EIGHT MUSICIANS PLAY IN SECOND OF MUSIC SERIES

By WALLACE TRABING
A 25-piece theater orchestra, composed of the "outstanding musicians of the campus", will join eight students from the Music department to present the second in a series of student recitals tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock in the Little Theater, according to Edward Azderian, conductor of the theater orchestra.

Mrs. Margaret Weyand, piano instructor and co-director of the recitals, said, "I was pleased at the good attendance we had at the last recital. It was a big rise from last year's audiences and it gave the students more encouragement with someone to perform for."

SEMI-CLASSICS
The theater orchestra, organized for the purpose of sight-reading semi-classical music that the students otherwise might not have the experience of playing, will play a group of light semi-classical compositions chosen from the forty selections sight-read so far this quarter. They will include a waltz, ballet music, a tango and a suite.

Commenting on the speed with which the orchestra has sight-read music, Azderian said, "Our orchestra is composed of players that can play any music put before them and therefore we can play through as many selections as time permits without any interruptions. Next quarter we plan to play for theater productions and present a formal concert."

SOLO NUMBERS
Individual performers are Eugene Adams, pianist; Ethel Wolffe, violinist, with Charlotte Morley as accompanist; Lois Brainerd, contralto, with Dorothy Stalcup as accompanist; Marilyn Talbot, pianist, and Rae Steele, violinist, with William Wood as accompanist. Admission is free to the public.

Hawaiian Color Slides Will Show For Daily Fund

Cool tropical nights, tantalizing Hawaiian dancers, lazy days sunbaking on beaches—scenes such as these will be depicted in natural color by Dr. L. C. Newby, head of the Language department, Thursday at 11 o'clock in the Little Theater.

If coaxed and provided with a grass skirt, rumor has it that Dr. Newby might even perform a "graceful" hula dance.

SAVE PENNIES
Interested? Then now is the time to start saving your pennies for Thursday. You see, Dr. Newby is showing the colored slides for the benefit of the Spartan Daily "Send a Daily to Camp" campaign, and it'll cost each student 10 cents for admission.

The amiable department head spent a year at the University of Hawaii teaching Spanish and French. He was able to spend some of his spare time traveling around the islands taking pictures.

ACTIVE VOLCANO
Represented in the pictures to be shown are scenes from the islands of Kauai, Oahu, Molokai, Maui, and Hawaii. One of his most interesting pictures is that of an active volcano on the island of Hawaii.

Included in the collection is a picture of a sunrise over Haleakala (House of the Sun), one of the largest extinct volcanoes in the world.

COMMITTEE MEETS

There will be a Social Affairs committee meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Student Union to discuss plans for the student body dance in the Women's gym December 5.

All members are requested to attend, says Beverly Byrnes, chairman.

VARSITY HONORED AT SENIOR MIXER TONIGHT AT 7:30

By BETTY FINLEY
With a theme of Hawaii, palms and coconuts complete, the senior class will give its first mixer of the quarter tonight at the Newman club on South Fifth street, from 7:30 until 10:30.

Admission will be 10 cents, and seniors may purchase their tickets in the Quad today from 9 o'clock until 5. Students who would like to help sell tickets or decorate the club are asked to see Christine Mansfield, chairman.

"OFF THE RECORD"
Dancing will be all evening to "off the records". Bowling, ping-pong, and billiards will be open to all who wish to play, Miss Mansfield said. There will also be a bowling tournament between senior members of the football squad and the coaches.

Dick Denton and Dr. Robert D. Rhodes, adviser to the class, will emcee the entertainment, which will also include Babs Granite and Bob Serr.

"MADAM YES-YES"
Highlight of the evening will be the introduction of "Madam Yes-Yes" from Rhumboogie, who will give her own interpretation of the Hawaiian hula. Lew Daniel, president of the seniors, declared that "Madam Yes-Yes" was acquired on the previous trip to Hawaii by the Spartan football team (Continued on Page 4)

SPARTAN KNIGHTS, SPEARS CELEBRATE

Spartan Knights and Spartan Spears will hold a joint party in the Student Center tomorrow night, announces Loren Nichol森, publicity chairman.

The party will be in the form of a "get acquainted" affair for the purpose of increasing the efficiency of activities jointly conducted by the two service organizations.

Nichol森, Jane Reed, and Izzy Gold are chairmen of the party. Gold will also take charge of entertainment.

Refreshments, including doughnuts, cokes, and toasted marshmallows, will be served.

A business meeting with Tom Taylor presiding will take place before the party, according to Nichol森. Discussions will be held on the problem of painting parking lines on the streets around the college; on the campaign to send a Spartan Daily to drafted students; and also on the possibilities of placing shelves in the halls to hold supplies of ink for the students.

Doris Gates Talks

Members of the Kindergarten-Primary club will hear Miss Doris Gates, college librarian, speak on Child Literature Thursday afternoon in room 1 of the Home Economics building at 4 o'clock, according to Beverly Roberts, president. All members must be present. Miss Roberts said.

SCHWAB-DESYLVA'S 'GOOD NEWS' NAMED BY STUDENT COUNCIL FOR ANNUAL COLLEGE REVUE

MUSICAL COMEDY SCHEDULED ON FEBRUARY 21, 22; CAMPUS LIFE SHOWN

Professional musical comedy "Good News" by Laurence Schwab and B. G. De Sylva will replace the student written show for the 1942 Spartan Revelries, the Student Council decided at its last meeting in the Student Union.

The final decision came about after the recommendation of Hugh Gillis, Speech department head, last week. The Council decided on a professional show after realizing that there were no students on campus at this time capable of writing a suitable all-college show.

Second Meeting Of Junior Council Called For Today

Pleased with the "very fine ideas" which Tuesday's initial meeting of the Junior Executive Council produced, Junior President Jack Tiernan is calling another meeting of the entire group today at 3 o'clock in the Student Union.

At the first meeting an open discussion was the medium through which details of the coming Junior Prom and the possibility of another class mixer were sounded out.

MEMBERSHIP INCREASED
Several people have been added to the council, rounding out the membership to 16 persons, which Tiernan believes will comprise a group large enough to represent the varying viewpoints of the junior class as a whole.

The meeting today is for the purpose of establishing some definite plans on the Prom and the possible mixer.

PERSONNEL LISTED

Dean Dimmick To Help Plan National Meet

Miss Helen Dimmick, dean of women at San Jose State college, is a member of the state committee planning for the coming convention of the National Association of Deans of Women in San Francisco.

As college chairman for the state association, Miss Dimmick is on the executive board which met recently at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco to lay plans for the national convention February 17-20. Headquarters will be the Fairmont Hotel.

The deans of women will also participate in meetings of the Department of Superintendents of the National Education Association and of the National Council of Administrative Women in Education. These conferences follow the Deans' meeting by a week.

COLLEGE LIFE
The show is concerned with college life, bringing in dormitory locker, and other campus scenes. The faculty director for the production has not been selected. Student musical, drama and stage directors will be selected to assist the faculty in producing the show. Students interested in the show may give their names to members of the Student Council.

FACULTY DIRECTED
This is the first time in college history that Revelries will be directed by a faculty director. This is also the first time that a professional show has been selected.

Revelries, now separated from Spardi Gras, will be presented Friday and Saturday, February 21 and 22.

Radio 'Story Hour' Written By Hatlen

KSJS, radio speaking society, has chosen a radio comedy by Ted Hatlen for their weekly Story Hour broadcast over KQW tomorrow night at 9:15.

The play is entitled "Desperate Irwin" and is the second comedy written by Speech Instructor Hatlen to be presented by KSJS members. The previous play selected was "Parting Is Such Sweet Sorrow", broadcast November 4.

The cast includes Jane Dwyer as a Hoosier bride; Jack Hume plays her weary Hoosier bridegroom, Irwin Potter; Sheriff Mac is played by Ronald Hadley; Dean Paizis acts the able sheriff's assistant, Joe; and Loren Nicholson plays the proprietor of Cozy Camp cottages, New Mexico; Frank Valenti will be the narrator.

This is the fifth play given by KSJS club. The programs are under the general directorship of R. L. Irwin, club adviser and radio instructor.

Scripts are either dramatizations of well-known short stories by students, or original scripts by any contributor. Last week KSJS broadcast a modernistic dramatization of Guy DeMaupassant's short story, "The Necklace", by Keith Bickford.

Ex-Controller In Army Contributes Pinochle Money To 'Send A Daily'

(Editor's note: A letter from Major Niel Thomas, former college controller, sets the keynote for the "Send a Daily to Camp" campaign.)

Spartan Daily
San Jose State College
San Jose, California.

My dear Editor:

Greetings from the national capital. I wish to take this opportunity to thank you for putting my name on the mailing list for the Spartan Daily. I enjoy every copy of the paper and can hardly wait until the mail orderly brings it to me each day.

Having read the editorial and the news item relative to "Send a Daily to Camp" campaign, a contribution of $2.00 is hereby enclosed to aid the cause. This sum is about what I would have lost (since I have been in service) in playing pinochle with Dr. E. D. Botts, Dr. E. H. Staffebach and Professor George H. Spearman. I believe that Professor Otterstein should match my contribution from his pinochle winnings of the current year.

The Spartan Daily is excellent. Keep up the good work. Regards to all the students and faculty.

Niel O. Thomas,
Major, Adj. Gen. Dept.

WHAT DO PEOPLE WANT?

Last week the Spartan Daily editor received a letter from the publishers of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges," notifying her that some nineteen students at this institution had been nominated for membership in this honorary group. Last year San Jose State was represented in this annual volume, which is published at the University of Alabama.

San Jose State college was accepted last April for membership in the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools. Final and more complete recognition as a major institution is pending until the 1942 meeting of the Association of American Universities, which has promised to consider this institution for recognition after visiting the campus.

Our "Golden Raiders," varsity football squad, continues to sling passes through the air with the greatest of ease to continue a phenomenal five-year winning streak, bringing comments from sports writers all over the country.

And STILL there are students here who, instead of thanking their lucky stars that they were able to get into San Jose State college, wail publicly because either grades or pocket-book would not get them into one of our larger and more expensive neighboring camps!

WHAT DO PEOPLE WANT, ANYHOW?

—Moody

SPEECH IS IMPORTANT!

Speech is important! Everything we do—in social life or in business—speech is the primary factor. Everyone agrees with that. That is why speech is a primary factor here on the campus. That is why many students have been recommended to the Speech Clinic for drill and vocal exercises.

Many students resent the fact that they have to set aside a half hour twice each week, without credit, to take lessons in speech. "I got A in speech when I was in high school", they usually say. Well, maybe they did—but that was high school. Here students are sent to the Speech Clinic not for the type of speech they can present, but because there is a defect in their voice. Maybe it is too high, maybe it is harsh or shrill, or maybe they have a lisp. There are a great many reasons why your Speech 2A instructor could recommend you to the clinic.

Look at the other side. Think of the task the clinicians have—the patience they must have to teach you to speak all over again—to break down habits it took years to acquire.

If the department instructors are a little inconsistent sometimes, remember it is for your own good. They certainly aren't looking for self glorification—as it is, the department receives little or no credit for the wonderful work that it has been doing for the past years.

In most cases the speech defect is corrected—some of which seemed almost impossible at first. The college can be proud of the teachers it sends out—partly due to the great efforts of this department.

The Speech Clinic works with very little publicity. Interviews with students are strictly confidential, making it very easy for the student concerned.

Those students who may be referred to the Clinic must remember that it is for their own good and should make it as easy for the instructor as she does for you.

—Scudero.

Turkey? Never Heard Of It

Good morning! You are now on the San Jose State campus on November 24, the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-one. You have just spent four days with a turkey, from the whole bird down to hash and soup, and you're through . . . finished. You don't care if you never hear the word "turkey" again.

Our message to you, as this is written on Wednesday, November 19, whether you read this lying on your backs in bed, or bent pale and trembling over your desks in class, is, REPENT! See what happens when you make pigs of yourselves?

Thanksgiving brings us four days of vacation, and what happens? We get stuffed like the turkey.

Like finding an oyster in a bowl of oyster soup . . . marvelous sensation . . . that's how elated we felt when Mr. L. C. Newby of the Language department offered to show his native color slides of scenes of the Islands, and when we got the letter from former Controller Niel Thomas with a cash donation for the "Send a Daily to Camp" fund.

Mr. Newby's pictures should be of special interest to the "football widows" around the campus, because they authentically show what the team is going to meet up with on the Hawaiian trip.

The clever "drafted" cartoons set up around the campus are the inspiration of Wesley Berg, junior Art major. Wes whipped them up in his spare time to help carry out the theme of the drive. You're okay, Wes.

The party planned tonight for seniors is going to be one well worth attending. Four-year students should keep in mind that they are in their last year of college, and take advantage of the opportunity to "play" together.

"What do you say in English?" "We say, 'Are you there?' That of course, if you are not there, it does not need to go on with the conversation."

Open Letter To Sophs And Frosh:

The party is over, me Hearties! Pants are no longer at half-mast; quiet reigns in the inner quad; and a good time was had by all.

The honor of the sophomores, the spirit of the freshmen, the right of the co-eds to entertainment, the forbearance of the faculty—all these have been vindicated and taken care of for another twelve months.

On the debit side of the ledger is this report from Miss Twombly: "Dear Mr. Pitman: Perhaps this summary of the wounds cared for to date in our office following the inter-class scramble on Friday will give you the information which you sought: 1 incised head wound requiring stitching, 1 cut, 1 skin abrasion, 1 back injury."

Yesterday I met the officers of your respective classes to discuss some of the less satisfactory aspects of this episode and to set up certain safeguards for next fall.

I have instructed them that any student may now wear any kind of pants he wishes. They on their part are hard at work on some plan which will give adequate release for lower class energies.

Fraternally but firmly yours,

— Paul M. Pitman, Dean of Men.

There will be a special meeting to discuss initiation of new members today in Miss Toles' office, room 161, from 12 to 12:30 o'clock. — Eleanor Irwin.

According to Paul "I'm from King City" Tognetti, club junior assistant vice-president, dues are $25 per quarter. # Spartans Meet Soldier Gridders Wednesday Night

WALKER'S SEALS MEET TROJAN AND ENGINEER SPLASHERS IN LOS ANGELES, PASADENA TILTS

By WILBUR AGEE

Coach Charley Walker's varsity water polo team will meet the strong University of Southern California septet this afternoon in the Trojan pool.

The varsity poloists will be seeking their fifth victory against the Trojan splasher team after four defeats and are given an even chance against the Los Angeles splash ball artists.

The Spartans are always rated among the best teams of the West and to date have had a record of 10-1-1. They were dropped from the UCLA septet, however, and are down in the Pacific Coast conference standings this year.

If the Spartans show the stuff they had at California and against the Olympic Club they could upset the Trojans. A win would rank the Spartans among the top on the coast.

The probable starting line-up will find Marty Taylor at center forward, Douglas Bacon and Delmar Armstrong at forwards, Al Corvan at center back, Dave Thomson and Egon Hoffman at guards and Dan Meehan in the goal. Parker Snow and Roger Freese will see action as reserve.

Tomorrow afternoon in Pasadena the Spartan poloists will battle the Cal Tech septet in the Engineers' pool. On past performances the Spartans are slightly favored over the Engineer septet, states Coach Walker.

Inter-Fraternity Football Resumed At 3 P.M. Tomorrow

Inter-fraternity football will be resumed tomorrow afternoon with the Alpha Pi Omega gridders battling the Delta Theta Omega team. The second game will find the leading Delta Sigma eleven taking on the Sigma Gamma Omega boys. Chairman Bob Roberts warns all teams that from now on any postponements will be forfeited.

Here We Go Again-- Ham Versus Scribe At Noon Tomorrow

The second in the series of grid battles between the Drama and Publications departments will take place tomorrow noon on the San Carlos turf.

The Journalists, leading the feud with a 12-8 victory scored two weeks ago, will be favored to repeat their past performance.

However, word comes from the Actors that a week of practice has produced some amazing plays that will baffle the scribes and produce victory.

The Scribes, not to be outdone, have a few plays themselves and have been holding secret workouts in order that they may put the Actors in their place for good.

Squad Forgets 20-0 U. S. F. Defeat; Concentrates On Moffett Contest To Be Held Day Before Sailing

BEN WINKLEMAN, COACH OF BOTH TEAMS, WILL SIT ON SAN JOSE BENCH

By BEN FRIZZI

San Jose's gridmen, smarting under the 20 to 0 loss to University of San Francisco in Kezar stadium Saturday afternoon, return to Spartan stadium in the football finale for San Jose fans on Wednesday night.

Sparta has another tough opponent on the list that night, meeting Moffett Field's Flyers at 8 o'clock.

On Thursday the Spartans head for Hawaii for games with Hawaii U. and Willamette.

MORSE HANDLES FLYERS

Coach Ben Winkelman, head mentor for both Moffett and San Jose, will be on the Spartan bench for Wednesday night's game, turning Flyer coaching duties over to "Butch" Morse, former all-American from Oregon.

In Saturday's game with the Dons, San Jose just couldn't seem to click down near the goal line, although the Spartans moved plenty close to the goal more than once.

San Jose held its own in the second half, after being down 20 points at the end of the first half. Sparta opened the second half like it meant business with Hardisty and Foote moving the ball down to the Don 18, but a holding penalty set the Spartans back to the 33. A pass, Hardisty to Donnelly set the ball back on the 20, but the Spartans had to give the ball up on downs.

LONG PASS WORKS

In the last few seconds of play a long pass from Carsten to Galvin again set the ball up on the Don 19, but the game ended this threat.

San Francisco scored its 20 points with lightning like rapidity near the close of the first quarter and into the second.

The Dons started from their own 40 for the first score with Sammy Johnstone going over from the 14 on an end sweep.

Sheridan, ace Don passer, threw to end Taylor for the other two scores in the second period, the throws being good for 55 and 58 yards. Sheridan threw passes like a big league pitcher all afternoon and completed a remarkable percentage.

GOOD START

The opening few minutes of play found the Spartans really going to town with Rhyne, Minter, and Hardisty moving the ball down to the Don 28-yard line twice.

Late in the second quarter, Rhyne recovered a Don fumble on the enemy 17-yard line, but the Spartans were only able to advance to the 13 before having to again give the ball up on downs.

Save for the two long Don tosses that went for two scores, the game was hard fought and fairly even. The Dons had a big edge in pass yardage, but the Spartans more than matched them on the ground.

Donnelly emerged from the game as one of the heroes, making some pretty pass catches, and continually giving the Don passer a bad time with his rushing tactics.

ROOTING SECTIONS

Rooters of both schools also emerged as heroes in their own right. San Jose's section never exhibited such pep under the whip of Tommie Taylor. The Don section rates mention for the impressive half-time card stunt in memory of Don grider Dannie Fisk, who was killed in an Army plane crash recently.

Indians, Spartans Meet In Cross Country Today

The San Jose State varsity cross-country team invades Stanford university this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock for a two and a half mile race with the Indian varsity on the Stanford golf course.

The Stanford team is strong and favored to overwhelm the State squad. They have the pick of some of the best distance men in the Pacific Coast Conference plus the advantage of having been in training since the beginning of school.

TRAINING SERIOUSLY

The Spartan cross-country men have been training seriously for only two weeks and are not yet in top form. Also the State runners will be faced with the difficulty of pacing themselves on a strange course.

Coach Bud Winter is planning to run Eustace Rojas, Cecil Mattos, Bob Graham, Jim Hamilton and Dick Knox in the event.

OLSEN IS STAR

Stanford's number one man is a half-miler by the name of Olsen, who took to distance running as a method of keeping in shape. In the half-mile event he is capable of doing about 1:53 and manages to keep a lot of this speed for the final half-mile of the cross-country grind.

Both will be in action when the Moffett Field Flyers meet the Spartans Wednesday night, but Cook will be on the Soldier squad and Minter will be on the Collegiate team.

BASKETBALL PLAYERS

Basketball candidates are requested to report at the Health office today between the hours of 10 and 12 for tuberculin test, as follows:

Bond, Darrell; Boysen, Donald; Caughell, Mel; Flake, James; Foote, William; Hay, Lawton; Helbush, William; Johnson, Robert Melvin.

Asilomar Confab Planned For Christmas Week

"The Asilomar conference, to be held Christmas week, is worth one quarter of college work," declared Claude W. Settles of the Social Science department at the Asilomar rally Thursday evening in the Student Center.

"Conferences are always inspiring," he declared, "but at Asilomar few may come away without feeling their viewpoints profoundly altered. These conferences are important as they occur at the student's most impressionable age and prove helpful in revealing to him worthwhile life goals which he might follow."

The Casa Del Rey at Santa Cruz will be the scene of the conference and it has been completely reserved by the committee.

Students from California and Nevada and from the Territory of Hawaii will be present, according to Leo Brennen, chairman.

Although the conference is sponsored by the regional secretaries of the "Y", the conference is open to all college students and is a collegiate conference.

Various songs of Asilomar were sung at the rally, and refreshments were served.

TWELVE WOMEN STUDENTS SHOW FOR DANCE GROUP

Twelve women have turned out for the new apprentice dance group which is being organized this quarter, according to Miss Marjorie Lucas, dance instructor.

This new group meets each Monday afternoon from 4 to 5:30 o'clock. It also meets with Orchesis the first Tuesday night in every month.

Requirements for joining the group are set up by Orchesis. Any student receiving a grade of A or B in one or more quarters of Modern Dance or Fundamental Rhythms, and who is a member of AWA, may apply. In the case of those students who do not meet the first requirement, it is possible for applicants to pass a technical test similar to the one required for entrance into Orchesis.

There is still a chance for those who want to join, Miss Lucas said. Technique tests and initiation will be held at the beginning of next quarter.

Those interested in joining the group should contact Jean Moss, president of Orchesis, or Miss Lucas.

NEWS BRIEFS

WOMEN STUDENTS HOLD SWIM MEET TONIGHT AT POOL

Women students' swimming meets will be held again tonight at the college pool, according to Miss Gail Tucker, swimming instructor.

The meets are in the form of dual class competition. Seniors won the greatest number of points in last Monday's meet, while sophomore women came in second.

Events include 25 and 50-yard races in back, side, and breast strokes; diving, and free style.

All women students who can swim are invited to take part in the swimming, while those who cannot swim are urged to come out and support their class team, says Miss Tucker.

Riding Club Plans S. F. Park Ride

Plans for a trip to San Francisco to ride through Golden Gate Park were discussed at Tuesday's meeting of Curb and Saffle, San Jose State college riding club.

The club plans to rent horses from the St. Francis Riding Academy in San Francisco.

A breakfast ride through Alum Rock Park will be held soon also, according to Betty Bunds, publicity chairman.

Miss Evelyn Amaral, riding instructor and adviser for the group, presented an English riding lesson at the meeting.

Juniors who attempt to crash the party will be duly taken care of by a barber, especially hired for the occasion, Daniel said.

Under Miss Mansfield, several committees have been working to make the mixer a success. Among them are: Jean Tarbox, decorations; Joyce Uzzell, refreshments; Betty Sheridan, publicity; Dorothy Jones, entertainment; Wilma Arjo, invitations; Carl Evans, cleanup, and Jerry Fear, music.

Varsity Grid Squad Prepares For Trip

Members of the varsity football squad adjourned to the house of Glenn "Tiny" Hartranft, director of athletics, Wednesday night to wind up preliminary preparations for their Hawaiian trip November 27.

Each man was required to fill out the necessary immigration papers and grades were checked to determine scholastic eligibility to make the voyage.

After the work of the evening was concluded ice cream and cake was served by Mrs. Hartranft. Previous to this team members had gathered around the radio to listen to a talk by mentor Ben Winkelman in reference to the U. S. F. game.

Following the refreshments team physician Dr. Jack Vogelmann showed colored slides of the squad taken at different intervals during the season.

COLLEGE 'Y' MEETS TOMORROW NIGHT

The college YWCA will hold a formal initiation ceremony, carried out around the theme "Blue Triangle", tomorrow night at 7:45 o'clock, in the Student Center, 120 E. San Antonio street.

Included on the program will be Mrs. Charles Neville, pianist, and Miss Letha Medlin, soloist, accompanied by Carol Gorley.

All members of the YWCA are invited to attend.

SPARTAN HALL DONATES FIRST ORGANIZATION CONTRIBUTION TO SPARTAN DAILY CAMPAIGN

Number one contributor in the "Send a Daily to Campus" Spartan Hall, student cooperative house, it was announced by LeRoy Sorensen, Spartan Hall member last Wednesday.

Taking speedy action to do their part as an organization in this campaign, the members at their regular Tuesday night meeting each contributed individually to make a total of $10.

ART INSTRUCTOR STUDIES STATUE FOR HISTORY

Richard Skinner of the Art faculty has been trying since the beginning of the quarter to determine the history of a little marble feminine figurine he purchased in Michigan during the summer.

Miss Estella Hoisholt, also of the Art faculty, believes the figure was made before the 12th century A.D., which is the date set by Skinner.

"To describe the piece, it is obviously from India, as the type of pose, workmanship and design are typical. The piece is about 12 inches high and bears the traces of red, gold, black and yellow paint. The figure has had both arms broken off, possibly during excavation. It was probably set on a ledge or niche, as the paint is left only on the back of the figure," says Skinner.

The piece is interesting because of its obvious age and location of origin. It is also odd that the figure is smiling in a Mona Lisa-like manner.

Skinner had photographs taken of it and is going to send them to James Plumer, head of Oriental Art at the University of Michigan, in an attempt to discover the exact history.

Pi Epsilon Tau Honors 30 Members

Pi Epsilon Tau, honorary General Elementary society, entertained its 30 new members Tuesday night at the Student Union.

Previous to the party, the group held a business meeting at which it was decided that all members of the society will sew for the campus Red Cross. Formal initiation of the members and a dinner will be held in two weeks, according to Lila Carrington, president.

This move on the part of the two members of Spartan Hall, contributor to appear in the organization honor column appeared in today's paper.

Serving as an example of campaign slogan, "A little bit of each will be a big help to a big Spartan Hall is rightfully congratulated by the Spartan Daily starting the ball rolling.

Spartan Hall has sent several of its members to join the armed forces during the present draft, and they will be happy to know that their former members will be among those to receive daily paper.

However, the first contribution leave further honors for their lowers. There is still the second, third, fourth and fifth space to be filled. All contributions donated by organizations should be brought to the Publications office with the name of the organization.

Most of the women students have a very intimate relation with the Army, Navy and Marines. In fact, a popular comment among the women on the campus is "The MEN are in the army". They should be of sufficient interest to arouse a donating spirit individually and as a group. The soldier friend will hear of it and he will most assuredly appreciate it.

He will read all the names and the penings that appear in the paper. Without a doubt, he will be hungry for information about the family surroundings he left behind. Mention this campaign at your next meeting and place your organization next to Spartan Hall in the Contributors' honor column.

PAINTED CHINA SHOWN IN H.E. BUILDING DISPLAY

Are you looking for an interesting, fascinating, decorative and useful hobby? A hobby that combines all these attributes deserves looking into.

An exhibit of hand-painted chinaware is being shown in the Home Economics building, and will be there only today and tomorrow. The display was arranged by Betty McPheeters, a member of Dr. Margaret Jones' methods class.
