

MATTHEWS LISTS CONTEST WINNERS IN ANNUAL EVENT

Winners of the annual music composition contest have been announced by George T. Matthews, head of the Music department. A program of all winning pieces will be presented to all students at a concert next Tuesday at 11 o'clock in the Little Theater.

Cash prizes will be awarded the three top winners in each of the different groups of compositions. The groups are piano solos, vocal solos, and instrumental ensembles, with honorable mention to the vocal ensemble contestants.

Piano solo winners are Virginia Holsey, Shirley Etter, and Yvonne Dalls. Prizes for vocal solo compositions will go to Myrra Mosher, Patricia Schommer, Virginia Holsey, and Patricia Jefferson.

Winning instrumental ensemble pieces were a quintette by Shirley Etter, viola solo by Winona Davis, and a quintette by Eldeen Gaine. Vocal ensembles submitted were by Ray McIntyre and Patricia Schommer.

Dr. Warren Allen, head of the Music department of Stanford university, was judge of the music submitted. Prizes will be awarded to the winners at the program by Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie.

Juniors Must Sign To Get Transportation For "Scram" June 9

"Scram!" said the junior. "Scram to the Library arch this week just as soon as possible and sign up for the Scram to be held June 9."

It is vital that everyone who is going sign up at the booth so transportation can be arranged. Lee Ross has been appointed in charge of handling the gas and car problem for the day, and he must know as soon as possible for how many to plan. Any junior who has either gasoline or a car available is asked to sign at the booth. If enough cars and gas cannot be obtained, trucks may be used.

Plans are for the third-year class to leave San Jose early Saturday, June 9, for a day of combined activities with the seniors. It will be a vacation day, the most hilarious of the year for all who go along. Many out-of-doors activities are being planned, including games, races, relays, and other contests. Swimming, walking, and loafing will be available for devotees, and a combined program is in the organizational stages.

Cards have been mimeographed and mailed to all members of the junior class reminding each, in effect, to "Sign up now for the last and biggest all-class activity of the year!"

EVELYN MORRISON WINS P.K.P. AWARD

Evelyn Morrison, senior general elementary major from Aztec, New Mexico, is winner of the 1945 scholarship awarded by Phi Kappa Pi sorority alumnae.

Mrs. James Stevenson, president of the alumnae chapter of the campus sorority, announced the presentation of the award Friday. Miss Morrison is president of Pi Epsilon Tau, the general elementary honor society, and is now student teaching at Horace Mann school. She graduates in August.

Warren Brady And Ken Black, Spardi Gras King Candidates, To Be Presented At Noon Today

"Come See the Body" is the slogan for the Sappho noon rally today sponsoring Warren Brady for King of Spardi Gras.

"Mystery and intrigue will prevail," promise Lois Baker and Barbara Retchless, campaign managers.

Ken McGill, popular master of ceremonies, will be in charge of the program. Entertainment will feature Tommy Brocato and his guitar, as well as other specialty numbers.

Strains of "That Old Black Magic," issuing from the Quad at 12:30, will open the rally for Ken Black, King candidate sponsored by Zeta Chi and Theta Mu Sigma.

The rally will be emceed by Happy Hyman, assisted by Cecil Dombalian, who will lead spectators in college yells.

"Life of Ken Black," an original piano concerto played by its composer, Norman Healy, will highlight the entertainment.

Also featured will be songs by Betty Louthan, and a special song and dance routine by a mixed chorus composed of Alwine Sorensen, Nadine Carlson, Beverly Rosal, Betty Louthan, Howard Riddle, Art Huneven, and Happy Hyman.

Psychology Club To Visit Dibble

Members of the Psychology club will go on a field trip to Dibble hospital in Palo Alto tomorrow morning in order to observe the practice of therapy — an important step in the mental rehabilitation of the returning soldier.

Taking the 8:40 train to Menlo Park, they will be received and shown around by Miss Donalson, head of occupational therapy, and Captain Wallace, head of physical therapy.

Chairman of the field trip is Mary Jeanne Anzalone assisted by Gloria Dall. Dr. Raymond Mosher is the faculty adviser for the club, and Dr. Elmo Robinson is the sponsor.

Phyllis Johnson Is New SCA Prexy

Elections for new officers of the Student Christian Association were held last Tuesday, and results announced Friday.

Phyllis Johnson was elected president on a white ballot. Mary Elizabeth Said took the position of vice president; Gaynelle Baldwin will be secretary, and Shung Fong will take the job of treasurer.

YWCA representative for the next year will be Audrey Jean Pickwell, while Don Cassidy will be YMCA representative.

A retreat of old and new cabinet members will be held at Lion's Den the weekend of June 9 and 10, when plans will be made for next year's activities.

Expanded Summer Program Ready For Registration July 2

A greatly expanded program awaits those who enroll for the annual Summer Session, July 2-August 10, announces Registrar Joe West.

Courses have been added to almost every department, and new departments will be included in the six-weeks session. For instance, there will be twice as much art as was offered in 1944; there will also be pre-nursing classes, occupational therapy, additional educational workshops, and new teacher-training classes.

Biggest features of the Summer Session include the annual Demonstration school from kindergarten through sixth grade, directed by Miss Katharine Hall; the remedial reading clinic, the workshops, and a varied recreational program.

Mrs. Dora Reese of Minnesota will direct the reading program in place of Mrs. Lillian Gray, who will teach at U. S. C. this summer. The workshops are in the fields of air education, home economics, and elementary science. Dr. Robert Rhodes is in charge of the recreation program.

Classes of the late Walter Bachrodt, city superintendent of schools, will be taught by Mr. Frank Lindsay, assistant state superintendent of public instruction and chief of the division of secondary education.

New courses of interest to teachers include a visual aids laboratory, with Dwight Bentel instructing, and a class in problems of the emergency teacher, taught by Mrs. Grace Rowe.

Student Council To Meet Today

ASB elections, plans for the Recognition Day assembly, the Gripe Dinner, and Spardi Gras will be under consideration today at 4 p. m. in the Student Union by the Student Council.

"Council members are busy with end-quarter activities," says President Howard Riddle. Elections for next year's council and ASB offices will be held in a few weeks.

Gripe Dinner Ticket Deadline Today, Johnston Announces; Event Takes Place In Union

Today is the deadline for purchasing Gripe Dinner tickets, announces Hugh Johnston, chairman of the semi-annual student affair. Tickets are on sale in the Business office for 75 cents.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 in the Student Union and "gripping" will commence after it is over.

"Individuals are asked to attend, for in this manner they can best air their gripes and discover how the college is run," says Johnston.

A special dinner is being prepared that "will send no one home hungry." Students are warned to get their tickets today or they will be unable to attend.

"Every student on campus can and should attend the Gripe Dinner," says Johnston. "It is entirely free of faculty influence and provides an excellent chance to discover errors in government and to lay plans to correct them."

Allenian Society To Sponsor Show For Chapel Fund

In order to raise money for the Memorial Chapel fund, Allenian society will sponsor a fashion show Sunday afternoon, June 3, in the Student Union.

Clothes for the fashion show will be from Mademoiselle shop, and models will be from all sororities. Refreshments will be served to all attending, and there will be musical entertainment.

Tickets will be sold by all Allenian members for 50 cents. Phyllis Forward and Mary Davis are co-chairmen for the event.

Announcements

The English department announces that there will be no course offered in Teaching of English (392) in the autumn quarter. Students who need the course in order to graduate next December should plan to take it in the Summer Session.

Graduating seniors — Final piano examinations for all music majors, minors, and kindergarten-primary majors will be given for graduating seniors Tuesday, May 29, at 4 o'clock. Sign up with Miss Joy.

Kappa To Honor Seniors June 2

Members of Kappa Kappa Sigma sorority are planning to hold their annual breakfast in honor of the senior members at the St. Claire hotel, June 2, at 9:30 a. m.

At a recent meeting of Kappa, Ruth Corwin announced her engagement to Keene Willis, whom she met in high school. The wedding is to take place in the near future.

FINAL ELECTIONS FOR KING, QUEEN TO BE THURSDAY

Signs and posters are up again boosting candidates to participate in the final election Thursday. Today through Wednesday rallies will be held daily from 12 noon to 1 p. m. advertising the various candidates for the positions of King and Queen.

Tickets for the traditional Spardi Gras bean feed go on sale today in the Business office, announces Milo Badger, Spardi Gras chairman.

Tickets will be sold at a reduced rate of 10 cents, the remaining 25 cents to be paid by the Student Council from ASB funds.

Final decision on whether Life photographers will photograph the annual celebration Friday is expected soon. Prospects look good and there is a strong possibility that the magazine will photograph the carnival.

Warren Brady, sponsored by Sappho; Ken Black, Zeta Chi, and Jack Daniels, Mu Delta Pi, will participate in the King finals.

Shirley Ann Cheever, Phi Kappa Pi and Beta Chi Sigma; Alice Hannagan, Beta Gamma Chi and Newman club, and Mary Davis, Allenian, will run for Queen Thursday.

According to Badger, plans are near completion for the final day. An extra large attendance is expected and entertainment plans are called "special."

NEWMAN CLUB SPARDI GRAS PLANS SETTLED

Spardi Gras preparations were discussed and final plans arranged at a business meeting of Newman club Thursday night.

The costume committee, headed by Frances Barulich, reported that costumes are being completed. A special sewing session is scheduled for Tuesday at 7 o'clock at the Catholic Women's Center.

A joint meeting with Beta Gamma Chi later to decide support for the Spardi Gras Queen candidate they will sponsor. Doughnuts and cokes were served by Newman members after the meeting.

The monthly communion and breakfast was held Sunday.

Inter-Society Holds Get-together Party Today in Quad, 4 To 5

Inter-Society will hold a get-together party this evening to celebrate the success of last week's Red Cross sewing. The party will be held in the Quad from 4 until 5 p. m.

Entertainment will be presented by each organization with Mary Hooton as master of ceremonies. Refreshments will also be served.

Charlotte Harder, chairman, urges all women who participated in the week's activity to attend.

SPEECH PLATFORMS TO BE WEDNESDAY

Speech platforms will be held Wednesday evening in the Little Theater at 7:30 p. m., according to Dr. Hugh Gillis, Speech department head.

Students participating in the event are Ann Buxton, Fleta Fern Krone, and Al Johnson. Marian Jacobson, senior speech student, has been honored by being selected to act as chairman.

The speech platforms take place every quarter and interested students and faculty are invited to attend.

THRUST AND PARRY

Warren Brady and/or Thrust and Parry
Dear sir:

We, the members of the Eleventh Street Sluggers, wonder why it is that the name of our squad is treated as some sort of curiosity to be enclosed in quotation marks whenever it is used.

No one refers to the Spartan "Daily," or to the Delta Sigma "Gamma" team, or to Beta Chi "Sigma," or Gamma Phi "Sigma." Why, then should the word Sluggers, which is an integral part of the teams proper title, be selected for such discrimination?

If the use of the quotation marks is intended as a derogatory reference to our hitting ability, we would like to point to the score sheets for the games in which we have participated to refute this. If not, we would like very much to see our team's name given its proper form.

Thank you for your attention, and, we trust, your correcting of this oversight.

Sincerely yours,
The Eleventh Street Sluggers.

(Sports Editor's note)

Dear Eleventh Street Sluggers:

In answer to your question as to why we were enclosing the term Sluggers in quotes:

When the Daily is not otherwise informed, we place slang adjectives in quotes.

However, since you have now so helpfully informed us that this term is part of your formal title, we will henceforth refer to you as the ELEVENTH STREET SLUGGERS.

We DO hope there are no hard feelings.

Spartan Daily Wins Softball League From Cardinals, 9-8; Best Hitters Listed

Thursday night the Spartan Daily won their third straight game of the current softball league race when they dumped the Cardinals, 9-8.

Ed Loudon pitched two-hit ball for the Daily, but his teammates made a total of nine errors. Errors were frequent in the contest, for the Cardinals made five also.

The game was close throughout, with the Daily club leading 2-1 going into the third inning. In this canto the Dailymen got two runs, but the Cardinals came back in their half of the inning to score five runs and take the lead at 6-4.

In the fourth the Daily club again took the lead as they racked up five runs on five hits and two walks. The Cardinals came back in the last half of the sixth, and fell one run short of tying up the count.

Art Jacobson got a home run in the fourth inning with one aboard. Jacobsen is now hitting the ball well over .500.

Following are the leading eight batters after the first week of play. Players listed below have played in at least two contests:

Olson, Gamma Phi Sigma.....	666
McFarland, Spartan Daily.....	571
Johnston, Gamma Phi Sigma.....	571
Jacobsen, Spartan Daily.....	555
Campbell, DSG.....	500
Marion, 11th St. Sluggers.....	500
Romney, Gamma Phi Sigma.....	500
Vroom, 11th St. Sluggers.....	444

Softball League Records Announced

Following is the respective record of the six teams entered in the 1945 softball league at San Jose State:

Team	W	L
Spartan Daily.....	3	0
Eleventh St. "Sluggers".....	2	1
Delta Sigma Gamma.....	1	1
Gamma Phi Sigma.....	1	1
Cardinals.....	0	1
Beta Chi Sigma.....	0	3

The Daily has wins over Eleventh Street, Cardinals, and Beta Chi Sigma. Eleventh Street has victories over Gamma Phi Sigma and Beta Chi Sigma. They lost their first contest to the Daily.

DSG has a win over Beta Chi, and one loss to Gamma Phi. Gamma Phi downed DSG and lost to Eleventh Street. The Cardinals lost their only start to the Dailymen, and Beta Chi has dropped decisions to DSG, Gamma Phi, and the Daily.

Tomorrow night Delta Sigma Gamma meets the Spartan Daily team at 7 o'clock on the San Carlos turf.

SPARDI GRAS KING

By GINN

Warren Brady, king candidate, is one of those rare specimens on campus — a man. Yep, all 6 feet 1 inch of him — a man. To aid that good looking hunk of humanity, there are big, beautiful, understanding eyes; and to top it off, dark brown hair.

A Los Gatos High school graduate, Warren (the Body) Brady is now a junior at State majoring in business administration. (Wonder if he needs an assistant!!!)

Football, that rugged game, is his favorite outdoor sport, while dancing to the strains of Vaughn Monroe's orchestra is his favorite indoor pastime. "When Monroe isn't available, any smooth orchestra will do," states Mr. Brady. (Girls, the line forms to the right for the next dance, don't push. . .)

From football to basketball to track he follows the sports world from fall to spring to give his public a blow by blow description of the games, for writing sports articles is Brady's hobby. (What a man!)

Sponsoring Brady is Sappho sorority, who will present a rally for their candidate today from 12 to 12:30.

Jeanne Fischer Tells Engagement

Miss Jeanne Fischer announced her engagement to Mark Kennedy last Wednesday evening at a meeting of the Sappho sorority by passing the traditional five pound box of candy.
