . big enough to run against his famous teacher. The teacher won, and little brother did himself proud. They will meet again Saturday at the Spartan field.

. . . An old story . . . but not a commonplace one . . . we wonder who the third person was rooting for.

YOUNG SCRIBE GIVES GRID DOPE

By BENNIE KARVONIS (mascot)

The football prospect looks pretty good to me.

There are few new prospects on the team that will come in a plenty handy next fall.

But "Bull" Lewis look pretty good Spardi Gras day. But it seems to be a fight between Keith Birlem and "Norm" Sanders at up man. But the married life doesn't seem so hot for him.
