

The weatherman is being good to the football fans who attend the Pacific-San Jose game tonight. He says, it will be slightly cloudy, with little change in temperature.

The game tonight will be broadcast over station KQW beginning at 8 o'clock.

PACIFIC INVADES SPARTA

Here's The Private Life Of Janie May

By IRENE MELTON

"May I speak to Janie May, please? This is Donald."
"Donald who? This is Mrs. Reed speaking."
"Never mind. I want to talk to Janie May."

This telephone conversation from an unknown admirer illustrates one of the events which have changed eight-year-old Spartan Drum Majorette Janie May Reed's life from a normal one to an exciting, fairyland adventure.

As it turned out, Donald proved to be a he-man in the first grade at school, two grades below the object of his affections.

The tiny, blue-eyed blonde, who will lead the San Jose State college band tonight at the gridiron classic with College of the Pacific, will wear her new costume, ordered especially by the college, a white and gold outfit, the skirt of which had to be shortened two inches by Janie May's mother.

Five and a half years old when she first started baton twirling, Sparta's miniature "Glamor Girl" just "picked it up from her older nephew, Robert Reed, Junior," according to Mrs. Reed.

Janie May's interests, for the benefit of aspiring Romeos, do not lie in boy friends but in her pet turtle "Janie", and her dog "Muggsie". These, together with her Shirley Temple doll, a replica of Janie May in her majorette costume, take up the time she has left after practicing one hour each day.

So that her talented daughter might have plenty of space in which to practice, Mrs. Reed has cleared of furniture the front room of their home. Here Janie May goes through intricate one and two-baton routines without fear of damaging anything.

San Jose State college will gain a colorful and famous student when the little girl grows up, for she wants to "study to be a teacher" at the institution where she has become a symbol of college spirit.

ROOTERS HOLD DANCE TONIGHT

Hundreds of San Jose State college and College of Pacific rooters will forget their gridiron rivalries tonight when they gather for an after-game dance celebration in the Men's gym from 10:30 to 12:30.

Congeniality and friendliness will supplant the spirit of competition which has been the theme of both colleges during the past week as students dance to the smooth rhythm of Byron Snow's orchestra.

College of Pacific students are invited to attend the affair either stag or with partners, but Spartans must come in couples, announces Walt Curry, social affairs chairman.

SPARTA'S "POP" AND SWEETHEART

Coach "Pop" Warner and Janie May Reed, 8-year-old Spartan drum majorette, take time out to talk shop during a lull in activity at the local gridiron yesterday. Both will be seen in action tonight, with the former trying to outguess the College of Pacific Tigers and the latter being featured with the college band.

TICKET SALE CLOSES FOR ORGANIZATION DINNER TODAY AT 5 O'CLOCK

ALL CAMPUS GROUPS GIVEN CHANCE TO DISCUSS VARIOUS PROBLEMS

Tickets for the fall quarter Organizations dinner next Wednesday night at the St. Claire hotel will go off sale today at 5 o'clock in the Controller's office.

Priced at 88 cents each, 55 tickets had been sold up to noon yesterday, and Student Council members expect a last minute buying flurry to swell this total considerably before the deadline today.

Last winter quarter's dinner attracted well over 150 representatives of more than 65 organizations, with nearly every group participating in the discussion of campus problems.

AIR GRIEVANCES

This same type of discussion will follow the Wednesday dinner, and campus groups will again be given the chance to air their respective grievances and submit new ideas to the council. Chairman of the discussion will be Student President Bob Payne.

"Each organization on campus should make it its duty to attend this dinner," states Payne. "Last winter the discussion following the dinner gave rise to a number of legislative moves on the campus, and a lot of misunderstanding among various organizations was cleared up."

Any organization that has not been notified of the dinner because of an incomplete list on file, is asked by Gay Van Perre, council woman, to attend and purchase tickets at the Controller's office.

DTO's Annual Formal Dance Tomorrow

Delta Theta Omega's annual formal "Big Game" dance, a fraternity tradition since 1929, will be held at Millbrae Country club tomorrow night.

Hal Moreno and his orchestra, playing last year at the Intersociety dance, will furnish the music from 9 until 1 o'clock.

The dance, which will celebrate the annual grid clash between San Jose State college and the College of Pacific, will also honor nine pledges. They are Dick Dierker, Orlyn Gire, Hugh Manley, Garry Davis, Boy Lilja, Wally Marshall, Jim Farwell, Don True and Jim Horst.

Bids are on sale at the Controller's office.

Big Game Brings Rivals Together For 16th Meeting

SAN JOSE RATES FAVORED SPOT IN TONIGHT'S GAME

By BENNIE FRIZZI

It's Pop Warner versus Amos Alonzo Stagg and the COP Tiger against the San Jose Spartan tonight at the stadium when the two old rivals square off against each other.

Just what the final outcome will be depends upon a number of factors, the most important being the weather.

On a dry field it promises to be a ding-dong battle, despite the more impressive record run up by the Spartans to date.

On a wet field, the experts are inclined to pick the Spartans, mainly due to their more powerful ground attack, advantage in weight, and past performances in the slush.

Discounting that first game against Texas, the San Joseans have shown that they can make their running attack go in the mud. They turned the trick impressively in Utah, Santa Barbara and Portland.

On the other hand, Pacific has yet to prove its ability to move in the rain. Against Loyola their flankers couldn't get under way due to a soggy ball.

Outweighed by several pounds to the man, the Pacifics will be depending on their spread pass formations to score against Sparta. This in turn depends on a

GALA RECEPTION GREET'S TIGER ROOTERS' TRAIN

Reception extended San Jose State college students last year will be reciprocated today when the COP trekkers arrive on the 5:45 train.

Following arrival of San Jose State's biggest rivals, rooters of both colleges will "hop in" cars and trucks lined up in the respective places near the depot. A parade through the main sections of town will be climaxed by a short rally which will be held in a centrally located point, according to rally officials.

Organizations will line up in individual sections as follows: Section A, including the band, officials, and rally committee, will meet at the entrance of the S. P. depot on the Alameda; section B, which is composed of Allenian, Alpha Pi Omega, Beta Gamma Chi, Delta Sigma Gamma, Delta Beta Sigma, and Delta Theta Omega, will meet at West San Fernando and Cahill streets.

Whew! Saved By A Holiday

Whew, what a week!

Guarding the bonfire since Tuesday night, taking part in the rally and bonfire last night, and attending the COP reception, game and dance tonight, will lead many students to welcome a chance to recuperate. So there will be no Monday classes . . . because it is a legal holiday, November 11. That's right, Armistice Day.

The question is, will Monday be used by the students to refresh themselves or . . .? Oh well, there's always next weekend to catch up on one's shut-eye, and Christmas vacation isn't far off either.

Eight Thousand Attend Huge Bonfire Rally

Approximately eight thousand enthusiastic San Jose State college students and townspeople arrived en masse at Spartan stadium last night for the first bonfire and biggest rally in a decade.

Opening ceremonies included the college marching band's playing of the "Trumpet of Victory" while a COP casket was solemnly brought onto the field.

One of the most colorful events of the evening was the army of energetic pajama-clad first year men who carried an emblem with the words "Freshmen, Proud of It," and "Class of 44".

Floyd Thompson, head yell leader from COP, led the group in a series of Spartan yells, and Phil Biddie, student body president of the rival college, addressed the crowd.

The crowd formed a serpentine following the band in a triumphal march around the stadium, and to the location of the bonfire. Preliminary to the lighting of the fire was a display of fireworks.

DAY EDITOR, This Issue.....FRANK BONANNO

Editorials and features appearing in the Spartan Daily reflect the viewpoint of the writer and make no claim to represent student or college opinion, nor are they necessarily expressive of the Daily's own policy. Unsigned editorials are by the editor.

Overdoing It . . .

To give its readers the opportunity to express their opinions on various issues that arise during the course of the year, the Spartan Daily has for a number of years set aside a contributors' column, "Thrust and Parry". The popularity of this column at the outset has warranted its being established as a permanent feature of the paper. Out of the maze of material that has been contributed, there has been a notable share of readable, inspirational material.

Of late, however, the "Thrust and Parry" column has been "getting too big for its breeches" in the sense that its many authors have disregarded the 150-word limitation and have written far in excess of the maximum count set by the editorial board. We have always given articles that run over the limit by a few words a great deal of leeway and without complaint, but our more recent contributors have written without regard to length.

Hereafter, articles that do not conform to the limit we have set will automatically be rejected. There are those who are using the contributors' column to carry on lengthy debates that only weary the readers. This shall also be curbed.

"Thrusts and Parries" are always welcome, but don't abuse the privilege.

Thrust and Parry

CONTRIBUTOR'S COLUMN

All Thrust and Parry contributions must be signed by the writer. Only initials will be printed if desired, but the article will be accessible to anyone wishing to see it.

England A Victim Of Class Rule

Dear Thrust and Parry:

"It is not against England that this column has ever argued, but against policies initiated by a terribly blind and conceited ruling group that has dragged, not only a great and glorious England to the very edge of the pit of destruction, but for a second time, the whole world with it.

It is precisely because of this writer's natural-born understanding of the channels of thought and intent of the ruling class in England that this column has clung so tenaciously to the belief that we in America must not become involved in the war in Europe.

The greatest tragedy of some of our leading Americans—including educators, rich people, socially elite—all the kind of people you find supporting William Allen White's Committee—is that by urging the impossible policy of "steps short of war", they are not helping to preserve democracy, but thrusting it nearer and nearer to ruin for decades to come."

So writes Boake Carter, well-known columnist and commentator. When is America going to wake up to the aims of a small minority who are pushing this unwilling country towards war?

When is America going to wake up to the real menace of freedom and democracy—those who would have the United States help defend an empire and "class conscious" ruling aristocrats?

VIC GORIN.

What Excuse For The "Purge"?

Thrust and Parry and Mr. Allan Isaksen:

In your article, appearing last Tuesday, you said, confessing that it was a point that bore discussion, that the German people's background was one which is wholly incompatible with the theory that they wish to impose forceful domination on all of the western civilization.

Very well, Mr. Isaksen, but what excuse could you give for the disgraceful conduct of the German people in their purge of the Jewish people? Also, what excuse could you give for the so-called Nazi "purification" of their country, saying that they are the pure, dominant, Aryan race of the world?

What, Mr. Isaksen, has the "British Imperialism" got to do with these stains on Nazi-ism and its fount ways?

DAVE KNAPP.

POM-POM OR PON? NOW WE KNOW

Dear Editor:

I see by yesterday's paper that the Spartan Spears are manufacturing and selling the latest type anti-aircraft gun on the San Jose State College campus. That's what I call co-operation with the government in the new defense movement.

P.S. Says Webster, a pom-pon is an automatic one-pound cannon, so called because of the peculiar drumming sound it makes while in action. Now a pom-pon . . . that's a different thing.

But then, even the Republicans make mistakes occasionally.

Yours truly,
ANONYMOUS.

DAILY OUTLINES SIX POINTS IN FLAG DISPLAY

(Editor's note: Because of the recent surge of American patriotism and the wide display of the colors during next Monday's Armistice day celebration, the Spartan Daily is listing a few rules of flag etiquette often broken unknowingly by citizens.)

1. The Flag should be displayed on Patriotic and State Holidays and on historic and special occasions, particularly on V.F.W. Americanization Day, April 27th.

2. Every home, every individual establishment, every public building should own a flag and display it.

3. The use of the Flag as a receptacle for receiving, holding, carrying or delivering anything should be prohibited.

4. When the Flag is used for decoration, certain rules should always be followed:

(a) In crossing our Flag with other flag, the Stars and Stripes should be at the right.

(b) Should never be placed below a person sitting.

(c) Nothing should be allowed to rest upon it save the Bible.

(d) Should never be draped nor twisted into rosettes, but always displayed full, open and free. Blue, white and red bunting should be used for drapery. When hanging bunting horizontally, the blue band should be on top.

5. No advertisement can ever be placed on the flag—nor can it be used as or with a trade-mark. It should never be worn as a whole or part of costume. When worn as a badge, should be pinned over left breast or in left lapel.

6. When "The Star Spangled Banner" is played and the Flag is not displayed, all persons should stand and face the direction from which the music comes. Those in uniform should salute at the first note of the anthem, retaining this position until the last note. All others should stand at attention, men removing their head-dress.

Through the Perry-Scope

Bonfire Banter

Up to the time of this writing the City of Sparta was out in front in the friendly war with the Tigers from Stockton. Although our campus has been invaded, the grass burned slightly, and a couple of telephone poles burned in two out at the bonfire, the damage was inconsequential and served merely to rouse our student body to more alert watchfulness.

Clippers Feared

Tau Delts put the fear of heaven into the two COP raiders who were unfortunate enough to fall into their hands Monday night. After the rest of the Stockton campus took a look at those boys we'll wager they cut down their margin of risk by staying a long way from our bonfire.

It might have been a good idea to keep the two victims for a day or so and display them in a cage in the middle of the quad, but after the plastering the Tau Delts gave the raiders it was beyond the bounds of humanity. The men from the Tower had just finished an informal initiation and had all the necessary goo for a beautiful paint and daub job.

So we can feel justifiably that we are on the top end of the score so far, and there is every reason to believe we will still be on top after tonight.

Spartan Raid Tried

This matter of attacks and counter-attacks between the two traditional rivals has come in for considerable pointed language from the administrations of both colleges. The administration however, is not particularly perturbed over the attempts to light the bonfires, but over the burning of grass and paint on the campus.

A group from Washington Square had a brainchild and went to COP Tuesday afternoon for a try at their bonfire but drove over Stockton without finding it. They had a beautiful plan, carried with them a log for the fire—loaded with a time bomb which would explode an hour or so after it was deposited. But they couldn't find the bonfire.

Good For Blood

As long as this rivalry is tempered with common sense and allowed to get out of hand, we feel it is a good thing. This has been one which ties the whole student body together. You make a lot of friends during the night hours spent guarding a bonfire, lying in wait for some COP guy on a corner of the campus. Let's try to hold the rivalry on the plane.

SPARTANS HOLD FIRST JUNIOR P.A.A.U. MAT TOURNAMENT TOMORROW

DELLA MAGGIORE ENTERS 15 GRAPPLERS IN BIG EVENT

San Jose State college will conduct its first Junior PAAU wrestling tournament in Spartan pavilion tomorrow evening at 8:00 o'clock, with approximately 15 Spartans competing for titles.

Almost all bay area teams will be represented, with entries from University of California, Olympic club, San Francisco YMCA, Oakland YMCA, Berkeley YMCA, San Francisco State, and California Aggies.

With winners of all previous tournaments barred, Coach Sam Della Maggiore is planning to use mostly freshman and novice wrestlers. Most of the novice-men signed up for next week's all-college tourney will be entered.

Della Maggiore plans to hold most of his varsity candidates out of the Junior tourney. However, two prominent varsity candidates are entered. Ivan Olsen, transfer from Los Angeles City college, and Freddie Albright, who was out of school last year, will compete in the 135 and 127 pound classes respectively.

Another transfer from Fullerton Junior college, Yoshohino Uchida, has been entered by Della Maggiore in the 121 pound class. Uchida registered this quarter but has failed to report for practice. Della Maggiore submitted his name with the other entrants, in hope that he would show up in time for the tourney.

FROSH MERMEN PREPARE FOR JEWISH CENTER

With one game left on the schedule for the San Jose freshman water polo team, Coach Charley Walker is sending his squad through strenuous practice.

Wednesday night the Frosh end their league schedule against the San Francisco Jewish Community Center team in the local pool. Last time these two teams met, the Walkermen were victorious.

With a win over the strong Stanford freshmen team Wednesday night, the frosh hope to end their season with an impressive win.

However they have no chances to take first in the Bay Cities Water Polo "B" league as they lost both games to the Olympic club "B" team.

Will the Faculty advisers of campus organizations, whose pictures appear in the La Torre, make appointments at their earliest convenience at the La Torre desk in the Publications office.

SPARTAN JUDO TEAM BEATEN BY CALIFORNIA

EXTRA BOUTS NECESSARY TO BREAK TIE

San Jose State college's four-man judo team went down before the University of California squad Wednesday evening in a hectic dual meet that took three extra matches to break a deadlock, with the Spartans finally losing four to three.

In the regulation four matches, San Jose led until the final when Captain Innemoto of California flipped Walt Kuehinis with an inside leg-trip, to tie the score.

NO DRAWS

As there are no ties allowed in judo, an extra match was necessary to break the deadlock. Harry Bergey of San Jose went to a draw with the California man De Hary, leaving the score tied.

In the second extra match, Walt Kuehinis and Suzuki of California went to another draw, leaving the meet still undecided.

MEUTHER TOSSED

In the last match, Captain Innemoto of California won his second match of the evening by tossing Bill Meuther with a foot-trip to give the Bears a narrow victory.

A return match at San Jose has been arranged for the first week after Thanksgiving, according to Coach Mel Bruno. Bruno declared that he was more than satisfied with his team's performance in their first intercollegiate meet against experienced judo men.

In the preliminary bouts, Jack Fancher of Sparta went to a draw with De Hary of California.

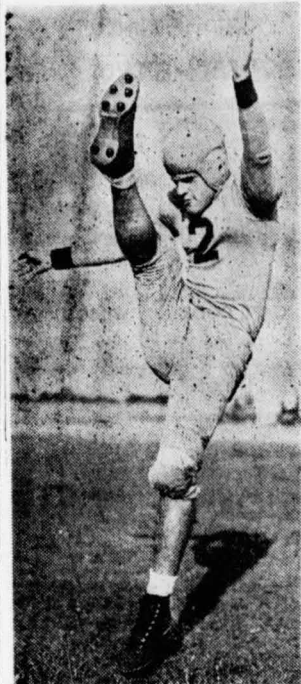

Bill Meuther gave San Jose an early lead by tripping Suzuki, and Harry Bergey drew with Black of California.

Andrews played a part in San Jose's victory over Loyola, getting off a 60 yard quick kick that holed the Lions deep in their own territory in the second half.

One of the outstanding downtown grid displays dealing with the COP game has been prepared by Gene Rocchi and Owen Wells, students, in one of the Hale Bros. store show windows.

The display features a miniature gridiron and half stadium with pictures of Pop Warner and Alonzo Stagg, with photographs of a San Jose gridiron eleven spaced in actual positions in the field. Wells did the art work, Rocchi the photography.

Spartlets Wind-Up Season Tomorrow Against St. Mary's

San Jose State's scrappy band of freshman football players invade Saint Mary's tomorrow for their final game of the season against Saint Mary's freshman. Kickoff at 2:30 o'clock.

The game will wind up the 1940 six-game schedule for the Spartans. With three defeats and two wins to their record, the freshmen will try and even the score against the strong Gael squad.

For the first time this year the Spartan freshman will enter a game at full strength. The return of Al Hardesty and Del Colclough to the lineup will give the yearling added power tomorrow.

Having worked them hard all week and scrimmaging them against the varsity, Coach Fred Hamlow is confident that his team will play their best game of the season against the Gaels tomorrow.

Hamlow will depend on his forward wall to stop the powerful running attack of the opponents. From end to end the Spartans boast a strong defensive line. Few opponents have scored through the center of the frosh line, but most of the touchdowns against them have been made via the air route.

With Colclough starting at right tackle and Vernon Cartwright a made over quarterback opening at center San Jose's line will be on a par with that of the Gaels.

Using a devastating ground attack and a tricky passing offense, Saint Mary's will depend on straight ahead power to subdue the Spartans.

San Jose's starting lineup:
Center—Vernon Cartwright.
Right guard—Hans Wiedenhofer.
Right tackle—Del Colclough.

Right Half—Bob Gordan.

State Champs Crowned Soon In Ping Pong

The California State ping pong championship tournament will be held in the lobby of the St. Clair hotel, December 13 and 14, according to Bob Payne, student body president.

All San Jose State college students are invited to participate in the tourney. There will be an entrance fee of twenty-five cents to defray costs of the affair.

SPORT SLANTS

BY BENNIE FRIZZI

Although San Jose has dominated football relations with College of Pacific from 1931 on, take a look at the records before that time and see a different story.

Up to 1932, the Tigers really poured it on the Spartans, winning by some overwhelming scores. The teams started meeting in 1921 when the Tigers won by a score of 34 to 0. The next two years, Pacific added insult to injury by trimming Sparta, 23 to 0 and 46 to 0.

This was enough for San Jose, and it seems the Spartans laid low until 1926, when they must have figured they were again ready to match the Tigers. That year the score was 38 to 0 in favor of Pacific.

Again San Jose retreated to map out an attack, not coming back against the Tigers until 1929. They must have learned something during that three year lapse because Pacific was lucky to get a 6 to 6 tie that year.

But the revival was only temporary. In 1930 and 31 the Tigers went back to their old ways, trimming San Jose 27 to 0 each year.

And then came the Revolution. From that time right on down to tonight's game, San Jose has trimmed the Tigers seven times, the string being broken only once by a scoreless tie in 1935. The scores have been 7-0, 12-6, 13-0, 8-0, 12-7, 19-6, and 13-3 right on down the line.

The records now show 7 wins for San Jose, 6 for Pacific, and two ties. Tonight's game will mark the 16th meeting of the two old rivals. Pacific has a chance to tie up the series, and don't think they won't be trying their damndest to do just that.

On the other hand San Jose will be out to extend their win streak, both for this season and for the Tiger series. They'll be out after No. 8, their 8th win of the year, and their 8th consecutive triumph over the Tigers.

Tonight's game will not only mark the resumption of a team feud, but also an individual rivalry which dates back to 1907 when Pop Warner's Indians knocked over Stagg's Chicago Maroons. Their only other meeting was last year's 13 to 3 triumph for San Jose. So it would please old Alonzo nothing better than to chalk up No. 1 over old "Poppus".

It appears that the jersey feud has also been settled. The feud really dates back to last year when the visiting Spartans would not change their jerseys at Stockton. So in a way you can't blame Alonzo for arguing. Both teams plan to wear their originals, the Tiger uppers being set off with quite a bit of black.

TIGER STAR

DWAYNE MEARS—FULL

Above you see the successor to plunging Bob Adamina, the Tiger star of past years. He weighs 203 pounds, heaviest man on the Tiger squad. Pacific fans will be depending on Mears to match the plunging of San Jose's Truck Tornell and Dick Hubbell.

Boxing Prospects End As Portal Loses 6 Regulars

With six out of eight last year's lettermen lost for the coming season, Coach DeWitt Portal's boxing prospects do not look rosy.

Only Bill Sellers at 118 pounds, who finished second in the National Intercollegiate tournament last year, and Captain-elect Gene Fisk in the welterweight spot, return.

SELLERS BACK

However Portal has a host of prospects enrolled in his boxing classes, with at least three promising candidates in each division who may develop. Several outstanding freshmen of last year will also fill in the vacancies.

Heaviest hit by graduation are the upper divisions. Portal finds that he has virtually no experienced men in either the light-heavyweight or heavyweight classes. Don Presley, now fighting professional, leaves a big gap in the heavy ranks, while both Pete Bolich and Bill Amann are out of school in the 175 pound class.

S. J. SOCCERITES FACE STANFORD TOMORROW, 10

Macmen, Indians Undefeated

San Jose State college's soccer team runs into its biggest obstacle on the road to retaining the Northern California Intercollegiate conference championship crown when it tangles with Stanford on the Indians' ground tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

UNDEFEATED

Both teams are in the same boat, neither outfit having lost an encounter this year. The Spartans' defense ability will meet an acid test, as well as their offensive thrusts. Only one goal has been made against Coach Hovey McDonald's men in four contests, while they scored 14 against opponents.

Stanford downed the California Aggies, 4 to 2, last Saturday, while the Macmen blanketed Menlo Junior college, 5 to 0.

The Indians proved last year that they are capable of ruining championship hopes for opponents. California was leading the conference until the final game, when Stanford upset the Bears and gave the crown to San Jose.

LINE-UP

McDonald announces that he will start the same line-up that has opened most of the games this season. Art Tindall, who has tallied four points this year, will open at center forward. Ray Fahn, of the most versatile players on the team, will start at inside left.

Capt. Fred Albright, a scrappy player who is always on his toes, will be at center half. Ed Turner will probably be at left half; Ernest Figone, right half; Mert Crockett, left wing; John Peebles, right wing; Gus Kotta, inside right; Roy Diedericksen, right full; Phil Nell, left full, and Tony Nasimento, goalie.

Frank Martella, Bill Gurnea, Frank Arnerich and Usher Tucker may earn a starting berth.

NOTICE

Signs are still being stenciled on students' cars at Fourth and San Carlos this afternoon. A small fee will be charged to cover the cost of materials used for signs.

former Pacific Coast champion, has graduated, and Charley Stone, last year's reserve, is out of school.

Two former Pacific Coast champions are lost in Charles Kerwin and Bill Bolich at 135 and 145 respectively, while Dale Wren, four year standout in the featherweight division, has exhausted his eligibility.

HAMILL, HALBERT LISTED AS ONLY CASUALTIES; C.O.P. FIRED UP FOR TILT

dry field, and if it rains tonight—well, you guess!

Although outweighed in the line, the Pacifics will field the heavier backfield tonight. Topped by Fullback Wayne Mears at 203, the Tiger backfield averages 182 pounds to the man. Their starting line average measures up to 184.

Biggest man in the line is Ijams at left tackle who hits 220. The scale tapers down to 167 and 169, the listed poundage for the two ends, Jacobsen and Boyarsky respectively.

Both teams went through their final workouts yesterday afternoon, San Jose throwing up a defense against the Tiger flankers and passes, while the Tigers concentrated on means of stopping the Spartan running attack.

Two changes will be made in the Spartan starting lineup, according to Coach Ben Winkelman. Ben will open with Ray Belnap at right tackle in place of Bob Hamill, and Howard Costello at left halfback for Aubrey Minter.

Just how long Costello will play depends upon how well his trick knee stands up under the slashing Tiger tackles.

A badly bruised right knee is the reason for Hamill's retirement to the bench at kick-off. Hamill hurt the knee in the first half of the Loyola game, and probably will see a minimum of action tonight.

Reports from the Tiger lair last night revealed that Dale Halbert, one of their key backs, is out for the rest of the season due to a back injury suffered in the Cal Aggie game last week.

Hamill and Halbert are the only casualties for either team. The Tigers will be at their best strength since their opener with Notre Dame. Since their bruising game with the Irish, the Pacifics have had a couple of stars laid up for each game.

But tonight, all the boys want to be in tip-top condition. It's the big game and the Tigers are determined to knock over the Spartans for the first time since 1931.

Contrastingly, the Spartans are out to keep their record clear of another defeat. They know they will have their hands full against the Tigers, and every Spartan knows he will have to boom and boom hard to down the inspired Bengals.

LINE STRENGTH

AL IRWIN—SENIOR GUARD

This Tiger will be getting his last crack at a Spartan team tonight and is no doubt fired up to make good on his final try. Irwin, 186 pounds, is regarded as one of the towers of strength in the COP forward wall, that hopes to stop the Spartan victory string tonight.

Gymnastic Squad Being Organized For CCAA Meet

First workout of the newly organized tumbling and gymnastic squad will be held next week, providing enough candidates sign up, according to Coach Hovey McDonald.

Preparations are being made for competition in the California Collegiate Athletic Association's Winter Sports Carnival at San Jose next quarter, and if sufficient interest is shown, dual meets may be arranged.

Competition will be held in tumbling, gymnastics, apparatus, and bar work. Candidates interested should sign with McDonald or Jack Baldwin, manager, immediately.

Six Co-Eds Chosen For Tennis Play

True urges all men rooters to get their megaphones for tonight's game and to keep them for future games.

Musical Jamboree Starts Week's Benefit Programs To Raise Quota

The annual Community Chest drive on the Spartan campus gets under way Tuesday, when contribution boxes will be placed in the corridors, and the musical jamboree show is held in the Morris Dailly auditorium that night.

Students will be asked to contribute their 10 cents in the boxes during the seven-day drive. All organization heads are asked by Van Vleck to look in their co-op boxes for Community Chest contribution instructions.

AWA Banquet Planned For December 2

Date of the AWA Christmas banquet has been set for December 2, according to Jerrie Jurras, president.

The dinner, an annual event given for the benefit of underprivileged children of San Jose, will be under the direction of Norma Braemser and will be held at the Sainte Claire hotel.

"The usual price of the dinner is $1 and each woman attending is asked to bring some toy also," states Miss Braemser.

In charge of arrangements for the event is Marcella Smith with Jewel Abbott, Jeanette Abbott and Bertie Lee Farnham assisting her. Norma Braemser will supervise the making and selling of the tickets to the occasion with the help of Elsa Anderson, Ruth Wool, and Mary Cary.

With Eleanor Hamilton as chairman, the decorations committee will function through Daphne Gardner, Kimiko Higashiuchi, Janet Wilder, Elaine Gallagher, and Jean McInnes. The making of place cards, a subdivision of this committee, is under the supervision of Virginia Harley with Pat Doyle, Betty Brown-ton, and Arilee Hanson assisting her.

NOTICE

Orchestrists: Tango dancers bring white skirts to practice today at 4 o'clock.

The 10 per cent increase finds San Jose State college required to raise $360; but according to Van Vleck, the committee will try to reach the $400 mark before the drive is over.

That night in the Morris Dailly auditorium, students are invited to attend the musical jamboree under the direction of Harvey Brooks.

"Rehearsals will be held over the week-end, and the show will be ready by Tuesday night," states Brooks.

Promising a variety of entertainment with plenty of music, singing, and dancing, the show will be the first in a series of benefit programs to help raise the chest quota. On Thursday night in the Men's gym, Coach DeWitt Portal will present his annual boxing and wrestling show.

According to Portal, the highlight of the show will be the battle royal being staged by the members of the student council. The male members will be blindfolded and with pillows as clubs will attempt to prove "that a house divided cannot stand". The women members of the council will act as seconds and nurses in the battle.

On November 19 Nu Iota Chi journalism fraternity, will sponsor the big Community Chest dance. Negotiations are still under way to secure three bands for the dance according to Dance Chairman Vance Perry.

The entire student body and faculty are asked by Chairman Van Vleck to "share" and help raise the $400 quota.
