DIRECTORS BEGIN TALENT SEARCH FOR COMMUNITY CHEST MUSICAL JAMBOREE

STAGS ADMITTED TO A.W.A. PARTY TOMORROW NIGHT

Boasting four and one-half hours of fun for a dime apiece, the annual AWA jamboree will get under way tomorrow night from 7:30 until midnight in the Men's gym. This is one of the few events during the year which is open to stags.

Men and women are asked to join in the fun by wearing jeans and gingham, respectively, to complete the picture of the corn-stalks and hay fields of "Back to the Farm".

Tickets to the jamboree will be on sale in the quad today and tomorrow from 9 o'clock until 4 o'clock.

DOOR PRIZES

Two door prizes, donated by the Spartan Shop, will be awarded to the first man and woman to guess the score of the San Jose-Loyola game.

From 7:30 until 8:45 games of ping-pong, deck tennis, badminton, shuffle board, and volley ball will be open for players. At quarter of nine the score up to that point of the game at Loyola will be announced and a rally will be held until 9 o'clock with yells and school songs.

"Roland Band's orchestra will swing out for 'cornhuskers' and 'huskerettes' from 9 o'clock until midnight," said Eloise Harrison, chairman of the jamboree. "There will be mountain and hillbilly tunes and some variety reels. Pat Matrangola will do the vocals."

CAN SEE WATER POLO

Those students wishing to see the water polo games in the men's pool may easily do so. Stamps will be used and those attending both events may come and go as they please, according to Miss Harrison.

SENIORS HOLD GET-TOGETHER PARTY SUNDAY

The first in a series of get-acquainted parties for members of the Senior class will be held Sunday afternoon from 5 to 8 p.m. in Newman hall.

According to Senior Class President Vance Perry, seniors are asked to attend the get-together in order that all members of the fourth year class can become better acquainted.

Refreshments will be served and music will be provided for the occasion. A small admission charge of 10 cents will be asked, according to Perry, to help cover the rental of the hall.

Working on the committee are: Signa Shaw, Gay Van Perre, Katherine Hughes, Rowena Satterberg, Marion Johnston, Sid Webb, and Leo O'Grady.

Patrons and patronesses for the get-together will be Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Portal and Dr. and Mrs. James DeVoss.

Annual Variety Show Features Songs, Dancing

A search for talent necessary in the production of the annual Community Chest musical jamboree is being conducted by Directors Harvey Brooks and Len Baskin.

Determined to make this musical variety show one of the best ever attempted, Brooks and Baskin are asking the aid of Spartan students to contribute their talents toward the show.

WANT STUDENTS

The directors ask that any student who can sing, dance, or play any kind of a musical instrument get in touch with them this week at 12 o'clock in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

With the date for the musical jamboree set for November 12, the entire cast will need to work overtime in order to be ready on that date, states Brooks.

From Community Chest Chairman Bill Van Vleck comes the report that the quota for San Jose State college has not been designated, and that only minor details remain to complete preparations for the many programs planned to raise the quota.

NU IOTA CHI DANCE

The dance under the sponsorship of the Nu Iota Chi, journalism fraternity, will be Tuesday night, November 19, in the Men's gym. The athletic show is scheduled for November 14, and the jamboree on November 12.

Contributions for the Community Chest will be accepted starting November 11, states Van Vleck, and will continue for about two weeks.

Student Dies Following Short Illness

Katherine Sclafney, 20, San Jose State college singer who appeared in 1940 Revelries, died yesterday afternoon at the O'Conner Sanitarium following a short illness.

A junior, Miss Sclafney was majoring in Education, working toward her General Elementary in Teaching. She was graduated in 1938 from San Jose High school where she was a member of the A Cappella Choir.

Beside her mother, Mrs. Katherine Sclafney, she leaves her sister, Ann, graduate of San Jose State college in 1939.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 8:30 from the home, 917 Almaden avenue.

Music Recital In Little Theater Presented Today

The first of a series of student recitals sponsored by the Music department will be presented this morning at 11 o'clock in the Little theater. Students and faculty members are invited. Miss Margaret Thomas is in charge.

The first number, Bach's Prelude in E flat, will be played by Wilda Enos, blind pianist, followed by Bach's Three-part Invention, played by Eloiza Ardaiz, pianist.

Pearl Nicholas, mezzo-soprano, will sing a group of three songs, accompanied by Charlotte Morley. Albert Myers, clarinetist, will follow this with a Weber concerto.

Robert Belknap will then present two piano solos, Grieg's Sarabande and Chopin's Polonaise in E flat minor. Next will be Andy Holme, baritone, singing the well-known "Largo al factotum della citta" from the Barber of Seville.

Concluding presentation will be Haydn's Quartet No. 71, played by Sydney Voight, violinist; Leon Matthews, violinist; Dennis Barrett, violist; and Maurine Cornell, violoncellist.

EDITORIAL

Circumstantial evidence already has linked San Jose State college with destructive raids on the College of Pacific campus as the customary prelude to the annual traditional football classic between the two institutions.

Whether we are guilty of continuing this menace which becomes greater with each year, or whether it was a piece of strategy employed by Cal Aggies' students, who are also allegedly said to have made a raid the same night, is not certain to authorities. It has been mildly rumored about the local campus that San Jose students have made an attack on C.O.P. However, past experience tells us that bragadocio, not "mild rumors", is the sequel to raids on rival colleges. It is upon this basis that we place our hopes of exoneration.

Without a doubt there are those of us who have planned to pay an unsocial call to the Stockton college, not realizing the probable consequences. With this college attacking C. O. P., and its students reciprocating in a like manner, this "horseplay" can very easily lead to strained relations between the two schools.

This would ultimately mean complete severing of relations with College of Pacific, removing the most remunerative and most traditional football game on our schedule—a disastrous result both practically and sentimentally.

Let's look at it from this angle before doing anything drastic.

Men Of '44 Wear Pajamas At Bonfire

Men students of the class of '44 will appear en masse in their pajamas at the bonfire rally by Spartan stadium November 7, it was decided by the Rally committee yesterday.

Although freshmen are not allowed to aid in the construction and guarding of the fire, they will participate in the rally and festivities of the evening prior to the COP football game.

Present plans call for students to meet first in the rooting section of Spartan stadium where they will witness a display of fireworks. They will form a serpentine, march around the field, and out the main gate to the location of the fire which will be built east of the stadium.

EX-COUNCILMAN HERE ON SHORT VISIT

Verne Williams, former student councilman who resigned to enter the Naval Reserve corps, returned to the campus yesterday.

Leaving late in September, Williams has spent a month of training in Norfolk, Virginia. He said he plans to enter shore school at Northwestern university if he can pass the strict examination.

Delta Sigma Gamma, campus social fraternity, is planning a dance in honor of Williams tomorrow night at the fraternity house.

Open Forum Hears Three Speakers At Meeting Today

Speakers at the Open Forum meeting in room 1 of the Art building today at 11:10 will cover three points in their ten-minute speeches: Their assumptions regarding the causes of war, the proposal they believe will deal with the problem adequately, and the reasons they think the proposal is practical.

Dr. Victor Hunt, history teacher, will argue for economic reorganization. Morgan Harris, director in co-operative association of California, proposes a world federal union, while Rev. Stephen Peabody, minister of the Congregational church, supports religious pacifism.

Sink-easies, swim-easies, and epicures will make a social splash today at the thirty-first quarterly Swim-a-nic beginning at 4:30 o'clock in the college pool and terminating with dinner at the Hotel D'Italia.

Pumpkin scrambles and apple relays in a Hallowe'en mood, plus games, contests and students will highlight an afternoon of fun to which all college women are invited to participate.

HEALTH APPROVAL

The only requirements to join in the free funfest are an approval from the Health department and a swimming cap, according to Miss Gail Tucker, instructor.

There is still time for students who have not done so, to sign up for the dinner on the bulletin board either in the Women's gym or dressing room of the pool. Price of dinner is 50 cents.

Pumpkins in a sur-realistic style, autumn leaves, and tombstone place cards will decorate the dinner table in a Hallowe'en motif.

SPECIAL MENU

A special menu to satisfy "that after-swim appetite" has been planned.

State Students Linked In COP Campus Raid

Rumors of San Jose State college students invading the College of Pacific campus early this week were further substantiated yesterday afternoon when Dean of Men Paul M. Pitman received the following letter from College of Pacific President Tully C. Knoles:

"It has been brought to my attention this morning that the rope on our flagpole has been cut and a Cal-Aggies' pennant raised to the top of the pole. The lawn around the flagpole has been burned with the Cal-Aggie and San Jose State initials. The front door of our conservatory has been painted with the same monograms, as well as some of the tile work in front of the conservatory building. In addition, there is a large C.-A. burned in one of our green lawns.

"Of course, we do not know on the Pacific campus whether this devastation has been done in retaliation for something which Pacific students or sympathizers have done on your campus, but we want to assure you that if it is in retaliation we shall use all of our influence to keep our students from retaliating in kind. I wish it were possible for us to devise some scheme whereby we might mutually work to the elimination of all such evidences of exuberance.

"I am not writing this letter in any spirit of self-righteousness, but simply to secure information and, if possible, lead in co-operation to save us both in the future."

Very cordially yours,

TULLY C. KNOLES,
President.

The Show Is On . . .

With the announcement in yesterday's Spartan Daily that the director for the Spartan Revelries will soon be appointed, begins preparation for San Jose State college's biggest show of the year.

Accompanying the annual spring carnival, Spardi Gras, the student written and directed production usually parades the largest array of student talent to appear on any one occasion.

Director of this musical comedy is an honor which is thoroughly earned by the time the show is ready for presentation. It is a position which requires some knowledge of music, showmanship, and financial and technical problems of stage production, in addition to the ability to deal with various other problems which are likely to be incurred in presenting a student show.

For anyone who wishes to go into this field of work, the director's job is excellent experience, but it also has many aspects of a less pleasant nature which are not apparent beforehand.

Last year the Revelries were given on a slightly different basis than previously. They were presented in the Morris Dailey instead of the Civic auditorium, and all srvcies were donated, the main part of the profit going into a fund for new band uniforms. The show itself, under the direction of Bill Van Vleck, was superior to most of the former productions, both in organization of talent and technical details.

If the same system is employed this year, the director chosen will be the victim of much comparison, but he may be able to benefit by Van Vleck's experiences, and stage an even better show.

DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE

Just Among Ourselves

DID you know our "Mac" was a commodore at the South Bay Yacht club. Yes, sir; a commodore or an admiral or something. He's one of the sailingest sailors you ever saw. Has a boat of his own that braves the wintry seas, jib, mains'l and spanker. (I've often wondered about that spanker.)

And when "Mac" goes out to coach his shinkickers, he carries his nautical language with him. Sir? No, I didn't say naughty.

"A'hey, there, m' lads. The enemy shows his fighting tops on the horizon. All together on the line. We'll catch them on the quarter and sink the craft. Yo, heave, ho," and words to that effect.

Just the same, soccer is a fine sport; a fine game to play and a fine one to watch. I was, I think, the only spectator out there Saturday. Why not get the gang out some time and give the team a cheer? They are doing well.

I went up to Mills Field last Friday to see the varsity off for Santa Barbara. It was thrilling to me when those two great birds, silver and blue, came down out of the air, picked up the forty odd members of our squad, together with their baggage, and sailed off to the south as if they were under no strain whatever. I never thought I'd see that day.

I remember when I was a youngster in high school, I read an article in the Forum magazine by Sir Simon Newcomb, a famous English physicist, in which he proved to my satisfaction and his own that there never would be such a thing as a heavier-than-air flying machine. I thought so well of the gentleman's argument that I accepted his conclusion as my own, and even when the Wright brothers really did fly, I assured anyone who would listen to me that it was just a stunt; that it would never be practical. When I saw those great planes pick up that load Friday I felt like apologizing to a thousand inventors who have made the present marvels possible.

Yes, we're flying these days; flying magnificently. I only wish we could make as much progress in our social affairs as we do in things mechanical.

FROM the many bewildered queries we hear, there seems to be considerable doubt yet about the way the draft is working. Even though the papers have been full of it for the past few weeks, there has been so much confusion in reports that it has been difficult to get a complete and accurate account of the procedure.

HERE IS HOW THE DRAFT WORKS

In a rough way, from what information we have, here is how this national bank night works.

On October 16 approximately 23,000 young men registered in six draft board districts in Santa Clara County. Other counties throughout the country went through the same procedure. After everyone had registered, the cards were collected in the six local draft boards, shuffled, and stamped with consecutive numbers.

NUMBERS RUN HIGHER IN OTHER DISTRICTS

Numbers went into the bowl in Washington to correspond with the highest draft number in any local district, and then a few more went in to cover any late additions.

Numbers in Santa Clara County ran up to a little over 4000, while the highest number in the lottery was almost 9000. So a great many of the numbers picked from the fishbowl affected no one in this county.

Some, too, have evidently confused draft numbers with order numbers. Draft numbers are the ones stamped on the registration cards after the sign-up had been completed. The order number is the order in which your number was drawn from the bowl and which will indicate how soon you will be called to service.

HOW MANY CALLED NOBODY KNOWS

No one knows yet what the county quota will be, but rough estimates are about 1200, which will be 200 from each district, and about 42 from the State college. This means that those holding order numbers up to 1000 or even higher may be called.

However, from another source it is said that the total called in the first draft from the entire state will be only around 1100. So it may be that only 20 or 30 will be taken immediately from the county.

An interesting sidelight of the lottery is that the first number drawn this time is exactly 110 lower than the first drawn in the first World War lottery—158 this time, 258 in 1917.

PUNCHING THE BAG

By CON LACY

Entrance of a boxing squad into the annual novice wrestling tournament adds color to that event now scheduled for the evening of November 15 in Spartan pavilion.

With such boxing stalwarts as Bill Sellers, Bob Weber, Dick Myagawa, Bob Payne, and Dave Siemon entered in the tourney, the mittmen may well capture the team trophy. Karl Kuhl's Nazi matmen is the only team likely to give the boxers any trouble. Kuhl also boasts a colorful team, with swastika emblems on each uniform.

The boxers are after revenge in this tournament, as they well remember two years ago when the wrestlers entered a team in the boxing novice event.

The wrestlers put on the most colorful bouts of the evening, and ended up third in team standings with one champion and one runner-up.

Fortune Masdea, last year's captain and judo expert, was the only matster to win, and he put up a real show. The wrestlers passed the word around, that if they were behind in the second round, they would come out and body-slam their opponents in the third round.

Masdea's opponents were up against a mental hazard as well, for they knew he really intended to hip-throw them if he got behind. Maybe that's one reason he never got behind.

But he didn't know he was ahead. At the beginning of the third round, he asked his seconds if he should go out and pin the guy this round. He had only knocked his opponent down about three times, and they had a tough time persuading him to keep on boxing.

Anyway he won the title, and the boxers claim they can end up with even more success in the novice mat tourney.

ON THE SPOT

SPARTANS FAVORED IN SOUTH TO KNOCK OVER LOYOLA'S LIONS

San Jose's Golden Raiders will find themselves "on the spot" tomorrow night when they invade Los Angeles for their Gilmore stadium battle with Loyola's Lions.

According to reports from the south, the Spartans are being installed as favorites to knock over the lions for the second straight year.

Last year a touchdown, and Kenny Cook's educated toe gave San Jose a 10 to 0 win in a rugged ball game.

With a tough scrimmage Tuesday night, and defensive work against Loyola pass plays stressed in yesterday's practice, the Spartans will taper off with a light practice this afternoon, prior to tomorrow morning's take-off.

Tomorrow night's game will be broadcast over a coast hook-up direct from Gilmore stadium with Frank Bull at the mike. Broadcast will start shortly before 8 o'clock.

Marty Brill's Lions, hot on the victory trail, emerged from last week's 20 to 0 win over College of Pacific without major casualties and will be in top shape for San Jose.

BIG LINE

One of the Sparta's chief worries will be the hefty Lion forward wall, which averages around the 220 pound mark.

Defensive stars of Tuesday's night scrimmage were George Hearn and Kenny Stanger, who were all over the field making stops.

Willie Wool, center, was a casualty, requiring a couple of stitches to close a cut over his left eye.

Morris Buckingham, defensive general, wasn't in a suit, favoring a slight injury which is not expected to keep him out of the Loyola clash, however.

NOVICE MAT TOURNEY POSTPONED; JUNIOR PAAU SET FOR NOVEMBER 9

Postponement of the annual all-college novice wrestling tournament, originally scheduled for tomorrow night, until November 15, makes the Junior PAAU tournament in Spartan pavilion, the first action for Coach Sam Della Maggiore's grapplers.

JR. PAAU HELD

The Junior PAAU will be held on the night of November 9 in Spartan pavilion, with teams competing from the Olympic club, University of California, USF, San Francisco State, and many bay area YMCA's.

Della Maggiore plans to use freshman team candidates largely in this tournament, as only men who have never won a major tournament are eligible. However, all novice tournament candidates are eligible to compete.

STILL SIGNING

There is still ample time for freshman and novice team candidates to sign, as fundamental instructions will continue all this quarter, Della Maggiore stated. Next quarter's freshman team will be chosen largely on performances in these two tournaments.

With vacancies existing in several positions on the varsity, likely prospects will be tutored for positions on the varsity squad, Della Maggiore declared.

FROSH SEEK REVENGE AGAINST MOFFETT FIELD IN FRIDAY'S GRID GAME

The San Jose State freshmen-Moffett Field football game Friday afternoon at Moffett Field promises to be one of the most bitterly contested games of the entire schedule.

Determined to turn the tables on the team that was picked in place of them, to face Placer Junior college in the preliminary to the San Jose-South Dakota game, perate last-minute move to bolster his fullback spot has converted end Don Thompsen into a fullback for this game Friday. Thompsen is considered a natural by Hamlow and will be used to relieve injured George Morasci. Regular fullback Al Hardesty has been out of practice all week with a cold and may not be ready to go against the Moffett Field eleven.

Satisfied with the playing of his team against San Mateo last week, Hamlow indicated after a hard scrimmage yesterday that there would be no changes in his regular lineup.

Bob (Flash) Gordan, who gave a good running account of himself against San Mateo, will be in better physical condition for this game, according to Hamlow and will be expected to carry the yearling scoring threat on offense.

Del Colclough, one of the outstanding frosh linemen, will probably be out of the Soldier game due to a deep gash over his right eye suffered during scrimmage yesterday afternoon.

Former Spartan Captain Signed By Olympic Club For Polo Game Tomorrow

San Jose State's chances of defeating the strong Olympic Club water-polo team tomorrow night at San Francisco were given a setback when the Winged "O" septet signed up Frank Savage to play against his former Spartan mates.

Savage was captain of the Spartan team last year, and will cause the Walkermen plenty of trouble when the two teams meet tonight in the crucial game of the Bay Cities Water-Polo League.

SPARTANS SET

The Spartans are set to "cop" this game, as they lost a tough 8-7 decision last time the two teams met. Coach Charley Walker says, "Our spirit is plenty high for this game, and if we get going, we will win this one."

Walker's chief concern is the lighting system, which is none too good in the Olympic club pool. Another item of worry is the salt water mixture the San Franciscans use which the locals are not used to. Aside from this, the Spartans will be in topnotch shape for a win.

Starting lineup will find Egan Hoffman at the goalie spot, Chirp Sparrow, Claude Horan and Capt. Dean Foster at the guard positions, with Bill Iliff, Gene Shirakoff, and Charley Whitaker holding down the forwards posts.

NOTICE

Executive board of the Secretarial Majors club will meet at 12:30 tomorrow in room 133.

ATTENTION, all members of Flower Arrangement club! You are all expected to be present at the Home of Benevolence, 901 S. 12th street, at 3 p.m. Thursday, or as soon as possible when classwork is finished, to work on arrangements. Better bring sandwiches, as work may continue until evening.

CAMPUS POLL GIVES ROOSEVELT, WILLKIE TOSS-UP FOR ELECTION

SEVENTY-NINE PER CENT FAVORS NATIONAL CONSCRIPTION ACT

Roosevelt and Willkie share even honors in the favor of the San Jose State college students, indicates the survey "Who Is Your Choice for President" which was conducted on the campus Monday and Tuesday.

Willkie had a slight edge, garnering 49.3 per cent of the votes to Roosevelt's 48.4 per cent. However, the students used the Gallup

Conscription will be the theme of the Freshman-Sophomore mixer to be held November 4 from 7:30 to 10:30 in the Men's gymnasium, with the sophomores being conscripted for service at the Bonfire rally, and the freshmen conscripted for the Pajamarino. Freshmen men will wear pajamas and the women will wear slacks to the rally.

Tickets for the mixer will be 15 cents and can be bought from class representatives or at booths in the quad. There will be a rally in the Morris Daily auditorium from 12:30 until 1 o'clock on Monday for freshmen and sophomores.

It was suggested at a recent meeting of the Freshman Steering committee that a box be placed in front of the auditorium in which freshmen could drop contributions to help pay for the window broken at the Senior-Junior mixer by members of the freshman class.

CAMP LEADERSHIP GROUP PLANS TRIP TO BIG BASIN PARK

Members of the San Jose State college Camp Leadership group will leave from the Science building at 9 o'clock Sunday morning for an all-day trip to Big Basin State park, according to Dr. Robert Rhodes, adviser of the group.

system which allows for four per cent error, making the final results even. This system is based on the theory that the trend of one-fourth of the opinions of a group are indicative of the general sentiment.

Forty-eight per cent of the students believed in a third term for presidents which is approximately the same percentage that favored Roosevelt.

Of the 4000 students only 31 per cent are eligible to vote, and of these only 87 per cent plan to exercise their privilege.

On the issue of national conscription 79 per cent of the college students questioned agreed that it was a worthy measure, 10 per cent did not approve, and 12 per cent had no opinion.

The poll was favorably comparable to the Gallup poll for the State of California, which indicated 58 per cent Roosevelt supporters to 42 per cent for Willkie.

The poll was instigated by members of Young Democrat and Young Republican groups. The questionnaires were circulated by Dwight Bentel's newswriting class.
