

ROOTERS COLORFUL FOR GAMES

Rooters caps, white shirts and pom-poms will be in order for Thursday's rally and evening game with the Honolulu All-Stars. "No one," said Bob Johnson, Rally committee chairman "will be allowed in the special rooter's block at the game who is not wearing a white shirt or blouse."

Rooters caps which can now be purchased at the Spartan shop will be one of the most important requirements for entrance to the roped off rooting section. "A solid block of students wearing white shirts and rooters caps will show the visiting teams as well as people from San Jose the school spirit at San Jose State college," said Johnson.

Pom-poms will be sold at the rally Thursday noon by members of Delta Beta Sigma society. Although as many pom-poms as possible are being made, Leah Hardcastle who is directing the sales announces that "there will not be enough for everyone so be one of the first to buy yours." Pom-poms will be for 25c.

"Remember" said Johnson "that the theme for this year's sports season is white shirts, rooters caps and pom-poms. We want to show everyone the school spirit the students have at San Jose State college."

'Duchess of Malfi'

Cast Chosen For Play

The complete cast of 25 persons has been announced for the coming play, "Duchess of Malfi." Director James Clancy, of the speech faculty, held tryouts for the play Thursday and Friday, and posted the complete cast yesterday morning.

Freshmen Meet Prexies Today

It is "President's Day" for the Freshman class as plans have been completed for the Orientation class to meet Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, Marty Taylor, and Jackie Popp today at 11:30 in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

Dr. MacQuarrie, president of San Jose State college, Taylor and Popp, respective heads of the Student Body and the AWA, will greet the largest Freshman class in the history of the college, according to Dean of Men Paul Pitman.

All the auditorium seats have been assigned to frosh students, but the class is so large that approximately 75 freshman are without seats.

Music Therapist Speaks Today

Miss Alice Joy, head of music therapy in hospitals in this vicinity, will speak to music students in room M108 at 3:30 this afternoon.

"All music students are invited to come hear this talk," said Miss Frances Robinson, music instructor. "Bring all your friends who perform in any small way."

Jiggers---The Cops! Police School Back

The San Jose State college Police school absent from the campus since the beginning of the war, has returned with the largest enrollment in history. The school, under the leadership of Mr. Willard E. Schmidt, now has 40 freshmen and eight post-graduates, the latter having returned for additional training.

The Police school was first organized October 2, 1930 through the efforts of President T. W. MacQuarrie. It was the first pre-employment police school in the United States at that time. It is a two year technical training course, and was originally under the supervision of the Social Science department. It is open both to undergraduate and to in-service police students.

Student Program Cards Ready

Student program cards are now filed and available in the Deans of Women's office. The files are for the use of the students, and give the class schedules and addresses of all students.

To keep the files up to date, it is asked that any address change be recorded there as soon as possible.

Eight male parts remain as yet undecided, but they will be filled by these men: Del Carlson, Ed Williams, David Manning, Milton Brietzke, John Calderwood, Paul Gormley, John Ickes, and James Spitz. The question is who will get which part?

Elda Beth Payne, senior speech major and a veteran of last year's season, will play the part of the Old Lady. The first lady in waiting will be Diane Avery, the second lady in waiting is Dorothy Lyon, and Yvonne Azevedo will portray the third lady in waiting.

Chosen for the parts of the first and second pilgrims were two sophomores, William Shepherd and Joseph Johnson. The part of the executioner was passed to Harvey Kent, another sophomore.

Officers and attendants will be Ivan Van Perre, Robert Barmettler, Arthur Nelson, Gerald Lant and Clifford Roche. Henry Said and Leroy Pera will be seen as the two guards.

The three female leads as announced yesterday, are Ruth Jensky in the title role of the Duchess, Patricia Kimmick as Carlotta, and Edna Wheeler in the role of Julia.

Practice began in earnest yesterday, and the cast will meet again today at 4 p. m., at which time measurements will be taken for the costumes. Miss Marie Carr, costume director, promises that this period play will offer some very colorful costumes of the Italian Renaissance.

Besides a good cast and colorful costumes, the "Duchess of Malfi" will be enacted on one of the most colorful and elaborate sets ever raised on the "boards" of San Jose State college. Primary sketches of the different sets, drawn by Mr. J. Wendell Johnson, art director, are on display on the bulletin board near the Little Theatre.

Spartan City Jobs Available

Men, does your financial status leave you in somewhat of a bind? According to Dean Paul Pitman, there is a demand for four laborers or their equivalent—$1.15 per hour, and carpenter's helpers — $1.75 per hour—at Spartan City.

If you wish to work either part or full time as a laborer, report to Mr. Kelly at the project east of Spartan Stadium, and he'll assign your hours and a pick and shovel.

If you are qualified for a carpenter's helper, convince Mr. Kelly of the fact, and he will give you a note to Dean Pitman, who will clear you with the union at absolutely no cost to you.

Special Card Issued For Hubby or Wife

Wives and husbands of students may purchase a special ASB card in the Business office for $7.50. Holders of these limited cards are entitled to all privileges of the regular ASB card holders except voting and admittance to the Health cottage.

COUNCIL SETS CLASS MEET DATE

With Student Body President, Marty Taylor, leading the second Student Council meeting of the quarter, discussions centered around many subjects, foremost of which was the motion passed that nominations for class elections be held Friday, October 11, the hour to be set later.

Appointed by the Council as new Junior Justices were Kay Goepfert and Harold Riddle, while Ann Corwin was reappointed head of on-campus concessions. DTO representative, Doug Morrison, submitted plans for a Chapel Fund dance tentatively set for Friday, December 13, proceeds from which will go to the Memorial Chapel Fund.

The Council set a precedent last night by passing a motion forbidding the advertising of off-campus dances except those advertisements which appear in the Spartan Daily. At the invitation of Bob Mason, a representative of Herff-Jones Company explained the set-up concerning class and school rings and was asked by the Council to submit illustrations of rings to be voted on by the students.

The final decision on whether smoking will be permitted in the Student Union will be announced at the next Student Council meeting. Mary Lou Allen, Student Court Chief Justice read two amendments added to the constitution both of which were rules concerning the holding of student body offices. Miss Allen also reported that students parking in Student Union ground are subject to be brought before the Student Court and punished accordingly.

Community Chest Aids Campus Clubs

Community Chest sponsorship of at least four service organizations closely associated with campus life at San Jose State college was pointed out today by Bruce McNeil, chairman of the forthcoming campus drive for the "red feather" agency.

McNeil expressed the belief that many students were unaware that the Community Chest sponsored such organizations as the Catholic Women's Center, Student Christian Association, YMCA, and YWCA.

In addition to these organizations, Harold Riddle, publicist for the five-day drive scheduled for next week, explained that youth service groups including the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and Campfire Girls were also among those sponsored by the Community Chest.

Church Offers Classrooms

The First Methodist church, Fifth and Santa Clara streets, and San Jose State college have combined forces to alleviate the crowded classroom conditions in the Science department, according to Dr. P. Victor Peterson.

When Dr. J. Wesley Farr, pastor of the church, learned of the classroom shortage, he offered the college use of four classrooms until the quonset buildings are completed. The college will pay for the lights and provide for janitorial work of the rooms in return.

"The college appreciates such a fine spirit of cooperation within the community," declares Dr. Peterson. "We wish to express our thanks to Dr. Farr for his kind generosity."

UNDER CONSIDERATION

The Student Union building is fast becoming a main topic of discussion at Student Council meetings. The council now desires student opinion on the subject of turning the Union into a place where students can relax in the evening, where they can hold informal dances, and have an opportunity to become better acquainted with their 5500 schoolmates.

In addition, it has been suggested that the Coop also be open during the evening hours; thus enabling students to "partake of light snacks" as well as to dance.

The Student Union is the student's building. Up to the present time, it has been used little by the students for anything other than a few meetings and occasional dances. The Student Council is working on a plan that will benefit more students than the Union has accommodated in the past.

But the council wants your opinions and your ideas regarding what you want done with your building. Help them out.

Where does an alien go to register??? Golly, between the Ch'in, Chu, Ch'i, Chi, Yin, and New Greater Shanghai Chop Suey Emporium Dynasties of HistFarEast by Doc Dudley (most texts are lousy) Moorehead, Beginning Introductory Advanced Refresher Spanish and tamale loving society, and my Australian sister-in-law who just came back from the "Lone Star" state singing, The Eyes of Texas Are 'Pon Y'all, I feel like I ned a visa to enter the country.

And what is this "bid" every one is trying to sell me?? The only one who hasn't tried to sell me a ticket to the Lower Slobovian Clam Digger's Society barn dance is Doc T. W. and I understanding he is holding out 'til the Phi Beta Kappas start rushing after blue card season. Speaking of blue cards, I wish they'd let me sign up for three more courses. I only need eight more cards to finish the blue motif of my boudoir.

Was listening to SJSC versus Doc Mobley on my crystal set last Sattidy nite at work, and almost got fired. The boss caught me drinking double shots of Penzoiil SAE 90 after Mobley scored thrice, and almost drank myself into a stupor under the grease rack. I like football. But tell me, do you think that orange juice and honey will ever replace the old fashioned touch down???

Things are really looking up now! Monday, I was elevated from my seat on the floor in Econ 1A to a swell spot on top of a book cupboard. My only gripe is that the spider family up there eats lunch midway in the lecture, and are stingy zell about sharing heir dead flies. But all is not too bad; I heard about a guy who was in a small class with only 987 in it.

MARCHING BAND RETURNS AFTER FIVE YEAR ABSENCE THURSDAY

Once again, we will have the opportunity of watching the San Jose State college marching band as it goes through its thrilling routines at half time during our home football games.

Yes, the marching band has returned. One of the missing features on the campus since 1941, the band returns this quarter boasting 106 members. Thursday night, during half-time of the Honolulu All Stars-State game, the gold and white clad band will take over the field in their first appearance of the year.

Bob Reid, freshman from San Jose, has been chosen as drum major and will bring 16 years of experience to his job with the band. Two more experienced students have been chosen for drum majorette and alternate drum major. Pauline Deardorff, freshman from La Jolla, has been a majorette for four years while Francis Wildman, freshman from Redwood City, trained girls in baton twirling during the years he spent in the service.

Barbara Jenkins, freshman from San Francisco, is settling into her post as publicity director for the band. A five member council has been appointed to work with the band. Members of the council are: Bill Smith, Betty Bowman, Betty Fitzgerald, Steve Connolly, and James Schwartz. Charles Rhinehart will be in charge of issuing uniforms.

"Members should get a uniform as soon as possible," urged Mr. Forrest Bajrd, conductor of the band. Uniforms will be issued at the men's dressing room in the music building every day until Thursday. Time for issuing uniforms will be from 3:30-5 p. m. today; 10:30-12 tomorrow; and from 3:30-5 p. m. Thursday.

This year's band isn't the largest in the history of the school, for the largest band had 160 members. "But," said Thomas Eagan, music instructor, "this year's band at this point looks as good as any previous ones."

"We are trying to have one of the best bands State has had," said Bob Reid, "and to do that it will take all the cooperation of the Student Body. We've got some rough schedules worked up for the game Thursday, but I don't think anyone will be disappointed."

SPARTAN GRAD NOW TEACHING AT PASADENA

Salvadore Merendino, a graduate of San Jose State college in 1939, has been appointed to teach a class in basic design at the Pasadena Art Institute.

Information from the southern California school indicates that Merendino will continue work as a partner in Industrial Design Associates where he specializes in interior and product design.

Merendino, after receiving his A. B. in Education, completed work for his master's degree at the California Graduate School of Design. He had previously taught industrial design at Chouinard Art Institute of Los Angeles and Caltech.

MAHOGANY WORK GOES ON EXHIBIT

A mahogany dining set made by Robert Grewohl, senior Industrial Arts major, went on exhibit today in the upstairs lobby of the Library.

Grewohl made the set—a table and eight chairs in Duncan Phyfe design during the spring quarter and Summer Session.

JUST AMONG OURSELVES

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE

I had to park on the other side of Ninth street this morning. It was a nice morning, however, and I enjoyed the walk. Also I had a chance to notice the parking. Most of it was good. Only two cars were selfish—poor drivers, no doubt. Please park within your lines, and don't take any more room than you have to where there are no lines.

Many thanks about that smoking. You have been most considerate. We'll take the signs down as soon as everyone has had a chance to see them.

It was one of the best registrations we ever had, really a well managed job. There was a minimum of confusion. Dean Peterson and Mr. West had most to do with it, the old timers. We had some lucky weather, too. It was a bit warm in the gym, but not impossible. We had dry ice in the ventilators for a while Monday.

If you happen to be a trial student, now is your chance. It will be humdrum, but if you are ever to show some character, now is the time. I doubt if college work is beyond you. It's just a question of whether you can make yourself work beyond the point of comfort and entertainment. When you get sleepy, go out and take a walk—alone. Don't come to me in ten years or so and say, "Gee, but I wish I had worked harder in college." I'm sick of that kind of talk—now is the time to do something.

Fox Gets Even With Pursuers

BRISTOL, ENGLAND (UP)—A pack of 10 hounds of the Berkeley hunt chased a fox over to the edge of a cliff at Aust, near Bristol and plunged over to their death yesterday on rocks hundreds of feet below. The Fox escaped. It had hidden in a hole on top of the cliff.

HOBBYIST EXHIBITS SKETCHES

The fruits of a man's hobby—water colors and crayon sketches—are on display this week and next in the Art wing.

Avocation of Rene Weaver, art director of San Francisco's J. Walter Thompson advertising agency, water colors of coastal scenes from Point Mendocino to Monterey predominate the large display.

Miss Marian Moreland, college art instructor and friend of Weaver since her arrival in California, explained that the water colors are painted loose and splashy as a change from the finished, tight commercial art Weaver handles in his executive position with the advertising agency. This effect is obtained by working with wet colors on wet paper.

The display includes ten crayon sketches of mountain scenes which are grouped at the north doorway of the Art wing. Art department head, Dr. M. E. Reitzel, passed on the story behind these sketches.

On a recent mountain vacation trip, Weaver set out to teach his son the art of crayon sketching. As might be expected, the artist became engrossed in the work, and with his son enjoying the art as a spectator, Weaver finished the sketches himself.

As a variation in the water colors, several of the paintings are scenes of interior California setting.

All paintings and sketches are for sale. The water color prices being listed on the name cards. Robert L. Strimpel of the Art department has the price list for displayed sketches.

Dottie Fliflet Plays Variety Of Hymns On Carillons

For the remainder of the week, students will hear a different college hymn played each day on the carillons by Miss Dottie Rae Fliflet, sophomore music major from Turlock.

The carillons were presented to San Jose State college as a gift from the graduating class of June 1946. The bells are located in La Torre, while the key board is at the rear of the Morris Dailey Auditorium balcony where students may go to watch Miss Fliflet play at 12:30.

Program for the week to be heard on the carillons is:

Tuesday, October 8—
Nearer, My God to Thee—Hymn.
The World's All Before Us—Kenyon.
Kathleen Mavourneen.

Wednesday, October 9—
My Jesus, I Love Thee—Hymn.
Fortune's Ball—New York City college.

Thursday, October 10—
I Hear Thy Welcome Voice—hymn.
A Student's Life—Genesee.
At Pierrot's Door—French folksong.

Friday, October 11—
Fill Me Now—Hymn.
Full Far Away A City Stands—Bovdain.
Hail! Spartans, Hail!—Spartan hymn.

THE SUN-UP BLUES

My gosh, what a class, we're falling asleep.
We sit with our heads in a cloud
Such heavy-eyes
And sleepy sighs
Everyone's yawning uot loud

The first class on Monday, it's too much to ask,
There certainly should be a rule that could prevent
To some extent
A practice so harsh and cruel.

But we in the rear don't suffer so much,
It's plain we're the wisest folks,
For those in the front
Must bear the brunt
And laugh at the Prof's old jokes.

The Prof drones on in his sing-song voice,
The air seems heavy and thick.
The subject's deep
And watch hands creep.
What a horrible course to pick!!

As we reminisce over sweet yesterday-year
Before we went away
We're sure at once
That only a dunce
Would plan his Monday's this way.

At this time of day we can't learn much
The officials should take warning
The Profs are cranks
And our minds are blanks
At Seven-thirty Monday morning.

But I've talked long enough, now here is a toast
Drink up and drain your glasses
And rally behin'
This banner of mine
TO HELL WITH SEVEN-THIRTY CLASSES!!!

WRONG VARIETY

THRUST AND PARRY:
I beg to differ with the author of the latest football story. As the procurer of the orange juice mentioned in the above story, I am sorry to report that healthful, energizing California oranges were unavailable. In their stead were substituted weak, watery Texas oranges. Had our tasty, golden fruit been available, things might have been different.

Why No Football Rallies?

Dear Editor:
This is a great year for the Rally committee. Other colleges have already pushed college football spirit to the boiling point. Fresno State holds downtown rallies, card stunts, and sees their teams off to every game. San Jose State college has twice the enrollment and a better team. I think a send off for the Spartans before the Hardin-Simmons game would have made a big difference. This is not a letter of criticism. As yet there is nothing to criticize.

THE HOT CORNER

By DICK FRY

With all apologies to the old gladiator, Charley Cook, who held down this corner last quarter in noble fashion, we offer the first in a series of definitely partisan columns designed primarily to further the interest in sports at San Jose State.

That post-war football season everyone dreamed about for three long years has just turned the corner, and already typewriters around the nation are grinding out the word "upset." The well-worn phrase got a good rest while the allied team was scoring win after win over heavily favored opponents, but as soon as the U. S. became peace and sports minded again it was back on the printed page.

SURPRISE!

What we're leading up to is, of course, the scream that went out after Fresno knocked over the Santa Clara Broncos, 20 to 7, and the College of Pacific scared the "roses" out of Oregon University before going down 7-6. It made a good story — "small schools pull sneaker on major college teams," — but better than that, it meant the California Collegiate Athletic Association has arrived in a big way.

WINS MEAN PUBLICITY

One victory by a CCAA team over a big league school does more for our conference than all the reams of publicity that could be turned out by the combined efforts of the Fresno State, San Diego State, Santa Barbara college, College of Pacific, and San Jose State college.

USF MISFORECASTS

Someone tagged Clipper Smith, "Morose Maurice," on Sunday's sports page, and how right they were. After the way Lloyd Merriam and the rest of the Stanford Indians T'eed off on Smith's University of San Francisco Dons Saturday, it is a wonder the Clipper isn't in tears about this time.

Before the Don's opener against Nevada, in Kezar, their publicity department sent a very attractive gold and green covered booklet to anyone who might even faintly have been interested in the 1946 football outlook at the Hilltop Hacienda. The brochure, and a complete one it is, heralds the return of USF to the grid wars and gives fair warning to opponents. Perhaps Stanford took that warning note just a little too seriously, for they didn't give the Dons a fighting chance in Palo Alto Saturday. Stanford—33, USF—7 it says here —but we don't believe it. San Francisco mailed out the storm warnings but Stanford refused to be "snowed."

NOTICE

CANDIDATES FOR DECEMBER GRADUATION SHOULD FILE applications not later than October 15. This applies to candidates for post-graduate credentials as well as bachelors' degrees. File applications in the Registrar's Office.

Department heads' approvals of majors (except for Education majors) and minors should be filed in the Registrar's Office before applying for graduation. Forms for this purpose are available in this office.

J-V OPENS SCHEDULE THIS WEEK

By KEITH POPE

Speed and deception are being stressed by Coach Bud Winter in the JayVee running attack in preparation for the "Rambler's" initial contest against the strong Monterey Legion squad Saturday night at the Sardine City.

By watching the 80-odd JayVee candidates go through their paces, it is safe to say that one of the most outstanding junior varsity teams in the pigskin history of San Jose State college is in the making.

Al Vedovelli and Ken Stanger are helping Coach Winter mold the forward wall. Vedovelli played some outstanding football for the St. Mary's freshmen a few years back, while Stanger starred for the Spartans in '39 and '40.

Due to the lack of practice, no first, second, or third squads have been selected. However, Mario Valdestri, Richard Wagner, and Ken Calhoun are locked in battle for the center position. Mel Frank, Dick Baker, and Al Pinard are out for the right guard spot, while Charles Adams and Kavin Fisher are near the top of the left guard slot.

Tackles Wayne Raymond and Lloyd Luther are good prospects. A host of ends, including Clyde Knight, R. L. Cooper, Charles Bennett, Ed Tressler, George Silva, and Bob Wilson will make the competition plenty stiff.

Quarterback Sam Lugonia appears to have the inside track for that important position in the T-formation. Bob Stuhlman, M. Sul-

BRECHEEN HURLS FOUR HITTER TO BLANK SOX; SERIES TIED

Harry, "the Cat," Brecheen put the St. Louis Cardinals back in the World Series yesterday at Sportsman's Park with a four hit, 3-0 shutout over the Boston Red Sox.

Master all the way in Monday's game, Brecheen didn't let a Red-stocking get beyond second base the entire route. In fact, Joe Cronin's American League champs only got one man as far as the livan, and Phillip Curtis are out for fullback post. These three lads tip the scales close to 200 pounds, and they are all powerful runners.

Kenneth and Keith Stoddard, Pat Felice, and Len Hawthorne are four halfbacks who can be counted on to make a good showing. Coach Winter states that many changes will be made during the coming week, and that all the men out for the JayVee squad will be given a chance to show their abilities.

Games on the junior varsity schedule include the Los Gatos Legion, Fort Ord, University of San Francisco JayVee's, Fresno State College Freshmen, and the San Mateo Maritime Academy.

No Broadcast Today

There will be no broadcast of the World Series today from the window of the Spartan Daily office. Both squads are traveling, and the Series will resume from Fenway Park, home of the Boston Red Sox, tomorrow at noon. Follow the crowd to the San Carlos turf for a play by play description of the third game.

WINTER GREET'S PROMISING SQUAD IN FIRST CROSS COUNTRY TURNOUT

A cross country run, first event of its type since the war, will be among the sports highlights at San Jose State college this season. According to an announcement by coach Bud Winters, the run is scheduled for the near future, and a sign-up rally is to be held at 7 p. m. Tuesday in the office of the Men's Gymnasium. All hands are requested to turn out.

Prospects for the forthcoming endurance grind are good. The list of expected entries is studded with the names of great and near greats of past track seasons. Promises of a good race are enhanced by the appearance of such names as those of Richard Vierra, national JC two-mile champ; Thelno Knowles, national AAU title holder in the jr. half-mile; Murraý Collins, State high school champion; Eugene Hayes, SC miler; Tom Bull, Pomona JC record holder, and Len Ralston, marathon runner and Olympic Club 10,000 meter man.

In expressing his hopes for a generous turnout for the event, Coach Winters asks all prospective entries not to be afraid of the competition. "We want to see Olympic champs in the making, and to get a foundation for things to come," he says. Meets are being lined up with Stanford, California, and the University of Idaho. The '47 track season holds a store of bigger and better competition for San Jose cinder men.
