SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT ON

By WARREN BRADY

Today is the day! Starting at 3:30 sharp on the San Carlos turf, 10 softball teams representing both the "open" league and the fraternity league, will square off.

A last minute change in schedule was made yesterday and it will now be the Spartan Daily and Theta Mu Sigma in the top half of the 3:30 double-header, and on Diamond Number Two Gamma Phi Sigma will engage DSG instead of the originally scheduled 4:30 starting time.

Starting at 4 o'clock another fraternity league tilt will start, matching APO and Beta Chi Sigma.

The second double-header of the afternoon will open at 4:30 on Diamond Number Three, San Carlos turf, and will see Hank's All-Stars tackling the Varsity House, and the P.E. Majors meeting the Non Gamma Gammas.

Batteries for the "openers" will probably be Loudon and O'Bayley for the Daily, and Castle and Nordhausen for Theta Mu. Loudon of the Spartan Daily, defending champions, had a record of five wins against one loss last season.

Castle of Theta Mu has been coming along fast, and during practice games last week against Beta Chi (which the Theta Mus won, incidentally) Castle has developed a lot of speed and control.

JUNIOR CLASS SIAU PROM TOMORROW NIGHT BUDDY KING'S BAND PLAYS FOR 'SPRING SERENADE'

Tomorrow night is the big event! "Spring Serenade," the Junior Prom, will take place in the Scottish Rite Temple from 9 to 1 to the music of Buddy King's 16 piece orchestra.

The new printing of 100 bids have all been sold and must be picked up in the Business office by noon today. Any bids that are uncalled for by 3 o'clock may be purchased at that time. Bid chairman Carmel Libonati said there would be no bids for sale at the door.

Class President George Millias said the 100 bids which were printed Thursday were ordered only after consultation with the secretary at the Temple. She assured him that 200 more people could be accommodated. The class knew that many students were not able to buy bids, so the new issue was called for.

Kay Goepfert, general chairman of the Prom has been supervising decorations, which will carry out the spring motif. Branches with simulated light pink and white blossoms will be used in decoration. Vari-colored balloons will also be used. Kathy Landis, Connie Hone, Jerry Brown, Jan Haggerty, and Phil McDonald are members of the decoration committee.

All members of the junior class who wish to help decorate are asked to come to the Scottish Rite Temple Saturday morning at 9, and this afternoon at 3.

A committee composed of Cecile Monahan and Alberta Rhein secured the following patrons:

Miss Helen Dimmick, Mrs. Izetta Pritchard, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Duncan, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Rhodes.

Dr. and Mr. George McCallum, Mr. and Mrs. Al Gordoy, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lanyon, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sevrens.

Housing Meeting

Representatives of the following groups: Mu Delta Pi, A-Vets, Ar-Na-Co-Ma, AVC, Spy-5, Y Barracks, Intfraternity Council, Men's Varsity House, Spartan Knights, Alpha Phi Omega, and Tau Delta Phi, are requested to meet with Dean Paul Pitman in the Dean of Men's office this afternoon at 3 o'clock to discuss the allocation of the veteran housing units.

Audience of 500 Enjoys 'Holiday Splash' Premier

By ELEANOR FRATES

More than 500 people laughed and thrilled last night as the members of the cast of "Holiday Splash" staged their numbers in the college pool.

The show was a fine success. Each act ran smoothly and there was pleasing unity in the way they were tied together by the entrance and the finale.

One of the most beautiful numbers was the candlelight formation. Scarcely a ripple could be heard as the girls silently glided through the water with their lighted candles. The glow produced an interesting effect in the darkness.

Another lovely number was the special formation swimming done by Lois Haueter, Ann Corwin, and Colleen Bisson. Their rhythm and timing was excellent. They twisted and turned in the water as if they were a school of fish.

The "New Year" number, the long awaited surprise of the evening, threw the audience into spasms of laughter as Dr. Robert Rhodes and Dr. George McCallum made their entrance as the old and the new year.

The choice of the music was perfect for the various water formation. Although there could have been more lighting for the Valentine act, the rest of the lighting was handled well.

FILM SERIES BEGINS TODAY

With these words, the Latin American film, "Americans All," will begin today at 12:15 in Library room 210.

Miss Helen Bullock, Education reading room librarian, announced yesterday that this motion picture is the first of a series to be given during Friday noon hours.

FAST-MOVING

"With animated maps and a quickly moving camera, 'Americans All' gives a brief overall picture of fellow Americans: their exciting history, the conquering of the Aztecs, Mayas, and Incas, the revolts which began in 1810 and severed the New World from its colonial bondage to Spain and Portugal."

Such is the description of the movie by its producers, the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs.

ONE HEMISPHERE

The movie shows "their world as it is today, with its vast sources of raw materials, its rapidly growing industry, its schools, its games, its work and play."

According to the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs, the film is intended to give a better understanding of Americans to the south—Americans who "don't want the European new order any more than we do."

"We are no longer two continents, but one hemisphere—21 liberty-loving republics, Americans all," the movie says.

Tonight We Improvise

TICKETS ON SALE FOR NEXT SHOW; THREE NIGHT RUN—MAY 2, 3, AND 4

Soft piano slightly offstage—dramatic, transparent lighting effect—the slow, sad, air of Chanteuse's song—and then, the dance.

Sensuous and rhythmical, the dance steps by Sally Colorado mark the high spot of the effective "cabaret scene" in the new campus play, "Tonight We Improvise."

Patricia Young, who also acts as maid and accompanies the informal group in their moments of "Il Trovatore" in another scene, blends a piano accompaniment in tune to Sally's steps while Mary Whiting as Chanteuse further enhances the sultry setting with background lyrics from a Neopolitan love song.

Tickets are now on sale in room 159 in the Speech department wing for the play, "Tonight We Improvise." Prices are: 35 cents with ASB card and 60 cents without card.

The theatrical scrim effect will be used throughout the scene. Mr. Wendell Johnson and stage crew have been working on, and shaping to fit, this lighting method in terms of Little Theater measurements.

Under the direction of Mr. James Clancy, the large cast has been rehearsing regularly for the production which will be staged May 2, 3, and 4 in the Little Theater.

CONGRESSMAN VISITS CAMPUS

By JEAN GRENEAUX

The problems of State are not our problems alone, it was proved yesterday by the visit of Congressman Jack Z. Anderson to the campus. This district's representative in Congress met in the office of President T. W. MacQuarrie with members of the administration and student body to discuss the problems of student housing and other factors in the college's own reconversion program.

Dr. P. Victor Peterson, head of the Science department, stressed the point that San Jose State is confronted with two major problems; housing for students and the procurement of surplus war properties for use in various departments.

Representative Anderson pledged his personal aid in solving the situation and will act on the problem immediately. Among other subjects discussed was the inefficiency and delay in the payment of benefits and subsistence to vets under the GI bill. Once before Mr. Anderson was called upon to meet this situation, and satisfaction was obtained from the Veterans Administration.

Mr. E. S. Thompson, comptroller, reviewed plans for the (Continued on Page 3)

RABBI OPENS RACE SERIES

"Fascism is not dead, and by no means was liquidated by the late war," stated Rabbi Iser L. Freund yesterday noon.

Speaking before an interested group of students, Rabbi Freund opened a series of talks by representatives of minority groups on the subject, "Your Responsibility to Democracy—As I See It," sponsored by Race Relations committee of SCA.

"The Jew has been the barometer for totalitarian practices," said Rabbi Freund, who predicted that wherever one finds the Jew persecuted, one has found Fascism in one of its forms.

Citing three major points deserving special emphasis, Rabbi Freund proposed that, first, minority groups should be more aggressive, joining with progressive forces to help maintain the progress made during the war. And majority groups should realize that minorities want democracy, too.

Secondly, the rabbi urged care in voting. "We must vote for the right people, being sure that they are for our interests."

And thirdly, Rabbi Freund said, "We must work for better relations with Russia. That country most certainly needs a long period of peace, but we can build toward war by exercising too much distrust of her policies today."

Entomologists To Visit Mines

A "Wingless Hanging Fly" that has six legs, but can't walk a step, will be the objective of the Entomology club's field trip which will start from the Science building at 9:30 Sunday morning.

The group will go to the Almaden quarries, where Dr. Carl Duncan reports that these insects can be found.

He said the insect is found hanging from blades of grass by one or two legs. The other legs are used to grab other flying insects that come within its reach. It can't fly or walk on a smooth surface, but maneuvers about on various plants—and "hangs."

The entomologists will also look for new spring butterflies. Anyone interested in joining the club for these field trips is welcome.

Tickets for Frosh Picnic Go on Sale In Library Arch

Freshmen will get the chance they've been waiting for today. Tickets to the class picnic at Alum Rock park on May 3 will go on sale this morning in the Library arch between 11 and 1 o'clock.

The tickets will be 50 cents apiece. The price will include dancing in the park pavilion, games, eating, and transportation.

No tickets will be sold at the park, so all freshmen who wish to go will have to buy their tickets on the campus on or before May 3.

Bruce McNeil, president of the freshman class, says, "In case the gals have been wondering what to wear, anything from jeans to a dress is o.k.; just the kind of clothes they can wear to have a good time in, and they'll have a good time if they come to the Frosh picnic."

The picnic will begin at 5 o'clock, with the eating of such all-time picnic favorites as hot dogs and potato salad. Dancing until 11 o'clock will end the day.

Girls who will sell tickets today are: Bev Drew and G. Paris, 11 to 12; Jane Potter and Dot Dillon, 12 to 1.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

A Summary of World News to 11 O'clock Last Night from the United Press Teleprinter in the Spartan Daily Office.

Speeding Train Crashes

NAPERVILLE, Ill.—Speeding at better than a mile-a-minute clip, the crack Exposition Flyer of the Burlington railroad ripped into the rear of another Burlington passenger train here yesterday, killing at least 42 persons and injuring more than 100.

The Exposition engine drove into the lounge car of the other train. The next three cars, a dining car and two coaches were a mass of wreckage. The Exposition's cars remained upright but were turned and twisted out of alignment.

U. S. Urges Spanish Watch

NEW YORK—The United States urged the United Nations Security council yesterday to keep a constant watch on Franco Spain from now on through a continuing investigating committee. But Russia, dissatisfied with mere investigation, retorted with a demand for real action against the Franco regime even at the cost of a new Spanish civil war.

Foreign Ministers Meet

PARIS—The Big Four foreign ministers' conference opened on a note of harmony yesterday when Russia conceded the right of France and the United States to participate in the discussion of peace treaties with all five axis satellites.

Today's decision granted the United States the privilege of sitting in on discussions of the treaty with Finland, with whom the U. S. was not at war.

Urges Big Loan to Britain

LOUISVILLE—Dean Acheson, acting secretary of state, said last night that unless the $3,000,000,000 loan to Great Britain received congressional approval, that nation's only alternative in world trade was one of the "deals within the empire" and a resulting world-wide lowered standard of living.

PROPOSAL ON CAMPUS

He thinks:

I could ask you, darling, if I could find the words as natural as the trilling of these ecstatic birds.

I could ask you, darling, if I could be the sun and in its sparkling warmth have my wooing done.

I could ask you, darling, if words were fragrant flowers, so I could spread them 'round you, and plead with petal showers.

He says:

"Oh, babe—gee, hon,' you're sweet. Say—when we graduate—what do you think . . . would you uh—be my permanent date?"

THOUGHTS IN A LECTURE

It's bright outside, my watch says ten.
With fings stiff, I grasp my pen.
Doc Campbell raves, I write away.
I ask myself, why must I stay?
Time drags on, I fall asleep.
A bitter harvest, I will reap,
On final day, my score is low.
My conscience says, "I told you so."

GALS ARE DISMAYED

Let Feminine Attire Follow That of Males---He Says Here

By BOB PEARSON

Some cries of dismay have reached my ears from the feminine element on the campus at the liberal recommendations I made for the formal attire of males.

I seem that my suggestions were a little frightening to the girls who complain that "formal dances will never be the same again." For competition they have suggested that girls be allowed to wear the following varying ensembles:

1. Formal chiffon or silk dresses.
2. Dressy sport.
3. House dress.
4. At least a dress.

I would like to explain to the girls that besides the shortage of clothes there is a shortage of moola, chips, geetus,—cold, hard cash, that is.

For most of us here there is a limited amount of funds in the form of $65 a month the government gives us to spend as recklessly as we please. For a few of us the government provides $105. The latter are disabled vets, many of whom may have received their elbow malformations in the PX.

As you gals can plainly see, it is very hard to buy clothes while attempting to pray for room, board, laundry, cleaning, and mild recreation at Marty's.

If you are absolutely against the odd apparel to be worn at the formals, why don't you show up at the dance dressed in those cute little shorts and a hommock business?

As a last resort I would like to suggest a "Sadie Hawkins" type of celebration and dance. This would solve the clothing question with Levi's and gingham dresses and also let the girls have a crack at paying the overhead on a date.

WHAT DO YOU SAY TO THAT, MEN?

NOTICE

All members of SGO please attend short meeting at 12 today. —Root

THEY'RE BACK HERE AGAIN!

They're back here again. The nature lovers are glad. The janitors are mad. But the cliff swallows have come back to San Jose State.

A long, long time ago these birds started making their headquarters under the eaves of the left side of the Morris Dailey auditorium, and every year they have returned to do the windows, build their peculiar nests, and laugh at the housing shortage.

Former superintendent of buildings and grounds, Joe Stillwell, was always on hand to make special mud pits for the swallows' building material.

THRUST and PARRY

ORCHIDS TO MISS G.

Thrust and Parry:

Orchids to Miss Gardner, manager of the Coop.

Yesterday, while waiting for a seat in our favorite eating and meeting place, an eager beaver, appearing to be a fraternity pledge, commenced cleaning the trash from the ground where cultured Spartans make their tracks, and proceeded to haul it to the conveniently located wastepaper basket.

Upon inquiring as to the matter, we found that this willing youth was receiving monetary remuneration for this unnecessary chore from the Spartan shop manager.

Our questions are: Why is there a need for this? Were our noble Spartans raised in the proverbial barn?

TRACK MEN IN SOUTH THIS WEEK

By DICK FRY

Southward bound—the deep South, that is—Coach Bud Winter and 24 track men will leave for Santa Barbara this afternoon for their dual meet against San Diego State and Santa Barbara on the El Cajon track Saturday.

At full strength for the meet, the Spartans will be out for their third straight win of the season. After victories over Salinas J.C., Stanford and the Alameda Naval Air station, the Winter men are being heradled as the strongest team in northern California and the only outfit that could give U.S.C. a busy afternoon.

Saturday's meet will be a triple dual affair in which San Jose will be matched against San Diego and Santa Barbara individually. That is, San Diego's points won't be counted in the San Jose-Santa Barbara results and Santa Barbara's markers will not affect the outcome of the Spartan-Aztec clash.

Santa Barbara has succeeded in keeping their track prospects pretty well under cover this year but San Diego, led by former Spartan, Willie Steele, is considered to have a tough outfit. Steele, winner of the broad jump and high jump in the Inter-Allied Games held in Florence, Italy, and one of Bud Winter's top broad jumpers at State in 1942 will perform for the Aztecs in three events Saturday.

Wit the men who know track teams best, it's the Spartans 2 to 1.

TENNIS TEAM BEATS SALINAS AT LOCAL COURTS, 6-1

The San Jose State Tennis team chalked up their second win of three tries yesterday afternoon, when they defeated the team from Salinas Junior college 6-1. Playing at the old San Jose Tennis club courts, the Spartan racketeers proved their worth despite the fairly high winds, which hindered the play somewhat.

Coach Bill Felse's netmen won four of the five matches of singles. Don McKenzie played an off game to go down in defeat at the hands of Gossler, 6-3, 6-4. Eugene Franco won over Ziegler, 6-1, 7-5; Greg Sargent won over Johnson, 6-2, 6-3; Nat Morton won over Hawkins, 8-6, 6-4, and Keith Wilson won over Snook, 6-1, 6-2.

In the doubles, the Spartan men were superior, winning both matches. McKenzie and Franco defeated Gossler and Ziegler, 6-2, 6-0, and Landes and Oliver defeated Johnson and Hawkins, 6-1, 6-4.
