Place Resigns, Payne Festival Head

TOYS WANTED FOR NEEDY CHILDREN AT YULE DINNER

Dr. Rosalind Cassidy To Address Group

Bring a toy!
This is the call sent out to all girls attending the A.W.S.-W.A.A. Christmas banquet at the St. Claire hotel at 6:30 tonight.

WANT TO HELP

"We want to prove that San Jose State college women do 'help those who cannot help themselves,'" says Dr. Irene Palmer, head of the women's Physical Education department.

All groups represented at the affair will have a special table and girls belonging to more than one organization are asked to sign up for the group with which they wish to sit.

DR. ROSALIND CASSIDY

An address by Dr. Rosalind Cassidy of Mills College will be the main lecture of the program. Topic of her address will be comparative lives of the American and European college girl.

"Dr. Cassidy's talk should be of special interest to education majors," says Audrey Morrell, A.W.S. president.

Tickets for the banquet, selling at one dollar, may be purchased from any member of the A.W.S. or W.A.A. council.

N.Y.A. STUDENTS

"Every man in college who wishes N.Y.A. work for the winter quarter must apply for it by the end of this week," it was announced yesterday by Dean of Men Paul Pitman. This includes those now on N.Y.A., as well as others who desire the work.

Dean Pitman also urged that students quitting jobs, either because they were leaving school or for other reasons, to report to either of the deans or to the Appointment office, or to notify some other student of the vacancy. This would be a great aid to students now seeking employment, Pitman said.

Joe Gardiner Speaks Tomorrow Night At Fraternity Dinner

Members of Alpha Eta Sigma, accounting fraternity, will meet at the De Anza tomorrow night at 6:30 for the semi-monthly dinner meeting of the organization.

Guest speaker for the affair will be Joe Gardiner, prominent local banker, who will discuss the accounting profession in the various fields of banking, announces Lawrence Bastianon, president of the organization.

'Christmas Carol' Cast Holds First Dress Rehearsal

Annual Yule Play Starts Thursday

Dress rehearsals for the San Jose Players' production of Charles Dickens' "Christmas Carol" were held Sunday afternoon and Monday night, Miss Margaret Douglas, play director, announced yesterday.

This production is scheduled to grace the boards of the Morris Dailey auditorium Thursday and Friday nights. The two performances will be given without charge through the courtesy of the San Jose Players.

In the twenty-three consecutive years that the Players have staged annual Yuletide plays, this production will be the first for Charles Dickens' well-known story of the old miser, Scrooge, and his transformation.

Scrooge will be played by Howard Chamberlin, last seen in the Players' production of William Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night".

Louis Daniel will play Scrooge's nephew, Fred. Florence Booth will be seen as the Spirit of Christmas Past. Fred's wife will be played by Ruth Froelich. Mary Froelich, sister of Ruth in real life, will play the part of her sister in the play.

Babs Granite will play Dorinda. Tiny Tim will be played by James Hendricks, of Roosevelt junior high school.

FROSH, SOPH GROUPS PLAN MIXER

With the scheduling of a committee meeting, San Jose State college's lower classes begin preparations in earnest today for their annual Frosh-Soph Mixer which is tentatively set for January 27.

According to Doris Rowe, head of the sophomore committee for the affair, a meeting of that group and also of the freshman committee will be held at 12:30 in Dean Pitman's office. Ray Jones, Dolores Pyle, and all other committee members are urged to attend the session, it was announced.

Primary Group Hears Photography Talk

Mr. George Stone, photography instructor, will speak at the last meeting of the Kindergarten-Primary club for this quarter at 4 o'clock this afternoon in Room 1 of the Home Economics building.

Mr. Stone will talk on photography and its uses in the kindergarten and primary classrooms.

PLAY DIRECTOR

MISS MARGARET DOUGLAS

Symphony Gives Concert In Morris Dailey

San Jose's Symphony, rated as one of the foremost college symphonies on the coast, will present its quarterly concert in the Morris Dailey on December 12, announces Adolph Otterstein, director, and head of the Music department.

Of the five selections the orchestra will play, "Scherzo" warrants the most attention, according to Mr. Otterstein. It is an original number by Mr. Neil Daniels, faculty member of the Santa Rosa junior college. Mr. Daniels has written several other selections, one of which was introduced by the Brass Choir when it played at the Exposition.

This concert is the main musical presentation of the department, and is free to the public. Local teachers and their students have been extended invitations.

CLUB HEARS TALK ON SOLDERING

Techniques of soldering brass and German silver will be explained by Mr. Marion T. Weatherford of the Industrial Arts department tonight at a meeting of the handicraft section of the Camp Leadership group, according to Dr. Robert D. Rhodes, adviser.

Appointment Of Revelries Head Postponed

Feeling that possible applicants for the directorship of the Spartan Revelries withheld applications because of a misunderstanding regarding qualifications, the Revelries directors' board forestalled the scheduled appointment of the annual show's director until the beginning of the winter quarter in a meeting held yesterday afternoon in the student council offices.

The board, which had asked for and received four applications last week, wished to make it clear that applicants for the directorship need not write the script or music for the show, but need only qualify to direct a show written by another student although the director may also write the script and music if he so desires.

Along with the delayed appointment and call for more applicants, the board also asked students interested in writing the libretto or music for the show to turn in partial scripts to the board's chairman, Steve Hosa, or in the council's co-op box by January 3 which is also the deadline for directors' applications.

Students interested in writing the show, according to board members, may collaborate on music or script, or, it is suggested, students interested in directing only may seek their own writers for the show, such a script to be submitted with their application.

LYLE DERBY ELECTED DRUM MAJOR

Lyle Derby, bass drummer in the San Jose State college marching band, was elected last week head drum major succeeding Carlyle Cramer for next year by members of the band.

The two assistant drum majors, Doug Harville and Howard Peters, were reinstated in their same positions.

Derby will use the same method of directing and same signals as Cramer.

The annual band banquet will be held tomorrow night at 6:00 at the Hotel Flor Di Italia on North Market street.

Poytress Discusses European War

Dr. William Poytress will discuss the nature of the European war today at the meeting of the Behind the News class at noon in the Little Theater. The reasons behind the unusual phases of the war will be brought out.

BOB BRONZAN, STALEY TAKE LEAVE FROM COUNCIL

New Student Card System To Be Started Next Quarter

By BILL RODRICK

Two student council members, Student Body President Hugh Staley and Vice-President Bob Bronzan, took leaves of absence, one councilman, George Place, resigned, and Bob Payne, was appointed to head the annual Spardi Gras celebration in the most momentous council meeting of the quarter held last night in the Student Union.

A special dinner meeting of council members will be held next week to fill the vacancies. New council members will be appointed on a temporary basis to fill the winter quarter period for Councilmen Bronzan and Staley who will be away doing student teaching; while decision on the means of appointing a new man to fill Place's vacancy, who will graduate this month, will be made at the special meeting.

MCCARTHY CHAIRMAN

In the absence of Staley and Bronzan, present council secretary Margaret McCarthy will take over the chairmanship of the council with Mary Frees filling in as secretary.

The student council also accepted the recommendations of the student body card committee to install a new card system next quarter in which photographs of students will be used on the cards.

Date for the Spardi Gras festivities was set for May 3. Bob Payne, who heads the all-college celebration for 1940, was assistant chairman under George Place during this year's spring quarter edition of Spardi Gras.

BAND UNIFORM FUND

A fund to purchase band uniforms was set up by the council

FRESHMAN CO-EDS MEET TODAY IN MORRIS DAILEY

Annual Frosh-Women's assembly, sponsored by A.W.S., will take place today at 11 o'clock in the Morris Dailey auditorium, announces Lois Silver, chairman of the affair.

The purpose of the assembly is to introduce the presidents and explain the functions of the different women's organizations to the freshmen.

The program will be highlighted by a W.A.A. skit showing the old and new techniques of women's sports.

The meeting will be restricted to freshman women students only.

Finer Revelries Anticipated . . .

With the scheduled appointment of the Revelries director for the first of next quarter, the student council, which instigated the move and formed the balance of the directors' board, took an intelligent, long-needed step, and one which will exploit the full musical and dramatic resources of the college.

In the past few years, production of the annual Spartan Revelries has been pretty well left in the hands of one clique of students and the wealth of talent available in many departments of the college could not be contacted, was not contacted through the system of tryouts which were held.

Next year's Revelries should see all of the best of college talent, dramatic, musical, and technical, as participants in a well-written, well-produced show with some point as contrasted with the haphazard affair of this year's spring quarter.

The partial failure of the 1939 Revelries was not wholly the fault of the producers because the appointments were not made and the word to start work on the production was not given until a comparatively short time before the annual all-college celebration was to be held.

This time, work will start immediately with the beginning of the new year and with a directors' board representing the student body through the council and faculty representation which will make available to the producers resources, as yet untapped, we should see the finest show in many a year of Spartan Revelries history.

—Rodrick.

Thinking It Over . . .

By GARDNER WATERS

If war were not so tragic, one might be amused at those people who throw up their hands in horror at the mention of poison gas and the bombing of civilians.

Just what do they think war is? Some sort of a parlor game conducted under a set of generally recognized rules? One might as well inform prospective murderers that their crimes will be all right if they go about them in a nice, decent sort of way.

If war is right, then what matters if whether the innocent suffer along with the rest. After all, those who remain at home are hardly less innocent than those who are forced to the front through no choosing of their own. If mass murder is to be condoned under the name of war, then one cannot logically condemn the bombing of civilians and the use of poison gas. Both methods are aimed at destroying the enemy in as short an order as possible. That is the technique of modern war.

If it is wrong to bomb civilians and use poison gas, then war itself is wrong. Those who devote so much of their energies to the advocating of "humane" methods of warfare would accomplish something of more lasting benefit if they would devote those same energies to the elimination of war altogether.

Although it may be impossible to stop the present war short of the usual conclusion, it is quite certain that there will be no eliminating of future wars unless there is a concerted effort on the part of the majority to recognize and eliminate the causes of war.

Jittery Janitor Changes Light Bulb In Library Chandelier

By IRENE MELTON

Not striving for a higher education but merely changing the light bulb in one of the library chandeliers was a jittery janitor yesterday afternoon.

While wide-eyed students, glad of a legitimate excuse for not studying, stared in open-mouthed wonder, a pale but determined college clean-up chap planted an almost ceiling-high ladder under a lamp and proceeded to climb to the top.

Shrill whistles of admiration and delight greeted his ascent, followed by a breathless silence as, reaching the top, he perched precariously on its narrow ledge.

At this point the supporting player, enacted by a fellow janitor, entered the scene to steal some of the applause from the star performer. Carrying an enormous globe, he followed Ladder-Climber No. 1 almost to the top and handed him the illuminating device.

After both men had climbed down, a hearty round of applause by the students greeted the light diversion.

THRUST and PARRY

CONTRIBUTORS' COLUMN

Thrust and Parry:

The problem about which I write has supposedly been written, talked and fought of. It was even voted upon by a "Campus Poll of Opinion". However, I feel that there is still something that needs to be said.

I refer to the timing of the Christmas vacation. In accord with the desire of about two-thirds of the students, it has been changed so that we are free from classes only ten days before Christmas—giving students who depend upon "Christmas extra" work only seven working days.

Those responsible for the change are people who wish to be free to enjoy winter sports and other leisure-time activities during Christmas week. The change makes no provision for those of us who NEED every hour of work we can get during the vacation in order to earn college expenses.

I cannot but feel that this NEED for work on the part of a minority is more important than a DESIRE for recreation on the part of the majority.

While I realize that it is too late for anything to be done about the situation this year, I hope that when the program for next autumn quarter is prepared, the powers-that-be will consider more carefully and sympathetically the needs of the working students.

—ELIZABETH E. MOODY

QUINTET PLAYS THURSDAY

Spartans Tune-Up With Clubbers For UCLA Game

With a pair of practice tilts scheduled before their season's opening series against UCLA on the 18th and 19th, Coach Bill Hubbard's basketball team is rounding into competitive shape and should be prepared to give the Bruins a battle.

Thursday night in the local pavilion the Spartans will meet a San Francisco club team in the first of these tilts. The second will be with Watsonville Falcons next week.

Whether or not the squad will be at full strength depends on the football team's actions toward accepting a bid to a bowl game. With another grid game in the offing, three veterans of the hardwood sport will not report to Hubbard until after football definitely ends. The three in question are "Truck" Tornell, Johnny Allen, and Bob Titchenal.

Veterans who are now out for practice and who will probably see most of the action in the U.C.L.A. series are Hal Carruth, Warner Keeley, Nat Morton, Dick Urhammer, "Swede" Smersfelt, and Captain "Chubby" Kotta.

Six members of last year's frosh team have shown definite promise and will see plenty of action this year. They are Carter, Figone, Ford, Maestri, Sturz, and Tucker.

Newcomers to Spartan sports fields are quite plentiful on this year's turnout. Of the twenty men who remain after the first "cut" of the season, five are junior college transfers. Moore, from Marin J.C.;

Frank Savage Tops Poloists With 34 Points

Gene Shirokoff Sets Frosh Scoring Mark

Captain Frank Savage, brilliant three-year water polo veteran, climaxed his final season under the Gold and White banner by leading the individual scoring for Coach Charlie Walker's varsity septet, according to figures released yesterday.

Savage, who for three years has played havoc with water polo foes from San Francisco to Los Angeles, tallied 34 points in leading his team to its most successful season in Washington Square history.

CURRAN SCORES 24

Jim Curran, who performed as Savage's right hand man during the polo season just completed, comes in for second honors with a total of 24 points. Martin Wempe, former Canal Zone aquatic ace, grabbed third place with 13 goals.

The remainder of the goals were distributed among the entire roster with Dean Foster scoring 5, Claude Horan 4, John Hatch 3, and Leon Sparrow 1.

SHIROKOFF TALLIES 80

Gene Shirokoff, sensational freshman center forward, set a record of some kind when he scored the amazing total of 80 points in the yearlings' 15 contests. Shirokoff, who performed for the San Francisco Olympic club last year, averaged six goals per game throughout the season.

Delmar Armstrong, ex-San Jose prep star, wound up in the place spot with a ten-goal total. Garrin "Gob" Morse captured third place honors with seven goals. John Porter with six, Denny Morrissey and Hank Litten with four, Charles Thelan and Kenny Dallas completed the frosh scoring with one each.

LEROY ZIMMERMAN TOP SPARTAN SCORER; DICK HUBBELL SECOND

Leroy Zimmerman, San Jose's all-coast fullback, wound up the regular grid season as the Spartans' scoring pacesetter with 53 of the locals' 324 points, top team total in the nation.

"Jimmy" plunged over the double stripe eight times for 48 points and rounded off his total with five points after touchdowns. He was closely pressed by "third stringer" Dick Hubbell, the ramrodding Hawaiian fullback who scored 48 points with eight touchdowns.

Freshman Cagers Open With Marin

With communications from several Northern California junior colleges yet to be answered, San Jose's frosh cage squad has lined up an eight-game schedule to date, announced Wait McPherson, graduate manager, yesterday.

The yearlings will open the season against the strong Marin junior college quintet on the local hardwood Saturday night.

Following the Christmas holidays, the first-year cagers will engage the Salinas Jaycee five January 6, and will encounter the Marin contingent in a return match January 9.

The schedule is as follows:
December 9—Marin J.C., here.

JANUARY—
6: Salinas J.C., here.
9: Marin J.C., there.
12: Modesto J.C., here.
17: Menlo J.C., there.
19: Salinas J.C., there.

FEBRUARY—
3: Madera, here.
7: Menlo J.C., here.

Guard Kenny Cook, State's line-man with a "Ph.D. toe", ended the season in fifth spot in the scoring bracket, after kicking through 29 points. "Kenny-bo" rooted through six field goals and eleven points after touchdown to score his amazing total.

Carlton Perego and Herman Zetterquist finished in the third and fourth spots, with 36 and 30 points, respectively.

KEN COOK ELECTED 1940 GRID CAPTAIN

Kenny Cook, the man who started many of the scoring sprees that brought the 1939 Spartan football team to an undefeated, untied season, was last night elected to captain the team in its 1940 campaign.

The versatile little guard (little only in comparison to the other guards) was one of the most reliable men on the championship Spartan team and has been one of the team's popular members for the past two years.

"Kenny-Bo" was chosen by his teammates after the squad picture was taken last evening.

Crowley, Modesto; Newlove, Salinas; Hope, Santa Rosa; and Andrade, San Bernadino; are the transfer hopefuls.

'Zim', Perego Leading Ground Gainers For Spartan Gridmen

Cracking enemy forward walls for a total of 505 yards, Fullback Leroy Zimmerman is the Spartans' leading ground gainer for the regular 13-game schedule, closely followed by Carlton Perego with 494 yards.

However, Halfbacks Herman Zetterquist and Aubrey Minter boast the best average yards gained per run, reeling off 5.4 and 5.3 yards per try, respectively. Zimmerman averaged 3.77 yards per run and Perego 2.8.

PHELAN CONTEST PRIZES TOTAL 324 DOLLARS

A total of $324 will be distributed as awards in the annual Phelan Literary contest which opened Friday, according to Dr. Raymond Barry, head of the English department.

THREE PRIZES

Three prizes, $28, $17, and $9, are being offered in each of six divisions, which include essays (a minimum of 1,000 words), short stories (a minimum of 1,000 words), plays (one or three acts), sonnets, lyrics, and free verse.

The prizes arise from a trust fund of $10,000 left by Senator James Phelan when he died. This is the eighth year of the contest.

CONTEST RULES

Rules for the contest are:

1. Manuscripts must be typed double-spaced.
2. The title of each contribution must appear on the first page of the manuscript and also upon a separate title page, bearing the name of the writer. The writer's name must not appear upon the manuscript itself—only upon the title page.
3. Students may submit any number of manuscripts to each division of the contest.
4. Contributions should be turned in to the English office, H28, or to faculty members of the English department.
5. THE CONTEST CLOSSES AT 5:00 P.M. ON TUESDAY, MARCH 26, 1940.

FACULTY CRITICS

Members of the English faculty will be glad to criticize manuscripts and make suggestions to student writers, said Dr. Barry.

MORNING HIKE ENDS 'HELL WEEK' FOR SQUIRES

"Squire" neophytes will relate harrowing experiences of their early morning hike from nearby remote communities at the regular luncheon meeting of Spartan Knights, honorary campus service fraternity, today at noon. "Duke" Mannie Silva reports.

Pledges were put through their informal paces last night in the Knight room before their midnight ride, which brought "Hell Week" to a close. Formal initiation of the Squires will take place early next quarter, he announces.

Will all Band members who wish to attend the Band banquet at the Fior D'Italia Wednesday night, please sign the list in the Music building.—G. Haydon.

NOTICE TO TECHNICAL AND SPECIAL STUDENTS

New Co-op House Ready Next Year To Hold 25 Men

All those interested in living in the new co-op house to be established next quarter are asked to leave their name and address and a deposit of $1.00 in the Controller's office before tomorrow noon, stated Erwin Blesh yesterday.

The selection of the men who are to live in the new house will be made by December 8, and will be published in the Spartan Daily of the same date. Those who have been selected must deposit an additional $4.00 by noon, December 8.

As the house will only be able to hold 25 men, there will probably be a few not selected who will receive their dollar back after the final selection.

It is expected that the house will be ready for occupancy at the beginning of next quarter, and possibly sooner. The house is located at 60 South 12th street.

which voted to turn over to it profits from next year's Reveries.

The council also voted to give the soccer team awards in the form of gold soccer balls, subject to the approval of President Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, bids for which will be accepted by the Controller's office. Action on awards for the football awards for the football team will be taken following the acceptance or non-acceptance of a bowl bid.

'YOUNGSTERS' ENJOYING TOY PILE

They just can't resist.

They are warned repeatedly to lay off the toys under the Spartan Daily Christmas tree, but their juvenile instincts get the best of them.

It happens every year—they just can't resist.

Of course, we refer to the "youngsters" who get as much enjoyment out of playing with the toys under the tree in the Publications office as those youngsters who will ultimately receive them to brighten up their Yuletide.

Yesterday it was practically the entire Daily staff toying with the miniature xylophone.

Which toy shall be the victim today?

Peace Society Meeting At 12:15 Today

A meeting of the Campus Peace society will be held today at 12:15 in Room 53.

At the meeting last week of students interested in reorganizing a campus peace movement, it was decided to accept the name and constitution of the Campus Peace society, an organization which had been inactive this quarter.

Today's meeting will be largely concerned with developing a program of definite activities to be started immediately.

Will all freshmen students who have signed up for Frosh-Soph Mixer meet in Dean Pitman's office today at 12:45.—Dolores Pyle.

Today's Recitals End Fall Series

DEXTERS' DUO STRING MUSIC

That Mrs. Benning Dexter, who is joining her husband, Mr. Dexter, in a cello-piano recital tonight in the Little Theater at 8:15 was soloist at 13 for her high school orchestra in Michigan, was learned from Mr. Adolph Otterstein, head of the San Jose State college Music department.

Mrs. Dexter, who was then Betty Barbour, went from National high school in Interlochen to Cincinnati college of Music for three years, and while there she won a fellowship to the Juilliard School of Music in New York.

At the Juilliard Graduate School Mrs. Dexter studied under Felix Salmond, and did extensive solo and concert work, which included a Town Hall appearance in 1938 in a Juilliard performance of Enesco's Octet.

Mr. Dexter, who also studied at Juilliard, won his fellowship while attending the University of California. He is an experienced concert player, and has performed on the radio several times. San Jose State college's Music department presented him in a recital October 17. This concert is free to the public.

Following is the program the couple plan to present:

- Sammartin.....Sonata in G Major
- Allegro
- Grave
- Vivace
- Beethoven.....Variation on a theme of Mozart
- Hure.....Sonata in F Minor
- Brahms.....Sonata in E Minor, opus 38
- Allegro non troppo
- Allegretto quasi Menuetto
- Allegro
