FINAL ROOTING PLANS NEARING COMPLETION

A new method of seating the rooting section will be tried Friday night when the Spartans clash with the Cowboys from Hardin-Simmons.

All men students with rooting caps will be seated in the center section by members of the rally committee and Spartan Knights, who will act as ushers. All women students with pom-poms will be seated in the first 20 rows of the adjoining sections I and K.

Megaphones will be distributed to the men students as they enter. Yell leader Tom Taylor states that this centralized rooting section will greatly improve the rooting as there will be more spirit created and because a solid section can be handled more easily by the yell leaders.

In connection with this seating arrangement, Rally Committee Chairman Dick Payne said, "We are trying this system out this game, hoping it will be a success. If it is, we will use it for all games to come. This will lead to a more organized rooting section."

At the rally in the Quad Friday noon, Dee Portal will act as master of ceremonies and the guest speakers will be Coach Ben Winkelman and Captain Bob Hamill. The committee will also try to have present the coach and captain of the Hardin-Simmons team.

One Good Move Deserves--'Ditto' And So They Did

It all started when they built the new library.

As a result the librarians got new offices, and as a result of that some of the Social Science instructors got new offices, and as a result of that some of the Psychology instructors got new offices, and as a result of that some of the English instructors got new offices, and as a result of that some of the Mathematics instructors got enlarged offices.

If you're confused, think of the poor teachers with drawers of examination papers being dragged down the hall and map-holders pounded into place under their noses.

Dr. William Poytress; his secretary, Miss Dolores Fischer; Mrs. Mildred Winters; Dr. Frederick Graham; Mr. Milton Rendahl; and Miss Bernice Tompkins are being moved into the old library office, room 30. Mr. Claude Settles will have a private office in A30. Dr. Poytress, Miss Fischer, and Mr. Settles were formerly in room 26. The others were formerly in room 16.

Dr. Poytress' old office in room 26 will go to Dr. Olive Gilliam. Room 16, now vacant, will be taken over by Dr. Joseph Cooper and Mr. Elmo Robinson of the Psychology department.

The space they formerly occupied, room 14, will provide new office space for Dr. Josephine Chandler, Dr. Esther Shephard, and possibly Mr. Robert Orem—all of the English department.

This will enable Dr. M. A. Heaslet and Mr. Ralph Smith of the Mathematics department to enlarge their quarters.

Spartans Get Special Price For Musicale

Specially priced student tickets for the Alice Ehlers harpsichord concert in the Morris Dailey auditorium at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday are now on sale in the Music department office for 44 cents.

Adolph W. Otterstein, Music department head, points out to students and San Jose's public the unusual opportunity to hear one of these old-type instruments, fore-runner of the modern piano, which was the most-used keyboard instrument of the 18th century. The harpsichord, as Otterstein describes it, is much like the piano except that the strings are plucked rather than struck, and has only two gradations of tone—loud and soft—making effective musical expression more difficult.

Miss Alice Ehlers, the artist, who will be presented, is one of the few present-day musicians who specialize on the harpsichord. She recently appeared as soloist with the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra, and has appeared three times as guest artist on Bing Crosby's radio hour, broadcast over a coast-to-coast network.

A selected group from the college symphony orchestra will accompany the soloist in the "Haydn Concerto in D major" for harpsichord and orchestra. Other selections will include "Harmonious Blacksmith" by Handel, a fugue from "The Magnificent" by Pachelbel, "Courante" by Lully, and the first movement of Bach's toccata in G major.

Football Dance Tomorrow Night In Men's Gym

Free cokes will be given to holders of lucky balloons at the "Grid-iron Jamboree" tomorrow night after the Hardin-Simmons-San Jose State football game, Beverly Byrnes, chairman of the Social Affairs committee, announced yesterday.

Football balloons will be strung across the gym for the dance and will be cut loose promptly at 12:30 o'clock. Students who find a balloon with "San Jose" printed on it will be rewarded with a free bottle of coke upon presenting the unbroken balloon at the refreshment booth. No deflated balloons will be accepted.

The gym will be decorated to resemble a football stadium with San Jose and Hardin-Simmons colors prominently displayed.

Dancing will be from 10:30 to 12:30 o'clock. Admission is free to student body card holders. Students who are registered in the college but who are not members of the student body will be charged 40 cents. One member of each couple must be a registered student in the college. No stag outsiders will be admitted.

SENIOR COUNCIL

Prospective senior council members are requested to sign for council work in the Spartan Shop today at noon.

There will be a meeting of the council tonight at the home of Dean DeVoss. The meeting begins at 8:30.

Bob Berry To Play At APO Barn Dance

Matasci's barn will be the scene of the sixth annual APO barn dance to be held Saturday.

For those who do not know the location of Matasci's barn, it may be reached by driving five miles out Almaden road, turning left at the Almaden Union school and proceeding one quarter mile on Downer avenue. Signs will be posted at various points to guide those attending the dance.

According to Harry Lines, chairman of the affair, a good time will be had by all. Bob Berry and his seven-piece orchestra will supply the music with free cider being served throughout the evening's entertainment.

NYA TIME CARDS DUE TOMORROW

All NYA time cards must be turned in by tomorrow noon, announces Mrs. Louise Ralph, secretary in the office of the Dean of Men.

Women students are requested to file their cards with Miss Dimmick, dean of women. Men students may file their cards in the Dean of Men's office. It is important that the above matter be promptly taken care of.

AERO CLASSES DESIGN, BUILD MONOPLANE

While automobile, tractors and air factories are combining forces to build planes en masse, San Jose State college Aeronautics department is by no means standing idle.

Four aeronautics classes of San Jose State college have combined their forces and are in the process of redesigning and constructing an English Moth biplane into a monoplane of their own design in the basement of the Science building.

Beginning construction last quarter, the drafting class under the instruction of Frank Petersen, head of the Aeronautics department, drew plans for the plane, using a number of their original ideas.

To date, the welding class has completed work on the fuselage, and according to Herbert Dennis, assistant in Aero Math, the controls have been so constructed that light handling is assured. The sheet metal class is at present working on the wings, using a light metal for the ailerons, instead of wood, to increase stability.

The mechanics class is doing their bit in construction of the 90-h.p. engine, and adding it to the plane.

Completion of the plane is expected by the last of next month. Mr. Dennis said that either he or Mr. Petersen would be the test pilots when the plane is finished.

ANNUAL STAFF SETS DEADLINE FOR LAYOUTS

Two o'clock tomorrow is the deadline for organization representatives to order page layouts in La Torre.

Deadline for the buying of year-books is also drawing to a close. The price is $3.25 and may be paid on the installment plan as announced earlier by La Torre officials.

Lowerclassmen Schedule Mixer For October 30

The tentative date for the freshman-sophomore mixer dance, which will be held in the Men's gym, is Thursday, October 30, the night before hallowe'en, announced Rex Gardiner, who is in charge of the affair.

Before the dance there will be games and contests between the freshmen and sophomores. Points will be awarded for the winning of these contests and for attendance, with a cup, won by the sophomores last quarter, going to the class with the highest total points.

GREY IN ROUND TABLE CONFAB AT U.C. CAMPUS

Arthur Grey, junior Speech major, will represent the upperclassmen at the first Inter-collegiate Round Table Discussion on the California campus this Saturday at 9:45, according to Miss Lucie Lawson.

The discussion group will meet each month on the campuses of different bay area colleges. Each school will send two representatives, one an upperclassman and the other a lowerclassman. The lowerclassman for this week has not been chosen, but at the weekly debate meeting held yesterday afternoon a choice was made between Marylyn Skinner, Clark Smith and Vernon Parrish, all first year debaters.

Grey, who will talk on the topic "War Aims", is a member of the varsity debate squad which toured Southern California and participated against colleges of that area last spring.

Each participant will be required to make a seven-minute formal speech on the topic of the day, and after lunch they will reconvene for round table discussion.

PI Omega Pi, national Commerce education organization, voted on contributing to the drive.

There are three days left for individual students and organizations to reach the campus quota of $300, reminds Daniel. Last year $353.42 was raised during a similar seven-day drive. Chest officials have cut this year's quota to coincide with the decrease in enrollment.

Any student interested in participating in the talent show Tuesday is asked to contact Chairman Jeanette Owen immediately. Acts shown now, specialty numbers, dancing, and singing, may be used later in Revelries.

"Feed the Chest Fire" is the slogan of the campus charity drive, and cards with that motto will be placed on the contribution chimneys located around the campus.

The price of admission for the talent show Tuesday which will conclude the drive has been changed from 25 cents to 20 cents, according to Jeanette Owen who is in charge of the show.

In regard to yesterday's benefit dance, Daniel says, "A darn good start, fellows. Keep up the good work and we can't fail to reach our quota by Tuesday."

Printing Students Make Own Books Spring Quarter

Students registered for printing will get some practical experience during the spring quarter, when they actually make a book.

Copy in the book deals with some phase of printing. The students make up the type of cover design, proofread and line up the pages.

This special course is offered only to a limited number of students.

Taylor Made Knights' Head

At an election of officers Tuesday night the Spartan Knights chose five new men to lead them for the quarter. Tom Taylor was elected Duke; Marty Taylor, Earl; Dick Payne, Scribe; Bud Roberts, Chancellor of the Exchequer; and Dave Hines was made Guard.

Also part of the meeting was the formal initiation of ten pledges who presented a short skit for the members.

Izzy Gold was made chairman of the Knights' Coca-Cola concession on the College of Pacific train leaving San Jose October 24. Other business taken up included plans for the joint party with Spartan Spears, to be given October 28.

At the conclusion of the meeting the pledging of new Knights was discussed.

Patronize The Advertisers

Without advertisements a newspaper cannot live, so without advertisements the Spartan Daily cannot live.

More than ever this philosophy applies to the Daily. With the new student body organization this year the amount of money allotted the paper was cut. To raise the necessary capital to publish the paper the advertising staff has had to solicit more ads than formerly.

Merchants of San Jose will advertise in the Spartan Daily only as long as they realize returns which warrant the outlay of money spent in advertising.

Therefore it is with urgent appeal that all you students are asked to patronize the advertiser in the Spartan Daily.

Let's Contribute For Swing Concerts

Dear Editor:

In Monday's Daily it was stated that there would be no more swing concerts due to the fact that students without student body cards could listen to the music as well as those with cards.

I, for one, feel that there are enough students who would be willing to contribute to the cost of having our swing sessions every Wednesday. The fee is nominal and each contribution would be relatively small.

Can't the Student Body or the students get together and find some way to revive our concerts. Very truly yours,

— Rina Biasatti

Frosh Gridders In Top Shape For Flyer Tilt

With its game with the Moffett Field Flyers "B" team but one day away, the freshman football team is in its best physical condition since the start of the season three weeks ago.

There are only four men with injuries serious enough to interfere with their effectiveness on the playing field. Left Guard Al Long has been in bed with something that resembles a stomach ache; Bad Ingles is still bothered by a weak leg; Bill Perry, first string quarterback, will have to play with a knee-brace, and Harold Fullrider is slowed down by a pointer he received last week.

Bob Bushma, a 440-yard dash man from Venice, has been moved up at left end in order to relieve Ingles. Ken Ward and Jack Coen have been assigned the left guard post in the absence of Long, and Al Conners is behind John Shehtanian at the pivot position.

Coach Winter is especially looking toward Shehtanian to add to the defensive strength of the team with his line backing up. Against Modesto he showed himself to be the hardest man for the Modesto blockers to move out of the way.

With the entire first string backfield of Hill, Perry, Beltman and McCrory to play at least a part of the game, Winter hopes that the frosh will be able to show the power and deceptiveness that they demonstrated against Santa Rosa two weeks ago.

Athlete Turns To Music At Coach's Request

During registration week a rather quiet, not-too-athletic-looking chap named Stan Knight, approached freshman football coach Bud Winter and asked whether he should go out for freshman football or for marching band.

Winter questioned Knight and found out that he came from the little town of Weaverville and had never gained a reputation for being a football player. Winter, being an experienced coach, knows an athlete the moment he sees one, so he put his hand on the lad's shoulder and quietly said, "Son, there isn't any future for you in athletics, but you do look like a musician. I think you had better forget about athletic glory and concentrate on band."

Last week, during freshman activities, this same Knight ran 300 yards in 34.2 seconds, which is almost three seconds better than the record. Winter, the judge of athletes, knew something was wrong and went to find out what had happened.

He asked Knight if he had ever run before and Knight replied, "Once, but I didn't do so well. Our coach was short of men for a 220-yard dash once, so I ran and was lucky enough to win." Winter asked his time, and Knight answered, "21 seconds flat."

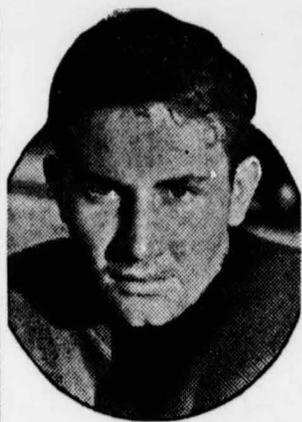

Winter slowly walked back to the gym muttering, "He runs faster than Hal Davis did in high school and I tell him he would make a better musician than an athlete!"

Joe Rishwain, former Spartan football star, lies on the brink of complete paralysis, according to latest reports from St. Joseph hospital in Stockton.

Rishwain, who was injured in an automobile wreck on October 6, is unable to move, and the doctors report it is too early to tell whether he'll be paralyzed permanently.

STAR TACKLE McCONNELL ADDED TO INJURY LIST

That wild-eyed man seen running around school tearing his hair out is football Coach Ben Winkelman. "Oh, woe is me!" cried Mr. Winkelman yesterday afternoon when informed that first string left tackle Gray McConnell had an injured knee.

McConnell, one of the steadiest linemen of the team, injured his knee in a tumbling class early yesterday afternoon. The loss of Wilbur Wool, Allan Hardisty, and McConnell really puts the Spartans behind the proverbial eight-ball.

Of the three McConnell's loss is the most serious because the transfer of Vern Cartwright at center has left the left tackle position without an experienced man. To fill in the hole Coach Winkelman has Walter Meyers, Floyd Wheat and John Mack Brown.

Meyer is transferred from end, Wheat has been a tackle but has lacked the fire to fill in behind McConnell and this may be his chance. John Mack Brown is the general handy man of the squad. He started the season at fullback and then was moved to end, then to a guard, and now to tackle.

Yesterday's practice session was spent in a long scrimmage with the regulars defending against Hardin-Simmons plays thrown at them by assistant Coach Walt McPherson and his squad.

Inter-Frat Tourney Continues Today

The second games of the interfraternity football tournament will get under way today sharply at 3 o'clock with the remaining two of the six social fraternities entering the battle.

The Beta Chi Sigma team will open against the Alpha Pi Omega team, who won its first game Tuesday. In the second game of the day the Sigma Gamma Omega gridders will face the once-defeated Delta Theta Omega squad.

Soccermen Seek Second Straight Win Over Bears

The title-bound varsity soccer team will taper off practice tonight in preparation for its coming game Saturday against the California university kickers in Berkeley at 10 o'clock.

Seeking their third straight league title and their second straight victory over the Bears, the Spartan kickers will field a strong team in hope of opening the season with victory, states Coach Gordon Maybury.

On the Spartan lineup there are only four returning lettermen around which Maybury built this year's squad. However, numerous reserves, freshmen and transfers helped to strengthen this year's squad.

John Peebles, half last year, has been shifted to the center half position vacated by Fred Albright. Harold Sonntag will hold down the goal spot and the fact that this is his first year makes him a valuable man for the future.

VARSITY POLO SEPTET INVADES FARM FOR J. V. ENCOUNTER TODAY

With two victories already tucked away, the San Jose State college varsity water polo team will invade Palo Alto this afternoon at 4:30, seeking its third straight win against the Stanford Junior varsity septet.

With the exception of Parker Snow, forward on the Spartan septet, the team should be at top strength for the encounter. Al Corcoran, who injured his hand Monday night, will be in the fray from the centerback spot.

There is a slight possibility that Dan Mehan, number one goal keeper, may not play today. If this is so, Delmar Armstrong, who played plenty of ball at the forward spot against the Olympic club, may be switched to the goal. Roger Frelter will then start at the guard spot, with Egon Hoffman possibly moving into a forward spot.

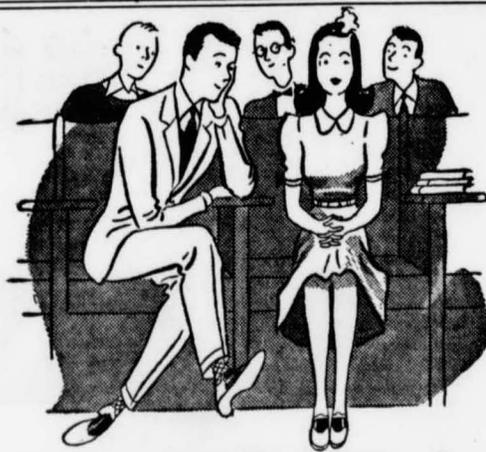

Little is known of the strength of the junior varsity team, but the farm teams are always tops on the Pacific coast, states Coach Charley Walker.

ALL TRACK MEN MEET IN ROOM 24 AT 12:30 TODAY

With cross-country races and a novice meet coming up in the near future, Track Coach Bud Winters issued a call for all track men to meet in room 24 at 12:30 today.

Already scheduled are meets with Stanford and San Mateo Junior college for the cross-country races, and Winters is lining up several others including California.

The novice track meet will be held in six weeks with the winners receiving medals.
