Book Presentation Marks U.S.-Japanese Friendship

A smiling, grateful group of administrators, faculty members and student leaders paid tribute to the Japanese government yesterday for what was unanimously described as "wonderful" and "sure to be used."

The objects of praise: more than 100 books on Japanese art and culture officially presented to SJS in the president's conference room at 3 p.m.

"They're not many books here," said the Honorable Masao Yagi, Japanese consul general in San Francisco, "but they're up to date, and we hope they will prove useful."

DELIVERED IN CRATED

The books were wheeled in on a hand-trucks, and were crated in seven boxes.

In accepting the gift for SJS (one of nine U.S. colleges picked to receive collections), President John T. Wahlquist said he was "deeply impressed with what he had heard in the last few minutes," referring to student leaders who greeted the consul general and his four associates.

"The Japanese have been good citizens," the president said. "They are well behaved, and we know they make good students."

"BETTER UNDERSTANDING" "We hope these books will help Americans to understand the Japanese people better," he concluded.

Students at the presentation, which honored 100 years of U.S.-Japanese diplomatic relations, included a representative of Sangha club, Oriochi club and the Humanities club.

Two Japanese students at SJS also attended.

Dr. William J. Dusel, vice president of SJS, moderated the presentation. He said the collection of Japanese art and culture would be displayed in the library for two weeks before catalogued.

WHICH END'S UP?—Dr. John T. Wahlquist, president SJS, wonders which end is up as he holds Japanese dictionary for himself and the Honorable Masao Yagi, Japanese consul general (right), and Issei Saito, vice consul (center) to see. The book was one of more than 100 volumes given to SJS by Japan in an informal presentation yesterday, 3 p.m. in the president's conference room.

Dept. Head To Discuss Student Aids

Jack H. Holland, Management department head, will outline aids to students interested in business and industrial job placement at 12:30 today in Morris Dailey Auditorium at the second of three such meetings sponsored by the Management department.

Professor Holland will discuss present opportunities, describe placement procedures, tell who to contact and outline tests available to undecided students.

The meeting, open to the student body, will be followed by a question and answer period.

Dr. Edward W. Clements, college placement officer who was originally scheduled to speak today, talked at the first session Jan. 10 on companies coming to SJS to interview prospective candidates.

Attorney L. H. Heilbron Named As Commencement Speaker

Louis H. Heilbron, president of the state board of education and the new state college board of trustees, will be the speaker at the mid-year SJS commencement exercises.

Mr. Heilbron, a San Francisco attorney, is one of the three representatives of the board of trustees on the newly-appointed California council for higher education.

The Feb. 3 graduation program will be held at 10:30 a.m. at the Civi auditorium. This is the second time the mid-year commencement ment has been held away from campus. Because of the size of the graduating class, Morris Dailey auditorium will not accommodate the graduates and their parents and friends.

Frosh Meet

New officers will be installed when the freshman class meets Thursday at 3:30 p.m. in S164, according to Reed Jones, president.

General business will be discussed also, Jones said.

Spartacamp Counselors Named; More Men Needed

"We need more men," lamented Spartacamp director Earle Truax as he surveyed first day registration lists.

Truax explained that about 50 students signed up for the weekend leadership camp scheduled March 18 and 19 for Asilomar, Calif.

But women outnumber men about four to one, Truax says. "We like to balance our discussion groups evenly," he stated referring to periodic seminars held during the weekend on subjects from ethical philosophy to qualities which make a leader.

Registration continues this week at three locations on campus. A booth in front of the cafeteria opens at 10:30 a.m., while booths in front of the library and book store open at 11:30 a.m.

The cafeteria and library booths close at 2:30 p.m., while the book store remains open until 3:30 p.m.

Truax listed names of 48 counselors for Spartacamp.

They are: Sue Alfson, Sandi Ashabraner, Barbara Barrick, Suzie Barton, Ed Briggs, Madeleine Bryant, Joseph Cerletti, Dennis Chambers, Pat Clark, Mike Davis, and Pat Dickson.

Rod Diridon, Sue Doll, B. J. Duffey, Jerry Engles, Robert Ganti, Barney Goldstein, David Hamilton, Wanda Hand, Linda Hardin, Reed Jones, Elsie Landis, Judy Langen, and Alan Malyan.

New Resolution Asks 'Divorce' Of Council From Publications

A resolution for the Student Council to "divorce itself from any responsibility as owner, publisher, policy maker, or personnel provider for the Spartan Daily, La Torre and Lyke" was placed before Council members at a special meeting Friday.

Reason for the resolution, Acting Chairman Stan Stevens said, was "basic philosophical differences" existing between student government and the college administration in regard to Spartan Daily policy.

The resolution was signed by ASE Pres. Pat McClenahan, ASE Executive Secretary Brent Davis, Stevens, Spartan Daily Editor Ron Bates and News Editor Jim Ragsdale.

Bates and Ragsdale removed their names from the resolution yesterday. They said that in the best interests of the Spartan Daily, their names should not appear on the resolution unless a definite alternative program was included to guarantee that the newspaper receive subscription funds from student councils in future years.

PUBLICATION MAINTAINED

"This resolution shall not imply," it read, "that these publications should not be published." It also stated that the Council "as the agent for the ASE may subscribe if subscriptions are available to these publications for the benefit of the students."

The resolution was written, Stevens told Council members, after a meeting held Thursday of the Publications Advisory Board, presided over by Dr. Dwight Bentel, head of the department of Journalism and Advertising. It was not, however, he said, a "hasty decision." It stemmed, he said, "from thinking over a period of months," and had been presented to Dr. Bentel and several college deans before it was put before Council.

'UTMOST TIME'

The special meeting was called, he stated "to give Council members the utmost available time" to consider the resolution.

Following a brief discussion by Council members, the resolution was submitted to the constitution and by-laws committee for "further study." The committee is scheduled to make a report at Wednesday's Council meeting, to be held in cafeteria rooms A and B for the presentation of the annual "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" awards.

Joint Seminar Slated Today

The second in a series of science seminars designed to acquaint the faculty and students of San Jose State College with the various disciplines of science will be held today at 1:30 p.m. in S258.

The seminar, conducted on a non-technical plane, will be moderated by Lawrence D. Hochman, assistant professor of physics.

$1000 Total in Phelan Literary Competition

Largest cash awards in Phelan contest history will be awarded in this year's annual literary competition—a total of $1000.

Campus authors can submit work to any of the following categories: drama, short story, essay, satiric verse, sonnet, free verse, lyric, according to a recent report from the English department.

One outstanding requirement is that all manuscripts be original and unpublished. Several prizes will be offered in each area running from $10 to $65 each.

An added "blanket" award of about $100 will be presented for the best submitted manuscript.

The tentative deadline date named for submitting original work is Thursday, April 20.

For years, prize money in the Phelan contest has been meted out by direction of the late Sen. James Phelan, "a good friend of the College." The creative writing society once met at his Montalvo home.

Life, Prayer Discussion At Fellowship

What theology underlies the need for a personal relationship with God?

This question plus others will be discussed at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow when the United Campus Christian Fellowship has an open discussion titled "My Personal Life and Prayer," at the Christian center, 300 S. 10th st.

"Resource leader" for the open discussion, part of a theological series called "Why Worship?" will be Rev. Don Emfiel.

Rev. Emmel, Presbyterian campus minister for the UCCF, announced that further discussions at the meeting would concern students' inner religious life and personal meditation.

I.A. Fraternity Tours Steel Plant In Niles Tonight

The story of steel production in California will be featured tonight during the Epsilon Pi Tau tour of the Pacific States Steel co. in Niles at 7 p.m., said Melvin Manchester, EPT field trip chairman.

The tour, open to all interested students, is the fourth in a series sponsored by the Industrial Arts honor fraternity.

Students should meet in front of the Industrial Arts building at 6 p.m. or at the plant entrance in Niles at 7 p.m. Transportation will be provided.

History Professor To Review Book

Dr. David Kulstein, assistant professor of history, will review "Memoirs" by Charles de Gaulle tomorrow at 12:30 p.m. in cafeteria rooms A and B.

The book discusses the war experiences of the famed general, who in 1958 became president of the then-floundering French government.

This is the next to last book talk of the semester. A full slate is planned for the spring.

Glee Club Students To Show Varied Talents in College Satire

By JIM JANSSEN

A light, rollicking, musical satire on college life promises outstanding entertainment as the SJS Associated Glee clubs present "So This is College?" Thursday and Friday nights at 8:15 in Morris Dailey auditorium.

The show, portraying the non-studying side of college in song and dancing, is directed by Dr. Gus Lease, associate professor of music.

Geared toward Army entertainment, the show was primarily organized for an audition with the Sixth Army Special Services, San Francisco, for a tour of U.S. Army bases overseas.

OPENS IN DORM

"So This is College?" opens in a dormitory room where every student's question, "why study?" is answered in "Sophomore Philosophy" by the men's quartet. The quartet includes David Lindstrom, J. D. Nichols, Robert Cunningham and John MacIntyre.

The dorm scene also features a modern jazz dance to "Lady be Good" with Geri Vestal, Pat Carpio, Marjorie Brown and Janet Clifton; "Full Moon and Empty Arms," a solo by Nichols; and "Falling in Love," a dance duo by Miss Vestal and Jerry Howell.

The show then shifts into a street scene with the men's quartet returning to sing "Quartet from Rigoletto," "Mama Chu," "September Song," and "Country Style" are then sung by the entire 23-member cast.

HOBBRAU SCENE

"So This is College?" winds up at a hobbrau where the "Drinking Song" and other numbers from Sigmund Romberg's "Student Prince" are interwoven with a Can Can dance by Miss Clifton, Miss Brown, Ione Cheesebrough, Diane Flores and Lorraine Crider, and a fan dance by Ken Hunter and Howell.

Miss Beverly Gaillard, Sixth Army staff entertainment director, Presidio, San Francisco, will audition the show at the Friday night performance.

EIGHT STATE TOUR

If the show is accepted, Miss

Gaillard will take it on a tour of Sixth Army installations in eight western states before recommending it to Washington for a tour overseas.

Associate directors are Lindstrom and Nichols. Accompanist is Sherri Gattlett.

Tickets are on sale at the Music building box office.

HITTING A HIGH NOTE for the SJS Associated glee club musical satire on college life, "So This is College?" is (l. to r.) David Lindstrom, Robert Cunningham, J. D. Nichols and John MacIntyre.

The quartet sings numbers in the show which will be presented in Morris Dailey auditorium Thursday and Friday evenings at 8:15. The show is being auditioned for overseas Army bases.

Surprise Combo Set for Co-Rec

Co-Rec's suitable motif 7:30 p.m. Wednesday features a relief from books for a few carefree hours in women's gym. At "Final Fling," this week's fun-time session, students can depart healthfully from exam "boning" by dancing to a surprise combo. A dance contest also is on the bill with "valuable prizes" in the cache, says Jerry Reese, publicity chairman.

Those who attend will have a choice between the combo and records as their musical vehicle. Regularly-offered activities will include volleyball, ping pong, four-square and the new shuffleboard game.

Seniors To Hear Alumni Director

Ken Roed, executive director of the SJS Alumni assn., will explain the benefits and goals of the association today at a senior class meeting in S112 at 3:30 p.m.

Following his speech, Roed will answer questions from the audience, announced Robert McKeown, senior class vice-president.

McKeown urged all interested students, especially February graduates, to attend.

There will also be a discussion of the senior-junior ball and the Joe College-Betty Coed dance.

NEW VIOLENCE RAGES THROUGH CONGO

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—Violence and disorder raged through the Congo again yesterday. United Nations forces tried to minimize it without bloodshed—not always with success.

Congo troops supporting deposed Premier Patrice Lumumba neutralized U.N. control of the airport at Manono in North Katanga, where pro-Lumumba politicians moved in a force of 600 men and proclaimed an "independent state of Lualaba."

The U.N. has been trying to move in reinforcements, but has been stopped by the Lumumba troops. Rather than risk "large-scale warfare," the U.N. has accepted the situation for the time being.

TOWER SURVIVORS HEARD

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Coast Guard reported yesterday that rescue vessels apparently have established contact with survivors trapped in the wreckage of a sunken radar tower which collapsed Sunday night during an Atlantic storm.

Twenty-eight airmen and construction workers were on the $21 million Texas Tower No. 4 when it disappeared in the savage sea.

IKE PREPARES FAREWELL SPEECH

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower yesterday worked on his farewell speech to the nation tonight and scheduled his final news conference for tomorrow, two days before he leaves office.

The news conference will be his first since Sept. 7. He held none during the active part of the presidential campaign or during the period since the election.

Eisenhower's farewell speech to the American people to be carried by all radio and television networks at 8:30 p.m. EST.

He will hold a second conference with his successor, President-elect John F. Kennedy, at the White House at 9 a.m. Thursday.

MOSCOW WARNS U.S. ON LAOS INTERFERENCE

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union warned the United States yesterday about "continuing to interfere in the internal affairs of Laos."

"Being concerned over the present situation in Laos, the Soviet government deems it necessary to warn the United States government again about the serious responsibility it is assuming by continuing to interfere in the internal affairs of Laos."

Tass said the Soviet Union issued the warning "in connection with the use of American military planes in Laos."

U.C. CHANCELLOR AEC CHAIRMAN

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Pres.-elect John F. Kennedy will name Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, chancellor of the University of California, to the important post of chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, it was learned yesterday. Kennedy was expected to announce the appointment late yesterday.

Seaborg will replace John A. McCone, who already has submitted his resignation to President Eisenhower effective Jan. 20, as top man on the commission.

Exchanges, Elections Highlight Coed Events

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

Alpha Chi Omega coeds participated in an evening of dinner, a scavenger hunt and dancing during an exchange with Alpha Tau Omega brothers.

Spartans' Yonge Named Player-of-Week

Soph Guard Shares Honor with Hendry

By NICK PETERS

SAN FRANCISCO — Highlighting his brief but successful tenure as a Spartan eager, sophomore SJS guard Bill Yonge was honored as Player-of-the-Week by the Northern California sports-writers at their weekly luncheon yesterday.

The blond-cropped 18-year-old shared the plaudits with Stanford co-captain John Hendry, who steered the Indians to their one-point upset win over California last week.

Braun Sets Stats Pace

Holding UOP to 44 points Saturday, San Jose retained its second place national ranking in team defense, and at the same time boosted its own shooting percentage and team average.

After 13 games, the Spartans showed 31.5 percentage from the floor, compared to a 30.9 mark after 12 tilts. San Jose hit an even 40 per cent from the floor against the Tigers with 18 for 45.

San Jose's weakness at the free throw line was even more pronounced against the Tigers, however. Stu Inman's cagers hit only 12 of 22 and saw a none too good mark of .607 drop even further. San Jose is hitting a modest .600 for the year from the charity line.

Center Joe Braun continued to pace the evenly balanced Spartans' individual statistics with a 10.8 average per game, with Gary Ryan second at 6.8.

Ryan and Bates lead the locals at the foul line with .756 and .680 respective marks.—G.P.

Yonge starred in the Spartans' 48-44 victory over University of the Pacific Saturday. He played the entire 40 minutes, leading SJS in scoring with 12 points and enjoying a terrific defensive game.

Elated over the acknowledgment of his basketball prowess, Yonge thanked the writers for the tribute and said that "the Spartans are a team that plays well together without any individual standouts."

Tiger coach Van Sweet said, "Yonge was the difference in a close ball game."

The Bengal mentor added, "The Spartans are much tougher all-around than last year's SJS team. They will be a spoiler if not a contender."

Coach Stu Inman confided that Yonge "played the best complete game for us this year."

Sweet was quick to point out that the Spartan defense Saturday was the stiffest that his scoring ace Ken Sanley has faced all year.

He also stated that it was the best Bengal effort in a somewhat poor 1960-61 season.

"The greatest thing about the game," according to Inman, "was our proving that we could shoot." (The Spartans made 40 per cent from the floor.)

The Spartans will not practice again until Saturday, as Inman feels that time is needed to study for finals.

No WCAC activity is scheduled until Feb. 3 and 4 when Pepperdine and Loyola come to Spartan Gym for a pair.

However, SJS entertains University of Redlands here Thursday, Jan. 26, and travels to Fresno State Jan. 28 for a pair of non-conference hassles.

Theta Chi Upends DU for IFC Title

Theta Chi defeated defending champion Delta Upsilon, 11-9 and 11-8, Saturday to capture the 1961 IFC volleyball tournament crown. The new titlists swept past Theta Xi by scores of 11-0 and 11-5, and bested Phi Sigma Kappa in a two out of three series to reach the finals.

DU finished in second spot by outscoring Alpha Tau Omega 15-5 in the semi-finals of the losers' bracket and topping the Phi Sigs in the losers' bracket finals.

Phi Sig placed third, ATO finished fourth and Sigma Chi captured fifth.

15 SJS Pitchers, Catchers Have First 1961 Workout

Balmy skies and coach Ed Sobczak greeted 15 varsity pitching and catching candidates at Spartan field yesterday afternoon for the first baseball practice session of the 1961 season.

Ten pitchers and five catchers reported to Sobczak yesterday in order to be in good shape by Friday, when all infielders are slated to turn out.

All outfield candidates will report Monday afternoon, Sobczak announced.

The Spartans will take advantage of the clear January weather as much as possible, the veteran coach said, even during final examinations.

"We'll be practicing during finals," Sobczak said, "because I think playing baseball is a good release for tension acquired from studying for examinations."

Grades come before baseball, he added, so attendance won't necessarily be mandatory during the finals period.

Yesterday the pitchers did more hitting than pitching, taking several rounds of batting practice off the slants of their contemporaries, who spent about four minutes each hurling at half-pace.

The "first-fifteen" also worked on taking leads off base and breaking toward second in a steal situation.

Yearlings Roll to 7-1 Mark

Stingy Cagers Please Glines

By NICK PETERS

Giving an indication of future San Jose defensive basketball brilliance, Coach Danny Glines' Spartan frosh have rolled to a 7-1 mark with a well-balanced offense and a "stone wall" defense that has allowed opponents but 42 points per game.

The club, a carbon-copy of Stu Inman's varsity, has only a 49-33 loss to Cal's Cubs marring a near-perfect record, which includes wins over tough College of San Mateo, the Santa Clara frosh, and the University of the Pacific yearlings.

Statistically, the Spartababes dominate their opposition in every department but one—rebounding—and that, understandably, is the biggest problem concerning Glines.

"I'm not at all happy with the rebounding," he said. "We're going to have to do a lot better on the boards if we expect to retain our winning ways."

The frosh lead their foes in field goal attempts (415-383), field goals made (154-120), field goal percentage (37.1-31.4), free throw attempts (182-171), free throws made (119-96), free throw percentage (66.4-56.1), total points (427-336), and scoring average (53.3-42.0).

Opponents have a 270-230 lead in rebounding.

Glines credits the team's overall success to a well-balanced offense and a defense that is good as a team, but has its individual weaknesses.

"We never want to have to depend on one or two players," he said, "therefore, we feel that our success is a tribute to the players' ability to stay with our patterns."

Individually, the offensive balance is quickly apparent.

Novice Judoists Sparkle in Meet

Promotions are in store for six San Jose State beginning judoists, who helped San Jose to a one point, 14-13, win over the Palo Alto YMCA in a novice tourney in Spartan gym Saturday.

Coach Yosh Uchida's 160-pounders provided the margin of victory with a clean sweep in the division. Jim Leckie notched first, Jim Pollack took second and Ken Hanaki posted a third.

Two white belt heavyweights were among those promoted to third degree brown belt status. Sanford Alcorn grabbed second and Bill Knable a third in the heavy class.

Rich Gibson was the sixth Spartan placing in the 114-man tourney. He took third in the 140-pound weight class.

NEW AUTO INSURANCE SAVINGS ANNOUNCED

Savings up to $120 on automobile insurance is now common for married men under 25 years of age with the California Casualty Indemnity Exchange.

"Married men in this age bracket are generally paying excessive premiums for the degree of risk involved," says George M. Campbell, Spartan Representative for the Exchange.

"We believe that a married man with family responsibilities is a more careful driver, and causes fewer accidents," said Campbell. "Therefore, he is entitled to rates for mature drivers."

For example: A married man, age 22, with Bodily Injury Liability $10/20,000, Property Damage $5,000 and Medical $500 pays about $157 a year with most insurance companies. With California Casualty he would pay about $80 less $16 dividend, or a net of $64 (based on current 20 per cent dividend). Thus he saves about $93 with the Exchange. (Other coverages with comparable savings).

Campbell declared that even unmarried men and women with good driving records may save over 20 per cent.

makers and ball-handlers, are within nine points of each other in the scoring race.

Gary Gresham (52), Craig Carpenter (51), and Tom Nichols (42) are the trio. Compositely they have been shooting 45.2 per cent from the floor and 71.8 from the free throw line.

Nichols leads in field goal percentage with a sizzling 60.8 coming on 17 baskets in 28 attempts. Simpson is tops at the line with 32-out-of-40 and 80 per cent.

Edwards stands alone as the top rebounder. The 6-8 pivot has pulled down 55 from the boards.

Negro Students Return To Georgia U. Classes

ATHENS, Ga. (UPI) — Two Negro students, whose court-ordered presence on the University of Georgia campus sparked student riots last week, returned for classes yesterday under escort of state detectives and were silently accepted.

The reception of Charlayne Hunter, 18, and Hamilton Holmes, 19, first Negroes to attend the school in its 175-year history, was calm, almost detached.

STUDENTS WARNED
Where scattered catcalling had followed them last week only silent stares from small groups of curious students followed them yesterday.

Students had been warned by the campus administration that an outburst of any sort could mean suspension or expulsion. Every faculty member was empowered to pick up the identity card of any offending student.

Agents of the Georgia Bureau of Investigation accompanied the two to their classes, and in several instances, pushed aside newsmen and photographers who got in the way.

Athens police detained a white man found driving on a campus street in a car containing a Confederate flag and segregation stickers. He was released after questioning.

DISARMS GUARD

Police also investigated an incident Sunday night involving a short, fat white man who pulled a pistol on a guard in front of the dormitory where Miss Hunter had stayed. The man disarmed the guard and left.

Meanwhile, the Clarke County grand jury met in Athens to begin an investigation of last week's rioting.

In Atlanta, state Sen. Howard Overby in a speech before the Georgia Senate heralded what appears to be a general change of heart among legislators regarding integration when he called for a "minimum of integration."
