One World Is Theme Of Howard's Speech

That religion insists that men retain faith in other men, even if they are enemies, and that if religion does not have such weight in the postwar world it will not be long before we go out again to do battle, was the assertion of Dr. Howard Thurman, Negro educator, who spoke at San Jose State college yesterday morning.

Dr. Thurman, on leave from Howard university, one of the largest Negro colleges in the world, spoke to an assembly of students on the topic, "Religion and The Post-War World."

"Everyone of us, not only in this room, or country, but all over the world, is profoundly concerned with the kind of life each of us represents and will be called upon to live," said Dr. Thurman. "There are stirrings among all peoples for a different way of life. There is a search for order and significance that will make life worthwhile."

"During war, the individual seems to find a way of life that is worth while, because he is part of a big movement, because the government seems to take a personal interest to him," Dr. Thurman declared. However, this is not enough to make living worth while; for it does not last after this movement is over.

"The only life worth living is life under the conscious scrutiny of God, where everything counts, everything is reflected in ourselves," he asserted. "The history of the life of the individual is the judgment of the life of the individual."

Dr. Thurman's conclusion is that religion says we can find this way of life when we realize that we

SIERRA CLUB TO SHOW MOVIE

A full-length color motion picture, "Skis to the Sky-land", will be shown free of charge Wednesday night at 8 o'clock in the Little Theater by the Sierra club.

Loma Prieta chapter of the California Sierra club is sponsoring the movie and invites all college students to attend. The picture is about ski mountaineering and winter camping, and was taken during the past ski season. It includes scenes from various parts of the Sierra, with exciting action sequences.

Dorothy Markwad Kincaid, a San Jose State college graduate, will assist with the showing of the movie. In addition, a few kodachrome slides of the Minaret region of the Sierra, taken this summer, will be shown by Donald Woods of the San Jose high school faculty.

THREE SORORITIES SET PACE FOR WAR CHEST

Three sororities came into the limelight at press time yesterday as morale boosters and contributors to the campus War Chest campaign. Organization contributions came from Kappa Kappa Sigma, Zeta Chi, and Beta Gamma Chi. Thus far, these are the only organizations that have given.

Sophomore class spirit in the campaign has brought in $150 to date. Setting up a special booth in the quad, the class of '48 has solicited donations for three days. Their first day netted $79.40, the second $45, and yesterday they turned in $25.

Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, college president, estimated that approximately 80 percent of the faculty has contributed, bringing them to within $900 of their quota.

Zeta Chi	$15

Total student and faculty collections equal nearly $4100. Freshmen swung into action and collected more than $25 in the beginning of their campaign. An extension of the War Chest was made by the Student Council with the sudden optimistic trend that displayed itself late yesterday. A meeting will be held today by the Council to determine a course of action for the last week of the drive.

"To personalize the drive by individual contact would increase the donations," President MacQuarrie suggested yesterday when he met with Student Body President Milo Badger to set definite plans on the finish of the campaign.

MEMBERS OF RED CROSS COUNCIL ANNOUNCED

Members of the Red Cross Council were announced yesterday. They are: Marcella Brokofska, Allenian; Mildred McConnachie, Beta Chi; Mary Agnes Simin, Delta Beta Sigma; June Robertson, Ero Sophian; Bobbie Jo Field, Kappa Kappa Sigma; Patricia Polk, Sappho; Jackie Popp, Zeta Chi; Charlotte Harder, Phi Kappa Pi.

According to Dot McCullough, co-chairman of Red Cross, the societies are required to pledge 10 hours a quarter for each member.

Miss Bernice Tompkins of the Social Science department is faculty adviser of the Red Cross workroom.

Forthcoming Drama May Need New Actor

John Calderwood, male lead in "Ladies in Retirement," is ill in the Health Cottage. Director James Butler says several understudies are being tried out for the role in case Calderwood doesn't return by Monday.

The sophomore Journalism major is active in the Speech department, having appeared in the three productions given last year: "Our Town," "Craig's Wife," and "Hay Fever."

ROOTERS ASKED TO WEAR WHITE SHIRTS

More encouragement must be given to members of the Student Body to wear white shirts, sweaters, or sweatshirts to the games so they may be able to sit in the rooting section, it was decided at a meeting of the Rally committee yesterday noon in Morris Dailey auditorium.

"Students seem to think that the Rally committee is the official rooting section," said Irene Hull, chairman, "while in reality the committee is merely an organizer of a rooting section which should include the entire student body."

In answer to a question that a white shirt or sweater might not be warm enough for a night football game, Miss Hull insisted that sweaters, coats, and even long underwear could be worn under the men's white shirts.

Rooters caps, which are again on sale in the Co-op, will also be worn by members of the rooting section.

Another meeting of the Rally committee will be held in Morris Dailey auditorium at 12:30 today to discuss plans for a rally for the next Hollister game. There will be no rally for the Salinas game.

Jinx, 'Hag Stag', Coming Oct. 31

"Hag Stag" will be the title of the jinx to be held in the Men's gym October 31 from 8 to 11 p.m. by the Associated Women's Activities.

At the weekly meeting of the AWA Wednesday it was disclosed that mystery would shroud the evening's activities. A theme has been decided upon by the committee chairmen and will not be revealed until the night of the big event. Dress for the evening will be Halloween costumes and masks; it is planned that a big unmasking ceremony will take place some time during the evening.

Price of admission will be 14 cents, announces Pat Dunleavy, ticket chairman.

The Halloween motif will be carried out in the games, decorations and entertainment, and will truly be a witches' treat, states Clare Canevari, chairman.

Assisting Miss Canevari will be Pat Young and Martha Sturgeon, entertainment; Donna McCarty and Eleanor Budislich, decorations; Barbara Moore and Dorothy Moody, refreshments; Aloha Stokes, publicity; Pat Dunleavy and Muriel Arnke, tickets; Bonnie McWilliams and Arta Williams, games.

Spartan Gridders Meet Salinas J.C. Tonight At 8

Freshman Team Plays At Salinas In Second Encounter Of Season

The San Jose State Freshman football team makes its second start of the season tonight at Salinas when it tackles Salinas junior college at 8 o'clock. Dropping their first tilt to Hollister J. C. by a 6-0 count, the yearlings go into tonight's fray with only two days' rest. Coach Bill Hubbard has been drilling his men on several new plays that the Spartans will throw at the lettuce-pickers.

Salinas only last week played Hollister to a scoreless tie, which should indicate a close contest tonight. The Salinas gridders will have the advantage of playing on their home field; however, with a big group of Spartan rooters making the trip to give the club the support they need, the yearlings should hold their own.

San Jose State college students, with student body cards, will be charged 25 cents admission to the football game tonight at Salinas. This was the best arrangement Mr. Hartranft could make with Salinas J. C. officials.

Al Chasuk, stalwart end, will be game captain at Salinas tonight. Chasuk holds down the left end position, and plays a bang-up game on defense, as his performance at Hollister Tuesday night proved. Chasuk is a transfer from Iowa Pre-Flight. Former Boxing Coach "Dee" Portal recommended State to Chasuk, and luckily for us Al followed it up.

At Hollister the other night Dick Bischoff, another demon on defense, captained the Spartans. Dick is a big 190 lb. center, formerly of Lincoln High school in San Jose.

The freshmen gridders have been working out diligently on pass protection and pass plays. The protection given the Spartan passers at Hollister was decidedly weak, and Coaches Hubbard and

FROSH PLAN DANCE

Group C of the Freshmen activities committee, under the chairmanship of Bruce McNeil, is planning a dance to be held in the near future. A committee has also been appointed to draw up a constitution.

Working in cooperation with the other two frosh groups, group C is striving to exceed the sophs in the war chest drive. The class donating the most money to the cause will gain 25 points toward the mixer.

Election Returns

Due to circumstances beyond our control, official election results were released too late last night to make the printer's deadline.

The statistics, as they were officially reported to the Spartan Daily, are as follows:

SENIORS

President, Marjorie Hopper; vice-president, Ruth Peaslee; secretary-treasurer, June Storni.

JUNIORS

SOPHOMORES

President, Stephen Voorhees; vice-president, Cecelia Petis; secretary, Beverly Clay; treasurer, Betty Sills.

FOLK DANCERS GET ORGANIZED

"The group seems enthusiastic. I think we have a good beginning," says Mrs. Sarah Wilson, Women's Physical Education instructor, of the newly formed Folk Dance club.

Thirty-two people attended the first meeting of the group yesterday noon in the classroom of the Women's gym. Plans were made to meet regularly on Tuesday nights at 7 o'clock. However, the first meeting will be next Monday night because a football game is scheduled for Tuesday.

Al Presnell, freshman bacteriology major from Palo Alto, was elected temporary chairman of the club. A committee was appointed to plan the program for the first meeting. Beverly Blackman, Florence Roberts, Eileen Caughey, Don Hayes, and Jenice Bensacca were chosen.

About half the students present have had experience in folk dancing.

It was decided that the girls would wear gingham dresses or simple costumes for the meetings. Boys will come in jeans and tee shirts. All will wear comfortable shoes.

"Bring your friends, especially men," said Mrs. Wilson as the meeting adjourned.

MY DAY

By EDNA FANUCCHI

We were taken for a sleigh ride in October; or, the Money-Mad Hollister Mob Cashes in on Us Simple, State Folk. There is always a considerable amount of reluctance attached to parting with cold cash, hot cash, or just ordinary cash. Although it's true that some people light their cigarettes with dirty greenbacks, these people are usually admitted to an institution before too much attention is aroused.

Now the "rooty-toots" who attended the Hollister-State game last Tuesday all hate filthy lucre; but still, when they were asked to shell out four bits, they immediately saw the principle involved. Money means nothing to them—however, it doesn't seem fair that in former years students attended varsity games gratis.

FILTHY CASH

Remember, we are not grieving over the departed silver coins that will flush Hollister J. C.'s treasury, because we wouldn't be caught dead with filthy cash on us, but we are defending a principle. And at this point, if some wise guy would like to know what this infamous principle is, just let him come and ask me.

But just imagine the picture—nauseated students who gulped down their dinners in nothing flat Tuesday evening to dash recklessly along the byways and hiways to reach the scene of the crime, finally reach the stadium.

With grinning wide-open faces they present their student body cards. The stony-faced character at the gate leers in their taken-back faces and demands half a buck. The "rooty-toots" immediately dash to the nearest pawn shop to cash in their rooters caps and other valuable heirlooms to buy their way in.

EXPENSIVE LOYALTY

The loyal rooting section might have to go without lunches for days, but impoverished as they were, the stout football team had a group of lusty shouters.

But our tolerant students are broad minded little rascals, and the Hollister incident is quite forgotten. Oh yes, it is so much water (sewer water) under the well-known bridge. No, we're not mad. (Ugly laughter is heard in the wings.)

Stage Crew

Are you one of those people who delight in the aura of the Theater? Do you enjoy poking around in the musty corners "backstage?" Does the smell of calcimine, paste, and size water answer a deep longing inside of you? Can you slap on a mean "dutchman?"

Do you thrill to the pounding of hammers and the sound of a sharp saw biting into new wood? If a great swelling of pride fills your heart as you see the completed "set," resplendent in its new coat of calcimine, WE CAN USE YOU!

All this is leading to the fact that the stage crew for "Ladies in Retirement" needs helpers. If you would like to help, go to the Speech office, room 159, and give your name to the secretary.

Matter Of Pride

Maybe it's just the fact that it is the beginning of a new school year—that would be the charitable explanation—but surely all the confusion that surrounded the seating before the assembly yesterday was unnecessary.

We're all adults now, or at least adult enough to get to an assembly on time and quietly sit down in a seat. There are plenty of seats—in the balcony, if the lower floor is full. It isn't necessary for any of us to stand up in the back of the auditorium.

We should accord a visitor the elemental courtesy of getting seated as quickly and quietly as possible. Any discourteous conduct on the part of us, its students, reflects unfavorably on our college.

Incidentally, freshmen, you can sit in ANY seat. You are assigned seats for orientation only.

Election 'Returns'

Class officers for the year were elected Wednesday by the votes of 290 students. In a student body of 2476, this means that only 11 percent of the students voted.

Another 19 students forfeited their votes by marking their ballots incorrectly. This occurred despite instructions repeatedly printed in the Daily, explained orally by Council representatives attending the nominations, and printed directly on each ballot.

The victorious candidates won in most cases by narrow margins, bearing out the warning voiced by Milo Badger, ASB president, that the individual ballot would be the deciding factor.

The ballot you failed to cast, or the one you marked incorrectly, may have been the ONE VOTE required to put your candidate in office.

THRUST and PARRY

Dear Rowland Mitchell,

Do not tell us that State politics are in peril, when the nominations were not held at the place nor time designated in the Spartan Daily for three days previous.

I am speaking of the junior meeting which was reportedly to be held in room S112 at 12:30 last Friday, October 12. The students who met there had heard of no other arrangements. When, where, and by whom were they made?

A Junior, ASB No. 407

ASB No. 407; If you will refer to the Spartan Daily again you will find that in four consecutive issues the time for nominations was specified as "noon."

However, the time was apparently understood by other members of your class. You see, the

La Torre---ho hum

Would all students who haven't claimed their 1945 La Torres please come to the Publications office? The staff would like to borrow some money from them. Any student who can throw away $3.25 is just the type the staff needs to finance themselves.

You don't like the idea? Then come after your lonely, unclaimed books. They are in a dark corner all by themselves without claimants; deadline November 1.

BELL BOY

The "bell that doesn't toll" may ring out again one day soon. The Student Council, acting on suggestions appearing Monday in an editorial by Dave Webster, has appointed Pat Dunlavy and Nancy Lynn to investigate possibilities of restoring the bell to a usable condition.

I'd like to say in passing that I think Dave's idea is super. It really hits the spot at a time like this when college spirit isn't quite up to snuff.

Since time immemorial bells have served a patriotic role. There were the bells of St. Mary's, the Liberty Bell, and there was even a bell for Adano. Give Staters a historic old bell like this one Dave has uncovered and you've given them something to build their traditions on.

And what would be more fitting than that Dave Webster, chief justice of the Student Court, should be the first to ring it?

A "MISTAKE"

Perhaps it was a little out of line to disparage our school spirit. Ken McGill, head yell leader, says it was tops at the game Tuesday night. The freshman team lost in its first attempt to bring home the bacon, but it didn't feel so bad with the kids from home out there cheering anyhow.

The State rooters weren't sore about losing the game, but they sure didn't like the 50-cent admission price—with student body cards. A lot of them had to sit on the ground, at that, while the Hollisterites enjoyed bleachers at two-bits per student.

"It's all a mistake, though,"

Ken explains. He's going to see about it.

DWIGHT

There has been idle speculation among the Daily staff as to whether our publication is read by more than twice our number. (Meaning only our parents, it I'm being too subtle.)

Hence we enjoyed a mild surprise last Thursday when no less than four persons came in the office and offered to adopt Dwight, the ragamuffin kitten described in that day's paper by Margaret Moore.

We feel justified in chalking up four more readers—for Maggie.

GEORGE

Now it's a DOG on our hands. He wandered in yesterday morning and had lunch with La Torre staff. His name is George, evidently because he'll come if you hold out a sandwich and say, "Here, George."

If he is still around the office by the time this issue comes out, and you want him, he's FREE. I'm sure he has no permanent address, poor doggie.

UPKEEP

We paid $200 to have our house painted this summer. I thought that was quite a stack of chips until I learned that the college's summer paint bill came to $5000. Routine upkeep, at that.

Dr. MacQuarrie says the state pays nearly $500 a year per student to keep us in college. I can begin to see why, now. It takes a mint of money to keep an institution like Washington Square in operation. And I thought I was paying my own way with a mere $7 per quarter. Piggy bank stuff!

SPORT SHORTS

By BRADY

Wes Stevenson, reserve quarterback, played his first football game Tuesday night against Hollister. Wes showed up very well, and if he had been given the proper protection might well have been a hero, for he can really toss that pigskin around.

Stevenson is a tall slender gent, topping the scales at an even 170. He is a valuable quarterback for the simple reason that he is gifted with good "football sense."

SIDELIGHTS

Daniel Weck, sophomore football manager, gave some of the players a bad time on the way down to the game as he played his occarina, otherwise known as a "sweet potato", from San Jose to Hollister without a let up.

The men didn't mind too much except for the fact that "dear old Dan" played the same tunes over and over again.

When the game was over and the fans were filing down onto the field we ran into Ken McGill, head yell leader. Well, for a minute we thought old Mac had been in the ball game... That kid was wet clear through, and I mean his tee-shirt, his shirt, and his jacket. Mac really knocks himself out for dear old state.

How about that kid Johnson, too? Not bad as a yell leader. Need we say Alllllll was a little on the damp side too. Al and Ken look like twins out there, both tall, slender, blonde, handsome, and dripping wet.

I guess a lot of you know that rally committee student bus limped in on a flat tire Tuesday night after the Hollister game. It seems that one of the four rear tires gave out just a few miles outside of San Jose, and not having the facilities to make the change, the people aboard decided to come in on "a tire and a prayer."

FOOTBALL TUESDAY

Students, rally committee, townspeople, and the football team are all making ready for the return game with Hollister Tuesday night in the Spartan stadium.

The boys are really "pointing" at this one. Suffering a 6-0 setback in their opening game at the hands of the Cowboys, the Spartan yearlings are determined to reverse the decision come Tuesday night.

I personally think they are quite capable of the task. With another game behind them, and added offensive power, the yearlings will be better equipped to meet the Hollister forces.

WATER POLO

Due to lack of personnel, we have been neglecting the water polo team this season. Yesterday afternoon the poloists played their first game of the season against Sequoia High school. Results of that game will be found in this issue.

Coach Leo Gaffney has been working hard with his men and has formulated a scrapping club.

Their next game is with Palo Alto High school at P. A. on Oct. 25. If any of you are up that way on that date, drop in and take a look at an up-and-coming water polo team.

Starting Lineup For Salinas Game Released By Coach

Hartman have been ironing out this problem as best they can.

The Spartans have a pair of speedy backs in little Donnie Carroll and Wil Concklin. These men are plenty shifty and are capable of breaking up a ball game at any time. Concklin showed this very definitely the other night when he got away on a couple of nice jaunts.

Frank Davilla and Wes Stevenson have been coming along nicely at the quarterback spot and should show a lot of improvement tonight in their second start.

Bob Stulman, Spartan fullback and line-backer, has been improving the past few days on defense, and should also show up well on line plunges against Salinas.

Joe Picchetti and Elgin Martin, Spartan tackles, played a pretty fair game on defense against Hollister Tuesday and a lot is expected of them tonight. Picchetti and Martin both top the scales at close to 200 pounds and are definitely hard men to move.

The probable starting lineup for tonight's tilt will be about the same that started the Hollister game:

Name	Position
Al Chasuk	Left end
Mel Frank	Left guard
Dick Bischoff	Center
Don DeMello	Right guard
Joe Picchetti	Right tackle
Jack Bolton	Right end
Frank Davilla or Wes Stevenson	Quarterback
Wil Concklin	Right half
Donnie Carroll or Archie Chagonjian	Left half
Bob Stulman	Fullback

WATER POLO TEAM WINS FIRST TILT AGAINST SEQUOIA

The Spartan water polo team won their opening game yesterday afternoon against Sequoia High School by the close score of 4 to 3.

Starting men in the game were: Stan Chinchin, Frank Goulette, Joe Corral, "Mac" McDonald, Bob Smith, Alex Marshall, and Judd Wallace. The State squad played outstanding ball in the first quarter and scored two points in the opening minutes of the game. Sequoia High had a first class team and were excellent on both offense and defense, but their shooting ability was poor.

Score at half time was 3 to 2 in favor of San Jose State. The Spartans began to slack off in the third quarter but due to the excellent playing of Bob Smith and Frank Goulette, who played in spite of a badly injured knee, the college men were able to maintain the lead. Sequoia scored twice in that quarter and McDonald scored one for San Jose State.

Frank Goulette led the scoring for the Spartans with two points, and Bob Smith and "Mac" McDonald with one point each.

FEW PRINTS OF CAMPUS SCENES STILL ON SALE

A few blockprints made for Homecoming Week are still available in the art department. The portfolio, entitled "Old Familiar Places," was made by Delta Epsilon, honorary Art department society, members of the Spring quarter.

The charges are: $1.50 for a group of six prints in a portfolio, $3 for a group of twelve prints in a portfolio, $.35 for separate prints, and $.75 for matted separate prints.

The prints include: Men's gym by Pat Rhodes, Women's gym by Bonnie Lee Hardgrave, Commerce wing by Grace Doane, Home Economics tower by June Cauvel, incinerator by Maya Nafziger, Art entrance by Bob Halsebo, Library arch by Dorothy Phillips, Student Union by Dorothy Herger.

A fair sized crowd turned out to watch the water polo squad win their opening game, but the players have expressed their desire for more sideline support from the students for the team's future games.

Business Students Signing Up To See Shorthand Film

Dr. William R. Blackler will be guest speaker at an open meeting sponsored by Pi Omega Pi Monday evening at 7:45 in the Student Union.

Dr. Blackler, assistant state supervisor of distributive education, will speak on "Audio Visual Aid In Business Education." Sound films on dictating and transcribing shorthand, and the training program in retail selling, will be shown during the evening.

Invitations have been issued to business education teachers at San Jose High School and Lincoln High school. All students who are business education majors are invited to attend the meeting and become acquainted with new techniques in presenting material. Students planning to attend should sign-up in the Commerce office, room 137A, by noon Monday.

Pi Omega Pi officers presiding at the organization's first meeting will be Dolores Bassi, president; Jackie George, vice-president; Winnie Berticevich, secretary; Beth Hanpson, treasurer; and Nancy Albano, historian. Mr. Melburn Wright is adviser.

The meeting will begin at 7 p. m. followed by the program at 7:45.

PI LAMBDA THETA MEET IN BERKELEY TOMORROW

Pi Lambda Theta day in northern California will be held at the Hotel Claremont in Berkeley tomorrow.

The national honorary society for women will begin its morning session at 10 a. m., during which time Dr. May Seago, Pi Lambda Theta's national president, an associate professor of education at University of California at Los Angeles, will speak on "Pi Lambda Theta Hopes And Aspirations." An open forum will follow the address.

Fellowship intermission will be from 12 noon to 12:45 p. m. followed by a luncheon program in the Bamboo room.

Mrs. Earl Shoemith, retiring president of the State Federation of Women's clubs, will be guest speaker during the luncheon. Her topic will be "Woman's Part In World Cooperation." The executive board of Omega Chapter will meet with Dr. Seago at the close of the luncheon program.

Members of Pi Lambda Theta on the San Jose State college faculty include: Dean Helen Dimmick, Mrs. Lillian Gray, Mrs. Dolores Spurgeon, Miss Elsie Toles, Mrs. Ada Carver, Dr. Dorothy Kaucher, Dr. Anne Aller, Dr. Blanche Carrier, Miss Emily Devore, and Miss Lillian Billington.

CCF WILL ATTEND LECTURE, RALLY

Members of the Collegiate Christian Fellowship will attend various interdenominational meetings this week end in San Jose. A lecture by Dr. Harry Rimmer Friday evening at the First Baptist Church, and the Saturday evening "Youth For Christ" rally in Montgomery theater of the Civic Auditorium, will be attended by the group.

Dr. Rimmer, a noted author, scientist and lecturer, will speak on "Modern Science and the Genesis Record." This series of lectures is sponsored by the Christian Business Men's committee and will continue every Friday evening through November 9.

Chaplain Selover will present trumpet and piano selections at the "Youth For Christ" rally which will start at 7:30 Saturday evening. Claire Booker, Leone Massingill and Bill Cundall will present instrumental numbers. Vernon Kendall will lead the "Singspiration." Kendall recently returned from active service in Germany.

Speaker at the rally will be Dr. James Cuthbertson, who has served for many years in Japan as a missionary. Dr. Cuthbertson has spoken in many lands, including England, Canada, the United States and South Africa,
