

WINTERMIST BIDS ON SALE

Bids for Wintermist will go on sale today in the Library arch, announces Margaret Kielsmeler, bid chairman. Price of the tickets is $1 per couple.

Wintermist, annual semi-formal dance, sponsored by the Social Affairs committee will be held Saturday from 9 to 1 at the Scottish Rite temple, and will feature the music of Al Ferguson and his "smooth" music.

Surrealism will be the theme of the dance according to Pat O'Brien, Social Affairs committee chairman. The unnatural, weird, and extraordinary will be featured in lighting and decorations.

Virginia Mahon, decorations chairman, states that blue and silver will be used extensively to create the Wintermist effect.

Decorations have been confined to the walls, ceiling, and stage in order to give dancers as much room as possible.

Because of the limited number of bids, students are warned by Miss O'Brien to buy tickets today. "There probably won't be bids for all who want them," she said, "therefore, it's just a matter of first come, first serve."

Social Affairs committee emphasizes the fact that the dance is semi-formal. Girls will wear formals, and the fellows will wear dark suits—not tuxedos.

PREXY GOES TO FRESNO MEET

Just back from a trip to Sacramento and Eugene, Oregon, Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie will attend a meeting in Los Angeles Friday and Saturday, and one in Fresno next Wednesday and Thursday.

The main discussion of the Sacramento meeting, according to Dr. MacQuarrie, was about an attempt to establish a uniform ratio between faculty and students. The ratio here has been 1 faculty member to 17 students; the range in California colleges and universities is 1:15 to 1:24. The problem was referred to the State Department of Education.

Dr. MacQuarrie suggested to the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools, meeting at Eugene, that it expand to include all of California. The association voted in favor of the proposal. This is the only standardizing body on the coast which accredits colleges and high schools. Dr. Raymond Mosher, of the Psychology department, is on the executive board, and is one of the examiners.

This week, The California State Council of Education will meet in Los Angeles. Dr. William Sweeney and Dr. P. Victor Peterson, dean of professional education, will go to Fresno with Dr. MacQuarrie to attend a meeting of the California Council of Teacher Education.

BUGSTERS HEAR NOTED SPEAKER

Guest speaker William J. Tilden will give an illustrated lecture on the "Order of Lepidoptera" to Entomology club members tonight in room S210, according to Dr. Carl Duncan, professor of entomology.

Mr. Tilden is an experienced collector of butterflies and moths and has gathered his specimens throughout Western and Southwestern United States. The speaker saw service in the South Pacific and has collected several tropical specimens.

All students who are interested are invited to attend this evening meeting.

Solo Steals Musical Show

By PHIL ROBERTSON
Spartan Daily Staff Writer

Max Hagemeyer, senior music major from Carmel, won the acclaim of a capacity audience with his 'cello solo of Saint-Saens' "Cello Concerto number One" in the San Jose State college symphony orchestra's 33rd annual concert last night held in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

Although the whole program was beautifully performed the tempo didn't incite more than a formal response from the audience on anything but Hagemeyer's solo.

The Andante Cantabile of Mozart's "Jupiter Symphony" was presented with the most ease of the evening's performance. "Polka and Fugue" from Weinberger's "Schwanda" was along the more lively tempo and was received with more response than was "On Hearing the First Cuckoo in Spring" by Delius.

Bach's "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" opened the hour and a half program.

Thomas Eagan directed the 95 member symphony in the orchestra's first performance of the year. Mr. Eagan will again direct the Winter appearance of the college orchestra and plans are under way to have Dr. Lyle Downey, music department head, conduct the symphony concert in the Spring quarter.

La Torre Money To Be Turned In

"It is extremely important that students selling La Torres who have not yet turned in their money do so immediately," says Business Manager Bill Ellsworth.

The following students should check with Ellsworth in the Publications office as soon as possible: Marjorie Cornwall, June Robertson, Betty Doyle, Jay Ventre, Bea Hohman, and Virginia Randolph.

Also; Bob MacFadyen, Louise Ramos, Jane Potter, "Unc" Hillyer, Alex Marshall, Pat Polk, Ruth Hansen, Ginny McCarthy, Doris Perry, and Dale Halbert.

Freshmen Present Program for Toys

Freshman class, MEW group, will present a Christmas program from 12:30 to 1:30 in the Morris Dailey auditorium today. Charge for admission will be a small toy to be donated to the Spartan Daily toy drive. Joanne Thornley, group representative, invites all students to come to the program.

A donation of $3.50 from an instructor and student, several packages from unknown students, and the doll collection from Eta Epsilon, Home economics honorary society, have helped to increase the pile of toys for the hospitalized children at the Santa Clara county hospital.

"The pile is still very small," declares Editor Bonnie Gartshore, "but by December 18 we hope to have a pile so large that the staff will have to move out of the office."

"Students desiring to contribute to the drive but have no toys nor the time to purchase them may give money," says Miss Gartshore. "Cash donations are used to purchase children's story books, water paints, crayons, color books, small games, and toys."

SPARTAN DAILY HEADS REFORM LIST PREPARED AT GRIPE DINNER

Highlights of Monday night's Gripe dinner were discussions of the Spartan Daily, public relations, and Spardi Gras. Among other subjects mentioned were fire hazards, the Health cottage, the Chapel fund, Revelries, and student body dances.

Marijane Call, Frank Hearne, Bob Mead, Phil Robertson, and Virgil Young were appointed to investigate whether or not students

DE VOSS LEADS SENIOR TALKS

Dr. James DeVoss, dean of student personnel and guidance, will conduct the Senior Orientation class during winter quarter, according to Milton Lanyon, senior class adviser. The class will meet on Tuesdays at 11:30 in the Morris Dailey auditorium or the Little Theater. Announcement of the final decision on the meeting place will be given by the Senior Council.

"Attendance will be voluntary, but it is hoped that all seniors who can attend will take advantage of this opportunity to get acquainted and organized for the spring session," says Mr. Lanyon.

Senior Orientation will not be listed on the winter schedule, but during spring quarter, it will be a required class.

Child's Cry Was Fire Warning

The cries of one-year-old Phillip Gilbert, II led to his mother's discovery of a fire in an apartment house at 336 S. Fifth street yesterday morning.

Father of the child, Phillip Gilbert, freshman chemistry major, was in a mathematics class when the fire began.

While in the back yard getting clothes off the line, the mother heard young Phillip's cries. She rushed into the apartment to see what was the matter, and found a smoke-filled room.

Damaged in the fire were a couch, curtains, and walls. Also lost were many baby clothes. The Gilberts expressed the belief that clothes which were drying on a rack near the heater caught fire.

Owners of the apartment house are Mr. and Mrs. Gail Hardwick.

GB FAVORS COUNT OF ALL ARMIES

UN ASSEMBLY HALL, Flushing, N. Y., Dec. 10 (UP)—Great Britain threw an already tumultuous session of the United Nations General Assembly into further confusion tonight with a broad proposal for a complete accounting of all armies and armaments, verified by a system of international inspection.

The United States still was unwilling to say how many atom bombs it has until it knows the UN has devised a security system strong enough to make that disclosure safe.

ONE SURVIVES IN TOKYO CRASH

TOKYO, Dec. 10 (UP)—Twenty-eight of 29 persons aboard an army troop carrier plane were reported killed today when the plane crashed two minutes after taking off from Itami Air Base near Osaka on a flight from Tokyo to Fukuoka on northwest Kyushu Island.

A terse announcement said there was only "one survivor" and unofficial reports placed the number aboard the craft, a C-46 transport, at 29.

'KISS 'N TELL' OPENS TONIGHT

There are a few seats still available for the opening of "Kiss and Tell" tonight, but all tickets are going fast, according to the Speech and Drama department. Curtain time for this first comedy of the year is at 8:15 sharp.

"Kiss and Tell," one of the most successful Broadway comedies produced during the war, was written by F. Hugh Herbert. It is the story of the troubles and tribulations of beguiling, teen-age Corliss Archer. The conflict occurs when, through a series of misunderstandings, the Archer family feels it best to separate Corliss, Joan Buechner, and her boy friend, Dexter Franklin. Played by Jim Schaar.

Mildred Pringle, played by Ruth Bryce, is secretly married to Lenny Archer, Clifford Roche, who is unavoidably absent from his army post. He finds a coolness between the Pringle and Archer families which is due to make his visit home a rather hectic one.

"Kiss and Tell" is one of a considerable number of farces about young people, and their emotional problems, which have been popular and successful during the last few years. While mostly designed for laughs, it has a bit of realism in the handling of the transition of childhood rough-housing to budding romance.

The play is under the direction of Mr. John Richard Kerr, of the Speech and Drama department. Tickets may still be secured in the Speech department office, room 159. Tickets for students are 60 cents. For every student ticket purchased, an ASB card must be punched. Other tickets are 90 cents.

Radio Guild Airs Poe's 'Gold Bug'

The Short Story Playhouse, under the auspices of the Radio Guild of San Jose State college, will go on the air this afternoon over station KLOK at 1:30. The presentation of the famous short story, "The Gold Bug" by Edgar Allan Poe, will be enacted by Bob Rexroad, Ed Williams, and John Calderwood.

Help, Says Director

"Doc" Arends, director of the 1947 Spartan Revelries, will call a meeting of all persons interested in acting in, or producing the student show at 3:30 today in the Morris Dailey auditorium. Plans for casting and staging Revelries, which is to open a five night run in February, will be discussed.

DAMON RUNYON NOTED HUMORIST DIES IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Dec. 10 (UP)—Damon Runyon, one of America's best known newspapermen and short story writers, died tonight at Memorial Hospital.

Runyon was a master at character portrayal and he haunted the dance halls, bars, hotel lobbies, courtrooms, poolrooms and gangsters hangouts of New York for his column and his stories.

His first column, which appeared in 1915, was titled "Just a Mug" and signed by "Amos Mugg" who was the forerunner of Joe Turp, the character through which Runyon often wrote in his column.

Runyon, 62, had been in poor health for several years, but he had continued his daily syndicate column until he entered the hospital recently, suffering from a gall bladder ailment complicated by liver trouble.

GERMAN PASTOR SPEAKS HERE

Pastor Martin Niemoeller will speak tonight at 7:30 in a meeting sponsored by the San Jose Ministerial Association at the First Methodist Church, Fifth and Santa Clara streets.

The reverend J. W. Farr of the local church tells that the Doctor Niemoeller spent eight years in Nazi concentration camps behind barbed wire after he defied political policies of Hitler and financial demands upon the church by the Nazi government.

The Reverend Doctor is one of the first non-scientific Germans to obtain a U. S. visa since the end of the war.

NAVY FORMS READY

Application forms for the navy sponsored four-year college program are now available for those students who are interested, Dean of Men Paul Pitman announces.

The Dean emphasizes that the forms must be returned to New Jersey by the end of next week, and expresses the need for prompt action.

AWA MEETS TODAY

AWA will hold its weekly meeting in room 24 this afternoon. Current business to be discussed will be the Clean Up The Campus campaign which began Monday.

Jackie Popp, AWA president, asks all members to attend today's meeting.

SKI CLUB NEEDS FACULTY ADVISERS

Four faculty advisers, each of whom could take one trip to Yosemite next quarter are needed by the Ski Club. Accommodations have been secured at Yosemite Lodge, and wives or husbands of faculty advisers to the club will be welcome on the trips, Dean Dimmick's office advises.

In Memorium

This poem was written by a San Jose State college student in memory of Thomas Evans, University of California student leader who committed suicide yesterday.

Out of the cool, dark night,
 Or the brightly-borne day;
 From either or both
 is derived:
 When the moon-mist unravels
 Into rose petals,
 Or the great blue tiara
 Is crowned with diamond,
 Or the light-spears
 Strew their slain shadows:
 Out of all times
 Is derived
 The fear-pain
 Of the ultimate terror,
 And these—

Are the grey
 And the black
 Shadows
 Constantly merging
 In mysterious patterns.

And you ask,
 "What are these signs?"
 And the answer
 Is easy and plain to read;
 But difficult to believe,
 For they are the action-fulcrums,
 And the blood-clotters,
 And the steel-twisters,
 And death!

In the grey labyrinth,
 Behind impenetrable walls,
 In vast stillness
 And limitless time
 Courses
 The savage monster:
 The grey and black shadows
 Constantly merging
 In mysterious patterns.

And,
 As the gold sunshine
 Strikes the tousled hair,
 And the clear eyes,
 And the smiling lips,
 And bronze features
 Of nose and throat;
 And the freckled fore-arm
 Raises itself to an honest deed,
 And a right act,
 And a noble fairness,
 In the new-beginning day—

The sky is suddenly black,
 And the moist ground
 Moves
 With ravaging maggots,
 And the hair is soiled,
 And still eyes stare,
 And the arm no longer
 Tries.
 And you ask,
 What are these signs?"
 And the knees bend in prayer,
 While you hang on shreds
 Of hope,
 And trust

Is an invention.
 And
 Meanwhile:—

The grey and black shadows
 Are constantly merging
 In mysterious patterns.

T. Miller

MILLS ELECTED AS NEW SYSTEM IS INAUGURATED

Ralph Mills, junior music major from San Jose, was elected drum major at a meeting of the band council yesterday. Bob Reid has relinquished his position as drum major to do specialties as assistant drum major.

Pauline Deardorff was re-elected drum majorette on a white ballot.

A new policy of having the drum major lead the band in military form with no twirling of his baton also was adopted by the council. Twirling will be left to the assistant drum major and the majorette.

"The election was held this quarter to enable the drum major to have the rest of the year to work out formations and routines for next fall's football season," says Barbara Jenkins, publicity director of the band.

"This year, the band didn't have much time to plan its performances, and we feel that the new policy of electing the drum major and his assistants at the close of the football season will make it possible to run off smoother routines."

Mills was drum major at Texas A & M for two years.

PUBLISH MINUTES

Congratulations to ASB 502! We heartily agree that the minutes of the Student Body Council meetings should be published in the Spartan Daily.

Not only would the students be better informed by this but they would undoubtedly take more interest in student affairs.

FUTURE FINAL SCHEDULE MAY BE CHANGED

Harrison Heath, co-ordinator of technical courses, announces that any person having three finals in one day this quarter will be denied any petition for postponement of a test.

However, if anyone has four or five tests in the same day he may petition for a change of time with Mr. Heath in the Personnel office.

A study is being made in several classes this week to determine how many students are being swamped with too many finals in one day. If it is found that a large proportion of students have three finals in a row, or more than three in a day, the schedule of finals will be changed for Spring quarter.

It is hoped that any changes which may be made can be put into effect in time for winter quarter exams, but since the dates have already been released for these finals, the changes may not become effective until Spring quarter.

AROUND CAMPUS

With HURMUSES

"Applications and queries have been coming in at a rapid rate, and many of you men have not been properly informed concerning Marine Fighting Squadron 141," states Lt. John Nicholson. "The following information is for the benefit of those who want to know more about the Reserve Squadron."

"VMF 141 is not an SJSC outfit, but as many students as can are urged to join. You will definitely receive longevity pay if entitled to it," says Lt. Nicholson.

IN OAKLAND

The next meeting of the squadron will be held at the Naval Air Station at Oakland Airport Tuesday evening, December 18 at 8 o'clock. The following data is part of the conditions of enlistment:

1. You do not have to be a Marine veteran. Discharges of the navy, coast guard, and army are welcome.
2. You will be re-instated in the outfit at your previous rank, or the equivalent thereof.
3. If air crew, you will get flying time with extra pay.
4. You may drop out of the squadron any time you wish.

$10 A MONTH

The pay of enlisted reserve personnel has also increased substantially during the past months. The base pay for the seventh grade (private) is $10 per month, ranging to $22 per month for the first grade (sergeant). Meetings number four each month, with an increase in pay for extra hours put in at meetings and the base.

For additional information, inquire at the marine detachment, Oakland Base, or get in touch with Lt. Nicholson through Coop box "N."

Applications for enlistment will be taken at the Naval Air Station during the regular meeting next Tuesday.

STUDENTS MAY OBTAIN $2.40 DUCATS TO RAISIN BOWL TILT; AGGIES BOAST HARD-CHARGING FORWARD WALL

Approximately 50 Raisin Bowl tickets selling at $2.40 each will be available to San Jose State college students on a "first come first served" basis within the next few days.

Miss Edith Graves of the Business office says that the tickets will entitle the buyer to seats on the 20-yard line. There is a possibility also that an additional number of $2.40 seats may be obtained.

THE HOT CORNER

By DICK FRY

When Amos Alonzo Stagg formally resigned from his position as head coach at College of Pacific this week, and accepted an advisory spot with Susquehanna university under his son, A. A. Stagg, Jr., papers across the nation were filled with features and editorials on the subject. Eastern scribes welcomed the return of "the grand old man" to his home sector, while western writers retold Stagg's colorful history in glowing terms, and wished him good luck in Selinsgrove, Pa. Few made the point that Alonzo's best scout, and an all-around "good scout," Mrs. Stagg, would accompany her husband to new 'punting' grounds.

Wherever the Staggs have gone, the combination has been the same—Mr. Stagg coaching, and Mrs. Stagg scouting the opposition. Together, they have covered the nation—traveling with their teams. For the past fifty-odd years, Mrs. Stagg has doubled as scout, wife, and mother in the most famous football family in the United States. Now, with her husband in an advisory position, Mrs. Stagg has a chance to get some well-deserved rest from the grid wars, but it's even money that she will be up in the press box again next year with field glasses, pencils, and play charts, awaiting the first kickoff.

Earl Blaik was selected coach of the year, and Charles Trippi player of the year, but our choice for the all-time football scout and woman of the year is Mrs. Amos Alonzo Stagg.

Willin "Skippy" van Lanningham, former Fresno State college backfield ace, had to get into the army to play in a bowl game. Last week, van Lanningham led the Ninth Division, as player coach, to a 20 to 7 win over the 16th In-

SPARTAN MATMEN MEET BEARS AT BERKELEY TONIGHT

More than 25 wrestlers will meet the California Golden Bears' mat squad tonight at Berkeley in their second informal match of the season, announces Coach Ted Mumby.

The Spartans seek to make it two triumphs in a row. In their last meeting, the grapplers downed the Stanford Indians 12½-11½.

The squad will be minus the services of George Ehling, who injured his foot Monday while wrestling. He had won one of the matches against the Stanford Indians here last month.

Bill Rodman will be on the shelf, also, for this match, as he was overweighed for the 145 pound class.

San Francisco State college has been offered the date of January 18 for a meet here. A rematch will probably be held in San Francisco sometime during March.

The wrestling matches between Stanford and San Jose State college have been set for February 1 here and February 14 there.

Men who will accompany the team to Berkeley tonight at 5:30 are Bill Rothwell, 121; Keith Saboff, 121; Dirck Arrowsmith, 128; Louis Gonzales, 128; Paul Borg, 128.

Carl Holmberg, 130; Fred Albright, 135; Tom Payne, 135; Jim Shouse, 135; Bill Wardrup, 145; Sam Lawson, 145; Gordon Baker, 145; Jack Jackson, 145; Ralph Payne, 145; Ray Misener, 155.

SPARTAN WORKOUT

The Spartan gridders have donned their sweat clothes, and are now in the process of limbering up after a 10-day layoff. Coach Bill Hubbard has the Spartans running through plays, catching passes, and working on pass defense.

It is reported that the Utah State Aggies are continuing their daily practices, and from all indications, Coach Dick Romney's lads will be in top condition when they tangle with the Spartans in the Fresno Raisin Bowl on New Year's day.

STRONG UTAG LINE

Information drifting in from Utah territory warns the Spartans that the Aggies have a big and fast-charging forward wall which does a banner job of opening holes for scat-backs Van Noy and Caputo. Although the Utah State gridders have been stopped only once this season, 6-0 loss to the University of Colorado in their second tilt of the year, the big Utag line almost pushed the Colorado bulwarks across the Rockies.

Below is listed the season record for the Utags:

	Utags	Opp.
Idaho (Southern Branch)	47	0
Colorado	0	6

"Skippy sorta went to extremes, but he got there, and that's better than the rest of the Bulldogs will do this year.

BORLO A.C. CAGERS TANGLE WITH SPARTANS HERE TONIGHT; NEFF HEADS INDEPENDENT SQUAD

Tonight will be more or less a busman's holiday for Ben Neff, adviser-coach of the Borlo Athletic cagers, when his San Francisco clubmen tangle with Walt McPherson's Spartan quintet in the Men's gym at 8 o'clock.

Erstwhile basketball coach at Lowell high school in San Francisco, Neff dabbles in amateur cage teams during his off moments, and the Borlos, this year, are his pride and joy. Around the bay region, Coach Neff gained some measure of fame by contributing Don Burness, Howie Dallmar, and Bill Cowden to the national championship Stanford university squad of 1941. Three of the Indian's first team that year played for Neff at Lowell in San Francisco.

Walt McPherson knows Neff's reputation for turning out top cage teams, and has been driving the Spartans in tough practice sessions the last two evenings in the San Carlos gym. San Jose has come a long way defensively since their opening game against Stanford, but McPherson is still concerned over the lack of a consistent scoring punch. Against the Sacramento Senators last week, the Spartans held an offensively great independent team to 44 points.

Ed Maggetti, leading gold and white scorer last year, has been unable to locate the hoop so far this season, and McPherson is noticing the difference in the local attack. The Spartans have been off and on scorers in their first five outings. Lack of a strong offense cost them a win over Sacramento.

A probable starting team for San Jose tonight will be: Hal Sonntag and Bob Hagen at forwards, Stu Inman and Ted Holmes at guards, and Ivan Robinson at center. The Borlos will use Ernie Filiberti and Ken Westley forwards, Mel Dropp and Dave Thurm guards, and Tom Collingwood, center.

Bob Bronzan's Jayvee squad will meet an as yet unnamed opponent in a preliminary contest at 6:30.

The San Jose State college library acquired by the end of its first year (1862) an estimated 1000 volumes, according to Joyce Backus, librarian, the library now has 95,000 books.
