BOY'S CLUB FORMED BY P.E. FRAT STUDENTS

Membership Limited To Children Of Instructors

Program May Be Expanded Soon

A novel experiment in recreational leadership is being conducted by members of Phi Epsilon Kappa, honorary physical education majors' fraternity, with the formation of a new boys' club patterned after the famous Harry Maloney's Boys' club of Stanford University, announced Chairman Bob Locks yesterday.

MEMBERSHIP LIMITED
At present membership will be limited to children of faculty members and prominent alumni, announced Locks, although the program is expected to be expanded soon. The club will meet on Saturday mornings from 9:00 to 11:00 in the Men's gym, and all training is to be handled by Phi Epsilon Kappa members.

First meeting of the boys' club is scheduled for April 13 in the Men's gym. Instruction in all spring sports will be started, and all gymnasium facilities including the college pool will be available for the new organization.

CLUB'S PURPOSE
Purpose of the club is to build good will towards San Jose State college among younger boys, as well as provide a valuable recreational and moral training ground for young boys. Members of the fraternity will also gain valuable experience in juvenile leadership in preparation for their future jobs, declared Locks.

HOUSING

COMMITTEE UNDERTAKES LONG-RANGE PROGRAM

Meeting for the first time yesterday noon in the Student Body President's office, the housing committee undertook the formation of a long-range program for the eventual improvement of college housing conditions under the leadership of Chairman Doan Carmody.

Preceding the beginning of any thorough investigation into housing conditions, committeemen will call in the University of California permanent housing chairman for consultation on student housing problems. Managers or representatives from college co-operative houses will also be asked to come before the committee to discuss co-op housing.

The committee expects to launch an investigation of student housing of all types supplementing the investigation of the previous housing committee which covered only houses on the approved list.

CIVIL SERVICE POSITIONS

As a regular service to students interested in Civil Service positions, the Spartan Daily will begin posting announcements of government jobs available in this field as they are received from the State Personnel Board.

Starting today, the announcements may be found on the window bulletin boards in front of the Publications office.

Discussion Group Meets Today In Room 14 At 4:00

Led by Dr. Boris Lubowski Gregory of the Language department, a discussion on "Quality or Quantity in Education" will take place at the meeting of the Philosophy of Life Discussion group this afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock in Room 14.

Since Dr. Gregory has lived in Europe for a number of years, he is well qualified to compare the college and university systems of this country with those of Europe, according to Agnes Rider and Bill Nitschke, co-chairmen of the group.

Everyone is invited to attend the meeting and to participate in the discussion.

Faculty Group Plays Badminton Tomorrow

Faculty badminton group will hold the first quarterly meeting tomorrow in the Women's gym at 7:00.

Faculty members' wives or husbands are invited to attend. There should be at least eight present to keep the club going, according to Miss Marjorie Lucas, P. E. instructor.

Annual AWS Convention Here In 1941

San Jose State college will play hostess to representatives from Associated Women Student organizations in 20 state colleges who will gather here for their annual week-end convention in 1941.

This was the announcement made yesterday by AWS President Audrey Morrell, who attended a convention held over last week-end at Fresno junior college. Accompanying her were Miss Helen Dimmick, dean of women, Mrs. Rae Wirtz, faculty adviser, and Alice Good, Jean Ellsworth, and June Gross.

SCHEDULE

Tentatively scheduled as entertainment for the visiting representative are luncheons, teas, and business meetings, climaxed by a formal dinner and dance in the Men's gymnasium.

Further plans for the convention will be discussed at a meeting of the AWS cabinet and council this afternoon at 4:00 in the AWS room. All organization representatives are urged to attend today's meeting because a total of three absences will exclude the group from representation.

Also to be discussed at today's meeting will be arrangements for the AWS jinx, a big event of the organization's schedule which will take place within a few weeks.

PLACE OF MEET

All future meetings of the AWS will be held in the newly furnished AWS instead of in the Student Union, Miss Morrell announces.

Effort To Widen Scope Of Grad Study Begun

San Jose State student council last night decided to apply for membership in the American Association of Universities and to sound out the student body regarding a possible change in the college colors.

Joining the association would increase the number of universities where State graduates could do graduate study, it was brought out. The action was a result of a report given by Dorothy Eder, appointed at the Organization dinner to investigate the matter.

While it is too late to make the application this year, Miss Eder recommended that a woman council member, an AWS representative, and an alumni committee work with Dr. James DeVoss on the matter next year.

Mary Frees, Steve Hosa, and Bill Rodrick were appointed to draw up a preliminary budget. Organization budgets must be turned in between April 22 and 26.

VOCAL PUPILS IN RECITAL

Advanced students of the vocal division of the Music department will give their annual recital Friday evening, April 2, in the Little Theater, announces Miss Maurine Thompson, instructor.

There will be solos, duets, quartets and madrigal choir numbers. Students, faculty members, and friends are welcome.

History Society Gives Dinner Friday At 7:30

Sigma Kappa Alpha, honorary history society, will hold a tenth anniversary dinner Friday night at the San Jose Country club commencing at 7:30.

Also scheduled for the same evening is a 25th anniversary dinner being held by the University of California chapter in Berkeley.

Guest speaker of the local dinner will be C. A. Duniway, professor emeritus at Stanford University.

Theme of the dinner will center around the 18th century historian, Gibbons, who is one of the inspirations behind the founding of the college society, officers state.

Loan Deadline Extended Until Today At 3

Application for the $1.50 California of Parents and Teachers student loans has been extended until today at 3:00, Dean Paul M. Pitman said yesterday.

"Reason for this extension is that so many students have come for the loan that I could not see them all," said Dean Pitman.

This loan is open to students between the ages of 18 and 24 who have the proper scholastic and personal records.

MUST PAY FOR SUPPLIES

By MARY TRAUB

Little hope was seen by Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie yesterday that junior college students would be excused from the payment of course fees, despite the ruling recently announced by Attorney General Earl Warren, in which he stated that opinion.

"There is no provision now made which will enable student expenses to be covered by the taxpayer's money. If the junior college student wants the materials, he will have to pay for them," the president explained.

REASON FOR RULING

Warren's decision was made on the grounds that the junior college should be considered in the same category as the high school and junior high school, and, as such, could not require the payment of fees by its students, MacQuarrie said.

A discrepancy between this belief and the actual situation of San Jose State college is shown by the fact that, at the time the junior college was incorporated in the institution, the understanding was made that it would fall under the same classification as the state college.

For this reason, the president asserted, the taxpayer could hardly be expected to agree to paying the extra amount.

"What many students probably do not know is that the state already pays for a part of student course fees. The money taken in for fees and materials doesn't cover their cost. The state makes up the difference," MacQuarrie explained.

DANCE BID WINNERS

Announced By Spartan Knights

"It will pay you to look at your student body card numbers," advises Stan Murdock, chairman of the Spartan Knight dance scheduled for Saturday night at the Hotel Sainte Claire.

ANOTHER FREE BID

Another bid will be awarded today to the student whose student card number checks with the one appearing in the Publications office window and the Spartan Knight showcase in the main building, he states. Numbers posted the past two days were 819 and 1436 and the holders of those numbers may claim their free bids at the Controller's office.

Murdock announces that still another bid will be offered tomorrow. A photograph, taken during the Registration rush, will be posted in the Publications office window. The person whose features are encircled in the picture may claim a bid by presenting himself to Murdock in the Publications office at 1 o'clock Thursday or Friday afternoons.

SPRING FORMAL

Music for the spring semi-formal affair will feature Hal Moreno and his orchestra. Dancing will be from 9 to 1. Entertainment by two prospective Revelries performers will be provided by Director Bill Van Vleck.

Support Needed . . .

For the first time since the idea of a housing survey came up, we have a housing committee proceeding on a sound, intelligent basis that is likely in time to accomplish much towards the improvement of college housing conditions—in a very sorry state indeed at present.

Mindful of the many difficulties they face and the obstacles in the way of any improvement, the committee expects to survey not only every student room or residence, but to also draw up a complete list of houses available for student use and place them in proper brackets according to their fitness as residences.

Any housing program the committee attempts this time will be long-range, a program designed to operate over a period of a few years, not for one quarter. This time the committee will have a firm foundation upon which to work, built by the investigation of the last housing board whose work, although limited in scope, was thoroughly complete as far as it went.

It is obvious that although the committee may be able to do much in gathering and assembling information on college housing, it can do little of a concrete nature unless members of the faculty in a position to do so are prepared to give their cooperation and support. The committee can do its work and make its recommendations, but unless those with authority, whose support is needed to carry them out, will give the committee the cooperation which it deserves, the survey will again look quite well in print, but actually accomplish virtually nothing.

We Are All Idea Men . . .

Theoretically, the man who can think of a new way to do an old job is a minor sort of genius and valuable to his associates. He is usually called an 'idea man', and advertisers, motion picture companies, and big business executives are all anxious to secure the services of a bonafide 'idea man'. Well, they've overlooked a bet; San Jose State college.

Our first-of-the-quarter rush of verbal and printed editorial comment is an indication of the percentage of students who could easily qualify as 'idea men'. Better conditions for the library; sidewalks to replace the lawns; open markets for 1908 editions of the College Omnibus; a board of deep-thinking hypocrites to sit in with the 'rah-rah' boys—ideas all over the place.

But the bush-league geniuses of the college are at a disadvantage. When a business executive gets a brilliant idea, he turns it over to a crew of flunkies who carry it out to the letter, like well-oiled machines; when Staters get a good idea, it either reaches the pages of the Daily or is forgotten, which is almost the same thing.

Unfortunately, we have no corps of 'do-or-die' workers, eager to pick up the threads of these ideas and carry them through to the bitter or successful end; unfortunately, because most of the ideas have a lot of potential worth. But they are not very practical unless they can be carried out.

We have plenty of 'idea men'; what we need are a few workers who are too busy to think of a quick argument . . .
—Grabam.

Just Among Ourselves

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE

Mr. Minssen and I went to Fresno Saturday to attend the Western Aviation Conference. There we saw and heard many famous people. We were so close to the thrill of it all that we came home inspired to have San Jose State take a more important part than ever in the development of aviation.

But we remembered the conditions under which we work. As in many other efforts of the college, we are cramped for room. Our aviation laboratory is about a quarter of what it should be. We should have special rooms for various activities, welding, instruments, sheet metal, engines, fuselages, I don't even know the names of some of them. We can manage to get the equipment, I believe, and we can get the instructors, but it is room, room, room with us now.

And that flying field of ours! Dear me, what a mess it has been during this rainy weather! Mud and puddles everywhere. Inadequate buildings, inadequate runways, inadequate accommodations. I am surprised that the national authorities have been willing to let us go on with their program. We may have serious trouble still one of these days.

We visited with President Thomas of Fresno State college, and with a number of the faculty members. We learned that only the day before they had dedicated a new building for aeronautics at the Fresno Airport. We were anxious to see it, and while the rain was coming down in sheets and various other forms, we decided to make the trip. The airport is located a very short distance from the business district of the city. I doubt if it took us five minutes in spite of the rain.

And what an airport! Actually it is metropolitan. Paved runways, and a great paved area in front of the station. The surrounding country was clear of telephone poles, tall buildings and trees. Rain or no rain, day or night, that plant is usable. A fine administration building, ticket office, restaurant, waiting room, several large hangars, a private flying service, radio and communications building, weather station, and then the new building put up by the city for the use of the college.

Were we green-eyed with envy! We went into that building, and there was the answer to our prayers. Classrooms, storerooms, laboratories, offices, everything neat, clean, and complete.

All we could do was to congratulate Fresno, and hope that somehow, somewhere, sometime we might be able to provide a like service for our own students.

(CONTRIBUTORS' COLUMN)

(Ed. Note: This column expresses the writer's views. The Spartan Daily assumes no responsibility for the opinions expressed.)

Dear Thrust and Parry:

We wonder why, when people get to be of college age, that they haven't learned enough self-control to keep from removing other people's property. Our organization had great pride in a sign that we placed on the main bulletin board for the purpose of posting notices.

This sign, though not valuable, meant a lot to us. It represented a great deal of time and effort, put forth by one of our members, to make it. It is of absolutely no value to anyone else. Yet some scoundrel has removed it. Things like this belong in grammar school. As a college student there can be no excuse.

We hope that, after reading this and thinking it over, the guilty party will return it to its proper place. —DELTA SIGMA GAMMA.

SAN DIEGO BLASTS SAN JOSE HOPES FOR CCAA CROWN

SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3, 1940

BOXERS FACE STIFF ODDS THURSDAY

Four Spartans Meet Best In Nation

By CON LACY
With four national titleholders returning in the N.C.A.A. boxing tournament at Sacramento Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights, Coach DeWitt Portal's Spartan boxers are going to have their work cut out for them to finish in the money.

TITLEHOLDERS RETURN
Ted Kara of Idaho at 120 pounds, and Sewele Whitney of Virginia at New Orleans at 127, titleholders, are favorites to repeat in their divisions.

University of Wisconsin has the other two champions at 145 and 155 pounds. "Omar the Assassin" Crocker in the welterweight division will bring his collegiate career to a close with the most impressive record ever compiled by a college fighter. Out of 24 collegiate bouts, Crocker has scored 17 knockouts, and been held to draw but once. Gene Fisk will be the Spartan entrant at 145 pounds.

BOLICH vs. SWANCUTT
At 155 pounds, Wisconsin has Buddy Swancutt with almost as impressive a record as Crocker. Captain Bill Bolich in this division is the most likely Spartan to reach the finals. Bolich is Pacific Coast champion, and held Swancutt to a draw in the Civic Auditorium last year.

Dale Wren in the featherweight class may be an upset winner. Wren, who has been out of competition for over a year, made his start of the season in the N.C.A.A. tournament only to lose to Frankie Kara of Idaho in the first round. With two wins in the California and UCLA meets under his belt, Wren has lost some of his rustiness, and should be a strong contender.

Lanky Jim Kincaid at 165 pounds may also surprise some of the eastern boys. Kincaid ran a hard right hand in the P.C.I. last on a TKO to an opponent he had previously beaten. If he shows the same form he did last year in winning the coast welterweight title, Kincaid should go a long way.

Bantamweight Bill Sellers will have plenty of competition if he finds himself in the same bracket with Champion Ted Kara of Idaho. However, Sellers has shown a lot of improvement and scored the only knockout against UCLA last week. If he gets a break in the drawings and doesn't meet Kara too soon, Sellers should pile up a few points for Coach DeWitt Portal.

SPARTAN GOLFERS BEAT CALIFORNIA BEARS 5 1/2 TO 3 1/2 IN UPSET

Sparked by a par 70 performance by Captain Warner Keeley, the Spartan golf team trounced University of California, defending Pacific Coast Intercollegiate champions, 5 1/2 to 3 1/2, yesterday on the San Jose Country Club greens.

The victory marked the twenty-third consecutive win for the McPherson-coached squad.
KEELEY CARDS 70
Matched against Captain Jack Lovgren of the Bears, Keeley, number one man for the State team, was one under par coming into the seventeenth and held to the final hole where he missed breaking par by a weak putt. Lovgren carded a 73 to tie for second lowest medal for the day.

Herb Showers teamed with the Spartan captain to win their foursome, taking three points to none for their opponents, winning the first and second nines and the match.

Bill Parton and Bob Burchfield split the second foursome to the Bear duo, 1 1/2-1 1/4.

HERN CHALKS UP 73
The third San Jose duo of Bill Hern and Ken Hornlein lost two points and added one to the local cause. Hern carded a 73 for the eighteen, just three over par for the course.

STATE NETTERS BEAT C.O.P., 9-0

Allowing their opponents but one set in nine matches, San Jose State's varsity tennis squad trounced an invading College of Pacific team 9 to 0 on the Seventh avenue courts yesterday.

John Krysiak, Spartan number one performer, whipped Marcello Umipeg 6-1, 6-0 in the feature match of the day. Coach Blesh's proteges travel to St. Mary's tomorrow for their third match of the season.

SPARTAN MAT TITLE HOPES FADE

Three 1939 Winners Lost For Tourney

Hopes for a second consecutive Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Spartan championship wrestling team faded yesterday with the announcement by Coach Eugene Grattan that only four San Jose entrants will compete in the annual tournament at Berkeley, Thursday and Friday.

Injuries and eligibility rulings hit half the Spartan squad leaving vacancies at 135, 155, 165, and heavyweight divisions. Only one, Captain Fortune Masdeo, of the four 1939 San Jose champions, will compete in the welterweight class.

DELLA MAGGIORE OUT
135-pound titleholder Jack Fiebig has dropped out of school, while Heavyweight Sam Della Maggiore was unexpectedly ruled ineligible because of several weeks attendance at the University of Santa Clara during his freshman year. According to conference rules, transfer students lose one year of eligibility.

Hardest blow to Grattan was loss of Mel Bruno, stellar 155-pound mat ace, who received a broken arm in the NCAA tournament at Champaign, Illinois, last week. Bruno's injury dampens Spartan hopes for a San Jose wrestler in the 1940 Olympic or Pan-Pacific team.

San Jose's four entrants in the tournament will be Con Lacy at 121 pounds, Bob Norona 128, Fortune Masdeo 145, and Bob Riddle at 175. Of the four, Lacy is a doubtful finisher in the tough two-day tournament because of a trick elbow that has kept him out of competition almost all year. Lacy and Riddle were runners-up in the 1939 tournament.

CAL IS FAVORITE
University of California is the pre-tourney favorite to regain the title that they lost last year for the first time in ten years. UCLA may also nose out the Spartans for second place. San Jose walloped California decisively in a dual meet in Spartan pavilion last month.

The first year squad has several outstanding ex-prepsters in its lineup, but, like the varsity, has been hampered by bad weather.

Gridders Report For Spring Grid Practice

The first gun of the 1940 grid season was sounded yesterday afternoon on the Spartan field turf when the Winkelman-Warner aggregation went through the first paces of spring practice before newspaper photographers and townspeople.

Following drills in kicking and calisthenics, the new Spartan mentor ran four full teams through a series of offensive plays. Although over half the squad was unable to report because of Health office restrictions, the entire roster worked out for over two hours.

In the back spot on the make-shift first team, Al Alviso, 1939 frosh captain, combined with Joe Rishwain, Howard Costello, and Rex Purcell in the opening backfield quartet.

On the line Wedberg and Clement performed at ends, Hammill and Tornell at tackles, Jim Wilson, and Captain Ken Cook at guards and Morris Buckingham at the pivot position.

Spike Artists In Hard Workout

Old Dame Sunshine combined yesterday with a rapidly drying track to give Coach Tiny Hartranft's varsity and frosh track and field performers their first good workouts in over three weeks.

Hartranft gave full vent to his pet theory of running trackmen at odd distances and had the sprinters and distance men working out for an hour and a half. Field men were working on form and getting steps in preparation for the first meet of the year next Tuesday against the San Francisco Olympic club. Placer junior college, coached by former-Spartan Gil Bishop, tangles with the Spartan frosh Saturday afternoon on the local cinderpath in the initial contest of

SPARTANS RAGGED
Playing ragged ball in the first game, the Spartans garnered only four hits from the Aztec pitcher, Frost, to lose, 5 to 0.
Captain Harvey Rhodes, Aubrey Minter, Ben Frizzi, and Ed Hunt were the only Spartans able to connect for base hits. The Spartan nine failed to reach third base, getting to second once on a stolen base.

FRIZZI TRIPLES
In the second game, the Spartans started with a bang. Frizzi, centerfield lead-off man, cracked out a triple, only to be caught at home trying to stretch it into a homer. Anello, left fielder, walked and later stole second on the pitcher's peg to first. Captain Rhodes, third baseman, also walked. Johnny Allen, first sacker, hammered out a single to center field, and moved to second base on a throw to third trying to catch advancing Rhodes. Anello scored on the play.

SAN DIEGO RALLIES
San Diego evened the tally when Mitchell, lanky first baseman, walked. Peters, third sacker, hit a single and Mitchell went to third. Peters' attempted to steal second, but was caught out on a peg from Spartan Catcher Onyett to Second Baseman Carter. Carter was slow on the throwback and Mitchell scored.

The Aztecs jumped into the lead in the first half of the sixth when Thomas, San Diego catcher, cracked out a homer into deep left-center field.

SYMPHONERS, CHORISTERS RETURN HOME

A majority of students making up the Symphony orchestra and the A Cappella choir returned last night from their Los Angeles trip, where they performed for the National Music Educators' Conference, biennial national convention.

Leaving last Friday, the Symphony, under the direction of Adolph W. Otterstein, played concerts at Atascadero, Salinas, and Paso Robles en route, in addition to several appearances in Los Angeles.

The 64-voice A Cappella choir followed them Saturday morning, under the leadership of William Erlendson, to sing for the Sunday services of the First Methodist church, at the luncheon meeting of the California Western Conference of Music Educators, and at Monday's evening meeting of the Los Angeles chapter of the American Guild of Organists. They also appeared Sunday morning on a coast-to-coast hookup of the NBC Blue Network, on the program, "Music and American Youth".

Members of the Woodwind choir, under direction of Thomas E. Eagan, will not return until Saturday, as they are scheduled to play a concert Friday night.

JUNIOR COLLEGE RULING

Precipitating the separation, the state would withdraw part of its support, leaving the bulk of the expense of the junior college to rest with the city.

However, if the division were not made, every student would try to register in the course for which he would have to pay no fee. It would be a very complicated procedure to distinguish between the two sections, with the state and junior college students signing for the same classes and attending the same institution.

A definite decision on the question is expected by MacQuarrie to be made at the next session of the state legislature which has already discarded a ruling that the college should furnish books for the junior college students.

BASEBALL

(Continued from Page Three) bases loaded, Allen was called upon to lay down a bunt for the hit-and-run play. Allen popped out to Catcher Thomas, who tagged Cressio, Spartan pitcher, coming in home.

In the last half of the seventh, the Spartans tied the score when Hunt, batting for Fancher, San Jose right fielder, walked and advanced to second on the next pitch when Thomas dropped the ball. With two out, Minter came to bat pinch-hitting for Shortstop Duran. Minter cracked out a single, scoring Hunt, who tied the score. This ended the scoring for San Jose. The Aztecs came back in the first of the eighth to gather four runs out of two hits, to win the ball game, 6-2.

San Jose has won one game and lost five to put them out of running for the CAA championship.

All students interested in working on the technical crew for "Henry IV" please leave their names in the Speech office, with Wendell Johnson, or Peter Mingrone, before Friday.

Freshman and junior debaters, victors over sophomores and seniors, respectively, have found themselves in the odd situation of having the same points of view on the question they are to argue, "Resolved: That subsidization of football is justifiable". Both classes presented the negative side in the interclass debates late last quarter.

With Gene Rocchi, junior, and Heber Nelson, freshman, refusing to alter their stands, they will take the negative side of the question and Kenneth Wallace, junior, and Ronald Maas, freshman, will present the affirmative side.

This unique situation of the classes being divided will make it necessary for the judges to use a point system whereby the individuals rather than the teams will be given points. The points will be added up and the class having the most will be declared the winner.

RUSSO-FINNISH RELIEF SHOW NETS $32.45

Proceeds amounting to $32.45 were taken in last night from the Russo-Finnish Relief Art exhibition in the San Jose State college Little Theater.

The money will be used to aid Russian and Finnish civilians who have been left homeless after the recent war, according to Marques E. Reitzel, Art department head. The program consisted of color slides taken of the $20,000,000 art collection at the New York World's Fair.

SYMPHONERS, CHORISTERS RETURN HOME

A majority of students making up the Symphony orchestra and the A Cappella choir returned last night from their Los Angeles trip, where they performed for the National Music Educators' Conference, biennial national convention.

Leaving last Friday, the Symphony, under the direction of Adolph W. Otterstein, played concerts at Atascadero, Salinas, and Paso Robles en route, in addition to several appearances in Los Angeles.

The 64-voice A Cappella choir followed them Saturday morning, under the leadership of William Erlendson, to sing for the Sunday services of the First Methodist church, at the luncheon meeting of the California Western Conference of Music Educators, and at Monday's evening meeting of the Los Angeles chapter of the American Guild of Organists. They also appeared Sunday morning on a coast-to-coast hookup of the NBC Blue Network, on the program, "Music and American Youth".

Members of the Woodwind choir, under direction of Thomas E. Eagan, will not return until Saturday, as they are scheduled to play a concert Friday night.

Darkness prevails . . . Twenty-five light switches click in unison . . . and twenty-five pairs of lips soundlessly repeat the intonation of a lone voice counting off the seconds as mass instruction is carried out in the photography laboratory.

Beginning photography students follow dictated instruction this quarter in the only system of mass instruction in existence that Pro-

LA TORRE FEE NOW PAYABLE

Payment for La Torre, student yearbook edited by Bill Laffoon, must be made in the Controller's office at the following times for the alphabetical name groups:

Today—I, J—12-12:30; K, L—12:30-1:00. Tomorrow—M, N—12-12:30; O—12:30-1:00. Friday—P, Q—12-1:00. Monday—R—12-1:00. Tuesday—S—12-1:00. Wednesday—T and all others who have failed to pay—12-3:00.

Temporary Student Cards Invalid Friday

Temporary student body cards will automatically become invalid and students who have not done so must get their photograph-cards by Friday, Steve Hosa, card committee chairman, announces.

Students without the official card will not be able to receive library, health cottage, athletic, and other privileges following the Friday deadline, Hosa says.

The new cards, the balance of which belong to entering freshmen and transfer students, are being given out in the Student Body President's office in the Student Union. Office hours are posted on the door.

First Beta Chi Sigma Smoker Tonight At 8

Beta Chi Sigma, recently accepted campus social fraternity, will hold the first of a series of three smokers tonight at 8:00 in the Hotel Sainte Claire to acquaint members with prospective pledges, Publicity Chairman Gordon Lunsford said yesterday.

In charge of the evening's program is Pledge Master Charles Culp, who in addition will see to the invitation of prospective pledges.

Important meeting of the Sociology club at 12:30 tomorrow in Room 20. Everyone come. Election of officers.

Professor George E. Stone, head of the Photography department, knows.

The system is remarkably effective, according to the professor, in that results are obtained in a much shorter period than under older systems.

The plan which is reminiscent of the mass exercises held in foreign countries, has been carried over into other fields by professors who have received instruction under it.

JUNIOR COLLEGE RULING

Precipitating the separation, the state would withdraw part of its support, leaving the bulk of the expense of the junior college to rest with the city.

However, if the division were not made, every student would try to register in the course for which he would have to pay no fee. It would be a very complicated procedure to distinguish between the two sections, with the state and junior college students signing for the same classes and attending the same institution.

A definite decision on the question is expected by MacQuarrie to be made at the next session of the state legislature which has already discarded a ruling that the college should furnish books for the junior college students.
