A CAPELLA CONCERT NEXT WEEK

"Rebuilt acoustics of Morris Dailey auditorium will provide unlimited pleasure in listening to the A Capella choir concert on Tuesday night, March 7," Carlton Lindgren, chairman of the group, announced yesterday.

"A stage, striking in its simplicity, will greet the audience. Hanging black curtains of the 'cyclorama' will provide the sombre, subdued atmosphere conducive to a full, complete appreciation of the glorious surge of power to be found in much of the music to be sung."

CATHEDRAL EFFECT

The chairman further described the setting for the annual concert of what was to be declared to be one of the best-known choirs on the Pacific coast.

"A single shaft of light on a silver pillar in the center background, as though it were reaching up into the misty, cob-webby eaves of a great Gothic cathedral, is planned to induce a feeling of height to the setting.

"Two large candelabra, one in each up-stage corner of the stage, will further enhance the cathedral effect."

MEMORIAL GIVEN BY LETTERMEN

At 11 o'clock this morning in Morris Dailey auditorium coaches and athletes of three major sports at San Jose State college will gather on the stage for the presentation of awards in football, soccer, and waterpolo.

The coaches will make the awards to their team members and besides the usual varsity sweaters there will be service awards, team pictures, and gold medals presented.

MEMORIAL

Highlight of the activities will be the presentation of a memorial plaque in honor of deceased Spartan athletes. It is the gift of the Letterman's club and will be given to the Men's P. E. department. The plaque will have engraved upon it the names of athletes who have passed away within the last four years.

PROGRAM

In charge of the entertainment is Jim Bailey, who will act as general master of ceremonies and will give the audience a preview of some of the talent they can expect to see in the Spartan Revelries next quarter. An orchestra has been arranged for, under the direction of Forrest O'Brien the band will offer something novel in the way of music.

Student Hop Friday Night Spirit O' 49

"Reach for yur hog-leg, stranger!"

Don't be surprised if someone barks that order at you Friday night in the Men's gym at the final student body dance of this quarter for the theme is to be the "49er's" and cowboy get-up will be in order!

Dancers will receive a preview of the fifteen-piece orchestra which is to play for the Spartan Revelries, for that group is to furnish the music.

The band this year is under the guidance of Sheldon Taij, but for Friday evening the band will be directed by the baton of Jim Bailey, director of the Revelries.

As an added inducement a floor show is to be presented starring some of the new talent to be used in the annual big show. Bailey also promises some interesting novelty numbers during the dance.

Men students are requested, if possible, to come dressed in Western garb including sombreros. Spanish costumes are also acceptable. The women will wear calico or other timely garb.

THURSDAY FLORAL TITLE DEADLINE

Students have until Thursday to enter the big name contest for the new campus floral organization started by Archie Brown and Clifford Nelson.

All that is necessary to win an orchid corsage is the winning name for the new organization. According to Archie Brown, contributions are still coming in fast and all interested students should put their entry in the contributor's box in the Publications office.

New Ad Contest Motifs Named

The motif for the layouts entered in the men's division of the Roos Bros. advertising contest next week will be 'Cable-Stitch', 'Baby Shackler', or 'Australian Wool' sweaters, the judges announced yesterday.

The theme of the women's division will be dresses of Basket Weave called 'Ferdinand the Bull'.

The contest is open to the students of San Jose State college. Students who plan entering next week's contest may visit the Roos display the merchandise to be featured in the contest to all contestants.

Elks To Sponsor '39 Thanksgiving Game With Iowans

CROWD EXPECTED; 5000 SEATS ADDED TO SPARTAN STADIUM

By JOHN SPURGEON

In the annual Thanksgiving Day classic, sponsored for the first time this year by the San Jose Elks, San Jose State college will meet the highly touted Drake University eleven in Spartan Stadium.

Final arrangements for this game with Drake, last year's runner-up and year before champions in the Missouri Conference, were completed yesterday morning at 10

New Men's House Slated To Open In Fall Quarter

The proposed new men's co-op house will not be open until the fall quarter, announced Mr. Weaver Meadows, chairman of the advisory board of Eckert Hall, Friday.

The plans for the new house have been abandoned because not enough students were interested in joining the house next quarter, said Mr. Meadows.

The reason for this lack of interest, Mr. Meadows believes, is that students are already permanently located for the year.

The house will definitely be open in the fall quarter, according to Mr. Meadows.

Elks charity game, when E. C. Lytton, business manager of Drake University, wired their acceptance, according to Mr. Cuthbert. Drake University's team is coached by J. B. Greene, former University of Illinois star.

FACULTY DESPERATE; FOLLIES POSTPONED

By PHOOTLIGHT PHANNIE

We need all the end of this quarter to think up final examinations and flunk the proper quota of students, decided members of the Faculty Follies committee at their last meeting, so the much-heralded pedagogic extravaganza has been shifted to Saturday night, April 8.

On that night, students, your favorite (and unfavorite) professors will do unexpected things, some of them set to music, on the stage of Morris Dailey auditorium.

POYTRESS DEALS OUT F'S

"They haven't given me a part yet, but I'm gonna be in it anyway," Wild Bill Poytress informed the Press with a mischievous gleam in his eye. He was sorting out fifty per cent of the last Econ. ex. papers and marking "F's" on them in the approved academic manner.

"I'll bring Owen Broyles along to talk me out of any possible legal complications," said Professor Bill, viciously drawing a huge F in somebody's blue book. "Shucks, I thought it was Bailey's paper," he murmured, taking it off again.

ATHLETIC EGGS

Director Gil Bishop sauntered in at that moment to announce that, since April 9 is Easter Sunday, maybe it would be a good idea for Poytress to dress up like a bunny for the Follies and rush down the aisle every few minutes yelling: "Mrs. Jones! Here are the eggs you ordered!"

"Oh," said Poytress with cunning comprehension. "Cue for the Physical Education department to enter? Sure!"

ORGANIZATION DINNER

Purchase Tickets Now

Campus groups are requested to select their representatives for the annual Organization Dinner, Friday, March 3.

Purchases of tickets and making of reservations should be done immediately, announced Miss Dorothy Curry, acting president.

Thursday at four o'clock will be the absolute deadline to purchase tickets. No tickets will be sold at the door, according to Miss Curry.

Tickets are now on sale for 88 cents each in the Controller's office. The Pompeian Court at O'Brien's has been selected as the scene of this "Dine and Beef" session.

The affair is to start at six o'clock promptly. The reason for the dinner being held so early is because of the last student body dance being held later on the same evening. At this time any pertinent matter confronting the college may be brought up by the campus representatives.

Members of the student council will lead the discussion on possible amendments to the constitution and also on the lighting situation. Those organizations who have not taken their letters concerning this matter from their box in the Co-op are requested to do so at once.

This meeting will be presided over by Student Body President Jack Hilton, who will come up from Bakersfield for this occasion.

The meeting will give all campus groups a chance to give their out-right opinions concerning campus problems.

Shall It Happen Here? . . .

Los Angeles police are today seeking a solution to the death of a drama student who was brutally slugged and attacked last week on the Los Angeles City College campus.

On her way to perform in a student revue, this college woman was the victim of an attack as she crossed the campus. Although nothing like this has occurred here, several women have been approached on Washington Square. This has led to the fear that something might happen on the local campus.

Discussion of the local situation is scheduled for the approaching Organization Dinner. At this meeting something may be brought up which will solve the need for protection on the Spartan campus.

So far no definite steps have been taken in this direction. Nothing serious has happened, but as the old saying goes: "There is always a first time for everything".

Last year a similar situation prevailed but no action was taken, but out of the Organization Dinner may come the much needed solution to Washington Square's most pressing problem. —F. M.

Sho-Down . . .

THE BEACHCOMBER, now playing at the Fox California Theatre featuring Charles Laughton with his wife, Elsa Lanchester.

Somerset Maugham's story of the corpulent Englishman who lives on a South Sea isle to get away from the strict conventionalities of English society is well handled by Charles Laughton. Laughton, playing the part of the beachcomber, puts in one of the greatest acting roles of his career. The picture justifies the claim of many that Laughton is the greatest living actor on the stage or screen today.

Elsa Lanchester, his wife in real life, plays the part of the prissy prim English missionary worker who finally captures the Lothario of the island, reforms him, and takes him back to England. She puts in a sterling performance.

For fine acting, the picture is a "must see".

Another feature supports the bill which stars Franciska Gaal and Franchot Tone. If you can possibly arrange to miss this, the rest of the day will remain pleasant for you. A Disney sketch of "Three Blind Pigs" is most exhilarating.

"Massage it with grease every night," directed the doctor.

A month later the little man came back.

"Doctor," he complained, "I've massaged my nose every night like you told me, and instead of getting longer, it's growing shorter."

"What sort of grease have you been using?" asked the doc.

REVELRIES

REHEARSALS

The wheels of the Spartan Revelries have to start turning immediately as time is fleeting, according to Jim Bailey and Ben Melzer. Consequently, the chorus girls will warm their heels again coming Wednesday (tomorrow). The directors request that all the chorists look at this page tomorrow for the time and place of the rehearsal. Dancing will start in earnest from now on.

SINGERS

Another announcement of importance to many students is all singers, male or female, are to have their voices displayed by a group of judges sometime the early part of next week. On Friday there will be a preliminary meeting of the singers for the purpose of assigning them songs and permitting them to rehearse with the pianists. All songs will be modern.

LEADS

From their showing next week the singers will be catalogued used in the Revelries wherever possible. All the leading characters with few exceptions, are required to have singing roles. Students asked to look in tomorrow's Daily for times.

HOT DOLLARS . . . Another wedge was driven into the widening rift between the California State Senate and the Olson Administration with charges made before the S. F. Junior Chamber of Commerce by Richard C. Olson, governor's secretary.

Said sonsecretary Richard, "We all know most of the senators are bought and paid for, bound and delivered."

Some irate senators favored bringing young Olson before their body to produce proof, if any. Others counseled, ignoring completely the senatebaiting statement. All agreed it did little toward restoring amity between the warring groups.

ADIOS . . . Great Britain and France are bidding farewell to diplomatic officials of moribund loyalist Spain. With recognition of the Franco regime in heretofore insurgent Spain, the end of the civil strife is in sight and with it the end of the former communistically inclined government.

With Franco indebted to fascist Italy and nazi Germany for much of his support, many observers liken the change to swapping a lemon for a green persimmon.

Hoping to ingratiate themselves with the Franco regime through loans, Great Britain and France have received little encouragement from the Spanish leader. Franco has the whip hand, needs no showing in how to use it.

LABOR . . . President Roosevelt's bid for peace between warring CIO and AFL groups appears headed for the rocks. Languished at the two unions' interecine bickerings and resultant hamstringing of industry, the President is again trying to restore peace between the camps.

Blocking the peaceplan are differing philosophies of the CIO and the AFL, the personal antagonism between AFL leader CIOrganized Lewis, and the desire for control over what would be the largest labor and political group in the world.

Pressure on the labor leader which may force them to get together comes from two main sources—pressure from the rank and file who are strong for peace and pressure from the Roosevelt Administration which could withhold its labor support against current attacks on the Wagner Act and the National Labor Relations Board.

OBITUARIES . . . Washington diplomatic circles today mourn the passing of Hiroshi Saito, Japanese ambassador to the United States. During his stay in the nation's capital, Saito was one of the most popular foreign representatives despite delicate relations existing between his country and the United States.

From Russia come news of the passing of Nadezhda Krupskaya, widow of Nikolai Lenin. Although politically inactive for several years, Madame Krupskaya was known as the "Grand Old Woman" of the Bolshevik Revolution.

Boxers Weigh In And Draw Foes This Afternoon

With the elimination scheduled to get underway today the biggest boxing show of the year will take place on Wednesday and Thursday nights in the Spartan Pavilion. In every class in which there are nine entrants there will be eliminations today.

Drawings and weigh-ins will take place this afternoon. Drawings will be at 12:30 and weigh-ins at three o'clock. All men entered in the tournament are asked by Dee Portal, boxing coach, to be on hand for both events so that the bouts can be run off smoothly.

TEAMS SPONSORED

Every man entered in the contest will belong to some team which will be sponsored by a campus organization and managed by some member of the varsity boxing squad. All those with teams to enter or who wish to join some team should get in touch with either Portal or Fred Hamlow before the drawings today.

Quarter finals and semi-finals will take place Wednesday night and finalists will climb through the ropes on Thursday evening.

NEW SCHEME

Something entirely new will be attempted this year with the introduction of rooting sections, yell leaders and pep bands. The rooting sections, will be made up of groups having a member of their team in the ring, and the yell leaders will lead them in organized cheering.

Teams already signed up represent about ten organizations on the campus. There are teams entered by the Spartan Daily, Co-op, Spartan Stags, Police School, Al-lenian, Tau Delt, Varsity House, Eckert Hall, and Kappa Kappa Sigma.

Two New College Aquatic Records Established

Completely trouncing a game outfit of Monterey high school swimmers under the tutelage of Coach George "Butch" Haney, four Spartan frosh stood out in Friday afternoon's freshman swim meet with the Toreadors in which two new college records were established.

John Hatch butterflyed through the 100-yard breaststroke to better his own century time of 1:06.8 by six-tenths of a second, and the 150-yard medley team composed of Dixon, Hatch, and Pillsbury set a new record of 1:25.3. The medley mark bettered the time made by Houser, Withycombe, and Sherwin in 1936 by one-tenth of a second.

DEVELOPING TEAM

Coach Haney, who is at Monterey in a student teaching capacity, is developing a well-rounded team which promises to establish itself as a power in high school aquatic circles in several years.

Coach Charlie Walker has entered three men in the Senior P.A.A. championships to be held this Wednesday and Thursday nights at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco. Captain Martin Wempe is entered in the 220 free-style event, but due to a cut in the abdomen he received while working in a machine shop, he might not be able to enter.

DIVING

Myron Martin is entered in the diving and will be in with a lot of real talent to give him the kind of competition he has been without this season. The third entry will be John Hatch in the breaststroke. Hatch looks like a good bet already in his event with Jim Werson, National 200-yard champion, and P.A.A. 200 meter champion, the main contender for the title. Forbes Mack the other half of the Spartlet breaststroke duo will not enter the meet.

classic," declared Cuthbert.

5000 ADDITIONAL SEATS

Five thousand additional seats will be installed in Spartan Stadium in preparation for the crowd that will attend this contest, according to college officials.

"This will undoubtedly be one of the most outstanding football games of the season for San Jose State college. The colorful Bulldogs and the outstanding Spartans in conflict will well be worth witnessing," declared Cuthbert.

35 SCHOOLS CONTACTED

Over thirty-five schools were contacted in regards to the contest; however, due to conflicting dates, only five of these schools could be considered.

Drake University is located in Des Moines, Iowa.

The local Elks will play host to both teams with a turkey dinner after the contest. Then the Drake team will travel to San Francisco for two days where they will view the San Francisco World Fair.

There will be a meeting of the Radio club tomorrow at 12:30 in the Shack.

Horsehidors Prep For Cal Aggies Baseball Team

Walt McPherson's baseball boys went back to work last night in preparation for Cal Aggies, whom the Spartans meet Thursday at Davis.

Well pleased with the twin victory over San Francisco State and U.S.F. on Friday and Saturday, Mac is looking ahead to the Spartans' big game with mighty California next Tuesday.

Sandwiched in before the Bear contest is another game with San Francisco State at Spartan Field on Saturday.

The Spartans really opened up on their hitting attack in the last two games, rapping out 35 base hits which manufactured 30 runs. Statistics also reveal over 15 stolen bases, proving the speed of this year's ball club.

WRESTLERS PREPARE FOR FAR WESTERN MEET, MARCH 3, 4

The Far Western wrestling tournament, to be held on Treasure Island March 3 and 4, is the next big hurdle for Coach Eugene (Dewey) Grattan's grapplers.

The matmen will travel to the island Friday morning for weigh-in, eliminations will be held in the afternoon and evening, and finals will be held Saturday night, announced Grattan.

LARGE ENTRY

Both freshman and varsity wrestlers will compete in the tournament. San Jose will be represented by at least one man in each division, according to Leroy Hill, manager.

Entry blanks have already been submitted for the following men, although several of the reserves may enter later in the week, stated Hill: Vic Christiansen 115, Con Lacy 121, Freddie Albright 128, Jack Fiebig, Bob Norona, and Gail Stewart at 136, Fortune Masdeo 145, Mel Bruno 155, Captain Melvin Rush 165, Bob Riddle and Charlie Smith 17, and Sam Della-Maggiore heavyweight.

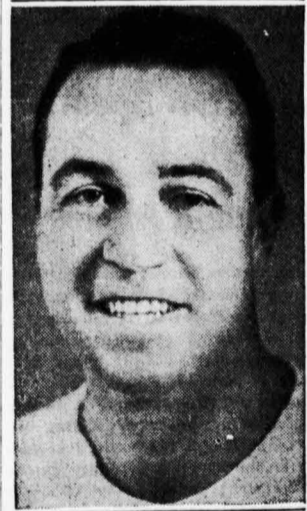

LACK CONDITION

Grattan was not altogether satisfied with the showing of his team against Oakland YMCA last Friday. As a whole, the squad lacks the proper conditioning for participation in a major tournament of this sort, stated the genial mentor. However, if Mel Bruno and Fortune Masdeo and a couple of others can come through, we may have a chance for the team championship, declared Grattan.

A number of strong teams have already entered the tournament and should give the Spartans trouble. Among them are listed the University of California, S. F. Olympic Club, Stanford, Oakland and Berkeley Y's, and the Inglewood Wrestling and Judo Club.

PUNCHING THE BAG

By BEN MELZER

Although the boxing trip ended in a defeat for the San Jose State knucklebombers last week against the Grand View Athletic Club of Vancouver, British Columbia, Austin Delaney, sports editor of the Vancouver Herald, declared that three of the bouts going in favor of the Canadian team were "sheer robbery". Delaney also paid one of the highest compliments rendered a Pacific Coast boxing team when he averred that the Spartans were the finest boxing unit ever to hit Canada.

Considering the fact that the national champions, the University of Idaho, have met the Canadian club team, it makes the sting of defeat a little more easier. The boys were really set on taking this one.

Canada too, had four champions on their team who were national champions. One of them, Woodhouse by name, represented Canada in the Olympic Games.

A riot almost broke out among the English fans when Woodhouse was given the nod over Captain Jimmy Kincaid, a bout which saw the San Jose State slobber hit the Canuck with everything but the referee's score card, and then getting the raw end of the decision.

Boxers in Canada stay amateur for years and years. It's the sportin' thing to do. Georgie Konoshima's opponent was a lad of 12 years' experience and he told Georgie afterward he expected to remain that way. Wonder how long he would have remained that way in the United States.

BUILDING UNUSED BY 36 PER CENT OF STUDENTS

Third Studio Recital At 4

The third studio recital of the winter series given by advanced violin and chamber music students of Miss Frances Robinson will take place this afternoon at four o'clock in Room 1.

In the program will be a string quartet number, followed by a violin solo played by Paul Lanini. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

Y.M.C.A. DINNER TONIGHT

Dr. Gerald Kennedy, pastor of the Methodist church, will speak to students attending the YMCA Dinner at 5:59 tonight at the city Y.M.C.A.

Dr. Kennedy, a popular speaker on the campus, has chosen a topic of special interest for tonight's meeting, according to Royal Scott, chairman for the affair.

Tickets may be purchased in the "Y" for 30 cents.

NOTICE

There will be a Delta Phi Upsilon meeting today in Room 34 of the Home Economics building at 12:30 o'clock.

As a result of a council meeting held last fall in which a controversy arose considering the use of the Student Union building as a place for recreation or study, the second of a series of campus polls has been taken in regard to this matter.

SOME DON'T INDULGE

A cross-section of opinion shows that 36% of the students questioned seldom use the building.

Upon answering the question: "How often do you use the Student Union?" 10% of them replied that they use it often, 25% stated that they occasionally use it, and 29% never use it. This question only refers to the upstairs part of the building.

In reference to the question: "What in your opinion is the purpose of the Student Union?" the majority, 55%, wanted it for recreation, games, etc., 37% for social intercourse, and 8% for study.

PING PONG FAVORED

Ninety per cent of the questioned students favored a radio in the Union, with 89% against the playing restricted to certain hours.

Ping pong tables were favored by 74% of the students and 67% were against playing restricted to certain hours. 69% wanted the Student Union open Saturday nights and Sunday.

Eighty-nine per cent of the questioned stated they did not boo or heckle officials or opposing players at basketball games, and the same amount did not think such conduct desirable to part of the game.

W.A.A. NEWS

Juniors were winners in Saturday morning's interclass basketball tourney, with sophomores in runner-up place. Freshmen trailed, with the seniors acting as officials.

Ernestine Smith, a biology major, was high point woman for the juniors. Kay Grant was in charge.

CABINET MEETING

Plans were made for interclass speedball and baseball tournaments in the spring quarter at a recent meeting of the WAA cabinet. Ethel Hambey will be in charge of arrangements for the speedball playoff, while Charlotte Sutfin will handle the baseball tourney.

WAA will make a poster exhibit for the convention of the American Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, to be held on Treasure Island April 3, 4, and 5. Mary Lou Hoffman is taking charge.

Mary Lou Dugan was named as chairman of a committee to revise the WAA constitution.

A CAPELLA

WELL-BALANCED

According to the director of the concert, it should be thoroughly enjoyable as the choir has been well-molded and balanced since its inception at the first of the school year.

Tickets, which are now on sale at the controller's office and by members about the campus, are going rapidly. Sales in the quad booth will be conducted next Monday and Tuesday.

NOTICE

Library majors and minors: Be sure to come to the Bibliophiles Chinese dinner to be held tomorrow at Wing's Restaurant, 131 Jackson street, at 6 o'clock. The cost is 50c but bring a few more pennies for the Chinese Benefit Fund. Sign up in Room 120 tomorrow morning.

Job Problem Discussed

All students are invited to hear a lecture on the "Job Problem", which will be given at an open meeting of the Commerce club tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in Room S112, according to Connie Raitano, club reporter.

The speaker will be Mr. H. A. Carver, assistant personnel manager of the Emporium department store in San Francisco. He will discuss qualifications of applicants for sales positions and tell how best to hold a sales job.

Mr. Carver will answer questions raised by students at the conclusion of his address.

Men's dance class will not meet tonight. There will be a meeting at 7:30 Wednesday, however.

Do NYA Workers VALUE JOBS? Faculty Says No

N.Y.A. workers at San Jose State college evidently do not value their jobs very highly—at least, half of them don't—in the opinion of the administration.

For fifty per cent of students on the N.Y.A. payroll have failed to fill out citizenship affidavits as required through a recent ruling of officials.

If these students do not sign affidavits this week, they will be cut off the N.Y.A. list, declared Dean of Men Charles B. Goddard yesterday.

Women workers should get their form sheets from Miss Helen Dimmick, and men workers from Mr. Goddard.

MONTGOMERY WARD MEN TALK THURS.

Larry Jones and H.V. Oakes, personnel managers of Montgomery Ward stores, will talk to possible candidates for jobs at one o'clock Thursday in the Appointment office.

All men students interested in mail order and department store work should come into the Appointment office immediately for interviews, according to Ed Harworth, Appointment secretary.

The personnel managers are also interested in talking to students who may be available for jobs later.

No News Class

There will be no meeting of the "Behind the News" class this morning, the Social Science office announced.

Spartan Spears Installed Tonight At 6:00

Margaret Tanner will be installed as president of Spartan Spears tonight in Room 39 at 6 o'clock.

Winifred Rice will assume her new office of vice-president, while others who will be installed tonight are Audrey Edna Abbot, corresponding secretary; Claire Clements, A.W.S. representative; Ruth Burmester, reporter; Ruth James, historian; and Emilly Bohnett, treasurer.

POYTRESS DISCUSSES SPANISH SITUATION

"I am surprised that the Spanish Loyalists have held out as long as they have," Dr. William Poytress, Social Science head, declared yesterday.

"The recent disappearance of Spanish President Manuel Azana from the embassy in Paris is just another indication of the internal difficulties in the leftist faction," he pointed out.

AZANA VANISHES

Azana, head of the Loyalists, vanished Sunday from the Spanish embassy in Paris. According to authorities, this evacuation spells a definite defeat for what is left of Spain's defenders.

"The leftist group, of which Azana is a liberal member, has been torn since the beginning of the war between two alternatives," Poytress explained. "The anarchists who have desired revolution along with the civil war, and the socialists who have said 'Let's get the war over with first'."

"If the Loyalists had been sure that there would be no vengeance on the part of the insurgents, they would have quit long ago. After all, what's the point of continuing?"

ENGLAND FEARFUL

England, fearful of her Mediterranean possessions, has contacted Franco, not only in her own name but also that of France, declaring that Great Britain can aid insurgents in carrying on reconstruction with money neither Germany nor Italy can supply.

"France is in a dangerous position," Poytress explained. "She is unlikely to get hedged in on three sides, and what is more important, her African life-line will be broken. That ought to mark French destruction."

"England," Poytress concluded, "realizing that Gibraltar will be no good with an unsympathetic nation across the way, is making frantic attempts to keep her unofficial hold on Portugal."

"War Tensions" will be the topic of discussion, and such questions as "How does Japan view United States national defense policy?" and "Would armed bases in the Pacific increase tension between Japan and the United States?" will be answered.

Mr. Peabody will give a brief resume of the talk he presented two weeks ago, and a group discussion will follow.

Having lived in China for seven years, and having studied Pacific area relations intensively for the last 20 years, Peabody is in a position to discuss the Oriental situation, according to Miss Lassere.

tend are urged to do so by Rally Chairman Jim Budros. Not only will the program be highly entertaining but it is only fair that the students should show their support by turning out for the assembly, said Budros.
