Staters Vote For Prexy Today

Three Candidates Seek Executive Position Of Student Body At Polls

Presidential Run-Off To Be Held Wednesday If Necessary; Ben Melzer, Jack Wiles Running For Vice-Presidency

By JAMES MARLAIS

Office seekers in the annual Washington Square elections for student executive positions dwindle to a possible single candidate today when students cast their choices for their "favorites" of the three candidates for San Jose State's highest student office.

These candidates—Jack Marsh, Don Walker, and Jack Gruber, bring a bristling two-weeks campus campaign to a possible climax while incumbent Ben Melzer and Jack Wiles seek the vice-presidency in the dual race for positions.

CLOSE RACE

Only an unexpected majority vote for any one of the three campus leaders, that trailed co-ed Betty Bruch in the close race for council positions last week, will bring the spring political activities to a close. Pre-election predictions, however, give little promise of such an overwhelming lead for any one of the three office seekers.

Women Elect Next Year's Prexy Today

Accompanying the race for student body offices will be the women's election to be held today to determine next year's leaders of the Associated Women Students.

Virginia Perry and Amy Silva are vying for the position of president, with the girl receiving the fewer number of votes automatically obtaining the office of vice-president.

Dorothy Curry is running on a white ballot for the position of recording secretary, while Leona Solon and Jeanne Scott are contending for the office of corresponding secretary.

Clarabelle Staffebach and Bessie Matthews are running for the position of treasurer, and Margaret Greenville is unopposed for reporter.

Goldie Anderson is chairman of the election board.

SOPHOMORES TO HOLD BARBECUE; ADMISSION FREE

Members of the sophomore class are formulating plans for the class weenie roast which is to be held at Alum Rock on June 11 at 6:30.

Free tickets for the affair may be obtained at the controller's office by all members of the sophomore class. The tickets enable any sophomore to bring a guest. The guest need not be a sophomore.

President Dorothy Curry is in charge of the affair and is being assisted by Bud Atlas.

Seminar Speaker

Paul Gerhart, geology major, will conduct the Science Seminar today at 4:15 in Room 210 of the Science building. The topic of his lecture is "Fundamentals of Optical Mineralogy."

State Airmen To Leave For Long Island

Hillis Ashworth and Sumner Dodge will hold their last practice session here tomorrow afternoon before leaving for the fourth annual National Intercollegiate Flying Club competition to be held at the Aviation Country Club, Long Island, New York, on June 18 and 19.

Plans for the present are for Ashworth to leave by train while Dodge will take a bus and then meet him at Long Island. Both students will depart from San Jose on June 12.

According to Mr. Frank F. Petersen, head of the college aviation department, the duo will arrive in Long Island June 16 and will rent a Taylor Cub plane.

Ashworth and Dodge will have a two and one-half hour practice session of flying before the competition in order to acquaint themselves with the rules of the contest, the ship they are to fly, and with the field.

The competition will require (Continued on Page Four)

Students Urged To Attend AWS Reception PROGRAM

Men, Women Invited

All members of the student body, both men and women, are urged to attend the annual A.W.S. Parent-Student-Faculty reception to be held this evening from 7:30 to 9:30 in Room 1 of the Art building, according to Marian Ruge, general chairman.

As the purpose of the reception is to better acquaint the faculty with members of the student body and their parents and friends, everyone who attends is requested to bring relatives, housemothers, or landlords.

Entertainment has been arranged by Bruce Wilbur; refreshments by Virginia Perry; invitations by Amy Silva; publicity by Jeanne Ewing; and clean-up by Bessie Matthews. Members of Mrs. Ruth Turner's flower arrangement class are in charge of decorations.

A.W.S. council members will act as hostesses, assisted by Virginia Husong, Dixie Lee Brayton, Dorothy Curry, Jeanne Staffebach, and Clarabelle Staffebach.

Kalas Number To Be Featured On Music Half-Hour Program

"Sanctus," written especially for the college A Capella Choir by Mr. Jan Kalas, will be featured number on the choir's program during the Music Half Hour Friday noon.

The composition which took six months to complete was dedicated to the choir by Mr. Kalas of the music department faculty.

Being held from 12:30 to 1:00 o'clock, the YWCA musical half hour is a regular feature of the college. Because of the large attendance expected and the volume of the choir, the program will be given in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

Dr. Hunt To Speak At News Class Tomorrow

Dr. Victor Hunt of the Social Science faculty will be the speaker at the meeting of the Behind the News class tomorrow, Dr. William H. Poytress, department head, announced Friday. He will discuss the Spanish civil war and the threat to international peace.

Luncheon Table Competition Closes

WINNERS LISTED

Prizes Given Tonight

With the closing of the Luncheon Table contest Thursday, June 3, Dorothy Berquist was awarded the first prize of $10 for the best table of the eight competing. Miss Berquist's table was set for a formal announcement luncheon for six persons.

Second prize of $4 went to Lois Ward for her brides luncheon table, and Marjorie Merithew claimed the third prize of $1 for a graduation luncheon table.

The awards will be given tonight by Mrs. C. C. Gilliam, head of the Patrons group, at the meeting of the Home Economics club. The contest was sponsored by the club and the Patron's Association, who donated the prizes.

Judging was done on the basis of suitability to the occasion, (Continued on Page Four)

Students In KQW Program Tonight

A short sketch written by Bill Davis will be presented over station KQW tonight at 9:15 on the "Safety Lane program."

Victor Carlock, Willis Green, Jack Gruber, Wilbur Korsemeier, John Paulson, and Tommy Gifford will assist Davis in the skit, which shows the effects of alcohol on nerve coordination.

Bel Canto Presents Annual Concert

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB TO GIVE PROGRAM TOMORROW NIGHT IN SPRING MOTIF; STRING QUARTETTE HIGHLIGHTED

Bel Canto, women's glee club, will present its thirteenth annual concert here tomorrow night under the direction of Miss Alma Lowry Williams, music instructor in the college music department.

The spring time motif will prevail throughout the entire program.

Practicing ten weeks for the concert, the glee club, consisting of twenty-two members, have memorized the eight songs they are to sing.

DIFFICULT SONGS
According to Miss Williams, many of the songs in the program tomorrow night are technically difficult to sing.

Highlighting the program will be the string quartette which has been practicing for the past year under the direction of Miss Frances Robinson, violin instructor here.

The program for the concert will be:

- BEL CANTO CLUB
- Howdy Do, Miss Springtime ..... Guion
- With Lilies Sweet and Dafodils ..... Komsak
- "Twas April ..... Nevin

- STRING QUARTETTE
- Piano Quartet, Opus 60.....Brahms

He Started Spardi Gras Day

AND AN EDITOR OFFERED FIFTY DOLLARS FOR HIS CAPTURE

By BEN JOHNSON

JAMES G. CHESTNUTT

That name once represented one of the several hundred members of the student body of the San Jose State Teachers college . . . today it stands out as the name of one of the crack newspaper men of the San Francisco Bay area.

James G. Chestnutt, more commonly known to his fellow workers and friend as Jim, is the chief re-write man for the San Francisco Call-Bulletin, and one of the most respected members of the Fourth Estate in the bay city.

ORIGINATOR OF SPARDI GRAS

When at San Jose, Jim Chestnutt was responsible for some of the ideas that are today a part of Washington Square's regular heart beat. It was from the brain of Jim Chestnutt that was hatched the idea of Spardi Gras or Bum's Day as it originally was called. It was Jim Chestnutt who first brought forth the idea of having snapshots of campus life represented in the school annual, La Torre.

As editor of La Torre, Chestnutt decided to have numerous pictures in the year book. So in order to get some real candid pictures, he conceived Bum's Day. The idea was not to start a tradition, but to provide a background for some photography work . . . but the result has turned into one of San Jose State college's dearest traditions . . . Spardi Gras.

EDITORIAL BOARD OF COLLEGE TIMES

Jim Chestnutt was on the editorial board of the State College Times (now the Spartan Daily) in his senior year, 1929, and then went to work on the San Jose News from where he went to his present position on the Call-Bulletin.

In his job as chief re-write man, Chestnutt very seldom gets out an actual story, but confines his activity to telephone work in the office. However, on big occasions Jim Chestnutt is the man who is assigned to the job.

A BY-LINE FOR JIM

When the San Francisco-Oakland Bay bridge was opened, Jim Chestnutt was the man who was awarded the by-line story on the front page of the Call . . . the same thing was true with the opening of the Golden Gate bridge . . . during the Gate bridge opening Chestnutt had six reporters and photographers under him . . . as a result Chestnutt's paper was the first to appear on the street with pictures of the opening.

Again showing the value of this man to his superior was the time of the crash of the steamer Ohioan on Seal Rocks . . . Chestnutt had left the office . . . word came in of the wreck . . . the managing editor strode into the editorial office and announced that he would give $50 to the person who would find Jim Chestnutt.

AND SO IT GOES . . . JAMES G. CHESTNUTT . . . once a student of San Jose State college . . . now one of the most sought after newspaper men in the San Francisco Bay region.

X's MARK THE . . .

On the heels of our student council election last week came the editorial in Friday's Spartan Daily striking out at our faculty for its rumored interference in the election.

Besides the rumor that certain faculty members dismissed classes early so that students in a certain department of the school could cast their ballots for one or two candidates only.

This seems such a cheap way of getting a person into office. Why can't the department vote for seven students the way the rest of us do?

However, it seems as though some people won't listen to reason, but must be taken by force . . . therefore I suggest to the members of the newly elected council that they pass an election law providing that all ballots cast at student body elections have the maximum number of "X's" marked and if they are not, have them marked void.

BEN JOHNSON.

Casual Glimses

The response to my WHATA-MAN contest was astounding.

IT TOOK ME

an hour to count the vote. The person who handed it in couldn't write clearly.

THE VOTE

was for Bill McCoard . . . who wasn't even in the contest. Some woman, I guess!

BUT I VOTED

for Bill Poytress, and since I made the contest up my vote counts one and one half . . . and if he doesn't give me a better mark in that last exam, I take back my vote.

IF YOU DON'T

like the rules I'll take my contest and go home.

Getting Specific . . .

If women keep printing the Spartan Daily, we'll have to change the name to Spartan Daisy!

Anything rare is expensive . . . A Poytress A is priceless.

The girl I was escorting the other night was all right . . . Although she did manage to land that left a few times too.

Story

John Bonds and Bob Securities were a couple of Econ. students. They attended San Jose State and learned all Dr. Poytress had teach about economics. After the sixth year of college they were finally given their diplomas a told to scram.

So our two heroes, having learned Econ. from Poytress, decided they knew enough about business a business cycles to open their own store. They did so . . . and we soon broke.

The day they were closing shop Abie Cohen talked turkey at bought them out for a few dollars. Our heroes were glad to rid of the white elephant, and offered up a prayer for the students in this world.

But Abie Cohen opened the shop again and made money. Tons of it! For six months John and Bob watched him, and then they went to him and put it point blank.

"Why is it that we know everything about business and business methods, having learned it from Dr. Poytress, and go broke, and you, who didn't even graduate from grammar school, come along buy us out, and then make money hand over fist?"

"The trouble mit you," says Cohen, "you expecting too much profit. I buy a ting for one dollar and sell it for two. All I ask is that ONE PER CENT!"

Hovey McDonald Returns After Year's Absence

Glenn 'Tiny' Hartranft To Head Freshman Football

By BOB WORK

Ending a years leave of absence, Coach Hovey C. McDonald, formerly director of Physical Education and head basketball and tennis coach, will return to the coaching staff next fall, was the announcement made last Friday by the present director of P. E. activities, Coach Dudley DeGroot.

Coach McDonald, it was stated, will return to take over duties as head soccer coach displacing Coach Charlie Walker in that position. Walker will confine his activities to a new and enlarged water polo and swimming program.

FIVE CHAMPIONSHIPS

McDonald, previous to his leave of absence, had been a prominent member of the San Jose State coaching staff since 1923. Perhaps his most outstanding achievements were his highly successful basketball teams, bringing 5 championships to San Jose State between the years of 1925 and 1935 first in the California Coast Conference and then in the Far-Western Conference.

With the announcement of Coach McDonald's return came word of a number of other changes in the remainder of the coaching staff.

Glenn E. "Tiny" Hartranft, track mentor and director of Intra-Mural activities displaces Coach DeWitt Portal as freshman football coach, Portal being promoted to the position of assistant varsity football coach. Portal's appointment to the varsity coaching staff came after three years of freshman coaching experience where he handled the biggest outfits ever to turn out for Spartan football.

The naming of Hartranft as head freshman coach comes by virtue of his varsity football experience on the Stanford team in '23 and '24.

Named to assist Hartranft on the freshman eleven were Luke Argilla, State varsity man from '35 and '36, and Les Carpenter, captain of the 1935 Spartan football team.

The rest of the coaching staff remains practically the same.

Gil Bishop is slated to stay at the helm of the baseball nine; although whether or not Coach Franny Pura will again head the freshman nine is not as yet known.

WINNERS OF NCITC

Coach Erwin Blesh, in coaching the 1938 tennis team will attempt to duplicate the winning of this year's Northern California Intercollegiate championships.

Coach Gratton goes on with his wrestling and Hubbard with basketball.

Portal, in addition to his new appointment, will continue to head the boxing team as will Hartranft in coaching track.

Two Spartan Boxers Fight For California State Championship In San Francisco Tonight

STAN GRIFFIN, BILL RADUNICH WILL REPRESENT NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

Stan Griffin will meet Eddie Aune in the Dreamland ring tonight.

Eddie Aune is the boxer from Fort McArthur who defeated Paul Gerhart, Spartan lighthheavy in the finals of the Pacific Coast Diamond Belt tournament. Observers say it was a tough match.

DEFENDING TITLE

Tonight, in Dreamland Auditorium, San Francisco, "Phantom Eyes" Griffin will do his noble best to avenge the defeat of his teammate. Stan will be defending his championship of the state of California.

Stan won this title a little over a year ago. He entered the tournament with several other Spartans, but by the time all the preliminary blood had been spilled Stan alone remained on the team which was to represent Northern California. The other lads from Washington Square had tried hard, and many advanced well along the trail, but were unable to maintain the stiff pace that was necessary to place them on the Northern California team.

RADUNICH

Stan, however, will not be alone this time Willie Radunich, Spartan heavy weight, is hoping to annex a State title.

Radunich will meet John Henshen of Fort McArthur. Little is known about this Henshen fellow in the Northern part of the state, except that he won the right to represent Southern California last Wednesday night in Los Angeles.

GOOD HEAVIES

Southern California heavies are to be feared under any circumstances—This from time worn observers of the previously mentioned heavies, who tell how Bob Nestell, now a minor luminary in the ranks of professional greats, fought for Southern Cal a little over a year ago.

No matter how great the ability of Southern California's Mr. Henshen, Willie Radunich, one of the San Jose State college boxers who has fought himself into the caloused hearts of the San Francisco fans, will be the favorite of those who are occupying the seats in Dreamland Monday night.

Intra-Mural Sports

By CHET SPINK

TWO CREAM TEAMS are warming up bats and the well-known horsehide for this quarter's big final play-off in the Intra-Mural baseball class.

Coach Hartranft's Out-of-Towners unit will trade nine innings of swat with Gil Bishop's stars known as the Bombardeers.

The two teams are all set for each other and feeling runs high over the set-up which will offer a chance at the local twilight league to the winning nine—no small prize to the boys on the dirt diamond.

WE SAY FEELING RUNS HIGH among the fellows scheduled to meet each other, but don't be misled into believing they are straining to tear each other's throats to get warm blood—this is no grudge affair. But it is a play-off of two fighting units who would like very much to get in the local spotlight as a team that represents State college. That means a lot—and the two slugging nines know it.

Advance dope on the outcome is a bit indefinite, and no one seems willing to give odds on the clash one way or the other. Even money at best is all the college sharks are willing to circulate. Popular opinion, standing against the dopster pros gives the Out-of-Towners a hair edge over the Bombardeers.

BUT THE DOPSTER lads and popular opinion are too often wrong—Tuesday noon will show which team has that punch and can take advantage of the breaks as they come.

The game will be on the San Carlos street turf. Coach Gil Bishop and Coach Glenn E. "Tiny" Hartranft both promise a good game and invite everyone.

Game Tomorrow Winds Up Spring Football Practice

The last football practice of the spring quarter gets under way tonight in the Spartan Stadium in winding up preparations for the intra-squad game which goes on tomorrow afternoon at five o'clock in the stadium.

The game was scheduled at 5 o'clock to take advantage of the cool evening and to allow more of the business people to attend. All spectators will be admitted free of charge.

BARBECUE

Coach Dud DeGroot announced that immediately after the game a barbecue will be held for a group of the spectators and players.

Practice for the last week has been in preparation for the registration day game with the College of Idaho. The game tomorrow will be the deciding factor to determine which men are to come back to school early next fall to practice for that game.

REGULAR GAME

Coaches Dud DeGroot, Bill Hubbard, and newly appointed varsity assistant Dee Portal are planning to run off a regular sixty minute game. A game that is expected to give some indication as to what the Spartan football prospects for the fall are shaping up to be.

The veterans are expected to turn in a lopsided score in downing the newcomers. With such names as Clyde Voorhees at center, Captain Glenn DuBose and Hal Buffa at guards, Bob Drexel and Art Carpenter at tackles, Lloyd Wattenbarger and Lloyd Thomas at ends, Morris Manogian, Owen Collins, Jack Hilton, and Gene Rocchi at the half back positions, Keith Birlem and Norm Sanders at quarter, and Walt McPherson and "Bull" Lewis at full, the veterans present a front that is going to take a lot of plugging to make dents in.

The strongest of these plugging new backfielders are Carlton Perego, Herm Zetterquist, Jim Cranford, Al Tassi, and Mickey Slingluff.

Lowell Todd, Spartan Javelin Tosses Represents State In National Collegiate Meet, June 18

Lowell Todd again—This time the Spartan Spear tosser will be representing the Washington Square Institution at the National Collegiate meet to be held at Berkeley June 18 and 19.

This track festival is tops as far as intercollegiate track is concerned and that means tops anywhere. Alton Terry will probably be traveling form the lone star state representing Hardin-Simmons college in the javelin event. Terry holds the National and National intercollegiate records besides a few other lesser records, all representing tosses out near 200 feet. A little more competition comes from Bill Reitz, winner of the Fresno relays and vanquisher of Todd and Terry in that meet.

Todd's heave in this meet will have a lot of bearing on his chances of representing the Olympic club at the National A.A.U. meet to be held in Milwaukee in the middle of July. Johnny Mottram will be making the trip under club colors and there is a possibility that Terry will join the winged O forces after the collegiate meet. Mottram will be defending champion of the Milwaukee carnival but will probably not be in the favorite position with such competition as is offered in the javelin event this year.

First and second place winners at the national A.A.U. meet will join forces of the two overseas teams to go to Europe and Japan this summer to represent the United States in international competition.

Elementary Teachers In Increasing Demand Says Education Board Member

By MAXINE WALTHER

More elementary teachers are needed throughout California, according to a statement made here Friday by Mrs. Evelyn Clement, chief of the commission of credentials of the state board of education. Mrs. Clement was here to take up education policies with the various departments of the college.

Commending the department here for its progressive program, Mrs. Clement accorded particular praise to the work done toward correlating the different grade levels.

Percy O'Connor To Speak For Pre-Legal Meeting Today At 11

Judge Percy O'Connor, San Jose jurist, will speak to the Pre-Legal club today at 12:30 in Room 11 on his views of the legal profession, a profession in which he has participated both as an attorney and as a judge of the San Jose police court.

All members of the club are asked to be prompt and also to be prepared to pay their assessment of 50 cents for the banquet to be held at the Costa Hotel on Thursday night, June 10. Herbert C. Jones, prominent local attorney and former state senator, will address the club. Members are asked by Anthony Anastasi, club president, to pay their assessment to Jack Marble, secretary.

Frosh Pre-Teachers

The final meeting of the quarter of the freshmen Pre-Teachers organization will be held in the Little Theater tomorrow.

Mr. William G. Sweeney of the Education faculty will be the speaker. Several musical numbers will be presented by stars of this year's Spartan Revelries.

"Teaching is the art of communicating knowledge by one who hasn't got it to one who doesn't want it and wouldn't know what to do with it if he had it," according to Mrs. Sarah McClatchey, Oska-loosa's rocking chair philosopher.

"The trouble with most professors is that they get a Ph. D. in tating or woodcarving or something and then retreat to colleges where they are never heard from again except by rumor," she said.

LECTURE STYLES

"Certain professors deliver their lectures by pacing back and forth across the room roaring like the nostalgic lion in its cage, others hang over their desks with all the vitality of a three-toed sloth suffering from indigestion, and yet others gibber excitedly and gaze wistfully at the chandeliers," Mrs. McClatchey declared.

"The stoogent, usually a credulous farmer with the hayseed still in his hair, may for a nominal fee submit himself for pedagogical experiments," she stated.

That there is a dearth of kindergarten-primary teachers particularly, was noted by the education official. Pertinent to this situation, she suggested that students be urged to combine credentials.

According to department members, Mrs. Clement said that there is a great need for the superior elementary teacher.

The modern trend is to favor the teacher who has specialized in some particular field, as music, art, dramatics, or nature study.

In the kindergarten field there is a particular need for teachers who are interested in little children.

At the pre-teacher meetings slated for this week, departments will elaborate further on statements made by Mrs. Clement.

History Society In Final Meeting

Group Views Collection of California Relics

Sigma Kappa Alpha, history society of the college, held its final meeting of the quarter last Thursday night in Santa Clara. The members enjoyed an Italian dinner at Lucca's, and later went to The Adobe where an interesting collection of early California relics was visited.

At the business meeting the society made plans for the fall quarter, and voted to spend twenty-five dollars for new books for the college library.

Members of the society present were Miss Bernice Tompkins, Miss Mildred Gentry, Elizabeth Lee, Gail Curry, Bernard Murphy, Austin Warburton, Ralph Grebmeier, and Herman Bateman. Earl Pomeroy, who is taking graduate work at the University of California, and Kathleen Norris, also of the alumni group, attended.

NEW INSTRUCTOR FOR SUMMER SESSION

Miss Eva Scantlebury, who is visiting here this week, will teach in the Home Economics department during the summer session, having charge of the child training laboratory.

Receiving her AB from Columbia and her MA from Smith college, Miss Scantlebury has formerly been an instructor of home economics at Stout Institute in Menominee, Wisconsin, and head of the nursery school at the University of California at Los Angeles. She now is in charge of a private nursery at Westwood Village in Los Angeles.

First Head Of H.E. Dept. Visits School

Miss Maude I. Murchie, Chief Superintendent of the State Home Making Education, visited the Home Economics department here Saturday, June 6.

Miss Murchie, who was once an instructor at this college, was responsible for the beginning of the Home Economics department here, being the first head of the division. "Miss Murchie's visits are always welcomed with enthusiasm," declared Dr. Margaret Jones, head of the Home Economics department here, "as she usually brings suggestions of improvements for our department and news of the work of other colleges."

each student team to participate in three events, bomb dropping, paper straffing, and spot landing.

"Both Ashworth and Dodge have displayed superior skill during previous practice sessions in the handling of the ship in both the paper straffing and spot landing events but are still ragged in judging distance in bomb dropping," declared Mr. Petersen.

Having had more than 200 flying hours, both are eligible to take their tests for a transport license.

MR. ERLENDSON HONORED AT PARTY

Members of the A Capella Choir gathered in the music building last Thursday night and staged a successful surprise farewell party for their leader, Mr. William Erlendson.

Mr. Thomas Egan, who had taken Mr. Erlendson to dinner, dropped in the building with his guest, and there found the choir, 50 strong, eagerly awaiting his arrival.

Lauris Jones, head of the planning of the party, served as master of ceremonies for the evening which consisted of games, skits, dancing, and refreshments.

A skit showing the life of Mr. Erlendson was presented with Frank Hoyt portraying the music instructor. The Musketeers, male quartet, played the part of the A Cappella Choir in the play.

Guests included the Misses Frances Robinson, Maurine Thompson, Alma Williams, Mr. Otterstein, and Mr. and Mrs. George T. Matthews, members of the music department faculty.

Concert Of Verse Choir Reviewed

Miss Jenks Leads Group In Final Local Program

By VICTOR CARLOCK

Showing that poetry can be light, amusing, satirical, philosophical, tragic, or pathetic, the 49 members of the Verse Speaking choir gave a creditable performance under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Jenks Friday night in the Little Theater.

This may have been the final local appearance of the choir, due to the fact that Miss Jenks is leaving the faculty at the close of the summer session and no one yet has been assigned to take over the instruction of Verse Speaking.

Among the numbers receiving the most applause from the audience was "Family Drum Corps", by Douglas, which is a loud and funny description of the noise made by a family practicing on percussion instruments, to the discomfort of neighbors.

Also popular were "The Walrus and the Carpenter", by Lewis Carroll; "The Circus", with its dramatization of the thrills and color of the Big Top; "Three Chinese" and "Some Little Bug Will Get You", given by a mixed quartette.

Edgar Allan Poe's famous "bells" was undoubtedly the finest interpretation of the evening. Aided by effective lighting, conceived by Peter Mingrone, the choir read this gloomy, gripping piece with perfect timing and inflection, so that the sound of bells tolling was reproduced.
