

It could have caused an upset. Little do other candidates realize what a close call they had. The reason: two dark horses entered the student body election. No one knew they were running, not even the two candidates, but if it had been known—well, who knows what would have happened!

The dark horses? They were Dean of Men Paul Pitman and President T. W. MacQuarrie who ran a neck and neck race for head yell leader—with one vote apiece.

UPPER CLASS MIXER MONDAY

DANCE IN MEN'S GYM STARTS SNEAK WEEK

With everybody acting as host and hostess to see that everybody else feels at home and enjoys himself, the members of the junior and senior classes will meet one another on friendly terms in the Men's gym at 7:30 Monday evening.

The junior-senior mixer will officially open senior Sneak Week activities, and chairmen for the affair urge a large attendance so it will be a successful opening. It is to be a no-date affair, and everyone is welcome.

Hank Marten's orchestra will furnish music for dancing, with mixer-dances being featured to carry out the get-acquainted theme which is being stressed. Dancing will continue until 9:30, with refreshments being served during the evening.

Novelty name cards will be supplied students at the door so they can be identified as belonging to the junior or senior class, as well as giving their names to help the "get-acquainted" move.

Theme for decorations and other details will be announced later, according to Lew Daniel, senior co-chairman. Other chairmen are Senior Alice Good, and Bob Serr and Ann McLaughlin, junior co-chairmen.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair include Dr. and Mrs. James C. DeVoss, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Portal, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McDonald, Dean and Mrs. Paul M. Pitman, Dean Helen Dimmick, and Dr. and Mrs. Robert D. Rhodes.

PSYCHOLOGY CLASSES TO HEAR SPEAKER

George Campbell, sightless for 18 years, will relate how, after regaining his sight, he had to learn and associate sounds with objects at two lectures before Psychology classes Monday.

Campbell has chosen as his subject, "This Bright New World".

He is well known as a speaker throughout the East, speaking on many university lecture platforms and over the Canadian Broadcasting system, according to Dr. Brandt Clark of the Psychology department.

FRESHMEN HOLD PICNIC AT SEA CLIFF SUNDAY

All first-year students and their friends are invited to attend the Freshman picnic to be held at Seacliff beach Sunday morning, announce class officers.

Those students who did not obtain transportation or food tickets are invited to come anyway and participate in the games and contests if they can provide their own food and transportation. Committee chairmen want a large attendance at the picnic giving freshman students a chance to become better acquainted during their first year in college.

Picnic activities will begin at 10 o'clock with contests, games and swimming providing entertainment for everyone until food is served at 12:30. Contests will be held in which both men and women students will be able to participate.

There are no food or transportation tickets left on sale, but class officers emphasize that all freshman students are welcome even though they did not secure tickets.

Freshman students are planning a "farewell" dance to be held the week before finals.

Music Frat Presents Honor Awards

A Jan Kalas Memorial award has been established by Phi Mu Alpha, national music fraternity, which will make an annual presentation to one woman and one man who are outstanding music majors.

Corrine Richey Gorham, graduating senior with great distinction and departmental honors in music, was chosen in a final fraternity ratification of candidates submitted by three fraternity and three faculty members who acted as judges in a meeting last night.

Melvin Buffo, senior graduating with distinction and departmental honors, was selected from the list of men.

Qualifications as set down by the organization consist of the following: The student must be an upper classman, he or she must have a 1.5 average in non-music subjects, a 2 average in music courses, and he or she must be active in some music group such as the A Cappella choir, Woodwind ensemble, Symphonic band or orchestra.

The prize consists of something usable in the music line which will be chosen each year by the winners, plus having the student's name inscribed on a perpetual plaque that will hang in the Music department.

"Awards will not be given unless worthy candidates can be found," declares Doug Harville, publicity chairman.

Mrs. Gorham plays bassoon and has been a member of both the Symphonic band and orchestra, Woodwind ensemble, A Cappella choir, Madrigal singers and the San Jose Symphonic orchestra. She was featured as bassoon soloist in last week's woodwind concert.

Buffo, who plays oboe, has also been a member of both the Symphonic band and orchestra, the Woodwind ensemble, and active (Continued on Page 2)

Radio Debates End Tomorrow

Last of a series of intercollegiate radio debates over station KROW will take place tomorrow afternoon at 1:45.

Held among the freshman squads of six local colleges and universities, this final meeting will be between the San Jose State and Stanford teams. Each session lasting a half hour, is divided into five six-minute periods. Each speaker is allotted six minutes for constructive argument and the final period is given over to a general round table discussion.

Walter Woodman and Delbert Bliven have been selected to represent the Spartans affirmatively on the question, "Resolved, That the English speaking democracies should unite now in a federal union".

Bay area schools that have been competing in these debates since October are Stanford, California, St. Mary's, Santa Clara, San Francisco State and San Jose State.

Tickets For 'Holiday' Still Available

San Jose Players' production of "Holiday" will have only two settings, according to James Clancy, director, and both of them will be modern. This will be in direct contrast to the offering of "Hamlet" that closed after a record-breaking run.

Tickets for the production are still available in room 159 but are going rapidly. These tickets are for Thursday and Friday nights' show and anyone wishing tickets for Saturday's performance may purchase them from members of the San Jose Players.

SEASON BOOKS

Immediately after the close of "Holiday", season books will go on sale, according to Hugh Gillis, Speech department head. People buying these books for the forthcoming year will get a special rate. Among the plays that will be offered are "The Rivals", "Mr. Pickwick", Eugene O'Neill's "Ah Wilderness", "Winterset", "East Lynne", and the big production of the year, "Caesar and Cleopatra", which will be presented May 27, 28, 29, and 30 of 1942.

"HOLIDAY" CAST

Currently starring in "Holiday" are Elena Lindeman and Clarence Cassell, cast as Linda Seton and Johnny Case respectively. An all-star supporting cast of Barbara Lee Bellah, Harrison McCreath, Roy Crothers, Archie Case and Betty Stuhlman will also be seen.

The sets were designed by Wendell Johnson and are being constructed by the theater workshop class under the direction of Peter Mingrone.

STUDENT BODY DECIDES OFFICERS, AMENDMENTS IN ELECTION TODAY

With polls open from 9 until 5 o'clock in front of the Morris Dailey auditorium, students will decide the student body president, vice-president, and two amendments to the constitution at a general election today. A run-off vote will be held Monday if necessary.

Don True, leader in the preliminary balloting, and David Atkinson have announced their candidacy for the head of the student body. Pete Kristovich and Ruth Wool will vie for the vice-presidency.

The amendments to the college constitution will deal with the present class and student body election system. Complete amendment forms can be found on page two.

Phi Mu Alpha Gives Concert At Montalvo

A program featuring American music exclusively will be presented Sunday afternoon at Montalvo Estate by Phi Mu Alpha, music honor society. The concert begins at 2:30 and is free of charge to the public, says Doug Harville, publicity director.

The program will include: "Sonata for Clarinet", played by Stanton Selby, who is first clarinet with the Symphonic band and the college Symphony orchestra, with Edith Eagan, piano accompanist; "Suite for Strings", composed by the late Jan Kalas of the Music faculty, to be played by a string quartet; vocal selections by Ove Jensen, accompanied by Joseph Running of the faculty; "Sonata in F" presented by Benning Dexter, and "Two American Sketches", played by the Woodwind choir. This last composition is a work of Orrin Blattner, senior member of the fraternity.

Book Exchange Board Meets To Elect Officers

Student Book Exchange will meet at 4 o'clock Monday to elect officers for the fall quarter. The meeting will be held in the Student Union.

Meeting with the exchange will be the representatives from the five service organizations. New officers will be elected to the positions of manager, assistant manager, and secretary. Functions of the treasurer are fulfilled by the manager.

Nominees are selected from the members of the exchange, and will be voted upon by the voting members only. To vote, a member must belong to the service organization. Eligibles for office must also belong to the service organizations.

Five organizations to be present are: Gamma Beta, Spartan Knights, Spartan Spears, YMCA and YWCA.

According to Beverly Byrnes, Spartan Spear and reporter for the exchange, two members of the group will not return next fall. The names were not revealed.

Following the election, the choice of the exchange is submitted to the Student Council for approval at the council's next meeting.

Plans for the collection of books at the quarter's end will be considered. At present books will be stored for the summer.

Spartan Knights, service fraternity, will take charge of the election, with Ben Frizzi acting as election judge.

Seven new candidates were elected to the council Wednesday following a general election. They were Don True, Ruth Wool, Peter Kristovich, Bob Hamill, David Atkinson, Lois Silver and Margaret McDonald.

REMOVE SIGNS

Council and office candidates are requested to remove their campaign signs some time today, election officials announce.

The student council is the governing body of the college handling all student body problems, planning all student body functions, and handling organization appropriations, and controls committee work and reports.

The governing body picks its own secretary.

MEN STUDENTS RECEIVE DRAFT STATEMENTS

Statements of information have been received from 40 men students eligible for selective service according to Mrs. Louise Ralph of the Dean of Men's office.

Instructions for writing statements of information can be had in the office of the Dean of Men. Duplicate statements must be turned in to Dean Pitman by all students in selective service class 1-D and all students receiving their questionnaire currently.

Of the duplicate copies one must be turned in to the draft board immediately or with the questionnaire. Students requesting deferment may inclose this particular in the statement.

Each statement is considered by the campus draft board at its twice-weekly meetings and classification and deferment determined. The board meets again this afternoon at 2 in the office of the Dean of Men.

Student Dance In Gym May 23

Last student dance of the quarter will be held in the Men's gym Friday, May 23, from 9 till 12, announces Peggy McDonald, social affairs committee chairman.

Hank Marten and his band will furnish music for the affair, and admission will be free to those with student body cards. Admission will be 25 cents for outsiders accompanied by a student body member.

Nothing Sacred

THE PARTING GUESTS: Perhaps "guests" is hardly the word, for though we have sped them on their way the seven members of the once-was Student Council have hardly been treated as guests during their all-too-brief stay with us. For Bob Payne, Gay Van Perre, Verne Williams, Grace Marie McGrady, Bill Van Vleck, George Jorgenson and Stan Murdock comes either the anti-climax of graduation or the obscurity of the common student.

Daily, La Torre May Meet Difficulty

With the announcement of the split of San Jose State college from the Junior college and that student body fees will be optional to students in both schools, comes more confusion and trouble.

Before long the student council will release the budgets for the different departments. Some department will undoubtedly suffer.

From our own personal viewpoint, the future of the Spartan Daily will be on the fence, along with the destiny of the annual, La Torre.

It is rumored, although not announced officially by the student governing body, that next year's annual will meet some difficulty. Under the present set-up, La Torre comes to the students from the student body fees. With the fees optional next year, the book will not be distributed to everyone. They will have to be sold in advance, so as to let the staff know beforehand how much money they will have to work with.

As for the Spartan Daily, it is also part of the student fees. If the fees are not compulsory, those not paying them will not have the privilege of reading the paper.

Thus confusion — if you know what I mean!

With the new council already under arms, the present student administrators must continue to decide the fate of various committee reports and to lament the lack of funds with which to establish the budget, after the decision to make student body fees optional. The election at this time gives the new council a chance to observe with a more appreciative eye the maneuvers of the old, but the seven who will vacate in June must feel a few passing pangs of regret, accompanied with a certain feeling of let-down and indifference.

Posted to the famous Publications backdoor, the bulletin board upon which is recorded the passing fancy of each succeeding generation of campus-combers, was a glaring notice yesterday. "Staff Attention!" it read in part. "We are going to have company today. The Patrons Association will visit the paper in action, so we expect the usual debris to be put where it belongs; in the wastebaskets." The order was promptly complied with, and looking cleaner than it does on Registration Day, the office waited expectantly. No Patrons—so we're mad. Adding insult to injury, the notice demanded that journalists wear ties for the day, oh sacrilegious thought, and shoes. I didn't mind the tie business, but I hated to put on shoes just for one day.

The Choice Is Yours . . .

Next year for the first time in the history of the college, students will be given a choice of whether or not they will pay the $4.66 student body fee. Always in the past the payment of this fee, which entitles the student to campus privileges, has been compulsory. The new arrangement will show how much students realize and appreciate the benefits they receive from their student body cards.

As long as the fee was compulsory and every enrolled student was a member of the student body, the accompanying privileges have been taken for granted. Few students realize how limited their freedom on-campus would be if they did not pay the $4.66.

The library stacks are only open to students who can produce a student body card. Without the privilege of visiting the stacks many students would find that the majority of their subjects suffered greatly.

The Health office and Health Cottage are also open only to members of the student body. This privilege alone is well worth paying the student body fee, even if there were no other advantages. One day spent in the Health Cottage with the care of trained nurses would cost more than the entire student body fee if spent in a hospital.

A subscription to the Spartan Daily and the price of La Torre, campus yearbook, are also included in the fee.

In the past few months there have been more campus activities than during any other quarter of the school year. Most of these are open to anyone who can show his student body card, or the price of tickets is reduced for card holders.

But the privilege which would probably be most missed if taken away from the student body is that of attending football, basketball and baseball games, as well as wrestling and boxing matches and other sports which are free to members of the student body.

It would be a false sense of economy which kept any student from paying his student body fee along with his regular tuition. Let's think twice next fall, before we decide to save our $4.66. —Christenson.

Proposed Amendments

Changes In Constitution Submitted To Voters Today

AMENDMENT I.
ARTICLE I
CLASS ELECTIONS

Section 1. Each class shall hold election of officers once each quarter, with the exception of the freshman class, who will hold elections only in the winter and spring quarters. Officers for fall quarter for the freshman class will be handled by the class advisers in any way they and the class may decide upon.

Nomination Assemblies
 Sec. 2. Nomination assemblies shall be held by each class, individually, on the first Wednesday of the quarter. Members of the Student Council shall preside at these meetings.

Primary Election
 Sec. 3. Primary elections shall be held not later than one week after the nomination assembly, in the same manner as the General Student Body Election.

Run-off Election
 Sec. 4. Final elections shall be held not later than three days after the primary elections. A majority vote shall be necessary to elect any officer. In the case that a majority is not received in the final election, or in the case of a tie, further run-offs shall be conducted by each class.

Sec. 5. Eligibility. To be eligible to run for any office, one must be a member of his class in good standing. That is, he shall not be on probation, carrying less than the required number of units or a "Terminal" student.

Sec. 6. The election judge shall be in charge of the elections.

ARTICLE II.
CLASS OFFICERS

Section 1. The officers of each class shall be President, Vice-President, and Secretary-treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by ballot. They shall take office immediately upon being elected.

Sec. 2. Duties of Officers. Each class shall decide upon the specific duties of each officer.

AMENDMENT II.
ARTICLE I.

Election Judge
 Section 1. An election judge shall be appointed by the Student Council two weeks before the end of each school year. He shall hold office for the duration of that year, or until his successor is appointed.

Committee
 Sec. 2. The election committee shall be appointed by the election judge with the approval of the Student Council.

Duties
 Sec. 3. The election judge and his committee shall be in complete charge of all student body elections, that is, class officers, student body council, and any special elections which might arise.

Sec. 4. The election judge and committee shall be held accountable for any irregularities, and shall be responsible to the Student Body, as represented by the Student Council.

On Cowards And American Defense

There was no implication in my article that anyone was a coward except one who refused to fight if faced with slavery or because he was scared of a big bully.

Since Frank Davidson asserts that "we will die for America and regret we have but one life to give," there would seem to be only two points at issue: Is America in danger?, and, How shall we begin to defend America?

I suppose we all agree that America is in some danger. I doubt if some realize the extent of the danger.

The question how we shall begin to defend America consists of this: Shall we not be concerned about who gains power and how much power before any actual defense—that is, shall we wait our turn? Would it cost us less to defend ourselves by allowing our enemies to overcome all resistance except ours?

If that is what any of you young men believe, I have nothing more to say. I am not going to call names.

The Greeks Said It!

The Greeks had a word for it—Xerophthalmia! No, it's not a new campus society; Xerophthalmia is an eye infection usually occurring in youth. However, when we grow up, this infection develops into night-blindness.

Do you have trouble adjusting your eyes to the darkness in the movies? This is a modified form of night-blindness and is caused by lack of carotene, a concentrated form of Vitamin A.

Of what does the word Carotene remind you? Carrots, of course; that's right, raw carrots, the good old bunny food, is one of the best sources of carotene and Vitamin A. Bunnies like also

What about milk, butter and eggs? We've always been taught they gave us our Vitamin A. Oh yes, they have their good supply of Vitamin A too (the rain hasn't washed that away), but they may not have the concentrated amounts that can be gained from our leafy vegetables and raw carrots.

DIERKER, TERRY, STOKES, YAMAMOTO, LEAVE FOR SOUTHLAND MEET TODAY

By WALT LERNER

Four Spartan varsity trackmen will leave at 3 o'clock today for Fresno State college where they will take part in the West Coast Relays tonight and tomorrow.

Coach "Tiny" Hartranft has announced that he will send three javelin throwers and a broad-jumper to compete in the college and university class in the open field events. San Jose's combination of spear tossers, John Dierker, Burt Stokes and George Terry have been consistent all season around the 200-foot mark. Dierker has been above this mark twice this season. Sat Yamamoto, CCAA champion in the broadjump, will also make the trip.

Dierker, a transfer this year from Sacramento JC, has proved to be the only outstanding star for the Spartans this season. He started off the season by placing first in the Long Beach relays with a heave of 198 feet. He slumped off against Stanford in the never-to-be-forgotten meet, failing to place. He was suffering from a sore shoulder at the time. Coming back in the Senior PAA meet at Berkeley, Dierker got off the best throw of his career, 202 feet, to place fourth behind the nation's greatest spear tossers.

Stokes and Terry have plugged along behind Dierker all season, content with second and third places. Both boys are capable of throwing the spear around the 190-foot mark which at most any other school would be good enough for first places.

Sat Yamamoto, who joined with Dierker to bring the Spartans its only two first places in the CCAA meet, will travel along with the trio of javelin men. Sat has hit

Edwards Defeats Heldman In State Tourney

Ronald Edwards, San Jose State's number one tennis player, advanced to the semi-finals of the California State tennis championship singles play yesterday afternoon when he defeated Julius Heldman, former National Intercollegiate singles champion from Los Angeles in a three-set match, 4-6, 6-1, 6-3.

Today Edwards will tangle with Frankie Kovacs, Los Angeles player who has won the state singles title for the last three years, in the semi-finals.

Edwards also has defeated Dan Sullivan of Sacramento and William Crosby of Oakland in gaining the semi-finals.

Edwards is also entered in the mixed doubles with Margaret Osborne of San Francisco. The pair recently won the mixed doubles crown at the Del Monte tourney. To date the pair have won their only match when they defeated Dorothy Head and Emery Neale of San Francisco.

Edwards teamed with Norman Brooks, Bay City netter, in the men's doubles but they were defeated by Ben Dey and Bob Pommer in the third round.

over the 22-foot mark on numerous occasions this year and with the proper conditions could hit the 23½ feet that was expected of him earlier in the season.

Summary

FROSH TRACKSTERS WIN TWO OUT OF FOUR MEETS

By CHRIS JENSEN

Despite a short four-meet season, the work of the freshman track team can be labeled a success for the season just completed.

After several weeks of canceling meets and postponing practices, the team finally got off to a good start by beating a high-scoring San Jose high school team, 60-48.

In this meet Hartranft saw one of the best rounded frosh track teams ever to run for the Spartans.

Next came the Santa Clara Valley Athletic league all-stars, a team with varsity men picked from the smaller schools in the valley. They defeated the Spartans 62-50.

This meet featured a double win by "Bud" Veregge in the hurdle races. Other first placers were made by Chuck Lindsey, John Wilson, Dick Knox and Paul Borg.

With the weather turning warm and dry the yearlings got a better chance for daily workouts, and Commerce high of San Francisco was defeated by the frosh in the third engagement of the year. Commerce, a team to be reckoned with in Bay City track circles was defeated by a score of 69½ to 43½.

Closing a short four-meet season was the meet with Hayward high a week ago. The San Joseans were unaccustomed to the Hayward track and dropped their second meet in four starts to the Haywardites. The score of this meet was 60-44.

Special mention should be made of the assistant coaching done by Ticky Vasconcellos, former Spartan broadjumper and now a performer for the Olympic club. Ticky took over the reigns when Tiny was working with the varsity.

Bowling Champs Challenged By Accounting Team

With his eyes literally blazing with fire of indignation and ire, Dr. Earl Atkinson yesterday accepted the challenge of the Alpha Eta Sigma, accounting fraternity, to engage his newly-crowned Commerce faculty bowling team in a grudge battle.

The site and date for the duel has not as yet been named, but both teams are preparing themselves for the encounter. Arthur Kelly, captain for the fraternity group seems quite in eager anticipation for the date to be announced. Dr. Atkinson seems self-assured as he announced that immediately after polishing off the accounting upstarts, the faculty will be ready to defend their laurels against any other group or department in the school.

In their last appearance, the Commerce faculty made short work of their merchandising society opponents.

It's Carsten Again

CHET CARSTEN STEALS THE SHOW; HARDESTY LECARI ALSO IMPRESS

It's getting to be a habit but as far as Spartan football Coach Ben Winkelman is concerned it's strictly a good one.

For Cowboy Chet Carsten made the news yesterday afternoon as the gold and white grid machine went through a two-hour workout at Spartan stadium. Carsten, running and passing like a poised fullback, was just about a one-man show and his top-notch performance brought a smile of joy to mentor Winkelman's face.

JV Netmen Face Menlo Junior College Today

Coach T. Erwin Blesh's junior varsity netmen will take to the courts this afternoon in their third start when they face Menlo junior college on the Menlo courts at 2 o'clock.

The line-up for the Bleshmen will find Dick Uhrhammer, tall blond racketeer, leading off in the number one spot, followed by Ernie Rideout, Keith Wilson, Byron Kalin, Jack Kemper, and Earl Paullus in that order.

Previously the junior netmen defeated Armstrong junior college 5-2 and lost to a strong Salinas junior college team in the Lettuce City 9-0.

The freshman game with Sequoia high school, scheduled for yesterday afternoon on the local courts, was called off late yesterday due to unforeseen difficulties. The rescheduling of the game has not yet been made, states Coach Blesh.

Monday the Spartababes will play host to Burlingame high school at 3 o'clock. Not much is known about the Burlingame racket swingers, according to Blesh.

Probable starting line-up for the frosh netters will find Jim Thorne in the top spot, followed by Byron Kalin and Bill Walker in singles play. In the doubles play Frank Moore will team with George Drake and Bud Hefner and Bob Williams will make up the second doubles team. There is a possi-

SPORTS SHORTS

By SAUL SIMON

Conference members of the California Collegiate Athletic Association have finally hit upon the idea of publicizing the conference as a whole . . . Previously each school ballyhooed itself and forgot about the conference . . . It was proposed in a recent meeting that each school make an effort to have its college paper carry a column of CCAA athletic activities . . . Nothing definite as yet, but from this angle it looks that when the plan gets some support it will be the basis for a powerful conference that will rate high in Pacific coast circles . . . The spring training grind will soon come to a close . . . From now on the Spartan gridders will do all of their practicing in the daytime . . . Night practices are now a thing of the past . . . The Commerce department faculty bowling team has issued a challenge to all comers . . . Step right up and take advantage of it all you who think you stand a chance . . .

"That boy is going to make a good fullback," commented Winkelman after Carsten had run wide around the left end for a substantial gain in the afternoon's scrimmage.

The Cowboy, relishing the rough going, drove like a truck through the enemy line after his team had opened up holes for him to go through. When there were no holes, he simply put his head down and made them. But all the news isn't concerned with Carsten.

Al Hardesty, playing defensive halfback, came up with some hard tackling during the course of play and on several occasions smashed Carsten hard to the earth. Charles Cook and Jack Lecari, defensive line backers, did most of the tackling for the day along with Hardesty as the offensive team time and time again broke through.

Young John Dahl, up from the frosh unit, and also playing on the defensive eleven, finally hit his stride and broke up enemy thrusts on several occasions. Dahl has the physical build and with a little confidence should develop into a top-notch tackle.

ability that a last minute change may find Vic Morton in number one spot, states Blesh.

SNEAK WEEK RULES FOR JUNIORS ANNOUNCED

A list of rules has been announced by junior class officials for Sneak Week activities, which will start Monday with the junior-senior mixer to be held in the Men's gym. They are as follows:

1. Students will travel in a caravan. They should stick together; police officers will co-operate.
2. Trucks or busses will be provided for those who have no transportation. A charge of 25 cents will be made for this service.

Any junior student who has a car which can be used for transportation on Sneak Week Day should contact Wilbur Scott sometime today. If enough cars can be secured it will not be necessary to charter a bus, and charge for transportation.

3. Students should live in town during Sneak Week. This will facilitate a quicker get-away on the designated day.

4. A bell and public address system will warn juniors that the seniors have done their disappearing act.

5. Good clothes and hair "do's" must be left at home.

FRANK KALLAM WINS POLICE SCHOOL SHOOT

Competing with 30 other Police School members, Frank Kallam yesterday afternoon captured the aggregate crown in the third annual Police School pistol shoot. Kallam nosed out Jack Fancher to capture the title in a close match. Kallam has been beaten but twice in his collegiate career and both defeats have been at the hands of Fancher. Fancher nosed him out yesterday in the left and right handed shooting.

In class "A" Kallam walked off with top honors followed by Leo Singer and Carl Stubenrauch, August Avilla won the novice title and the Hudson trophy. The Lorenz trophy in class "B" shoot was won by John Brown with Ross Donald second and Cecil Crowe third.

Gene Beresini annexed the rapid fire crown and Whaley trophy by beating Ross Shadinger. In the left and right hand shooting, Fancher nosed Kallam out. Kallam's only previous defeat was by Fancher in recent Los Angeles matches.

Several Police School members will compete against Sacramento JC tomorrow.

RED CROSS UNIT STARTS SECOND PROJECT

Encouraged by the success of their sewing project now operating in room S108, campus women have started a knitting project to be carried on as part of their Red Cross work here.

Carol McDaniels is in charge of the new knitting project, and she asks any campus women who would like to help knit six-inch squares toward a college-constructed afghan to see her at 1 o'clock Tuesdays or Thursdays in room S108. Number six needles are being used.

Those who work on the afghan do not need to stay in room S108; they may take their yarn home, or work on it under the campus trees. Though materials are available, women may contribute their own if they wish.

Several squares have already been knitted by faculty women and co-eds. This completed work

Musketeers Need Baritone For Harmony

A discordant note has entered the lives of the Musketeers. Once there were four but now there are only three, and the three are seeking a fourth. The present trio of Carlton Lindgren, Harry Harter, and Bob Gleason are looking for a man who can sing a high lyric baritone.

Anyone who is interested or who knows someone who is interested, is urged to contact Lindgren at Columbia 1932 right away to make an appointment. The fourth man must be found by Monday, for on Wednesday the quartet is slated to start a summer engagement at Yosemite.

Persons feeling they are the "missing fourth" are urged to reply immediately. The address is 181 South Ninth street.

C.A.A. EXAMS SET FOR END OF QUARTER

Physical examinations for the CAA applicants will not be given until the final weeks of the quarter, according to Charles S. Stewart, assistant co-ordinator of flight training.

Application for summer session flight training are being filed in the Controller's office. According to Dean of Men Paul Pitman, students accepted for CAA training will be deferred from selective service until the completion of the flight course.

Training for the summer months will start late in June and continue until September 15. The aviation course is divided into two sections. Ground school is conducted on the campus under the instructorship of Frank F. Petersen and the flying is done on the Progressive Air Service field in Mountain View.

Cost of the training has not yet been released by the Civilian Aeronautics Administration, according to Stewart.

may be seen in room S108.

Meanwhile, work on the original Red Cross project, construction of garments for infants' wear, is progressing rapidly. Miss Bernice Tompkins, chairman for the project, estimates that 100 garments will have been completed by the end of the quarter. These will be turned over to the San Jose branch of the American Red Cross as the contribution of Spartan women.

Though several people are signed up to work during each hour daily, with a co-ed or faculty "captain" in charge, other campus women who want to sew an hour or two a week are invited to drop in to headquarters in the Science building. "Colonel" Pauline Lynch of the Home Economics faculty has posted complete instructions on the bulletin board in the room.

TAU DELTA PHI INITIATES 15

Fifteen students and two faculty members were formally initiated into Tau Delta Phi, men's honorary scholastic fraternity, last night.

New student members are Bruce McClelland, Emil Cava, Leon Torrey, Russ Roessler, Norman Brown, James Tilden, Richard Poytréss, Billy Smith, Lyle Zemanek, Marvin Zemanek, Sterling Hight, Colin Fern, Les Norberg, Jerry Dufour, and Welko Gasich.

The faculty members, named in an honorary capacity, are J. Wendell Johnson of the Speech department, and Dr. Brandt Clark of the Psychology department.

Initiation was held in the Tower, followed by a banquet at Rampone's Villa. Weaver Meadows of the Commerce department was toastmaster.

Speakers of the evening were Leon Warmke, secretary of the State Bar Examiners committee; Charles R. Crooke, principal and superintendent of Mountain View schools, and Dr. Karl Hazeltine of the Science department.

A luncheon for the new members will be given in the Tower today noon, followed by a business meeting.

AWA NOMINATES 25 WOMEN TO FILL POSTS

Twenty-five women were nominated at the Associated Women's Activities assembly yesterday noon, out of which 15 will be elected Monday when all women students go to the polls to decide who shall act on the AWA council next year.

Divided into three groups, the eight women nominated under the service head were: Grace Marie McGrady, Jean Ellsworth, June Gross, Bobbie Allen, Vivian Campbell, Audrey Brinkworth, Willis Watson, and Eileen Gibbs.

Running for the social group are: Jean Prosser, Beverly Roberts, Beverly Byrnes, Carol McDaniel, Jerrie Averitt, Lorraine Hurley, Marian Jacobsen, Barbara Mitchell and Arlee Hansen.

Under recreation, Norma Broemser, Frances Fischer, Eloise Harrison, Jewel Abbott, Marcella Smith, Mildred Madland, Evelyn Woodard and Virginia Dalley are competing.

The 15 women chosen will act on the AWA council next year, as the controlling body of all women students in the college. Officers are to be appointed from among

REGISTRATION DROPS TO LOW LEVEL DURING WAR

San Jose State college's student body enrollment dropped to its lowest level during the period just following the ending of the World War (1919-1920) with 507 students since the academic year of 1876, when there were only 501 full-time students.

Registration figures show that the enrollment did not come back to normal until the academic year of 1922-1923, when there were 1542 full-time students. The graduating class of 1922 consisted of 318 men and 335 women. This was quite a contrast to the class of 1920 with its six men and 230 women.

Vice-President H. F. Minssen, who during the war was an instructor in the Mathematics department, observed that the outstanding thing accomplished by the college during the war period was the converting of the Music building into a hospital, and the wholehearted way in which the students and faculty co-operated in the epidemic of 1918.

Another member of the faculty said that the patriotic sentiment was much more outspoken during the first World War than it is today around the college.

Among those faculty members teaching at the college during the war, and who are still here, are: H. F. Minssen, Karl S. Hazeltine, Miss Katharine Hall, B. W. Spaulding, Miss Clara Hinze and Miss Margaret Twombly.

Swimming is scheduled from 9 until 10:30 with all the equipment used in the Extravaganza available for use, including the paddleboards, swim fins, and canoes, Miss Tucker stated.

Following the swimming will be a "Strawberry Brunch" under the Redwood trees. Norma Ojstedt, club president of the women's swimming team, will act as toastmistress at the brunch assisted by Jessie Burns, who will provide the original decorations and place cards. Maxine Knight will preside over the "generous bowls of strawberries and cream," Miss Tucker declared.

Officers will be nominated and elected at this time for next year's swimming club.

All women are welcome and the only prerequisites for enjoying both swimming and the strawberry brunch are okays from the Health office and their own swimming caps.

Eight Riders To Compete In Horse Show

Eight women from the San Jose State Riding club will represent the college at the San Mateo junior college horse show Saturday, competing against riders from Sacramento J. C., San Francisco J. C., Mills and San Francisco State as well as San Mateo.

Barbette Browne, Gale Hartley, Jane Lovell, Bea Clark, Virginia Peekema, Helena Griffiths, Betty Fitzgerald and Paula Beckwith are the women from the club scheduled to participate in both the beginning and intermediate divisions of the horse show.

The show is set for the San Mateo Gymkana club at 7 o'clock Saturday evening. Everyone interested is invited to attend, according to Paula Beckwith, president of the San Jose group.

Patrons Visit 'Open House'

Spartan Spears escorted members of the Patrons' Association, showing them points of interest on the campus yesterday afternoon. Open house was held in place of the regular monthly meeting.

The Health office, Publications, Science building, Art building and Home Economics building were shown to the groups.

Group Has Open House Tonight

Ed Levin, who accompanies Father Hubbard each year to Alaskan glaciers, will be guest speaker at tonight's Cosmopolitan club party, and will illustrate his talk with movies from Alaska, announces Roger Romine, chairman.

The party will be held at the Student Center, 120 East San Antonio, beginning at 8 o'clock.
