COLLEGE SYMPHONY PRESENTS FORMAL CONCERT TONIGHT IN MORRIS DAILY AUDITORIUM, 8:15

Thomas E. Eagan, guest conductor of the San Jose State college symphony, will open the formal concert program of three great composers tonight at 8:15 in the Morris Dailey Auditorium.

Mr. Eagan will conduct the "Concerto in D Minor for two violins and orchestra" by J. S. Bach, in which Frances Robinson, violin instructor, and Adolph Otterstein, head of the Music department and conductor of the orchestra will join in a duet. Both Miss Robinson and Mr. Otterstein have appeared in recitals this quarter, Mr. Otterstein in the faculty trio and Miss Robinson in the Robinson-Elsass concert.

Naval Reserve To Require Course In Trigonometry

Latest addition to the entrance requirements of the Naval Reserve classes V-1, V-5, and V-7 is a math course in spherical trigonometry. This course is to be included in the year of college mathematics that is one of the basic requirements for admittance to the three classes in the Naval Reserve.

Since the navigation of planes and ships by reference to the sun or other stars is based upon the principles of spherical trigonometry, a knowledge of this subject is valuable to students entering the Army Air Corps as well, according to Mr. H. F. Minssen, head of the Mathematics department.

This course will be given at San Jose State next quarter as Math. 18, Spherical Trigonometry, 9:00 MWF, 3 units. Dr. Myers will be the instructor and the only prerequisite is plane trigonometry.

The class will be given instead of Defense Mathematics as shown in the time schedule for the spring quarter.

Quarterly Dinner Honors Spartan Daily Editor

The quarterly journalism banquet in honor of the departing editor of the Spartan Daily will be held in the Italian Hotel, 175 San Augustine street, Thursday evening, for Miss Betty Finley, who succeeded Miss Peggy Richter as Spartan Daily editor at the beginning of the winter quarter.

Miss Finley, a senior journalism major, will do her student work on a local newspaper during spring quarter, prior to her graduation in June. Before becoming editor-in-chief, Miss Finley was a day editor on the Daily.

The banquet will be attended by present and past members of the Spartan Daily staff. The speaker of the evening has not yet been announced.

United States Navy Wants 5,000 Men To Operate New "Secret Locator"

More than 5000 men between the ages of 17 and 50 are needed by the United States Navy to man a new type of secret weapon which locates the position of enemy planes and ships at great distances.

Applicants must be of good physical health, must be high school graduates and must hold or must have held amateur class A or class B licenses in radio.

Men selected to operate the new device will be given ratings of second class radiomen at $72 per month, plus allowances. Advancement to chief radioman, which pays $99 per month, is rapid, according to Captain J. W. Gates, public relations officer.

Selectees are put through an eight months' course at the Navy Radio Maintenance school on Treasure Island, San Francisco bay. This intensive course is said to be equivalent to at least two years of college work in radio or sound engineering.

Men interested in the program are urged to call at the Navy Recruiting station nearest their home for more detailed information.

Newman Club Sponsors Dance Tonight, 8 To 12

The Newman club is sponsoring a Shamrock dance in "Off the Record" Newman hall tonight from 8 to 12 o'clock. Stags and soldiers will be welcome, declares Floyd Resowalli, publicity chairman.

Stags will be charged 15 cents, and couples 25 cents. "Decorations will feature green and white streamers dangling from the ceiling, and white shamrocks covering the walls, lending the gay atmosphere of St. Patrick's day to the dance," he declares.

The dance is the first social affair to be held in the terms of the newly elected organization officers. Cokes and root beer will be sold during the dance.

Everybody is welcome. Committee members responsible for the dance are: Jess Smith and Virginia Birmingham, favors committee; Floyd Resowalli, Roberta Schneider and Gordon Fine, publicity committee, and Joseph Garofalo, refreshments.

Everything Ready For West Coast School Of Nature Study Trip To Death Valley ---- Says Registrar

With ideal weather conditions prevailing in Death Valley and the quota for the camping group filled, students of the West Coast School of Nature Study are all set to start on their trip at the end of the quarter.

All available transportation for the camping group has been exhausted and only those who are able to take themselves to and from Death Valley will be registered, announced Miss Gertrude Witherspoon, registrar for the school, yesterday.

FURNACE CREEK TOO

There are also plenty of reservations for the Furnace Creek Ranch and these are also handled by Miss Witherspoon. Living costs range from $5.40 to $20 for the six-day period at the Lodge.

The school is an innovation in educational endeavor in that no formal lectures, no school rooms, no texts, no examinations and outlines of courses will be adhered to. It is based on the theory that nature itself, when viewed by the student in all its splendor, is inspiration enough to the student.

STUDY WILD LIFE

Every morning each of the seven professors take a group into the field to study wild life firsthand. In this way every student gets to study the various phases of wild life with a different instructor.

Students wishing to sign for the trip should do so at their earliest convenience as the rostrum is almost full. "Many teachers and students from other schools have enrolled in the school this year as the fame of the unique institution spreads," Miss Witherspoon said.

Book Exchange At Student's Disposal March 25, 26, 27

The Student Book Exchange, non-profit organization to aid students of San Jose State college in disposing of their used textbooks at a profit, will open Wednesday, March 25, at 1 o'clock.

It will also be open all day Thursday and Friday morning to allow students a chance to place their used books on the Exchange before the beginning of next quarter.

A file of the textbooks to be used next quarter is being compiled through the help of all faculty members. This list of books will aid the Exchange greatly in improving their services to the students, according to Marie Hayes, chairman of the operations committee. Books will be listed according to editions for greater convenience.

Other functions of the operations committee include obtaining of new shelves to replace the outdated ones previously employed.

At the meeting of the Book Exchange Thursday afternoon, Mary Suransky was elected secretary. Marshall Kelley, Weber Lund and Kay Welschmeyer were appointed to the finance committee.

Members on the Exchange are Rex Gardiner, chairman; Harriet Helps, Kay Welschmeyer, Ed Brubaker, Marie Hayes, Marshall Kelley, Jessie Willson, Rose Scelline, Allan Isaksen, Weber Lund, Charlene Hall, Russell Oakes, Bee Laurence, George Coles, Mary Suransky, Henry Leland, Sam Zones, Betty Wool, Spike McClelland. All students on the Exchange last quarter and new members are asked to come to the next meeting of the group Thursday at 4 o'clock in the Student Union. New candidates are being considered.

Senior Test Given Thursday, Friday; Room List Posted

Seniors who attended the meeting in Morris Dailey auditorium two weeks ago are asked to look on the Personnel office bulletin board for the assignment to test rooms, according to Dr. DeVoss, dean of the upper division.

Beginning Thursday afternoon these tests will be given by an official from the Carnegie Foundation.

Officials will base their decision on whether San Jose State college will be accepted as an accredited member in American colleges and universities.

Seniors will be excused from Orientation Thursday.

Act Comedy Men Today In Little Theater

"Air and Earl," one-act play by Bertram Bloch, will be presented in the Little Theater today, free of charge.

The play, which is under the direction of Miss Marie of the speech faculty, are by Eleanor Wagner as Mrs. Adele Freman as Eleanor, Margaret Moeck as Carson, Hampton Richey as lawyer, and Norval Guttorm as the chauffeur with several other roles.

The play will be presented at the Little Theater today, free of charge.

The play will be presented at the Little Theater tomorrow afternoon.

"East Lynne," a melodrama, contains several character roles. There are seven roles for men and eight for women in the production.

The play, which will be presented in the Little Theater on April 1, will be under the direction of Mr. Ted Hatlen. Three rehearsals will be held in the Little Theater before the spring vacation.

Prizes For Plays

Berkeley Playmakers are offering prizes totaling $245 for the best one-act plays submitted. Prizes may be obtained by writing to the plays committee, Berkeley Playmakers, 1814 Blake street, Berkeley, California. Deadlines for entries is June 15.

Spartans Invited To Contribute Best Speeches, Writings To Publication

Students of San Jose State college are invited to contribute to "The Student Speaker," magazine of student speeches and writings published and edited by W. Kenneth Brown, Jr., student journalist and editor.

This publication is put out for, by and about high school and college students, according to Mr. Brown. Presenting a list of major student activities.

The Student Speaker prints the outstanding short stories, poems, essays and illustrations of the students in addition to printing examples of photography, current art, and illustrations submitted by students.

A trophy will be awarded each quarter to the person who submits the best original essay and also to the one who submits the best illustration and the best photograph.

Further information may be obtained from speech, art, and illustration instructors. Students are asked to submit their contributions to the Editor, The Student Speaker, 215 1/2 Orange street, San Jose, California.

DAN CUPID HITS SPARTAN DAILY

The love bug really has been biting present and past Spartan Daily editors and staff members.

At a party given Saturday afternoon by Irene Melton, '41 graduate and former feature editor, Peggy Richter, editor fall quarter, revealed her engagement to John Healey, '41 graduate and editor spring quarter of last year.

Irene announced her own engagement a few weeks ago. The party was given in honor of Mary Traub, '40 graduate and former copy editor, who plans to be married Easter Sunday to Bill Regan, also a '40 graduate and former copy editor and staff photographer for La Torre.

Florence Scudero, feature editor fall quarter and present journalism major, announced the date of her coming marriage last week. She will become Mrs. Larry Gullo April 12.

Announcement has also been received from Gem March, member of the Spartan Daily staff last year, of her coming marriage to Franklin Kallam, '41 graduate. The date set is for Saturday.

Epsilon Pi Tau Meets

Epsilon Pi Tau, general element of the society, will meet tonight at 8:00 p.m. at the South Fifth street. Miss Lila Harrington, member of the organization, announces that the pins have arrived and will be distributed at the meeting. During the evening general elementary majors will be pledged to the society.

BURNING ISSUES

We read in our journalism texts of the importance of editorial comment on the issues of the day. We are told that editorials move the reading public to action; spurring the people on to right wrongs and to accomplish great deeds that benefit their fellow man.

Why, then, doesn't this hold true on our campus? Usually we don't have many "burning issues" to arouse the entire student body but every so often there are a number of worthy causes that call for unified support. Causes that in normal times would merit close attention now call for much more than that. In times of national emergency and war the whole nation is expected to band together in the fight against a common enemy. Lives and careers are altered as individuals band together in one movement.

CONGRATULATIONS

Another production from the drama department has been shelved as a success.

First, "The Rivals," then "Mr. Pickwick," next the production of "Ah Wilderness," and last, but not least "Winterset." Saturday night, March 14th, the curtain came down on the last act of Maxwell Anderson's "Winterset" with the greatest ovation of any production so far this season.

In ancient Greece athlete performers were honored for excelling in their specific field. As in ancient Greece, we will honor our performers of the stage. From all walks of life people who saw "Winterset" have paid compliments by the score. The players acted to full houses on all four nights of the production run. We, the students of San Jose State college can well be proud of OUR drama department.

This quarter we have had several drives that at any time would be expected to receive almost unanimous support from the student body. Contributions to the Red Cross, the Blood Bank, and the Send-a-Book-to-Camp campaigns were so weak as to be almost ineffectual. In spite of repeated entreaties or condemnation in the editorial columns the results were always discouragingly the same.

But this not meant to be a censure of student body apathy, instead it is meant to be a query: Why aren't these campaigns supported; and why does editorial comment always fail to elicit the slightest flicker of response?

Is it the fault of the editorials or of the student body?

In either case the problem calls for a remedy.

Cook

JUST AMONG OURSELVES

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE
President San Jose State College

When you report for your Army service, be sure to plan something to do when the hours are longest. That interminable waiting is what gets you.

Have a book to read, one that may be fairly hard but which will do you some good if you master it. Have a little hobby, perhaps. One man I knew used to make trinkets, costume jewelry, out of the old brass shells. He'd even set some simple pebbles in them. I never saw his tools, but he had them somewhere. Must have done soldering and annealing, too. He made some fine things.

The artists and the architects really have a great opportunity in the Army. They carry their art right along with them. Some of them are able to sell their pictures. I notice that the magazines are beginning to publish the work now being done by the soldiers.

Mr. E. N. Curtis, an architect right here in San Jose, made pictures all over France during the last war. He was interested in half-timbered houses, and whenever he could get near one, he made sketches that have been valuable to him ever since.

I met a regular Army colonel one time whom I found very interesting. He was a West Pointer, had been through all of our efforts from the Spanish-American war. He had been decorated a number of times. On one of his visits the matter of hobbies came up. He reached for his hat roll and pulled out, of all things, several copies of a poultry journal. They were pretty grimy. Evidently he had read them over and over again. Right in the Argonne, the barrage a perfect drum he had those poultry journals with him. He said that he and his were going to have a poultry show in California just as soon as he retired.

If I had to do it all over again I believe I would take some textbooks with me and actually some studying. I would like to take one in physics and perhaps two or three in mathematics. I would so much rather work a problem of calculus than play craps or shoot craps all night. That gambling can become a real nuisance.

I saw an item in the Times one day which said that American soldiers had been resting on the Embankment in London, gambling in a public place. I had been sitting on the curb playing craps. The Times called it "low game."

On Land, On Sea, In The Air

FOR SERVICE CONTRIBUTORS

The following letter was received by Mr. Dwight B. head of the Journalism department, from Winslow Stewart, Somewhere in Warwickshire, England.

Dear Dwight:

How are you? Still holding the fort in the "Daily" here am I, a poor Yank in the R. A. F., being yanked about what used to be Merrie Old England. Have gained a brief respite, however, an opportunity to cogitate the situation and attempt to fathom the ways of this island breed, mine fortuitous hosts. Have made little progress.

At any rate, here's one item that struck me—the Limey's apathy to "comfort." Comfort in the simplest, everyday sense. Plain American comfort apparently is considered prodigal, if not abject, luxury in these parts. The blokes over here are seemingly inexperienced with living in the manner to which you and I would like to be accustomed. Here's a little illustrative incident of such ignorance-of-comfort-is-bliss:

Pilot Officer Joe, one of the Canadians with us, was temporarily billeted out at a local hotel. He was escorted to the second floor, the temperature going down is STILL at the cleaner's . . .

Ah, 'tis spring . . . by the way, have you written home to mother and dad lately? Ya gotta pay the library fine or ya won't get your grades . . . or do ya want em? (Did you go to the Prom Friday night? Was keen, huh?) Nevertheless, the point is, you can't sell any books because you sold 'em to get a bid for the Prom . . . so ya better write to mammy or pappy for a little cash on the cuff . . . huh?

roughly one degree for each step up. Shivering, he stepped into the room, ten degrees below hallway temperature. He was surprised to see the water still to drip from the tap. Shaking undaunted, P. O. Joe inquired the manageress if any heat was available.

"We-ell — no, we never considered about heating it." Joe, though flinching, bluntly asked if it could be laid in the grate. "No, really can't say whether the fireplace is in working order or not," you see!" Throwing in his hat, serves, P. O. Joe prayed when the fireplace last been in operation. "We-ell, actually don't remember there ever being a fire in the fireplace, you see!"

There's the point. So let the water doesn't freeze in the heat is superfluous. The fact your bedroom at 33 degrees in time. At home, you and I are it's going to get cold in the winter so we insulate, install heating systems. Here they try to figure, "Well, maybe it will get cold this winter, so we'll get the heating go."

But it's been getting cold every winter for centuries. So it or not, that's the custom. Perhaps such customs are a bit of Britain's ability to "take it" it ain't comfort though. See erica first!

Yours,

Dear Thrust and Parry:

I wish to applaud Sadayuki Mouri for the spirit of sincere patriotism which he expressed in his letter to Pat Loomis. All of us who have loyal Japanese-American friends are deeply troubled at the thought of their leaving. But the knowledge that they realize the necessity of the defense evacuation and desire to do their part by going willingly and even cheerfully makes us proud to call them friends and fellow Americans.

Ah, 'tis spring . . . da hoids is on da wing, etc., and here we sit. Wars in Europe and the Far East, communists muttering in their beards, snow on Mt. Hamilton and we with classes, finals next week, and our only other skirt at the cleaner's. Ah, 'tis spring . . .

Uncle Sammy is grabbing up handfuls of our best Spartans (good men, all of 'em) and Washington Square seems greatly overrun with fems. It's getting so a S'funny about Americans. Here it is spring, and although we sense that it isn't like other springs, we feel a certain amount of tragedy and uncertainty in the air; we laugh and go on with plans for Sneak Week, the Senior Ball, and spring vacation. COACHES' DILEMMA!

Wrestling Coach SAM DELLA MAGGIORE and Boxing Coach DEE PORTAL were hunted far and near for opponents in the last few weeks (they got to the point where they were taking anybody, anytime, and anywhere). Baseball Mentor WALTER McPHERSON was wondering how he was going to get men to play the 20-game schedule he had facing him.

It seems that McPHERSON put down on his worrying. Saturday Jupiter Pluvius opened the double-header with FRESNO BULLDOGS, then SANTA BARBARA STATE announced that due to financial difficulties it had to drop its 1942 program.

As a result, four games are cut from the Spartans' schedule. Thus McPHERSON has a record of games played 2; (2), games cancelled 4; (3), games postponed indefinitely 2; and (4), games still to play 12 or possibly 14.

Uhrhammer, center on the casaba teams in 1939, '40 and '41, is in Denver at the present time as a member of the San Francisco Athletic club which is competing for honors while competing in the NATIONAL AAU BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT starting next week.

Uhrhammer can be seen in action here next Friday afternoon when the OWLS, winners of the Tuesday-Thursday Inter-league, meets the winners of the Monday-Wednesday Inter-league. He led the former league during the season.

OPEN LETTER TO THE HAMS

Dear HAMS: We admit that you were lucky, you defeated us (the Scribes) in the first two games, but, gentlemen, we shall mop you up today. We thought you again throw that KEYS OF THE SMOKED VARIETY LINDER and any other variety of "BLUE" s in working order. WITH HEALEY at us. We feel sorry in his last week with Charles "Cooking with a gun" and Bill "GUNNER".

Eight Spartans Enter PCC Boxing Show This Week

Having finished their dual meet with San Jose State's varsity team, the Spartans are aiming all efforts this week towards the Pacific coast conference and California Collegiate championship tournaments to be held at Sacramento and Fresno. On March 20 and 21, Coach Dee Della Maggioro's top eight men will represent San Jose at the PCC in Sacramento, and the following week, March 26 and 27, another eight men will be in Fresno for the CCAA. Making the Sacramento trip will

- Bob Webber.
- Charles Townsend.
- Dick Miyagawa.
- Ken Sheets.
- Roy Diedericksen.
- Stan Smith.
- Woody Gibson.
- Frank Minini.

State Tennis Team Faces Santa Clara On Bronco Courts This Afternoon; COP, California Jayvee Next Opponents

San Jose's tennis team will wind up its activities this week with three dual meets. This afternoon the Spartans will invade Santa Clara to battle the strong Bronco netment at 1:45 in the second league game of the season.

Coach T. Erwin Blesh will start the same team that was victorious in its first start of the season over St. Mary's last week.

Ronald Edwards will hold down the number one spot and will be followed by Dink Clark, Don McKenzie, Vic Morten, Eddie LaFrank and John Nicholson.

SAME TEAM

For the doubles, Coach Blesh will team Edwards and McKenzie, Clark and Morten, and LaFrank and Nicholson.

Against St. Mary's the above had little trouble taking all matches in two sets with only two or three sets being at all close.

WON LAST YEAR

Last year the Spartans dropped the Broncho team both times by scores of 7-2. The Bronchos and Gaels battled it out for the cellar spot in the Northern California Intercollegiate tennis league.

Thursday afternoon on the local courts the Spartans will battle the College of Pacific netmen. This was originally scheduled for Saturday but was cancelled because of bad weather.

CALIFORNIA NEXT

Saturday the local netmen will face the California junior varsity team on the Berkeley courts. Because the Bear varsity had a match scheduled for that week-end the Spartans were forced to meet the junior varsity.

First meet next quarter will be a return battle with Santa Clara on the local courts April 16.

Spartans Battle Bears Friday; Four Enter PAA

Spartan swimmers will wind up their dual meets this week when they face the strong California varsity in the local pool Friday night at 8 o'clock.

However, four of the Spartan stalwarts will face competition tomorrow night when they enter the Senior PAA meet in San Francisco. Those entering are Marty Taylor in the 100 yard backstroke, Don Thomsen in the 100 yard freestyle, Walter Sindel in the 220 yard freestyle, and Roger Frelrier in the 100 yard breaststroke. Last year Frelrier took a fourth behind teammate Dean Foster.

Last year the San Jose mermen were victorious over the California team for the first time since the two teams have been competing. Coach Charley Walker's team came through in the final relay to give the Spartans the needed points to take the meet.

Next quarter the Spartans' only meet will take place at San Diego in the 2C2A tourney.

MORROW, we'll come out of the dark and trample you in our final game to be held in the Men's gym at 4 today.

Triumphantly yours,
—Sebastian "Scrappy" Squatrito,
Scribe Mentor.

Spartan Matmen Enter National Meet Next Week

Coach Sam Della Maggioro's San Jose State wrestling team, back from Southern California with two victories under its belt, is getting down to serious training this week in preparation for the national championship matches to be held at Lansing, Michigan, next week.

Friday night the Spartan matmen defeated the San Gabriel A. C., the California Shipbuilders, and the Sherman Institute teams in a four-way meet at the institute. Winning their matches for the San Jose team were Leroy Charlesworth, John Castleman, Captain Dave Hines, Al Long, Hans Wiedenhofer and Gray McConnell.

BRUIN MEET CLOSE

Second on the list of the Spartan's victims was the UCLA Bruins Saturday night. After forfeiting the 128 and 136 pound divisions because they lacked competitors the San Jose team nosed out the southerners by an 18-16 count in a match held in Los Angeles.

Hines, Castleman and Charlesworth won fall victories for the locals while Wiedenhofer scored a decision in the Bruin matches.

OLSEN PROBABLE

Ivan Olsen, one of the mainstays of the Spartan squad did not compete in the southern California matches because of a cracked rib suffered in a recent match. His chances of recovery in time to participate in the nationals are better than were first expected, however, he may be able compete.

Spartan Baseball Team Will Battle University Of San Francisco Nine This Afternoon On Don Diamond

With their first victory in three starts in mind, Coach Walter McPherson's mitmen travel to San Francisco to meet the University of San Francisco Dons in Seals Stadium at 3:30 this afternoon.

The Spartans were to play Fresno State in a double header at the Raisin City Saturday but weather conditions forced the postponement of the contest.

KNOWLES, SMITH BOTH PLEASING TO COACH WINTER

Head Track Coach Bud Winter is having a terrible time for himself trying to decide whether he is most pleased with the running of Bill Smith or Thelmo Knowles in the indoor meet last week.

It is true that Knowles came from nowhere in the 1000 yard run to pass the entire field in the last 250 yards and win the event, and that was San Jose's only first place. Not only did he win, but he loafed through most of the race and had he not been caught behind four runners at the start, might easily have cracked the Pacific Association record.

SMITH TIES RECORD

While Smith didn't win his events, he took his heat in the 50 yard dash and tied the Pacific Association indoor record of 5.3 seconds set by Ray Dean and tied by Claude McWilliams and Jack Willis. In the finals he finished second to Hal Davis of California in a foto-finish.

A picture of the finish taken by a news photographer shows Davis hitting the tape a slim four inches ahead of Smith. Smith was off to a slow start and was forced to pass Trojan Jack Trout in the last 10 yards and looked to be closing in on Davis. Winter, smiling from ear to ear, beamed, "I never thought anyone could close on Davis and I still wouldn't have believed it if I hadn't seen it with my own eyes."

HARTRANFT OWES CAKE

Tiny Hartranft, director of athletics and head man of the track squad last year, owes Smith a cake for his 6 ft. 4½ in. leap in the high jump.

At the beginning of the season, Hartranft put up a prize of a cake to any track man breaking a school record. Smith cracked the former record by two inches.

Although no official team standings were taken, San Jose placed third in the unofficial rankings.

It was also learned yesterday that Santa Barbara State college was forced to drop its baseball program this year due to financial difficulties.

LESS GAMES

As a result, the Spartans have four less games to play and leaves the CCAA conference league with only three members, Fresno, San Diego, and San Jose State colleges.

The Gauchos have had good baseball teams the past few years, winning the CCAA title in 1939 and winding up in second place last year.

GOTTSCANG PITCHING

Jack Gottschang will be on the mound for State this afternoon, and Louie Boitano will do the backstopping. Other starters will be named at game time by Coach McPherson.

Frosh Swimmers Close Season With Two Foes

Winding up their season this week, Coach Charley Walker's frosh swimmers meet Burlingame high school Wednesday afternoon at 4:15 and the University of California freshmen Friday night at 8. Both meets will be held in the Spartan pool.

Smarting from their upset at the hands of the Sequoia high school Giants Friday afternoon, the frosh mermen will be out for blood this week.

The Bear frosh are reported to be especially strong this year and are said to have one of the best freshman sprinters on the coast in Stan Morketter. Jim Davis and Jim Jackson, Spartan hopes in the 50 and 100 yard freestyles, will be hard pressed to defeat Morketter. He hasn't lost a race this season.

Cecil Dombalian is the main threat of the freshmen in both meets. The best diver in the school, Dombalian has been consistent in his victories over foes this season. He is the number one diver of the varsity team as well as the frosh.

JEANS, GINGHAM ARE FASHIONABLE ATTIRE FOR "TURNABOUT" DANCE TO BE HELD IN MEN'S GYM FRIDAY

Jeans and gingham will be the fashionable manner of dress at the "Turnabout" student body dance in the Men's gym Friday night.

Following a Sadie Hawkins Day theme, the women students are to ask the men to this affair and in general take the part of the male for this last student body dance of the quarter.

Decorations will typify a barnyard atmosphere to tie in with the theme of the evening. Dancing will be from 9 to 12 o'clock.

An all-girl orchestra will play for the affair and a featured vocalist will perform with the band.

Admission will be free to student body members, while 40 cents will be the charge to non-members.

Patrons for the affair are Mr. William J. Erlendson, Mr. Adolph W. Otterstein, Mr. R. L. Irwin and Miss Lucie Lawson.

Lucky Freshman Gets Scholarship

A freshman student showing promise and in the esteem of both faculty and students will be chosen by a judging committee to be the recipient of a free scholarship to the American Youth Foundation Leadership Training camp, Shelby, Michigan.

Camp will be held for two weeks, August 17 to 30.

The scholarship covers all camp expenses, including the cost of board, lodging, social, recreational and classroom activities. Transportation must be cared for by the student, individually, but the San Jose administration may find ways to help with this problem.

Any freshman student feeling he is qualified may obtain an application blank from the Dean of Men's office and have it submitted to the committee in charge.

Dr. Alexander McCallum is heading a committee of six judges: Miss Helen Dimmick, Dean of Women; Mr. Paul Pitman, Dean of Men; Mr. Harrison Heath, technical program co-ordinator; Dr. James DeVoss, head of the upper division; and Dick Knox, freshman drafting major.

There will be no further meetings of the pre-legal club this quarter, Mr. Owen Broyles, economics instructor, announced today.

"Students planning to study law next quarter should arrange for a free period on Mondays, from 12:30 to 1:00, as regular meetings will be held," he announced. "Lawyers have been taken into the war effort as part of the Federal administration organization.

"They are doing such work as handling alien property, priority and taxation problems, and citizenship cases," he stated.

Auxiliary Fire department of the State college meet in room 24 at 12:15 today.—Marty Taylor.

Council meeting is scheduled to night in the Student Union. Last meeting of quarter; to lay out next quarter's program.

DSG's Convene Tomorrow Night For Installation

Members of Delta Sigma Gamma, social fraternity, will convene at the Fior Di Italia restaurant tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock for the formal dinner which will precede installation of new officers of the organization.

Harry Harter, new president, will be installed by outgoing prexy Ken Wilkins. Chuck Brown will go in as new vice-president, Bob Gager as secretary, and Jim Argo as treasurer.

Entertainment will consist of vocal numbers by Harry Harter, versatile singer who was master of ceremonies and who also performed in the DSG floor show at the semi-formal dance held by the fraternity March 7. Fraternity advisers Dr. Earl Campbell and Dr. Joseph Cooper will present talks to the group following the dinner.

Fraternity members will adjourn to the fraternity house for the formal installation of officers after the dinner. A business meeting will be held also.

PRINTING CLASSES VISIT CHRONICLE

Despite the fact that the San Francisco Chronicle has been observing blackout rules nightly along with the rest of San Francisco, a group of San Jose State college students were shown through the plant by the paper's editor, Mr. William Chandler, Wednesday night.

The students were members of Mr. Hartley E. Jackson's printing classes and Miss Dora Smith's class in the history of printing.

They were able to see the presses in action and follow the intricacies of the newspaper business first hand.

Knight Election

Pegasus Initiates Five New Members

Five students were initiated into Pegasus, literary honor society, at a formal dinner at the Chinese Lantern last night. These five were chosen for excellence in original literary composition.

The are Lois Johnston, junior English major, elected to the society for work in poetry; William Kidwell, junior Speech major, chosen for work in the short story medium; Alice Peck, senior education major, for poetry; Ruth Gardner, junior English major, for poetry; and Mrs. Barbara Bell, senior education major, for poetry.

New officers will be elected for the society at the first spring quarter meeting.

Varsity Housemen Work On Formal

Holding their third official meeting of the present quarter last night, members of the Varsity House came to an amicable understanding over terms of the house formal to be held at the end of spring football practice.

Committees were appointed and final plans were made for the affair. Ernest Hemingway Luke was named chief organizer with Buck Wheat and Jack Gearing, frosh footballer, as aids.

Buck Bailey was assigned the care of all freshmen attending and room 1 of the lower right wing was placed under his special attention.

At the informal set for early next quarter steaks will be served, with French bread and plenty of refreshments, according to Luke, chef for the occasion. A nominal fee of one dollar will be charged and members of the Garden City and Camino Country Clubs are being invited to attend.

Several former V-House inmates have written from their new homes at service camps throughout the nation. Brother Bob "Moe" Hamill, last season's football co-captain, Aubrey Minter, Peaches Antognani, John Brown, and George Hearn are all doing well in various branches of the Army air corps.

SHAMROCK DANCE GIVEN TONIGHT

"Sure, 'n it will be a great day for the Irish" when the Newman club holds its Shamrock Dance at Newman hall tonight from 8 to 12 o'clock.

Dancing will be off the record and an admission charge of 15 cents for stags or 25 cents per couple will be charged at the door.

According to "Cookie" Sanders and Lorraine Reilly, social affairs chairmen, "members of the club have made an all-out effort to make this dance the best of the quarter."

During intermissions, bowling, billiards, and ping-pong facilities will be available to those attending.

"Shamrocks will deck the hall and a surprise favor will be given to all students at the door," states Joe Garofalo, newly elected president.

Committees for the affair are as follows: Decorations, Mike McDonnell, Larry Reilly, Barbara Healey and Virginia Sanders; favors, Joseph Garofalo and Virginia Birmingham; publicity, Floyd Rezowalli, Darwin Spolyar, Robert Schneider and Gordon Fine.

TWO DELEGATES CHOSEN TO DEBATE AT SAN QUENTIN

Francis Stoffels, junior science, and Rex Gardner, sophomore pre-legal major, were chosen at tryouts Friday to represent San Jose State college in the annual debate with San Quentin on Saturday morning, March 22.

The team will uphold the negative point of view on the topic "Resolved: That the Democrats Should Form a Federation to Establish and Maintain the Roosevelt - Churchill Eight Principles." Each speaker will give a tentative talk and instead of the customary rebuttal procedure a question device will be used. This is a recent innovation of San Quentin debaters.

The event is an annual affair with both San Quentin and San Jose. It is part of the institutional regular education program headed by Herman Buckner, supervisor of education.

Other schools, University of California and Stanford also debate with the San Quentin group. Debates have been non-decisive the last five years. Previously the San Quentin group regularly lacked opponents.

One more student will be elected to go with the Spartan team. He will act as chairman of the event.
