Escapes Death In

Wallace Hallmeyer, 20, San Jose State college sophomore, escaped night beginning at 8:15. death late yesterday afternoon when the Civil Aeronautics training plane he was flying crashed at the Livermore airport.

KNOCKED UNCONSCIOUS

Hallmeyer was knocked unconscious when the plane, caught by a cross draft two feet from the ground, lurched to one side, driving the wing into the ground. The plane nosed over, wrecking the propeller, tail, and wing. Hallmeyer hung from the plane until a passing motorist notified the airport authorities. Gaining consciousness, the pilot turned off the switch, unhooked his safety belt, and climbed out.

Football Stars Look Dimmer At Last Scrimmage

By JERRY STICKLES

The last night scrimmage of State football heroes found a scattered number of rooters and scores of exhausted players—it seems like Sneak Day was too much for most

The lights kept playing pranks by going on and off and imagine the embarrassment of the players when the arcs came on and most players were lying on the turf napping. DeGroot didn't approve

Another delectable incident occurred when Blond Ed Wenberg, player from Glendale, was on his way to the showers and DeGroot informed him to play safety until another man changed jerseys.

Wenberg no sooner got into osition, which he declares seemed like foreign territory as he generally plays in the line, when the opposing team decided to punt on the third down. According to Ed . . . "I saw that thing, (the ball) coming at me, I don't know whether I signaled for a fair catch or just put up my hand to grasp the pigskin, anyhow I felt it hit me on my chest and bounce offthen the lights went out."

Ed took this opportunity to escape the showers under the cover of darkness

We hear that Johnny Allen, the all-around athlete of State, has been shifted to the backfield, and from all indications seems to be a triple threat man.

Novel Meet With Teams Competing 2000 Miles Apart

The "track meet via air mail" between the Spartans and Drake University was finally won by the mid-western college yesterday when the results were tallied by Coach "Tiny" Hartranft, the score: 67-64.

The unique affair started over a week ago when the Spartans were matching spikes with Santa Barbara State in the southern Mission City. Individual times and distances were kept on all contending Spartans and sent to Coach "Pitch" Johnson at Drake. Satur-day the mid-westerners had a dual meet and sent the times and distances of all their men to Hartranft.

Although none of the times or distances were outstanding, the meet proved to be a very close affair and was considered successful by both coaches. It was probably the most financially successful track meet San Jose has ever had. Two airmail stamps and a three-center—15 cents in all. A definite
