What! Christmas Already?

Christmas has arrived, and a month early as usual. The Christmas street decorations are blazing Christmas cheer across the streets of downtown San Jose.

The motto for the season, "Forget the Christ in Christmas, get out and spend, spend, spend on bigger and fancier gifts so that more dollars will flow into the coffers of the merchants."

The Christmas spirit is generated so early and extended over such a period that by the time the true season arrives, almost everyone is tired, irritated and a little bored with it all.

The true purpose of Christmas, the celebration of the traditional birthday of the founder of the Christian religion, is buried in an avalanche of cheap tinsel, grinning Santa Clauses, candy canes and pink, blue and white trees which are losing their needles by Dec. 25.

Once upon a time, Christmas began with Dec. 24 and the decoration of the tree, and ended about January 5 with the feast of the three kings. Thanksgiving was still a long way from Christmas and somehow the turkey holiday meant a great deal more when not eclipsed by tinsel overhanging the streets.

Perhaps it is asking too much for the merchants to restrain themselves too long. After all, they would have little Christmas cheer themselves if others were not concerned with spreading cheer themselves through the gifts they give. But couldn't they wait until the day after Thanksgiving instead of the week before to drape the streets in tinsel? —D.B.

EDITOR—All analogies are inadequate, and so is the one in Mr. Seeno's letter. It equates keeping a thief from breaking into a house by locking the doors with preventing a nuclear or chemical-biological attack on our country by threatening to retaliate in kind.

This analogy is false because a locked door is a physical deterrent, whereas a threat of retaliation is a psychological one. We can't be sure that this clear bombs, there is a greater chance that a nation will get them whose leader is not rational enough to be deterred from attacking another nation by the knowledge that it also has these weapons.

Vandals Stop All-Coast Back

ALL ALONE—Spartan fullback Johnny "Touchdown" Johnson, named to UPI's second-team All-Coast eleven yesterday, is bottled up by Idaho's Vandals in Friday night action.

A flock of Idaho gridders moved in to stop the talented SJS back on the play which injured the sophomore early in the fourth quarter.

Johnson, Jones, 'Rock' Top SJS Football Stats

By NICK PETERS

Fullback Johnny "Touchdown" Johnson's multiple talents, Kent Rockholt's lengthy punts, and quarterback Mike Jones' aerial artistry are the outstanding features of the 1960 Spartan grid statistics after eight games.

Sophomore Johnson, who was named a second-string All-Coast back by UPI yesterday, collected 120 yards rushing against Idaho to give him a 173 yard bulge over second-place Freddie Bianco, 472 to 301, and the Spartans' rushing leadership.

In addition, Johnson scored another touchdown, his tenth of the season, to give him 60 points and the lead in that department.

What makes his performances even greater is the fact that he, along with QB Jones, has been operating at half-speed for at least three contests because of injuries.

In fact, "TD," who now sports a neat 5.9 rushing average, was again injured at the start of the fourth quarter against the Vandals and may not be in top shape for the Dec. 3 finale against Hawaii.

Rifle-armed Jones, throwing 11-for-17 against Idaho, tops the passers with 914 yards on 62 completions in 133 attempts. Chon Gal legos trails with 264 yards.

Fullback Kent Rockholt is still on top, or very close to it, in NCAA punting statistics. "Rock's" toe has accounted for 1278 yards on 30 punts—an average of 42.6 per boot.

In fact, his 37-yarder against Idaho was one of his shortest punts of the year, but he showed his team value regardless, as the ball rolled dead inside the Vandals' five-yard line.

Halfback Mac Burton, playing one of his best collegiate games

'TD' Johnson, Spartan FB, On All-Coast

"Touchdown" Johnny Johnson, whose churning legs have carried him into the end zone 10 times this year for the Spartans, was yesterday named to the second squad of the mythical United Press International All-Coast football team.

The hard-driving, 176-pound fullback vindicated the choice Friday night with a 54-yard dazler through the Idaho defense for his 10th touchdown of the season.

Johnson leads Spartan scoring for the year by a wide margin and twice received the Wiley Smith Bag this season for his outstanding play.

Mid-season injuries temporarily stopped the San Jose threat, but he was nevertheless named in the exclusive company of the West Coast's top 33 gridiron performers.

With him in the second team backfield were Dave Grosz of Oregon, Mel Melin of Washington state and Charlie Fuller of San Francisco state.

COULD KICK, TOO
NEW YORK UPI — Sammy Baugh, coach of the New York Titans, is famed for his passing, but he once established a National Football League record by punting 14 times in one game while playing for the Washington Redskins in 1939.

Wulfange Sets 'Trot' Mark—DU Records 4th Relay Win

Frank Wulfange, SJS graduate student set a new Turkey Trot record yesterday, covering the 3.3 mile course from the men's gym to Spartan Stadium and back in 14:43.

A 4:15 miler for Bud Winter's Spartan tracksters last spring, Wulfange shaved 12 seconds off the existing record of 14:55, established by Don Kelly in 1958.

Delta Upsilon won the 1000-yard Greek Relay in 1:57 and captured the perpetual trophy for most finishers in the Turkey Trot within a 30-minute time limit.

Merle McGee, last year's winner and a top distance runner in his undergraduate days at Wayne State college in Nebraska, also smashed Kelly's 1958 mark with a 14:44 finish.

A five-yard gap separated the first two finishers. Fifty yards behind the pair was cross-country runner Ron Davis who checked in at 15:15 for third position honors.

Since all three winners had previously lettered in collegiate track, they were assessed a 300-yard handicap at the start of the Trot. Non-lettermen began the race at the intersection of San Carlos and S. Seventh sts.

Both Wulfange and McGee are currently competing for the Santa Clara Youth Village.

Four members of Bud Winter's cross-country squad nailed down fourth through seventh places in the Trot.

Ralph Dykes was fourth, Tom Lie, fifth, Elmer Rice, sixth, and John Philips, seventh.

Independents Robert Keller and Richard Chimenti finished eighth and ninth, respectively.

Pi Kappa Alpha was second in the Greek Relay. Phi Sigma Kappa finished third.

DU's relay win was its fourth straight in the annual event.

Delta Upsilon sent 39 finishers across the line within the 30-minute limit to annex the perpetual trophy for most finishers based on a percentage of total membership.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon took second position with 22 finishers. Alpha Tau Omega, last year's champion, ranked third with 39 finishers.

The new scoring system for the most finishers trophy, tested yesterday for the first time, drew complaints from at least one of the competing organizations.

A representative of Alpha Phi Omega, campus service fraternity which sponsored the Turkey Trot, refused to release the figures used in compiling the trophy-deciding percentages to an authorized Spartan Daily reporter.

Buc Scout May Speak Monday

South in 4-3 Soccer Upset

SAN FRANCISCO—Sparked by the fact that they were named to the NCISC All-Conference first team prior to the game's start, Spartan soccer stars Joe Battagli and Abdul Mashal played key roles in the South's upset 4-3 victory over the North in the 4th annual league All-Star classic last night at San Francisco State's Cox Stadium.

Mashal rammed home a goal for the victors, as they compiled a 3-1 halftime lead and held on in the final stanza as the North made a valiant bid for the marbles only to fall short by one goal.

Battagli exhibited some terrific all-around ball while playing practically a complete game for the winners, whose triumph was the first over the North in the 4-year series.—N.P.

State Employees Seek New Fringe Benefits

Integration Trouble Cuts New Orleans Teachers' Salaries

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—The New Orleans school board announced yesterday that the integration crisis has become so bad that it can't pay its teachers and other employees the $2 million due them Wednesday.

School Superintendent Dr. James F. Redmond said the board must "withhold" the $2 million payroll because it doesn't have the money. Banks won't loan it to the board because of the integration trouble and the state, angry at the board for allowing integration, won't come up with it.

Redmond said that the action is "unprecedented in state history." It affected about 4,500 teachers and other employees, he said.

Redmond asked the teachers, now on a week's holiday, to show up at the regular assignments Monday even though they haven't been paid.

The announcement came while the teachers were in a convention in Baton Rouge, where the legislature meets Wednesday. Citizens Council leaders are trying to organize students and parents to dress in mourning for their two integrated schools and march on the legislature.

Aeronautics department, said that no pay increase will be sought by the state-wide organization but fringe benefits, such as a health plan with state support and a better retirement fund, "will be aimed at now."

More than 760 local members of the CSEA were invited to attend the forum and discussion meeting yesterday in Morris Dailey auditorium to hear the reports of the eight delegates. Those reporting were Myron Ballinger, Muriel Clark, Patty Gerbliek, Ed Glover, Glen Guttormsen, Thomas Leonard, G. A. McCallum and Robert Patterson.

Also discussed were resolutions on additional vacation days for state employees with longer service with the state and the accumulation of sick leave benefits up to retirement.

An invitation to the local representatives of the state legislature to speak at some future meeting also was discussed.

Voucher Signing Now

The dates for signing of Korean veterans' attendance vouchers have been set for Nov. 28-30, vets office secretary Mrs. Mary Simons announced today.

Signing dates were originally scheduled for early in December, but the VA set them up so that vets would receive their checks before leaving school for the holidays.

BRATTLEBORO, Vt. (UPI)—It cost Theodore R. West of Springfield, Mass. $25 for taking his mechanic's advice.

Tactical Hit For Missile At 40,000

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI)—A Nike-Hercules missile, first ever fired from a defense site near a metropolitan area, knifed across the skies Monday afternoon and destroyed a target 40,000 feet above the Chugach mountains.

The missile was visible to several thousand Anchorage residents who watched the 21-foot weapon soar into the sky, drop its 27-foot booster stage into the snow and then travel 65 miles down range before blowing up.

The missile was fired by Battery B of the 4th Missile Battalion, 43rd Artillery. It is believed to have been the longest tactical Nike-Hercules shot made in the missile's history.

Discussion topic at the next B'nai B'rith-Hillel meeting will be "The Israeli Student Views the American Student," says Harvey Belsky, club vice-president. It will be held Monday, Nov. 28 at 8 p.m. in the Student Christian center, 10th and San Carlos sts.

"All students are invited to join in," Belsky said. After the student confab, there will be a social period with refreshments.

In addition, the club will talk over its coming ski trip and Chanukah party to occur Dec. 3 at the University of California, Berkeley campus.

Hillel advisor Dr. Howard Sachar divides his time between duties as Stanford's club counselor and San Jose State leadership. Club president is Jim Rosenfeld.

25th Anniversary Of Transpacific Flight

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Twenty five years ago today a crowd of 125,000 persons gathered on the hills near the Golden Gate to watch a flying boat christened China Clipper rise from the waters of San Francisco Bay for the first scheduled transpacific flight in history.

Among the observers was Postmaster General James A. Farley, who came from Washington to watch the four-engined Pan American Airways plane depart on its flight to Manila.

GREAT ACHIEVEMENT
Farley described the event as "the beginning of the greatest and most significant achievement in the marvelous and fascinating development of air transportation."

Manuel L. Quezon, then president of the commonwealth of the Philippines, sent a message for the first flight. It said:

"Today, we await impatiently the arrival of the flying clipper ships that will, with incredible swiftness, finally sweep away the barrier of time and space forever."

Martial Law Invoked To Halt Haiti Strike

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (UPI)—Haiti was placed under martial law yesterday to enable the government to handle a nationwide student strike described officially as of "Communist inspiration."

The emergency action was taken by the Interior Ministry with the authorization of the Council of State Secretaries after students ignored a 12-hour government ultimatum to return to classes.

Twenty one hours later the China Clipper, piloted by Capt. Edwin C. Musick, made its first stop at Honolulu.

BLINDING SPEED
When the clipper reached its destination, the colorful log of the first flight had this to say about reaching the Philippines:

"Then from a distance of a hundred and fifty miles, through the incredibly clear atmosphere from our altitude of 11,000 feet, Mount Pandan and Catanduanes Island were sighted, a sight we have been looking forward to for the past five days."

The China Clipper had crossed the ocean in what was then blinding speed—59 hours and 48 minutes.

Recreation Society Meets on Campus

Professional recreation workers from San Francisco to Gilroy attended a recent California Recreation society meeting at San Jose State where they were encouraged to accelerate their recruitment programs.

The SJS student section of the CRS was host to the meeting which allowed students and professionals in the recreation field to exchange ideas.

Kenneth Kim, associate professor of recreation and adviser to the CRS at SJS, said that discussion groups were formed to hasten recruitment programs.

Printed brochures titled "Your Future in Recreation" and a showing of slides illustrated the student-planned program.
