ASB Officers View Student Government

The Student Council answered questions on the role of student government at the Open End Forum last Friday night before what many of the council members felt was a disappointingly small number of students.

About 30 students attended the panel discussion in the Faculty Cafeteria, which is capable of seating approximately 150.

Topics discussed included the Greek system's relationship to Student Council, the proposed student health plan for state colleges, the changing of all state colleges' names to California State, the band trip to Arizona, Prop. 13, cultural vs. athletic activities, the philosophy of student government and student body elections. Speaking on the controversial health plan, ASB President Bob Pisano said he was opposed to the provision that would require students to finance the building of health service facilities.

"This is a policy that I personally don't agree with and many of the trustees and legislators don't agree with," Pisano stated.

He also was in disagreement with the mandatory nature of the proposed health plan.

"I don't think you should be required to belong to a mandatory program if you are living in approved housing other than state college dormitories."

One of many students who spoke out on the philosophy of student government, Al Henninger, former ASB treasurer, said "Student government should serve the students by giving them a greater educational opportunity."

"I think SJS has gotten away from the 'Mickey Mouse' type of student government that just sponsors dances," he said.

Enrollment Clarification Released

Clarification of the procedures for students planning to attend SJS, fall 1965, is provided in a communication sent to high school and junior college counselors in the SJS service area. The statement was issued by Dr. Ralph R. Cummings, associate dean of students, subsequent to an all-day meeting of school representatives with college officials Dec. 1.

The new state college admission criteria require prospective students to file either ACT or SAT test scores. Since many students planning to attend SJS did not take one of these tests this fall, the college testing office and the ACT corporation have cooperated to alleviate this problem.

They have extended the ACT test registration deadline of Dec. 26 (for the Jan. 16 test at SJS) to Jan. 8. An additional ACT test will be given only at SJS on Jan. 30.

Registration deadline is Jan. 22. The test scores will be sent only to SJS.

Priority for freshman students will be established on the date that the student's application is complete in the Admissions Office. Students cannot take the ACT test later than Feb. 20.

Similar procedures should be followed by transfer students and the same conditions will prevail with respect to transcripts and test scores.

"It should be understood by all concerned that although application forms may be available in December or January, we may not be able to notify students regarding our action until after the final filing date of April 15, 1965. Students will be notified of their status as soon as possible after all information is on file," Dean Cummings stated.

Classrooms Next For Rating Cards

Men of Tau Delta Phi, men's honorary, will bring IBM cards for Tower List ratings into as this week, according to Tom Ferrio, chairman.

Three booths for IBM card pickup will be placed on campus all week, in front of Spartan Bookstore, the library, and Education Building.

Ferrio urges students to "come to the booths so we won't waste class time unnecessarily."

Eight marked deposit boxes will be placed on campus so students may return their completed IBM cards.

Tau Delta Phi also will man booths and distribute cards during night classes this week. Booths will be placed at the library and on the San Francisco side of Seventh Street.

'Sexuality Crisis' Discussed Today

"Sexuality in Crisis" will be discussed by Dr. Lloyd James Averill, vice president of Kalamazoo College, Mich., today at 10:30 a.m. in Concert Hall.

Defective sexual relationships, the problem of sexual identity, sex

as an escape from life's limitations and the myths of sexuality, will be considered in Dr. Averill's talk.

The College Lecture Committee and the Sociology and Anthropology Department will sponsor Dr. Averill's appearance here.

Dr. Averill has been vice president of Kalamazoo since 1963. He has authored about 30 articles on various subjects for Christian publications, and is listed in both "Who's Who in America" and the "Directory of American Scholars."

Dr. Averill earned his B.A. in philosophy from the University of Wisconsin in 1947, his B.D. from Colgate Rochester Divinity School in 1950, his M.A. in sociology from the University of Rochester in 1952, and his L.H.D. from Lewis and Clark College in 1962.

Greeks To Start Crusade for Toys

Rock around the clock becomes swing around the clock today at 10 a.m. Members of Sigma Nu and Kappa Alpha Theta, Greek organizations, will start a Swingathon for Toys for Tots in front of the Sigma Nu fraternity house. They will try to break their record of 100 hours set three years ago.

Friday afternoon, the expected stopping time, students will dance to the battle of the bands, with three bands vying for time.

Greeks participating in the Swingathon will swing in one hour shifts while interested students bring toy donations for the U.S. Marine Corps sponsored Toys for Tots event.

Campus Groups Support Berkeley Demonstrators

By KIM ALLENDER
Letters from the SJS local of the American Federation of Teachers, the SJS Friends of SNCC (Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee) and seven leaders of SJS student and community organizations have forthrightly supported the Free Speech Movement (FSM) at the University of California, Berkeley.

In a letter to University President Clark Kerr, SJS Local 1362 of the AFT wrote "We further affirm our belief that when off-campus activities such as picketing or sit-ins result in violation of law, the student should not be subject to punishment by university as well as by civil authorities."

"Consequently, we support the Free Speech Movement at the University of California in its demands that the students be accorded the same privileges as those of any other citizens of the United States."

The AFT local also affirmed its agreement with the AAUP (American Association of University Professors) statement on "Faculty Responsibility for the Academic Freedom of Students."

"Students and student organizations are free to discuss all questions of interest to them and to express opinions publicly or privately without penalty, to promote the causes they support by distributing literature, circulating petitions, picketing, or taking any peaceful action on or off the campus."

The SJS Friends of SNCC have endorsed a statement issued by the Bay Area Friends of SNCC. The statement lists three points of agreement with the FSM.

STUDENT RIGHTS
Students would have rights to:

1. Freely discuss, debate and advocate ideas and actions on the campuses of the University.
2. Solicit funds for the support of their organizations.
3. Urge students to join organizations, campaigns or drives—i.e., to recruit on campus.

Six leaders of SJS student organizations and the chairman of the Alameda County CORE (Congress of Racial Equality) also signed a letter which backed the FSM.

The Student Peace Union (SPU), Toward an Active Student Community (TASC), SJS Democratic Club, Committee for Socialist Action (CSA), Students for Republican Action (SRA) and SJS Friends of SNCC issued the joint statement of support.

YELL LEADER TRYOUTS—A series of yell-leading workshops will be held for interested men students tomorrow, Thursday and Tuesday, Dec. 15, 7-10 p.m. in WG154, according to Mike Cook head yell leader. Cook (J), and Dick Harris, former head yell leader, give last-minute instructions to Mike Mendelson and Steve Barragar before tryouts last December. Men are eligible if they have a 2.25 GPA for the previous semester and a 2.0 overall, Cook stated. Four new yell leaders and two alternates will be chosen.

Trustees Pass Health Plan; Final Decision—Legislature

By SCOTT MOORE

A controversial plan for compulsory, student-financed state college health services was easily approved by the Board of Trustees late Friday afternoon.

Thursday's resolution by a joint Education-Finance Committee favoring the plan was ratified without change by the trustees, meeting in Sacramento.

The trustees' decision now must go before the State Legislature next month. If it passes the plan, student fees gradually would be increased beginning next fall.

Dramatic financial implications for SJS and all state colleges are indicated in the plan. Fees are expected to rise gradually, although the plan does not say exactly how much.

It is clear, however, that students living in approved housing would be forced to pay up to $30 next year for supplementary services.

In addition, all capital outlay such as new buildings would be financed by compulsory student fees beginning two years from now.

In Sacramento, Bob Pisano, ASB president, declined to comment on the trustee action. He wants to further study the plan before taking a stand, he declared.

It is known, however, that Pisano spoke to the joint committee against two items of the plan Thursday.

He voiced objections on behalf of California State College Student Presidents' Association (CSCSPA), of which he is president, to the plan's fee increase demand and student-financed capital outlay.

The trustees acquiesced to his request that CSCSPA be given 60 days to submit its own views and proposals on the health dispute.

CSCSPA's proposal is likely to be a form of the plan it unanimously approved in October which called for a joint state-student financed program.

Next meeting of CSCSPA is scheduled for this weekend at Long Beach State College. The health issue is expected to occupy much of the president's time.

Claims of the larger colleges, such as SJS that the trustee plan would primarily benefit the smaller colleges at everyone's expense may also be expected to draw much fire.

Admissions Standards Changed by Trustees

By SUE WADE

Qualifications for freshmen wishing admission to state colleges will be more strenuous beginning the fall semester of 1965.

The Board of Trustees of the California State Colleges approved the proposal for new admissions standards at their meeting at Sacramento State College Friday afternoon.

Admissions standards for freshmen will be based upon their grade point average in all high school courses, except physical education and military sciences, and either one of two college aptitude examinations, the American College Test or Scholastic Aptitude Test.

The new standards will make it possible for students majoring in "creative" subjects to be admitted to state colleges, even though the standards over-all will be more rigorous, according to Chancellor Glenn S. Dumke.

Under the Master Plan for Higher Education, the shifting to the new requirements will allow only the top 33% per cent, rather than the present 40 per cent, of the high school graduates to be admitted to state colleges. With the new requirement, the number of entering freshmen in 1965 will remain about the same as it was for 1964. This number, however, will be substantially less than it would have been under the present standards.

A 15 per cent faculty increase was also recommended by Chancellor Dumke. This increase which also covers key administrative personnel, adds $15 million to the state colleges' 1965-66 operating budget.

An increase in summer session fees from $14.25 to $17 a semester unit and an increase in summer session teaching salaries were also approved by the trustees. The teaching salary increase will be figured separately from the regular school salaries.

The trustees also approved the plans for the $5.7 million science building at SJS.

'Negro Needs His Heritage'

The American Negro is the victim of "brain-washing" and a loss of his cultural heritage, Negro attorney Donald Warden, national chairman of the Afro-American Association, told an audience of 150 persons in Concert Hall Friday night.

According to Warden, the "brain-washing" which destroyed the unity and cultural heritage of the American Negro occurred during the slavery period.

"I am suggesting to you that the suffering of the black man both in Africa and in America has been as great as any the world has ever known," Warden exclaimed.

A "deadness inside" has been the result of the Negro's suffering, Warden said. He claimed the hope for the American Negro lays in an awakening to the Negro cultural heritage, which, he averred, would give his race the "motivation" needed to move up in the economic and social spectrums.

"The groups that have led us in the civil rights struggles have complemented our (cultural) death; they have not awakened us," he charged.

Jewish Group Seeks Director

Hillel, student Jewish organization, is in search of a new full-time director and counselor to begin work Jan. 1.

Dr. Harry May, present director who shared his time between the SJS and Stanford Hillel chapters, is resigning this month.

Three hours a week, according to Dr. Harry Chinitz, president of B'nai Brith, Hillel's adult advisory group, is not enough time for a counselor to spend with SJS Hillel. He said he would like to have a counselor for three hours a day. This also would help plans for a SJS Jewish community center. The center is now only in the planning stages, Dr. Chinitz pointed out.

"The problems of counseling that the adult groups have been handling for the SJS Hillel only show that Dr. May is not a counselor, primarily because three hours a week does not do anything for a group of this size," Dr. Chinitz said.

Hillel's president, Phil Whitten, explained, "It is the general feeling of the members of Hillel that Dr. May does not have the interests of the SJS Hillel foremost in his mind, if only for the reason that his main commitment is at Stanford."

Prof Receives Math Grant

Dr. W. Howard Myers, professor of mathematics, recently received a grant of $60,230 from the National Science Foundation in support of a Summer Institute in Mathematics for Secondary School Teachers. The grant will be operative June 21-July 30, 1965.

The purpose of this grant, according to Dr. Myers, is to provide for "use of federal aid to strengthen the background of people who are teaching mathematics without having had a major in mathematics in college."

Participants in the grant will be 60 high school teachers from all parts of the United States. The teachers will get stipends of $450 each, an allowance of $90 for dependents (four dependents, maximum) and travel pay of 4 cents per mile ($80 maximum).

Question Man

On Coeds and Brains

A story in the Stanford Daily has labeled the SJS coed "beautiful, sexy, and stupid." Do you agree or disagree?

By CAROLYN CHASE

Jerry Chaine, senior, social science

Compared to Stanford coeds, any coeds at San Jose State would be beautiful. The girls at San Jose State go to college for a different reason than the girls at Stanford. Also, San Jose State girls appeal to other college guys—Stanford, Cal and Santa Clara—who date them? Who wants to date a dumb broad?

Byron Thomas, junior, music

I think they are much better looking than Stanford girls. You can find anything you are looking for at San Jose State or on any other campus.

Lannie Julius, senior, political science

I disagree. They aren't beautiful, they aren't sexy, and they aren't stupid. They are just like girls all over the world—tactless.

Mike O'Shanesy, senior, aeronautical operations

Yes, I agree, that is why I came to school here. This is also an image which a lot of people think. That is one reason why we get so many transfers into our house.

Carson Wong, graduate, music

I agree but not completely. They are beautiful and sexy but not everyone is stupid. I think they are definitely more beautiful and sexy than the Stanford girls.

Don Cunningham, senior, business

Some are and some aren't. Naturally they can't say all the girls. All Stanford girls are ugly, wear pigtailed and have bare feet.

Twenty Arrested For Civil Rights Worker's Deaths

MERIDIAN, MISS. (UPI)—Twenty Mississippians were arrested Friday by swift moving FBI agents who charged 10 of the suspects with a fiendish plot that resulted in a lynch mob death for three civil rights workers.

One other person was being sought.

Among those taken into custody was Lawrence A. Rainey, tobacco chewing sheriff of Neshoba County, where the three victims vanished June 21.

Also arrested were Rainey's deputy, Cecil Price, a "fire and brimstone" free will Baptist minister, a number of Ku Klux Klansmen and another policeman.

ACCUSED OF CONSPIRING

Of the 11 not charged in the actual plot, nine were accused of conspiring in the plot and two with having knowledge of it. All but the latter two were charged under Title 18, Section 241 of the 1870 Civil Rights Law.

President Johnson, who had taken a personal hand in the case by ordering a widespread search for the three victims, had no comment on the arrests. His press secretary, George Reedy said "these are a matter of judicial process which it would not be quite proper to comment on at the present time."

BODIES FOUND

The bodies of the three civil rights workers—two New York whites and a Negro—were found buried in an earthen farm pond dam outside Philadelphia, Miss., on Aug. 4. Each of the victims had been shot and the Negro reportedly had been beaten so badly his bones were smashed.

The victims of the slaying were Michael Schwerner, 24, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Andrew Goodman, 20, New York City, and James Chaney, 22, a Negro from Meridian, Miss.

All three of the victims were "Mississippi summer project" workers and were investigating the burning of a Negro church in Philadelphia, Miss., when they disappeared.

Their burned out station wagon was found near a swamp outside Philadelphia a few days later.

Atheists Angered Over Rejected Ad

Editor:

Mr. Miller, adviser to the Spartan Daily advertising staff, has refused to allow an Atheist ad. He feels this ad is offensive and dishonest. In spite of the fact that we assured him of the seriousness of our intent, he still refused to allow the ad to go through.

However, he did offer some suggestions as to how we could change the ad and make it more acceptable. In spite of the tremendous amount of respect we have for his honesty and integrity we feel that our ads should be written by an Atheist, rather than someone with a religious orientation. We therefor (sic) refused his kindly offer of help.

Our complaint is not that Mr. Miller wants the ads in his newspaper to be in line with his concept of "good taste." We object to the fact that the Christians are not subject to the same criticism. They are allowed complete freedom of expression as long as they adhere to the Scriptures. Mr. Miller explained some facts to us about the existence (sic) and nonexistence (sic) of minority rights, which unfortunately he has forbidden us to quote.

In justification of his refusal to print our ad Mr. Miller quoted a Massachusetts Common Law decision from 1838. Since this decision against freedom of speech has never been used in California within this century, we wonder why Mr. Miller brought it up at this time. It is obvious that he was groping for an excuse, since a conviction under this law would be impossible.

We demand only equality in treatment. We demand the rights guaranteed us by the Constitution of the United States.

Ad Adviser's Reply:

Despite the effort of the above writers to claim their rights of free speech are being thwarted, the basic question involved is whether a publication has, and should exercise, the right to decline to accept advertisements which violate the law. Both letters to the editor and advertisements can be libelous. This explains why the ad copy was deleted from the preceding letter.

My objection to the ad was not based on standards, such as "offensive and dishonest" or "good taste." (I should note also that the introduction of statements, such as "someone with a religious orientation," "his newspaper," and "the existence and non-existence of minority rights," are examples of prejudicial writing.)

Two statements should be corrected. The religious ads which have appeared in the Spartan Daily during the semester have been read and changes made in them from time to time. The definition of blasphemy was not quoted from a Massachusetts Common Law decision rendered in 1938, but was from John Bouvier's Law Dictionary.

The basis for a publication's right to decline any advertisement is determined by the principle of law that purchasers of space and publishers are both liable for defamatory statements.

In my opinion, the copy submitted could be construed as blasphemous. "Blasphemy in a legal sense means words spoken or written which express a contempt for God or for things held sacred by mankind. In a broad sense, blasphemy may mean any irreverent declaration or profanity." (Thayer, Frank, "Legal Control of the Press," 4th edition, The Foundation Press, Inc., 1962, p. 364.)

Thayer also cites the following definition of blasphemy by John Bouvier: "To attribute to God that which is contrary to his nature, and does not belong to him, and to deny what does."

The students who objected to my interpretation of their ad were offered two alternates. They were asked to obtain a contrary opinion from someone who is knowledgeable about the law of criminal libel or to rewrite their ad to conform to the following standard: "Blasphemy does not mean that there cannot be a serious and honest criticism of Christian religion or of God, Jesus Christ, or the Virgin Mary, or that there cannot be a comparison of the ethics or values of different religious beliefs." (Thayer, ibid.) The students did not avail themselves of either possibility, but wrote a letter to Thrust and Parry.

The fact that this letter, in addition to six other letters supporting their point of view, have been published in Thrust and Parry since Nov. 10 indicate their freedom of speech has not been thwarted. On Nov. 4 and Dec. 2, advertisements for the Contemporary Atheists on Campus were published.

The advertising columns of the Spartan Daily have been, and are, open to the letter writers, if they conform to the above standards. Our statement of Nov. 9 regarding press freedom is in effect. Our actions, for which we were congratulated by members of this group on Nov. 10, contradict the implication of today's letter.

SJS Cagers Test Idaho Here Tonight

More height will confront Coach Stu Inman's Spartans tonight when the Idaho Vandals move in for an 8 o'clock encounter in Spartan Gym.

Idaho, in its first game, defeated Washington State surprisingly easy, 76-54, last Tuesday night.

They also played weekend games against Nevada and Santa Barbara.

The Vandals have a group of sophomores up from last year's freshman team and some good jaycee transfers who are going to hold their cause this year, ac-ording to an Idaho scout who watched the Spartans play Stanford last Thursday.

The visitors are out to improve their 7-19 record from last year with more speed and rebounding power, stresses head coach Jim Goddard.

SJS will have to contend with height against the likes of Tom Moreland, 6-7, Dave Schotthauer, 6-6, Church Hepworth, 6-6, Ed Tollefson, 6-5, and Chuck Kozak, 6-4.

The shorter Spartans didn't let Stanford's height scare them in Thursday's 61-59 loss. Both teams came down with 38 rebounds.

A preliminary game between the Cal State (Hayward) JV's and the SJS Frosh will begin at 6.

The Spartababes will be after their first win—SJS' JV's and Stanford's Frosh hold wins over them.

SAE Captures 'Little 500' Race Victory

Pulling away with 12 laps remaining, Sigma Alpha Epsilon won the grueling 200-lap "Little 500" bicycle race Saturday on the south campus track.

It was SAE's second straight win in the third annual 50-mile marathon, sponsored, by Allen Hall.

Desimone's Bike Shop finished second, a half lap behind, followed by Hoover Hall in third place.

Only 10 of the 18 teams that qualified raced. Seven finished.

Most of the fraternity teams did not show up, including Theta Chi's Red Horde team, which set a record lap time in the qualifying trials.

A spectacular crackup on the 99th lap eliminated Allen Hall, in second place at the time, and Sigma Pi from the race. Lambda Chi Alpha was disqualified on the 60th lap.

SAE's winning time was 2:37:28 seconds, far off the mark it set in last year's victory.

Other teams finishing in order were: Phi Sigma Kappa, Blue Bombers, Moulder Hall and Beaver Patrol.

Cal Upset

Matmen Win Tourney

The San Jose State wrestling team, in its first major competition of the season, continued its dominance of the Northern California Wrestling Tournament, with its sixth victory in nine years, at the Spartan Gym Saturday.

The Spartans' winning total of 57 points was followed by Fresno State, 48; the University of California at Berkeley, 41; San Francisco State, 40; Cal at Davis, 39; Chico State, 34; Santa Clara, 5; and Cal Poly, 0.

First place winners for the SJS matmen were Loren Miller, 147-pounds; Carl Dommeyer, 157, and Roy Kasumoto, 115. Ted Kaphengst, 130, and Art Beatty, 137, captured second places, and Dave Cole, 191, was third.

No score was kept in the freshman-division, but the Spartababes captured nine places, and certainly would have been among the leaders.

Spartababe winners were Vaughn Imada, 115; Walt Armijo, 123; and Gabe Gregory, 191. Steve Murphy, 137, John Walbrink, 147, and Dick Nixon, all obtained third places. Don Van Tuyl, 130, was fourth.

Spartan Coach Hugh Mumby, who was elated over his team's "surprise victory," was also pleased that an abundance of teams scored well. "We had seven teams that scored well in this meet," said Mumby, "whereas in past years, we usually had only three."

"Although I thought we were capable of winning the tournament," said Mumby, "I had not expected such a large margin of victory. Carl Dommeyer's victory was a pleasant surprise, and an inspiration for the entire team."

Weigh-ins Tomorrow For Wrestling

Weigh-ins will be held tomorrow for the intramural wrestling tourney which begins Wednesday. Director of Intramurals Dr. Dan Unruh urges all those interested to turn in entry forms to MG121. Intramural basketball teams can reserve the gym for practice at night, according to Unruh.

Two Groups To Sponsor Film

Markham Hall's Cultural Committee and the Young Americans for Freedom (YAF) will present the controversial film "Operation Abolition" tomorrow night at 7:30 in the Markham Hall recreation room.

"Operation Abolition" is the story of the riots in San Francisco at the House Committee on Un-American Activities in 1960.

Due to the controversial nature of this documentary, a debate will follow. Tom Schmidt will head the opposition while Jack Cox, regional head of the YAF, will defend the FBI production.

Life-Changing Power

Why study the Bible? Isn't this ancient book a bit out of date for the twentieth century collegian? Not so, is the unanimous testimony of countless men and women whose lives have been changed by the Bible and who have found the answers for every human problem in this Book of Books. Those who read the Word of God with receptive minds tap hidden sources of power and secret springs of life.

It is particularly rewarding to spend time in the New Testament letter which the Apostle Paul wrote to the early Christian church at Rome. This great book has always challenged men's lives and has turned the course of history more than once. The serious and seeking student of these Scriptures will soon see how these lines can actually change and transform his life and reveal the Living One Who moved and controlled the Apostle to set down the very words and thoughts recorded therein. To those who seek to know God, the pages of the Book of Romans are liberating and life-changing beyond measure. Centuries have not dimmed the Light and Power which stands behind these pages to reveal what life is all about to those who really want to know. Consider with us what God has to say in this timeless message to the ages of history and to the world of today:

"Dear friends in Rome, This letter is from Paul, Jesus Christ's slave, chosen to be a missionary, and sent to preach God's Good News. This Good News was promised long ago by God's prophets in the Old Testament: It is the Good News about His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, Who came as a human baby; for He was born into King David's royal family line; and by rising from the dead He proved Himself to be the mighty Son of God, with the holy nature of God Himself.

"And now through Christ, all the kindness of God has been poured out upon us undeserving sinners, and now He is sending us out around the world to tell all people everywhere the great things God has done for them, so that they, too, will believe and obey Him. And you, dear friends in Rome, are among those He dearly loves; you, too, are invited to be His very own, yes His holy people. May all God's mercies and peace be yours from God our Father and from Jesus Christ our Lord . . .

"I am not ashamed of the Good News about Christ. It is God's powerful method of bringing all who believe it to heaven. This message was preached first to the Jews alone, but now everyone is invited to come to God in this same way. This Good News tells us that God makes us ready for heaven — good in His eyes — when we put our faith and trust in Christ to save us. And the more we trust Him the more clearly we can see that He has taken away our sins and filled us with His goodness. As the Old Testament says it, the man who finds life will find it through trusting God." (Romans 1:1-7, 16-17 Living Letters Translation).

This Good News about a God Who cares about you is freely offered today to all who will receive it. Follow with us for the next several days as we look at the Book of Romans together. We'll send you a Bible if you ask us for one, and your questions are always welcome.
