VETS TO VOICE VIEWS AT MEETING TODAY

Veterans To Submit Questions; Will Take Part In Discussions

"Voice your opinions today," is the loud cry of Mu Delta Pi, veteran's organization, in announcing an ex-servicemen's meeting today in the Little Theater at 12:30 p. m. Earl Adams, veteran's administration adviser, will speak to the veterans; the meeting will be open to discussion of pertinent problems that have arisen in combating government red tape in procuring educational allotments, the current situation concerning government surplus commodities, and many other questions that the veteran wants answered.

Provisions have been made whereby a veteran who wants action taken on a particular subject, may make his gripe known. Boxes for collecting questions will be set at the door of the Little Theater, and these will be given the attention of the Mu Delta Pi members at their next meeting.

Constructive criticism of Mu Delta Pi and a voice in its activities, has also been solicited by Committeeman Joe Moore, who is helping to plan the meeting. "We want to know what the majority wants," Moore stated. "Attend this meeting and let's get Mu Delta Pi rolling for your benefit and for mine."

"The meeting was called by popular demand after a dispute arose over the purposes of the group. Service to the college and the veteran is our purpose," Moore concluded.

FREE CONCERT

The program to be given Saturday evening in the Little Theater by Maurine Thompson, contralto, Stanley Hollingsworth, pianist, and Jean Long, accompanist, promises to be one of variety and interest.

Miss Thompson will sing selections from the classic composers, modern British and American composers, and some comic novelties. Hollingsworth will play romantic and modern numbers as well as Bach's Italian Concerto. The concert is free.

Publication Seeks Aid

Outstanding among the issues brought before the Student Council last night was a petition for an ASB subsidy to finance the launching of a proposed campus magazine.

The petition was made by Margaret Moore, feature editor of the Spartan Daily, who appeared before the Council to ask financial backing for the proposed magazine, which will be sponsored by the Publications department with the cooperation of the other departments of the college.

The magazine, according to plans presented by Miss Moore, will be a popular student periodical, published quarterly and selling for approximately 30 cents per copy. It will include material covering all departments and activi-

Special ASB Card

Restricted student body cards are now on sale in the Business office for the wives or husbands of students on the campus. The cards, selling for $6 each, entitle their holders to attend all student body functions. No health privileges are given with the cards.

Both the student and his wife or husband from whom the card is purchased should apply for the restricted student body card, since the signatures of both will be required.

"These cards will, we feel, help all the married couples on campus take part in college activities," declares Mary Hooton, ASB treasurer. "Remember, the cards may be bought by all married students for their 'other half'."

Annual Art Party Tonight From 8-11

Sponsored by Delta Epsilon, honorary art society, the Annual art party will be held tonight. "Swinging on a Star" has been chosen as the theme for the affair.

A featured part of the evening, according to Jessie Steinnegal, who is in charge of arrangements, is the competition for best costumes. Art students will dress as someone they like, dislike, or as something or someone they would like to be. Prizes will be awarded wearers of the best costumes.

All art majors, especially freshmen and new students, are urged to attend the party which will take place from 8 to 11 in Room A1.

ties of the college, and will feature outstanding journalistic and literary contributions considered of general interest.

An objection was raised among the Council that the proposed magazine would duplicate El Portal, English department annual now temporarily discontinued. This objection was retracted, however, when it was pointed out that, whereas El Portal was exclusively an English department publication, the proposed magazine will be interdepartmental in its scope and therefore of greater general student interest.

Action on the request for financial support for the magazine was delayed by the Council pending further examination of plans for the proposed project.

FLASH!

Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie announced last night that the state has purchased the Student Union building, after seven years of deliberation.

Tankmen Will Play Return Game With Sequoia Tonight

By JERRY EVANS

Tonight at 8 o'clock in the San Jose State college pool the Spartan water polo team will play a return game with Sequoia High school. This will be the third game the two teams have played. San Jose State won the first game, but was defeated last week in the second contest. The game tonight is being played to settle the tie.

The Spartan tankmen have won only one game so far this season. That win was the first game against Sequoia. The locals have dropped two games to Palo Alto High school.

LACK PRACTICE

Lack of scrimmage-practice seems to be the main reason for the defeats the San Jose State college squad has suffered. Not enough men reported for practice this season and Coach Leo Gaffney has had difficulty in giving the men the sort of practice that they need. The Spartans have fought hard in every game this season and will continue to do their best in the games yet to be played.

TOGETHER LONGER

San Jose State's opponents have been, so far, high school teams. Those boys are younger than the college men, but have been playing water polo as a team for several years. The high school coaches also have quite a few more men out for the team than Coach Leo Gaffney has had and it is therefore possible for the high school teams to practice under game conditions.

CLOTHING DRIVE

Ero Sopian's three day clothes drive has started. The garments are needed to aid the people of Europe who will have a hard time getting through the winter.

Containers are placed in the quad, library, Spartan shop, lobby of the Morris Dailey auditorium, Publications office, and the Women's gym to collect the clothes.

Friday night a "Bundle Ball" will be held in the Silver Room of the Sainte Claire hotel to climax the drive. Bids costing $1.25 per couple are now on sale outside the quad entrance.

The committee members for the dance include Hazel Rudholm and Margaret Siddal, decorations; Betty Barnard and Cecilia Pettis, bids; Harriet Kennedy and Phyllis McDonald, entertainment; Ezma Rucker and Jackie Jensen, reception; Beverly Sack and Connie Jones, cleanup; Midge Doyle and Jay Ventri, salvage chairmen; Elaine Chadbourne and Betty Prouse, music; Marilyn Elnor, Mary Holland, invitations.

Spartans Meet Naval Team Saturday At Pleasanton

Fleet City Squad Outstanding; Spartans Expect Close Match

By WARREN BRADY

The Spartan freshman football team will meet the Fleet City Reserves Saturday afternoon at Camp Shoemaker naval station, Pleasanton. Kickoff is scheduled for 2 o'clock. The Fleet City outfit, some 45 strong, is perhaps the outstanding team on the coast this year. The Yearlings will be running up against the third and fourth strings, or as Coach Bill Hubbard puts it, "the third and fourth string all-Americans." Everyone on the entire Fleet City squad has had some college experience, either varsity or freshman football.

The first two units are sparked by Steve Juswick, former Notre Dame flash, and Buddy Young, who starred in his freshman year at the University of Illinois. Juswick returned a kick-off Monday, against the professional Broncos, that was good for 93 yards and a touchdown.

Diminutive Buddy Young, flash Negro back, scampered some 82 yards for the Fleet City initial

RALLY FRIDAY NOON

Students are all invited to attend the rally for the Fleet City football game in the Morris Dailey auditorium Friday at 12:30, announces Rally Committee Chairman Irene Hull.

score. Our own coach, Bill Hubbard, officiated at that game, incidentally.

The Navy club will definitely be bigger than the Spartans, but Hubbard states: "They won't hurt us physically because our men are in good shape, they will be favored, but the Spartans will give them a battle."

The gridders this year have established some sort of a record. After four games, three of which they have won handily, the Yearlings are suffering no serious injuries.

The Navymen at Pleasanton have a fine stadium, and a large turnout is anticipated. There are enough blue-jackets up there to fill the Los Angeles Coliseum, but don't worry, they are saving us quite a large section.

CCF 'TRIAL'

Collegiate Christian Fellowship will witness a court scene today from 12 to 1 o'clock in room 155. Miss Reticent, portrayed by Ruth Hanson, freshman student from Minneapolis, will be tried on the charges of negligent Christian living.

Presiding will be Judge John Lindquist, sophomore from San Jose, and Prosecuting Attorney Fred Flessing, sophomore from Minneapolis. Defense Attorney Ray Caley, freshman from Mt. Shasta, will present their cases.

Maxine Ritchey, program chairman, invites everyone on campus to join the C. C. F.'ers in witnessing the "trial."

Patrons Dinner Nov. 29

The college Patron's Association—an organization of swell old softies who do a whale of a lot for the college and the students without ever saying very much about it—will give their annual Patrons dinner November 29 at 6 o'clock in the Women's gymnasium.

Under the joint chairmanship of Mrs. P. Victor Peterson and Mrs. Judson Aspinwall, the group will present a program of music and pictures to the accompaniment of a pot-luck supper which will be provided by the guests themselves.

Purpose of the dinner, according to the Mesdames Peterson and Aspinwall, is to promote community-college fellowship—and incidentally, to encourage a 50-

SENIORS TO LEARN GRADUATION RULES AT MEETING TODAY

This morning at 11 o'clock seniors will gather in the Little Theater to acquaint every fourth-year student with the technical requirements of graduation, and to inform class members of the activities and program planned for the coming quarter.

Miss Doris Robinson of the Placement office and Miss Viola Palmer of the Registration office, will speak to the class concerning requirements and traditions of graduation.

Activities scheduled, including the overnight trip and the junior-senior mixer, will be outlined by the chairmen in charge of each. Ruth Peaslee and Pat Dunlavy will present sub-chairmen for the class get-together over Friday night, November 30, while Jackie George and LaVerne Knapp will put in a plug for the December 4 mixer. Sign-up will be taken for those who as yet have not made reservations for the overnight.

Smoking Customs Discussed By AWA

The problem of women students smoking on campus was discussed by AWA members at the meeting of the organization yesterday. "There is no ban against women smoking," explained Roberta Ramsey, president, "but it is traditional that women do not smoke unless it is in the Coop."

There will be no meeting of AWA next Wednesday due to students catching early trains and busses home for Thanksgiving vacation, announced Miss Ramsey. The next meeting will be held November 28.

The Jinx originally planned for October 30 and November 14 will be held the evening of November 28 in the Men's gym. This is a quarterly AWA activity for women students only and will be a masquerade. Tickets will go on sale for 10 cents the Monday following Thanksgiving vacation.

cent donation for purposes of student welfare.

Students are invited to bring their parents to the dinner, for which reservations may be made with Mrs. Peterson or Mrs. Aspinwall until tomorrow. A large part of the college faculty plans to attend. Twenty-five to 30 tables, with 12 persons to each table, will be served. The dinner committee consists of Mrs. Leo Price, Mrs. C. Mansfield, Mrs. Charlotte Rideout, Mrs. M. D. Baker, Mrs. Edith Minssen, Mrs. Dana Thomas, president of the Patrons, Mrs. E. S. Thompson, and Mrs. William Poytress.

Parents of San Jose State college students are particularly invited.
