Block SJ Barn Hop, Hay Ride Friday Evening

The annual Letterman's Barn Dance, featuring "Music Sweet for Dancing Feet" by Leonard Graye will be held Friday night in the Swiss American Hall.

A new feature of the affair this year will be the hay ride to and from the barn. With "Muleskinner" Boffa and "Herm, the handsome hired hand" Zetterquist in the drivers' seats, the wagon will leave the Men's gym about 8:30 and proceed to the dance and return to the gym after the last dance. According to Jack Riordan, who, with the other two mentioned above, composes the "Big Three" committee, stated yesterday that tickets are selling quite rapidly and places on the hay ride are being asked for.

Since this interest in the hay ride was not anticipated, Riordan urges that all those who are planning on the ride to get their tickets immediately from some letterman and give him their names.

Spartan Nine Wins 8-7 Game From Nebraska

Art Carpenter brought his athletic career at San Jose State to a brilliant close last night as he pitched the Spartan baseball team to an 8 to 7 win over the barnstorming Nebraska Cornhuskers.

Striking out fifteen of the visitors, Carpenter was aided in the victory by some daring base running by Harvey Rhodes who scored the winning run in the ninth inning on a wild pitch.

Captain Jack Riordan started the Spartans off in the last half of the ninth inning, with the Spartans one run behind, with a double.

Johnny Allen sacrificed Riordan to third, and Rhodes doubled, scoring the captain. Rhodes then stole third base, and came home on a wild pitch.

Rhodes led the batting for the Spartans, getting two bingles on four trips to the plate. It was the last game of the season for Coach Walter McPherson's nine.

Whisker Growers Must Sign In Quad Today For Contest

RAZOR OFFERED

By Eleanor Raney

All hirsute males interested in entering the big Spardi Gras Beard Contest must sign up today at noon in the quad with Hugh Staley, chairman of the affair.

First prize will be an electric razor, presented by Paul Hudson, local jeweler, who designed the junior class pins and is located street, next to the State Theater.

Second prize will be a free shave at Red Sullivan's Campus Barber shop.

The Booby prize will be something appropriate to the male unable to grow a beard.

Judges named for the occasion are Paul Hudson, Dee Portal, and Dr. Newby.

All entrants must report to Dolores Freitas next Monday morning clean-shaven, as a final check-up as the contest goes into action.

List Of Spardi Gras 'King' Nominees Sent To Actress

RULER CHOOSES QUEEN

By Bill Rodrick

Ten men students were named yesterday by the San Jose State college student body on a list from which Miss Olivia de Haviland, popular motion picture actress, will select the "King of Spardi Gras".

The ten named were: Howard Withycombe, Don Walker, LeRoy Zimmerman, Jerry Girdner, Carlton Perego, Jack Hilton, Jack Marsh, Bob Tithenal, Ben Melzer, and Seymour Locks.

DE HAVILAND SELECTS

Miss de Haviland will make her selection from photographs and brochures on each man to be sent her this week by the Spardi Gras committee. Selection will be based on looks, activities, and personal characteristics.

Following the naming of the "King", he will choose his "Queen" and be crowned in impressive ceremony.

Suggestions for Spardi Gras Day in the glass cases in front of the Publications office were made by Marie Blakely this week.

May 15 Chosen For Election Of New Council

At last night's student council meeting, May 15 was chosen for the election of the 1939-1940 student council members. It was also decided at the meeting that May 19 would be election day for student body president. With run-off elections coming on the following Tuesday.

On May 25 the annual Recognition assembly will be held at which time students who have been prominent in school affairs will receive certificates for outstanding service to San Jose State. This assembly will be held in Morris Dailey auditorium. Students will be dismissed from class with the assembly being called for eleven o'clock.

Soph Dance Bids On Sale, Corsage With Each Ducat

Bids for the annual Sophomore hop to be held April 28 will definitely go on sale today, and students can start working for their free bids at once, according to the latest report from Joe Bohnett, ticket sale chairman.

Sweet music for the dancers at this semi-formal affair will be furnished by Gene Englander's well-known band. Englander's band has been formed with a definite view in mind. He feels that the orchestra must be built just as any symphony orchestra is built, primarily, good musicians; secondly, good music and ability.

"A corsage with every bid" is another bit of value that is offered with the $1.25 bid. There will be gardenias corsage for each lady attending the hop to wear on her gown or in her hair.

Theme of the dance is to be "Simplicity in White", according to decoration head, Frank Lovoi.

POLICE GRAD ON HOLLISTER FORCE

Virgil Carlson, graduate of the San Jose State college Police School, received word of appointment to the Hollister police department recently.

Carlson completed his course at State in December and since that time has been on special duty at the First National Bank in San Jose.

The full-fledged policeman will assume duties in Hollister on Monday.

monies at noon of Spardi Gras day, May 5. The ten men selected are asked to get in touch with Keith Birlen today to arrange for the taking of photographs

DESIGNS CROWNS

Mr. Marion Weatherford of the Industrial Arts department will design a crown for the King and a Coronet for the Queen which will be made under his supervision by the metal arts class.

Among prominent campus figures, strong in the voting but ineligible because of faculty standing were Dr. William "Wild Bill" Poytress, "Pop" Warner, and Mr. Guy George.

JUNIORS PLAN FOR 250 AT CLASS PARTY

Two-hundred and fifty juniors are expected to pack the Men's gym tomorrow night attending the third-year class "free eats" party.

Absolutely no other classmen will be admitted and, if the committee holds its promise, any one who tries to crash will be the worse for wear the next day, declared Hugh Staley, president of the class. No statement was made of what would be done to crashers.

Planning for a few more than those who indicated their intentions by ballot Friday will make the party a little more expensive than we expected, said Staley, but if the class enjoys itself it will be well worth it.

The party is to celebrate the success of the Prom. Music by popular bands will be featured over the school's public address system and entertainment is being planned.

ART DISPLAY

A collection of reproductions of drawings by Rembrandt and several drawings done by various art students may be seen in the main hallway of the Art wing, where they will be on display this week.

HEY! Don't Miss The Noon Dance; Free Knight Hop Bid

TODAY'S NOON HOP MAY BE LAST OF YEAR

The possibility that student noon dances may be discontinued if student enthusiasm for them does not increase was foreseen yesterday by Steve Hosa, Social Affairs chairman.

"We're going to have one today at 12:15 in the Quad," he said, "and we will have good recordings of all the big well-known bands like Artie Shaw, Kay Kyser, Jimmie Dorsay, Ozzi Nelson, and Herbie Kaye."

"There'll be a good P.A. system and if the students don't participate, this'll be the last noon dance for a long time."

"If a lot of people come today, there'll be another one two weeks from today," he said.

Scientific Snake HANDLING CO-EDS Receive Fan Mail

Betty and Ruth Wool, pretty and scientific co-ed sisters at San Jose State college, had their pictures in the local downtown newspapers recently handling pet snakes.

Since the appearance of the story the two sisters have been receiving fan mail from far and near, as the story was carried in many papers throughout the country.

Of course the correspondents are of the masculine gender, who have never heard nor seen a girl who could see a tiny harmless reptile without going into a state of hysteria.

Then again some of the letters, especially the last one from Montreal, Canada, had just a wee tinge of the romance in asking for a

FREE SPARTAN KNIGHT DANCE BIDS AT NOON

Today you may be the lucky possessor of a bid to the Spartan dance, absolutely without cost to you!

How? Simply be in the Quad today during the noon dance.

According to Warren Tormey, bid chairman for the dance, two free bids will be in a packet thrown from the tower during the course of the dance.

To the best scrambler will go the spoils—if his bid matches the one appearing in the Spartan Knight showcase, just off the entrance to Morris Dailey auditorium.

A second chance to secure a free bid will be offered this afternoon, when a Spartan Knight photographer will photograph five groups about the campus.

The lucky persons whose features are encircled in the photographs will receive a free bid to the dance. Photographs will be displayed in the Publications office show window — and the winners may receive their bids by asking for Ben Frizzi in the Publications office any day at 2 o'clock.

So be at the noon dance, and watch for the Spartan Knight photographer today. You may win a bid to the Spartan Knight dance—a semi-formal affair slated Saturday night in the Scottish Rite Temple.

BEARD GROWERS BEWARE!

Tau Deltas Challenge School In Contest

Tau Delta Phi challenges the school! The gentlemen intellectuals who monopolize the Tower, intellect, and anything worthwhile, are challenging, AS A GROUP, all fraternities, organizations, societies, sororities—even Dr. Poytress, to the BEARD GROWING CHAMPIONSHIP of the campus.

(P.S.: Mr. George Place:— Let's see you hustle up a prize. It might make the fellows feel better. Those who think they can beat us.

—Sincerely,
THE TOWER BOYS.)

(P.S.: TO TAU DELTS ONLY:— There is a special meeting tonight at 7:30.)

Welcome . . .

San Jose State college hangs out the "welcome" sign on two occasions this week to a pair of visitors from the middle west.

With a record of having done some traveling themselves, the Spartans now find the role changed, with San Jose acting as host. Last night, in Washington Park, the Spartans engaged the University of Nebraska in an inter-sectional baseball game.

Next Monday evening, in the Civic Auditorium, Coach DeWitt Portal's boxing squad will play host to an invading University of Wisconsin ring team. This affair will be the highlight of the spring sport schedule.

Appearances of these two mid-western squads against local teams inaugurates a new field of competition for Spartan athletic teams. Inter-sectional contests generally prove the most colorful features of sport schedules, and these two engagements should be up to the usual standard, thereby deserving student body support.

SPARTAN DAILY SAN JOSE STATE COLLEGE BALLARD 7800

Mr. Merchant,
San Jose, California.

Dear Mr. Merchant:

A recent survey shows that the college students attending San Jose State are spending more than $1,000,000 every school year. Let us estimate that at least 5% of that amount is being spent in the business in which you are engaged. This figure shows $50,000 potential business a year. If 40% of that amount is gross profit, this leaves a profit of $20,000. Are you getting your share of that profit?

We know that you are anxious to increase your sales and your profit. The Spartan Daily, read by over 3000 students daily, can be used to place your advertising and your name before them at a reasonable rate. Naturally, students buy from those who advertise in their paper. When they decide to buy, and if your name has been placed continually before them, it will be your place of business that they select.

Will you examine this paper carefully? When you have decided what page you wish your advertisement to appear on, and what layout and copy you wish to use, call me at Ballard 7800 and a representative will be sent immediately.

—Sincerely yours,
GEORGE PLACE,
BUSINESS MANAGER.

Mystery Of Baby Owls Answered By Dr. Pickwell

What happens to the baby barn owls?

There is a mystery surrounding Washington Square which has never been solved!

It concerns the part of barn owls that for nearly 20 years have made their nest in the Tau Delta Phi tower.

Every March eggs are laid in the nest on the north window casement of the tower. But never once in all those 20 Marches have any young owls made their appearance.

That the rain falling on the unprotected ledge causes the death of the young birds has been the most common verdict.

But Dr. Gayle Pickwell offers the solution that, the older birds, reacting as many bird parents do, after a certain period consider their young as strangers and chase them away.

Which isn't eggs-actly a nice thing for the parents to do and we don't blame the younger ones for setting up an 'owl'.

RANKIN, 135

Pacific coast champion, Chuck Kerwin of San Jose, will meet National champion, Gene Rankin of Wisconsin, next Monday night in the 135-pound division when boxing teams of the two schools meet at the Civic auditorium.

Swimmers Seek Meet For Friday Night

Following a sound drubbing at the hands of the San Francisco Olympic Club last Friday night, San Jose's swimmers are now preparing for their next meet, which is scheduled for Friday night at 8 o'clock in the local pool.

Definitely on the bill for the frosh splashers is a dual meet with Stockton junior college. However, it is not sure yet whether the varsity will swim that night. A meet with College of Pacific was cancelled, after which an invitation was extended St. Mary's to swim here. The latter team, however, is already scheduled to meet another squad Friday night.

Coach Charlie Walker then contacted Stockton junior college in an effort to schedule a triangular meet between the two schools. Word hasn't yet been received here as to whether or not the junior college will agree.

According to Walker, the Stockton outfit is strong, especially in the backstroke. Fred Van Dyke of the J.C. is fast in that event, and will probably turn in good times in Friday's meet.

SOFTBALL CLUBS OPEN TOURNEY

The annual softball tournament swung into action yesterday afternoon, as six teams went to bat in the first round of play.

All teams will face each other twice during the week, until they have played their regular seven innings. The Leftovers drew a bye yesterday as seven teams make up the league, giving one team a bye each week.

After yesterday's round of play, the Darkhorses lead the Jugglers, 2-1, 1000 club lead the Internationals, 6-3, while the powerful

Bill Amann Mixes With Wisconsin Heavyweight

With his lineup finally straightened out, Coach Dee Portal, San Jose State's boxing coach, is spending every afternoon in the Spartan gymnasium getting his team into condition for the coming battle with Wisconsin's national champs April 17 in the local Civic Auditorium.

OPPONENT FOUND

Portal has finally selected an opponent for Badger Nick Lee in the heavyweight division, and the selection will come as a distinct surprise to many of the local fans. He is none other than Bill Amann who shot to the top in the light heavyweight class in the recent All-College tournament when he K.O'd Al Britton, veteran 175-pounder.

It is true that Amann lacks a lot in experience which will put him at a disadvantage when he tangles with the veteran Lee, but Bill packs a real wallop in either hand and if he is able to tag the Wisconsin boy there is no question about the results. Amann carries dynamite in both fists and is learning fast the best way to use it.

BUTERO IN 165-POUND CLASS

Frank Butero will uphold the colors of Sparta in the 165-pound class. Butero also could stand more in the way of experience in order to have a good chance against a man like the Wisconsin fighter, but he is a boxer who improves steadily and has plenty of class in the ring.

Many amateurs lose all track of what they have learned once the bell sounds, but Butero displayed a marked ability to keep his head regardless of what situation may arise.

Spartans Schedule Night Tilt

Thursday night Spartan fans will probably have their first glimpse of the 1939 version of Sparta's grid machine in action. The first hard scrimmage is tentatively scheduled for that evening, declared "Pop" Warner yesterday.

Still running his new charges through daily signal drills, "Pop" began his third week of spring football perched high above the cavorting gridders on his special built "know, all, see all" bleacher.

Showing signs of grasping the new situation, the DeGroot veterans, transfers, and frosh in yesterday's workout brightened a bit and are beginning to execute the intricate timing of the new plays with more precision.

Stating that he was about ready for scrimmage, Pop beamed a bit when questioned on that subject and seemed to tugging at the harness awaiting his first look at the new Warner pupils.

Lil' Spartans In Win

San Jose frosh netters defeated Menlo Jaycee 4-3 there Monday afternoon. Nasis, Payne, Texdahl, and Sazin were Spartlet winners in the singles, while both doubles teams lost.

Hurdles, Discus Events Worry Tiny Hartranft

By DAN O'NEILL

Two great big question marks are wrapped around the San Jose-Fresno track meet scheduled for Saturday and they concern the hurdles and discus events.

Tiny Hartranft's barriers may be shut out in both events and that is the reason the Spartan track mentor is doing an extra amount of worrying this week.

In the discus Fresno State has a young gent named Davis who constantly hits 140 feet. Contrast his mark with the 116-foot effort of Don Presley against San Francisco State last week and one can understand why Tiny is worrying. However, Presley is capable of doing much better than 116 feet and there is an outside chance that he will come through with a win in the event.

STRONG IN HURDLES

The Raisin city boys have their greatest strength in the low and high hurdles. Zebal has toured the highs in 15.1, while his teammate Sears has been credited with 14.6. Sears and Zebal have also run the lows in 24.3.

As for the sprints, Tommy Nelson, Fresno's colored ace, has just about been conceded the victor in the 100 and 220. He may be pressed in the latter event by Collins but even the most optimistic Spartan rooters give Hallstone little chance to defeat him in the century.

STILL INJURED

Tickie Vasconcellos has not fully recovered from his muscle injury and will probably not compete in the broad jump. Bendeich is being counted on to win the event while Tickie will concentrate on the high jump. He has been credited with a jump of 6' 3" attained early last summer but his best mark this year has been 6' 2".

Freshman Nine In 4-0 Win

Coach Hovey McDonald's freshman baseball nine won another ball game yesterday, defeating Mountain View high school, 4-0.

Tex Leverton, showing rare form, pitched perfect ball, holding the high school nine to three singles. The game went seven innings, and the yearlings reached the Mountain View chucker for four runs without much trouble.

Mike Anello, playing center-field for the frosh, led his teammates at the plate, getting two hits in four times at bat.

Taggard, who usually does the pitching for the yearlings, filled in at right-field, giving a good account of himself.

O. A. Hale Essay Contest Open To Students

TOTAL OF $225 IN PRIZES OFFERED IN ANNUAL COMPETITION THIS YEAR

The annual O. A. Hale essay contest in which there will be prizes amounting to $225 is now open to students of San Jose State college. The subject for this year's essay is "Spirit, the Infinite and Only Reality".

The contest is not open to students who participated in last year's contest and only those in regular registration here this quarter may participate. Prizes will be divided into different amounts and awarded according to the merits of the material received. First prize will be $75 in cash, second prize is $50, third prize $30, three twenty dollar prizes, and one award of ten dollars, making a total of $225.

Students entering the contest should choose one of the following sub-topics under the main one and to combine if they desire the trend of any two or all three.

1. If you were shut up in a dark room where you could not see anything or smell anything, what would you know of yourself? In other words, if you could be entirely deprived of the five physical senses, on what would you base your knowledge of your own existence, and how would you explain your being.
2. Can any real permanent attainment be secured by ever starting from effect, and can you determine from your own identity the nature of cause?
3. Can you state or explain what it is that you really know of yourself apart from book-learning or hearsay or personal teaching from any outside source? In other words, what is the essence of your being?

Students should follow closely the following regulations and instructions in regard to the contest:

1. The material must be typed and double spaced.
2. Student's name must appear on a title page and not on the other pages of the manuscript.
3. The deadline for all manuscripts must be in the English office by 5 o'clock on May 12th, awards will be made Recognition Day.
4. The judges reserve the right to refuse to award prizes in any of the prize divisions if the material submitted is not worthy of it.
5. Manuscripts should be from 2500 to 5000 words long.

Comedy Tryouts Friday At Four

Tryouts for Sir James Barrie's light comedy, "Alice-Sit-By-The-Fire", will be held Friday at 4 o'clock in the college Little Theater.

Under the direction of Miss Margaret Douglas, the Barrie play will be produced in May as San Jose Players second presentation of the spring quarter. Several good parts, particularly for women, are available.

All San Jose State college students interested are invited to try-out by Miss Douglas, who has put scripts on reserve in the library.

Vocal Students Present Recital Friday Evening

OPEN HOUSE AT NEWMAN CLUB TOMORROW

The Newman club plans an open-house party tomorrow night beginning at 8 o'clock. All Catholic students are cordially invited, Glenn Clasby, president, announced today.

Dancing, refreshments, and entertainment will be provided for those who attend. The party will be preceded by a club meeting, open to members, at 7 o'clock, at which plans will be made for the Deep Purple semi-formal dance April 22. Bids are $1.25 and may be purchased from any club member.

Instrumental Numbers Supplement Singing

By FLOYD CARLSON
Vocal students of the college Music department, under the direction of Maurine Thompson, will give a recital Friday night at 8:15 in the Little Theater.

VARIED PROGRAM

Many ensemble novelties will vary the program. A flute and piano will accompany Troy Finerty in songs of Bach and Gounod. Carlton Lindgren, of Musketeer fame, will present "De Profundis" of Malipiero, and an excerpt from "Life of the Tsar" by Glinka, to viola and piano accompaniment.

Delphia Phillips, mezzo, will sing the "Chanson Perpetuelle" by Chausson with a string quartet.

Helen Smith, soprano, will be heard in an aria from Puccini's "Madame Butterfly"—"Un Bel di Vedremo". She will also sing Scott's "Winds in the South".

OTHER VOCALISTS

Other singers on the program are Everett Clark, Delys Roberts, Geneva Gmelin, Jeanette Colley, who sings "Musetta's Valse" from Puccini's "La Boheme". Harry Harter, Musketeer tenor, Pearl Nicholas, Charles Pyle, and Paul Johnson will be on the program.

Reed Freeman will present as one of three numbers Schumann's celebrated "Widmung".

The entire ensemble will combine in the presentation of three songs of the old English period of music. These are "Fair Phyllis by Ford", "With Drooping Wings" by Purcell, and the "Wassail Song" by Williams.

Accompanists are Margaret Osterstein, Dorothy Currell, Angie Machado, Edith Eagen, and Jean Long.

MORRIS DAILEY SCENE OF ORCHESIS DANCE APRIL 19

Program Features Number Based On Mother Goose Rhyme, 'Nut Tree That Bears A Pear'

A nut tree that bears a pear! Based on a Mother Goose rhyme is a number to be featured in the Orchesis program on April 19 in the Morris Dailey auditorium, announced Miss Marjorie Lucas, adviser, yesterday.

Carrying out the story of a famous nut tree owned by humble folk that attracted a visit from the "King of Spain's daughter" is a pattern composed of a bouree, a lively dance with intricate foot patterns, danced by the peasants, followed by a stately court dance by the Queen and her ladies. The Queen's solo, to be performed by Charlotte Veit, was based on a dance created by Rose Ellen Dudgeon, dance student, while the pattern for the bouree was suggested by Charlotte Morley, accompanist and dance student, Miss Lucas explained.

The nut tree used in the dance was designed by Mr. Wendell Johnson of the Speech department while costumes for both groups were designed by Ruth MacQuarrie.

Tickets for the performance, selling at 15 and 25 cents, may be purchased from any Orchesis member, member of the Women's physical education club, or Mrs. Myrtle Calkins in the Women's gym.

PHOTOS WANTED FOR YEAR BOOK FAIR LAYOUT

With little response made to the first request by La Torre Editor Dorothy Curry for pictures of students in action on Treasure Island during San Jose State College Day at the Fair, Curry stated that the layout is still open to any good action photos of students.

Bring prints in to the La Torre desk in the Publications office or leave them with Dolores Freitas. If the pictures are usable, negatives will be asked for. Photography Editor Bill Laffoon emphasized that scenic shots are not wanted. Only action shots of students or faculty will be considered.
