Pre-Game Rally At Noon Today In Front Quad

Expecting the largest turnout in the history of the college, the pre-San Jose State-San Diego rally will be held today in the front quad at noon, according to Happy LaBee, rally chairman.

According to plans outlined by the Rally committee, Leo Calland, San Diego football coach, will be asked to speak before the crowd. Bob Titchenal, Spartan captain, is also expected to speak, LaBee said. Expecting an enthusiastic crowd, LaBee promises plenty of noise and activity. There will be school yells and school songs led by the newly-chosen yell leaders. For further entertainment, there will be several comedy skits.

Preceding the State-College of Pacific game, rally officials announce that a rally will be held in the Morris Dailey auditorium, which is expected to have a record turnout.

The first showing of freshman talent will be on hand to entertain the crowd, the rally chairman said, but songs and yells will occupy the large percentage of the program. Included on the program will be the Helen Smith trio. Len Baskin, of Spartan Revelries, will act as master of ceremonies.

KNIGHTS AND SPEARS PLAN JOINT PARTY

Two honorary campus service fraternities, Spartan Knights, and Spartan Spears, will hold a joint party at Alum Rock park Sunday afternoon and evening, according to plans completed yesterday by officers of both organizations.

All Knights and Spears are asked to meet in front of the Student Union building Sunday at 12 o'clock, where transportation will be provided. Earl Manny Silva of the Knights urged members to bring a car if possible.

Harvey Rhodes is chairman of the barbecue committee, with Freddie Albright in charge of entertainment which will be provided by the newer Knights.

Nursery Needs Graduate Nurse

A graduate nurse with an hour's time to spare each day is desperately needed at the college nursery school, reports Miss Winifred Reynolds.

The nurse is needed to examine the nursery school youngsters when they arrive at 10 o'clock each morning, she declares. The work will be finished by 11 o'clock.

"I know there are a number of graduate nurses among our students, but I just haven't been able to find one," says Miss Reynolds. "Meantime we need a nurse badly."

Miss Reynolds may be found at the nursery school between 10 and 11 o'clock daily.

Former San Jose Instructor Dies

Funeral services for Tamara Morgan, internationally known pianist and former San Jose State college instructor, were held yesterday in San Francisco. The services were attended by various members of the Music department.

Mrs. Morgan was a member of the faculty last year. In addition to her classes, she gave several piano recitals in the bay region. She was hailed by music critics here and abroad as an outstanding concert-pianist.

Suddenly stricken last week, Mrs. Morgan failed to rally from an emergency operation which she underwent in a San Francisco hospital.

FEES PAYABLE ON MONDAY

Class fees will be payable at the Business office starting Monday morning and continuing through Friday, it was announced by the Business office yesterday. Fees will still be payable after October 27 through November 3, according to office officials, with a late payment charge of one dollar attached.

After November 3 students who have neglected to pay their fees will have their registration cancelled, according to office officials.

California Collegiate Athletic Association football warfare begins tonight at 8 o'clock, with the San Jose Spartans and the San Diego Aztecs squaring off on the local gridiron.

It's the same old story of the underdog invader coming to town determined to upset our high-riding Spartans who are sailing along with five straight wins to their credit. But this time there will be a new set of characters trying to alter the plot.

DETERMINATION
With the exception of USF, the would-be assassins of the Spartans have depended mainly upon sheer determination, but in addition to being keyed-up, the Aztecs have a ball club that is powerful enough in itself to make things hot for the locals.

In other words, Coach Calland has a keyed-up team that is bubbling over with ability. A big, fast, experienced line that averages 193 pounds will serve as a buffer for the best set of backfield men to face the Spartans this season.

ROCKNE SYSTEM

The two ends, Bill Timmons and Dick Webb, have been around the Montezuma Mesa for the past two seasons, and have weight to go along with their experience. Jim Sims, a one-year letter winner, and Walker Owen, a sensational junior college transfer who weighs 208, are two rough-and-ready tackles. ## Class Meetings

FRESHMEN

Bill Wells was elected president of the freshman class yesterday in the Morris Dailey auditorium at the first meeting of the group.

Forest Michaelis was chosen vice-president, and Virginia Ring, secretary-treasurer. The class representatives are Dick Campion, Tildy Lindemann, and Dolores Pyle.

SENIORS

Ham Hodgson was elected senior president at the first class meeting of the year held yesterday at 11 o'clock in the Little Theater.

Other officers elected for the quarter are Harvey Rhodes, vice-president; Bob Bronzan, treasurer; Tony Nasimento, sergeant-at-arms; and Helen Smith, A.W.S. representative. Lucille Johnson will act as secretary until next meeting when a re-vote will be taken between Merle Roberts, Selma Kann, and Miss Johnson.

MACQUARRIE TALKS

Addresses by Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, president of the college and "Uncle Jimmy" DeVoss, Senior class adviser, were preceded by community singing, under the direction of Leila Gulmert.

Plans for a junior-senior mixer to be held this quarter as well as a possible senior Christmas party were discussed at the meeting which officially inaugurated senior activities for the year.

SOPHOMORES

Plans for the Soph Harlem Hop swung into action yesterday during a class meeting at which the largest turnout of students so far this quarter was witnessed, according to Dave Atkinson, sophomore president.

The date decided on for the annual dance was November 18, it was announced, with the Armory as the scene of the affair.

Headed by Merton "Squirt" Crockett, the dance committee is working on plans for a black-and-white theme at the semi-formal hop.

JUNIORS

Bob Swanson was elected prom chairman in the second meeting of the junior class which was held yesterday in room S112.

Jus Lundquist, Warner Kelley, Patty Brethauer, and Eva Seko comprise the "garb committee" for the class.

Morris Buckingham, Frank Kallam, Frank Lovoi, Bill Abdallah, Bill Johnson, Rutheda Elliot, and Eleanor Raney were introduced to the juniors by chairman Frank Bonanno and the "Elegant Eight," a committee for sneak week.

A short talk was given by Professor L. C. Newby, class advisor.

Entertainment was provided by Harry Saunders and Bill Newby, and the meeting closed by the singing of Spartan Fight Song, and the school hymn.

Pianist Appears Here Tuesday In Concert

Mr. Benning Dexter, who is to appear in a concert Tuesday evening in Morris Dailey auditorium, under the auspices of the Music department, has announced his program, according to the head of the Music department, Mr. Adolph Otterstein.

Following are the piano numbers he is to play:

- Bach-Siloti.....Prelude E Minor
  - Mozart.....
  - Theme and Variation, A Major
  - Beethoven.....Sonata Opus 101
  - Allegretto
  - Vivace Alla Marcia
  - Adagio: Allegretto
  - Chopin.....Poloaise C Minor
  - Scriabine.....Fourth Sonata F Major
  - Debussy.....Bruyeres
  - Jardins sous la Pluie Voiles
  - Chopin.....Ballade Ab Major
- The recital begins at 8:15 and admission is free.

STUDENTS START 'ON TO C.O.P.' CRY

With the San Jose State-College of Pacific twenty-second traditional game slated for one week from today, come cries from high-spirited, fun-loving Spartans and co-eds—"On to Stockton!"

Boarding the Spartan Special at the Southern Pacific Depot at 2:15 will be enthusiastic rooters, including students, the band, and local Chamber of Commerce members.

Arriving in Stockton about 4:30, local "trekkers" will be greeted by Pacific rooters, staging a noise parade through the town to a general meeting place, rally officials declare.

According to information received from Galen "Stub" Harvey, promotion manager of C.O.P., 850 50-yard line seats and 650 seats in Section "E" have been reserved for local fans. The 50-yard line seats will be reserved for students wearing gold and white caps, it was announced. They have also set aside a half-time period for band marching and comedy acts.

Time has been set aside for the local 116-piece band performance and a comedy skit by Wes Hammond and Jack Windsor, it was pointed out.

"We are planning to have a permanent "S" formed by gold and white rooter's caps during the game. It worked out so well in the USF game, and I'm sure we can do it again," LaBee stated.

Thrust and Parry

The editorial that appeared earlier in the week about sororities having functions on the same night as football games was directed at the group of sororities as a whole and in no way meant to cast aspersions onto any one group. The name of Phi Kappa Pi was used merely because they were the first to hold such a function. It was stated that possibly no other date could be used for that affair but surely it didn't have to happen twice in eight days.

It was written in the spirit of a journalist (if I may assume myself capable) who thinks he has seen a wrong and in his feeble way is trying to correct it. It was NOT written in the spirit of an

Grayson's Clothes Line

Since the game Saturday night we've been wondering which was the biggest attraction—those football heroes on the field who gave San Jose State college their fifth straight win, or that young movie actor, MICKEY ROONEY, who enjoyed the game from the bench. The only difference between Mickey Rooney and State men, besides a slight financial difference, was when Rooney left the field a woman rushed him and Mickey firmly and not too gently shoved her on her "merry way"—we've never seen a State man beat off the women.

It's new, it's smart, it's sensational, the new "SLOPPY JOSEPHINE". Everyone knows about "SLOPPY JOE" sweaters by now but of course Joe wouldn't be complete without Josephine. Consequently our New York office has sent us a "Sloppy Josephine", the sport shirt of our generation. It is made of broadcloth in all the popular colors of the season. It sells for $1.00 and has been made especially to wear with the "Sloppy Joe" cardigan sweater. The neck has been carefully tailored with a Peter Pan collar that lays neatly over the neck of the sweater. The garment has been cut very full with extra long tails. It is a typical "young girl" item and for comfort and smartness you gotta have one. Grayson's just received a new shipment of the "Sloppy" blouses and sweaters, so don't miss out like a lot of the gals did before.

If you want to see something funny, stop in at Grayson's sometime and watch a college gent trying to acquire enough nerve to come in. One young chap by the name of ED MARLOWE started looking at the windows from the street about 9:30 a.m. Tuesday morning. At 9:45 he had mustered the courage to get almost to the doors, still gazing intently at the display. At 10 a.m. he took a deep breath, filled his lungs with good old air, as if he wouldn't get a complete breath while in the store, threw back his shoulders, and entered. In one sentence—"I want a birthday present for my little sister she wears a size 12 what would you recommend?" Not wanting to embarrass him further with dainty feminine gifts, we suggested a bright plaid wool dress, white collar trimmed. After seeing how stunning RUTHIE MARLOWE looked in the present, we know that brother Ed was glad he went through such torture to get it.

Well, I know that you students must get back to the library and study, so after reading GRAYSON'S display ad on page 4 of the Daily, hop to it. After starting to study if your mind starts to wander, as it always does, you may as well think of the clothes available at Grayson's at such reasonable prices to put you over on that COLLEGE OF PACIFIC excursion next week.

egotistical football player who simply can't get along without the socially inclined female members of the rooting section out there yelling for him as some seem to think.

The following is a letter received yesterday from a couple of sorority girls who, although they profess to be college co-eds, should go back to grammar school for a few lessons in English, grammar, spelling, and penmanship.

"Dear Carlton Perego: (the name is spelled Perego)

It is just too bad that your ego cannot be satisfied this Friday night at game. To think the great Perego (spelled right this time) performs and not a sorority girls heart to flutter. Due to the Inter-society dinner. We are sorry to miss the game but do not like your method of registering the complaint.

—An Allennian and a Sappho."

I won't take the space to point out all the grammatical mistakes in this little epistle, but would like to inform the first signee of the letter that the name of her sorority is spelled Allennian, and not as she spelled it. Need I say more about the ignorance of the writers who cannot even spell the name of the sorority that one of them belongs to?

In analyzing the letter, I have come to the conclusion that there was no point whatever in it except to point me out as an egotistical football player. They say they are sorry to miss the game which means that they agree with me in thinking that sorority functions should be held on nights other than those on the football schedule. And that was the whole point of the first editorial.

In signing the names of their respective societies and not their own names the girls dubbed themselves bluntly and surely as cowards who are afraid to put their names on something they hope will do some good.

As for my being egotistical, if they think that sincerely there is nothing I can do about it. I try to play football because I like the game, not to hear the plaudits of the crowds. Of course anyone likes to hear that his efforts are being appreciated, but if I have conducted myself in an over-egotistical manner, for that I am sorry, I hope I can correct it before my closer friends notice it.

To all sorority girls who will attend the dinner tonight may I say I hope you have a very pleasant time and I hope you miss the best football game of the season!

—PEREGOY.

Dear Thrust and Parry:

To me, it is all quite amusing, the so-called school spirit that is present here at State. Instead of dickering over whether there shall or shall not be women in the band, it seems there is something far bigger that should attract our attention.

First of all, this is supposed to be a college. As far as education, yes—spirit, decidedly, no! I have yet to know whether there is a student body president, and I would like to see what Dr. MacQuarrie looks like. I don't hide in a corner either.

If I recall, there has been one rally and five football games. These

SCANNING THE STACKS

By IRENE MELTON

Wanna see a booby? Well then, look not in a mirror, but at the exhibit on display in the corner of the library's stack room.

Examination of the books to be seen reveals existence of a group of birds named the boobies. This is found in a work entitled "Birds of the World", a book prepared by workers of the Federal Writers' Project under the Works Progress Administration in New York. Art work in the book was done by Federal Art Project workers.

Up and down are the new vertical files recently installed at the education and reference desks in the library. Many interesting pamphlets, including special booklets on vocational guidance, are found in the reference desk files; while at the ed. desk may be discovered colorful, educational picture collections.

football games have been wonderful as far as the football itself goes. As for the subject of school spirit—well, that needs no indulgence. But how can a rooting section "act like other colleges" if it has no idea as to yells, songs, and a little co-operation. For instance, take the school hymn. It wouldn't be bad to know what the words are and what the music sounds like.

The question is—have we any school songs? One would never know. If we haven't why not get busy and have a song writing contest? You know that's how most college songs come into being.

Having a uniform rooting section seems to be a problem at present. I gather there is a rally committee, but its duties certainly seem to be limited. Also, I believe, there are the Spartan Knights. Why can't they do something and earn some glory?

As for the girls, what have they? Give them a pom-pom, and I'm certain they'll give all their support. It seems there is no co-operation. You know there are many schools far bigger than State, and some are famous for their school spirit.

State is a little behind the times. Everyone seems to have been too self-centered. Why not wake up before it's too late. I'm willing to help and work hard toward that goal—a goal that stands for co-operation, good sportsmanship, and school spirit. Are you?

—BETTY CLARK.

Ed's. Note: For words to the college songs refer to either yesterday's or today's Spartan Daily. For music, attend the games and listen! The fight song is played regularly and the hymn is ALWAYS sung following the close of the game.

WASHINGTON SQUARE Merrick - Go - Round

By FRED MERRICK

Disapproval of the showing at last week's football game seems to have injured someone's feelings, according to a letter which came to the Daily office yesterday. The burning missile is printed herewith: Oct. 10, 1939.

Listen you —!! Just exactly what is the idea of calling fellas & gals that go to San Jose High school, "brats"? And what's more, blaming your lack of college spirit and enthusiasm on us. You claim that "adults and high school brats" are filling your rooting section and hindering your yells and songs. If that's the case, it's only because college gals are looking at adult men, and college men are staring at high school gals. Seriously though, don't blame us.—We pay our 75 cents and 15 cents just as much as the next person. If you ask me, we're the only one's that yell at your games anyway! —Two High School Co-eds, 1230 Mariposa Ave.

Although the authors of this letter may have their points, they seem to have overlooked the fact that San Jose State's rooting section is reserved for San Jose State college students. Besides they don't seem to be able to make up their minds whether it's one or two co-eds writing the letter, if you ask me!

Spartan Boxers Embark For Japan Today

Hold Final Workout On U. S. Soil

San Jose State college's five-man boxing team acting as "Ambassadors of Good Will" for the United States, sail for Japan today at high noon from San Francisco, aboard the liner S. S. Kanakaura Maru.

With final preparations having been completed last night for the second invasion of the Orient by a Spartan aggregation of athletes, Coach DeWitt Portal announced that all men are in good physical and mental condition for the long trip.

The boxing team will be off American soil for at least three months. Bouts have been scheduled by the Japanese Amateur Boxing Federation, with the Spartans scheduled to put in appearances in Tokyo, Keiyo, and Osaka.

The team will go through their final workouts this morning. Portal stated yesterday that his only fear at the present time is that the long boat trip will affect the boxers. Seasickness has licked many a team before they meet their opponents, stated Portal, but he has hopes that his boys will stand up under the strain.

In the party will be Bill Sellers, Conrad Lacy, Don Taylor, Charlie Kerwin, and Jim Kincaid. Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Portal will accompany the team. They will carry Santa Clara county prunes and apricots with them to give to their hosts in the Orient.

WRESTLERS MEET

Entrants in the Novice Wrestling Tournament are to meet in the gymnasium this afternoon, according to P. E. officials.

The tourney, which is open to any student who has had no competitive wrestling experience, will start Saturday, October 28.

SAN JOSE LINEUP

Bob Breitbard is a hefty chunk of pivotman in the center of the Aztec line. To back up this flossy group of starters, Coach Calland has a talented group of reserves to fill in when needed.

"TOUCHDOWN TWINS"

Halfbacks Bill Matthie and "Bouncing Bob" Cozens, known in Aztec circles as the "touchdown twins", have all the necessary equipment to harrass the Spartans. To date, Matthie has reeled off an average of 6.7 yards per play. But there is one catch to this combination—Matthie has an injured ankle that may keep him out of the ball game.

However, if the injury does not respond to treatment, Cotton Gilliland, another triple-threatener, is ready for duty. With Quarterback Bob Ford also injured, Eddie Preisler will take over. The fullback

Future San Jose State football opponents face their acid tests this week-end, as the majority of them face powerful elevens for the first time this season.

College of Pacific, who meet the Spartans on October 20, will rest this week in preparation for the "battle of the century". Santa Barbara tangles with the undefeated San Diego Marines.

Heartened by their excellent showing against the Olympic club Wednesday night, Coach Charlie Walker's varsity water polo septet will enter today's game against the University of California with renewed vigor. The opening tipoff is slated for five o'clock in the Spartan pool.

Playing without the services of Martin Wempe, who was ejected early in the Olympic club game after fighting with a Winged-O opponent, the Spartan water dogs played excellent ball against their more experienced opponents. Time and again the Washington Square team displayed fine team work in working the ball into scoring positions. Special credit is due to Jim Curran, who in addition to tallying five of the team's goals, played a bang up game from his forward spot.

The freshman seven, who were nosed out by the Olympic club 8 to 7 Wednesday, will attempt to get back into the win column against the California freshmen in the preliminary game at four o'clock. Although they were on the wrong end of the score against the Winged-O septet, the frosh showed occasional signs of good ball handling. The California frosh have lost six contests to date.

FACES AZTECS—Hal Buffa, one of the mainstays in the rugged Spartan forward wall for the past three years, will see his share of action tonight against a husky San Diego Aztec line. Buffa, a dependable guard, is playing his last season for the locals.

Freshmen Battle San Mateo JC In Grid Preliminary

With final preparations completed for their toughest game of the season, Coach Tiny Hartranft's frosh eleven plan to "shoot the works" against San Mateo J. C. when the two teams tangle tonight at 5:45 on the Spartan Stadium gridiron.

Several changes in the starting lineup will be noticed as the yearlings take the field. On the line Forrest Michaelis, 165-pound wingman, will replace the regular starter, Andy Anderson, who has been hampered in practice by injuries. Merrill Wilmot, dependable right tackle, has been replaced by John Gothbergh. Gothbergh earned his starting assignment by his fine play in practice sessions.

Coach Hartranft is scheduled to start the backfield combination of Antognani at quarter, Miller and Soulds at halves, and Captain Al Alviso at full. Antognani will divide time at the signal calling spot with Don Simpson and Al Rocchi, while Russ Hofvendall and Paul Tognetti will relieve the starting halves. Alviso will receive support from Charles Boster.

With the San Mateo squad boasting one of the strongest Jaycee elevens in Northern California, the first year men are in for a tough evening.

Fencing club meeting today at 12:15 in the Women's gym. Any men or women students interested are invited to attend. No experience necessary.

California Host To State Soccer Team Tomorrow

Spartans Primed For Golden Bears

Going into the second week of the conference schedule, the Spartan soccer team travels to Berkeley tomorrow to do battle with the University of California eleven on the Bear campus at 10 o'clock.

With a week's hard work after their first defeat by USF behind them, the Macmen are now ready for the powerful Bear team which last year ended up in the number one spot in the conference.

Coach McDonald has stressed passing offense and goal shooting this week, and has had plenty of conditioning, the lack of which handicapped the men last week.

The forward line of Rocchi, Masdeo, Albright, and the Fahn brothers has been looking much better in practice sessions than they did in the game last week.

The halves, Dwyer, O'Conner, Rhodes, and Anderson, all played well last week and have looked good in practice. Hodgson and Deidrickson at fulls and Hill in the goal will be a tough defense for the Bears to crack.

Following is the probable starting lineup for the Spartans:

- Left Wing—Jim Fahn
- Left Inside—Gene Rocchi
- Center Forward—Ray Fahn
- Right Inside—Fortune Masdeo
- Right Wing—Fred Albright
- Left Half—Bill Dwyer
- Center Half—Frank O'Conner
- Right Half—Harvey Rhodes
- Left Full—Ham Hodgson (C)
- Right Full—Deidrickson
- Goalie—Leroy Hill

Revolving Set Will Be Novel Feature In 'Twelfth Night'

WORK BEGINS ON PLAY SETTING

Stage setting for "Twelfth Night" production is in process of completion, Mr. Hugh W. Gillis announced yesterday. The setting will be on a revolving stage, used for the first time in this part of the country.

REVOLVING STAGE

By turning the wheel it lets the audience see different sections, and it makes for rapidity, which is important in Shakespearean plays, especially comedies, Gillis stated.

The play will be broken into acts but not scenes. Elizabethan music will be played by a trio from the Music department, under direction of Miss Alma Williams.

Because of advance sale of tickets, "Twelfth Night" will be produced November 1, as well as November 2 and 3.

The stage, which is built, but not yet covered with canvas, was constructed by the stagecraft class under the guidance of Mr. J. W. Johnson and Peter Gilli, who was appointed stage manager this week. Bob Jacobus was named electrician; Mary Morissette, costume manager; Howard Chamberlain, make-up manager; and Virginia Range, property manager.

CLANCY DIRECTS

Mr. James Clancy is director of the play, and he is assisted by Mr. Johnson, technical director, and Miss Marjorie Lucas of the women's P. E. department, who has charge of the choreography.

Fight on to victory
We are with you in every way
No matter what the price may be
Onward for Sparta, noble and true
Fight hard in everything you do
And we'll fight! Rah! Win! Rah!
Go onward down the field
And we'll win the day . . .

La Torre Group Photos Start Monday

Beginning Monday, group pictures of clubs will be taken on the north steps of the Art building between 12:10 and 1 p.m. each day for five days, Marcelle Chabre, La Torre staff member, announced yesterday.

Only thirty clubs can be included in the yearbook. Miss Chabre said that this quota is almost complete and that any clubs that have not made appointments must do so today.

Appointments are being taken at the La Torre desk in the Publications office for senior pictures and for pictures of officers of fraternities and sororities.

Following is a list of those having appointments today at Bushnell's Studio, 34 North First St.:

9:15 Marjorie Lucas, 10:15 Ruth Lawson, 10:30 Donald Graves, 10:45 Frank Savage, 11:00 Katherine Palmer, 11:15 Glen Krumme, 12:00 E. S. Thompson, 12:30 Walter Fisher, 1:45 Tasca Brunsch. 2:00 Francis Canter, 2:15 Don Wells, 2:30 Vivian Gordon, 2:45 Wayne Rautchneo, 3:00 Bill Baker, 3:15 Ralph Kelley, 3:30 Audrey Jane Orcutt, 3:45 Jeanne Schrader, 4:45 Al Aiton.
