Play Date Change Avoids Possible Concert Mix-Up

Originally scheduled for performances on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, the production dates of "Twelfth Night" have been changed to Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday, November 1, 2, and 4, Mr. Hugh W. Gillis announced yesterday.

This change was made to avoid a conflict with a concert at the Civic auditorium, Mr. Gillis said. Those who have season books will be allowed to make reservations for any of the three performances.

Although it is too late to purchase season books, single tickets may now be obtained in Mr. Gillis' office for the production, "Twelfth Night". There are still some good seats available, especially for the Wednesday performance.

Student Union Girls Assigned Duties By AWS

Assignments for the quarter were made to members of the A.W.S.-sponsored Student Union Girls' committee at their noon meeting yesterday. They will immediately take charge of the magazines and recreational facilities in the Union, announced Alice Good, chairman.

"A drive for new members is being launched, and all women interested, particularly freshmen, are urged to attend our next meeting," Miss Good said yesterday. She pointed out that the committee is a service honor society rather than a social organization.

The next meeting will take place at 12:30 Wednesday, place to be announced later. Miss Good requested that all women's organizations look in their Co-op boxes today and tomorrow.

LOCAL MUSIC TEACHERS TO HEAR DEXTER

Over a hundred San Jose music teachers and their students are expected to attend Mr. Benning Dexter's concert tonight in the Morris Dailey auditorium, according to Mr. Adolph Otterstein, Music department head.

Mr. Dexter, a former concert pianist, and graduate of the Juillard School of Music, is being presented to San Jose by the Music department. There will be no admission charge for the program which will begin at 8:15.

- Following is Mr. Dexter's program:
- Bach-Silotti.....Prelude E Minor Mozart
 - Theme and Variation, A Major Beethoven.....Sonata Opus 101
 - Allegretto
 - Vivace Alla Marcia
 - Adagio: Allegretto
 - Chopin.....Polonaise C Minor
 - Scriabine.....Fourth Sonata F Major
 - Debussy.....Bruyeres
 - Jardins sous la Pluie Voiles Chopin
 - Ballade Ab Major

October 27 Deadline For Fees Payment

Course fees are now due and payable in room 2 of the main building.

After October 27 there will be a late fee charge of $1.00. Unless fees are paid by November 3, registration will be cancelled.

Thereafter there will be a reinstatement fee of $3.00.

Gene Goudron Plays At First Afternoon Hop

Gene Goudron's six-piece orchestra will play at the first afternoon dance tomorrow from 4 to 6 in the Men's gym, according to Don Anderson, chairman.

Groups of pledges from several campus fraternities will provide the entertainment for the affair to which stags will be admitted.

Admission will be 10 cents to students. No outsiders will be allowed, the chairman announced.

STUDENTS IN PISTOL MEET WIN MEDALS

Frank Kallam and Voris Newstetter, both San Jose State college Police School students, won three medals, a second and two third places, in Sunday's Tri-State Pistol Meet at Fort Funston in San Francisco.

Kallam took a second place in the rapid fire division and a third in the timed fire. Newstetter won a bronze third place medal in the 50-yard slow fire national course match. Over 150 entries competed in the meet which was open to pistol marksmen from Washington, Oregon, and California.

Scores in the meet were quite low because of a heavy wind which swept the course, according to Kallam.

Vertical Parking Inaugurated On Seventh Street

Parking places for 70 or 80 more cars are now available to San Jose State college students with the inauguration this week of vertical parking along the west side of Seventh street, Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie announced yesterday.

Space for two and one half times as many cars as have been parking on Seventh street will be provided by the new arrangement, giving an approximate total of 130 places, Dr. MacQuarrie said.

Students are requested by the president to make a special effort to avoid accidents by parking as close to the next car as possible and with both front wheels touching the curb.

"We have always allowed vertical parking on San Fernando street, which is the same width as Seventh, and there have never been any accidents. I see no reason why the new arrangement should not be just as successful if every student cooperates," Dr. MacQuarrie said.

STATERS CELEBRATE C.O.P. CONTEST WITH PRE-WAR FESTIVITY

RALLY

Pep Meeting Set For Wednesday Night

Emphasizing the fact that no COP excursion is complete without a celebration, rally officials announce tentative plans for the "biggest of all pre-game events" Wednesday at 7:30 in Morris Dailey auditorium.

Len Baskin of Revelries fame, who will be master of ceremonies for the evening, announces that there will be plenty of new entertainment.

Windsor's Comedy Troupe, better known as the "Sweat Sock Five", who will be featured at the rally, include Bob Tremaine, Jack Windsor, Jim Bailey, Wes Hammond, and "Fungi" Peters. Jack Harcourt and the three "Debs" will be on hand to entertain, Baskin said. Sal Talesfore, along with six freshmen, will provide the freshman contribution to the evening, Baskin declared.

Rally officials are contacting COP officials in order to have a member of the COP to be present at the rally, Baskin announced.

Bob Swanson, Jim Fahn, and Tom Taylor will be on hand to lead the school yells and songs. The school band will accompany the students in group singing.

Manuel, San Jose State Alec Templeton, Al Davina, Helen Smith trio, and the Four Musketees will all share in providing plenty of entertainment for the crowd.

APPOINTMENT DEADLINE SET FOR LA TORRE

If, by the end of this week, students and faculty have failed to make appointments for La Torre pictures, the La Torre staff will be unable to include their photos in the yearbook, Edith Mauzy announces.

Students should take their appointment cards with them when keeping appointments at Busnell's studio, 34 North First street, Editor Bill Laffoon advises.

The following is a complete list of those having appointments today:

- 9:15 Graham, Frederick; 9:30 Tomkins, 9:45 Maurer, Jean; 10:00 Morley, Charlotte; 10:15 Bennetts, Lois; 10:30 Browning, Harvey; 10:45 Norton, Marion; 11:00 Nevenzel, Gladys; 11:15 Morisette, Mary; 11:30 Froelich, Ruth; 11:45 Stevens, Marlo; 12:00 Heidinger, Emil; 12:15 Gillespie, Norma; 12:30 Hornall, Alice; 12:45 Benevento, Chauncey; 1:00 Naylor, Ben.
- 1:15 Clinkscale, Zoe Ella; 1:30 Keute, Virginia; 1:45 Wikkerink, Florence; 2:00 Millet, Harry; 2:15 Donaldson, Rowena; 2:30 Zink, Jane; 2:45 Ashe, Maude; 3:00 Gilliam, Olive; 3:30 Palmer, Irene; 3:45 Wright, Ethel; 4:00 Chomor.

EXCURSION

Ticket Sales For Trip Exceed 200 Mark

"On to Pacific!" This is the cry of local "trekkers" who are anticipating the biggest all-college affair of the football season—the San Jose State-C.O.P. game Friday night.

With the sale of tickets considerably past the 200 mark at this early date, rally officials agree that this excursion to Stockton will surpass all previous records. Tickets may be purchased at the Controller's office for $1.65.

LEAVE AT 2:15 Scheduled to leave the Southern Pacific depot at 2:15 p.m., the Spartan Special will arrive in Stockton at 4:30. The Special will start for home about midnight, although tickets are good for ten days, rally officials state.

Following a reception at the depot, a noise parade will be staged to Tiny's restaurant, Happy LaBee, rally head, announced.

A stripped car for dancing will be the main feature of the trip, with a radio and phonograph to provide the music.

ROOTING SECTION

The lower half of the Spartan rooting section has been reserved for male students wearing rooters' caps, while the upper half will be reserved for co-eds carrying pom-poms.

Pom-poms will be available to all co-eds Wednesday, when they will be sold by the Spartan Spears in the booth in the inner quad.

According to information received from College of Pacific officials, 850 seats in Baxter Stadium on the 50-yard line, along with 650 seats in section "E" of the stadium have been reserved for local rooters. Spartan Knights will be on hand to assist with the ushering.

Student Poll On Women In Band Held Tomorrow

Tomorrow the Spartan Daily will conduct a poll on the question as whether or not co-eds should be allowed to play in the college band during football games.

This poll, results of which will in no way decide the future policy of the band, came about after many students aired their opinions on the question for the past two weeks via the Daily's Thrust and Parry column.

With the Daily remaining impartial to the results, the college paper will endeavor to tabulate opinions that are expressed by a majority of the students. Any change, if needed, will be up to the discretion of the band officials.

Flyers Grounded By Weather; Plan Flight To South

200 Hours Needed To Bring Ships Here

Still grounded in Chicago by bad weather, the five students making delivery on planes slated for use by the college, were planning last night to fly south, Frank F. Petersen, Aviation department head, announces.

The flyers, members of the Twenty Flying club, took delivery of four Taylor Cub "50's" and one Taylorcraft Friday, but they were forced to land at Chicago because of head winds and poor visibility.

The ships, to be used by the CAA and the two campus flying clubs, are equipped, according to Petersen, with auxiliary refueling tanks to allow for longer non-stop flights, but loss of headway in fighting the winds offsets the added mileage possible with the tanks.

If the weather does not clear within several days, he pointed out, the ships will head south into Nashville, Tennessee, and will fly from there to the Pacific Coast via southern airline routes.

A total of 200 flying hours will be required to fly the five ships to the coast, Petersen added.

Blue Cards Come Out Next Week, States Registrar

With mid-quarter scholarship reports scheduled for the end of next week, students are advised by Joe West, Registrar, to begin now to prepare for mid-term examinations which will probably be held next week.

Scholarship reports, or "blue cards" are sent out at the end of six week periods, and give a report on scholarship for that length of time.

Figures for the autumn quarter last year show that a total of 1837 blue cards was sent out to 1276 students.

Last Friday, October 13, was the deadline to drop courses. No student receiving a warning card in any course will be allowed to drop that subject, Mr. West said.

Commerce Club Will Meet Today

All commerce majors and minors are invited to the Commerce club meeting today at two o'clock in Room 139, whether or not they have purchased their membership tickets, according to Jerry Fitzgerald, president of the club.

Plans for an election of officers will be discussed and the final date of the Commerce club party will be set. The tentative date made was November 17.

Fitzgerald urges all commerce majors and minors to purchase membership cards as soon as possible.

They are still on sale in Room 137A of the Commerce building for 25 cents.

More Co-ops Needed . . .

Through the efforts of the San Jose State college Housing Board, which has just completed a survey on college housing conditions, it has been established that the co-op houses are by far the most successful of any type of housing existing here.

The first of the co-op houses was established here a number of years ago, but more have been slow in coming. Though the most successful type established, there are only three in existence—two for women, the Mary George and the Mary Post, and one men's, Eckert Hall, with about forty names on the waiting list.

The student council or the housing board cannot make the results of the survey applicable to college housing conditions until a few more matters connected with the survey are cleared up, including a poll of student opinion regarding conditions and a discussion of the subject before the council by the salaried head of the University of California housing board, but the formation of more co-op houses should be kept in mind.

That there is a great demand among students for the formation of more of these co-ops was evident to the housing board and is evidenced by the large waiting lists of students trying to get in the present houses of this type already formed here.

—Bill Rodrick.

If you are going to the Pacific game, take the train. This is not a plug for the Southern Pacific—I doubt if the railroad will make much money at the rate they have announced—this is simply a plea for safety.

Don't go in a jalopy. Don't go in any car that is at all overloaded. Don't go with a careless driver who likes to show off. Don't go at all by car if you can help it. It is very often foggy around Stockton at this time of year. Accidents are bound to happen in the fogs.

We have done rather well so far with our off-campus jaunts. No one has been killed, but there have been many accidents and many uncomfortable incidents.

Take the train. It is cheaper, safer, more comfortable, and really more interesting. With regular trainmen in charge and a controlled right of way, with plenty of sense and good fun on the inside, you will remember the trip almost as much as you will the game.

Actually, of course, you don't have to go at all. If you can't afford it, if your schedule will not permit it, don't go. You can probably get it over the radio, or you can read all about it in the paper next morning. Use your own good judgment.

Corn Off The Cob

By Jack Duttweiler

Now for instance—
Take this Ham and Eggs proposition that's been dug out of its grave for another vote. We don't have to tell you any of the facts, how all those who were lucky enough to have survived the Civil War will get thirty dollars each week of someone else's hard-money.

BENEFIT YOUNGER

But we do wish to emphasize that the money is most assuredly going to the wrong place. The old-timers can't find any enjoyment out of the dough—rather, it's the younger generation that would benefit most from this charity on the part of the government. Just think of what wonders this money could perform for the college student between the age of 18 and 40.

Not to change the subject, but there's still another small item to be contended with. All employed people who are on the eligibility list for the thirty bucks will know a good opportunity for easy money when they see it. They'll quit their jobs and take advantage of the opening.

In our mind's eye we can readily see the college prof throwing aside his false dignified looks, his icy stare, and then scrambling in mad haste for something which he has strived for for years—specifically, his dreamboat containing 30 saw-bones a week. My, what luxuries for a prof who has just about despaired of ever realizing his ambitions.

And then will come the downfall of mankind. If every college professor quit his job while the Ham & Eggs were being fried for years and years, who would teach the student? And since there is no answer to that question, there would soon be no students. No students, no progress—or simply, the downfall of civilization!

IT CAN'T HAPPEN HERE!

This can't happen to us. We won't let it. We'll show 'em. We'll throw in another proposal to run competition to Ham and Eggs. What better name would there be for this than "Pork and Beans". We can see the slogan now: Vote for Pork & Beans. Thirty dollars every week to the college student between 18 and 40."

This Pork & Beans proposition is bound to go across in a big way. Everyone knows that Pork & Beans is primarily a dinner dish, that ham and eggs are most popular in the morning. And we ask you—which meal is on the minds of the majority of the people the majority of the time? It's DINNER. Naturally, the voters will soon learn to associate dinner with pork and beans, and here's how each and every voter will fill out his ballot:

Pork & Beans..... X
Ham and Eggs.....
A drink of water, please.

Coaches Amos Alonzo Stagg and Dud DeGroot renew their rivalry Friday night at Stockton when their College of Pacific and San Jose State elevens meet in the little "Big Game". Since coming to C.O.P. in 1933, Stagg has failed to win a victory over DeGroot's Spartans. The nearest he came was in 1935 when the teams played a 0-0 tie.

Thrust and Parry

(Ed. Note: This column expresses the writer's views. The Spartan Daily assumes no responsibility for the opinions expressed.)

SMALL PRUNES

Dear Thrust and Parry:
The poll to decide if women shall remain in the marching unit of the San Jose State band is pretty small prunes. On looking 'em over last Friday night, the marching was fine and the formations well executed. The impressive part was that the women did just as well as the men; in fact, they kept formation better than some of the favored gentlemen.

I understand our band was judged the best marching, best playing college band on the coast. And yet, when U.S.C.'s impressive array of male stalwarts bore down Colorado street in Pasadena's Rose Bowl Parade, the cheering could be heard to the high Heavens. What a sight—fast-stepping, loud blasting—but the uniforms! That was what caught the notice of the crowd. To impress the technicians in Hollywood our band is the best playing and marching is fine, but to impress over 1,000,000 people by just hiking about 5 miles, tooting now and then, is worth much more to any school.

To sum it all up—IT IS THE UNIFORM THAT COUNTS. So, let us forget who is in the band and concentrate on how they appear to the public. Our band, the best on the coast for performance, has every right to be the best for appearance, too. Let us all get behind a movement for a layout of snappy, military uniforms for them. The girls fit in fine, but it is their uniforms that don't fit.

—K. Frick.

MY DEAR MISS CLARK:

It seems you are very anxious to meet our student body president. Although he is very busy, I know he will be only too happy to have you stop in his office in the Student Union anytime. For further information concerning our student body president, call Col. 2835 and ask for Hugh Staley. As for Dr. MacQuarrie, I am sure he would be delighted to meet such an inspiring young lady, but I feel it would be more appropriate if you would go to his office and introduce yourself, rather than have him come to you.

As for the duties of the Rally committee, Miss Clark, we are always open to suggestions and constructive criticism, but your letter gave us no suggestions that have not already been tried and your criticism was certainly anything but constructive. If you are really sincere about helping the school, Miss Clark, we suggest you take your helpful suggestions to the proper people in person, rather than show your ignorance of school affairs before the whole student body.

S. J. BOARD OF STRATEGY MEETS

Pictured above in a typical pose this week is the San Jose board of football strategy composed of Advisory Coach "Pop" Warner and Head Mentor Dud DeGroot. With the battle of the "veterans" to be held Friday evening in the C.O.P. stadium, Coaches Warner and DeGroot are working overtime in preparation for the grid gigantic.

Soccerites Face Menlo J. C. Team On Wednesday

Spartans Still Threat For N.C.I. Title

Coach Hovey McDonald's hard-luck soccer team, having finally shaken off the bad effects of the unexpected tie with the University of California Bears on Saturday, went back to work yesterday with new vigor in preparation for its game with Menlo junior college on Wednesday.

VICTORY HUNGRY

The soccer team has yet to taste the juice of victory this season, but, according to pre-game dope, tomorrow's contest with the peninsula squad should give the men from Sparta credit in the win column.

With a heavy schedule for the week already set, the Spartan reserves will be given a chance to show their wares on Wednesday. The veterans, who performed so well against the Golden Bears, will be kept in reserve until needed, in order that they will be at full strength for their league game with USF on Saturday.

UNIT INTACT

The same team that has started the last two games will in all probability stay intact this week. Jim Fahn, who was out of the Bear game with an ankle injury, may return to the Spartan fold in time for Saturday's game.

Tigers, Spartans In Top Shape For Big Game

LOCALS LOOK GOOD IN DRILLS AGAINST STAGG PLAYS

College of Pacific will be in top physical and mental shape for their little "Big Game" with our San Jose Spartan footballers in Stockton next Friday night.

The Tigers were idle last week-end, and the rest allowed three of Amos Alonzo Stagg's stars to recuperate from injuries. Unless bangings-up are received in practice this week, the C.O.P. team will be at full strength for San Jose.

Al Irwin, stellar guard who sustained a hip pointer against Loyola, is expected to be in playing shape and will give the Stagmen added strength in the line. Roy Cooper and Dick Bentley, backs, should be ready after having been out with injuries for nearly two weeks.

GOOD PHYSICAL CONDITION

San Jose is enjoying the same physical condition as the Tigers, with nearly the whole squad in suit for yesterday's practice. Doan Carmody, injured guard, is ready again after being out with a bashed-up nose.

The gist of the Spartan's practice session last night was a heavy drill against College of Pacific plays. Assistant Coach Bill Hubbard took a squad of reserves and ran an assortment of Amos Alonzo Stagg's plays while Dud DeGroot took his first two units and set up a defense to be used against Tiger offensive thrusts.

TIGER PLAYS STOPPED

Going at top speed, the Spartan defense stopped Tiger plays cold and had little trouble solving Stagg's man-in-motion formations.

"Pop" Warner handled the first string of Allen and Johnson at ends; Bronzan and Tornell at tackles; Cook and Presley at guards; Capt. Titchenal at center; Dave Titchenal at quarterback; Minter and Manoogian at halves; and Peregoy, alternating with Zimmerman, at fullback.

The "Old Fox" worked over the Spartan offense, reviewing San Jose's repertoire of plays and adding a few new ones.

Frosh Waterpolo Team Loses To Palo Alto High

Mermen Drop Third Game Of Year, 7-4

San Jose State freshman water polo team lost their third straight water polo game of the year yesterday afternoon, 4-7, to Palo Alto high school.

The game was loosely played compared to their strong showing made against the California freshmen last week. San Jose forwards missed shots consistently.

Wylie, center forward of the high school team, was high scorer making four digits. He was followed by Shirokoff, center forward of San Jose, who made three.

The game with the San Francisco Jewish Center which was scheduled next Friday in the Jewish Center pool may be shifted to Wednesday and be played in the Spartan pool, water polo officials announced.

The lineups for the San Jose Frosh-Palo Alto high game are as follows:

SAN JOSE	Pos.	PALO ALTO
Morse (1)	LF	(2) Keeler
Shirokoff (3)	CF	(4) Wylie
Porter	RF	(1) Winse
Litten	LF	West
Armstrong	CB	Lockey
Wathen	RB	Willard
Frelier	GG	Urkhart

Ratings Are Set In Badminton

Preliminary rankings of badminton players were listed yesterday by Coach Bill Hubbard. These ratings have been arbitrarily assigned and may be changed by the results of challenge competition.

No player may challenge higher than the second player above his position. Challenge matches are to be played at the mutual convenience of the players, with the challenger furnishing the bird.

Results of all challenge matches are to be reported to Coach Hubbard as soon as possible.

Badminton players are listed in the order of their rankings:

TICKET INFO'

Faculty cards will be honored at the San Jose State-College of Pacific game next Friday night at Stockton, it was announced yesterday by Graduate Manager Walt McPherson.

For students who want to buy tickets for parents and friends, there are still a few ducats obtainable in McPherson's office, but according to yesterday's sales, they are selling fast.

END SPOT WEAKENED AS FRESHMEN PREP FOR ST. MARY'S TILT

An epidemic of injuries in the left end spot as the result of Friday night's losing battle against the San Mateo eleven leaves Coach Tiny Hartranft shy three capable wingmen for Saturday night's "Big Little Game" between the Spartlet eleven and St. Mary's freshmen.

Forrest Michaelis, diminutive flanker who had just earned his starting spurs, was the important casualty of the San Mateo contest. Michaelis, although weighing but 165 pounds, was developing into one of the best ends on the squad, and will be definitely out of the Gael tilt.

Bayard Neilson and Fred Allen, substitute pass snaggers, will also be out for the rest of the week. These two boys have figured heavily in bolstering the Spartlet line, and their absence will be a definite loss.

Charles Boster, dependable fullback, was the fourth San Jose player to come off the gridiron injured in the San Mateo battle. Boster, who has been playing on the second team due to the brilliant playing of Captain Al Alviso, will also remain on the sidelines this week.

The Gael-San Jose battle will be the only contest in this territory on Saturday evening and as a result the Spartans fans are expected to turn out en masse for the yearling game. This is the first time this season that Hartranft's charges have been given the opportunity to be the main attraction and as a result are gunning for their first win of the year.

A meeting of all girls interested in joining the Tennis club please meet in Women's gym at 12:15 today.—Amie Amizich, pres.

ARCHERY CLUB HOLDS SIGN-UP

Archery club members must sign up today in the Women's gym for a tournament to be held at noon Wednesdays and Thursdays for the next two weeks, Mary Lou Dougan, Archery club president, announced yesterday.

She further stated that sign-ups should be either for both Wednesdays or both Thursdays. Fifty and forty-yard distances will be shot the first week and thirty-yard distance and a novelty event the second week. Anyone who has had experience shooting is more than welcome to join the Archery club and participate in the tournament, she also announced.

Practice targets will also be set up for students not wishing to participate in the tournament.

Dave Titchenal Wins $5.50 Meal Ticket

Archie's Steak House has awarded this week's $5.50 merchandise order to Dave Titchenal as the outstanding football player in the San Jose State-San Diego State game Friday night.

Titchenal was selected for his brilliant quarterbacking, and line backing, that made him stand head and shoulders above the rest.

CAMP GROUPS MEET SUNDAY AT LOS GATOS

Members of camp leadership groups will hold a party Sunday at the Los Gatos Boy Scout troop cabin, it was announced yesterday.

All groups, except the hiking and campcraft section which will conduct a hike in Laurel canyon beforehand, will meet at the Science building at 2:30 p.m., according to Tom Wilson, in charge of transportation.

Various sections are scheduled to give demonstrations of their activities. Campcraft section will be in charge of food, under the chairmanship of Eleanor Fleishman. Indoor games and songs will be led by John and Virginia Harville, and the mythology section will give a demonstration on how to point out stars to campers, camp leaders announced. Outdoor games are in charge of Bob Thorp.

Boxing Program Sponsored By Newmanites

All Catholic men students are invited to the "Boxer" program sponsored by the Newman club at their residence tonight at eight o'clock.

The schedule of entertainment will include a tumbling act by Jim Fahn, a boxing match with George Konashima and Dick Miakayo as contestants, and a Judo exhibition.

Bowling and pool facilities will be at the disposal of the students. Refreshments will be served and arrangements are being made for an outside speaker.

ART EXHIBITS IN LIBRARY DISPLAY

Samples of class weaving done by Miss Susan Byrne's class are on display in the library showcase.

Recently exhibited at the Palace of Fine Arts at Treasure Island, the weaving collection features various types of weaving patterns.

Finn Weave, a sample of Inkle Loom weaving, several table mats, two shawls of Spanish Lace weave, some examples of Egyptian Card weaving, and a rug of Norwegian lightning weave are to be seen in the exhibit.

In the hall showcases are displayed three pictures of some types of weaves.

Students Invited To Spanish Frat Meet

All Spanish speaking students at State are invited to attend a meeting of Sigma Delta Pi, national Spanish honor society, tomorrow night at the home of Dr. L. C. Newby at 7:30 o'clock.

Entertainment will be provided by Dr. Newby, who will show color slides of his trip through Mexico this summer.

Anyone interested in going to the meeting, who is without means of transportation, is requested to see Miss Meta Goldsmith of the Language department in Room 33A today or tomorrow and leave his name and address.

Talia said the meeting will be over to give members plenty of time to get to the rally.

Stone Becomes Vegetarian On Photo Journey

Mr. George E. Stone, assistant photography professor, is back on a normal diet after three days of taking pictures of many of the famous paintings at the Exposition.

"My helper is a vegetarian," he explains, "so to be agreeable and practical I shared the same diet. We warmed up some canned vegetables under a painting of Queen Elizabeth on an electric heater which I took along."

The work had to be done during the night, he said, to avoid confusion and provide access to all the paintings.

"I finally went to Hammond's turkish bath, to get some sleep after trying for two days," he said. "Hotels aren't made to sleep in in the daytime, anyway."

Over one hundred pictures which will be used by the San Jose School board, Stockton junior college, and classes in San Jose State college were taken by the photographers.
