

Gifford, Hill, Robinson Seek Presidency as Polls Open

ASB Prexy Explains Bias Bill; Urges 'Vote'

The Student Council is placing on the ballot of the election a referendum which reaffirms the 1957 Student Council's stand on the policy of discrimination. Acceptance of this referendum by the Student Body will make the current policy of the Student Council a part of the Associated Student Body Constitution and By-laws.

This policy states that "no new groups will be granted recognition which have discriminatory clauses in their constitution or by-laws." In addition it also defines the procedure whereby the Student Council will work actively for the removal of such clauses in constitutions and by-laws of currently recognized organizations.

This policy was not developed hastily. In 1957, the Student Council at the request of interested students inaugurated a study of this problem. At that time some persons requested the immediate withdrawal of recognition from organizations with discriminatory clauses in their constitutions. Others advocated a two-year grace period before enforcing this regulation.

The committee studying this issue consisted of minority group representatives, representatives from community organizations interested in this problem and members of Student Council. After eight weeks of intensive study, the committee recommended the policy which the Student Council has since been following and is now recommending as a constitutional and by-law amendment.

The Student Council feels that this policy has been effective. Of the 138 currently recognized student organizations, only five still have such clauses in their constitutions or by-laws.

Two weeks ago, April 15, interested students indicated they would circulate a petition calling for an initiative which would present a different approach to this problem. To date this petition has not been submitted to the Student Council.

The council firmly believes that the policy it has been following has been effective. In order to gauge the feelings of the Student Body as a whole, they are therefore placing it on the ballot. It is urged that every student vote.

Dr. Wahlquist Speaks On SJS Discrimination

[Following is Pres. John T. Wahlquist's message on discrimination to the faculty, administration and student body of San Jose State. Part of this statement first appeared in the Spartan Daily on June 5, 1957.]

In our college community, we have risen a long way above the level of ignorance and bigotry that held certain racial or ethnic groups to be unworthy of first-class citizenship.

Our faculty has been chosen from qualified men and women of high character, regardless of their racial or religious backgrounds; our students are admitted, without discrimination, on the basis of their demonstrated performance as intelligent and law-abiding men and women.

Progress has been made since this issue was presented and studied two years ago. We have increased our campus organizations from 120 to 138, but we have decreased those organizations with discriminatory clauses from eight to five.

No new groups have been recognized that have discriminatory clauses although we have increased our campus organizations by 18 new groups.

This indicates to the college administration the effectiveness of the Student Council policy in accomplishing its objectives.

We earnestly hope that even these last vestiges of racial prejudice will soon disappear—that they will be relinquished voluntarily as a considered act of conscience and faith in the rightness of our American ideals.

But as we seek to practice what we profess every time we pledge allegiance to the flag, we must remember that our means as well as our ends must be humane.

In our zeal to make the world "nearer to the heart's desire," we must not dissipate our energies by hating hatred or becoming intolerant of intolerance.

With patience and with understanding of the deeply-rooted feelings which make people act irrationally, we must continue to educate—in the fullest sense of the word—those friends and neighbors who continue to hold fossil ideas of racial superiority.

The administration of San Jose State College commends the various campus groups who are seeking, by peaceful and democratic means, to hasten the departure of racial, religious and ethnic discrimination. We have, truly, assumed leadership in an heroic national enterprise.

Dr. John T. Wahlquist
President, San Jose State College.

Open House Today In Aero Department

Today at 11:30 a.m. the Aeronautics Department will have an open house for all SJS students and faculty. The aeronautics quonset huts will be open until 9 p.m.

Thomas E. Leonard, head of the Aeronautics Department, feels that the campus is growing so fast that the students and personnel of Washington Square don't know what the departments, beside the one they are in contact with, are doing.

"In our own small way we've invited people here today for an informal look at what goes on in the Aeronautics Department.

Classes will be going on just the way they do everyday, and the only display that is not part of the work of the department is the scale models of rocket flight," Leonard said.

The everyday things that the department deals with are jet engines, models of flight design, full size 2000 h.p. aircraft piston engines, operational engines that will be running in full trim, and complete aircraft.

Although classes will be in session there will be members of the sponsoring organizations:

Society of Automotive Engineers, Institute of Aeronautical Sciences, Alpha Eta Rho, and Flying 20 Club, to explain the displays, and the workings of the designs, and engines.

'Play Dot T'ing, Mon!'

Singing a ballad to the open sea is Solomon Hill (standing with conga drum) and Mike Chang. Hill and Chang sing a duet tomorrow night when "Jolly Roger," Revelries annual show, opens at 8.

'Jolly Roger' To Feature Combo—Not Orchestra

"Jolly Roger," Revelries musical-comedy will not have the 12-piece orchestra as previously scheduled, according to Verne Schnaidt, musical director for the annual show.

He said instead of the 12-piece group originally scheduled, "Jolly Roger" will use "about the same size combo as last year." Last year's show had a five-man combo.

Schnaidt made his statement late Tuesday night after a dress rehearsal. He said, "The show was trying to do too much in too little time," and stated it had been too difficult to get the 12 pieces together in time to coordinate acting with music.

He has written the musical score for "Jolly Roger" and composed music for the seven songs used. He was also handling arrangements for the proposed orchestra.

Schnaidt said extensive rearranging would have to be done with two days remaining until opening night tomorrow at 8 p.m.

The 12-piece orchestra was to have been the largest aggregation ever used at a Revelries production since 1934.

Next semester's Revelries Board has been chosen with the exception of chairman and secretary positions which will be selected after this year's show.

Members of the fall board will be: Jeanne Cook, Janis Fisher, Darlene Haynes, Kathi Eggman, Nancy Lund, Bick Goss, Verne Schnaidt, Jon Hazen, Solomon Hill and Ralph Fetterly.

Fiske also reported voting on the "Jolly Roger" professor contest was, "going way above expectations." He estimated more than 700 people had cast ballots for the "Professor Most Like Jolly Roger." Dr. Panagopoulos, assistant professor of history, was leading as of Tuesday afternoon, Fiske said. Voting will continue today and tomorrow afternoon in the library quad.

Senior To Give Vocal Program

Jane Ann Fritz, soprano and SJS music major, will present her senior recital tonight at 8:15 in Concert Hall.

Miss Fritz was active in choral groups through high school, and has been in both choral and solo work at SJS. She will sing works by Mozart, Schubert, Wolf, Brahms, Puccini and others tonight.

Gifford Says No 'Ultimatum' Intent In Bias Stand

With the belief that many students had misinterpreted his stand on discrimination, presidential candidate Bob Gifford asked the Spartan Daily to make it clear that his policy is one "of striving toward elimination of discriminatory clauses in national constitutions."

Gifford referred to an article in Tuesday's Daily which carried the headline "Gifford's Ultimatum to Frats." The Daily headline writer was inaccurate in his statement, and Gifford said he had no intention of issuing an ultimatum.

He added that "pressurizing fraternities in any way" is the wrong attitude. "Every fraternity must deal with this problem in its own way," he said. "I don't believe we can make a water-tight rule for the fraternities to follow."

Gifford said that any discrimination law made must be "flexible enough to make the final goal of eliminating clauses possible. If the school is to rid itself of the discrimination problem, it cannot work against the fraternities."

Iran Officials Tour Campus

Visiting the campus today are Majid Rahmema, the Iranian consul general from San Francisco and Dr. H. Esfandiari, supervisor of Iranian students in the United States, stationed in Washington, D.C., announced Phillip Persky, International Students' sponsor.

Both men will talk with Iranian students, Persky stated. The program for the day begins with an informal reception, to be held in Bldg. K, from 11 a.m. to noon.

Ballot Battle Slated On Anti-Bias Issue

One Applies For Attorney Court Post

"Disappointed" that there was only one application for the office of ASB prosecuting attorney, the Student Council yesterday extended application deadline until May 13.

Steven Walsh, freshman camp director, was the only candidate for the student body position. Pres. Dick Robinson said students interested in applying should fill out an application in the Student Union before May 13. Interviews will be held again then.

Duties of prosecuting attorney include serving as legal adviser for the Student Council, prosecutor for the student body and acting as liaison between the court and council.

Walt Newberger, new senior class representative to the council, was welcomed by council members.

Corresponding Secretary Barbara Johnson said the school received a letter from Dr. Roy E. Simpson, superintendent of public instruction, stating that his office would study the SJS student activities building situation and report to the council.

In other council business, Iota Rho Chi, industrial arts club, was given official recognition. Campus recognition was postponed for several weeks until the membership clause of the Constitution was revised.

Social Affairs Commissioner Larry Genzel told the council that $400 worth of tickets to the May 13 Dave Brubeck concert have been sold. He said ticket sales have progressed slowly.

Revelries Board Director Dave Fiske reported a "possible sellout" for Revelries opening night this Friday.

Nancy Crandell, sophomore representative, said Spartan Spears, sophomore women's service organization, have indicated they would like to join "Spurs," a national women's service group. Robinson said the council would send its recommendation on this matter.

A report by Rally Committee Chairman Carol Sandell stated that rally positions of stunts chairman and cards chairman are still vacant. Applications will be accepted by Miss Sandell until this Friday.

UPI ROUNDUP

Plane Found On Volcano

NICOSIA, Cyprus (UPI) — Planes searching inside Turkey yesterday spotted wreckage of a missing British plane that had been feared down in Russia with secret rocket equipment aboard.

Royal Air Force headquarters here announced the plane, carrying 12 persons, crashed on Subhan Dag Mountain, an extinct volcano, north of Lake Van in eastern Turkey. The area is about 100 miles from the Russian border and about 25 miles off the plane's course.

ALIEN STUDENT BILL

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill has been introduced in the Assembly to permit alien students at colleges and the state universities to work at jobs which are paid by public money.

Assemblyman Don Mulford (R-Oakland) introduced the bill which he said would be of particular assistance to students at UC. The State Labor Code now prohibits paying public money to aliens.

Senate Bills Up for ASB Reaction

ASB voters today and tomorrow will be asked to endorse a Student Council resolution opposing two State Senate bills that could put student body and other campus funds under state regulation.

A special section has been added to the ASB election ballot for voters to approve or disapprove the Council resolution passed two weeks ago.

Stanley Stevens, SJS representative in a statewide campaign against the legislation, said he will try to post copies of the two bills near all voting booths. Under fire are Senate Bills 1063 and 1064, introduced by Sen. George Miller Jr. (D-Contra Costa).

They provide that: "The funds of the student body associations shall be subject to accountability and regulation by the Department of Finance."

"No corporation or association, except student body associations, shall be formed or operated at any state college."

(Campus officials have speculated this provision would make the Spartan Foundation illegal and would put the student operated Cafeteria and Spartan Book Store in doubtful status.)

Stevens and ASB officers from two other state colleges go before the Senate Committee on Education in Sacramento Wednesday to state the reasons for student body opposition. The three delegates will be representing the combined student bodies of all 12 state colleges.

Stevens said this week he is sure the bills will die in committee when students' position is made clear.

The three man delegation will emphasize:

—The legislation would restrict the "right and responsibility" of students to govern themselves.

—The state would in effect be telling student bodies what to do with their own money.

Final performance of the "Big Election Show" begins this morning at 9:30 when booths open at four campus locations.

Student body and class officers and several election issues will be on the ballot.

Booths will be located in the Outer Quad, in front of the Library, by the bookstore and between the Men's Gym and the ROTC barracks.

Chief Justice Dick Christiana said each location will have at least four booths.

Three Spartan Juniors are vying for ASB presidency: Bob Gifford, Rich Hill and Ron Robinson. There are 41 candidates for student body and class offices also in the running.

A two-part Student Council proposal which would encourage elimination of restrictive clauses as well as refusal to recognize new organizations with such provisions, is on the ballot.

The referendum issue requires that the Student Council commu-

Three isn't a crowd and four is just right, says Jerry Elliott, a senior student who said late last night, "I'm in the race for ASB President."

The short-term campaigner and write-in candidate announced his platform as one of "revamping" student government. He declined to go into specifics, however. Other candidates on his ballot, said the "dark horse" are: Hal Brizzolara, vice president; and Gerald Kennedy, male representative-at-large. ASB Pres. Dick Robinson confirmed the report.

icate each year with organizations having restrictive clauses, urging them to eliminate such provisions. The council will then issue an annual report to the student body.

Billy Gene Parker's controversial discrimination initiative proposal will not be on the ballot. Christiana said yesterday Parker will now have to obtain a special election for the issue.

He added that if the Student Council measure is approved, Parker will have to circulate a new petition on the matter, requiring signatures of 10 percent of the student body. The added support is necessary, Christiana said, because the council's measure would then be a part of the constitution rather than the ASB By-Laws.

A public opinion poll concerning Senate Bills 1063 and 1064 also is on the ballot.

Polls will remain open until 3:30 p.m. today. Tomorrow, voting hours will be from 9:30 to 3 p.m.

Christiana warned that students who use any marking instrument but the official election stamp will have their ballot voided. Ballots also will be voided for marks not clearly within the candidate's box. The preferential system of voting will be used. Students will select

Wanted: Two Chairmen By the Rally Committee

The Rally Committee is in a dilemma. It wants to go "big time" next semester—along with the football team—but it's having a hard time filling two important vacancies.

It lacks a stunts chairman. And it lacks a cards chairman. Both positions are open to any student body member with an adequate grade point average (2.0).

The stunts chairman takes care of designing and submitting copies for all stunts to the art chairman prior to the game.

The cards chairman is responsible for sorting all the cards and transporting them to and from the games. This chairman also pins the cards and stunt sheets on the bleachers.

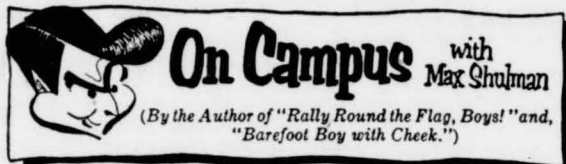

The pretty new leader of the Rally Committee, Carol Sandell, points out that:

1—Nearly all planning for football rally activities must be done before the end of this semester.

2—These chairmen don't necessarily have to be members of the Rally Committee.

Miss Sandell is greatly concerned over the lack of applications for the positions because of their importance to well-planned half-time ceremonies—one of the Rally Committee's goals.

Deadline for filing applications in the Student Union is Friday.

VIVE LE POPCORN!

The other day as I was walking down the street picking up tinfoil, (Marlboro, incidentally, has the best tinfoil, which is not surprising when you consider that they have the best cigarettes, which is not surprising when you consider that they take the best filters and put them together with the best tobaccos and rush them to your tobacco counter, fresh and firm and loaded with smoking pleasure). The other day, I say, as I was walking down the street picking up tinfoil, (I have, incidentally, the second largest ball of tinfoil in our family. My brother Eleanor's is bigger—more than four miles in diameter—but, of course, he is taller than I). The other day, as I was saying, while walking down the street picking up tinfoil, I passed a campus and right beside it, a movie theatre which specialized in showing foreign films. Most campuses have foreign movie theatres close by, because foreign movies are full of culture, art, and esoterica, and where is culture more rife, art more rampant, and esoterica more endemic than on a campus?

Nowhere; that's where.

I hope you have all been taking advantage of your local foreign film theatre. Here you will find no simple-minded Hollywood products, marked by treacherous sentimentality and machine-made bravura. Here you will find life itself—in all its grimness, its poverty, its naked, raw passion!

Have you, for instance, seen the recent French import, Le Crayon de Mon Oncle ("The Kneecap"), a savage and uncompromising story of a man named Claude, whose consuming ambition is to get a job as a meter reader with the Paris water department? But he is unable, alas, to afford the flashlight one needs for this position. His wife, Bon-Bon, sells her hair to a wigmaker and buys him a flashlight. Then, alas, Claude discovers that one also requires a leatherette bow tie. This time his two young daughters, Caramel and Nougat, sell their hair to a wigmaker. So now Claude has his leatherette bow tie, but now, alas, his flashlight battery is burned out and the whole family, alas, is bald.

Or have you seen the latest Italian masterpiece, La Donna E Mobile (I Ache All Over), a heart-shattering tale of a boy and his dog? Malvolio, a Venetian lad of nine, loves his little dog with every fibre of his being. He has one great dream: to enter the dog in the annual Venetian dog show. But this, alas, requires an entrance fee, and Malvolio, alas, is penniless. However, he saves and scrimps and steals and finally gets enough together to enter the dog in the show. The dog, alas, comes in twenty-third. Malvolio sells him to a vivisectionist.

Or have you seen the new Japanese triumph, Kibuzi-San (The Radish), a pulse-stirring historical romance about Yamoto, a poor farmer, and his daughter Ethel who are accosted by a warlord one morning on their way to market? The warlord cuts Yamoto in half with his samurai sword and runs off with Ethel. When Yamoto recovers, he seeks out Ethel's fiancé, Red Buttons, and together they find the warlord and kill him. But, alas, the warlord was also a sorcerer and he whimsically turned Ethel into a whooping crane. Loyal Red Buttons takes Ethel home where he feeds her fish heads for twenty years and keeps hoping she'll turn back into a woman. She never does. Alas.

Letters to the Editor

Editorials Approved

EDITOR: The Spartan Daily is to be congratulated on its fine editorials on the discrimination issue. The editorials properly criticized the Student Council for its lack of real action other than sending perfumed letters to national Greek organizations.

The IFC statement that appeared yesterday was interesting in its absurdity. It condemns discrimination, yet every member group of IFC practices discrimination. No wonder it says that five organizations shall have forever to remove their discrimination clauses if necessary.

In short, IFC and Student Council are willing to give lip service to non-discrimination, but LIP SERVICE ONLY.

John R. Bird.

New Contenders

EDITOR: Again the time has arrived for us to make the momentous decision of who will manage our student government for another year. We, who have organized ourselves into a party to be known as the Washington Squares, with the motto "Togetherness for Never," propose the following write-in candidates:

President, Socrates... "If we want a Greek, we'll have the best."

Vice president, Schroeder... Beethoven will replace rock 'n' roll on the Cafeteria juke box."

Recording Secretary, Grace Metalious... "We could publish the minutes and have enough to build a new Student Union."

Corresponding Secretary, Abigail Van Buren... "This gal can write good letters."

Treasurer, Dave Beck... "End budget worries."

Male Representative at Large, King Farouk.

Female Representative at Large, Elsa Maxwell, "These two will make a charming couple."

Once Upon a Time...

EDITOR: Long ago, in a quiet land, many birds lived together and were content. Blackbirds co-existed with white birds... all were "created equal"—except for the blackbirds. But each bird seemed happy in his own nest.

One day, a bird rose among the blackbirds and white birds, to say that he was not content with the way of co-existence. And such a bird was to cause unrest in Ostrichland.

Many refused to listen to the bird because he was new in the land. Other birds blankly chirped that he was full of birdseed or that he was harsh and "unreasonable." Some agreed with the bird. But most ostriches made feeble noises and hid their heads in the ground, knowing that the time of unrest would soon pass. And so it did.

By JERRY NACHMAN
OUR SOCIAL FLUTTERFLY and Pinnings Editor has been flapping her wings about the office lately carrying news about a Woman's Day, which I understand was yesterday.

How did I miss it?
Once again the pug-nose set was making emancipation noises. Every so often the nesters in our species—and you can tell them by their downy heads and scarlet mouths—get to thinking they will have equal say in what goes on, so a Woman's Day comes along, and they show what they really can do. For instance:

A circular was sent out to all the girl's (pardon me, I meant to say "woman's") groups the other day telling them how they could make a good showing in some sort of bicycle race down 9th St. I quote (from official instructions to all cyclists):

"Each member of the race must balance a potato on a spoon while riding her bicycle, and if the potato happens to fall off the spoon in the course of action (horrors) the rider must pick it up and start all over again at the starting line."

All this is good, though; I think more women SHOULD be getting out and participating like this; carving out careers, showing the world that they can balance a potato on a spoon as good as girls (I mean "women") who don't have the advantages of a college education.

Most of the girls I meet are simply dying to be Career Girls. The lure of the Big City and life in a metropolitan hospital as 1960's Clara Barton is more than some of these career women can stand.

They want to become buyers for Bonwit Teller's in New York, or perhaps a job as head fashion designer for "Vogue" would suit their fancy. Some will settle for a life in politics.

BUT MOSTLY, if I am not mistaken, they will settle for life behind a Tappan range. Or at best a life running around the bosses office, pad and pencil in hand, curls flying, pursuing a career as head typist (for the local branch office of a division firm of Cartwright & Co.—ink blotters) while the boss pursues them around the office interior.

And the other 99 per cent will wind up as scullery maids mopping up grease splashes on the stove and their hands will be floating in dish water. Fun? Well, keep those potatoes balanced girls! There is no telling what the future holds for healthy and right-thinking spoon carriers.

But wait—there was more to Woman's Day. Much more. There was, in fact, a breakfast held yesterday for (and I continue quoting) "The Man For Whom We'd Best Like to Serve Breakfast."

There was another bike contest they held which went like so: "The first rider puts a pair of Levis and a sweatshirt over her street clothes and rides to the other end of the course where one of her teammates is waiting. She then removes the sweatshirt and Levis and the other rider places them over her head." And so on, ad Levi.

Naturally there will be trophies for the best levi-and-sweatshirt-changer-while-peddling-around-through-towner. That will be nice. She may make her Career by becoming a six-day bike rider and moving to France.

Yes—keep your sights aligned, your head up, your potatoes well-balanced and your Levis clean and you will have Careers Unltd.

Good luck, girls. Er—women.

Local Swingers Face Santa Clara Here Tomorrow

San Jose State's cross-town rivals, the Santa Clara Broncos, will provide the opposition for the Spartan golfers Friday afternoon when they go after win No. nine. The meet will be held at the San Jose Country Club at 1 p.m. With the season nearly completed the Spartans record stands at 8-2.

Baseballers Test Broncos Tonight

With the return of some solid hitting to their lineup the San Jose State varsity baseballers will face Santa Clara Broncos tonight at 8 in Washington Park.

Tuesday the Spartans captured both ends of a doubleheader from San Francisco State. The double win gave SJS a season record of 16-17. Hopes of raising their season mark to a .500 average will rest on the shoulders of strong right-hander Jon Holmquist. Holmquist has a 2-2 record this season. The last mound start for the fastballer was April 10 against Cal. He suffered his second defeat in that game.

Coach Ed Sobczak gave no indication that he would switch his starting lineup. The amiable Spartan mentor opened the first game at S.F. with his second string squad where the nine captured the win, 8-1. The first nine started the second game and were victorious 8-4.

Saturday the Spartans will meet St. Mary's Gaels in a rescheduled doubleheader at Moraga. SJS was scheduled to meet the Gaels last Saturday; however, the twin-bill was cancelled due to wet grounds.

LINE DRIVES: Next home game will be a doubleheader against St. Mary's at Municipal Stadium Tuesday night . . . left-hander Larry Williams has suffered four losses, all one-run contests . . . five players will graduate from the varsity this season.

Those who will play their last game May 12 against Sacramento State are catcher Don Christensen, first baseman Jim Schmiedt, second baseman Bobby Krail, outfielder Emmett Lee, and pitcher Bill Leach.

'Mural Softball' Results of yesterday's games: Sigma Alpha Epsilon 8, Sigma Phi Epsilon 1; Delta Upsilon 7, Theta Chi 4; Sigma Nu 13, Delta Sigma Phi 4; Pi Kappa Alpha won by default over Kappa Alpha.

Last year's entry in the medley set a new meet record and O'Neill has predicted that this year's team will win the event.

The Spartans haven't lost a dual meet to a state college team this year in compiling a 7-3 record.

The Spartans placed second last year behind Cal Poly of San Luis Obispo. Coach Tom O'Neill gives this year's squad an outside chance of winning the title.

Last year's entry in the medley set a new meet record and O'Neill has predicted that this year's team will win the event.

The Spartans haven't lost a dual meet to a state college team this year in compiling a 7-3 record.

SPARTAN DAILY-3

Olmedo vs. Reed Here Tomorrow

By DOUG WILLIAMS

Davis Cup star, Alex Olmedo and nationally ranked San Jose State's Whitney Reed will clash racquets in an exhibition tennis match in the Men's Gym tomorrow night at 8.

In a tournament less than a year ago, Olmedo defeated Reed in a match which involved 82 games and four hours of battle. Both players lost 10 lbs. in the gruelling match. Spectators conceded the event to be one of the best, hard fought matches ever witnessed.

Earlier, Reed defeated Olmedo in the Palm Springs tournament. Olmedo became the hero of the Davis Cup team when he downed Australia's Mal Anderson and Ashley Cooper in Australia to win the Cup for the USA.

Alex has one of the most powerful serves in the game and is backed with a well balanced all-around game.

Reed has the most unusual style of play in the big time tennis, yet he is one of the most colorful and effective players to watch. Whitney currently is rated 11th nationally, with no collegiate player rated above him.

Prices for tomorrow's event are $1.25 for adults and 50 cents for students. Tickets may be purchased through the Student Affairs Office or at the Men's Gym.

Tomorrow and Saturday the West Coast Athletic Conference tennis tournament will be held on the Spartan courts.

The preliminary matches will begin at 9:30 Friday morning and last through the day. Semifinals will start at 11 a.m. Saturday and the finals will be held at 1 p.m. the same day.

The Spartan netters will be cast in the role of tourney favorites by virtue of their fine 13-2 season record. Peppereid is expected to give Coach Krikorian's netters the most trouble in the matches. The Spartans defeated the Waves 7-2 in Los Angeles last week.

Seedings for the tourney are: 1, Reed (SJS); 2, Jim Watson (SJS); 3, Stan Ellis (P); 4, Aaron Johnson (P); 5, Bill Schaefer (SJS); 6, Nick Scharf (SJS); 7, Frank Craig (P); 8, Dante Merlino (P). Doubles seedings are: 1, Reed-Bob Hill (SJS); 2, Ellis-Johnson (P); 3, Watson-Scharf (SJS); 4, Craig-Merlino (P).

NET SHOTS: Latest national rankings show Reed No. 11 . . . Northern California rankings have Reed in the second spot, the Spartans' Jim Watson is 11th with Nick Scharf No. 19 . . . net coach Butch Krikorian is rated 12th among Northern Californians. . . Reed is going to have a busy weekend. Along with the WCAC tourney on Friday and Saturday and his exhibition with Olmedo on Friday night, he will play another exhibition Saturday night at Pleasant Hill high school against Cliff Main . . . Main is rated No. 4 nationally.

Net Deadline Nears

Noon tomorrow is the deadline for entries in the First Annual All-College novice mixed doubles tennis tournament, to be held May 8, 9, 15, 16 on the Spartan courts. Entry blanks and rules are available in the recreation office (WG7).

Buzz-Happy Birds Doin' What's Natural

By GREGORY H. BROWN

Been hit by an Euphagus cyanocephalus?

Commonly known as Brewer's Blackbird, this fluffy feathered friend of ours has taken it upon himself to "buzz" students on campus as they invade his sphere of privacy.

"The bird is only trying to protect his nest," stated Dr. Henry G. Weston, assistant professor of zoology. This type of action is quite common with the blackbird and also the mocking bird. There have been some cases where humans have said they have contact with the birds.

Dr. Weston pointed out that this is "instinctive nature" with these birds and "even though trying to invade the bird's privacy is the furthest thing from one's minds, the bird will dart and dive at him."

"This happens every time during this, the breeding season," Dr. Weston explained. "Usually the male is the most promiscuous but occasionally the female joins the intimidating antics employed by her husband."

Students can expect this sort of action to continue until early June after the eggs have hatched and the young ones have departed.

"Actually, the birds grow bolder in their actions after the eggs have already hatched, and the young ones are still in the nest," Dr. Weston said.

"We can definitely classify the action itself as a rare one since blackbirds pick on animals as well as humans.

However, other animals have what we call certain territories which are invisible to us and set up against species of the same kind.

"But our blackbird friend seems to show no preference in selecting his victims," Dr. Weston concluded.

High School Students Here Today

Twelve hundred Santa Clara County high school students will be on campus today for the annual senior visit. Dr. Royce C. Jones, personnel counselor, announced yesterday.

Following an assembly in Morris Dailey Auditorium, the seniors will meet with representatives of SJS major departments in the Inner Quad at 10:30 a.m.

SJS representatives will familiarize the students with the division programs offered here.

At 11:30, a second departmental meeting in the Inner Quad will give visitors a chance to see a different department.

A sack lunch is scheduled in front of the Women's Gym at 12:15 p.m.

"Inside San Jose State," a film of the curricular and extra-curricular activities at SJS, will be featured at the 1 p.m. assembly in Morris Dailey.

ROTC programs at SJS also will be presented to the high schoolers.

'Midas' Play 4 p.m. Today

"King Midas and the Golden Touch," a play for children, opens this afternoon at 4 in College Theater. Admission is 50 cents; tickets will be available at the door.

Under the direction of John Kerr, associate professor of drama, the cast of SJS drama students will tell the story of the king who turned all he touched into gold.

Heading the cast as King Midas will be Ray Baptista, with Susan Fincher playing his daughter Tyra. Other members carrying important roles are Paul Bucalstein, Ben Shelton, Jo Ann Karavos, Lois Haight, Lucille La Torre and Linda Gadberry.

Grad Wins $4500 Aid

David A. Barrett, San Jose State Business Division graduate student, was one of six persons selected from national competition to receive the $4500 Sloan Fellowship given by Stanford University.

The grant will be used next year at the Stanford Graduate School of Business for one year of study in marketing.

Barrett, doing graduate study in marketing and research here, is the first SJS student ever to receive the award.

May Tourney Deadline Set

Deadline for entries in the ninth annual All-College Badminton Tournament is Tuesday. Entry blanks may be obtained in WG7 for the event, co-sponsored by WAA, Co-Rec, Men's Intramurals, and Recreation Leadership Methods class.

The event will be held May 12-14 from 7 to 10 p.m. in the Men's Gym.

This year's tournament will offer a novice division in addition to an open division.

The new program was set up to encourage more participation from the general student body, said Fred Brooks, publicity chairman.
