ASSEMBLY SCHEDULED NEXT WEEK AWARDS MADE

Football, Waterpolo Soccer Men Honored

The awards assembly originally scheduled for last week will take place on Tuesday, February 28, at 11 o'clock in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

The varsity award sweaters, whose delayed arrival caused the postponement of the assembly, have arrived, according to Gil Bishop, graduate manager, and will be presented to the athletes from the stage of the auditorium.

EXTRA TIME
Jim Bailey will act as master of ceremonies and the entertainment will be even better than planned because of the added time in which to prepare the program, according to Jim Budros, rally chairman.

The coaches of three athletic squads on Washington Square will present the members of their teams with the different awards.

AWARDS
There will be varsity sweater awards, team pictures, and service awards in football, soccer, and waterpolo. In addition to this, the members of the varsity and freshman waterpolo teams will receive

Corsage Contest Held This Week

Orchids To Be Given For Best Name

Only four days remain for all interested students to enter the name contest for the new campus corsage organization started by Archie Brown and Clifford Nelson.

An orchid corsage will be given to the person selecting the most appropriate name for the new business, and all entrants should put their contributions in the box in the Publications office.

This campus floral organization was formed in response to the demands of the college students for corsages to fit the student's purse.

JOB SPEECH WEDNESDAY

Over 200 students are expected to attend the talk on the "Job Problem" to be given at an open meeting of the Commerce club next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Room S112, according to Jerry Fitzgerald, club president.

Members of psychology classes have been invited to hear the talk, which will include a discussion of qualifications for salespeople. The speaker will be Mr. H. A. Carver, assistant personnel manager of the Emporium department store in San Francisco.

Mr. Carver's lecture will inform students how best to prepare for a sales job as well as tell them how best to get and keep one, according to Fitzgerald.

Local Legislators Propose Bill For 150 Acre Field

By JOHN SPURGEON

San Jose State college may have its own private airport for the training of beginning civilian pilots in the near future.

It will, if the State Legislature sees fit to pass the bill that Assemblyman M. G. Del Mutolo, and State Senator John Foley are intending to introduce when this body convenes on May 1, according to President T. W. MacQuarrie, late yesterday.

The proposed field will be between 120 and 150 acres, located in the vicinity of San Jose. It will be, however, in a rather unpopulated area, surrounded by numerous tracts, so to greater insure the students' safety if the necessity of an emergency landing arises, stated the president.

PRIVATE FIELD

This action for a private field is being taken because of the lack of a municipal airport here in San Jose. No other airplanes will be permitted to land upon this field, declared Dr. MacQuarrie.

HANGARS, RUNWAYS

Funds for the construction of hangars and runways will be allotted if this proposed enactment is passed. There will be no planes purchased by the college at first; however, future action on the plane situation depends largely upon the stand the national government takes in regard to the training of civilian pilots here, according to the president.

GROUND SCHOOL

When this project is obtained, the San Jose State college ground school will be transferred from the basement of the Science building to this airport.

FEE

There will be a small fee charged each student who uses these facilities if the field is procured, stated Dr. MacQuarrie.

SMALLPOX VACCINATION

Free smallpox vaccination will be given in the Health office, Room 31, on Tuesday, February 28, at 12:50 p.m. This offer is made at this time because of the existence of smallpox in a nearby city. If you have never been vaccinated or if you were vaccinated more than five years ago, you should take advantage of this opportunity.

Sophomore Wins Roos Bros. Ad Contest

Ena McBride, sophomore from Stockton, wins top honors in the women's division of the Roos Bros. advertising contest this week.

Miss McBride's entry, the first prize winner to utilize the 16-inch one column idea, is printed on the feature page of this issue of the Spartan Daily. Judges wish to call attention to this layout as it is one of the few one column entries turned in thus far in the contest.

Entries for next week's contest must be handed in at the Roos Bros. store by 12 o'clock Saturday. The drawings may be either one column by 16 inches or two columns by eight inches.

For the benefit of late entrants, the theme in the men's division for next week's contest is the 'Polo Roll' gabardine sport shirt and the 'Dress Maker Sport Jacket' in the women's division, announced Richard Shippey, manager of the clothing store.

Dance Tonight 6-8

Featuring the music of Lee Scarlett's popular orchestra, and with the added attraction of four valuable door prizes, the last afternoon dance of the quarter will take place this evening from 6 to 8 p.m. in the Women's gym.

ELIMINATES CONFLICT

The dance is being held at this hour because of conflicts with the women's physical education classes in the afternoon, according to Miss Verda Brown, dance chairman.

Lee Scarlett's orchestra proved to be such a favorite at the last afternoon affair that the committee decided to bring them back for a repeat performance.

DOOR PRIZES

Door prizes contributed by the Co-op consist of a bracelet for a girl and a wallet for the winning gentleman, both of which are engraved with the San Jose State college crest. Besides these two valuable gifts two other prizes will be given to the holders of lucky tickets.

Admission will be ten cents and student body cards. The members of the dance committee suggest that students attend the dance before going to the basketball game in the gym later.

As this is the last dance of the present quarter the members of the Social Affairs committee under the direction of Miss Johnson and Miss Verda Brown plan to make this the most successful affair of its kind ever held on the campus.

There will be no charge for the affair and student body cards will be all that is necessary for admission.

PLAY SCRIPT DEADLINE

Manuscripts for the San Jose State college second annual full-length play contest are due in the office of Mr. Hugh Gillis, Speech department head, by Friday afternoon of next week.

Though the judging committee of Mr. Gillis, Mr. James Clancy, Mr. Mendenhall, and Miss Margaret Douglas does not hold itself obligated to recommend the presentation of any play turned in, the award for the winning script is its production by San Jose Players.

Production dates for the student-written play are May 11 and 12 of the spring quarter.

Out of many scripts turned in last year, Ona Hardy's "Dark Tide" won the contest, receiving successful production by San Jose Players.

Humboldt Faces Locals In Two Game Series

Basketball, the crown prince of collegiate sports, will be put in moth balls this week-end, with the San Jose Spartans and the Humboldt State Lumberjacks playing the season finale in a two-game series tonight and tomorrow night at the campus pavilion.

Although the Hubbardmen will perform for the last time in San Jose, they will officially end the season next week at San Diego, facing the State college Aztecs.

The Spartans will be out to make an impressive showing in their last home stand of the year, and Boss Bill Hubbard has gone so far as to hunt up a new bag

FLASH

Two San Jose State college Police students, Ed Grant and Mitch Ucovitch, last night captured a young man suspected with the passing of bad checks.

According to the report received by the Spartan Daily last night, the two Police students chased the alleged criminal down the street and finally Grant tackled the running man as he was climbing over a fence.

Callander Gives Readings

Lorraine Callander, veteran actress and drama major, will be featured at the Music-Arts program today at 12:30 in the Little Theater.

Miss Callander's program will consist of several comic readings. She recently appeared in "Beggars on Horseback", and her performances are always well received.

All men and women students are invited to attend these weekly programs.

VOICE OF REACTION

By BILL McLEAN

Following are a few things which the world could get along very well without:

VERSE CHOIRS. Why is it that people think they can make poetry sound better by reading it in a bunch? It's admittedly extremely difficult for even a single person to read poetry aloud with convincing and moving inflections. Then how much more difficult it must be for a whole group to read it, in which case a number of persons must cooperate to produce the usually very subtle and elusive effect intended by the poet.

True, range in volume and quality of sound is increased in a verse choir, but the individual imagination necessary in a solo vocal interpretation of a poem is lost through the requirement of a common interpretation among the members of the choir.

For this reason only simple and obvious emotions can be expressed, and in only a simple and obvious way. The subtleties of meaning in a poem, suggested by small variations in sound, rhythm, and connotation, are the only attributes that make it worth reading or hearing, and these are quite obliterated by even a good verse choir.

GIRLS WHO COMPLAIN ABOUT HOW THEY LOOK: "Oh, I'm a sight!" they say, to which you reply, "Of course you're not. You look swell." To which they say, "Oh yes I am!" after which you smile in a forced sort of way, and say brokenly, "Well, you look OK to me." To which they say, "Oh, but . . . etc."

PRUNES: Why are they?
JAZZ PIANO PLAYERS WHO BANG THE KEYS AS IF THEY WERE CHASTISING THEM: Every off-beat is a signal for a slap at the keys, producing a tone as flat as a sheet of paper.

CONVERSATION QUOTERS: "So I said to him . . . So he said . . . And then I told him . . . And he said to me . . . etc. ad infinitum."
PEOPLE WHO TURN DOWN THE CORNERS OF PAGES IN BOOKS: How would THEY like to have their corners turned down sometime? Not a pleasant thought, is it?

RADIO PLAYS: At least those about the charming old fashioned folk in Sleepy Center, and their daughter Bess's troubles with her boy friend, who is studying to be a lawyer. "Charlie's a fine young man. He'll make his way in the world, yessiree! A mite flighty, though."

But I didn't tell you to bring home THREE water buffaloes!

CAMPUS GAYWAY

By PATTY BLACKWOOD

THE main event for this weekend is ALLENIAN'S formal at the Oak Knoll Country Club near Oakland, and from all reports, a big time is in store for everyone, as this is the time of festivities, what with all this lovely spring weather and everything.

Allenians are planning on presenting a Gardenia Boutonniere to every gentleman escorting a member. Lucille Gruber, newly elected president, is general chairman for tomorrow night, and novel bids of BLACK and GOLD have been given out. Ernie Hecksher furnishes the music, so all points are toward a pleasant evening.

FAIR goes who attended the opening of the gates last weekend were Rutheda Elliott and Howard Withycombe (newest steadies on the campus, by the way. Howard can't decide whether or not to buy another SFU pin or not); Steve Hosa and Dorothy Chesbro, Sappho; Mary Buas and Jean Warren.

LAST Friday evening DTO's held a general get-together (closed party) at the Lion's Den near Alum Rock Park. Among those who attended were Francis Cahape, Rejeana James, Bob Tonkin, Winifred Moening, Mr. and Mrs. Burton. Abbott, Harvey Green, Betty Obenour, Don Anderson, and Virginia Moore.

WEDNESDAY night, also at the Lion's club, Inter-fraternity held a stag barbecue, to promote good feeling among the various organizations.

SAPPHOS are making good use of their house at 373 E. San Fernando street which they are working so hard for, and from an observer's viewpoint, they can't miss with such a perfect set-up—Installation of officers brought forth a new set of names added to their list of incoming and outgoing officers.

SUCCEEDING Barbara Spaulding as president is Louise Sand-holt from Monterey. Dorothy McGinnis is vice-president; Jeannette Wellington, recording secretary; Ruth Bellrose, corresponding secretary; Elna Turner, treasurer; and Gerry Cavallero, reporter.

ON Sunday evening Sapphos entertained the members of the newest campus fraternity, Gamma Phi Sigma, in their rumpus, or rather I should say SAPPHO ROOM.

ALSO at work on plans for their houses are Allenians, Kappas, and the DTO's.

VIRGINIA FRENCH, Kappa, now heads Pi Epsilon Tau, general elementary honor society, when she was elected president at Monday's meeting. Vice-president is Louise Ortalda; secretary, Ruth Kennedy; treasurer, June Brubaker; and reporter, Marie Waxham. Miss Elsie Toles is faculty adviser for the group, who are planning their major activity for the spring in the form of a dinner party.

FOLLOWING the election of officers, Dr. Bertha Mason spoke on the Growth and Development of the Elementary School Child.

YESTERDAY noon, women faculty members gathered together in the college Tea Room for an interesting luncheon planned by Mrs. Sarah Dowdle of the Home Economics department, and Miss Joyce Backus, librarian, who made novel invitations for the occasion.

AMONG the newlyweds are Commela Moran, recent graduate of San Jose State, and Robert Dakin of Stanford, who were married in the romantic old San Juan Mission. Mrs. Dakin formerly was a member of the French and Spanish honor societies.

BETTY STARR and Stanley Lewis, popular couple, were married Saturday afternoon in Santa Cruz at the Holy Cross Church with a small group of relatives and friends attending. Stan is a member of SGO fraternity. They are planning to live in San Jose.

PLATTER CHATTER

By GEORGE RYAN

Let's take a quick gander at some of Duke Ellington's better recordings. This prolific composer-conductor-arranger has turned out so many fine waxings that it is hard to single any of them out as being better, but here goes.

First off, quick like, we'll take as the finest recording made by any band his "Ebony Rhapsody" which combines perfect ensemble work with solid swing and excellent take-offs. Subtle rhythm patterns and unorthodox syncopation makes this a thrilling thing to listen to. Unless you are a wild-eyed jitterbug, the perfect precision and timing of this record is bound to send you.

A little known, but highly prized recording of Ellington's is "Sump'n About Rhythm", a light bounce tune from the pen of the Duke. In this, one finds the Ellington rhythm section riding along with that easy, graceful lilt that is yet to be emulated. Take-offs by Johnny Hodges, Cootie Williams, Harry Carney, and Larry Brown are strictly solid.

For those who delight in highly technical arrangements, listen to his "Braggin' in 'Brass". The individual and ensemble work of his entire brass section is nothing short of tremendous.

In a hurry, here are some more: "Clarinet Lament"—Barney Bigarde shows the stick boys how to play that thing.

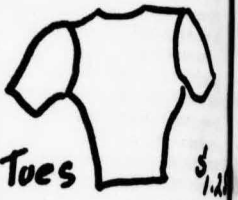

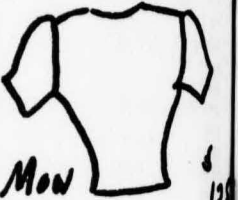

"Echoes of Harlem"—The peerless muted trumpet of Cootie Williams.

"The Mooche"—An old Ellington standby that still wows 'em.

A meeting of the W.W.W.S.B. society (What's Wrong with the Spartan Baseballers) was held last night and some interesting things developed.

First we unanimously agreed that our Spartans need more pitching talent. After this motion was duly seconded and put into the books, a gentleman in the back row decided that Coach Walt McPherson's boys couldn't hit for sour grapes. He was promptly yanked up by his suspenders and told in no uncertain terms what could one expect when you consider Mac's men have played but two games, and prior to this there was no chance for batting practices due to the inclement weather.

The gentlemen in the back row apologized for his unwanted outburst and nothing more was heard from him for the rest of the evening.

FIELDING WEAKNESS?

Then a little feller, who apparently didn't know too much about the Spartan situation, popped up and suggested the baseball boys get in a little more fielding practice. We agreed he was partly right especially after we saw Johnny Allen pitch a ground ball over towards first in the manner of George Washington heaving a dollar across the river. But the little feller made an error himself by intimating the Macmen are poor fielders generally.

It's true they made some boners against Stanford and Santa Clara but the fielding has been fairly good.

PLENTY OF SPIRIT

Gradually the conversation drifted to team spirit and here again everyone agreed that the Macmen have this necessary asset.

When the noble W.W.W.S.B. society finally convened (no more beer was around) one of the boys closed the books by stating that Mr. McPherson would see his charges win two games this week, against a couple of Frisco teams. So everyone went home happy, firmly convinced he had solved the Spartan baseball situation.

ODDS AND ENDS

Erwin Blesh's tennis team meets San Jose club players on the latter's courts at three o'clock this afternoon. . . . Some fine matches should be presented. Bill Hubbard's golfers tangle against St. Mary's tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at Hillview. . . . The first six men in the golf rankings are starting to go except Ken Hornlein, who it is rumored, has other important plans. . . .

FROSH CAGERS IN DOUBLE HEADER

Tonight in the Spartan Pavilion Coach Walt McPherson's freshman basketball contingents will attempt another comeback when they face the National Guard quintet of San Jose in the preliminary game starting at 6:30.

The yearlings will open the game with Carter and Figue at the forwards, Ford at center, and Sturz and Tisher at the guard posts. This unit has worked well together and should click once again against the more experienced team tonight.

On Saturday night the frosh play another preliminary game when they meet the colorful Livingston high school five, who boast of a fairly good record so far this season.

This may be the last game of the season for the frosh unless they meet the Broncos for the third game of the series, and no doubt Mac will use all his reserves.

SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1939

Fullerton Mermen Wallop Spartans; Birlen Wins 50

A powerful Fullerton junior college swimming team swamped the Spartan varsity and freshman teams in the local tank yesterday afternoon to the tune of 78-40-41, the frosh edging out the varsity for second place.

Handicapped by the loss of two veterans, Captain Martin Wempe and Dean Foster, the varsity was edged out by the frosh when in the final relay Starter Ed Platt ruled that Al Wempe started his lap before his teammate touched the edge of the pool, thereby disqualifying their team in that event.

The Southern California Jayceers, coached by Jimmie Smith, American Olympic Waterpolo coach, led throughout the meet and copped more firsts than the two State teams together.

Keith Birlen turned in stellar performances in the sprints, winning the 50 and being barely touched out in the 100 by Whitaker of Fullerton in 0:59.1. The breast-stroking freshman stars, Hatch and Mack, put on a good show in the 200-yard race in that event. Coming into the stretch stroke for stroke, the pair looked like they would finish in a dead heat, but Mack, taking two quick strokes close to the finish, managed to touch out before his teammate.

The heralded diving duel between Spartan Star Monk Martin and Floyd Haxton of the southerners proved to be one of the highlights of the meet, although Monk was not in quite as good form as he has been in previous meets. George Devins, also a Stater, came in with a strong third.

Without the services of Captain Wempe, who received a painful injury in the abdomen while working in the Industrial Arts department Wednesday, the Spartan forces were only able to take a third in the 440 with Goodwin trailing Weston and Lower of Fullerton. Hatch won the 220 for the frosh with Goodwin also coming through with a third in that event.

Baseballers Face San Francisco Foes On Friday, Saturday

Still angling for their first victory, Walt McPherson's Spartan baseballers invade San Francisco today and Saturday for two games. This afternoon they engage San Francisco State and tomorrow return to the bay city for their scheduled encounter with the University of San Francisco Dons.

More batting was emphasized by McPherson in last night's drill. He believes his batsmen more able than they exhibited in the Stanford and Santa Clara contests, and will attempt to iron out this weakness with plenty of practice.

STARTER

With Carpenter and Nasimento working in the Santa Clara game Wednesday, Mac is undecided just who to start this afternoon. It is expected that either Bill Curtis, righthander, or little Matt Xavier, only lefthander on the club, may get the starting nod. Still, it may be Herm Zetterquist, who worked only one inning against the Broncos.

If San Francisco State does not turn out too tough, Mac hopes to hold Carpenter and Nasimento over for the Don clash.

ALLEN STRONG

Encouraging in the Bronco game was the showing at the plate of Johnny Allen, who played the entire game with only one day of practice under his belt. Allen, who still has a couple of basketball games to play for Bill Hubbard, will not be available to McPherson for another week or so.

NOTICE

The following members of the gym team will meet at 12:30 in the Student Union . . . to discuss plans for a trip to Stanford: Bevo O'Connor, Kent Friel, Jack Finnagan, Rich Kong, Geo. Devins, and LeRoy. Thank you.—Jim Fahn.

Tracksters Enter Indoor Meet

Coach Glenn "Tiny" Hartranft, Spartan track mentor, will take eleven men north with him to compete in the Pacific Coast Indoor Track and Field Championships at the Golden Gate International Exposition tomorrow.

Facing a concentrated aggregation of the toughest competition on the coast, Hartranft's men will have to be in top form to cop any honors.

Aided by the spring weather of the past week the boys should be in good shape for the contests.

In the 60-yard dash Hallstone will represent San Jose, and in the 600-yard relay Kerr and Balma, both former frosh stars, will compete.

Sunb, Woods, Smith, and Ruble will combine in the 1000-yard relay. Ruble will also run the mile with McWebb.

Jim Fahn of tumbling fame, and Tony Sunseri will compete in the pole vault event. "Tickle" Vasconcellos will probably compete in the broad jump.

SPARTANS DEFEAT CALIFORNIA TEAM 25-5; RUSH ONLY LOSER

Coach Gene Grattan's Spartan wrestlers maintained their position as number one grappling team in the state when they murdered California's Golden Bears, 25 to 5, last night in Spartan Pavilion.

If it hadn't been for the weakened condition of Captain Mel Rush, the Spartans might have made it a clean sweep.

As it was, Rush was pinned by Jack Schneller by a fall in 2 minutes and 11 seconds. It was the only Spartan defeat of the evening, and was the first time Rush has ever been pinned.

The San Jose State college freshman wrestling team was defeated by San Jose high school, 5 matches to 1, in a preliminary.

Captain Bob Norona was the only frosh winner.

Tonight the varsity team will journey to Berkeley for a meet with the YMCA contingent from that city. Coach Grattan will take two teams with him for tonight's meet.

Results:

121 lbs.—Con Lacy (State) defeated Ray Hopper (Cal).

128 lbs.—Fred Albright (State) defeated Frank Wada (Cal).

135 lbs.—Jack Fiebig (State) defeated Barney Avila (Cal).

145 lbs.—Fortune Masdeo (State) defeated Ken McNamara (Cal).

155 lbs.—Mel Bruno (State) defeated Walter Watt (Cal).

165 lbs.—Jack Schneller (Cal) defeated Mel Rush (State).

of tricks to pull on the invading Loggers.

In fact, the Spartan hoop maestro thinks enough of the new offense he has developed to alter his lineup, leaving John Allen off his "Sunday five". The sensational sophomore guard missed practice this week to play baseball with Walt McPherson's crew and missed out on Hubbard's new plans.

Deward Tornell will take over at Allen's guard spot, but the latter is expected to be in thick of things before the festivities are over.

A number of Spartans will be pounding the local hardwood for the last time. This group is headed by Capt. Lloyd Thomas, center, who closes his career after three brilliant years of play. Bob Berry, veteran, who fought his way to a first string berth at guard, will also wind up his activities at Spartatowne.

Gus Kotta and Webb Anderson will operate at forwards, and Charlie Bendeich, team high scorer, will be held in reserve, but will be given ample chance to oil up his magic left hand.

Spartan Boxers Defeated In Foreign Invasion

Bill Bolich Wins In Vancouver; Two Matches Draws

By CHARLES SAMMON

In the first foreign invasion ever made by an athletic squad representing San Jose State, Sparta's boxing team was beaten by the powerful Grand View Athletic club of Vancouver, B.C., by a score of four bouts to one, two other matches were draws.

The only Spartan to come through with a win was Bill Bolich, 155 pounds, who decided Norm Dawson of the Grand View team. Dawson is highly touted and his defeat was the upset of the evening.

Charlie Kerwin, local lightweight, went to a draw with Jack Martin of the Vancouver club as did Pete Bolich, Spartan light heavyweight. Outside of these two matches and the win by Bill Bolich the other bouts were lopsided victories for the Canadian team.

Dale Wren was knocked out in the second round by Toby Crok of the club, and Jimmy Kincaid, Spartan captain, was just able to weather the storm long enough to be decided instead of losing by a knockout.

Two technical knockouts completed the program when George Konoshima was beaten by Gordon Connachie at 120 pounds and Gene Fisk, Spartan middleweight, was T.K.O.'d by Joe Ashenbrenne.

An attempt to line up another opponent for the local team will be made before the return home, if not, they will return on Sunday, completing the longest trip ever made by a Spartan team outside of the yearly visit the football team makes to Hawaii.

Organization Leaders Convene Next Week

Hilton Will Preside Over Annual Confab; No Faculty

By BEN JOHNSON

All campus organizations will have a chance to air their pet "beefs" next Friday night when the annual Organization Dinner is held in O'Brien's Pompeian Court.

Presided over by Student Body Prexy Jack Hilton, who will come up from Bakersfield for the occasion, the meeting will give all campus groups a chance to give their outright opinions concerning campus problems. There will be no faculty members in attendance, according to Acting President Dorothy Curry.

Members of the student council will lead some discussion on possible amendments to the constitution and also on the lighting and police situation that for a long time has been a campus problem.

"Any other situation confronting any campus group should be brought up at the meeting," stated Miss Curry. "and the council will attempt to iron the thing out."

Letters containing information about the affair are in the Co-op boxes, and members of the council ask that replies be made to them immediately so that the number of students attending will be known.

This is the third year that such a meeting has been held, stated Miss Curry. In previous years many noted improvements have come out of the gathering, and it is urged that all campus leaders give the gathering some thought, and come prepared to present their problems.

IOTA DELTA PHI INITIATES TAKE VOWS

Eleven Members Join French Society

Eleven new members will be formally initiated into Iota Delta Phi, French honor society, in a ceremony at the San Jose Country Club at six o'clock tonight, according to President Bernard Murphy.

Following the initiation, a program consisting of an address by Marguerite De La Harpe, professor of French at the University of California; a monologue in French—Pyramus and Thisbe—by Dr. L. C. Newby, head of the Language department; and piano selections by Dr. Raymond Mosher, psychology professor, is being planned. In addition to the main entertainment, members of the society will present various skits.

Kid Tells Staters HE SHOWS 'EM To Go Fly Kite

"Aw, go fly a kite." And two State students, Hugh Staley and Jack Riordan, to be specific, did just that yesterday morning, or at least they tried.

A little hooky-player from one of the local grammar schools walked onto the lawn near the Publications room about noon time with a kite in his hand. Before he could even attempt to fly it, however, the two kite aces from this neck of the woods pounced on the lad.

It was easy for them to get the kite, but it was a bitter struggle deciding who would have first crack at flying it.

Riordan finally won the decision, attempted to fly the kite, and failed. Staley tried. He failed. The little kid tried. He succeeded.

Staley and Riordan have been walking around in a daze ever since.

WHAT'S DOING

Anyone who says that there is nothing to do over the approaching week-end is a "lamm diar" as there are numerous events social, sport, etc. that will fill in for those who are not already fixed up.

This afternoon the final afternoon dance of the quarter will be presented in the women's gym. Please note the new time, 6 to 8. The tariff is 10 cents.

Then after the dance there is the basketball game in Spartan Pavilion with San Jose playing host to Humboldt State. After that—you will have to use your own judgement.

Comes Saturday . . . At 6:40 (yes, in the morning) over 300 Nature Study students will leave for Davis and a look at the Agriculture school. Yawn yawn.

Then Saturday afternoon the Spartan baseball players travel to San Francisco to meet the USF Dons in a diamond game.

Saturday night the final home game of the basketball season will take place with San Jose again playing host to the lumbering Lumberjacks from Eureka.

Finally for a lucky few there is the Alienian Dance at Oak Knoll Country club.

So in other words there is lots doing over the coming two days.
