SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1939

NUMBER 11

Supervisors Propose Five Year Training Course For San Jose State College

M.A. Degree Optional In New Program

By MARY TRAUB
All future candidates for elementary school credentials at San Jose State college may have to spend a five-year training period if a resolution adopted by the California School Supervisors convention here this week meets with the approval of the state legislature.

The proposed plan, presented during a four-day convention participated in by members of the college faculty and educators from all over the state, would allow elementary teacher-training students the option of earning an M.A. degree.

Main purpose of the program, which will be recommended to the legislature, is to provide prospective teachers an opportunity for direct contact with children of elementary school age before their actual teaching activities begin. Helen Heffernan, chief of the division of elementary education in the state department of education, said yesterday.

BETTER EQUIPMENT

"We feel that teachers should be given better equipment to meet situations that arise in the classroom than a four-year program can provide," Miss Heffernan explained.

Allowing an opportunity for more attention to be paid to courses in art and music, the five-year training plan is expected by Miss Heffernan to be in effect throughout California within five or six years.

"If the resolution is adopted by the legislature, it will probably result in the raising of salaries in the elementary field to the same level as those in the secondary schools. The value of the elementary teacher would be that much more," Miss Heffernan predicted.

MacQUARRIE APPROVES

Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, president of the college, expressed endorsement of the addition of the fifth year to the curriculum, adding the suggestion that it should be given a year after graduation, allowing the student a chance to be out in the field for a year before he completes his training.

"San Jose State college has already well established the training school," Dr. MacQuarrie said. "Our students at the present time are getting real experience before they graduate. The fifth year, however,"

Pitman Guest At Men's Co-op

New Dean of Men, Paul Pitman, will be one of three guests at a dinner to be held at Eckert Hall this evening at six o'clock.

Other guests are Mr. Harrison F. Heath, president of the San Jose State YMCA board, and Mr. Weaver Meadows, chairman of the advisory board of the men's cooperative house.

Arnold Mehlhoff is manager of the house this year which is located at 8th and Reed streets.

C.S.T.A. TO REVAMP AT MEET

Plans for re-organizing the California Student Teachers Association will be discussed at the first meeting next Tuesday in Room 155 at 12:30, according to Homer Alderman, president of the group.

Alderman recommends that all upper division education majors or minors and pre-secondary students attend the first meeting.

Besides the opportunity of participating in C.S.T.A. social and educational affairs on this campus and at other colleges, membership also includes subscription to the Sierra Educational News and the services of the Placement Division.

C.S.T.A. is sponsored by the California Teachers Association, which is the largest professional organization for teachers in California.

Balanced Menu Given Eighty-five In Spartan Club

Eighty-five men students are now being served necessary vitamins at Spartan Stags, men's cooperative campus eating club, according to Mrs. Celia "Ma" McKay, manager.

This is the largest number of boarders in the history of the club, started at the YMCA four years ago by a group of San Jose State college students.

Forty-five students comprise the "waiting" list, according to Mrs. McKay, who has been manager and chief cook at the Stags for the past three years.

Succeeding last year's president, Stan Griffin, is "Ham" Hodgson. Joe Heatwole replaces Al Parr as secretary-treasurer.

JUDGE GIVES LECTURE TO POLICE CLASS

Police School students in William A. Wiltberger's Traffic Problems class had Police Judge Carl Cook, of Klamath Falls as guest lecturer yesterday.

Judge Cook, who, according to Police School Head Wiltberger, is widely known for his work with juvenile problems, talked about the Junior Police organization of Klamath Falls. Children of grammar school and high school age are given caps and distinctive white belts, and receive preliminary police training. Juvenile traffic offenders are given citations and brought before a Junior Police Court which is presided over by a 15-year-old judge.

Production Tryouts Monday

Tryouts for the San Jose Players' second production, "Our Town", will be held Monday from 4 to 6 p.m. instead of Friday, Mr. Hugh Gillis announced yesterday.

Scripts of "Our Town" are on reserve in the library. This play was written by Thornton Wilder, well-known author of "The Bridge of San Luis Rey". The setting of the play is in a New Hampshire small town. The first act treats everyday life in the town, while the second act deals with love and marriage. The third act is concerned with death.

Frank Craven and Martha Scott played the leads in the Broadway production, which enjoyed an extended engagement. This play won the 1938 Pulitzer prize.

Those holding season tickets will receive passes to this production by mail.

La Torre Appointment Deadline This Week

Faced with the task of meeting a photography deadline, La Torre editors yesterday issued another reminder that student appointments for the yearbook must be made in the Publications office this week.

Beginning Monday, October 9, individual pictures will be taken on a schedule of 25 students each day. Appointments are scheduled for every 20 minutes.

Total Of 170 Now Working On NYA Service Project

Fifteen more San Jose State college students have been given N.Y.A. assignments this week, according to Dean of Men Paul Pitman.

This makes a total of 170 who have been given work on N.Y.A. projects so far this quarter. Several other applicants who have been approved will be assigned jobs in the near future.

Dean Pitman is assigning students to jobs which will be of educational value, as well as of serviceable value.

Wiltberger Given Reappointment

William A. Wiltberger, head of the San Jose State Police School, has been reappointed to the advisory committee on police training and merit systems of the criminal law section of the America Bar Association.

James J. Robinson, director of the Criminal Institute of the University of Indiana and chairman of the section, made the appointment. Wiltberger is looking forward to attending next year's national convention in Philadelphia.

Rooting Section Clean-up Planned By Yell Leaders

A definite movement to keep adult fans and high school "cut-ups" out of the center San Jose State college rooting section is underway, according to Bob Swanson, head yell leader.

With the aid of Spartan Knights, men's honorary campus service fraternity, the clean-up will start at the Spartan-Nevada game Saturday night.

A patrol of Knights, properly identified, will encircle the entire rooting section until game time, and it will be necessary for "suspicious-appearing" center section rooters to present "proper credentials" for admittance, Swanson said.

SPINSTERS TO MAKE PLANS AT A.W.S. MEET

A.W.S. officers and representatives of women's organizations will hold their regular meeting in the Student Union at five o'clock today for the purpose of making further plans for the Spinsters' Scrimmage.

Plans for the Scrimmage scheduled for November 10 are already well under way with Jerry Jurras acting as general chairman for the event, Evelyn Lea as co-chairman, Alice Good in charge of decorations, and June Gross in charge of entertainment.

Before the meeting, the officers and representatives are requested by Audry Morrell, president of A.W.S., to inspect the furniture of the A.W.S. room in the Student Union, for this will be a subject of discussion at the meeting.

All women's organizations are asked by Miss Morrell to keep in mind that three absences of their A.W.S. representative from a regular meeting automatically suspends their vote at meetings.

Soph Class Meets Today At 12:30

With the Sophomore Hop committee expected to give a complete report on its activities, the second-year class will meet today at 12:30 in Room 24, according to Dave Atkinson, president.

Aside from discussion on the dance, report by the women's '42 emblem committee will occupy some of the time at the gathering, announced Atkinson.

Train Scheduled To Leave Station At 2:30

Tickets for the special excursion train to the College of Pacific game will go on sale at a reduced price of $1.65 round-trip, announced Happy LaBee, rally chairman, yesterday.

C.O.P. SPECIAL

Scheduled to leave the Southern Pacific depot on Friday, October 20 at 2:30, the Spartan Special is expected to leave Stockton on the return trip shortly after midnight, the chairman stated.

Plans for the Spartan arrival in Stockton were also outlined by LaBee yesterday. Following the reception at the station, San Jose State students will stage a noise parade on their way to the Hotel Clark, general meeting place for Spartan rooters. Members of the Stockton Chamber of Commerce will furnish transportation from the hotel to Baxter Stadium, scene of the game.

MEGAPHONES TO ROOTERS
According to plans outlined by the Rally committee, megaphones will be distributed to students wearing rooter's caps on the train. A strip car for dancing will be included in the special train, with a radio and phonograph supplying the music, LaBee said.

Arrangements have already been made for a reserved section at the Pacific stadium for the local rooters. A telegram was sent to College of Pacific officials yesterday by the rally chairman, asking that a section of 1500 seats be reserved.

Two years ago, San Jose moved into Stockton with 700 Staters and a nine-car special train. That invading group saw the Spartans stage a fourth quarter rally to win 12-7.

TOURNAMENT HAS LARGE ENTRY LIST

Third annual mixed doubles tournament sponsored by the WAA Tennis club has the largest number of entries listed since the club's organization, according to information received from the women's P.E. department.

Included among the 64 entries are members from last year's tournament. Such outstanding players as John Krysiak, George Quetin, George Egling, George Kifer, Walter Nasif, and Ernie Rideout are found in the men's group. Among the featured women players are Ethel Hambey, Jean Hooker, Alice Starry, Frances Fischer, and Charlotte Sutfin.

Drawing for the matches will be posted on the tennis courts, and the first round must be played off by Thursday, October 12.

Scores of the games should be reported to Ethel Hambey, Ernie Rideout, or Miss Marjorie Lucas.

To A Brighter Future . . .

In yesterday's Spartan Daily there appeared a story of how a San Jose State college student found a pocket-book containing $347.50 and a ring valued at $200, and returned it to the owner.

William Miller, a junior college transfer from Sacramento, proved a worthy member of the student body by his actions last week. Despite the fact that he was not too well fixed financially, Miller returned the pocketbook after seeing an ad in the paper the following morning.

Things may not be so easy for Bill Miller in the future, but through his actions he has exhibited the characteristics which indicate he can be depended on. May the future find things breaking right for you, Bill.

FAT IN THE FIRE

By JIM BAILEY

Hyacinth ups to me t'other day an' sez, "Jim, yuh gotta teach me how tuh fly!"

"But Hyacinth, have you ever seen me fly?"

"Sure," she squeaks, "but that's okeh, we'll learn together!" I gives her a polite heh-heh on that one. Otherwise I ignores the inference.

Somehow we gets out tuh the field. Via we runs otta gas, but that dont make no how for Hyacinth talks so much the wind keeps us goin'. Right off she spies a big yellow cabin job sitting in front of the hangar.

"Oh Jim," and her voice is like the wrath of the gods, "I wanna fly that one!"

"Why?"

"Cause it goes with my yellow outfit!"

I throws my peepers over her jumpers. "But you got on a green dress!"

"Well, silly, can't we fly over my house where my yellow outfit is?" She gurgles kinda funny like which is the way she laughs. Some wit!

I finally gets her into the ship on the promise we'll fly only when the clouds are brown so her green suit would be okeh. She no sooner gets settled when she turns to me.

"I just put on the brakes."

"You what?"

"I just put on the brakes!"

"You mean you just kicked out the side of the plane!" Her foot hung almost to the ground.

"Oh how ridiculous," she giggles, "will it make any difference?"

"Not at all," I roars, "that is, if your used to flying a skeleton!"

"Oh no, I've never been in one of those foreign planes!"

We got off the ground some way. The air was pretty rough and we kept hitting pockets. Bump, bump, bump, we went. Hyacinth got used to it after awhile and then she took over the controls. Each time we hit a bump sh'e scream,

"Whee!"

Bump, "Whee!" Bump, "Whee!" Ker-plunk!

"My, that last one was rough, wasn't it, Jimmie?"

"Yes Hyacinth," I said, picking canvas out of my teeth, "that last bump was the ground!"

"Oh you be a s.t.," she bellows, "look at all those people running over to us, and my outfit don't match the plane!"

Today the parking problem shows decided improvement. When walking around the Square, it was evident that thought was being exerted towards correct parking. However, there were some students obviously making flagrant violations. It is to the interest of the students not to park in the PED-

October Leaves Begin Falling From Campus Building

By SVEND HANSEN

"The leaves of brown Came tumbling down Remember? That September . . ."

. . . and now that it's October they are cleaning them up. Muttering "leaves, leaves, nothing but leaves" to themselves for the past several weeks have been the building and grounds staff whose busy rakes have not stopped for a moment.

But there is one who has raised himself above the crowd. This is quiet, friendly Arthur Sullivan who has the precarious position of cleaning the debris from the rain troughs which are suspended under every eave.

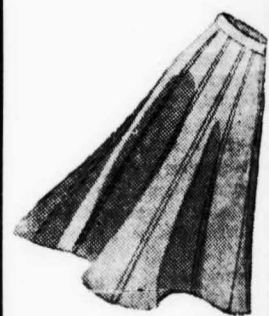

Having been on the job since last Thursday, Sullivan figures that it will take at least the rest of the week to complete the job.

"The leaves seem to concentrate themselves over the doorways, whether there are trees nearby or not, where I can't help dropping them on the students," he said as he swung along the tile roof of the Art wing, "and I've expected an anti-aircraft barrage in retaliation any day now."

SPARTAN DAILY, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1939

THE SPORTS Pony Express

By PONY SWENSON

(By CARLTON PEREGOY, pinch-hitting for Pony Swenson)

BY WAY OF SUGGESTION, we think it would be a stupendous idea if the authorities in charge of the San Jose-Pacific game this year (which means the College of Pacific administration) looked into the idea of transferring the game from Baxter Stadium in Stockton to Kezar Stadium in San Francisco.

At first glance, this may look like a one-sided idea to get the Tigers away from their own lair, therefore giving our Spartans an even break. But let's look at it from all angles—

1—Baxter Stadium has a seating capacity of about 10,000, or at the most, including extra seats, 12,000.

Kezar Stadium seats a good 60,000, not that we think we will need that many seats, but it's a cinch more than can sit in the Stockton stadium will want to see the game.

2—There is no game scheduled for Kezar on the Saturday afternoon of October 21, the day following the date now scheduled. The Santa Clara-St. Mary's game is on the Sunday of that week-end but would not interfere a great deal with our game, nor would ours interfere with theirs.

3—The game itself would be drawing card enough this year to merit renting the bigger stadium, due to the fact that State dumped USF and Pacific toppled Cal. But in this year's game we have something even bigger. This, of course, is the "battle of a century of coaching" which will bring together the two oldest veterans in the game, one of them celebrating his fiftieth year, his golden anniversary of coaching! For that single reason many will want to see the game.

4—This movement will probably be violently opposed by Stockton businessmen because they will not want to take the game out of their FINE city (my home town). It will also mean an afternoon game instead of evening, and many of them will think they are being cheated out of a chance to see the game.

BUT—IF they have the spirit they are reported to have this

Kincaid Is Picked For Boxing Tour; Bill Bolich Out

Jim Kincaid, Pacific coast Inter-collegiate champion and captain of the varsity boxing team last year, will definitely be one of the five men who will represent the United States in the scheduled International bouts to be held in Japan sometime in November.

Coach DeWitt Portal was still undecided yesterday who the other four men would be; but a series of elimination bouts today and tomorrow will no doubt help Portal in his selection.

Bill Bolich, captain-elect, and Charlie Kirwin, 135-pound Pacific coast champion, have both been eliminated from the trip. Captain Bill intends to finish school this year and take a job that has already been offered him. Kerwin could not make the proper weight.

At the present time ten men are vying for the four positions that are still open. In the bantamweight class is George Konoshima, Wilson Maryama, Bill Sellers, and Conrad Lacy. Featherweight: Dick Myigawa, Tony Nasimento, and Lacy. (Lacy can make both weights.)

Lightweights: Don Taylor, Gabriel Velez, and Tony Nasimento. (Nasimento also can make both weights.)

SPARTANS SHARPEN ATTACK FOR WOLVES

San Jose went through its last hard workout last night in preparation for the University of Nevada Wolves who come here Saturday night for a football argument at Spartan Stadium.

Blocking and tackling were listed on last night's practice menu for the locals, and the DeGrootmen rehearsed another set of "Pop" Warner's "test tube" plays that will be tried out against the Wolfpack.

The Wolfpack comes to San Jose with a fifty-fifty record, having won one and tied one. The Wolves hold a 13-6 margin over San Francisco State, but are the short-end victims of a 9-7 game with Arizona State college at Flagstaff.

Walker's Charges To Be Underdogs In Season Opener

COLDS WEAKEN SPARTANS

Stanford's varsity water polo septet, bolstered by the return of four 1938 lettermen and a flock of last year's reserves and freshmen, will present a formidable barrier to San Jose's veteran squad when the two teams collide this afternoon in the Cardinal pool.

Although losing by graduation, John Lamb and Harvey Rothshile, all conference forwards, the Farm boys will boast such outstanding experts as Captain Bob Plate who will be backed by forwards and letter winners, Ted Moreno and Dick Hoover.

The only returning defensive man is Bob Burns, who is returning to the water polo wars after an absence of one season. Roy Vitousek, one of the best goalies in collegiate polo, according to Stanford scribes, is slated to open the contest in his favorite spot. He will be backed by Frank Downing, reserve goalie last season and a pair of frosh net defenders.

From the 1938 first year team comes Dave Nottage and Bob Allen, two capable forwards who are scheduled to put up a good fight for the starting berths. In addition to the already mentioned frosh stars, Hadley Bacon, Fred Manwaring, and Duncan Dudley are slated to see plenty of action in today's contest.

At the conclusion of last night's practice, Coach Walker stated that although the team is not in tip-top condition, the Spartans should give a good account of themselves in the contest. Last year they were defeated by scores of 7-4 and 7-3.

Santa Rosa Preps For Sparta Frosh

Sporting a won one—lost one percentage so far this season, the Santa Rosa Junior college eleven will rule as slight favorites over Coach Glen "Tiny" Hartranft's invading freshman gridders Friday night when the two teams tangle on Bailey Field, Santa Rosa, in a practice encounter.

Wearing the crown of defending champions of the B division of the Northern California Junior College Conference, the Bear Cubs opened the season by overcoming a strong Stockton Jaycee team by a one touchdown margin, 13 to 6. Last week they were nosed out of a possible upset victory by the California Aggies frosh, 14 to 13, when a last quarter conversion failed.

Men Hold First Dance Session Tonight At 7:30

The first meeting of the quarter of the men's dance group will be held tonight at 7:30 in the dance studio, announces Miss Marjorie Lucas, dance instructor.

"San Jose State is one of few colleges which has an active men's dance group. New York University and Springfield college are other institutions with such an organization," declares Miss Lucas.

The dance is an extra curricula activity for men students interested in drama, music, and rhythmic training which gives men an opportunity once a week on Thursdays to study dance techniques, according to Miss Lucas.

year; IF they are really behind Amos Alonzo and his fine team in his Golden Year; IF they have the civic pride they boast, they will see that the stores are closed up at noon or, better still, 11 o'clock on the day of the game (should it be changed), and desert their city to go to San Francisco and support their team. However, on the other hand, IF they are selfish enough to want to keep away thousands of people who could see the game if the switch were made; IF they haven't got what it takes to sacrifice a little business to get behind a "Grand old man" and his football team, then they will probably kill this idea.

5-NOW—from a monetary standpoint (not that it makes any difference to us—we've got enough to get by on) the game would be much better if held in the larger stadium. The game, as always, is on a fifty-fifty basis and would benefit both schools. (Of course we could use some more bucks.) And then (Yes—maybe we'll need some before the year is over).

6—Of course the matter would have to be referred to both coaches but it is my opinion that both would see the possibilities of the idea and have no objections.

ALL OF THIS has been merely in way of suggestion, however; and unless the proper authorities think the way I do, nothing will come of it. But honestly, don't you agree?

'NAZIS, RUSSIA'S GREAT POTENTIAL ENEMY', HUNT

"On the face of it, it would seem that Germany is Russia's great potential enemy instead of her ally," says Dr. Victor M. Hunt, assistant professor of history.

CUTS OFF GERMANY

The U.S.S.R. has strengthened herself in the Baltic by her protectorates over Latvia and Estonia in a way dangerous to Hitler and has cut off Germany to the south by moving in on the Rumanian frontier, he pointed out.

While expressing the opinion that no one can rightly say what the aims of Stalin are, Dr. Hunt believes that for the present Russia is merely furthering her own interests, and succeeding very well. She perhaps will wait until the involved nations become war-wearied and step in to force a peace favorable to her.

TURKEY IN LINE

Turkey is forced to play along with Russia, he says. She can't risk getting into a war on the opposite side from the Soviet Union.

Yehudi Menuhin At Auditorium Tomorrow Eve

Yehudi Menuhin, world famous violinist now living at Los Gatos, makes his second San Jose appearance tomorrow evening at 8:30 in the Civic auditorium.

Embarking on his second worldwide tour after a year's absence devoted to research, Menuhin will play on the historic Stradivarius violin given to him on his twelfth birthday and now valued at $100,000.

In New York last season, "he enjoyed an unequivocal triumph," according to the Times, in Washington, D.C., "a vast audience filled the auditorium to capacity and overflowed onto every available bit of space on the stage," while in Italy he was called "a musical miracle."

Tickets for the concert can be obtained at the box office of the auditorium.

First Ski Club Meet Today At 12:30

First meeting of the Ski club will be held today in Room 13 at 12:30.

Anyone interested in skiing is invited, says President George Jorgensen. Trips were taken last year by the club to Yosemite and Cold Spring every two weeks.

This year bigger and better trips are planned, Jorgensen declares.

Tentative plans are now under way for a ski team, to be under the direction of the Physical Education department.

Asked for his opinion of the proposed plan, Dr. E. H. Staffelbach, head of the Education department, said that the program would place San Jose State college, whose requirements for elementary school teachers are already among the highest, "away out in front".

DOUBTS SALARY RAISE

He expressed doubt, however, that the present state budget would allow for an increase in its expenditure sufficient to place California on the "single salary scale" for both elementary and secondary schools.

SGO Football Dance Bids Now On Sale

Bids for the fifth annual SGO football dance October 14, the night following the San Diego State game, are now on sale, according to Frank Lovoi, correspondent.

The dance will feature Leonard Gray's ten-piece orchestra, and will honor the football team. Gray has been playing at the Russian River resort most of the summer. Bids are $1.25.

TAU DELTS TO HOLD FETE AT ALUM ROCK

Members of Tau Delta Phi, men's honorary scholastic fraternity, will hold their first stag get-together of the quarter tomorrow afternoon and evening at Alum Rock Park, according to Ben Naylor, chairman.

All Tau Deltis planning to attend are asked to sign the fraternity bulletin board immediately so definite arrangements can be made, Naylor said.

Regular meeting of the group will be held tomorrow noon, according to Grand Magistrate John Talia.

TAU DELTS CLEAN UP

San Jose State college's famed tower will receive an interior "going-over" at the hands of last quarter's Tau Delta Phi neophytes.

According to John Talia, head of the men's honorary scholastic fraternity which uses the tower as their meeting place, re-painting and re-decorating will be accomplished within the next few weeks.

Radio Speaking Club Elects Brown Prexy

Archie Brown was elected president of the Radio Speaking society, succeeding Eileen Brown, at a meeting of the group Tuesday. Bill Craddock won the post of vice-president and Annette Owen is the new secretary-treasurer.

Plans of the group for the quarter will include sponsorship of important radio personalities, announces Miss Brown. She also stated that workshop production material will be taken from entries of the Radio Writing class.

The purpose of the association is to give aspiring students experience in acting, writing, and directing in radio productions in the school studio, station KSJS, stated Miss Brown.

Tryouts for the organization will be announced later, according to Miss Brown.

Chapel Groups To Hear Guest Speaker Today

The first Chapel Quarter Hour of the YW and YMCA will take place today at 12:30 in the Little Theater with Reverend Stephen Peabody of the Congregational church as guest speaker. His subject will be "A Childish Religion vs. a Mature Religion".

Chapel, sponsored by the YW and YMCA and Kappa Phi, Methodist Women's society, is a nondenominational meeting of music and meditation, says Anne McKinney, chairman of the YW. All are invited to attend the meeting.

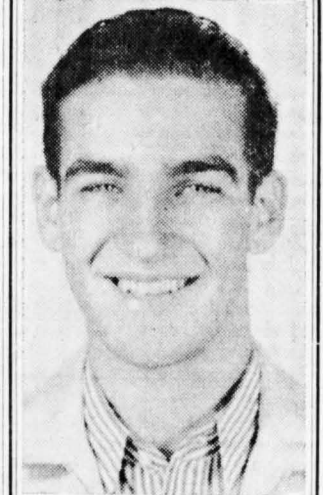

Chairmen for the various groups are Anne McKinney of the YWCA, Ardis Jasper of the Kappa Phi, and Hal Fosberg of the YMCA.
