VOL. XXIX SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, MONDAY, JANUARY 27, 1941 Number 74

COMBINED BUDGET SUBMITTED

A request for $1,199,330 for expansion needs was submitted to the state legislature in a bill introduced Friday by Assemblyman M. G. Del Mutolo of San Jose.

On the same day Governor Olson introduced $1274,521 for San Jose State in the amount requested for support, minor improvements and repairs, and summer sessions for the seven state colleges for the next two years.

Legislators representing the districts in which the seven state colleges are located plan to introduce a bill soon which will combine the total requests of all the state colleges for purchase of land and new buildings.

Del Mutolo's bill was introduced to protect San Jose State's interests in the combined bill, according to President T. W. MacQuarrie.

"In the fear that something might happen to the big bill, the legislators planned for a member of each college district to introduce a bill seeking the amount which the college is asking, just as a protection," said Dr. MacQuarrie.

The bill which the governor presented Friday included $1,206,601 for support of San Jose State for the next two years, $18,500 for minor improvements and repairs, and $49,420 for expenses of the summer sessions.

ART MAJORS DISPLAY WORK

The best works of the art majors during the last quarter are on exhibition for the first time today in the art wing. The display will continue for the following two weeks.

A quarterly event, the display is comprised of the works in the various fields of art. Within the display will be paintings in both water color and oil, sculpture and ceramics, pencil drawings and charcoal sketches, according to Louis La Barbera, director of art displays.

This display replaces the graphic art exhibition which featured the contemporary works of the artists in that field, according to Richard E. Skinner, art instructor.

'March Of Dimes' Continues Today

Campus "March of Dimes," sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, service fraternity, to help prevent the spread of infantile paralysis will continue today through to Friday when it is culminated nationally by the President's Ball.

The fraternity, in cooperation with the national drive, has set up boxes to collect contributions in front of the Morris Dailey auditorium, Publications office, and in the Spartan Shop.

The committee in charge on the campus consists of Frank Valenti, Bob McArthur, and Kenny Alford. Group contributions from organizations, sororities and fraternities, can be turned in to them.

Money collected on the drive will be turned in to the San Jose city chapter of the "March of Dimes" board.

SAN JOSE STATE LOSES CIVIL AERONAUTICS FLIGHT TRAINING

LACK OF ADEQUATE FACILITIES REASON FOR OFFICIAL RULING

San Jose State college's part in the CAA flight training program received a decided blow Friday when college CAA officials announced the loss of its flight training contract.

Along with this announcement came the declaration that the college would continue its CAA ground work training, having received a quota of 20 primary students from national headquarters in Washington.

The loss of the college flight training contract came about due to increased air traffic at the San Jose airport where the Army has branched out in its flight work, according to Controller Charles E. Stewart, assistant co-ordinator of the college CAA program.

Stewart stated that CAA officials feel there is too much Army activity and air traffic at the San Jose airport now, which conflicts with the college's program under the Civil Aeronautics Authority.

He said arrangements are being made with the CAA to transfer actual flight training of the college's 20 approved students to the Mountain View Progressive airport.

Under such a plan the training would be handled by CAA instructors of the Mountain View area, and the 20 students would have to arrange for their own transportation to and from that airport.

College officials expressed deep regret over loss of the flight program which was a big boom for the college not only from the prestige angle but also from a monetary standpoint.

They expressed belief that if the city of San Jose's plans for a new airport were more advanced at this time the college would be willing to construct its own permanent hangar and workshop on such a municipal field.

According to President T. W. MacQuarrie, the college was having a difficult time meeting the requirements set down by the CAA due mostly to lack of an adequate field on which to conduct the flight training.

The new quota of 20 fliers will be made up from over 75 student applicants who passed preliminary physical examinations in the Health office the first of the quarter. The selected 20 will then have to undergo another rigid check-up from Dr. E. C. Moore, official CAA medical examiner for this district.

According to Stewart the future of the college's CAA participation is uncertain at present. Its future status will depend largely on just how far the city goes in its plans for a new municipal air field in northwest San Jose.

City voters approved bonds for the new airport during last spring's election and preliminary plans dealing with actual construction are now in the completion stage, according to Chamber of Commerce officials.

FROSH GIVEN 'OR ELSE' EDICT

Are you disturbed by embarrassing situations?

Such a question might appear on a personality test, but the survey in this case is being made by the sophomore class, who is using its own method to warn freshmen against wearing jeans.

This apparel is strictly for soph, according to tradition and the second year students' ruling. "Our whole class is behind this campaign, and after one warning, any frosh in jeans will suffer the consequences," exclaims Burton Smith, sophomore executive committee member.

"Perhaps," adds President Tommy Taylor slyly, "the frosh will know we mean business, if we remind them of an incident last quarter when one of their members 'suffered the consequences'."

Student Council Meeting Tonight

The student council, led by President Bob Payne, will meet tonight in the Student Union at 7 o'clock.

Discussion at the meeting will center around the date book, football awards, Revelries and student cards.

PROM BID SALE FOR JUNIORS TODAY FROM 11 TO 3 O'CLOCK

Junior Prom bids will go on sale exclusively to third-year students today from 11 to 3 o'clock in front of the Morris Dailey auditorium, announces Wilbur Scott, publicity chairman.

A committee under the direction of Ann McLaughlin will sell the bids, priced at $1.50 each. The semi-formal dance is to be held February 14 at the San Jose Civic auditorium from 9 until 1 o'clock. Final selection of a name band is expected to be announced tomorrow, Scott says.

There will be a meeting of the junior council and class officers at the end of the week to complete plans for the affair. Committee heads are expected to give reports, according to Scott.

Ernie Ralph is in charge of designing the bids which feature a sketch of the college tower as a background for the cover announcement.

EIGHT MEN WIN NOVICE TITLES BEFORE 2000 HYSTERICAL FIGHT FANS

BY CON LACY

Coach DeWitt Portal uncovered a host of boxing prospects in the best-ever of his annual novice boxing tournaments Friday night in Spartan pavilion before a hysterical, screaming crowd of 2000.

Every match, starting with the two semi-final bouts in the 165 and 175 pound classes, was bitterly contested with the boys never knowing when they were licked.

In the 165 pound class, George Klinger wound up as champion, after a ding-dong battle with Ted Andrews. Andrews was the classier boxer, and looked to be winning at times, but Klinger's heavy punch proved the decisive factor.

Andrews was handicapped from an earlier semi-final match when he had to come from behind to beat classy Hugh Manley. Manley took an early lead but faded in the third to drop a very close decision.

The light-heavyweight division produced the real fireworks of the evening with four men so evenly matched that decisions were almost impossible. In the semi-final round, rangy Dick Payne upset heavy-punching Dick Buell, who had KO'ed all his previous opponents. Payne fought a cool battle, outboxing Buell for the decision.

In the other bracket, Stan Smith took a terrific beating in the first round from southpaw Roger Romine. Down twice in the first, Smith came back in the third to KO Romine with a savage right. Smith, who was groggy at the time came in for the kill and flattened Romine a second time after the latter had been counted out.

SOPHOMORE ICE SKATING PARTY AT 5:30 TONIGHT

An evening of fun and frolic is promised to all sophomores who attend the Ice Skating Party followed by dancing in the Women's gym tonight, according to class officials.

The skating will begin at 5:30 and will continue until 7:30. Prices of admission are 33 cents to those students with skates and 58 cents to those without.

Two pairs of skates—one to a co-ed and the other to a Spartan have been donated by local merchants to be given away as door prizes. The women skates will be donated by Hart's and Son, while the men's skates have been donated by Gordon's Sport Shop.

Sophomores who do not have a means of transportation may take either the Linda Vista or the King Road bus, which pass the "bowl", it was announced. Students can get their evening meal wherever they choose or at the rink.

Following the skating party, the group of sophomores and their guests will meet at the Women's gym where dancing will begin at 8 o'clock. Dan Bessmer and his band have donated services for the evening. A soft drink stand will be set up for the evening.

Class members who are in charge of the affair, which is the first of sophomore activities of this quarter are: Lorraine Titcomb, Burton Smith, Denny Morrissey, Nina D'Anna, and Ed Smithey.

Class president, Tom Taylor, urges all sophomores to get their student cards stamped in the student body president's office before they leave.

Drama Tickets On Sale Today

Tickets for "The Father", Strindberg's tragic drama to be presented Thursday and Friday night in the Little Theater, go on sale today in the Speech office, room 159.

Major West and Lenyth Spenker play the leads in the first winter quarter production of the season. Under the direction of James Clancy, the drama presents Mary Kirtley, Joseph Juracich, Donald Streepey, Mary Jane Sconberg, Denny Morrissey and Delbert Williamson in the supporting cast.

Wendell Johnson, instructor in play production, designed the single set used in the show.

Two corrections must be made in the list of technical crew members appearing in Friday's paper. Rosemary Withgitt, and not Dorothy Shaw, is chairman of properties; while Peter Mingrone will have charge of sound effects, and not John Caro, as previously reported.

One of the outstanding incidents in the play concerns the "dream lighting" used in the second act, according to Director Clancy.

"Margin for Error" will be the next San Jose Players' production.

PI OMEGA PI MEETS TONIGHT

Members of the Alpha Alpha chapter of Pi Omega Pi, San Jose State's chapter of the National Business Education fraternity, will meet at the home of Miss Norma Gillespie tonight at 7:30.

Raymond S. Saunders, assistant superintendent of Gilroy schools, will take up an analysis and discussion of his Master's Thesis with the group. Its title is "Achievement Standards in Business Education in the Junior Colleges of California". The thesis shows the results of a detailed study made by Saunders recently in the business education field.

LA TORRE

Picture layouts for organizations were begun Friday by the La Torre staff, announces Lois Silver, editor. Any organizations who have not already done so are requested to send representatives to check membership lists in room 13 tomorrow at 11 for any errors or omissions.

Wednesday noon, the first of the club group pictures will be taken, says Ken Stephens, club editor. The following groups are asked to be on the terrace of the Art building, facing San Carlos street, at 12:10: Geology club, Radio club, and Kindergarten-Primary Club. If any of these cannot make this date, Stephens asks that they contact him today.

More club pictures will be taken Thursday in the order to be announced in succeeding issues of the Daily.

Appointments for senior and faculty pictures continue to be made daily from 11 to 2 in the Publications office, with February 7 as a deadline.

A Knock At The Door Of Young Authors

Students who like to act are given a chance to take part in campus dramatic productions from time to time. Music students can "strut their stuff" frequently in one of the many music groups on the campus. But the time when students with literary ability can show their prowess is when the annual Phelan Literary Competition opens.

This contest, which is provided for by the will of the late Senator James D. Phelan, is open to all students who enjoy writing. Nor are they limited as to what type of writing they may do, for contributions are accepted in the following divisions: Essays, short stories, and plays in the field of prose, and sonnets, lyrics and free verse in the realm of poetry.

Cash prizes are offered for the best contributions in each group. There is no limit to the number of contributions that may be entered in this contest.

Each student may enter as many selections as he wishes in each division. Or, if he wishes, he may enter something in each one—poetry, essay, short story or play—and he has just as good a chance of winning prizes in each field as anyone else. The prizes are awarded to those who really deserve them, so the students need not limit their efforts to one contribution or to contributions in any one division.

Such an opportunity as this doesn't come every day to those who enjoy creative writing. It is the chance of the year for them to test their ability as compared with their fellow students.

So try your luck, future authors! Opportunity ceases to knock on March 25 at 5 o'clock.

—Irwin.

CONTRIBUTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Student Body:

Being students, we feel that it is our privilege, and our responsibility to use this medium to carry our message to the student body. We are not attempting to propagandize or indoctrinate, but only to express our views and plead the preservation and continuation of the policy that will allow freedom of speech and expression, which is so vital in maintaining our democracy.

Everywhere we hear people saying that we must aid England to save democracy, and that England is our first line of defense; but we feel this is not the case. Our real defense must be against Fascism, whether it be English or German, and the best defense against Fascism is the maintenance of peace and the extension of democratic principles.

Our president has said that he is trying to put the wishes of the people into his "war" program. We feel that the people of the United States were drawn into the last war by a powerful minority of our population who profiteered and capitalized on every death. That is why we say "any real program of the people would be a peace program." Let Congress know this!

HAYWARD P.A.A. SWIM SET FOR FEBRUARY 28

The Hayward PAA swimming meet will be held Friday, February 28, according to word received by Coach Charley Walker from the Hayward officials. The meet was originally scheduled for the first week of February.

CALIFORNIA CHANGED
Due to a confliction of dates the California-San Jose State college frosh and varsity swimming meets will be held Saturday night, February 8, one night later than originally scheduled.

San Francisco Jewish Community center is the probable team to replace the University of Oregon, who earlier this week cancelled their meet with San Jose, on Friday, February 14, in the local pool. Definite word has not yet been received but is expected sometime this week, according to Walker.

WEBER HERE
The scheduled meet with Fullerton Junior college, February 27, has been definitely cancelled, states Walker. Weber college, who the Walkermen play on their Utah trip during the spring vacation, have asked for a meet at this time and will probably engage the Spartans during this week. Definite word will be received sometime this week.

HOTSHOTS LEAD INTRAMURAL 'B' LEAGUE PLAY

The third week of intramural basketball gets under way today in the "B" league, with the Seven Dwarfs scheduled to meet the Letlovers and the Miracles playing the Magicians of Washington Square.

The Poops took a decided lead Thursday, making it four straight wins and no defeats in the "B" league. The Cellar Rats and Sweatt's Sweaters are in a tie for the second position with two wins and one defeat.

In the "B" league the Hotshots are in the first position with three wins and no losses with the Finks and Seven Dwarfs tied in the second spot with two wins and one defeat.

Standings after second week of play:

STANFORD, PLACER J.C. HAND FROSH DEFEATS

San Jose's freshman basketball team took it on the chin over the week-end with two defeats and no wins for their fifth consecutive defeat in two weeks.

In the Stanford pavilion Saturday night the frosh were outclassed by a strong Indian frosh quintet, 31-24. After taking an early lead and holding the edge at half time 12-10, the Spartlets' offense lost its fight and the farm team gradually went to the front.

Dave Bishop led the scoring for San Jose with three field goals for a total of 6 points. Paul Borg, scrappy forward for the Carroll-had too much stamina. In the first final bout of the evening little Paul Steiling gave lanky Harold Leigh a working over in the 120 pound class. Steiling smashed Leigh on the chin time after time, but the latter was too tough to go down.

The featherweight final was the most one-sided bout of the evening with Nick Harata belting Jim Harris out in the second, winning a TKO.

Roy Shimizu won the lightweight title by forfeit, and Dave Siemon was too rugged for Orville Turner in the welterweight final, winning by a decision.

Cliff Welsh looked good in the 155 pound division, wearing Don Larson down to cop another very close decision.

Joe Marelich had a tough time with Chet Carsten in the heavy-weight final, finally winning a decision after being held even in the first two rounds.

Eckert Hall, with a band and a classy array of stunts in the rooting section led by Janie May Reed and "Gymnastic" Jim Fahn was awarded the rooting section title for the third consecutive year.

SECOND TEAM FORCES INDIANS TO COME FROM BEHIND; HELBUSH SCORES

The scalp of San Jose State's varsity basketball quintet was added to the belt of Stanford's Pacific coast bound champions Saturday night in the Palo Alto pavilion, when the mighty Indians were forced to come from behind to defeat an inspired Spartan five, 42-40.

In a battle of strategy that saw both coaches start their second stringers the Spartans received the better of the bargain and found themselves leading the Stanford team for nearly the entire game, only to fade out in the closing minutes of the second half and allow a tall Indian quintet to win the ball game.

McPherson's move to start his second unit proved a complete surprise and was almost good enough to pull an upset win over highly-

Spartan Judo Team Faces Bears Feb. 12

San Jose State college's newest intercollegiate sport, judo, will officially open its season February 12 in a dual meet with the University of California. However the team has competed in several informal practice meets, the latest against a Japanese team in Watsonville Saturday night.

Two other scheduled meets will finish the year, although several tentative engagements are listed. On February 20, the Spartans will travel to Cal Aggies for their first meet with the Mustangs.

March first will be degree day for Coach Mel Bruno's boys, as they will travel to Los Angeles to compete before the California Judo association.

Several of the Spartans have acquired considerable skill and are in line for degrees, according to Bruno. Bruno holds the black belt degree, highest possible for a white man.

While in Los Angeles, Bruno will attempt to arrange details of an intercollegiate judo conference including UCLA, University of California, California Aggies, and San Jose State.

San Jose, with Bill Helbush and Menno Seibert finding the Indian defense easy to penetrate, gave San Jose a quick lead which they held on to until seven minutes before the end of the game.

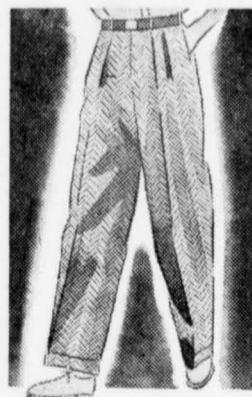

After holding the fast-breaking Stanford scoring machine in check for the first five minutes, San Jose with an 11 to 3 advantage allowed the rangy Indian five to close the margin to 11-9. With Helbush hitting the hoop for five field goals in the first half and John Woffington playing the best defensive game on the floor, the Spartans were able to leave the floor at half time with a 26 to 21 advantage.

With the appearance of the first string for the Spartans in the second half, the team lost the ability to hit the hoop as they had earlier. Paced by 6-foot 7-inch Dick Taylor at center, and dead-eye Fred Linari at forward, Stanford opened a second half scoring spree that completely baffled the Spartan defense.

Trailing 42 to 38 with only 3 minutes remaining, San Jose tried desperately to control the ball long enough to score. Uhrhammer sank a field goal from the foul line for his only two points of the entire night, and in quick succession Seibert followed suit, making the score 42-40.

Fighting the clock, the Stanford ball handlers decided to hang on to the ball. Despite the efforts of San Jose to take the ball away, Stanford was able to freeze it.

A.W.A. ANNUAL JINX SET FOR WEDNESDAY NIGHT; COSTUME PRIZE OFFERED

Highlighting the season of women's activities, the annual AWA Jinx gets under way Wednesday night in the Women's gym, with three full hours of dancing, games, songs and entertainment.

Open to all women students, the Jinx has been held once each year to provide an evening of fun, exclusively for women. Doors open at 7:30 and a series of games will start off the program.

Throughout the evening a Hawaiian skit, a reading by Babs Granite, a tap dance by Mary Lou Hoffman and individual songs from Eleanor Waggoner will be interspersed between dancing and games. In charge of the singular acts of the program is Jane Desmond with Norma Broemser planning games, songs, the relays and country dancing.

A huge frame book will provide the background through which women will step in showing their costumes for the judging and distribution of prizes. Awards will be given for the best individual and the best group costume.

Covering the walls will be huge posters depicting story book characters. Jean Ellsworth, chairman of decorations with the assistance of Jean Basse and Jean Prosser, has succeeded in transforming the gym into a veritable storyland.

Refreshments will be served, according to Alice Good, chairman of that Committee. Sundae cups, animal crackers and cookies are in order for the evening.

All societies and clubs will attend en masse in costume representing characters of literature selected.

BIDS AVAILABLE NOW FOR D.S.G. WINTER BALL

A limited number of bids are on sale for the annual winter ball which will be presented by Delta Sigma Gamma, on-campus social fraternity, Saturday, announces Dick Ormsby, president. The tickets, priced at $1.50, may be obtained at the Controller's office, or from members of the organization. The event will start at 9 p.m.

Pasatiempo Country club is the setting selected for the semi-annual affair, and Hal Moreno's orchestra which has established its popularity with occupants of Washington Square, will provide rhythms for the dancers, declares Ormsby.

Favors and balloons will add gaiety to the evening, comments Ken Wilkens.

Rev. Carson Talks At YW Luncheon

Reverend D. L. Carson, pastor of the Zion Methodist African church, will speak to members of the YWCA's Monday Luncheon club in the Fireside room of the Student Center at noon today.

Dr. Carson has chosen as his topic of discussion, "The Negro and His Relation to the Selective Service Act". All students are invited to bring their lunches and enter the discussion.

FARM HOCKEY' HIGHLIGHT OF ART ICE BALL

Farm ice hockey, played with brooms and a large rubber ball, will reach riot proportions as a highlight of the Art Ice Ball, promises Patricia Oakes, co-chairman with Wayne Rose for the show.

Teams will be made up from experienced or inexperienced ice skaters in Artizans, art fraternity, and Delta Theta Omega, Gamma Phi Sigma and Sigma Gamma Omega, social fraternities.

A trophy cup will be awarded to the winning group, states Miss Oakes, who has received a partial list of team members, that is as follows: Wayne Rose, Tom Andrews and Archie Case, Artizans; Bob Payne and Jim Meredith, D.T.O.; Larry Moore, Bill Reynolds, and Frank Lovoi, S.G.O.; and Stan Murdock, G.P.S.

Requirements are that applicants must be between the ages of 19 and 26, and in good physical condition. All applications must be filed with the Junior Chamber of Commerce office at the Civic auditorium before February 15.

College Symphony Offers Matrimonial Possibilities For Husband-Hungry Co-eds

BY VANCE PERRY

Husband-hunting co-eds with an eye to success should consider the possibilities offered by the State college symphony orchestra.

Within the past few years at least a dozen couples have met, ogled, and married from the ranks of symphony group. Saturday romance of Emilie Ransom and Charles Pyle culminated in matrimony.

"We think we have one of the finest matrimonial agencies of any organization in the college," says Adolph Otterstein, head of the music department.

Miss Ransom and Pyle both play in the violin section. They met about two years ago and sat side by side through rehearsals and concerts, until now they cast loving glances at each other over the sheet of music which they read together.

Another of the orchestra romances which reached the matrimonial stage three and a half years ago is that of Thomas Eagan, director of the college marching band, and the former Edith Bond.

Miss Bond appeared five years ago as piano soloist with the symphony orchestra.

"It was in her formal evening gown that night that I first noticed her," said Eagan.

"Yes, and I heard you whistle," smiled his wife.

Now Mrs. Eagan is a pupil of her husband. He is teaching her the finer points of playing the oboe, and that is the instrument which she plays at the present time with the college symphony.

"She used to play the bass viol," said her husband, "but that was too big to carry around, so I taught her to play the oboe."

Some of the other couples who have romanced and married while in the symphony group include: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lanini, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fulkerson, Mr. and Mrs. David Borman, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hight, Mr. and Mrs. Glep Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. George Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. William Thurlow, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Deeg, Mr. and Mrs. John Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Steen, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sauers.

FRAT SPONSORS MOVING PICTURE

"Historical Introduction to the Study of Chemistry", a short moving picture sponsored by Phi Upsilon Pi, chemistry fraternity, and the Science department will be shown twice this afternoon, once at 12:30 and once at 4:15, in room 112 of the Science building.

This movie tells of the early beginnings of chemical science and will be interesting to other students as well as chemistry majors, according to Robert Johnson, president of Phi Upsilon Pi.

Everyone is welcome to attend this meeting.

Lecturer Speaks On German Youth

Dr. Susanne Ingleman, former lecturer at the University of Istanbul on Education Psychology and only recently come to America, will speak on "The Young Generation in Germany and Their Fight for Christianity" Monday, February 3 in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

Dr. Ingleman was dismissed in 1933 from the University. She was a member of Pastor Niemoeller's church and was in charge of the Adult Education work of St. Pauls, an association of non-Aryan Christians in Berlin from 1935 to 1937.

TAU DELTS PLAN CELEBRATION OF ANNIVERSARY

Near-completion of plans for the 25th anniversary celebration was made by Tau Delta Phi, men's honorary scholastic fraternity, at its noon luncheon meeting Friday.

The affair, expected to attract Tau Delt members and alumni from throughout the state, will be held on Saturday, February 22.

According to Grand Magistrate Al Lindner, the celebration will open with campus activities in the afternoon highlighted by a golf tournament, softball game and inspection of the Tower by alumni and their escorts.

In the evening the activity spotlight will fall on the Trocadero in Santa Cruz where a dinner dance will be held. Bids are selling to Tau Delt only for $3.50. Barney Murphy, former Grand Magistrate of the fraternity, is leading alumni participation in the observance. Vance Perry heads the committee in charge of arrangements.

Grand Magistrate Lindner announces that election of officers to serve during the second half of the present school year will be held during the regular luncheon meeting in the Tower Friday noon.
