Film on Sea Ends Series On Wildlife

"Secrets of the Sea" will be revealed in words and on film by a Canadian naturalist tonight in the last Audubon screen tour for this year.

Dr. G. Clifford Carl, director of the Provincial museum in Victoria, British Columbia, will narrate his color film in Morris Dailey auditorium at 8 p.m. Admission is 90 cents, with a special student price at 50 cents.

EXPLORES PACIFIC COAST

In the film, Dr. Carl explores the coastal waters of the Pacific Northwest. He has captured on film the animals, seas and shores from the rocky beaches of Vancouver island to the Pribilof islands of Alaska.

Dr. Carl has been the director of the Provincial museum since 1942, following a period of research with the Fisheries Research Board of Canada. He studied at the University of British Columbia and the University of Toronto, where he obtained his Ph.D.

EXTENSIVE TRAVELLER

The producer-narrator of tonight's Audubon presentation has travelled widely and lectured extensively in his field of marine biology. He is the author of numerous scientific and popular articles and has contributed regularly to a weekly newspaper column and a radio program.

Audubon screen tours are featured in 200 selected cities throughout the U.S. "Secrets of the Sea" is the fifth and last screen tour at SJS until next fall. Screen tours are sponsored by the Santa Clara valley Audubon society in cooperation with the Science Education department.

Campus TV Station To Telecast Special Extended Day Schedule

Tomorrow is a special day for KOED-TV, campus closed circuit television station.

Members of the group studying television production are planning a special extended schedule, including a cha-cha instruction show, a puppet show, an afternoon movie with campus interviews and a variety show.

Bob Schneider, producer-manager for the entire production, announced the following schedule: 3:15-3:45—Music from SD117. 3:45-4—House of Leon—instruction in the cha-cha. Director, Bob George; Instructor, Bick Goss. 4-4:30—Great Life (Network show).

4:30-4:45—Pantomime Puppets—Director, Nick Gialotto; Puppeteer, Dick Reed.

4:45-5:45—Afternoon movie with interviews. Emcee, George Yanok; Director, Doug Coleman.

5:45-6—Channel 11 News.

6-6:15—Record Hop (network show).

6:15-6:30—Huntley-Brinkley Report (network show).

6:30-7—Record Hop.

7-7:30—Variety show—with KSJO disc jockey Lee Kopp and Bill Munday. Director, Chuck Montgomery.

7:30—Sign-off.

The production will be telecast to sets in the KOED studios in the Speech and Drama building.

Other members of the staff for the show include Coleman, production assistant; Jan Moellering, traffic; Gail Melton, continuity; Dave Shaver, film; Gerald French, publicity; and Phil Bender, Facilities manager.

Son of Edgar Cayce To Speak Tomorrow

Hugh Lynn Cayce, son of the late Edgar Cayce, noted psychic, will speak in the Faculty Dining room of the cafeteria tomorrow at 3:30 p.m. under the auspices of the Spartan Y.

Mr. Cayce will talk on "Physical Phenomenon: Fact, Fraud or Fiction?" Dr. Frederick C. Dommeyer, head of the Philosophy department will discuss this topic with Mr. Cayce.

His talk will touch on the areas of hypnosis, clairvoyance, telepathy, and the scientific research into this area of extra-sensory perception.

MANAGES FIRM

Having been manager of the Association for Research and Enlightenment, inc. for the past fourteen years, Mr. Cayce has become widely known as an investigator of psychic phenomena and as a lecturer. He is an authority on the psychic readings of his father, and adds to his knowledge of psychology through readings pertaining to the nature and mind of man.

Mr. Cayce received his education at Washington and Lee university, and holds an A.B. degree in psychology.

PLANS SEVERAL TALKS

Last night Mr. Cayce addressed a group at the Saratoga Federated Church on "Therapy through Prayer and Meditation", and speaks today at 8 p.m. to the Santa Cruz Women's club house on "Doorways to the Unconscious." He also is speaking this afternoon at 2 p.m. at Hattie Porter hall on "The Power of Prayer."

After tomorrow's lecture Mr. Cayce will continue his lecture tour, speaking at the Congregational Church of Belmont Wednesday at 3 p.m.

From this area he will travel to Seattle, Wash. and Portland Ore.

Dean Benz To Dedicate New Building

Dedication ceremonies for the new Health building at Ninth and San Carlos sts. will be held Sunday, April 3, with Stanley C. Benz, dean of students, as master of ceremonies.

The exercises will be held in the lobby of the $1,176,300 building.

The Rev. William Jonas, Spartan Y executive director will offer the invocation. Pres. John T. Wahlquist will present the building to Rich Hill, ASB president, who will accept it in the name of the students.

Loans, Scholarships Offered to Students

New scholarships and a new loan are available to students, Robert Ryan, assistant to the dean of students, announced Friday. Students can apply in Adm269.

MEMORIAL FUND

The Elizabeth Pitman Coyne Memorial fund is available to students on a short term basis. Funds for it were donated by friends of Mrs. Coyne and her father, Dean Pitman, who was dean of men from 1939 to 1950. He left SJS to assume the presidency of the College of Idaho and is presently dean of students at Coalinga junior college.

Mrs. Coyne received her B.A. in music from SJS in 1952 and died in January. She was 30 years old.

Contributions to the fund may be made in the office of the Dean of Students, Mr. Ryan said.

Students presently engaged in student teaching may apply for a $100 scholarship being given by the Sunnyvale Teachers Assn. Two scholarships are awarded annually by the group.

TEACHERS ELIGIBLE

To be eligible, students must be a graduate of one of the high schools in the Fremont-Union high school district and presently engaged in student teaching.

Deadline to apply for this scholarship is March 25.

Entrance Requirements To Increase in Fall

All students expecting to enroll in state colleges next fall will have to meet matriculation requirements. All part-time students, even those enrolled for one class, must furnish transcripts or other evidence of previous college level work before they will be accepted.

Matriculation is defined as the formal process of admission to college and universities. It usually applies to students working toward a degree. Under the new ruling, students not working toward a degree will be required to matriculate also.

The major exceptions to this new rule passed by the state board of education last February, are summer sessions and extension courses. Those students auditing classes or otherwise not receiving credit also are exempted.

Dr. Ralph R. Cummings, associate dean of students, admission and records announced that students will be permitted to sign an affidavit with respect to the possession of a degree or credential. This affidavit, however, will be good for only one semester.

Approved Housing Ruling Goes Into Effect Next Fall

By TRACY GODFREY

Effective next fall, all unmarried students under 21 who are registered as full-time students and not living with a parent or guardian will be required to reside in college-approved housing, Dean of Students Stanley C. Benz announced Thursday.

Under terms of the Parietal Rule, passed by the state legislature in 1958, all state college presidents were given authority to require approved housing for minor students if they felt it desirable to do so.

Pres. John T. Wahlquist, after more than a year of study and thought on the matter, invoked the housing rule, effective Sept. 15.

LIMITED USE THIS SEMESTER

The plan was put into limited use this semester when all freshmen were required to reside in approved residences. There had been speculation this would be the extent of the ruling. However, Dr. Benz' announcement made clear the administration's decision.

There may be unusual situations when a student may be exempted from this requirement, however, Robert Baron, housing coordinator, disclosed there may be exemptions made to students having valid reasons for not wanting to live in approved housing. These will be rare, however, he said.

Mr. Baron went on to say that the approved householders are cooperating with the college in order to give the students the best possible living conditions.

GROUP LIVING INVALUABLE

"There is a feeling," Mr. Baron said, "that the experiences gained in group living will be invaluable to the students in later life. The householders feel they can help the students."

"They want to give the student something more than just a place to live. Living centers should become the focal point of out-of-class living. And they will help provide a good social intelligence."

Mr. Baron emphasized the criteria used in judging and approving housing under the new ruling are of the highest caliber. According to him, all persons seeking college approval must: receive a health permit from the city of San Jose; obtain a food handlers card if they provide board; provide adequate supervision; have a single entrance, common to all; and agree to all San Jose state college policy.

HOUSING STATISTICS

"According to our housing statistics, 55 per cent of regularly enrolled students are living in the campus service area," Mr. Baron explained.

"About 60 per cent of our regularly enrolled students reside in the college service area. "With our new resident hall program and off-campus approved living centers it will be possible to house all unmarried minor students in approved housing living accommodations," Mr. Baron added.

At present, there is room for 4200 students in approved houses around the college area. Mr. Baron said he expects another 300 to become available by September 15 when the plan becomes effective.

WOMEN'S HALLS FULL

According to figures from the Housing coordinator's office, the new residence hall for women is full. The 600-capacity halls have been filled for some time and there is a waiting list of 73 names.

Room is still available in the mens residence hall, however. Only 121 of the 600 vacancies have been applied for.

Mr. Baron reminded all students who know they will be required to use approved housing next September to make reservations as early as possible. Students who come under the ruling and cannot show approved housing may have registration denied them, he added.

Technician Drowns Near Santa Cruz

A San Jose State physics technician drowned Saturday afternoon in waters off Davenport Landing near Santa Cruz while skin diving with five San Jose friends.

Gordon R. Thomas, 37, of Atherton, was pronounced dead after several attempts to revive him had failed.

In the skin diving party was SJS head football coach Bob Titchenal. Mouth to mouth respiration did not revive Mr. Thomas, and 60 minutes of mechanical respiration also failed.

Mr. Thomas was head technician for the SJS natural sciences division. He had no close relatives.

Secretary's Workshop On TV Slated Saturday

The Blossom Valley chapter of the National Secretaries association will hold a workshop at SJS on March 26 using closed-circuit television, according to Miss Dorothy Beegle, associate professor of business.

Miss Beegle is especially interested in the certified professional secretaries program. She will conduct a CPS quiz by flashing questions on the screen.

Prof. Kenneth Coffin, head of the Secretarial Administration department will give shorthand pointers during a demonstration and practice drills.

Dr. Edward P. Shaw, head of the Industrial Relations department, will speak on personal relations.

Yell Post Tryouts

Cheerleader tryouts will be held this afternoon at 3:30 in CH119. Selection will be made by a committee of judges, but students may attend, Steve Havis, head cheerleader, said.

Applications will be available in the College Union until tryouts begin. There are only nine candidates so far, Havis said, and seven cheerleaders must be chosen—four regulars and two alternates.

Prof To Discuss Little Theaters

A discussion of little theaters in the bay area will be given by Dr. Phillip Persky, assistant professor of English, today at 12:30 p.m. in rooms A and B of the cafeteria.

Speaking to the monthly meeting of English majors and faculty members, Dr. Persky will explain the purpose of little theater groups and the amount of their activity.

Dr. Persky is co-president of Theater Bond, a five-year-old service organization which provides quarterly lists of little theater activities in the bay area. He will also discuss the history of Theater Bond.

Idea Comedy To Continue Presentation

Seats continue on sale for "Right You Are," written by Luigi Pirandello, to be presented Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:15 in the College Theater.

Tickets are 50 cents for SJS students and $1 for general admission and may be purchased in the College Theater box office across from the pile driver.

Seats also are available for performances beginning Wednesday, March 30 and running through April 2.

"Right You Are" is a comedy of ideas, with the Italian playwright supporting the contention that one is right if "he thinks so."

Directed by Miss Elizabeth Loeffler, associate professor of drama, "Right You Are" has settings by J. Wendell Johnson, lighting by Kenneth Dorst and costumes by Miss Bernice Prisk.

Bruce Lovelady, Elaine Bartoline and Carolyn Reed are featured in lead roles.

Honorary Group To Hold Debate

Epsilon Eta Sigma, English honor society will hold a forum discussion at 8 p.m. tomorrow on "Education Courses for High School English Teachers," in Room B of the cafeteria.

Professors Eleanor Prosser, Roland Lee, and Robert Schuman will lead the panel discussion.

All English majors are urged to attend.

The meeting is open to all interested faculty and students.

New Housing Rules Will Stop 'High School' Blowouts

Increased housing restrictions reported in this morning's Spartan Daily probably are causing more furor among undergraduate students than any Daily story this semester.

The immediate—and understandable—reaction is one of indignance and intimidation, most likely expressed in terms like "Why should the administration tell ME where to live?" But before becoming overly disturbed it is wise to look behind the rules, and see reasons that, incidentally, seem quite valid.

Students coming to college straight out of high school naturally act just like they did in high school—but three months older. If they gain free reign of an apartment or a room, oftentimes little short city police action will restrain them.

Although there is a substantial part of these incoming students who very well control their new-found freedom, there is no means to separate them from the offenders. Thus, all must be supervised.

Parties involving forbidden beverages, according to the administration, keep a steady flow of irate householders and angry neighbors channeled into the SJS agency for such complaints.

The new housing restrictions will bar the four-to-a-bedroom apartments (at $160 month), and will open 300 other houses that will have passed through the administration's screen.

With the prospect of elimination, then, of corral-type housing, the suppression of high school blowouts, the tightened restrictions look extremely wise and well-planned.

1959 Movies Await Top Oscar Awards

The best movies of 1959 are competing in 25 categories for Hollywood's most coveted prizes—the gold Oscar statuettes which will be presented by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences April 4.

"Ben Hur" leads the list of prospects with 12 nominations, including best picture, the year. "The Diary of Anne Frank" and "The Nun's Story" are second with eight nominations each.

Dramatic productions fill the ranks of movies nominated for the best picture award. "Anatomy of a Murder," "Ben Hur," "The Diary of Anne Frank," "The Nun's Story" and "Room at the Top" are competing for the Oscar.

ACTING NOMINEES

Receiving nominations for best actor and actress are some of the "old timers" in movie acting. Nominees are:

Best Actor: Laurence Harvey, "Room at the Top;" Charlton Heston, "Ben Hur;" Jack Lemmon, "Some Like It Hot;" Paul Muni, "The Last Angry Man;" and James Stewart, "Anatomy of a Murder."

Best Actress: Doris Day, "Pillow Talk;" Audrey Hepburn, "The Nun's Story;" Katharine Hepburn, "Suddenly Last Summer;" Simone Signoret, "Room at the Top;" and Elizabeth Taylor, "Suddenly Last Summer."

SUPPORTING ROLES

The new and the old both are represented in the nominations for the best supporting roles. The nominees are:

Best Supporting Actor: Hugh Griffith, "Ben Hur;" Arthur O'Connell, "Anatomy of a Murder;" Robert Vaughn, "The Young Philadelphians;" and Ed Wynn, "The Diary of Anne Frank."

Best Supporting Actress: Hermione Baddeley, "Room at the Top;" Susan Kohner, "Imitation of Life;" Juanita Moore, "Imitation of Life;" Thelma Ritter, "Pillow Talk;" and Shelley Winters, "The Diary of Anne Frank."

Gerald Nachman, BOY REPORTER

They Blossom Forth

THIS IS the day I am going to say what I have been promising myself I would say ever since two years ago when I spotted my first sample of SJS girlhood coming toward me.

You girls certainly are girls; there is little doubt of that. When I was in high school I remember how I used to get all excited about the magazine ads that had coeds in them.

Quickly, though, I would catch myself and sneer: "Ha! No girls look like that!" I thought it was against the law. But the girls here definitely DO look like THAT.

Those marvelous, cuddly, teddy-bear creatures in the Underwood typewriter and 7-Up ads are not fiction at all. In fact I suspect they use girls from this very campus for models.

WHAT HAS prompted these unnecessary introductory remarks is the recent baring of backs and revealing of shoulders, due to last week's 82 degrees of spring sun.

All this blossoming forth of new areas of the common girl is not at all good for me. It has been a long, hard winter, I want to tell you.

And I do not think it is fair for every single one of these luscious wonderful, luscious girls to go flouncing about in her abbreviated strip-tease—all at the same time.

I have a suggestion. Why don't all you wonderful, luscious girls have a meeting, sort of hash this thing out, and then decide each day which one of you will be the Featured Coed of the Day?

As it is now, you are fighting one another for my attention; and thus far have nearly knocked over three students, a full professor and two workmen.

Marian Anderson To Sing Sunday

Contralto Marian Anderson will appear in her annual music concert at the Opera house in San Francisco at 2:30 p.m. Sunday.

America's high priestess of song, Miss Anderson has been universally acclaimed as a musical artist. She holds honorary degrees from 19 universities and has been decorated by foreign governments.

Miss Anderson will sing "Adieu Forets" by Tchaikovsky, selections from Haydn, Schubert and Handel and a group of Negro spirituals.

Barnes Jumps 6-10, Nieder Sets Mark

By DAN MATLOW

Vance Barnes skimmed over the high jump bar for a new Spartan record and Bill Nieder broke the world's shot-put mark to highlight the first annual Stanford Relays held on the Farm Saturday.

Barnes, resembling a gazelle with flawless form, sailed over the bar at six foot ten inches to eclipse Errol Williams' mark by one quarter of an inch.

The five foot eleven inch 148 pound sophomore has been working out for only three days and was originally slated to compete as an alternate in the meet. Admittedly the high climber says that his basketball playing aided his conditioning.

On the basketball court, Barnes' smooth movement captures the fancy of the entire crowd, and he applied the graceful movement to the grass runway to the tune of a new record. Errol Williams was eliminated when he failed to clear six feet six inches.

Unofficially, Barnes is the smallest man ever to clear the six foot ten inch mark.

Nieder, who is affiliated with the Army Presidio in San Francisco heaved the 16 pound steel ball 63 feet-ten inches to surpass all previous approved shot put marks in the world. Last year, Nieder threw the shot 64 feet in an exhibition at Spartan Stadium.

The Golden Raiders swept 12 out of 17 events from the Indians under ideal conditions in the football stadium.

In the 440 yard relay, the Spartan quartet of Bob Poynter, Bob Brooks, Jim Flemmons and Willie Williams sprinted to a fine :40.2 win over the outclassed Indians. Passes were smooth by all four Raiders and Poynter closed the gap on the first leg to insure a good time.

Williams anchored both sprint relays to victory in addition to tying Poynter in the 100 meter dash with a time of :10.5. Williams had the early lead and only Poynter's strong finish in the final 10 yards earned him a tie with the valuable Whipper Williams.

In the 880 yard relay, the same sprint relay team sped to a 1:24.8, just one and five tenths seconds above the listed world's record.

Mac Burton cashed in on his last leap to nose out Indian John Kelly in the broadjump. Mac's knife's leap was 24 feet four and one quarter inch, his best of the season. Burton had two crow hops over the 25 foot mark.

Charlie Clark was timed in 4:09 for the mile as he anchored the distance medley team to a win. Clark picked up 150 yards on Norm Lloyd, passed him with 330 yards to go and won going away by a 20-yard margin.

Other individual winners for the Spartans were Dick Kimmel in the pole vault (14 feet), John Ross in the discus (160 feet nine and one half inches), and Bruce McCullough (400 meter hurdles).

Bill Palmer doubled in the sprints and Lynn Gold set a fresh high jump record as Bert Bonanno's classy frosh team swept its dual meet with S.J. City College.

10th Inning O's 'Grounded'-- No Climb Seen

By NICK PETERS

(This is the third in a series of 16 articles on the major league teams. Tomorrow—Washington Senators.)

Paul Richards' Baltimore Orioles will be flying for an American League first division berth on a wing and a prayer this season, but chances are they won't make it, as winter trades weakened their strongest attribute—pitching—and "grounded" a large portion of their offensive power.

When Richards traded hurlers Billy O'Dell and Billy Loes to the Giants a few months back the general consensus was that the flingers were "washed up," because the Oriole manager is considered one of the best in handling pitchers, so why would he let anyone good get away?

Contrary to that belief, O'Dell, who fashioned a sub-3.00 ERA for the Birds in '59, and Loes have both been in Richards' "dog-house" and that appears to be a better reason for his willingness to pawn the pair.

At that, the Oriole pilot strengthened his defenses in the barter by grabbing Jackie Brandt from the Giants, the fleet flycatcher already being groomed as the AL's top defensive outfielder.

THE TRADE THAT depleted approximately one-third of Baltimore's power sent veteran outfielder Bob Nieman, a .292 hitter last season, to the St. Louis Cardinals.

Missing his loud bat the Orioles now have Gene Woodling and Gus Triandos as accomplished sluggers. Woodling, the ex-Yankee who batted .309 last year, appears to have a few more good summers left and Triandos, a 30-homer man, will now have to carry a major load of the power.

Big Gus has the power to become the AL's best catcher, but his anemic .216 batting average and his inability to hold on to Hoyt Wilhelm's knuckler keeps the burly backstop down in the other statistics.

The pitching staff, whose ERA was second only to champion Chicago in '59, could not be strengthened without O'Dell and Loes, but Richards is hoping for a comeback from Arnold Portocarrero, the club's big winner in 1958, but a disappointing 2-7 flinger last campaign.

Wilhelm, with his effective flutter-ball, and Hal Brown appear to be as good as ever and green but highly regarded Milt Pappas (15-9) and Jerry Walker (11-10) are excellent first-liners, who rank among the major's finest young moundsmen.

THE INFIELD IS WEAK-HITTING, but sound on defense and Woodling, Brandt and Willie Tasby comprise an excellent defensive outfield with speed-merchants Al Pilarcik and Albie Pearson forming an able garden reserve.

On paper they don't show very much promise, but baseball is a game of breaks and the right combination could make a fair squad out of this speedy, youthful, and aggressive flock of Birds.

Up 'n Over

ON HIS WAY—Charlie Clark is concentrating on the steeplechase with hopes of landing an Olympic berth. Two weeks ago he lowered the NCAA standard by 17 full seconds with an 8:58.5 clocking.

Spartans Defend PCI Glove Title This Week

By GARY PALMER

San Jose State's national collegiate boxing champions will send eight fighters to Sacramento this week to defend their Pacific Coast Intercollegiate title won two years ago.

No tournament was held last year, but Sacramento civic auditorium will be the scene of the fistieuffs Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

Scrappy Ron Nichols is the 119-pound representative for Coach Julie Menendez' Spartans. Nichols, San Jose State's little NCAA champ will have to be at his best for this one.

The little Hawaiian-born fighter was handed his first loss a week ago when he was decisively by Sacramento's Pros Montana, who is also entered in the PCI meet.

At 125 the Spartans will send out lefthander Dave Nelson who is a hard man to cope with because of his unique style.

Freshman Harry Campbell was named for the 132 clash.

Campbell has been ineligible to compete in dual meets this year because of his frosh status, but has been one of Menendez's prize pupils. Just recently he won the 132-pound title in the Golden Gloves in San Francisco with a pair of quick first round knockouts.

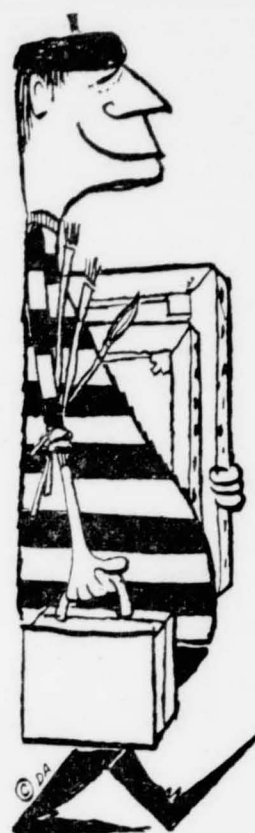

Bahman Shoghi will get the call at 139 for SJS. The stocky Iranian, who looks like a miniature Rocky Marciano, and punches just as hard has been a crowd-pleaser all year long for the local gloves.

Unbeaten Charlie Brown, whose speedy fists have won five in a row for him, will be the Spartans 147-pounder in the tourney. Brown and Shoghi are both capable of going all the way.

Bill Maddox, another unbeaten fighter for the Spartans, will toss leather in the 156 division. Though undefeated, Maddox has three draws to mar his record.

"Stubborn" Stu Bartell, whose sheer determination has won several big ones for the lefthander, will fight in the 165 category for San Jose. Bartell's ring savvy is not his biggest asset, but an unorthodox style and keeping in top physical condition has made him one of Menendez' best.

The tourney is expected to give some indication of how the Spartans will fare in the NCAA championships at Wisconsin in April.

HAC Leads Independent Cage Loop

The Health A.C. and The Nets rode to victory Thursday afternoon in Intramural "A" league basketball play with the help of their two respective scoring aces.

The Nets, with the aid of Gerry Reeser who has 75 points in league competition, rolled over the Spoilers 50-39. The league's top scorer, Al Lowerison, with 85 points overall, paced his team to a 47-29 victory over the Army ROTC.

In the intramural "B" league the Stardusters edged out the French Frogs 27-22 to move into a second place tie with the Newman club. League leader Phi Epsilon Kappa who was idle Thursday, has a perfect 7-0 slate.

In the fraternity division Phi Sigma Kappa strengthened its hold on first place by defeating Sigma Alpha Epsilon 44-37. An up and coming Sigma Phi Epsilon team aided the Phi Sig cause by knocking off Delta Sigma Phi 50-46. DSP is now two games off the PSK pace.

In other league play Theta Chi came from behind to top Theta Xi 42-28 and Pi Kappa Alpha edged Alpha Tau Omega 36-32.

Yearling Nine Meets Lincoln

Either Gary Tanaka or Dennis Walker, both portersiders, will get the call Monday when Warren Fraleigh's frosh baseballers meet Lincoln high at 3:15 p.m. on the Lincoln diamond.

The Spartan yearlings will try to get back on the track after their win train was derailed Thursday by big John Bacabello and his Santa Clara frosh teammates, 8-1. With the Spartans still in the ball game after seven frames, 3-1, Bacabello, the third baseman for the Broncos, boomed eighth and ninth inning tape measure homers off State's Bill Dawson and the handcuffed Fraleigh nine, who only managed three hits, were thumped.

San Jose's lone run came in the seventh when rightfielder Gary Hughes singled and moved to second on a passed ball. Buzz Ereno, the Spartan third baseman moved him to third when he flied to deep center and he rode home on another single by first baseman Pete Savoia.

Mark Johnson absorbed the loss, despite a fine seven-inning hit stint in which he allowed a mere three runs on five hits.

He left the game in the stretch inning for a pinch-hitter.—G.P.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Lockheed Missiles and Space Division, with facilities at Sunnyvale, Palo Alto and Santa Cruz, will be awarded contracts totaling 273 million dollars for continued military satellite development. Brig. Gen. Don Coupland, commander of the Ballistics Missiles Center, announced the expenditure.

Summer Institute Set

A four-week Institute of Science and Mathematics for high school students will be held at San Jose State College from June 27 to July 22. The institute is financed by a grant of $8730 from the National Science foundation.

Forty students with high scholastic ability will enroll in courses that are not usually available in high school. Students who have completed at least three years of mathematics and one year of a single science subject (biology, chemistry, physics) are eligible to apply to attend the institute. The instructional program, which consists of two courses, one in the earth sciences and the other in mathematics, will be taken by all participants. Both courses will offer a lecture and laboratory.
