VOL. XXX SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1941 Number 54

ORIGINAL PLAY GIVEN TODAY BY PRIMARY CLASS

The "Christmas Oratorio," originally written and produced by the Kindergarten-Primary Music class, will be given this afternoon at 4:00 in the Little Theater, free of charge to the public.

Under the direction of Mrs. Sibyle Schneller, instructor of the class, the cast will represent old and modern Christmas tree decorations and ornaments. The old decorations such as popcorn, snow icicles, and bells engage in a jealous battle with the new and modern ornaments that have been made in the United States. The script is written to coincide with present conditions in the United States.

The music for the Oratorio is original—written by the Kindergarten Music class, and assisted by the General Elementary students. Accompaniment will be played by Mrs. Schneller.

The cast is composed of seven performers and a chorus of eight. According to Mrs. Schneller, this production is a class project that is compulsory to all General Elementary and Kindergarten - Primary graduates.

The definition of an Oratorio is a general theme of light action and little scenery, usually backed by an orchestra. Although an Oratorio cast does not wear costumes, the cast in Friday's production will.

All lower division courses must be approved in the Dean of Lower Divisions office before December 20. No programs will be approved during the holidays.

Owen Broyles Maps Ten-Point Plan To Aid Students In Supporting New Emergency Defense Program

Yesterday Owen M. Broyles, assistant professor of economics, in the interest of our nation's defense against world aggression, presented a ten-point plan that he hopes will aid students in supporting our National Defense program.

The plan as promulgated by Mr. Broyles is as follows:

1. Study your finances . . . income and outgo . . . and budget for defense bonds and stamp purchases. Make contributions to the Red Cross, Community Chest, United Service Organizations, and national agencies. Make your dollars do defense duty.
2. Put your homes, equipment, clothes and such things into good condition. Try to buy what you need for efficient living, but do not buy to hoard. Also, be skeptical of prices. If this is a long war you will have to rely on federal price controls rather than on self-protection through buying far ahead at present prices.
3. Improve your health as much as discipline, diet, and remedial practices can do so.
4. Economize on materials needed in war, such as metal products, high octane gasoline, rubber products, and other civilian goods.
5. Try to eliminate waste in any form wherever you see it. Give suggestions for saving of time, money, materials, and effort to authorities and executives who can order their accomplishment.
6. Be ready to offer constructive criticism of misguided effort. Examine proposals for national defense and civilian defense with

A.W.A. POSTPONES XMAS BANQUET

Because of the possibility of a blackout, the AWA annual Christmas banquet was postponed from Tuesday night until Monday noon. A luncheon will be held instead at the Hotel Sainte Claire at 12:15 until 2 o'clock.

Those women planning to attend may be excused from classes for that time through the President's office.

Luncheon will be 77 cents. If those who had planned to attend the dinner cannot go to the luncheon, they may return their tickets, according to Audrey Backenstoe, chairman of publicity and tickets, to the Controller's office. The 26 cents refund for the luncheon will be given in the same office also or else, if women wish, contributed to charity.

College Faculty Invited To Tea

The faculty of San Jose State college has been invited to attend the annual Faculty Christmas Musical to be given Sunday, December 14, at 4 o'clock in the College Library.

The new faculty instrumental trio, composed of Adolph Otterstein, violinist; Alexander Reisman, cellist, and Benning Dexter, pianist, will make their first appearance playing "Trio in D Minor" by Mendelssohn.

The Madrigal Singers, directed by Maurine Thompson and William Erlendson, pianist, will also perform. Mrs. Ruth Turner, art instructor, will act as chairman.

- The program follows:
Down in Yon Forest—Traditional Carol (Derbyshire)—arr. by Williams.
On Christmas Night—Traditional Carol (Derbyshire)—arr. by Williams.

Ex-Scouts Sign For Defense Work

Eighty-two men students — all former Boy Scouts—signed up for the defense project being conducted by Alpha Phi Omega, service fraternity. This does not include the organization members, who volunteered previously.

The purpose of the drive is to form emergency units to co-operate with Red Cross work and to aid the fire and police departments. Units of air raid wardens and salvagers are also being formed.

The list of students who signed up will go down town to Boy Scout headquarters. Mr. O. B. Mathews, district Boy Scout executive, will go over this list to determine which of the students will remain in San Jose over the holidays.

Those who live in town probably will be formed into an immediate emergency unit which will operate until next quarter, when all others will be recruited.

Workers Cooperate In Red Cross Work, Says Miss Lynch

"Since the plea yesterday for workers in the Red Cross room, each hour has seen the room nearly full of students wishing to help in this vital work," said Miss Pauline Lynch, head of the campus Red Cross branch.

A display of everything made by the campus Red Cross will be on exhibit in room H36 Friday.

'MR. PICKWICK' GOES ON BOARDS IN LAST SHOWING

The cast of "Mr. Pickwick" will make its second and final appearance in the Morris Dailey auditorium at 8:30 tonight in the concluding presentation of this year's Christmas gift to the community—the annual San Jose Players' holiday production.

Last night, this selection from Charles Dickens' well-known novel, "Pickwick Papers," was presented for the first time.

LARGE SETS

The sets used for this production have presented a problem to the stage crew as all of the sets are big and, due to the construction of the Morris Dailey auditorium stage, which does not permit "flown" sets, they must be stored outside when not in use.

The most important set, that of an inn room, is the largest, and the other sets, including an outdoor scene, must be set up inside this interior scene.

STAGE CREW

Members of the stage crew include Manager Duane Heath, Ed Waite, Jack Miller, Leon Fletcher, Dean Paizis, John Caro, Katherine Shafer, Clarence Cassell, Walter Woodman, Frank Griswold.

Most of these students have one and perhaps several roles in the play, so scene shifts have to be made in costume.

F.B.I. Positions For Number Of College Students

Federal Bureau of Investigation District Agent of San Francisco N. J. L. Pieper sent a special letter to Dr. MacQuarrie, president of San Jose State college, giving him full particulars on available positions open to high school graduates and college students.

Many more employees are needed to handle the burden of work thrust on the FBI personnel by the present war crisis.

Men and women are needed who are at least high school graduates, and any further training can be used. Men will be trained by the FBI for fingerprinting work in all its various phases. Women are needed for filing and typing work. Salaries start at $1440 per annum.

Because of the present crisis advancement opportunities are greater now than ever before in the history of the FBI.

For information see the State college Appointment office, or for appointment blanks write to Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director, Head of FBI, Washington, D. C., or write or apply in person at the FBI headquarters in San Francisco.

ALL MEN STUDENTS CALLED TO MEET TODAY AT 11:30

Under orders of General Lewis B. Hershey, National Director of Selective Service, men students of the college will meet in the Morris Dailey auditorium today at 11:30 to fill out questionnaires.

This is a must requirement for all men who were 21 on or before July 1, 1941, except those who are active members of the armed forces.

Every student must have his order number available.

TOY PILE

Ero Sophian, campus social sorority, and the Junior class are the latest contributors to the Spartan Daily toy pile.

Ero Sophian contributed a box of toys and the Juniors brought in $5 worth of candy canes.

Tom Taylor Writes, Describes Trip to Honolulu

Editor's note: The following letter was received yesterday in the Publication's office from Tom Taylor, head yell leader. Tom is safe in the Islands with the football team:

In twelve hours we dock in Honolulu after five days of what I would call heaven. The trip over was a little rough but we all enjoyed every minute of it, although I missed each of us had our spells of sickness. John Brown, Paul Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Weninger and Aubrey Minter, I believe, were the rock of the boat more than the rest of us, while Moe Hamill was the healthiest of all of us (although he did miss two meals).

We all admit that never in our lives have we had meals to compare with the ones we're having on board ship. Fried chicken, steaks, capon, squab, with all the trimmings, and double orders if we wanted them.

We see a movie every day, dance every night, lie on a deck chair and watch the water, play ping-pong, read, play the slot machines and horses—these and a million other things. The team, though, is forbidden to partake of the last of the trip that keep a few of the boys occupied. (Note: This does not include Moe, Bert, John Brown, McConnell, Hardisty, Minter—we have our minds occupied elsewhere.)

We just had our Aloha dinner the boys and I for once all dressed up in dark suits—it's surprising to notice how many good-looking boys there are on the island when they're all dolled up. Willamette university football team is traveling with us. They look pretty rugged but I feel confident the boys from San Jose State will be on the winning end of both this and the University of Hawaii game.

If anyone wishes to send good wishes, notices, etc., they can write: care of San Jose State football (Continued on page 4)

KEEP YOUR SHIRT ON!

There was that unfortunate business over in Hawaii Sunday, and yesterday Mr. Hitler and Mr. Mussolini beat their chests and popped their eyes, and so here we are all stirred up and fairly itching to do something about it.

That's a normal reaction in a red-blooded American, and it reveals something of the spirit that's going to win this war for us. But . . .

In the excitement some of us are doing a bit of sloppy thinking. It goes like this: "I'm going to be drafted one of these days anyhow, so I might just as well quit school now and go up."

The answer to that one is, "Keep your shirt on, buddy. You're letting the primal urge to sock the enemy in the nose interfere with your logical thinking.

For a whole bunch of American college students to drop everything and go a-running is neither to their own best interests nor Uncle Sam's. Listen to what President Roosevelt says about it:

"Young people should be advised that it is their patriotic duty to continue the normal course of their education unless and until they are called, so that they may be well prepared for their greatest usefulness to their country.

"They will be promptly notified if they are needed for another patriotic service."

If you really want to serve your country to the best of your ability, make the best possible use of your time until Uncle Sam hooks his finger at you. Remember, the college education you started after is just as important to you and to your country as when it does, it will need your trained services more than ever before in its history.

And so, don't be a chump, buddy. Don't make hasty decisions during this temporary period of burning excitement. Don't be the reserve halfback who jumps up off the bench and tackles the opposition ball carrier. Keep on with your classes. Keep yourself in good physical condition. Keep in touch with your draft board, AND . . .

KEEP YOUR SHIRT ON!

LONG MAY IT WAVE

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

The stars and stripes of the American flag is the outward symbol of our American ideals.

RED stands for courage, the courage which has inspired the men and women of this great Nation to build a true and lasting Democracy.

WHITE stands for liberty. Our first President, George Washington, said: "We take the stars from heaven, the red from the Mother Country, separating it by white stripes, thus showing we have separated from her. The

STATE DOES ITS PART

Students, faculty, and organizations are all coming to the front for San Jose State college's part in our country's defense efforts.

Daily talks are being given in the Men's gym on "what to do in case of an air raid," "how to administer artificial respiration," and "how to alleviate bleeding."

The Red Cross room is open to students all hours of the day to do sewing and knitting.

Alpha Phi Omega is registering ex-Boy Scouts for defense work here in San Jose.

The police students can be seen in service on almost every street corner aiding the police in patrolling the city.

The support of these and similar projects has been splendid and will continue to be so if students realize that this type of action is going to have to be continuous to be truly successful.

white stripes shall go down to posterity representing Liberty."

BLUE stands for loyalty, the loyalty of thousands of men and women through whose efforts and sacrifices this Nation has forged steadily forward along the paths of Freedom and Democracy.

STARS in the blue field represent States of the Union as ruled by Congress in 1818. On the admission of every new State, one star is added to the Union of the Flag.

STRIPES, of which there are thirteen, represent the Thirteen Original States.

It is our Flag and it symbolizes our ideals. Long may it wave over our country—the land of the Free and the home of the Brave.

Students should plan to find out all they can to supplement what they have learned from the talks that have been given on what to do in an air raid, etc. As "Tiny" Hartranft said in his introduction to the information given on this subject, "college students are considered to be a little above average in intelligence and therefore should have the information necessary to enable them to be an aid in times of stress."

Also the Red Cross room has received added support since the war and to be of real service this action will have to be continuous and steady. Those who have started coming in will find it a good habit to continue, and those who have not as yet taken part will find their efforts appreciated as there can never be too many "helping hands."

common sense. Do not contribute to, nor participate in, work of organizations not sanctioned by the community or its leaders. Don't try to start an activity without the approval of the existing agencies.

7. Realize that many crimes against individual liberty are committed in the name of liberty and protection. Do all that you can to discipline your emotions and your thinking. Be alert to forestall violence and illegal action resulting from ignorance and prejudice.

8. Build morale by showing whiners and complainers that they have the responsibility to work out their affairs as best they can. In your daily contacts let people know that united we stand. Hold that this is the life and you intend to make the most of it. Let each day be a challenge, each act an inspiration, and let each day's work be well done. Let your enthusiasm, good will, and your help guide others. Intelligent action of all our citizens is our greatest need.

9. Keep up to the pressure of the emergency, but also work for the long pull. Consider your personal management from the viewpoint of "after the war."

10. Remember that national action means personal action from you. Consider the requests being made by our nation's leaders, and respond definitely. National thinking and planning must be made effective BY YOU. Let these suggestions be your New Year's resolutions and apply them each day.

The Japanese club will meet in room 11 today at 12:30. Important.

• FOR SERVICE CONTRIBUTORS

Dear Peggy:

Although several more former Staters have been tagged, many have satisfactorily completed their flight training here at Hendock College. Wray Cloyd has the distinction of being the first cadet in the class to complete the program. About half of the first ten were former Staters and follow is the list of the latter who have finished so far: Wray Cloyd, Tom Graham, Bill Evans, Jack Bukee, Dale Wren, Mead Klemme, John Leverton, Jim Meredith, George White, and myself.

By the time you have received this bit of news, Howard Costello and a few others probably will have finished. Kerny Sigler's name belongs on the above list.

Sincerely yours,

Signed) Marvin A. Dillwood.

P. S.—Life is a dynamic thing that has its bewildering panorama of incidents shifted across the pages of time like the sands of the desert. It shifts through scenes of ever-changing impressions engulfing our daily experiences like droplets of water in a stream.

The suddenness of change in times of war may be likened unto a flood that carries its droplets en masse into new channels, lakes, and ponds. The latter dry up and in a sense are lost to the stream of life. The lakes represent swollen industries that in time will seek normal levels. And the new channels become new ways and means of life.

It becomes a kaleidoscopic dream from which many awaken happily while others suffer depression. We aviation cadets of the Army Air Corps are among those who enjoy an amazing dream with a happy ending.

In less than one school year we are transformed from college lads into men, pilots, and officers. Men with a fine training that will be a boon to their personal success wherever they go. Pilots who have completed one of the finest flight training programs in the world. And officers with commissions in the United States Army Air Corps.

All members of the senior council are to meet at the Publications office Friday at 4 o'clock to have their pictures taken for La Torre.

Radio Club Communication

In the Spartan Daily for December 1, 1941, it was stated that the Zeta Chi sorority was the group to sign up for duty in the civilian defense program. This is not true. The first campus organization to volunteer its services was the San Jose State Radio Club Monday, December 8. Maybe our own fault that we didn't receive any notice in the Daily. I always thought that a paper supposed to get the news.

Our organization is working emergency communications equipment and is working in cooperation with the San Jose Police Department. The members have been putting in almost all their spare time in the lab, building equipment. In a very short time we shall have on hand several mobile and portable transmitter receivers. When these mobile receivers are completed, we shall be adding four or five radio cars to be used in case the regular line communications are broken.

Editor's note: As far as we can check, the police school is the campus group to volunteer having been on active duty since last Sunday. However, all are to be congratulated for the fine work they are doing.

There will be an important meeting of the Frosh Executive Board today at 12:30 in the Student Union. All committee members please attend.—White.

Army Officials Cancel Spartan-
Fort Ord Basketball Game Tonight;
Golden State Five Postpones Contest

Army officials stepped in yesterday morning and cancelled the Fort Ord-San Jose State basketball game scheduled for tonight at eight o'clock in the local gym.

Due to the short notice there will be no varsity game this week but arrangements are being made for games with Moffett field and the Olympic club, according to Coach Walt McPherson.

The game Thursday night with the Golden State five from Oakland was called off and will be played after the first of the year if possible, states McPherson.

To date the varsity cagers have been victorious in three out of four games, losing only to the strong Illinois glass company team from Oakland. They have victories over the Stockton Amblers, Chapel of Oaks, and Independent Works fives.

Tracksters Barely Miss American Record

Smith And Zupan Fall Short By Tenth Of Second As Sprint Run
Twice Following A Poor Start

Bill Smith and Mike Zupan, two of Coach Bud Winter's outstanding track men, came within one-tenth of the all-time American record in the 75-yard dash as they covered the distance in 7.5 seconds, in the opening event of the first day of the Inter-Squad meet.

This record was set back in 1926 and has been equaled once since then in 1928.

Zupan hung up the time first as he won the 75-yard dash in which several of the starters were left in their holes. Because of the exceedingly poor start, the race was run over again five minutes later and this time it was Bill Smith who broke the tape in 7.5 seconds, followed by Ralph Kaufman and Elbert Levens.

The winner's time was caught on two watches which agreed exactly and leaves little doubt as to the accuracy of the timing. Most remarkable things about the race are that the track was slow, it was the first race of the fall season, and that it was exceedingly cold.

Smith turned out to be the only double winner of the day when he took the high jump with a leap of 6 feet 2 inches, which he made with a good two inches to spare. Second place went to O. B. Hughes, and Thelmo Knowles took third.

One of the finest races of the day was the duel between Hughes and Kaufman in the 300-yard dash which Kaufman won by three yards in the fast time of 32.7 seconds. The race was run around one turn, and Hughes, who started in the outside lane, couldn't get far enough ahead of Kaufman to cut in to the pole, and had to run an extra three yards. Had it been on a straight-away, the race would have been close. Levens again placed third.

Omar Cowles won the 70-yard high hurdles in nine seconds flat, followed by Bud Vergee and Stan Bowen. In the 160 lows the order was changed, and Vergee won in 18 seconds flat with Cowles in second and Bowen again third.

The three-quarter mile run was won by Tony Piazza in the time of 3:19.9 after he ran a killing first lap in 62 seconds. Guido Teresi trailed him home, followed by Bob Ingram.

The javelin went to Elwood Clark, as was expected, with a toss of 181 feet. John Shentanian placed second, followed by Vern Cooley in third spot.

The discus was captured by Larry O'Connor at 125 feet, with Herb Roberson second, followed by Lawton Hay.

The remaining events, the mile and a half run, 180-yard dash, 660-yard run, pole vault and broad jump, will be run at 3:45 this afternoon at Spartan Stadium.

More Student Volunteers Needed For Civilian Defense Program

More volunteers are still wanted for the San Jose civilian defense program, and men and women students willing to give up free time to the service are urged to fill out volunteer application blanks and turn them in immediately.

In the four days since the first call for student aid was made by William A. Wiltberger, police school head and civilian defense committee member, the number of volunteers has come to nearly 200.

Volunteers are reminded to indicate on the blanks their special abilities in any of the eight service fields. These divisions are:

1. Firefighting service.
2. Police service;
- a. Air raid wardens;
- b. Police auxiliary. 3. Medical service; a. Public health; b. Red Cross; c. Public welfare. 4. Public works service; a. Buildings, streets, water, sewers. 5. Public utilities service; a. Telephone, telegraph, light, transportation. 6. Maintenance of vital services; a. Rescue squad; b. Construction of trenches and shelters; c. Food distribution in emergencies. 7. Public relations and education service. 8. Clerical service.

Drop your volunteer blanks in the Contributions box of the Publications office, room 17.

Women are eligible for all branches of the service except firefighting.

Mr. William A. Wiltberger, director of the college Police school and member of the San Jose Civilian Defense council in charge of police work, requests volunteers from students and faculty of San Jose State college for a campus division of community civilian defense program. Paul Borg, scrappy basketball player, brought victory for the Blondes in the 136-pound class by defeating Bill Arms in a fast match.

CLOSE BATTLE

Oren Hill won the 155-pound championship for the combined team by defeating teammate Thomas in a close battle.

At 165, the Blondes had a cinch-win at the start with three of their members battling it out for the championship. Ted Macia came out on top, defeating Harold Sonntag and Bob Powell. Powell defeated Sonntag earlier.

ODD MATCH

In probably one of the strangest bouts all evening, Dick Clark, Blonde grappler, won a three-point decision over Dick Payne of the combined forces. Neither could drop the other to the canvas during the first period, and only once

PI OMEGA PI TO ELECT OFFICERS

The home of Guy George will be the meeting place of Pi Omega Pi members when they elect officers for the winter quarter, Monday evening.

President Leon Torrey will provide transportation for members if they meet in front of the Student Union at 7 o'clock.

Torrey requests that everyone be present at this meeting.

Yell Leader Tells Of Team's Arrival

(Continued from Page 1) team, Moana Hotel, Honolulu. Writing on a rocking boat makes it pretty tough, so excuse the scribbling. I will close now and will write another letter from the hotel in about a week.

Me kea aloha nui oe,

Tommy Taylor.

P.S.—Incidentally, we're going to have a band playing our school songs, and a rooting section to yell our yells, so don't worry—our team won't be without support.

Once again—Aloha, and Coach Ben sends his regards.

Our trainer pro tem, Lt. Dorsey, who has been the life of the party while on board, wants me to add: Aloha nui loa ka kou. (Darned if I know what it means.)

My regards to the DTO's and the Knights.

Will everyone who has ever held a Standard Red Cross certificate in First Aid meet in room 39 at 5 o'clock today?—Harriet Noyes.

COOKING EXHIBIT GIVES NEW IDEAS

Students who have apartments and do their own cooking will display an exhibit of interest to them in the Home Economics building outside room 1.

Cooking out of a can is a common occurrence for most people doing their own cooking. New ideas are shown in this exhibit arranged by Helen Matthews, member of Dr. Margaret's methods class. The display will be in the show cases all next week.
