Track Meet

San Jose State Track Squads Get Initial Test In Top Competition In San Francisco Civic Auditorium Tonight

San Jose State's greatest track team in history gets its first test against top-flight competition in the Olympic Club Indoor track meet in the San Francisco Civic Auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock.

Spartan Coach Bud Winter is entering a 12-man squad which is only out-numbered by the University of California team which numbers 23. The University of Southern California has entered 10 men as has Stanford, while the Olympic Club has only eight.

EXPERT OPINION

San Jose's team is young and untried in big-time indoor competition, but according to Harry M. Hayward of the San Francisco Examiner, one of the outstanding track experts on the Pacific coast, the Spartans may prove to be one of the strongest and best balanced squads in the meet.

Bill Smith and Bill Rhyne, Winter's top sprinters, will have a tough time breaking into the combination of Hal Davis of UC and John Trout of USC. Davis is the national sprint champ and Trout has done 5.4 seconds for the 50 yard dash. In his other event, the high jump, Smith will face Les Steers who has done 6 ft. 11 in., and Gil Greene 6 ft. 7 1/2 in. Smith's highest jump is 6 ft. 5 in.

TOUGH COMPETITION

Thelmo Knowles, entered in the 1000 yard run, will have competition in the form of Roger Lane of the Trojans who was state high school 880 champ before Knowles.

The Spartan distance men — Eustace Rojas, Guido Teresi and Bob Ingram—are faced with Ted Volmer of the Olympic Club and former Cal two-miler, Dick Peters

With Eddie Fitzpatrick, his orchestra and entertainers on the bandstand, the junior class of 1942 will present its annual junior prom from 9 to 1 o'clock tonight at the San Jose Civic Auditorium.

Writing a new arrangement especially for the prom, Fitzpatrick will feature the old popular "Star Dust," by Hoagy Carmichael, which will be sung by Monica Wheller several times during the evening as one of the events.

'Winterset' Closes Four-Day Run Tomorrow Evening

Two more performances of Maxwell Anderson's prize-winning tragedy, "Winterset," will be presented before it closes its four-night run in the Little Theater tomorrow evening. The curtain will rise at 8:30 tonight on the third presentation of the play.

Clarence Cassell and Audrey Tracey have been appearing in the leading roles of the production, Mio and Miriamne, which were popularized by Margo and Burgess Meredith in the movie version several years ago.

OTHER LEADS
Other leading roles in the play are Keith Bickford as Garth, Bert Holland as Shadow, James Spitz as Trock, Ollie Baequier as Carr, and Vernon Rose as Ezdras.

Howard Melton as Gaunt, Norval Guttormsen as Herman, Leon Fletcher as Lucia, Esther Lactinola as Pliny, Gordon Mine as the sailor, John Shepherd as a policeman, Warren Thomas as the radical, and Harrison McCreath as the sergeant complete the cast.

TICKETS
Tickets for unclaimed reserved seats will be sold at the door, states Helen Mineta, ticket manager. Prices are 28 cents for members of the student body and 55 cents for outsiders.

"Winterset" is the first serious play to be selected for production by the San Jose Players this year. It has been under the direction of Mr. Ted Hatlen of the Speech department, and sets were designed by Mr. Wendell Johnson.

Stuart Chase Will Discuss Post-War Economy Tonight

Stuart Chase will present his views regarding the new economy to result after World War II in his speech, "After the War — What?" in Morris Dailey auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock.

Advocating the full employment of man power and material resources, Mr. Chase believes that a new economy in which purchasing power or money will be of secondary importance, will replace the present economic system. It will result from the prodigious wartime production which has made a great number of commodities unavailable. From now on, Chase declares, the amount of the materials available will be the prime consideration.

HIGH-LIVING STANDARD

The full use of men and materials brought on by the war may well be continued into the peace, Chase believes. This would give the country the highest standard of living it has ever known.

Mr. Chase is the author of a great many articles and books concerned with the effects of technology on nature and human livelihood; the consumer always being the central figure in his picture of the economic world.

STUDENT TICKETS

Student tickets to the lecture may be purchased from Mrs. Helen Plant in the Dean of Women's office at a special rate of 39 cents. Mr. Chase is being presented under the auspices of the college YWCA Advisory board.

Since the talk is being given on the same night as the Junior Prom, students are welcome to attend in their formal clothes.

SHOW THEM A GOOD TIME

Campus Service Men's Committee has planned a St. Patrick's day dance for enlisted men stationed in and near San Jose for Monday night. This is the first large event given by the college for soldiers this quarter.

Appropriate decorations have been procured for the gym. The best in late records are at the committee's disposal. An interested townsman has donated the latest thing in public address systems. One hundred soldiers have been invited. And fewer than fifty co-eds have signed up to act as hostesses.

We know it's exam time. We know we have to cram and cram and cram—or else. So what?

There probably aren't ten girls on the campus who won't waste at least three hours (that's how long the dance will take) next week. Why not put all three of those hours together and slick back our hair and wash our faces and skip over to the gym and show the boys a good time? You might surprise yourself, and enjoy it!

We've been to a couple of the service dances. We find, on the whole, that the boys are good dancers and not bad company. And then there's this: Some nine hundred of our boy friends, fraternity brothers of boy friends, brothers, classmates, et al, are in the army camps at the other end of the country. We hope the people where THEY'RE stationed are showing THEM a good time, don't we? Then isn't it up to us to see that the boys FROM the other end of the country have an occasional frolic?

The sign-up sheets are in Miss Dimmick's office waiting. Let's fill them up today!

CONTRIBUTORS' COLUMN

The disciplinary forces in charge of the Student Union finally clamped down and cleaned up the "little Monte Carlo," converting it into a quiet, refined study lounge.

Fine! This is as it should be considering that we are here primarily for education and, while the Union is a place of relaxation, it need not be run like a pool hall.

There is one thing that I, and many others with me, would like to know. What has become of the radio which formerly occupied a prominent place in the Union?

When the radio was first removed we were given to understand that it was being withdrawn for repairs. That was approximately two months ago. What are they doing—rebuilding that radio? Not only did we derive a great deal of pleasure from this radio while we were relaxing, but it also served to keep us up to date on last-minute news. As things stand now we must go through the whole day not knowing what is happening to our armed forces in foreign countries.

In case no one has informed the individuals who removed the radio, the blackout is over now, and radio programs are definitely back on the air. So give us a break! Bring back our radio!

— Bob Graham.

Dear Patricia Loomis:

I wish to express by appreciation to you, Pat, and to other American friends for your sympathetic attitude and encouragement.

Certainly I wish to graduate with the class of '43. Surely I will miss friends, faculty, activities and studies, but I, as an American citizen of Japanese ancestry, know that this evacuation is a defense need and defense effort. No matter what kind of hardship I and other Japanese students will have to face, our American flag will be our symbol to carry on.

Sincerely yours,

— Sadayuki Mouri.

This afternoon the Spartan swimmers meet the reputedly strong Sequoia high school Giants in a match to be held in the local pool beginning at 4:15. The San Jose State swimmers are rated favorites over the Redwood swimmers. This will be the first meet for the frosh during the present season.

Following their first victory of the season, the San Jose State swimmers easily defeated the San Mateo high school mermen 47 to 19 in a meet at the peninsula city school yesterday afternoon.

Diamond Men Play Double Header With Fresno State College Bulldogs In First CCAA Games Of Season Tomorrow

Chopped down by injuries and eligibility afflictions, the Spartan baseball team meets Fresno State college in a double header in their first CCAA competition this year at Fresno tomorrow.

Other than the fact that Fresno defeated Chico State by scores of 9 to 7 and 9 to 4, nothing is known about the Bulldogs.

Before the season started, Coach Walter McPherson knew that he wouldn't have a strong team, but he didn't count on losing what few players he did have.

His most serious loss to date is Cyril Taylor, second sacker and only regular from last year. Other serious losses are third baseman John Urzi, first sacker George Wehner and pitcher Gene Kasparovitch.

With the basketball season finished, casaba men Angelo Colombo and Hal Sonntag came out to practice this week, and although both have had only a few days of practice, they might start tomorrow.

Louie Boitano will catch for the Spartans with Jack Gottschang pitching the first game and Bill Payne the second contest. Other than these men, McPherson does not have the least idea as to whom he'll use tomorrow.

Spartan Boxers Face USF, Gators In Don Pavilion

Coach DeWitt Portal's varsity boxers journey to San Francisco tonight to meet teams of the University of S. F. and S. F. State in a three-way meet at the USF auditorium.

Leading the Spartan invasion will be Dick Miyagawa, the nation's third-ranking 127-pounder, who will be one of Portal's chief hopes in the Pacific coast championships at Sacramento next week. Bob Webber, Miyagawa's running mate in the nationals at 120 pounds last year, will stay out of action tonight due to a head injury, but will be ready for the Sacramento bouts.

San Jose State fans will be watching with interest two lightweightweights competing under Spartan colors tonight. They are Stan Smith, whose only previous bout this season was a decision over his opponent tonight, Bill Bussenius of USF; and Bert Robinson, an entirely inexperienced but promising prospect, who goes into the ring for the first time against John Keohle of the Dons.

Smith's win over Bussenius tabs him as a real threat, for the latter was a finalist last year at Sacramento, and one of the coast's better 175-pounders. Bussenius is reported in better condition for to-

COLLEGE CAMPUS PREPARES FOR EVACUATION PROCEDURE IN CASE OF AIR RAID BOMBINGS

Plans for evacuation of San Jose State college students in case of an air raid got under way yesterday afternoon when faculty members met in the Science building to discuss action to be taken in case of emergency.

Evacuation procedure and room capacity were analyzed. These plans for Washington Square were made in line with plans being made on other Pacific coast campuses. No directions have as yet been officially sent out by the Army, but campus evacuation is part of civilian defense activity.

SIGNS POSTED

Signs will soon be posted on State buildings designating them as air raid shelters or as buildings unsafe during an air raid. In each classroom a card will be posted telling student occupants where to go in case of attack.

There will be no practice evacuation this quarter as time is too short, but classroom procedure will be explained and an actual practice evacuation will take place next quarter.

AIR RAID SHELTERS

The Science building and the library will accommodate the complete San Jose State college student body. The problem of evacuating the San Jose high school and technical high school students is a part of State's campus evacuation problem, for the high school buildings are not acceptable as bomb shelters.

KSJS Broadcasts Drama Tomorrow

"A Chunk of Metal" by Lorraine Callander will be broadcast by KSJS, radio speaking society, over station KQW tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

The play is an adventure drama dealing with Catherine the Great of Russia. KSJS veteran, Alice Modry, will play the role of Catherine.

Others in the KSJS cast include Ronald Hadley as Catherine's lover, Orlov; Tom Taylor plays Tjanov, the would-be murderer; Duane Heath plays De Kempen; Jack Wagner interprets Dr. Osloff; Loren Nichol森 plays Worausky; and Jane Dwyer and Barbara Whittaker play the court ladies.

Margaret Kennedy will handle the sound effects and Fred Ruegg of KQW is production manager.

Senior Interviews

Seniors who are seeking interviews through the Appointment office after graduation in June, must see without fail Miss Doris Robinson in the Appointment office before the end of the quarter.

Seniors will be interviewed by Mr. Edward Haworth, then they will be placed accordingly. This has to be taken care of as soon as possible, says Miss Robinson.

Co-Eds Needed For Soldier Dance

"More co-eds are needed badly for Monday night's St. Patrick's Day Dance," Marjorie Easton, chairman of the campus service men's committee, pointed out yesterday. One hundred soldiers stationed in and near San Jose have been invited. Approximately one-quarter that number of girls have signed up to act as hostesses.

The affair is scheduled from 7.30 to 10:30 o'clock in the Women's gym, which will be decorated to follow the shamrock theme traditional for St. Patrick's Day parties. Music will be "off the record," amplified by a new public address system donated by Clyde Vance, local townsman.

A sign-up sheet is located in the Dean of Women's office for co-eds who are interested in acting as hostesses. Jean Ellsworth is chairman for the event.
