ALL-CITY PARADE PLANNED FOR TOMORROW AT ELEVEN

Football Team Honored

Hey, guys and gals, there's gonna be a parade!

Honoring the Spartans' great untied and undefeated football team, and particularly the eighteen senior members who will play their final game for San Jose Thursday against Drake university, the college, the City of San Jose, yes, and even the County of Santa Clara, will join in a gesture of enthusiasm and appreciation with a parade through the downtown streets at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Students of the college, official organizations of the city and county, service clubs, and scads of just plain ordinary citizens who are steamed up over San Jose's "Dream Team", will participate. Strike up the band and let 'er roll!

Classes? There ain't gonna be no classes. At 11 o'clock tomorrow morning the college will transfer session to San Carlos street opposite the men's gym, where the State college section of the parade will organize.

The parade will form immediately at the conclusion of class meetings, for which all other classes, beginning at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning have been excused.

Students of the college will march by classes, an innovation in State college parades. Class leaders will be urged to provide proper identification for their sections. Sirens, horns, noise makers of all kinds, will be in order. Jalopies are extended special invitation if their horns will blow.

The demonstration, unique in San Jose State college history, arose from a spontaneous demand by both students and San Jose residents to publicly express enthusiasm for the team.

STUDENT HOP HONORS GRID HEROES

Last student body evening dance of the quarter will be held Friday night in the men's gym, announces Selma Kann, head of the Social Affairs committee.

Honoring the undefeated football team, the dance will follow the San Jose State-Drake grid classic, the game which closes the season for the local eleven.

Students will be admitted on presentation of their student body cards. Outsiders accompanied by students will be charged the usual 25-cent fee, the chairman announced.

Andy Cooper TO ISLANDS As Radioman

...an so Andy Cooper donned his nice new sailor suit an' came back to State to dazzle all the co-eds . . .

Andy, former president of the San Jose State college Radio club, returned to the campus last week to take a final glance around . . . and, incidentally, to show off his new uniform.

Cooper's resignation was necessitated by his acceptance of the position of radio operator, first class, in the naval reserve at Lualualei, Hawaii. Cooper left San Francisco Saturday on the U.S.N.T. Antares for Pearl Harbor, Honolulu, where he'll be transferred to his new post.

Choral Speaking Topic Of Talk Tonight

Mr. Kent Kent-Barber of Berkeley, will speak in the Little Theater tonight on the subject of verse choirs and choral speaking in England.

Mr. Kent-Barber has worked with Marjorie Gullen, pioneer of choral speaking in England for several years, and, according to Miss Margaret Douglas of the Speech department, is a recognized authority on the subject.

"What he says should be of special interest to English and especially speech majors," stated Miss Douglas last week. She also stated that in England choral speaking is used out of school groups as it is in, and is also used as we in America use glee clubs and community singing.

Everyone is invited, including off campus people, as well as the members of the student body.

ANNUAL DAILY TOY PILE DRIVE OPENS

When you were a little kid, did you ever wish you were "Sandy Claws"?

Well, here's a chance for you to be a real "Sandy Claws", and no long white whiskers, either!

The fifth annual Toy Pile, sponsored by the Spartan Daily, gives everyone a chance to play at being Saint Nick and to lend a hand in convincing a lot of less fortunate children that all this "bulloney" about a Merry Christmas isn't such a lotta hokey after all.

ANSWER TO PLEA

Five years ago the Spartan Daily began the Toy Pile in answer to a plea for something more than the various community charities could handle.

Each year the tiny heap of toys under the decorated boughs of the Publications' Christmas tree has grown from a few scattered trinkets to a large stack of toys, some old, some new, but all contributed in the same friendly spirit.

REPAIRED BY FIREMEN

The toys are turned over at the end of the quarter to the San Jose Fire department, to be repaired and distributed to charity organizations throughout the city.

If you have an old set of blocks or a discarded doll or toy automobile kicking around the house, why not bring it to the tree in the Publications office and donate it to a cause as worthy, in its own way, as any nationwide charity?

SPARTANS SWAMP BULLDOGS WITH LAST PERIOD TOUCHDOWN SPREE

By PONY SWENSON

The Greeks never had a word for it! Mr. Webster's dictionary doesn't contain an adjective to describe it! That sums up the San Jose Spartans' 42-7 triumph over the Fresno Bulldogs in the "raisin city" last Thursday.

ALL CLASSES CONVENE TOMORROW

For the second time this quarter Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie will ring the general assembly bell tomorrow at ten o'clock, at which time all San Jose State students will be dismissed to attend their respective class meetings.

Freshmen will convene in the Morris Dailey auditorium, while sophomores will occupy the large science lecture room, 112, during the hour session. Both classes will devote some time to making plans for the Frosh-Soph Mixer, which is scheduled for next quarter.

Juniors and seniors will meet together in the Little Theater to witness forty minutes of entertainment to be provided by both classes.

Drake Ticket Sale Continued For Indefinite Period

Extended indefinitely is the deadline for the purchase of special 75-cent student and faculty tickets to the Drake-San Jose State Elk's-sponsored charity football fracas in Spartan Stadium, Thursday night, November 30.

Sale of the reduced price ducats should increase rapidly starting today, now that the Fresno game excitement is out of the way, states Controller Neil Thomas.

Sections 'K' and 'L', between the twenty- and forty-five-yard lines, on the east side of the stadium, have been reserved for the student rooting section.

Students planning to attend the game are asked to buy their tickets in the controller's office as soon as possible, in order that the remaining ducats may be placed on sale at the regular full prices.

FROSH WOMEN COUNCIL MEETS

The planning council of the Freshman Women's club of the YWCA will meet this afternoon at four o'clock in room 14.

Further plans for a pot-luck supper with the "43" club will be made. It was decided by the group that food for this supper would be supplied by the girls while the boys would supply the entertainment for the evening.

In crushing the Bulldogs for their twelfth straight victory and the California Collegiate Conference championship, the Spartans reduced a smooth-functioning Fresno grid machine into a piece of battered wreckage; they outsmarted a team that was reputed to have as much brain as brawn; they outfought a gang whose keynote was courage; they walloped the only other unbeaten, untied football team on the Pacific coast.

FRESNO THREATENS

The 42-7 score is a paradoxical one and it was anybody's ball game up until the final quarter when a 26-point bomb shell hurled by the Spartans blasted the hapless Bulldogs out of Blackstone stadium. San Jose's 16-7 edge at the end of the third quarter didn't look any too big, for the Fresnoans were a threat every time they gained possession of the ball.

Big Bob Peterson, Fresno's plunging fullback, was a real heller as a ball carrier, and he ripped the Spartan forward wall into shreds to personally account for 137 yards from scrimmage in 14 tries. On several jaunts he crashed and hip-swerved his way into the opening, only to be overtaken by speedier Spartan secondary men.

SPARTANS TOO SMART

But the Spartans had the smarter ball club. When Fresno made an error, the San Joseans capitalized on it. They got the breaks and made the most of them. In possession.

ENTOMOLOGY LECTURE TOMORROW

Mr. Thomas Aitken, University of California entomologist, will give an illustrated lecture tomorrow night at 7:30 in room S210.

The lecture will be on the topic of mosquitoes and malaria in California and is sponsored by the Entomology club. It is open to the public.

Mr. Aitken is a specialist in medical entomology and has collaborated with Dr. W. B. Herms of the University of California on a federal and state survey of mosquitoes and mosquito-borne diseases in California.

"This is one of the most important surveys taken in this state," asserts Dr. Carl Duncan, professor of botany. "The survey included a check on the relationship between the influx of Dust Bowl refugees and mosquito-borne diseases. It was found that the Oakies contributed to an increase in incidence and variety of these diseases."

Junior-Senior Mixer In Men's Gym Tomorrow

A day of merriment, beginning with a joint junior-senior meeting in the morning and climaxed by the Junior-Senior Mixer in the evening is in store for upper classmen tomorrow.

Forty minutes of entertainment provided by both classes under the chairmanship of Bill Newby of the juniors and Helen Smith of the seniors will hold the spotlight from ten to eleven o'clock in the Little Theater. Advisers of both classes will be on hand to give addresses of welcome. Six student acts have been scheduled.

With evening activities beginning at seven o'clock those attending will enjoy a half hour of inter-class basketball immediately followed by a dance to the music of Johnny Cooper and his seven-piece orchestra. Carlton Peregoy promises a senior team that will give the junior line-up, organized by Warner Keeley, a real battle.

All freshmen and sophomores have been warned by Senior President Ham Hodgson to keep away from the gymnasium under penalty of being "clipped".

Further entrance regulations include the stipulation that seniors only will use the front door with all juniors using the back door. A charge of ten cents per person will be made.

Members of the senior committee are requested by Hodgson to meet at 12:30 today in Dean Pitman's office to complete arrangements for the affair. Also asked to be present are Juniors Warner Keeley and Bill Newby.

Once Again, The Toy Pile...

Today the Spartan Daily begins its fifth annual Toy Pile drive. In a few weeks there will be an accumulation of toys under the Publications office Christmas tree that will bring joy to many children.

Through the combined efforts of the San Jose Fire department, Spartan Daily, and the students of the college, many underprivileged children are now sure of a Christmas, where they wouldn't be if this was not possible.

May we ask that all organizations and individuals in the college consider being part of the many who will contribute toward this cause. If there is an old toy around the house that with a little paint and glue might be made into serviceable condition, bring it into the Daily office and place it beneath the tree. No matter what condition the toy is in, bring it in anyway for the Fire department has assumed the responsibility of repairing it.

Let's be responsible for making this Christmas a real enjoyable one and make it this way for a great deal more children than ever before.

—Maynard.

Merchants of San Jose
San Jose, California
Gentlemen:

A MILLION AND A HALF DOLLAR MARKET AWAITS YOU!
Are you getting your share of this money? The 4100 students of San Jose State college spend over $1,500,000 in San Jose, as actually computed on the basis of registration statistics. Did you ever stop to figure your potential profit in this immense market? If you could just get one-fifth of this business, it would probably net you between $300 and $400, speaking conservatively.

Do you wish to know how you can obtain your share or increase your share of this gigantic market? Of course you do. The answer is advertising in the SPARTAN DAILY. Every one of the 4100 students and teachers at San Jose State college read the Spartan Daily five days a week.

Do you wish to know the details of how you may get your share of this business? Of course you do—just pick up the telephone and call Ballard 7800 and ask a student representative to call and thoroughly explain our service to you. Don't neglect.

Remember: A MILLION AND A HALF DOLLAR MARKET AWAITS YOU.

Sincerely yours,
Dick Ofstad
Business Manager.

NOTICE

There will be a meeting of the "Racket Busting" cast and also for all other interested students, today, in the Radio Speaking club room, 12 o'clock noon.

NOTICE

Artisans! Meeting tonight at the club house, 8:00 o'clock. Please try to be there. Bring November dues if possible.

SCANNING THE STACKS By IRENE MELTON

"Let Your Mind Alone!" . . . 80
advises James Thurber in his book of the same name, to be found in the Gold Star collection in the library . . . which command is welcome, if not entirely new, for some students.

SPUM . . . isn't double talk but a new word to be found in another Gold Star book, also with a peremptory title, "Don't Say It", by John Opdycke. The four letters represent Spelling, Pronunciation, Use, and Meaning, which Opdycke calls the "four heavy mortgages on dictionary property".

The book contains a list of the 12 most illiterate negatives, which causes the reader to vow he'll say "aint" . . . "never no more".

And still on the Gold Star books, there is an interesting work on the observation of the social lives of ants, an intriguing, if somewhat unusual, subject. By Caryl P. Haskins, Ph. D., Research Associate at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, its title is "Of Ants And Men" . . . and the other book with a similar name didn't do so badly, either.

Trail-blazers with the pioneer spirit will find worthwhile a new book by John Bakeless entitled "Daniel Boone . . . Master of the Wilderness". This has recently been added to the stacks.

Another stack addition is a book on William T. Coleman, "Lion of the Vigilantes". The life of old San Francisco is vividly and graphically told by James A. B. Scherer.

Camera Aids In Curing Voice

By DON PETERSON

"Cured by a Camera" or "Photography Folds the Physician" might be a good title for this little episode which occurred in photography lab recently.

"CURE-ALL"

Photography has never been considered a branch of the medical profession, however during this lab session it came into its own as a "cure-all", according to Photography Instructor George E. Stone.

One often hears of a person being scared speechless when they have to face a camera; well, this time that situation was reversed, Mr. Stone declared.

VOICE RETURNS

For when Miss Betty Finley sat down to pose for a portrait, she was so hoarse that she was hardly able to speak. Then after sitting under the glare of flood lights for a few minutes being "shot" she discovered her voice had returned and she could talk quite fluently.

What makes this even more remarkable is the fact that a few minutes before she had her picture taken, Miss Finley was unable to speak loud enough and Mr. Stone marked her absent.

BETTER TAKE FRENCH IF You Really Wanna Make Love!

By BEN FRIZZI

Study up on your French, and you're a cinch in this business of love-making. Take it from no one other than Mr. L. C. Newby of the Language department, who, although he lays no claim to being an authority on love-making, is quite an authority on languages.

GERMANS ABRUPT

He compares the smooth euphony of the French with the abruptness of the German language and comes up with this: The smooth French are able to say "Je vous aime, je vous adore, que voulez vous, que je dise encore". Which means "I love you, I adore you, what do you desire, that I say more." The more abrupt German would say "Ich liebendich, mich reizt deine, schone gestalt, und bist du nicht willig, so brauch' ich gewalt". Which means "I love you, your beautiful form entrances me, and if you're not willing I'll use force."

This is enough to scare the girl away, says Mr. Newby, while the Frenchman would probably have the girl responding very nicely to his pretty speech. The trouble with the German lovers, states Mr. Newby, is that they consider themselves far superior to their women. He cites a typical German expression associated with matrimony, "Er hat sich verheiratet", meaning "He has married himself DOWN". This superiority has been handed down through the ages. In the old day, according to Dr. Newby, young German bucks would go riding into the country on their horses and if they spied a maiden whom they liked, they would carry her away right then and there.

ROMANTIC GERMANS

Perhaps the most "romantic" old German way of wooing was for the young lover to go to the base of his maiden's castle and play a musical instrument. If the girl accepted his love, she would lower a basket with rope attached to pull her up. And if she did not care for his attention she would lower a basket—with the bottom cut out.

French may be the most euphonic language, but when emotions get the best of a person it is natural to resort to the mother tongue, Mr. Newby believes. However, he warns Yankee lovers in a foreign country like France to avoid a sudden change to English if pursuing a native French maiden.

She may take the jumble of foreign words as an insult and leave in a huff.

Thrust and Parry

(Ed. Note: This column expresses the writer's views. The Spartan Daily assumes no responsibility for the opinions expressed.)

The Gentleman Wants To Know

Open letter to Jack Duttweiler c/o Thrust & Parry
Dear Jack:

In your column—"Corn off the Cob", under date of November 22, you raised the question as to what "selfish" reason President Roosevelt had for "shoving Thanksgiving up a whole week".

Whether that remark was to be taken literally, or as a joke is rather hazy. As a joke, it would pass on a very dark night; but if it is to be taken literally, I think you have the wrong idea.

Why are the majority of merchants in favor of the change? Because it grants more time between Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays. Did you know that Thanksgiving was originally celebrated in October at harvest time? Why should this change be called "selfish"; the date is not technically right either way. Why is Herbert Hoover opposed? He's a Republican. Are you? Would turkey on the 23rd taste less good than on the 30th. If Mr. Turkey doesn't complain about getting killed a week early why should you complain about eating him a week early? How about it?

—A CURIOUS FRESHMAN

Dear Thrust & Parry:

I have been told that a new and larger library is to be built for us. As a student and a taxpayer I wish to register my protest. During all the frequent intervals when I have found it necessary to read texts or write papers and have gone to the library with this end in view, I have always found, instead of the atmosphere of quiet and study, (which I perhaps naively expected), an atmosphere that approached the "clash and clamor of the market place".

The Student Union is a much more restful place, and after pondering the situation, I decided that it must be due to the smaller seating capacity. Therefore, why build a larger library capable of containing more loud mumbler, infernal debaters, and other garrulous types? The logical expectation is even more noise than at present and less opportunity for study.

Seriously, I am very disappointed to find so many students who are thoughtless or inconsiderate. Why can't we "cut the chatter" and sit profit thereby?

—Signed,

Spartans Turn On Heat To Score Twelfth Victory

Talk of a "bowl" bid runs high, now that the Spartans have disposed of their biggest worry, the Fresno Bulldogs. The Spartans have the record and everything that it takes to rate an invitation to one of the coveted January 1st games.

GEOGRAPHY—But there's a monkey wrench in the works that we've overlooked. Let's take a look at where the principal (outside of the Rose) "bowl" games are held: The Sugar Bowl, New Orleans, La.; the Orange Bowl, Miami, Florida; the Sun Bowl, El Paso, Texas; the Cotton Bowl, Dallas, Texas. All these cities are located south of the Mason-Dixon Line, and the trouble lies therein.

DEMOCRACY? NOT YET—Race prejudice still exists in the South. More than a lot of us realize. A lot of them still believe that the colored boy hasn't any right to walk on the same side of the street with a white boy, much less play football with him. Take for instance a case that confronted Santa Barbara State college last year. The Gauchos scheduled a game with a Texas team, but the latter aggregation refused to play the Californians unless they ruled a Negro end out of the contest. Wisely, Santa Barbara officials refused and the game was called off.

WHAT ABOUT US?—Now San Jose has three colored boys on the team, and they are three of the finest, clean cut young men you would ever want to meet. It ought to be their privilege to play football anytime and at anyplace, but everyone doesn't see it that way in the South.

If San Jose does get a bid to one of the aforementioned "bowls" it might be with the stipulation to leave these boys home. If that is the case, I hope we'll tell the "bowl" officials to "go jump in a lake", and stay home and watch "Jimmy", Titchenal, and Bronzan play in the East-West game New Year's day.

'TINY' WARNS BADMINTONERS

With resumption of the intramural badminton tournament today, after the holiday layoff, Coach Tiny Hartman has given several warnings to participants. Players are scheduled to be in the gym at 12:10 on the days they are to play, but as the gym is in use most of the noon hour it will be necessary to play at some other time. Participants are to see their opponents and arrange meeting times. If a player does not show up by 12:20 or make arrangements he has to forfeit, Hartman said. The gym is free from 8:00 to 9:00 in the mornings and from 2:00 to 4:00 in the afternoons. Players are warned by Hartman to post the results of the matches on the bulletin board in the gym.

sion of the ball on the Fresno 10-yard line, the Spartans pulled a neat piece of strategy that fooled 15,000 football fans and 11 Bulldog gridmen.

Setting up in a place kick formation with Ken Cook scheduled to take a shot at the uprights, Half-back Hugh Staley took Titchenal's pass from center, threw a lateral to the would-be kicker who lobbed the ball to Herm Zetterquist for a completed pass and touchdown. Cook then added the extra point to give San Jose a 7-0 lead with a minute to play in the first quarter.

Before Fresno could recover from shock, San Jose had another touchdown before the second quarter was two minutes old. George Terry snapped up a Bulldog fumble on the enemies' 29, and on the first play Leroy Zimmerman faked a reverse to Manoogian, zoomed through a hole at center, cut sharply to his right and raced to score untouched by the secondary that had "sucked" over to trap Manoogian. Manoogian tried for extra point but missed.

'ZIM' AGAIN

A march originating on San Jose's 30 and featuring some beautiful work by Carlton Perego and Herm Zetterquist was halted by Fresno on the one-yard line, but it touched off the fireworks that featured the dizzy fourth quarter. Two cracks at the Spartan line by Peterson moved the ball out to the 18 where Fresno elected to pass with Lawless doing the throwing. Zimmerman, who had replaced Perego shortly before, made a one-handed running catch of Lawless' throw and sped 33 yards for a touchdown. Manoogian's kick missed.

Zimmerman again gummed up Fresno's attempted aerial thrusts by intercepting another pass on the Bulldog 35 and advancing to the 19. "Zim" followed his interception with a pass to Ed Wenberg on the 7. A Spartan running play failed, so the San Joseans again took to the air with Zimmerman pitching to Buell Clement who well over for the touchdown. Zimmerman converted.

HIT 'JACK-POT'

At this point only a few minutes remained in the ball game, but the Spartans had hit the scoring "jack-pot" and there was no stopping them. Taking over on the Bulldog 37, the Spartans began to march with Hubbell's pass from that point to Bill Clark on the 29 making it easier. Two Spartan plays went wrong, shoving them back to the 30, but Hugh Staley hammered the ball down to the 13 on two tries. Hubbell cracked the center of the line and moved down to the two and from that point he scored on the next play. Staley's drop kick missed.

San Jose's kickoff was returned to Fresno's 12 and two plays later a bad pass from center got away from Ernie Poore and Spartan Al Tamborini recovered for a touchdown. Staley then converted, twenty seconds remained on the scoreboard, and the fans "threw in the towel" for the Bulldogs. Thousands swarmed onto the playing field

Lacy Wins Third Fight In Orient

San Jose State's traveling five-man boxing team fought to a draw with the Japanese All-Stars in Tokio last week. This makes two draws and one defeat for the college aggregation since they arrived in Japan over a month ago.

Con Lacy, featherweight, won his third straight fight when he outpointed Matsudama. Bill Sellers, batamweight, took a decision over Otha.

James Kincaid, last year's team captain, fighting in the weather-weight class, and Charles Kerwin, lightweight, lost decisions to Bun and Tei, respectively.

where a melee around the goal posts ensued, forcing the officials to call the game.

BULLDOGS BITE

With Peterson carrying the ball on a "sucker" play through the center of the Spartan line, Fresno threatened often, but stung only once an 85-yard run that originated with "Plunging Pete" running from his own 15 past the mid-field stripe where he lateraled to Roueh, who lateraled to Mulkey who went over for the score. Mulkey kicked for the extra point.

Thirteen points ahead of a constantly threatening Fresno team, San Jose called on the Spartan "meal-ticket", Ken Cook, to toe through a field goal, and the drawling Texan obliged with a difficult angle kick that traveled from 31 yards out. San Jose got into position when Don Presley blocked Les Terry's kick and Manoogian recovered on the 15.

The usual stars again stood out for the Spartans, but it was Half-back Hugh Staley who delivered and made good in his first starting role in the backfield.

Soccermen Win, Tie

Invading southern California over the holidays, the San Jose State college soccer team came through with a win and a tie against the UCLA Bruins and the Los Angeles City college Bulldogs.

The Spartans defeated the Bruins 5-1, with Fortune Masdeo, Gene Robles, Bill Dwyer, Fred Albright, and Bevo O'Connor each scoring a goal apiece.

Against the City college eleven, San Jose battled to a scoreless tie.

Game For Crown Ends In Flurry Of Fisticuffs

By FRANK BONANNO

San Jose State's hopes for the Northern California Intercollegiate Conference soccer title faded in the falling dusk of Spartan Field on Wednesday afternoon as the mighty Spartans fell before the onslaught of the University of California Bears, 2 to 1.

The Spartans, fighting with their backs to the wall for the entire first half, found the determined "Golden Bears" putting over two scores at the outset of the third period and then settling back contented to defend their two-point margin.

FAHN SCORES

San Jose, after blowing higher than a kite in the first half and bobbling two opportunities to score, came into their own late in the third period. Little Gus Kotta and Freddie Albright set the stage for the only Spartan tally with their fine ball-handling. It was Albright's placement kick that enabled Jim Fahn to boot the ball into the net for the only Spartan score.

Late in the final period the Spartans started one last desperate effort to tie up the ball game, which would have given San Jose the soccer title. Gene Rocchi and Fortune Masdeo drove the ball within the shadows of the Bears' goal where Bill Dwyer kicked the ball over the net instead of through it in his over-excitement.

FISTICUFFS

The playing of these two great teams was highlighted by the near riot that ensued in the final minute of the hectic ball game. Both teams, playing a desperate type of game, became over-anxious and a bit excited. Early in the second period the referee was forced to break up a fist fight between Gus Kotta and one unidentified Bear player. Again in the last minute of the game, with San Jose trying to score the tying point, a near riot broke out.

Both teams went at it hammer and tong. The spectators finally swarmed down onto the field and before order could be restored the game was called by the referee.

For San Jose, Albright, Rocchi, O'Connor, and Goalie Hill played good ball. McDonald and sixteen players left immediately after the game for Los Angeles, where they played two games.

Last Tuberculin Tests Given Today At 12:30

Students of San Jose State will have their last chance to receive tuberculosis tests the last time this quarter today between 12:30 and 1:00. Tests will be checked Wednesday.

"I would like to have all students from the different eating places on the campus or anyone handling food to take this test immediately if they have not already done so," comments Miss Twombly, head of the Health department.

Miss Twombly also wants all students who took the test earlier in the quarter, but never came back to have them checked, to come in again on Monday.

ASSOCIATION DINNER FOR YMCA-YWCA

For the purpose of boosting the Asilomar Conference and encouraging delegates to attend, the YWCA and YMCA will hold an Association Supper Wednesday night at 5:30 in the city YMCA. A turkey dinner will be served as a feature of the evening.

The theme of the supper will be "In this World of Strife—Stop, Listen, Think!" Dr. Elliot Van N. Dikler, chaplain and professor of philosophy at Mills College will be the speaker of the evening.

Student speakers will be Virginia Woodham, Dorothy Baldwin, Frank Gettinger and Lester Ruddell. The "Musketeers", male quartet, will sing several selections and group singing will be led by Harrill Johnson.

Chairmen of the Association Supper, Ken Bailey and Claire Lundell, state that tickets for the supper may be secured in the 'Y' room or from cabinet members for 35 cents.

SPARTAN SPEARS AID IN SALE OF CHRISTMAS SEALS

Spartan Spears, sophomore women's service organization, at their meeting last week prepared, approximately five thousand envelopes with Santa Clara County Tuberculosis Association Christmas seals in them.

The Spears will fill about six thousand more envelopes, according to Miss Margaret Twombly, faculty adviser. Miss Twombly states that they prepare approximately half the envelopes which the Tuberculosis Association sends out annually.

Peregoy And Tornell Win Meal Tickets

Carlton Peregoy and Deward Tornell were the winners of the $5.50 meal ticket, donated by Archie's Steak House, for their fine individual playing in the Fresno-San Jose State game.

Peregoy and Tornell each get a ticket, according to Archie, who stated Friday that both men played superb ball and the choice resulted in a tie.

Hugh Staley won the free cleaning and pressing award donated by George Latka, representing the Portola Cleaners. Staley, starting his first game of the year for the Spartans, gave a good account of himself.

All-Fur Fashion Show Given By Ero Sophian

Ero Sophian will present a "Fur Glamour" fashion show in the Sainte Claire Hotel lounge Sunday afternoon, December 3, from 4 to 6 o'clock, the proceeds going to the newly-established "Boys' Town" fund.

SORORITY TO MODEL

In what is described as the first all-fur fashion show in San Jose, twenty Ero Sophians, including members and pledges, will model the latest in fur coats and chubbies, and fur muff and hat sets, donated for the occasion by a local furrier.

MUSIC BY TAIX

Music will be played by Sheldon Taix's orchestra, and commentator for the affair will be Audrey Jones, former San Jose State college student. Intermission entertainment will be presented by the Ero Sophian trio, composed of Barbara Gibson, Barbara Ann Trelease, and Betty Stuhlman.

GEOLOGY CLUB HOLDS FINAL MEETING TONIGHT

Last meeting of the Geology club for the quarter will be held this evening at 7:30 in room S112.

Mr. Fred Buss, professor of geology, will give a talk on Glacier National Park and the Canadian Rockies supplemented by a group of colored pictures taken by him during his travels in this region.

Anyone interested in geology or travel will find this talk interesting and educational and is welcome to attend the meeting, states Don Graves, president of the organization.

The Music Arts committee of the YWCA will present an evening musicale tomorrow night in the Little Theater at 7:30 o'clock.

The following program will be presented: Numbers by string quartet made up of Margaret Gullet and Doris Gunderson, violins; Dennis Barrett, viola; and Patricia Young, cello. The quartet will play Quartet XV Op. 64 No. 5 by Hayden, including Allegro moderato, Adagio Cantabile, and Menuetto.

T'AGGIRI BY GESTI

Next Henrietta Harris, contralto, will sing E Dove T'Aggiri by Gesti, Non Piu D'Amore by Falconieri, Ein Schwan by Grieg, and Eros by Grieg. She will be accompanied by John Andrews on the piano.

Frank Gettinger and Harrill Johnson, flutists, will play Three Grand Duos Op. 39 by Kunlau.

SPIRITUALS

More numbers by Henrietta Johnson include E'en As A Lovely Flower by Bridges, The Grocer's Boy by Melaby and two spirituals, Is Massa Goin' to Sell Us Tomorrow? and When I Get To Heaven.

A second string quartet will then play Eine Kleine Nachtmusik by Mozart. This quartet is composed of Gerald Slavich and Paul Lanini, violins, Laurel Kline, viola; and Virginia Elvidge, cello.

XMAS DRAMA FEATURES VERSE CHOIR

Speaking members of the cast of Dickens' "Christmas Carol", to be presented by the San Jose Players in the Morris Dailey auditorium December 7 and 8, met at the home of Miss Margaret Douglas, speech instructor, for an extensive rehearsal yesterday.

The Verse Speaking Choir, under the direction of Miss Douglas, and the Glee club, supervised by Miss Alma Williams, are working together on several selections from the scriptures chanted by the choir. "Christmas Carol" will be presented free to the public as the traditional Christmas gift of the San Jose Players to the members of this community.

Boasting the largest cast of any play produced so far this season, the drama will feature the appearance of Miss Douglas's histrionic canine, Patsy, and the playing of an old-fashioned music box.

Women's Swim Meet Tonight At 7 O'clock

Frosh meet the sophs, and seniors meet the seniors at the men's inter-class swim meet at the pool tonight at 7 o'clock.

Miss Tucker, swimming instructor, announces that all girls are welcome to participate whether they turned out last week or not. The class with the largest squad has an obvious advantage in the meet.

Juniors defeated the frosh, 42 to 35, and the sophs defeated the seniors, 31 to 22, in the meet Monday. The large and enthusiastic crowd of juniors was responsible for their large score.

Officials are due at the pool at 6:45 tonight.

WALT DISNEY SKETCHES ON DISPLAY

Featuring several drawings from the Walt Disney production, "The Old Duck's Ostrich", a group of student drawings from Chouinard Art Institute in Los Angeles are now on display in the San Jose State college Art building, according to Department Head Maques E. Reitzel.

In addition to the animal sketches, the collection includes costume designing, magazine advertising and fashion illustration. The display will remain in two weeks.

Also on exhibition is work sculpture done by members of Mr. Thomas Reed's class.

STUDENT WINS MEMBERSHIP IN PEGASUS

Lillianne McKinney was elected to membership in Pegasus, literary honor society, at a meeting last week.

Original manuscripts were read by members of the group and recordings of "Hamlet" were played by Wesley Goddard, member of the English department, and an oratory member of the organization.

All students desiring to apply for membership are requested to turn in original manuscripts to Dr. James Wood, adviser, or any member of Pegasus.

TWO STUDENTS LEAVE FOR NAVY

In keeping with the large National Defense program two students have left school for assignments in the U.S. Naval Communications Service, it was announced last week.

Carlton Gearhart, a former engineering student, has been assigned to the station billet at Pearl Harbor.

Andrew Cooper, also a pre-engineering major, has been assigned to the Navy Base, Pearl Harbor.
