Filing Deadline

Deadline for filing for several ASB positions is 3 p.m. today in the Student Union, 315 S. Ninth St., ASB Pres. Rich Hill announced yesterday.

Positions available are Rally Committee Chairman, ASB Recording Secretary, and Fairness Committee members.

Alexander To Resign As Court Head Today

Jerry Alexander will resign as chief justice of the Student Court at today's ASB Council meeting, he said yesterday.

Alexander resigned the post earlier in the semester when he found class time conflicts next semester. But the council asked him to stay on until after Christmas recess.

No successor has been named yet. Two prospects recommended by Alexander have declined nomination. Other students have expressed interest, however.

Alexander was largely responsible for establishing a new set of court procedures for the campus legal body. He was the center of controversy when he battled other court justices to pass the procedures.

Before Alexander leaves, he will complete a review of the new procedures and their effectiveness in cases handled by the court this semester. The court began a discussion of the review at yesterday's regular meeting.

He said he also would meet with the court's attorneys-at-large for further orientation discussions and to fully explain the procedures.

COP's Bell 'Returned' To Spartans

By DOUG WILLIAMS

The "Victory Bell," trophy awarded annually to the winner of the San Jose State-College of Pacific football game, was "returned" to the SJS campus before Christmas vacation after a seven-year absence. ((SJS lost the game this year.)

Eight SJS students, members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, pulled the "caper" off after several days of careful planning, according to Bren Ferguson of SAE.

Ferguson stated that the group even went as far as sending three men to Stockton posing as potential rushers to enter the Alpha Eta Kappa fraternity house where the bell was kept.

The actual "procuring" of the bell took place late on the evening of Dec. 17. The SJS men left a parody on the poem, "The Night Before Christmas" in place of the bell, and a check for $10 to cover any damages caused by the taking of the bell.

SAE president Jack Ghielmetti said that before the event school officials were told of the plan to be sure there would be no violation of the "peace pact" between the two schools.

Ghielmetti also stated that he has since been in contact with the president of the COP fraternity and that no hard feelings exist between the two groups.

"In fact they will be our guests at a party after the San Jose-COP basketball game here Friday," he said.

Yell Tryouts Tomorrow

The first workshop for students trying out for song girl and yell leader will be held tomorrow night in the Women's Gym from 7 to 9, sponsored by the Rally Committee.

A second workshop will be held Thursday, Jan. 14, at the Gym from 7 to 9 p.m. Applications for song girl and yell leader positions will be available at the workshops.

Sandi Ashabranner has been selected head song girl and Steve Havis was named head yell leader, the Rally Committee executive council has announced.

The workshops precede the preliminary elections which are set for Feb. 10. Students may vote in the preliminary election, but the final selection will be made by the Rally Committee at tryouts Feb. 11.

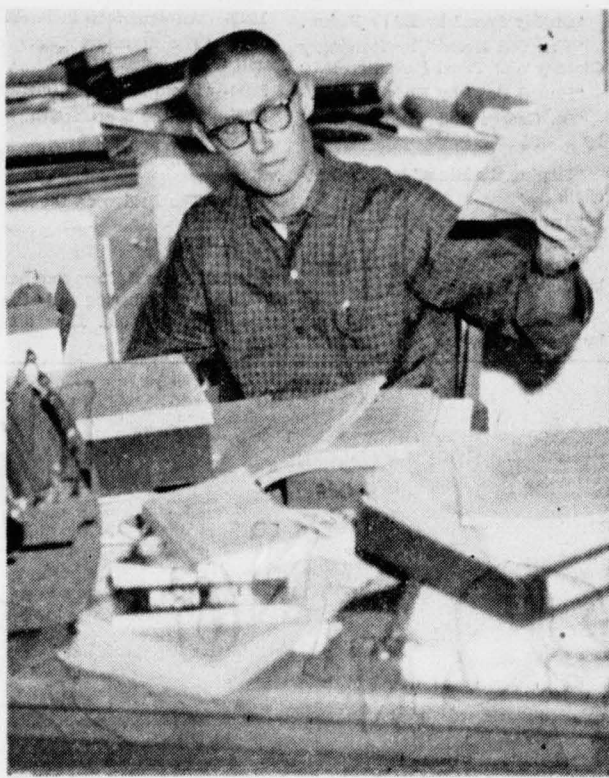

Chairman for AWS 'Melodies' Needed

Applications opened today for AWS March Melodies chairman. The event is scheduled to be held March 16. Women students may make application in Adm242 until Tuesday at 4 p.m.

Applications will be interviewed at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday for the chairmanship.

Women's living groups planning to enter the annual musical contest may sign up between Jan. 12 and Jan. 22.

Moving Day

—Bob Christman

ASB Pres. Rich Hill wonders when the job will be over as he takes a breather while moving into his new office in the temporary Student Activities Building. Hill's office was a kitchen in the former apartment house at 315 S. Ninth St. The new union will be open for student use "in about a week," Hill said.

New Temporary SU To Open in a Week

By PETER WALLS

Although students will be able to use the new temporary Student Activities Building in approximately a week, final completion of the renovation project will probably take another 30 days, William Felse, Student Affairs business manager said yesterday.

Moving activity continues this week as student government officials settle into new quarters. The new building, room and bedroom, in the rear of the building, are small compared to the old union facilities.

A telephone booth, mail boxes, more rugs and other items must be added before the job is finished, Mr. Felse said.

ASB Pres. Rich Hill now sits behind his desk in a kitchen, and Vice Pres. Guy Gleason has his office in a former large walk-in closet and dressing room.

Runoff Election

A runoff election between Bill Gilbreth and Roger Johnson for the senior representative post has been scheduled for Friday.

Gilbreth and Johnson tied in the voting for the post in the December ASB elections, held shortly before Christmas recess.

Reason for the short notice runoff is the need for a senior representative in council meetings next week, Jerry Alexander, in charge of elections, said yesterday.

Spartacamp To Pre-Reg

Organizations planning to send representatives to Spartacamp may pre-register their representatives this week.

The representative may sign up by submitting a form signed by the organization's president or advisor, to the Student Affairs Business Office, TH16.

The registration fee of $10, which includes lodging, food, training materials and transportation, is to be paid at this time, stated Don Brown, Spartacamp director.

The regular registration period is Monday through Friday next week.

SJS's leadership training camp will be held this year at Asilomar Conference Grounds, Monterey, March 19-20.

Brown said that in the past some groups have found it impossible to register their representative at the regular time.

Fifth SJS Auto Death

Yell Leader Dick Duran Dies in Sports Car Crash

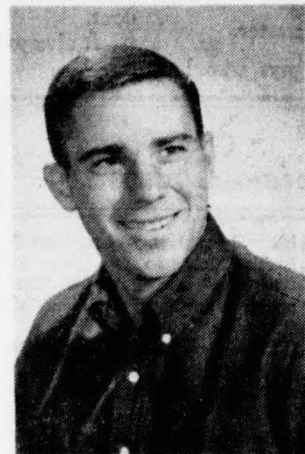

The Christmas weekend auto death of yell leader John D. (Dick) Duran was the fifth SJS faculty, staff and student accident fatality since Sept. 14.

Duran, 18, and his coed companion were killed at about 1:30 a.m. Dec. 28 on Grant road near Mountain View.

Duran's sports car crashed into the rear of another sports car, careened across the dividing line and collided head-on with a convertible.

Duran was crushed in the wreckage of the small car. His companion, Sonia M. Anderson, 19, was thrown to the pavement by the impact. Both were dead on arrival at County Hospital.

The couple was driving home after a holiday party.

DICK DURAN

Duran was a member of Spartan Shields and Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity. A sophomore from Cupertino, he had been an SJS yell leader and was recently appointed by the Rally Committee to the position of head yell leader for the coming year. However, the appointment had not been approved by the Student Council before the accident.

Miss Anderson was home for the holidays from Colorado Women's College, Denver.

High speed and "following too close" were blamed for the crash by the Highway Patrol. Drivers of the other autos were not seriously injured.

Duran's father is a building contractor. Miss Anderson is the daughter of a Mountain View physician.

Reception On Jan. 24

The first president's reception for graduates will be held for fall semester graduates in the Cafeteria on Sunday, Jan. 24, from 2 to 5 p.m.

Pres. and Mrs. John T. Wahlquist have invited approximately 500 seniors and master's degree candidates to the reception. Parents, husband or wife, or close friends of the graduates also have been invited.

Ralph R. Cummings, dean of admissions and records, and chairman of the Commencement Committee, said the division heads, department heads and administration personnel have been invited to the reception. Members of Black Masque honor society will be hostesses.

The president's reception will be a regular event for graduates each semester, Dr. Cummings said. A reception is planned for spring graduates but the date has not been set.

Korean Vet Form Deadline Today

Today is the last day to sign December attendance forms for veterans attending school under the Korean G.I. Bill, P.L. 550, Miss Mary Simons, veterans counselor said yesterday.

Forms may be filled out from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. and from 1 to 5 p.m. in Adm103. Late forms will result in a delay in the delivery of the check.

Shaw's Play 'Candida' On Friday

By JERRY NACHMAN

"I write plays with the deliberate object of converting the nation to my opinions," humbly wrote George Bernard Shaw in the preface of one of his plays.

"Candida" to be presented in the Studio Theater Friday and Saturday nights, may not have changed a nation by its way of thinking, but it did cause a major upheaval concerning the rights of women.

The play, written by Shaw in 1895, will be presented in arena style with the audience surrounding the playing arena on three sides.

Directed by Dr. Paul Davee, associate professor of drama, "Candida" includes the following in its six-member cast:

As "Candida" is Cheryl Del Biaggio (seen in "Mr. Pim Passes By" last semester); as the "Rev. James Morell," her husband, is Richard Rossom (seen in "She Stoops to Conquer"); as "Eugene Marchbanks," a young poet who falls in love with Candida, is John Higgins; as the "Rev. Alexander Mill" is Richard Parks (seen in "She Stoops to Conquer"); as "Miss Prosperine Garnett" is Lois Haight; and Lyod Kearns plays "Mr. Burgess."

The play begins at 8:15 p.m., and will continue its run Jan. 12 through 16, following this weekend's performances.

ASB Council Meets Today In New Union

Student Council will convene for the first time today in new, if somewhat cramped chambers at the temporary Student Activities Building at 315 S. Ninth St.

The bang of ASB Pres. Rich Hill's gavel won't ring through the room with as sharp a crack as it did in the old Student Union. The room just isn't big enough.

Topping the agenda will be Hill's report to fellow council members on just what facilities are offered in the newly-renovated apartment building.

Also slated for discussion is the need for a new recording secretary to replace Becky Fudge who said she would leave the post as soon as a replacement can be found. The council also needs a chairman for the Rally Committee.

This year's recognition banquet in May requires a committee of nine members to plan all activities, Hill said yesterday.

Confab Talk At Y Tonight

Ten delegates from the Spartan Y who attended the regional Y conference at Asilomar during Christmas vacation will report on the meet at 7:30 tonight at the Spartan Y.

The speakers and subjects are: Sandra Goulart, Malcolm Stebbins and Joseph Stroud, "Creative Rebellion"; Brian Paddock and Bob Keck, "Decision Making in the 20th Century"; Bob Clapp and Rod Repke, "Science with a Conscience"; Kathy Larson and Bill Pounds, "World Awareness"; and Ed Adams, "Sex, Love and Marriage."

WEST BERLIN ARRESTS 13 NAZI SUSPECTS

BERLIN (UPI)—The West Berlin city government yesterday arrested 13 suspected neo-Nazis and decided to outlaw extreme nationalist groups in a move to wipe out an anti-semitic underground.

The Berlin police action, toughest crackdown yet against a wave of anti-semitic outbreaks in West Germany and other sections of Western Europe, came even as new incidents were reported. A swastika and a "Jews get out" sign were painted on a wall. A swastika flag was found in a playground. A five-mark coin was defaced with swastikas.

IKE TO VISIT SOUTH AMERICA

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Plans are virtually complete today for President Eisenhower to make a flying good will tour of four South American countries from Feb. 21 to about March 4. Diplomatic sources told United Press International that the White House Monday night delivered final details of the trip to the embassies of the four countries—Brazil, Argentina, Chile and Uruguay.

CHARGE FRENCH MISTREAT ALGERIANS

PARIS (UPI)—Red Cross inspectors found last fall that Arabs still were being tortured or otherwise mistreated in French prison camps in Algeria, although conditions in general have improved, it was reported yesterday. The newspaper Le Monde said a four-man committee sent to Algeria by the International Red Cross reported overall improvement since December, 1958, but said "profound changes" still are needed.

MACMILLAN FLIES TO AFRICA

LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan embarked last night on a 20,000-mile, month-long tour of an Africa swept by the problems of nationalism, racial trouble, and the clamor for independence.

Aged Student Union Gets Axe

Workmen yesterday began ripping the insides out of the old Student Union building, which is being razed for a million dollar addition to the Library.

By mid-afternoon they had torn off the oak paneling, revealing the 1902 brick structure, broken out the skylight in the main hall, and had torn up pipe in what was once the basement "Coop."

The six-story library addition will contain reading rooms, offices, and new bookstacks.

Contracts for the addition were awarded during Christmas vacation.

They are: general work, $1,148,000, M & K Corp., San Francisco; electrical work, $189,649, Rosendin Electric, San Jose; and mechanical work, $341,404, Schlegel Plumbing Contractors, Menlo Park.

'Odyssey' Set For Book Talk Review Today

A great 20th century epic poem, "The Odyssey" by K. Kazantzakis, will be reviewed by Dr. E. P. Panagopoulos, associate professor of history, at today's book talk.

The book, published last year, is one of the greatest poems of the century not only in length and content but poetic structure as well, according to Dr. Panagopoulos.

"Kazantzakis' 'Odyssey' is a sequel to the Odyssey written by Homer, but it is not exactly the same story," stated the history professor. "The Ulysses in Homer's version strives to, and finally does, arrive at the island kingdom of Ithaca, whereas the Ulysses in Kazantzakis' epic starts a new journey."

Although Kazantzakis' Ulysses experiences sensual pleasures in his journey, he, unlike the Ulysses of other authors, is looking for spiritual contentment.

"Kazantzakis' Ulysses has contemporary problems much as has the modern man and he seeks to find God and discover what makes life worthwhile when there is so much misery, injustice, sickness and death," stated the professor.

The book talk session will be held at 12:30 p.m. in Cafeteria rooms A and B. Those attending are invited to bring their lunches.

City Plans Started For UC Branch

The city of San Jose has already begun a master zoning plan for a proposed University of California branch in Santa Clara County.

UC's Board of Regents pinpointed Almaden, just 10 miles south-east of San Jose, as its first choice for a branch. An alternate site is Evergreen, about eight miles east of the city.

The university branch is planned for an ultimate student body of 5,000.

The master plan to "assure essential housing and community services" for the branch was one of the board's conditions when it held its site choices late in November. There must be "full community support" for the branch, the board stated.

Co-Rec Singers

The Dullskulls, popular campus singing group, will be featured at tonight's Co-Rec, 7:30 to 10 in the Women's Gym.

There will be refreshments, games, sports and dancing in addition to the special attraction.

It's Temporary Only

Students aren't likely to forget that the new Student Union building, nearly completed at 315 S. Ninth St., is only temporary.

It is a good looking colonial style building and work crews have done a bangup job in getting it ready for use.

But it just isn't big enough and it is too spread out. The Student Council "chambers" aren't big enough for spectators. The Student Court executive office is barely big enough for all the justices to get in and talk things over.

Lounge areas have been set up in various apartments. They're well equipped but it won't take many people to make a crowd.

Dances over there are out of the question.

Officials have said the building will not be in use more than four years—we hope it doesn't take any longer than that to get the new Student Activities building—scheduled to be built near the cafeteria—under construction. —J.H.A.

Here are some dates you'll want to mark on your calendar of future events:

Tonight at 8:30 French-born pianist Philippe Entremont will appear with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra at the Memorial Opera House. The pianist, still in his mid-twenties, will perform Jolivet's "Concerto for Piano and Orchestra" and Franck's "Symphonic Variations for Piano and Orchestra."

Tomorrow night at 7 the San Jose Municipal Chorus will give auditions for membership. The Chorus which will take part in San Jose's "Charter Year" celebration May 2, celebrating the 110th anniversary of the city's incorporation. Chorus headquarters are at 1166 Martin Ave.

Friday, Italian Master Drawings from the Achenbach Foundation for Graphic Arts will go on display in the SJS art gallery.

Saturday and Sunday the Folk Dance Federation Festival will be held in San Jose's Civic Auditorium. Dr. John Britz, assistant professor of English, will direct the Kolo Hour from 7 to 8 p.m. Saturday. It will be preceded by a Dancers' Institute from 1 to 5:30 p.m.; and will be followed by a Pre-Festival Party from 8 to midnight. Sunday's program will be from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. All events will be free and open to the public. Approximately 2000 folk dancers from all over Northern California are expected.

Do You Remember Best of the Decade?

United Press International reports from New York that the 13 most popular records of the 1950s were:

Theme from "Three Penny Opera" by Dick Hyman Trio.
"Song from Moulin Rouge" by Felicia Sanders.

"Ballad of David Crockett" by Richard Hayes.

"Oh My Papa" by Eddie Fisher.
"This Old House" by Rosemary Clooney and Thurl Ravenscroft.

"Hound Dog" by Elvis Presley.
"St. George and the Dragonet" by Stan Freberg.

"Singing the Blues" by Guy Mitchell.
"Autumn Leaves" by Roger Williams.

"Around the World in 80 Days" by Victor Young.

"Til I Waltz Again With You" by Teresa Brewer.

"Unchained Melody" by Roy Hamilton.
"Doggie in the Window" by Georgia Gibbs.

From Hollywood, UPI lists the Oscar-winning movies of the decade:

1950—"All the King's Men."
1951—"All About Eve."
1952—"An American in Paris."
1953—"The Greatest Show on Earth."

1954—"From Here to Eternity."
1955—"On the Waterfront."
1956—"Marty."
1957—"Around the World in 80 Days."

1958—"The Bridge on the River Kwai."
1959—"Gigi."

Spartan Daily staffers commented that remembering all these made them feel old. How about you?

Grapplers Tiff Tonight In Opener

San Jose State College varsity wrestlers will open the 1960 dual meet wrestling campaign against Adams State College of Colorado tonight at 7:30 in the wrestling room of the Men's Gym.

Thus far in the young mat season the Spartans placed eight men in the 13th annual Pacific Association AAU Novice Wrestling tournament, including three champions. In the Spartans' only other outing, they took a third place in the third annual SJS Open Wrestling Tournament.

Mat coach Hugh Mumby has named the following tentative lineup for the meet: 130 lbs., Dave Nevis or Bob Lopez; 137 lbs., Dick Alderson; 147 lbs., L. D. Bennett; 157 lbs., Jerry Nelson; 167 lbs., Fred Yrueta; 177 lbs., Bernie Slate; heavyweight, George Hewitt.

General admission for the event is $1, with students being admitted for 50 cents.

State Seeks Swim Crown

AAU qualifier Tom Macedo and versatile Bob Wegman figure to lead San Jose State to a possible second consecutive California State College championship, according to swim coach Tom O'Neill.

Macedo returns to Sparta after a semester with the now defunct Houston College team. He placed fourth in the AAU indoor tourney held last year at Yale. With his added weight lifting exercises, Macedo is very capable of catching Frank McKimney, America's fastest backstroke and a junior at Indiana.

Wegman can swim the backstroke, sprints, butterfly and the individual medley with the best in California and he will be depended upon in most of the meets to snare valuable points for the finmen.

Sophomore Ross Berry has a padlock on the first position in the middle distances. As a freshman, he broke both existing varsity 220 and 440 clockings.

Both Macedo and Berry are in fine shape as they have been working out steadily since fall.

Spartan Sports Hoopmen's Best Game Beats Gators, 81-59

A torrid shooting exhibition which saw the Spartan cagers hit a sizzling 48 per cent carried the local five to a one-sided 81-59 triumph over San Francisco State at the Gator gym last night.

The win was the Spartans' third against eight losses, and snapped a five game losing streak. It also marked the second straight win over the Gators (San Jose dumped the S.F.'ers 54-41 in the season opener.)

In the first few minutes of play the lead changed hands several times but the McPhersons went ahead to stay at 18-17 when pesky Joe McGrath tanked a free throw with nine minutes left in the half.

After Gator star Jim Caranica tallied with a three-point play to make it 24-21, SJS favor, the Spartans reeled off 11 straight points to turn it into a 35-21 breeze with four minutes to go.

In this surge, forward Vic Corl burned the hoop with four 20-ft. jumpers, and at the intermission the 6'2" sophomore had 15 points and his mates possessed a cool 45-29 margin.

In the final half, the Spartans continued their fine shooting with center Dennis Marc and reserve guard Freddie Mitchell doing most of the damage.

The bench closed out the game more than holding their own against the hapless Gators, as the Spartans posted a 22 point margin at the buzzer.

Corl led all scorers with 20 points closely followed by the Gators' Bill Purcell and Jim Taranica with 17 apiece. Marc and McGrath each hit 12 for the locals.

NCAA Grid Rule Change Is Debated

Two propped grid changes for this year, now being debated by an NCAA rules' committee, could change the collegiate picture if adopted.

Freer substitutions leading to the present pro set-up of two platooning and the restoration of the goal posts to the goal line have been the topic of discussion by Chairman Lou Little's committee of 25 with opinions voiced on both sides of the question.

Earlier it was opined that the majority of college coaches would favor such a move.

Last year it was proposed that the goal posts be set up on the goal line but the rule makers bypassed this suggestion in favor of the wider goal posts.

Many conservative coaches have warned that such a move toward an ultimate adoption of "pro" rules would be taking the game away from the players by the use of unlimited substitutions.

During the recent East-West game in San Francisco, which was played under existing pro rules, this point couldn't have been illustrated any better. Hugh Duffy Daugherty, coaching the East all-stars, falling behind during the first half of the game, shuttled his tackles between every play for almost the entire game.

Under the pro setup, Sid Gilman, resigned head coach of the Los Angeles Rams, and Paul Brown of the Browns called all of the offensive plays from the bench, but most of the pro coaches left the signal-calling up to their quarterbacks.

In college the picture is different. College quarterbacks are apt to make many more mistakes than a seasoned pro would and some coaches would be more apt to call the plays on the basis of experience, thus eliminating the competitive spirit between rival college quarterbacks.

DON'T KNOCK THE ROCK
SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UPI)—Notre Dame football teams coached by the great Knute Rockne from 1918 until his death in 1930 won 105 games and lost only 12 with five ties—a winning percentage of .898.

STATION WAGON SET
NEW YORK (UPI)—Station wagon sales have been steadily increasing with our growing suburbia, and some industry forecasts are that 25 per cent of all passenger car sales within three years will be station wagons. The vehicle accounted for only a fraction of the auto market a decade ago.

Holidays Rough On State Quint

Coach Walt McPherson didn't receive Christmas gifts via the victory route as his Spartan cagers dropped five holiday decisions, three at the WCAC Tournament and a pair to Oregon's Ducks at Eugene.

In their first game with Oregon the locals managed to hold Oregon's high-scoring pivot Glenn Moore to his worst offensive performance of the season but dropped the first tilt, 56-41.

They couldn't hold Moore the following night, as the tall Oregonian pumped in 20 points to grab a 58-45 win.

LOYOLA SURPRISES

Loyola University's surprising Lions, definitely establishing themselves as contenders for the WCAC crown, swept through three opponents, including upset victories over COP and Santa Clara, to win the WCAC Tournament held at USF's Memorial Gymnasium during the last week of 1959.

To the surprise of no one, the Spartans, exhibiting their inexperience, dropped their trio of tourney battles to take last in the eight-team program.

In their first contest, the locals fought a nip-and-tuck battle with host USF before falling short by three, 51-48, at the final buzzer.

The two teams, as of now considered the WCAC's doormats, displayed several sophomores and were evenly matched through the contest. At the half it was 26-26.

ANOTHER TOUGHIE

Facing the COP Tigers and their 1959 NCAA rebound leader, center Leroy Wright, the San Jose quintet fought another close battle before bowing 61-56 in second round play.

Wright led all scorers with 20 while his center counterpart, Dennis Marc took San Jose laurels with 15. Vic Corl and Tiger forward Ken Stanley were next with 14 apiece.

A tidal wave in the form of Bob Sims, who scored 31 points to break Fred LaConr's gymnasium record of 30, carried the Pepperdine Waves to a one-sided 84-60 triumph over the Spartans in final round play.

Bob Dowell's Waves bucketed their first seven shots from the floor without a miss and midway into the first half they held an impressive 25-8 lead.

Continuing their sizzling scoring pace throughout the period, the Peps hung up a 47-21 halftime edge as the locals couldn't muster much of an attack.

SPARTANS REBOUND
Although the Spartans outscored the Waves in final half action, thanks to a 13-point half on the part of Corl, the Peps still burned the nets with an excellent 40 per cent to maintain a healthy lead and wind it up at 84-60.

Sims reigned supreme in the scoring department. Corl was a distant second with 17, Forbes potted 14, while the Spartans'

Gary Ryan and Waves' Bobby Blue followed with 13.

The tourney's most potent offensive unit was Pepperdine with a 71 point average while champion Loyola claimed the best defense, giving up 54 points a game.

Office Urges January Graduates To Check Approaching Deadlines

January graduates should start making a final check now for unfinished items required for graduation, reported Mrs. Dorothy Lanini, handling graduation information in the registration office.

The first approaching deadline is Friday, Jan. 22, for clearing all unpaid fees due the college. These include library fines, diploma fees, chemistry breakage, and similar expenses. The diploma will be held if these fees are not paid prior to Jan. 22.

Beginning Monday, Jan. 25, caps and gowns may be picked up at the Spartan Book Store. Bachelor's regalia will rent for $3 plus a $2 deposit ($5); Master's, for $6.50 plus a $2 deposit ($8.50). Deposits will be returned when caps and gowns are turned in immediately after the ceremony at the same time the diploma is picked up.

Graduation announcements and class rings are available or can be ordered at the campus book store.

In addition to requirements, alumni may, upon graduation, join the Alumni Association of SJS. "An outstanding opportunity for Spartan Alumni to remain in a part of college activities and to keep informed on campus happenings," asserted Dr. Ralph R. Cummings, associate dean of admissions and records.

Commencement exercises will be held in the Civic Auditorium on Friday, Jan. 29, at 2:30 p.m.

"We are asking all of the graduating class to pick up the special detailed instructions necessary for the exercises here at one of the windows in the registrar's office (Adm102)," reported Mrs. Lanini.

Birth Rate: Talk Topic

"Population Growth—The Human Time Bomb" will be the topic of a talk by Dr. Carl D. Duncan, professor of entomology and sciences education and chairman of the natural sciences area, Tuesday, Jan. 12 at 10:30 a.m., in S112.

Dr. Duncan received his education at Stanford University. He has served as chairman of the California subcommittee on Conservation Education. He wrote the report on which the State Department of Natural Resources has based its educational program.

The professor has written for many biological and educational publications and is a consultant for the Encyclopedia Britannica on a series of science film strips for elementary schools.

The lecture is being sponsored by the College Lecture Committee.

Four SJS Depts. Get New Names

Names of four of the 45 academic departments at San Jose State have been changed, according to an announcement made by Dean of the College John W. Gilbaugh. The changes are effective immediately.

The modern language department will be called the foreign language department. The sociology and social work department will become the sociology and anthropology department.

The two physical education departments will now be known as the physical education department for men and the physical education department for women.

They have been called the men's physical education and the women's physical education departments.

Awards Banquet Tickets on Sale

Tickets went on sale yesterday in the patio of the Women's Gym for the annual Women's Athletic Association's (WAA) Awards Banquet.

The banquet will be held Wednesday in the faculty dining room of the Cafeteria and the ticket sale will continue through Tuesday. Ticket price is $2.50 each.

All WAA members are urged to attend the event, according to Ede Cooper, banquet chairman. Dress for the affair will be dressy sport.

CSTA Topic Tomorrow: Languages

A representative from the San Jose Unified School District will speak at a meeting of the California Student Teachers Assn. tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in S142.

Mrs. Mildred Meckfessel, a supervisor and teacher in the San Jose secondary school system, will speak on "Foreign Languages in the Public Schools."

The CSTA executive board will meet at 7 p.m. with the business meeting open to all members.

Co-Rec To Survey For Future Need

A student survey to determine future needs for the weekly Co-Rec programs is being made on campus this week and next.

The students who plan and organize the weekly events will be interviewing other students about ways of improving Co-Rec, according to Bob Peterson, ATO representative.

"This semester Co-Rec has been very successful," Peterson said. "We've averaged more than 200 students each Wednesday night."

But the survey is intended to determine how to widen the scope of Co-Rec activities and boost attendance even more, he said.

Sponsored by the Student Activities Committee, Co-Rec is held every Wednesday night from 7:30 to 10 in the Women's Gym.

Features of the current Co-Rec programs are dancing, volleyball, badminton, four square, card games, ping pong and campus talent.

College professor warns: College cheating is an American disgrace!

Why is cheating an accepted practice in many of our colleges today? What can we do to stop this scandalous habit? In this week's Saturday Evening Post, a college professor reports:

- about the ingenious ways students cheat.
- how one college official admits "I out of 3 students cheats rather regularly."
- why many professors know what's going on—but do nothing to stop it.

Be sure to read the explosive report on our "American Disgrace: College Cheating" — in this week's Post.

"LITTLE STORIES WITH BIG MORALS" First Little Story

Once upon a time a German exchange student from old Heidelberg came to an American university. He lived in the dormitory of the great American university. He was a decent young man and all the other young men in the dormitory of the great American university tried very hard to be friends with him, but, unfortunately, he was so shy that he refused all their invitations to join their bull sessions. After while his dormitory mates got tired of asking him and so poor German exchange student, alas, spent every evening alone in his room.

One night while sitting all alone in his room, he smelled most delicious aroma coming from the room next door. Curious his shyness, he walked to the room next door and there he saw a bunch of his dormitory mates sitting around and cussing literature, art, culture, and like that. They were smoking Marlboro cigarettes, which accounts for the delicious aroma smelled by the German exchange student.

Timidly, he entered the room. "Excuse me," he said, "what is that marvelous smell I smell?"

"It's our good Marlboro cigarettes," cried the men, who named Fun-loving Ned, Happy Harry, Jolly Jim, and Toll David.

So the German exchange student took a Marlboro and enjoyed those better makin's, that finer filter, that smooth, he loved, and soon he was comfortable and easy and lost shyness.

From that night forward, whenever he smelled the good smell of Marlboro cigarettes, he always went next door and joined the bull session.

MORAL: WHERE THERE'S SMOKE, THERE'S MEAT

Second Little Story
Once upon a time there was an Indian brave named Walter Muskrat who had a squaw named Margaret Giggling. Margaret was sort of a mess but she sure could make beautiful moccasins. Every day she whipped up a brand-new pair beaded moccasins for Walter, which were so gorgeous that the Indian maids on the reservation grew giddy with admiration.

Well, sir, Margaret got pretty tense about all the girls' moccasins at Walter and one night they had a terrible quarrel. Walter flew into a rage and slapped her on the wrist, whereupon she started crying like all get-out and went home to her mother and never came back.

"Good riddance!" said Walter, but alas, he soon found how wrong he was, for the Indian maids were not really interested in him, only in his moccasins, and when he stopped showing up with a new pair every day they quickly gave the yo-heave-ho. Today he is a broken man, sitting all alone his tepee and muttering ancient Ute curses.

MORAL: DON'T FIGHT THE HAND THAT BEATS YOU

Third Little Story
Once there was a lion which was a very quiet lion. In fact, only time it ever made a sound was when it had a toothache.

MORAL: WHEN IT PAINS, IT ROARS

The makers of Marlboro would like to point a moral. Nothing ventured, nothing gained. Try a pack of Marlboro or Marlboro's sister cigarettes—Philip Morris and Altria—and gain yourself a heap of pleasure.
