HARVEST HOP FOLLOWS BIG GAME FEATURES CORONATION RITES

OF BETTY CO-ED AND JOE COLLEGE

Bob Berry and his ten-piece orchestra will play for the Harvest Hop in the Men's gym following the San Jose-Fresno football game November 14. Beverly Byrnes, Social Affairs committee chairman, announces.

Outstanding feature of the evening will be the coronation ceremonies honoring the persons chosen typical Betty Co-ed and Joe College in the Thursday afternoon election.

NOMINEES LISTED MONDAY

Nominees to run in the election will be announced in Monday's Spartan Daily, according to Ken Hall, Stephens, in charge of the contest.

Bob "Boogie" O'Brien will entertain with his "eight to the bar" boogie woogie piano rhythm during the orchestra's main intermission.

AUTUMN DECORATIONS

Decorations for the dance will carry out the autumn theme, with colorful fall leaves and balloons arranged in the shape of grapes placed in prominent places. Many of the decorations are being contributed by Hale's Department Store, Christine Mansfield, decoration chairman, said. Miss Mansfield asks that everyone please refrain from tearing down or destroying these, since they must all be returned. Ero Sophian pledges to have volunteered to assist Miss Mansfield in dressing up the gym.

ASB FREE

Student body members will be admitted free. Registered students without student body cards will be charged 40 cents, as will outsiders who attend with a college student. No stag outsiders will be admitted, states Miss Byrnes.

Nominations For Typical Students Close At Noon

Nominations for typical Betty Co-ed and Joe College will close at noon today, announces Ken Stephens, contest chairman.

"Choose the man and co-ed who are true representatives of the college," Stephens said. "Drop your nomination into the box in the Publications office. 'Nominate someone who is really interested in the school and its activities. Glamour and movie star profiles aren't important in this contest.'"

NOMINATION BOX

Students should drop their nominations in the box inside the Publications office. A list of the nominees of each sex will be published Monday in the Spartan Daily. To appear on the ballot, the contestant must be a member of the Associated Student Body. Social Affairs committee members will check each nominee on this score.

PEP RALLY THURSDAY

Contestants will be introduced at the pep rally Thursday. Elections will be held Thursday and in case of a tie, a run-off election will be held Friday.

The man and woman chosen to represent the school will reign over the Harvest Hop Friday. Coronation ceremonies will be held at the dance, and the winners are not to be announced until then, Stephens declared.

TRADITION UPHELD BY SOPHOMORES

The long-standing tradition that sophomores alone should wear jeans on the campus was vainly challenged Thursday noon by two spirited freshmen.

The two first-year men strode into the main front quad boldly displaying the apparel in question. A group of sophomores closed in on them. A brief struggle ensued. A pair of blue jeans could be seen swirling in the fray. The pantless owner lay sprawled on the ground.

SECOND STRUGGLE

A second struggle began. This time the defense of the sophomore tradition was not accomplished so rapidly. The victim broke away, was caught again, and finally overpowered by sheer co-ordination of sophomore muscles. A second pair of jeans parted from their rightful owner.

BATTERED FRESHMEN

After a sophomore victory had been assured, the crowd broke away. One battered freshman stood with an embarrassed expression, adjusting the belt on a pair of recovered jeans. One stared into the distance hopelessly as his trousers disappeared from the quad, never to be recovered again.

Swim Club Holds Swim-a-nic Party

"Get in the mood for Armistice Day by ducking all your griefs at the annual Swim-a-nic Monday afternoon," advises Miss Gail Tucker, swimming instructor.

All women students are invited whether or not they can swim well. "Come on out even if you only splash around," urges Miss Tucker.

Following the swim session, students are invited to go as a group to partake of an eight-course Chinese feast. Both chopsticks and forks will be available, according to Elizabeth Hall, in charge of the dinner. Charge is 50 cents plus two cents tax. Persons who plan to take in the dinner may sign up at the pool until 4 o'clock tomorrow.

The Swim-a-nic will begin at 4 o'clock and will include relays, races, and entertainment of all sorts, Miss Tucker states. The dinner, scheduled for 6 o'clock, will be at a downtown restaurant.

BOTANY DINNER AT MOUNTAIN VIEW

Members of the Botany club will attend a dinner in Mountain View Saturday night.

Those planning to attend should meet at the Fourth street entrance to the Science building at 5:30 Saturday evening, according to A. W. Jacobs, adviser. The cars will leave at 5:45.

TOMORROW LAST RUN OF 'RIVALS'

"The Rivals", first dramatic offering of the year, closes its four-day run in the Little Theater tomorrow evening at 8:30. Some tickets for this closing performance are still available in the Speech office.

CAPACITY HOUSES

For the past two nights the cast of "The Rivals" has played before a capacity house with Eleanor Wagner in the leading role of Mrs. Malaprop.

Frank Thompson, as Sir Anthony Absolute, plays the male lead, while Leon Fletcher plays the best comic male role, that of Bob Acres. Romantic roles are portrayed by Jack Hume as Jack Absolute, Shirley Kress as Lydia Languish, Howard Evans as Faulkland, and Barbara Whitaker as Julia.

HARPISCHORD RECORDINGS

Recordings of Alice Ehlers' harpischord music, made when she gave a concert here recently, accompanied by the San Jose Symphony orchestra, furnish music between acts.

The next production of the Players will be "Mr. Pickwick", the annual Christmas play, which has been taken from Charles Dickens' book, "Pickwick Papers".

BAND GOES ALONE

Students will not be able to accompany the band to Reno for tomorrow's game, as previously announced, says Adolph W. Osterstein, Music department head.

As there are three buses chartered by the band and approximately 100 musicians will go, there will be no room for other students.

Fresno Game Sale Of Student Tickets Ends Thursday

Tickets for the student section in the Fresno-San Jose grid titanic struggle which have been given out since Tuesday will be thrown open to the public Thursday noon.

Inasmuch as every seat in the stadium is reserved and an overflow crowd is expected, students are advised to get their ducats before the Thursday deadline.

TICKETS IN SPARTAN SHOP

Tickets may be obtained in the Spartan Shop with the showing of student body cards. Faculty members and school employees will find their passes at the Controller's office.

In collaboration with card stunts planned for the half time, two sections have been reserved for rooters. All men with rooters' caps will occupy section J, while women with pompons will be seated in section I. According to Dick Main of the student store, these seats will be opened to the general student body if not filled by Tuesday noon.

TICKETS IN BLOCS

Organizations will be allowed to obtain their seats in blocs if the necessary arrangements are made before Thursday.

75 Per Cent Of College Faculty For President's Foreign Policy

By MARY SMITH

More than 75 per cent of the faculty members of San Jose State college have signed a resolution supporting President Roosevelt's foreign policy according to Dr. William H. Poytress, chairman of the committee which formulated the resolution.

The resolution states: "We, the undersigned members of the Faculty of San Jose State college, San Jose, California, impelled by a knowledge of the seriousness of the world crisis and the urgency of the need for an immediate, definite and irrevocable decision on the part of the people of the United States, do hereby wholeheartedly and unreservedly uphold the policies of the President of the United States in opposing the program of the Axis powers, and in order to carry out these policies, do support the complete use of all the resources, agencies, and powers at his command, to the end that Hitlerism and the totalitarian menace be effectively and utterly destroyed."

The overwhelming majority supporting this resolution was shown when the signers were tabulated by departments — several departments being 100 per cent behind the declaration.

BACKGROUND

A week before school opened, two or three faculty members discussed such a resolution and consulted Dr. MacQuarrie concerning its desirability.

As a result of this conversation, Dr. MacQuarrie sent a memo to the faculty explaining the idea and naming a committee to formulate a statement which it be-

Night Aero Class To Start Soon

San Jose State college, in cooperation with the Federal government, has agreed to furnish the Aeronautics Laboratory and tools for a six weeks' course in preparation for maintenance work at airfields.

This intensive six-weeks course will be held five nights a week from 7 o'clock to 11 p.m., according to Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, the courses will include sheet metal and aeroplane engines.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAM

After the completion of the course, the student will be ready to apply for civil service examinations which will allow him to secure work at the airfields.

Herbert Dennis, aero lab instructor at San Jose State college, and A. J. Monti, aeronautics instructor at Moffett Field, will instruct the two courses, and Byron Bollinger will be in charge of the tool room.

BEGIN IMMEDIATELY

These classes, according to Frank Petersen, will probably begin one week from Monday. Dr. MacQuarrie stated that the course, which could handle approximately forty students, was open to anyone.

According to A. R. Nichols, in charge of the night school, anyone interested in taking this course can do so by arranging an interview with Den Mullis of the California State Employment Department, 393 S. Second street, in San Jose.

WEEK-END DEBATES FEATURE VARSITY, FROSH SQUADS

The varsity and freshman debate squads will keep the San Francisco radio stations busy this week end with a Sunday afternoon broadcast for the varsity over KFRC, and for the freshmen to exchange views over KROW Saturday.

Woodrow Semerau will represent San Jose for the upperclassmen at the Intercollegiate Forum from 11:15 to 11:45. "Are the Movies Being Used for Propaganda Purposes?" is the topic Semerau will present.

Debate Manager Marilynne Skinner and Vernon Parrish will be the two freshman representatives who will face the St. Mary's debaters over KROW at the Intercollegiate discussion, from 2:00 until 2:30 o'clock. "Resolved: That Civil Liberties Should Be Curtailed in the Present Crisis" is the brain-twister for the two lowerclass teams.

San Jose Flyers Entered In Meet At Los Angeles

Frank Petersen, head of the Aeronautics department; Iral Crow, and Charles Thelen, flying students and members of Alpha Eta Rho, flying fraternity, plan to fly to Los Angeles to take part in a flying meet to be held tomorrow at Mines Field, Los Angeles.

All chapters west of the Rockies have been invited to take part in the meet, which is to be an annual affair. Events in the meet will test skill in spot landing, bomb dropping, and paper strafing or balloon bursting. The meet will start at 9 o'clock and continue until 4 p.m.

S. F. GAME DINNER PLANNED BY GRADS

San Jose State college alumni who live in San Francisco are planning to make a special occasion of the Spartans' November 22 football game with University of San Francisco.

Under the direction of Victor Erickson, '38, San Francisco Spartans will hold a reunion dinner after the game in one of the city's leading hotels or restaurants.

LET'S BOOST OUR TEAM

With the Fresno State game yet a week away excitement is arising to that fever pitch prevalent before most big games. Plans are being made to top the pre-game preparations that accompanied the College of Pacific contest. And well they might. For with the CCAA title race narrowed down to Fresno and San Jose this game will decide the championship.

Also lending an air of "big time" will be the colorful card stunts during the half time intermission. When put on successfully by rooters this device is looked forward to by the spectators.

According to the Social Affairs committee the preliminary plans for this game and the entertainment provided for is expected to stand head and shoulders over any similar efforts.

The pre-game rally has been set for Thursday, and according to Dick Payne, rally committee chairman, the schedule acts and skits are tops in this field.

Naturally the above is all a build-up. It's a build-up to support the team as the season's end nears. Faced with the most powerful opponents of the year in the next three games the squad will need plenty of student support.

An outstanding example of team loyalty can be pointed out in the "Knotholers." This is a club of devoted rooters, none of them over 12 years old, who come out to every game and cheer the boys on, win, lose or draw.

That's the sort of spirit that we need more of. Not the "do or die for dear old Blank" but the genuine desire to support your own team and school.

If San Jose continues to put out the caliber of football team that it has in the past two years there is no logical reason why a few more highly rated teams cannot be scheduled. The present objection seems to be the deplorable lack of attendance at our games. The "big schools" claim that we would have no drawing power; and they are correct as things now stand.

But why not get out and boost the Spartans? Help in gaining the same national recognition in athletics that we are rapidly acquiring scholastically.

Freshman 'Jean' Tradition Causes Controversy Among Students

To Whom It May Concern:

The Sophomores have decided to establish jeans as their class dress. I as a freshman and a student of San Jose State am against this and resent the attitude of some of the Sophomores toward the freshmen in this case.

In the first place, a class dress should be distinctive, different, and, if possible, new. Jeans are neither of these. They are not distinctive because Juniors and Seniors wear them. They are not different because for a number of years they have been school attire for boys in high schools and men in colleges all over the nation.

Secondly, the class dress should be something that at least half of the class will wear. This is not the case of the Sophomore class, because most of them come to school in slacks, yet sit around and condemn the freshmen who wear jeans.

I wear jeans for a number of reasons: 1. Because I like them and feel comfortable in them. 2. I buy my own clothes and do not feel like wearing a ten-dollar pair of slacks to school every day. 3. Jeans are easy to keep clean and do not need to be pressed every other day, and they are nice to splash around in when it is rainy and muddy.

So, to whom it may concern and for the reasons mentioned above, I shall continue to wear jeans.

Trusting,
Paul Hightower.

Dear Juniors, Seniors, and Also Freshmen:

We, the sophomores, have a tradition, a tradition giving only sophomores the right to wear jeans. We do not like the intentional challenging violation of our tradition as is being done by the class of '45'.

We agree that jeans are an economical form of clothing, that the rest of the school should not be denied the privilege of wearing them, but we believe the lowly frosh should be made realize who reigns supreme in the lower classes; therefore, we have declared that in this week, no freshman shall wear jeans. We are prepared to force our declaration upon the frosh.

We know that a sophomore has no right to dictate to his juniors or exalted seniors; however, we would like very much to have co-operation in one way:

We would appreciate it if during this one week you would support us in our tradition and not wear jeans.

George Coles,
President of the Sophomore Class

Eta Mu Pi Initiates New Members

National honorary merchanting society, Eta Mu Pi, will give its dinner initiation meeting tomorrow night, 6 o'clock, at the restaurant.

The meeting had been previously scheduled for October 30 but was postponed because of the conflict with mid-term examinations. "The event will be the formal initiation for Eta Mu Pi members," announces Paul Hightower, president.

JOB SHOP

A job paying 35 cents per hour is open at a downtown lunch counter. Employee must work from 11 to 2 o'clock p.m., Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

A student may earn two meals daily by working from 5 to 11 p.m. washing dishes.

A student wishing to leave San Jose from November 7 to 11 desires some one to fill his job at a local concern during his five-day absence. Pay consists of two meals daily.

Applications for any of the above positions may be made in the Dean of Men's office.

Deadline Today For La Torre Payments

Today at 3:00 is the deadline for all campus organizations to pay for previously ordered page space in La Torre. Any member of the business staff can be contacted after 10:00 this morning.

Also any members of the six social fraternities that have not kept their appointments may make appointments for pictures today only. After today they will not be given another chance and will be omitted from the Annual.

Medical Aptitude Tests Will Be Given

A special medical aptitude test will be given at 2 o'clock p.m., December 5, for those students who did not take the test last spring, but who are planning to apply for admission to a medical school during 1942.

Those interested should make application immediately with Jay C. Elder, Dean of Lower Division, in room 103.

Sino-Japanese War Topic Of Speech

WATER POLO TILT TOSS-UP BETWEEN FROSH - BULLDOGS

San Jose State's inexperienced freshman water polo team will play host to its cross-campus rivals, the San Jose high Bulldogs, this afternoon at 4:15 in the local pool.

WIN OPENER

The frosh poloists will be seeking their second win today, having defeated the local high septet in their opening game by a 3-2 count.

Despite the fact they have lost a majority of their games, they have been improving with each game and hit their peak against the Stanford frosh, when they held the Indian yearlings on even terms during the first half.

STARTERS

The Bulldogs and Spartan freshman men are rated about even in today's battle with both septets being defeated by Peninsula high school septets.

The probable starting lineup will find Frank Goulette in the center forward position, Robert Hepler and Jack Van Housen at forwards, Cecil Dumbalian at center back, John Finger and Bob Booth at guards and Dick Anderson at goalie.

Scribes, Hams Tangle In Grid Battle Wednesday

Lucky spectators will have the privilege of seeing a gridiron classic on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when San Carlos turf becomes the scene of the first annual Journalists vs. Dramatists football game.

NIGHTLY PRACTICE

Candidates for the two teams have been practicing all this week, and a sensational game is expected.

Ben Frizzi, who led the Newsboys in a decisive softball victory over the Actors last spring, expects even better success at football.

LITTLE TROUBLE

"We expect little trouble from these long-hairs," says Ben. "However, they should be right at home with the pigskin, inasmuch as their team will be pure ham."

Spokesmen for the Dramatists could not be reached, but an answer to the Journalists' taunts is only a matter of time, say those in the know.

The following people have lost articles and may obtain them in the Information office, room 1: Tula Argo, Richard Mathews, Robert Doan, Catherine Knight, Bob Troppman, Adrienne Kennon, Arthur Harmon, Elena Magee, Jewell Abbott, Lois Stephenson, William Parissenti, L. MAINSTAYS OF THE NEVADA LINE

Pictured above are two stalwarts of the Nevada forward wall who will start against the Spartans tomorrow afternoon in Reno. Rex Daniels (left) is a 6 foot, 180 pound guard. Ken Skidmore is a 5 foot 10 inch, 181 pound center.

Both boys hail from California and are playing their second year for the Wolfpack. Skidmore won his letter last year at the pivot spot. Daniels fought to a first string berth this year.

Varsity Poloists Invade Bear Pool Tomorrow Morning At 10

Seeking win number five in seven starts, Coach Charley Walker's varsity water polo team will invade the Berkeley pool tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock to meet the strong California university septet.

The California team is rated one of the best ever to be turned out and has an impressive record to date. They have

Entries Increase For First Annual Turkey Run

By NIELS NIELSEN

Already the entries for the First Annual Turkey Race are becoming numerous and include several very distinguished cross-country runners.

The first one to enter was big John Shehtanian, who has been trying to borrow a bicycle for the past two days.

Then there is Tony Piazza, who is carrying a handicap of one big mop of hair.

Bob Ingram claims he will win even if Piazza gets a haircut, and expresses his like for drumsticks.

Thelmo Knowles arrived at school on a motor scooter, which the judges have already locked up.

Al Toth does boxing besides distance running and will do fine in the clinches.

Guido Teresi trains on spaghetti but plans on breaking the monotony with a turkey dinner.

Jim Hamilton hitch-hiked 17 miles out of town and ran back when his coach told him he needed to do a little running.

Eustace Rojas represents the brains and may win by a head.

Bob Gorham has been training by chasing bears over the mountains in Lassen county.

Gary Davis created a sensation a couple of years ago with his distance running and is out to do it again.

Dave Knox has been out hunting chestnuts with which to make the turkey dressing.

lost only two games this season. They lost to the Olympic club and last week dropped by the University of California at Los Angeles septet in the Pacific Coast conference race.

BEARS FAVORED

Last year the California team dropped the Spartans 14-5 in Junior PAA meet at Stanford and are slightly favored in tomorrow's battle due to strong reserve power.

The Spartans are given a chance on their showing against the Olympic club team, which they downed twice this year by scores of 8-0 and 8-7.

DEFENSE STRESSED

Defensive play was stressed in this week's practice sessions due to the fact that the Spartan defensive barrier was not at its best in the Spartan-Indian game last week. Poor passing and untimely shots gave the Stanford septet victory.

All the players are reportedly in good shape for tomorrow's battle and the lineup will probably consist of Marty Taylor at center forward, Delmar Armstrong and Douglas Bacon at forwards, Al Corcoran at center back, Dave Thomson and Egon Hoffman at guards and Dan Meehan at goalie. Roger Frelter will substitute at guard and Parker Snow will be ready to go in at forward.

SAN JOSE STATE - UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA GRID CONTEST WILL BE FIRST DAY TILT FOR SPARTANS

By SEBASTIAN SQUATRITO

Immediately after their workout this afternoon, Coach Ben Winkleman and his football squad will board a train and head towards Reno and their game with the Nevada university Wolf Pack tomorrow afternoon.

FIRST DAY CONTEST

The game will be the first day contest for the Spartans this year. Nevada has dropped four of the six games it has played but has looked good even in defeat.

In losing to Fresno State 6 to 3, they stopped the hard running and passing attack of the Bulldogs cold, throwing them back for a loss of 143 yards. They lost the game when Fresno blocked a kick and fell on it in the end zone for six points.

The Spartans are ruled favorites partly due to the showing of both teams against a common foe—Santa Barbara State. Nevada beat the Gauchos 7 to 0, and San Jose had an easy time winning 33 to 14.

Season records thus far:

LINDSEY OUT

With first string fullback Fred Lindsey out with a torn leg muscle, and third stringer Chet "Cowboy" Carsten on the doubtful list as far as passing is concerned, because of a sore arm, the Spartans' offense from the fullback spot rests upon the shoulders of sophomore Allan Hardisty.

The Nevadans' chances mainly rest on their colored left half, Marion Motley. Motley, a 6 ft. 2 in. 225-lb man, can throw a ball with accuracy anywhere from 6 to 60

KSJS REHEARSALS ARE SUSPENDED

Rehearsals for "Cat Wife", radio drama planned for presentation by KSJS, college radio speaking society, have been suspended during the present run of "The Rivals", student director Frank Thompson announced yesterday.

Work schedules between the two productions conflicted, and it was decided to halt work on the Arch Obler play until the San Jose Players ended their staging of Sheridan's comedy.

lieved would meet the situation. He asked the committee to present their resolution to all members of the faculty for their approval or disapproval.

Dr. Josephine Chandler of the English department, Dr. Elmer H. Staffebach of the Education department, Dr. Carl Duncan of the Science department, and Miss Margaret Twombly, head of the Health and Hygiene department, were named as committee members with Dr. Poytress as chairman.

COMMITTEE ACTION

The committee took the viewpoint that a sampling of faculty opinion was deemed necessary before the resolution could take its final form and so some 20 to 25 faculty members were contacted by the chairman.

When completed, the resolution was sent to all department heads with a request that an opportunity to read it be given to each member. If he could sign it conscientiously, he should; if not, each one was requested to make and sign a resolution of his own and to get other signatures. These resolutions would be sent to Washington along with that of the committee.

VARYING OPINIONS

It appears that only a very small number have seen fit to make other resolutions. A majority of the faculty members favored the sentiment expressed, and several others would have signed with reservations. Other points of view expressed were those that favored an open declaration of war, those that favored Roosevelt's policies but with strings attached, and those that followed "America First".

Some felt that the faculty ought to be allowed a choice of several resolutions. One condemned outright the Roosevelt policy as "war mongering".

Do you have a dress that hangs in your closet day after day because you just don't feel right when you wear it? The reason is probably that it doesn't suit your personality and figure type.

An exhibit in room 1 of the Home Economics building on costume design may help you to avoid making the same mistake again.

The display was arranged by Dorothy Finch, member of Dr. Margaret Jones' methods class, and will be in room 1 until November 11.

Card Stunts For Fresno Game

Plans are well under way for a big card stunt section for the Fresno game next Friday, announce rally committee heads. The colors will be royal blue and bright gold. The whole center section will be entirely reserved for those who are going to take part in the card stunts.

Section J is reserved for the men rooters only. Section I, rows 14 to 28, is reserved for the women rooters with pompons. In order to get reserved seats, students must obtain tickets from the Spartan Shop. It is important to note that reservations must be made before next Thursday. The committee is asking for the co-operation of all of the service organizations. The Spartan Knights, Alpha Phi Omega, and the rally committee are the officials in charge of the evening's performance.

Printing Classes Visit Chronicle

Mr. Hartley Jackson's printing classes will be shown how a metropolitan newspaper operates one night when they visit the San Francisco Chronicle.

The students will see telephoto machines, the reception of photos and the process of planographic engraving. They will also see the Chronicle "go to press". This is able to get a story on the streets in less than 20 minutes.

SPECIAL TO MEN STUDENTS!

In order to introduce you to our fine quality of shoe repairing service, we have issued a number of courtesy cards good for 50c on your next shoe repairing job.

See Bob Nerell for your card.
