Speaker To Predict Republican Future

"The 1964 Elections and the Future of the Two-Party System" will be discussed by Dr. Seymour Martin Lipset, Director of the Institute of International Studies for the University of California, this morning at 10:30 in Concert Hall.

Dr. Lipset will explain some background factors which affected the November 1964 election and will attempt to predict the future of the Republican Party.

Author of 88 magazine articles on various topics ranging from attacking right of center social reform movements to discussing sociology, Dr. Lipset has been publishing articles since 1947. He has authored three books and co-authored three others since 1959.

He graduated with a B.S. degree from the City College of New York in 1943 and attended Columbia University from 1944-45, was a political economy lecturer at the University of Toronto from 1946-48, and received his Ph.D. from Columbia in 1949.

He has taught at universities in Salzburg, Austria; Free Berlin, Germany; and Warsaw, Poland. In this country he has held positions at Columbia, Yale, and the University of California.

Dr. Lipset has received the following awards: Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences; the 1962 MacIver Award of the American Sociological Association; honorary membership in the Institute of Political Studies, Madrid, Spain; two Ford Foundation awards in 1956 and 1957 for support of "awardee's basic research"; and a 1964 award from the Carnegie Corporation for support of "basic research."

Trip Crisis Averted as ASB Assured of Reimbursement

Bill Clark, sophomore representative, attended last week's executive conference of a national student government group when Bob Pisano, ASB president, relaxed his opposition to the Kentucky trip.

Clark flew to the Lexington conference of ASGA (Associated Student Governments of America) on Dec. 27. He is director of the group's Western region.

Approval of Clark's trip was given by Pisano when the chief executive received assurances from ASGA that the $325 cost of the trip would be reimbursed.

Pisano's original objection to the Student Council-approved trip was its cost. He told council he didn't feel justified in approving the cost of the trip.

The possibility of a Pisano veto hung over council after it approved the money for the trip Dec. 17.

Had Pisano vetoed council action, Clark would not have gone to the meeting, since council would not meet during the Christmas holidays to consider the veto.

Council had decided to send Clark to Lexington despite Pisano's objections because it felt that, once joining the group, it should fully support it.

The national organization was joined by SJS in November and two representatives were sent to the initial convention at the University of Oklahoma.

Pisano said yesterday that he received a telegram from ASGA prior to Clark's trip that the group would reimburse the ASB for the trip's cost.

Council will meet at 3 p.m. this afternoon and will hear reaction from Pisano and John Hendricks, ASB vice president, to President Robert D. Clark's Titchenal statement.

They are expected to leave any decision regarding future ASB action up to council. Both Pisano and Hendricks favor the immediate ouster of Titchenal and have expressed this desire to President Robert D. Clark.

New Attitude Permeates Cal Campus

By KIM ALLENDER

In the wake of a two-week holiday vacation and the appointment of a new chancellor, there is hope this week for a permanent peace on the battle-torn campus of the University of California, Berkeley.

As the new chancellor, Dr. Martin Meyerson, took charge, there appeared to be a willingness by both students and administration toward conciliation. Demonstrations on behalf of student "free speech," including a sit-in that resulted in 784 arrests, have disrupted the campus throughout most of the fall semester.

NEW ATTITUDE

The new attitude became apparent in a practical way Monday at a rally held by the Free Speech Movement (FSM). The rally, attended by approximately 3,000 persons, was held on the steps of Sproul Hall, the campus administration building.

Until this week, regulations prohibited the use of the steps for such rallies. One of the first acts of the new chancellor was to designate the steps as an "open discussion area."

FSM leaders no longer had to use portable loud speakers as they had at all previous rallies, but spoke instead into a booming public address system provided by the administration.

Mario Savio, 22-year-old philosophy student and chief spokesman for the FSM, told the rain-drenched crowd he was "hopeful" about the appointment of Dr. Meyerson to the post previously held by Dr. Edward Strong, who recently resigned for reasons of ill health.

UNDERSTANDS

"Apparently this chancellor understands the situation—where the previous one did not," Savio said.

Another leader of the FSM, Jack Weinberg, said, "I personally view the current situation with cautious optimism."

Savio emphasized that the FSM "would like to use power through channels instead of having to create our own channels."

Speaking of Dr. Meyerson at a news conference later, Savio said "the particular person is nowhere as important as the office of chancellor itself, and the administrative structure is autocratic."

Dr. Meyerson, 42, dean of the College of Environmental Design, was appointed chancellor Saturday. He immediately set up liberalized provisional rules and has said he hopes to have permanent rules established by the start of the spring semester next month.

The FSM says any resumption of demonstrations will depend on the nature of the rules.

'Titch' To Stay On as Coach Despite Mounting ASB Attack

By SCOTT MOORE

SJS football coach Bob Titchenal will retain his job next year despite a mounting ASB attack to have him dumped immediately. President Robert D. Clark decided yesterday afternoon that he wants Titchenal to remain as coach.

At the same time, the chief executive promised to review the coaching situation again next year. The text of President Clark's statement was released late yesterday afternoon. He specifically asked the entire coaching staff to remain at their posts.

ASB reaction to the President's decision is expected to come immediately. John Hendricks, ASB vice president, had planned to issue an official statement yesterday afternoon.

The ASB leader decided, however, to wait until Student Council meets this afternoon at 3 p.m. Pisano, ASB president, also will discuss the President's decision at that time.

Both Pisano and Hendricks had met with President Clark three times last week in an effort to have the controversial coach ousted by the end of the semester.

The ASB leaders now are discussing their future course of action, in light of the President's decision. These include a possible student vote on Titchenal.

END SPECULATION

The President's statement was designed to "end recent speculations" about Titchenal's future.

He regards the decision as final until next year and then "I shall review the matter again."

In his statement, President Clark declared that he expects Titchenal and the coaching staff to "take steps to improve the program at points where criticism has developed."

He explained that he does "find some basis for criticism," which "ought not to be minimized or condoned."

UNDISCIPLINED

Chief criticisms are that some team members have been "undisciplined in their personal conduct," he noted.

This activity, he declared, has resulted in criticisms reflecting "unfavorably on the college."

Secondly, he declared, there has been criticism of the lack of "vigor" shown by the coaching staff in recruiting its players.

The coaches have been criticized for being "less concerned with public relations," he said.

This criticism of team behavior,

"has been exaggerated," he maintained.

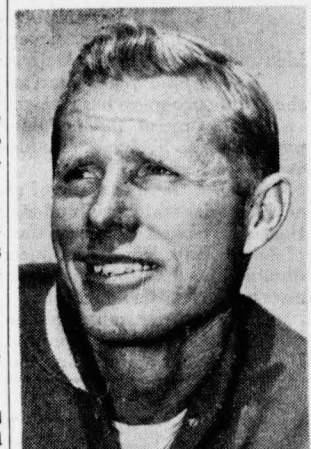

As for recruiting and public relations, he said, the coaching staff's small size and existing classroom obligations must "necessarily restrict these activities."

'MAXIMUM EFFORT'

"Despite our maximum resources," he concluded, "we ought

BOB TITCHENAL, SJS football coach, was hanged in effigy on Seventh Street yesterday with the sign, "Ditch Titch," attached to the figure. It is not known who was responsible for the prank.

COACH TITCHENAL ... retained to put forth a maximum effort, even beyond the call of duty, to recruit the best available athletes."

Both Coach Titchenal and Bob Bronzan, athletic director, "have pledged their full cooperation," of the President's outline, he indicated.

In presenting their position to President Clark, Pisano and Hendricks told him they had no desire to support a losing program each year with student funds.

This year's ASB support for the football program totals about $27,000.

DISMAL RECORD

Titchenal, they said, has a dismal 33-45-1 record, which has resulted in declining gate receipts, alumni and other outside financial support.

Furthermore, they indicated their belief that the student body as a whole does not currently support the controversial coach.

They expressed hope that the President would oust Titchenal by the end of the semester so that a new coach could be broken in.

Various ASB sources have indicated that Student Council would consider re-allocating the entire $30,000 anticipated football budget for next year to other areas if it feels strongly enough that the coach should go.

Students going to classes yesterday passed a soggy dummy that had been hanged in effigy from a tree on Seventh Street. A sign that blew off later in the day said "Ditch Titch." It is not known who was responsible for the prank.

Buddhist Choir To Sing Songs of Japan Tonight

Japanese folk songs and religious music will be featured in a program tonight at 8:15 in Concert Hall. The concert, free to the public, will be presented by the Buddhist Church Choir of San Jose.

Sponsoring the campus performance is Dr. Gerard Knieter, professor of music, and his class of "Music in World Cultures."

Mrs. Urui Hojo directs the 35-member choir. Wife of the Rev. Ejitsu Hojo, minister of the Buddhist Church, she is a graduate of the San Francisco Conservatory of Music.

Included in the program will be Japanese children's songs, folk songs from old Japan and Buddhist religious songs. A male quartet will be featured singing a selection of other Japanese folk songs.

Arranged for four voice parts, the music is authentic Japanese, much of which Mrs. Hojo brought to San Jose after visiting Japan.

The effect of cross-culture in the music is evidenced by the choir's work. Japanese texts and melodies are harmonized in a Western manner for soprano, alto, tenor and bass voices, yet the special Japanese character is prominent.

The Buddhist service music is that of the Jodo Shin denomination, largest Buddhist sect in the United States.

The printed program for the concert will contain the Japanese text and English translation for each song. A commentator will provide additional clarification of the music during the concert.

'The Far Field' Discussed Today

"The Far Field," by Theodore Roethke, will be discussed and criticized in today's book talk at 12:30 p.m. in Cafeteria A and B by Nils Peterson, assistant professor of English.

"I think Roethke was one of the major American poets and this book shows him at the height of his career," said Peterson.

"It is not an easy book to read, but a rewarding one," Peterson stated. The book contains love lyrics and metaphysical speculations,

Holiday Tragedies

Three Students Die in Traffic Mishaps

Two automobile accidents over the holidays claimed the lives of three SJS students and hospitalized a fourth student.

A head-on collision near Eugene, Ore., Dec. 20 killed J. William McCormack, 22, and Barbara A. Clark, 20, and hospitalized the third passenger, 22-year-old junior Terry Schutzen of Piedmont.

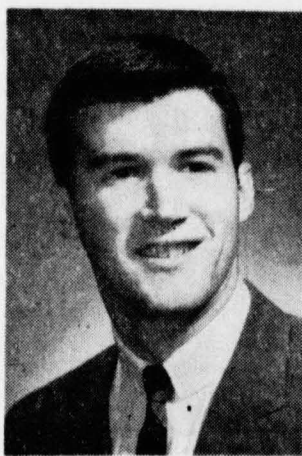

The three were headed for McCormack's home in Salem, Ore., when, according to police, their car skidded on an icy stretch of Highway 58, crossed the center line and smashed into a truck.

McCormack, a senior, was student editor of the alumni magazine, The Spartan, and Barbara A. Clark, a junior, was president of Delta Gamma sorority and Delta Sigma Phi "Dream Girl." She was pinned to Schutzen.

Schutzen, also a member of Delta Sigma Phi, returned to SJS Monday.

A third SJS student, Michael T.

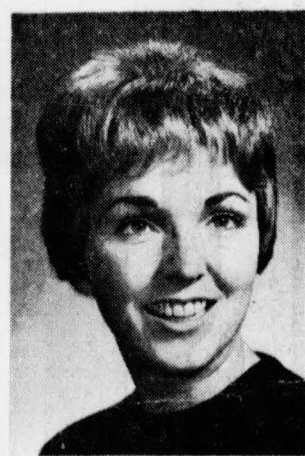

Rock, 22, a senior from Daly City, died Dec. 19 of injuries when his car went out of control and struck

The J. William McCormack Scholarship will be administered by the SJS Alumni Association and be used to assist future Spartan editors. Contributions may be made to the Alumni Association.

Establishment of the Barbara Clark Memorial Scholarship Fund was announced by Delta Gamma adviser Mrs. George Grasso.

World Wire

RAINS POSE FURTHER DANGER TO WEST

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Storm weary residents of the Far West watched warily yesterday as streams fed by continuing rain and snow inched higher.

Officials said there was no immediate danger of renewed flooding, but continued rain at high altitudes in the mountains could melt snow to drain into streams still swollen from the devastating Christmas floods.

The latest storm was being steered into Oregon and California by a high altitude jet stream, the Weather Bureau reported.

Forecaster Ray Crooks warned there might be minor flooding along the Russian River in Sonoma County.

He added that temperatures were cold enough in northern mountains to keep the snow pack from melting a dangerous rate.

SOVIETS PLEASED AT U.S. TRIP OFFER

MOSCOW (UPI)—Unofficial Soviet sources expressed gratification yesterday at President Johnson's hope that the Soviet leaders will visit the United States. But they were doubtful that a trip could be arranged this year.

The Russians also were pleased by Johnson's pledge in his State of the Union message that the United States would try to improve its trade relations with the Soviet Union, the sources said.

Does Titch's 8-Year Record Merit Retainment as Coach?

A statement issued by President Robert D. Clark yesterday was designed to end, at least for this year, the dispute over whether or not Bob Titchenal will retain his head coaching duties at SJS.

President Clark indicated that Titchenal would retain his coaching duties and that the matter will "be reviewed" again next year. (Story on page 1.)

The decision to retain Coach Titchenal, however, merely postpones the inevitable—possibly at the expense of the football program at SJS.

Titchenal has been head coach for eight years with a best season of 6 wins against 4 losses. His overall record of 33 wins, 45 losses and 1 tie indicate a predominance of losing campaigns.

While the coach gets one more chance to redeem himself (the last winning season was in 1961) students and alumni will continue to despair of ever seeing bigtime football at SJS.

Top prospects will continue to choose other schools because of "SJS" reputation.

Several leagues which now express a great interest in SJS will begin to lose interest as our football fortunes fail to improve.

Conjecture? Guesses? Uneducated opinion?

What assurances do we have that this is the way it will be? How do we know that the program will not improve? None. Except maybe the past eight years. —W.W.

Daily Faces the New Year With Lifted Face—New Logo

In 1956, students returning from Christmas vacation picked up the first issue of the Spartan Daily of the new year to be greeted by a brand new masthead.

Masthead, signature, nameplate, logo—all are terms for the identification of Spartan Daily on page one.

Today, nine years later and under similar circumstances, the Daily once more has received a face-lifting.

For many of the people associated with the Daily, the passing of the lively old masthead was something of a traumatic experience.

Indeed, there is a tug of sentiment when one recalls some of the stories which ran under the old masthead—the assassination of President Kennedy, the condemnation and final demise of Tower Hall. However, the consensus is that the graceful and dignified new masthead is, after all, attractive and definitely an asset to the Daily's appearance.

In this, the season of resolutions, may this be the symbol of continued dedication to improving the appearance of Spartan Daily as well as maintaining the quality of its content. —W.W.

THE GUEST ROOM

By RICHARD REEB
President, Young Republicans

During the 1964 Presidential campaign, President Lyndon B. Johnson never bothered to tell us what he meant by that ambiguous slogan, "The Great Society." Well, Monday he told us in his 3,900-word State of the Union message. It was no surprise. Johnson's Great Society is nothing more than a rehash of the New Deal, Fair Deal and the New Frontier (with a little bit of "modern Republicanism") all rolled up into one. He appealed to every conceivable interest group, to the vanity of the members of Congress, and to the generally trusting and tolerant nature of the American people. The "mixed economy" will become less mixed.

Dredged up out of the Rooseveltian program of the 1930s is the "war on poverty," that dandy little vote-getting gimmick of last year that LBJ intends to expand this year. A legacy of the Truman era that the President has adopted as a key feature of his program is that sacred cow, "price stability." Pres. Truman was more explicit; he called it price control. From the administration of LBJ's predecessor comes medicare, cabinet status for a department of urban affairs, federal aid to education, and standby authority to cut income taxes. From the Eisenhower Administration comes the foolish and dangerous proposal to invite the bosses of the Kremlin to visit the United States "so they can learn about this country at first hand." We went through this period of wishful thinking once before.

The President's Great Society represents a combination of basically three factors: humanitarianism, socialism and politics. Johnson's advisers, and many members of the Congress, are sincerely concerned about the plight of their fellow Americans. Why not use the vast public treasury to "end poverty," "stimulate economic growth" and "prevent depressions?" The second factor is the means by which the humanitarians accomplish their ends. Their impatience with and hidden contempt for capitalism inclines them to adopt some type of government intervention. The third factor is the well-oiled machinery that prolongs and perpetuates the mixed economy. Thus, by and large, the most successful politicians in the last 32 years have been the ones to wed themselves to the Democratic and Republican variants of government interventionism. The President clearly falls into the third category. There probably is no man in Washington today, nor has there ever been in the Twentieth Century, who is as skillful in the cynical manipulation of political power as Lyndon Baines Johnson. He has been a conservative, moderate, a liberal, an isolationist, one-worlder, an anti-Communist, an anti-anti-Communist—you name it, he's held to whatever position that would get him elected or re-elected. LBJ did not turn into a full-fledged card-carrying liberal last year because he had a change of heart or saw the light. This man has a wet finger in the wind.

Turning to foreign affairs, I'm afraid that even Lyndon must have felt a twinge of conscience when he uttered such gross inaccuracies as these: "In this period we have built a military power strong enough to meet any threat and destroy any adversary. And that superiority will continue to grow so long as this office is mine—and you sit on Capitol Hill." During the last four years we have scrapped the Skybolt, Nike Zeus, and RS-70 bomber, we cut back our first-strike missile capability, stopped nuclear testing, proposed to the United Nations that the United States and the rest of the world disarm, and even seriously discussed a "bomber bonfire." We won't be strong long.

Another gem: "In this period no new nation has become Communist, and the unity of the Communist empire has begun to crumble." Technically, that's true. But we tried awfully hard. We tried to crush anti-Communist Moise Tshombe of Katanga, forced Laos to accept a coalition government, looked askance when pro-Communist Sukarno of Indonesia grabbed East New Guinea, dumped the pro-Western regime of Ngo Dien Diem, bungled the Bay of Pigs operation, etc. Meanwhile the "crumbling" Communist world is involved in a family quarrel over how to liquidate the imperialists—meaning us. Forty years ago Joseph Stalin and Leon Trotsky had rather a nasty quarrel themselves, but they both agreed that we stink.

So, the direction of the Johnson Administration is clear; more of the same. And you asked for it.

Vantage Point

By EVELYN SALAZAR

AN ON-CAMPUS CONDUCT COMMITTEE at the University of California at Davis is circulating a petition charging that proper channels for solving the Berkeley dispute were not fully utilized.

The purpose of the group is to rebuild the public's image of the University of California. The blame for loss of face was placed both on the students and the administration.

NEO-KNOW-NOTHINGS recently picketed a booth set up by the Young Americans for Freedom (YAF) at Arizona State University. One member of the Neo-Know-Nothings was quoted as saying that intellectuals are a menace to America and are susceptible to communism and conspiracy. A member of the YAF said his group disagrees with the Neo-Know-Nothings, but the YAF's respect their right of expression and "considered it an honor to be picketed."

ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS and Associated Men Students at Indiana State University have formed conduct committees. If any coed is insulted by a man's vulgar remarks she can report him to the committee. Women are reported to the committee for any public display of affection such as kissing.

BOB STOLL, SPORTS WRITER for El Gaucho, the student paper at the University of California at Santa Barbara, had a few words to say about sportsmanship.

"Here it was Missouri 69, Santa Barbara 66 with nine seconds to go, and people started filing out so they could beat the traffic. I'd say a conservative estimate would be that one fifth of the student body got up and left.

"Gary Gaskil was so tired after the game he didn't know if he could drive home . . . In short the Santa Barbara quintet put out 100 per cent.

"The least we could do is stick it out to the end and sing the alma mater. I guess if you aren't a winner you're a loser . . . I just don't think it should be that way, though."

State Scholarship Deadline Today

Deadline date for the filing of applications of the 1965-66 California State Scholarships is midnight, Friday, according to Donald R. Ryan, assistant to the dean of students.

Application forms are available at the Dean of Students Office, Adm. 269.

Under the scholarship program, the maximum award of state scholarships at independent colleges is $1500 per year. The actual amount is determined by formula and by the student's need of financial assistance.

The award at the University of California is approximately $250 per year and at the state colleges will be about $100 per year, said Ryan.

Santa Clara Surprises USF in WCAC Tourney

Inexperienced Santa Clara University thrust itself into the West Coast Athletic Conference title picture last Wednesday by knocking off fourth ranked USF 73-71 to win the sixth annual WCAC Christmas basketball tournament at Civic Auditorium.

San Jose State, last year's winner, fought back from a 55-51 deficit with two minutes remaining to edge University of Pacific's Tigers 56-55 on S. T. Saffold's free throw to cop third place.

The Broncos, winless in six games before the tourney, sent Pete Pelleta's Dons down to their first defeat when reserve center Rich Levitt connected on a reverse layup with 47 seconds to play.

USF made a belated attempt to tie the score when Russ Gumina fired a pass to towering Ollie Johnson with two seconds to play.

USF Cagers Top Spartans

Coach Stu Inman's Spartan cagers gave USF a scare in the second round of the West Coast Athletic Conference Tournament on Dec. 27 before losing to the Dons, 70-67, at San Jose Civic Auditorium.

The two teams met in the championship bracket after winning tourney opening night affairs on Dec. 26.

USF started fast and held a 16-8 lead eight minutes into the contest. It looked as though the Dons were going to repeat their massacre of the night before, when they drowned the Waves of Pepperdine, 103-64.

At this point, however, SJS began pecking away at the Dons' lead and reduced it to a single point by halftime, 30-29.

The Spartans opened the second half scoring with two field goals by S. T. Saffold and Pete Newell. USF came back to tie the score, 35-35, following a short-lived SJS lead. But from this point on, the game was a seesaw battle.

The contest was tied five times and the lead changed hands on seven occasions.

The Spartans finished the night with 24 field goals to USF's 20. Saffold led SJS scorers with 18 while Joe Ellis hit 17 for the winners.

SJS center John Carmichael was lost on fouls while guarding Johnson. Frank Tarrantis, while substituting for Carmichael, fouled Johnson four times.

In the other championship bracket match, UOP lost playmaker guard Art Gilbert and center Keith Swagerty on fouls which helped Santa Clara win the contest, 75-71, and advance into the finals.

UOP led at half, 75-71.

Pacific Neighbors Exchange Student Forms Available

Application forms for exchange students to Okayama, Japan, sister city of San Jose, still may be obtained at the Foreign Language Department Office, N2A by 5 p.m. today.

The form, however, must be returned to the office by Friday. The exchange student program, according to Miss Harbor, is sponsored by the Pacific Neighbors Corporation to promote mutual friendship between the two sister cities of the Pacific coasts.

Students applying for the program are not required to meet language or academic requirements so long as they are coming back to the San Jose area and talk about their experiences in Japan.

Students are given opportunities to take the courses they wish at the University of Okayama and classes in Japanese culture. They will also have chances to travel around Japan as guests of the mayor of Okayama city, said Harbor.

Over 400 volunteers are already at work teaching in secondary schools, with some teaching in universities and working in health projects.

The Peace Corps program in Ethiopia is the second largest in Africa and fourth largest in the world.

The present group of volunteers will teach junior and senior high school classes. Subjects include English, science, mathematics, geography, history, physical education, art, home economics, teacher training, shop, mechanics and vocational agriculture.

Volunteers in Ethiopia participate in a wide range of extra-curricular activities, including music groups, adult evening classes, school newspapers and sports.

The group trained for 12 weeks at the University of California at Los Angeles.

The volunteers studied the language, history and customs of Ethiopia and were reinforced in American history and world affairs.

God's Message to Jews Today (Paid Advertisement) We sometimes forget that the Apostle Paul was a Jew as was Jesus Christ. Raised and educated in the finest Jewish tradition Paul was an outstanding scholar and theologian of his day. But for many years he was dead wrong about Jesus Christ, as his own testimony bears record (Philippians 3:5-14). It was on the road to Damascus (Acts 9) that a meeting with the resurrected Lord Jesus changed his entire life. As a result he became a great apostle of Jesus Christ, entrusted with God's message to the non-Jewish world.

Olds 442 was here! Whoosh! What you almost saw above was the wooliest number in years: Oldsmobile's 4-4-2. Sporting (and standard) equipment includes a 400-cu.-in. 345-hp V-8 mill backed with 4-barrel carb and acoustically tuned, chambered twin pipes. And "sticky" red-line tires. And front and rear stabilizers, heavy-duty frame, springs and shocks that make lean and sway mere memories. Three transmission availabilities, too, including 3-speed synchromesh, 4-on-the-floor and Jetaway automatic. Better hurry over to your Olds Dealer's. The 4-4-2 is a restless beast! (And it's the lowest priced high-performance car in America!)
