Dutch Treat Finds Favor

All-School Picnic Outing March 12

Co-eds Give Opinions On Excursion Plan

By JACK MARSH

San Jose State college's March 12th all-school boat ride and picnic yesterday brought unpredicted reactions from Spartan co-eds as campus women almost unanimously approved the proposed "Dutch Treat" system inaugurated for the excursion.

Questioned as to their willingness to pay their own way, a $2.00 charge, and thus relieve the burden from already suffering male students, co-eds swallowed their pride and replied in the following manner:

Mary Montgomery, without hesitation and with a glint of our pioneer mothers in her eyes: "I think it's a marvelous idea. It's

S.J. COMPOSER CONTEST OPEN

Prizes Offered For New Music

San Jose State's annual creative music composition contest is now open, Mr. George Matthews of the college music department announced yesterday.

Open to any student in college, the contest will close on April 2. The first and second prizes offered will be given in piano and vocal and ensemble groups.

All manuscripts to be accepted must be original and must not have been published or entered in any other contest, according to Mr. Matthews. Judges will be selected from competent out-of-town artists and teachers. The rules will be posted on bulletin boards soon.

Final Deadline Thursday For Annual Photos

With the final deadline for La Torre pictures set this Thursday, all students are urged to turn in their proofs to Coleman studio at once, according to Arthur Van Horn, yearbook editor.

"Thursday is absolutely the final date any student may have his picture taken," stated Van Horn. "No picture taken after this date will be accepted for the book. After a picture has been taken proofs must be returned to Coleman's as soon as possible."

Final efforts will be made to see that all organizations have had their pictures taken, Van Horn announced.

Women Assemble Today At 11 In Morris Dailey For Initial Winter Meet

MAC QUARRIE TO ADDRESS GROUP

Members of the Associated Women Students will assemble at 11 o'clock today in the Morris Dailey auditorium for their initial winter quarter meeting.

President Virginia Perry announced today that in addition to the previously announced program, Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie will address the women students.

Because important plans are to be made for coming AWS social events, all women are urged to attend and enter into the discussion. Entertainment Chairman Ferné Smith has cooperated with Assembly Chairman Mary Louise Zingheim in planning the program.

As a highlight, Mr. L. C. Newby will give his comic interpretation of Pyramus and Thisbe. Negro spirituals will be sung by Bonnie Brier, who will be accompanied by her sister, Jean Brier. Mary Lou Hoffman will dance to "Swamp Fire", accompanied by Ferné Smith, and Margaret Gordon will sing a group of popular songs.

Press Club To Hold Luncheon

A special luncheon meeting of the Press club, with Mr. Pearce Davies, managing editor of the San Jose Mercury-Herald as guest speaker, will be held Wednesday noon, it was announced at the regular bi-weekly meeting of the club last night.

The luncheon, which will be open to all members of the Spartan Daily and La Torre staffs, is to be held at O'Brien's in downtown San Jose, and according to Frank Olson, Press club president, is to cost fifty cents a plate.

Meeting in the Publications office last night, the club members also set $1.00 as the price of bids to the annual publications dance to be held at the Scottish Rite Temple on the evening of February 26.

Mabel Crumby To Talk On Trip To Japan

Discussing her trip to Japan last summer, and her personal impressions of the people of Japan both socially and economically in regard to the Chinese conflict, Miss Mabel Crumby, instructor in the Education department, will be the principal speaker of the Open Forum to be held today at 12:15 in Room 2 of the college Home Economics building.

"This meeting will be of interest," declared Miss Betty Brainard, committee chairman, "especially because the Japanese people are essentially a peaceful race, the Far Eastern war being carried out by the militarists of the nation."

Ruth Shimer, education major, will preside over the meeting, which is open to all men and women students, according to Miss Brainard.

KQW Continues Program Series

Continuing a series of government "Have You Heard" programs over station KQW, Howard Hazel-tine and Eileen Brown, both members of the Radio Speaking Society, will be heard over this station tomorrow at 5 o'clock.

Their subject will be "Time", and it will be a follow up on the statement given last week that days used to be two hours long instead of twenty-four. This fact will be elaborated on in the broadcast.

PLAY TO BE OFFERED

DRAMA NEWCOMERS PRESENT RUSSIAN COMEDY NEXT WEEK

Featuring a cast of newcomers to the drama at San Jose State college, San Jose Players will present the Soviet comedy, "Squaring the Circle", an January 26, 27, and 28 in the Little Theater.

The play, being a comedy, does not depict a realistic picture of life in Russia; however, in terms of the real, very human boys and girls caught up in the toils of love under strange conditions, the audience, incidentally, does learn a good deal about that far-off land and its people.

JENNINGS, WILSON

Bill Jennings as Vasya, a member of the League of Communist Youth, is a serious minded young worker, sincere and without frills, while Frank Wilson in the part of Abram, his roommate and closest pal, has frivolous, mundane appetites that contrast Vasya's seriousness.

Tonya, played by May McBride, is a serious minded member of the Communist Youth who is determined to be as hard and useful in the world as any man. On the other hand Ludmilla, portrayed by Jean Holloway, is chiefly interested in her own domestic comforts.

Bob Beal's Dance Band, Singer, Plan Festive Program

Success Of Affair Indicated By Enthusiasm Declares Prexy John Holtorf; Dancing Begins At 9 P.M.

Due to an unprecedented advance sale, only a few bids to the Junior Prom, one of the largest dances of the year, are left at the Controller's office. With only three days left before the long-anticipated dance, the bids have been selling at a phenomenal rate according to latest reports of the Junior class executive committee.

"All indications point to the success of this year's Prom, which will be one of the gayest events in the history of the college," according to John Holtorf, committee head and prexy of the third year class.

RADIO SOCIETY MEETS TONITE; DISCUSS PLANS

Workshop, Initiation, Discussion Slated For Confab

The Radio Speaking society will hold a meeting tonight, in Room 165, at 7:15, to complete plans for the remainder of the quarter.

Plans to be discussed will include the formation of a workshop for the society and initiations of new members.

New members admitted to the club are Jack Baldwin, Eileen Brown, June Chestnut, June Falcone, Sylvia Flanner, Ona Hardy, Adrian Hatfield, Wendell Hex-

BIDS NEARLY GONE

Since there is annually a larger demand for the bids than can be supplied, due to the desire to avoid an overcrowded dance floor, students are advised to secure their tickets immediately if they are planning to attend the affair. Only 350 bids have been printed and practically all of these have been sold, according to a survey made by the Controller's office. Using simplicity as the keynote,

Quarterly Party To Be Held By Musicians

With a crowd of at least 200 expected to attend, the quarterly music major-minor party will be held tonight in Room 8 of the Music building. Festivities start at 7:30 o'clock.

Entertainment by every member of the music faculty features the evening's program, with speculation among music students daily becoming more frantic over the question of whether Mr. Thomas Eagan, woodwind ensemble director, will or will not entertain the students with a swing number in the faculty program.

A Phi Mu Alpha band will swing out with music for dancing after the faculty entertainment is finished, and refreshments are to be served under the direction of co-chairwomen Gail Harbaugh and Delphina Phillips.

Mrs. Sibyl Hanchett, in charge of the faculty presentation, announces the entire program will be a burlesque in six acts. Starring Miss Maurine Thompson as Lucia, the Sextette from Lucia provides the grand finale to the program.

FACULTY PART

The other number are: Mr. Faulkner and Mr. Eagan in an oboe and flute duet; Mr. Otterstein in a trombone solo; Miss Robinson in a vocal solo; Mrs. Hanchett and her violin; a flower pot duet by Mrs. Hanchett and Miss Robinson; and an unannounced stunt by Mr. Kalas. Miss Alma Williams will compose the program notes.

ORGANIZATIONS

All organizations having individual pictures of their members in the La Torre should send a representative to the Publications office Tuesday, January 18, at 7:30 p.m. The purpose of the meeting is to correct mistakes made by photographer in naming pictures.

THE DEAN SPEAKS

By DEAN HELEN DIMMICK

The A.W.S. should have the support of all the girls in college when they hold their first Women's Assembly today. A good entertainment has been planned and you are liable to miss something if you don't attend. You should show your loyalty to your President, Virginia Perry, who is to preside for the first time, as she did her student teaching last quarter and was off the campus. It will be a good meeting and I shall hope to see you there!

So you're going to the Boat-Ride! Some of those that had five or six years ago were especially nice. The plans for this one sound elaborate, and I know Mr. Spaulding's barbecues! It makes me hungry to hear about it.

Evidently spring is just around the corner, as I hear the usual plans beginning to stir regarding picnics and trips, etc. But there aren't dates enough in the calendar to take care of each one separately. So in planning activities, try not to trample on the other person's plans. Be sure to consult the date book so you'll know what is already in the air. And be sure to register your plans so the other person will have an equally fair chance.

I hear we have some strangers on our campus who do not belong here. They have been causing quite a little annoyance after hours and we hope to get rid of them shortly. Please help by reporting

GYM JAMS

By MARY MONTGOMERY

What is WAA and who belongs to it? A popular misconception about the campus is that it is a group of vigorous super-women who stride across the San Carlos Turf with what is commonly known as a "P. E. Majors' Walk". As a matter of fact, every woman on the campus belongs to this organization whether or not she has ever held a baseball or swung a badminton racket.

"WAA is a national organization for the purpose of maintaining a means of recreation for college women," quote Mary Willson, president. It sponsors the various athletic clubs and is governed by a council composed of representatives from these clubs and five members at large elected from the student body. Each club is under a faculty member adviser.

Representatives are: swimming, Elinor Offenbach; badminton, Norma Fammatre; volleyball and basketball, Mavis Crowell; tennis, Charlotte Sutfin; horseback riding, Margaret Alexander; archery, Peggy Calderwood; Jr. Orchestra, Florence Churin; social dancing, Kay Grant; fencing, no representative as yet.

Members at large are Mary Willson, Ruby Seimers, secretary; Mary Frees, treasurer, Margaret Hazeltine, publicity; and Dorothy Toniotti, Miss Lucas and Dr. Palmer are advisers to the council.

Senior PE Majors had a waffle dinner at the home of Evelyn Murray recently and played peek-a-boo in and out of the dark, due to the fact that too many waffle irons kept blowing out the fuses.

FASHION'S FABLES

By MARY FRANCES GURNEY

Once upon a time way back in the 16 and 17 centuries it was the man who spent his fortune on clothes . . . probably because they were laden with jewels. It may be the woman who spends more than the man for this purpose now but she can be smartly dressed for a little cost.

CO-ED PROBLEM.

And it's a real co-ed problem to do this. For week-end dates the co-ed can have a well-made fundamental dress and through ingenious methods—which may be acquired by spending a little thought and time—change its appearance with a contrasting bolero, a striking collar and cuff set or a fascinating piece of jewelry.

Maybe it's an old old story oft repeated but it still holds good if you want distinction but your pocket-book demands economy.

ACCESSORIES

Don't you know this is a lucky age for we feminists? It was not until 1924 that any research was done on accessories, yet think of the centuries and centuries that went by before women took ad-any such nuisance to me as soon as possible.

Evidently the Junior Prom is to be quite an event. Most colleges consider the "Prom" as the most important "formal" of the season—except perhaps the Senior Ball. The Civic Auditorium seems quite a fitting place for so important an event, and the junior class is to be congratulated on its choice.

both mixed and women's doubles. Lyle Derby and Delina Joseph, and Norma Fammatre and Birdelle Hill head the ladders on which there are 32 names.

Dr. Palmer was the speaker at the San Jose high school Award dinner Wednesday. Her topic was, "Play Through Life". Speakers at this dinner in the past have been Miss Margaret Jewell, now of the Stanford faculty, and Dr. Bertha Mason. Incidentally, Dr. Palmer & Co. are moving their place of abode to Pine avenue in Willow Glen on the first.

Archery club announces that it may have a tournament soon. Everyone invited. The club meets Wednesday and Friday noon in front of the Women's gym.

vantage of this gift to versatile dressing.

Accessories and chic contrasting touches give a dress that needed "yumph".

CAMPUS "YUMPH".

On the campus the past week I've noticed several people who chose to add smart touches to their school wear.

One of the wisest tricks for keeping hands warm on cold, foggy mornings was applied by Miss Barbara Mintern who wore a soft downy pair of delicate rose angora wool mittens. They were light of weight yet warm.

Charlie McCarthy has made his debut on the campus in the form of clasps and pins adorning scarfs.

And then there's the striking contrast obtained by Mrs. Helen Plant, assistant to the Dean of Women, who clasped two silver chains around the neckline of her long-sleeved black sweater. On her arm she wore a wide silver wristlet reminiscent of the jewelry of Grecian times.

An outstanding accessory was a suede belt worn by Miss Patty Blackwood. It was made of several vivid colors, the ends of which were cut in strips and tied in front. It added a gay note to her green skirt.

A three star outfit was worn by Miss Vivienne Dennis as the campus costume of the week. It was a hand knit two-piece navy outfit. The sweater was long of sleeve and fastened just above the waistline with two large buttons. Its simplicity and the fact that the suit was entirely made by Miss Dennis gave it distinction.

SPEARS MEET

There will be a meeting of the Spartan Spears tonight at 7:00 o'clock in Room 37 of the Commerce building. Miss Twombly, adviser, urges that all members of the organization be present as important business will be discussed.

NOTICES

There will be a Kappa Delta meeting tonight in room 155 at 7:30 p.m. Active members present.

There will be a very important meeting of the Japanese Student Club, today at 12:30 in Room 20. Plans for this quarter will be discussed and the settlement of some urgent business will be made. All members, please be present. —Sec. T. O.

'38 Swim Season Opens Friday With Big Program

Varsity, Frosh Mermen Tangle With O.C. Team

By BEN JOHNSON

Three big events have been planned by Coach Charlie Walker for Friday night and Saturday morning of this week as the top is blown off the 1938 San Jose State college swimming season.

Friday night, the Spartan swimmers will entertain the highly touted Olympic Club mermen in both varsity and freshman divisions while on Saturday morning a combined freshman and varsity water polo team will battle the barnstorming Bakersfield junior college and high school eleven.

SEVERE TEST

Friday night's swimming meet will give Coach Walker's team one of the severest tests that it will meet all season, as George Schroth, Winged-O mentor, has moulded one of the strongest teams ever to represent the San Francisco organization.

One of the most interesting events should be the 150-yard backstroke in which a "grudge" race has been slated. Out for revenge will be Art Hargrave and Bob Mowatt, ace upside down swimmers for the club, who were defeated by Captain Howard Withycombe in the PAA championships last season. Hargrave who spent most of the past summer swimming in the Islands is reported to have turned in a 1:41 time for the 150-yard distance and is "out to get" Withycombe.

AAU CHAMP

Other outstanding stars who are slated to be with the O.C. team are Buster Olds, distance swimmer of no little ability, and Herb Brotman, Junior National AAU champion in the 100 and 50 yard freestyle events. Olds already holds one Spartan pool record in the 300-yard medley swim, but will no doubt be out to break either the 220 or 440 yard freestyle marks, or both. Brotman ought to come close to the 24 flat pool record for the 50 free and Withycombe, Hargrave, and Mowatt will put on a good battle trying to break McNiccol's backstroke time.

GRAPPLERS PREPARE FOR NEXT MATCH

Safely over their initial match of the season, Eugene Grattan's wrestling squad buckled down to serious work in preparation for their next encounter scheduled for the latter part of the week. The varsity, which humbled San Francisco Y.M.C.A. last week, proved beyond all doubt that this year's grapplers are every bit as good as last season's squad. Out of seven bouts against the S. F. team, only two went the nine-minute limit. Carleton Lindgren and Mel Rush were extended that long but each clearly had the better of the going against their foes.

The freshman squad didn't quite live up to advance notice when they were trimmed by Modesto J.C., but still Grattan's yearlings show much

GEORGE LATKA MAKES LOCAL 'PRO' DEBUT IN AUDITORIUM TONIGHT

SPECIAL STUDENT PRICE 40 CENTS WITH STUDENT BODY CARDS

By BOB WORK

George Latka, the cream of all Spartan developed boxers, makes his local debut as a professional ringman tonight at the Civic Auditorium when he meets the highly touted Elwood Romero, San Francisco veteran and brother of Tomboy Romero, who is fighting the main event on an all-star card.

"FORMAN GIFT"

Promoter Ora Forman announced recently that special prices would prevail tonight for all San Jose State college students. To outsiders and the general public the regular "new" price of seventy-five cents will be charged.

Forman, in a gesture celebrating the opening of Latka's local career, has extended an invitation to all the men who participated in the recent All-College boxing tournament to attend tonight's program free of charge.

This, together with the large showing of Latka's local and college supporters who are expected to attend, will very likely make tonight's attendance the largest in recent months.

Latka, who is known as one of the most outstanding fighters to have been developed by boxing coach Dee Portal, and who is remembered locally and in the bay area for his numerous exhibitions of fine sportsmanship, should go a long way in making the program one of the most colorful ever to be presented here.

Latka, joining the money-men of the "pro" ring in Los Angeles last summer, is undefeated since that time. He is expected to continue the phenomenal success that he carried through a long series of amateur matches when he established his position as one of the "classiest" simon-pures on the coast.

FOUR BOUTS

The matches tonight are scheduled to begin at 7:30 with three other bouts rounding out the program.

Heavy Schedule Outlined For Ball Team

With expectations of meeting the Stanford Indians in the near future for the initial contest of the season, Coach Gil Bishop is drilling his Spartan baseball team for one of the heaviest schedules ever presented at San Jose.

The list of games for the '38 season is all complete with the exception of a few minor details and probably will be ready for publication by the end of the week, according to word received from the P.E. department. The schedule will be almost the same list of teams played last year with Stanford, St. Mary's, Santa Clara, and California heading the list.

For the latter part of the season, Coach Bishop has arranged for a "barnstorm tour" in Arizona, playing two games with the University of Arizona, and on the return trip to San Jose, two games in San Diego with the State college and the U.S. Marines.

promise and will develop into consistent winners before the season ends. Nightly workouts for both squads are being held from 5 till 6

GAELS WIN 44-34; STATE FIVE RALLIES TOO LATE

BENDEICH LEADS LOCAL SCORING DURING SECOND HALF SPREE

By FRED MERRICK

CIVIC AUDITORIUM, January 17.—A substantial lead, built up by St. Mary's Galloping Gaels in the first half, proved too much for Coach Bill Hubbard's Spartans tonight as Coach Harlan Dyke's white-clad Moraga quintet used its "book-keeping" system to enter its third straight conference victory into the record with a 44-34 win. Outscored 25-12 in the opening twelve minute period, the Spartan five "came back" in the final twelve minutes of the game to match the defending champions point for point. San Jose outscored the Moragans in the closing half by a three point margin, but this narrow advantage failed to neutralize the wide first half lead.

Spartan Boxers To Engage Two Arizona Colleges

Nine San Jose State college boxers will leave next week to meet the University of Arizona and Arizona State college at Tempe, preferably on successive nights next week.

According to Coach DeWitt Portal, everything has been settled with the southern knowledge centers with the exception of definite dates. At present it has not been settled as to whether the Spartans will meet the Wildcats and Bulldogs Friday and Saturday nights successively, or postpone their second meeting until the following Monday.

The following boxers are tentatively scheduled to make the trip: Don Walker, heavyweight; Captain Stan Griffin, 179, Byron Lanphear or Pete Bolich, 169; Bill Bolich, 159; Gene Fisk or Jim Kincaid, 149; Paul Tara, 139; Tony Pisano, 129; and Sal Merendino or Jim Fahn, 119.

SENSATIONAL FROSH WINNING STREAK STOPPED AS UNION PRINTERS TAKE 40-38 GAME

CIVIC AUDITORIUM, January 17.—The unlucky thirteen and the strong Union Printers combined here tonight to hand the sensational Spartan freshman cagers a close 40-38 defeat in an overtime thriller. It was the first loss for the Babes after twelve consecutive victories.

A long looping shot by Hal Carruth tied the game up in a knot at 18 all just as the half gun sounded, and as the final gun went off, the two quintets were deadlocked with a 34 count.

RADUNICH STARS

Big Nick Radunich, former Santa Clara star, almost single-handedly smashed the local yearlings' amazing record. With but 30 seconds remaining he arched a perfect charity toss that sewed the struggle up. And just before that shot, he scored two field goals that brought the Printers up from behind.

With but five minutes remaining in the regular contest, clever maneuvering fouled Web Anderson out of the fray, and the pressmen began to move. A little nervous under the strain, the San Jose State frosh found their stalling tactics wouldn't work, as they lost the ball time and again to the town team.

In the overtime period, Radunich started going again with two points, but his shot was nullified as Carruth came back with a goal. Al Filice put his outfit ahead with a one-handed hook shot, and Radunich again looped one through that put the game on ice. With

St. Mary's moved out in front with the start of the contest, displaying a smooth passing game. Taking rebounds from both backboards, the Gaels left few opportunities for the erratic Spartans. Grabbing an occasional bucket, the local cagers trailed well areas the fast moving Moragans at the end of the half.

A revived Spartan five opened the second half with signs of the fire that made the San Jose quintet a well organized team during the practice season. Bendeich dumped in seven points during the rally, aided by McPherson and Thomas who added five and four digits respectively. Minahen and Meitz held St. Mary's in the lead, collecting 11 and 10 points respectively for high honors. Bendeich with 9 and Radunich with 8 digits topped the Spartan scoring.

Both teams collected twelve personal fouls during the contest, with the major part of these being distributed during the fast second half.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

By DAN O'NEILL

With an original entry list of 16, the badminton tournament participants have dwindled down to five and more will be lopped off the list after matches are played today.

Yesterday's matches produced winners in Holtorf and Harper. The former defeated Johnson and Harper scored a victory over Le Croy. This leaves, besides these two men, three other contenders. La Ru has yet to meet Barry, and Bromner, a heavy favorite to win the tournament, must engage an opponent today or tomorrow.

Definitely scheduled to play today in the gym at noon are Holtorf and Harper. La Rue and Berry also clash, while Bromner, who drew a bye yesterday, will meet one of the winners of the matches scheduled today.

Spartan Cagers Open Road Trip

San Jose's Spartan cagers begin their traveling season this Friday, moving up the peninsula to meet the University of San Francisco.

The State hardwood quintet will face San Francisco State, Nevada and Pacific on foreign courts before returning to the local court on February 4 to tangle with the Santa Clara Broncos in the second intercity contest.

The Spartan freshmen play two games away from home before meeting St. Leo's CYO and Five Wounds CYO in Spartan Pavilion on January 28.

Book Of Poems By Henry Bland Exhibited Here

Off the press only last week. "Like Dawn Sierran" a sonnet sequence of 115 poems by the late Dr. Henry Meade Bland, is on special exhibit in the library.

A former member of the San Jose State college faculty, where he taught English literature from 1889 until 1931, the late Dr. Bland is the author of eight books of poetry. In 1929 he was named Poet Laureate by the California legislature, and became the second Californian ever to receive that honor.

"Like Dawn Sierran" was edited by Miss Clara Kuck, also a former member of the college faculty. Published by Grabhorn Press, which specialized in "different" printing, this new edition of the famous poet's works is unusually attractive.

A scrap book of manuscript poems in his own handwriting is also on exhibit in the library show cases.

TICKET SALES

Last-minute reports from ticket chairman Wayne Ellis indicate that tickets, both the $2.00 and fifty-cent ducats, are going exceedingly well. Tickets will be on sale tomorrow from 12 noon until 2 p.m. and every Tuesday thereafter.

Explaining the "installment plan" adopted for this year's boat ride, Van Vleck stated that 50 cents "down payment" tickets may be purchased, with a 50-cent payment expected every week until the $2.00 price has been reached. Those students who wish to pay the outright price may also do so, according to Van Vleck.

DROP COURSES

Friday of this week will be absolutely the last day that any student enrolled in this institution will be allowed to drop courses.

No one will be permitted to drop courses after Friday, declared Mr. Joe West, Registrar.

A meeting of the Italian Circle will be held Thursday night at 7:30 at the home of Robert Trinchero at 757 So. 10th street. All members are urged to attend. Those planning to be present are asked to sign up on the bulletin board at once.

CIVILIZATION INFLUENCES ANIMALS' EDUCATIONAL TRENDS TO MORE ACADEMIC TYPES

By BART MAYNARD

It is a known fact that animals in their natural habitat receive a certain amount of knowledge from their forebearers in addition to what they receive by themselves. But what surprises is that once they are in the clutches of civilization there is tendency for them to go in for more academic and theoretical type of learning—especially that of the college kind.

An example of this was shown Saturday during a visit of a section of the Nature Study class to the Fleischacker Zoo in San Francisco. The purpose of the trip was to acquaint the students with the various types of animals in captivity and for students to make their own observations of them with a syllabus.

The elephants seemed to attract a few of the students and it was around this section of the zoo that the first inclination of animals absorbing the higher type of knowledge was shown. While one of the students was writing down his observations of the mammoth beast, the elephant, in search of something better to eat than peanuts, slyly brought his trunk up and snatched half of the student's syllabus, placed it in his trunk and slowly masticated and swallowed it. That was one way of digesting knowledge.

The second case was at the Steinhart Aquarium, where a crowd of students were leaning over a tank watching a sea otter cavort in the water. Suddenly there was a gust of wind and immediately a portion of the surface of the water was covered with sheets of paper that looked very similar to that of the class syllabus. Looking it up, it was found that the owner of the syllabus was the same student who lost the other half of it to the elephant.

The otter, seeing something on the water that looked a little better than dried herring, immediately swam to it and commenced to eat it. That was the second case of animal absorbing knowledge.

Whether or not the animals will receive any benefit from this type of learning it's hard to tell, because most of the text was on themselves, but if the syllabus is as hard to digest through the stomach as it is through the brain, it wouldn't surprise us any if the school should receive a bill for one dead elephant and one dead sea otter.
